

Hardboiled and Beautiful

Thanks so much
for having me!
All best,
Megan

Megan Abbott cut her teeth shelving books at the Woods Branch Library, but left Grosse Pointe to find fame and fortune in the Big Apple. She has taught literature, writing and film at New York University and the State University of New York and published a nonfiction book on film noir. Her novel Die A Little is a 2006 Edgar nominee for the Best First Novel. The noir crime story set in Los Angeles in the 1950s has a feminine twist and great period details.

Megan will speak at the Ewald Branch on Thursday, March 23 at 7:30 p.m. It should be an exciting evening, but you need to sign up now by stopping by the Central Library circ desk or calling 343-2074 ext. 220.
