Cottage Hospital Is Paying Its Way; Work Praised by Officials

The Detroit Community Fund has always encouraged its agencies to become self-supporting as far as possible, whenever the nature of the services given and the clientele served will permit. One agency that has succeeded notably is the Cottage Hospital of Grosse Pointe, little known to many of our contributors.

A Modest Beginning
Sponsored originally by the Mutual Aid and Neighborhood Club, it came into existence during the influenza epidemic of 1918-1919, to meet an emergency. The need for such an institution was so thoroughly demonstrated that it was continued as a maternity hospital, and later an emergency unit was added. It is now firmly established as a general community hospital, operating to capacity most of the time.

The first hospital was a small frame building at 52 Oak Street, made possible by various gifts of land and money. Baroness Von Kettler, Mrs. John S. Newberry, Mrs. Benjamin S. Warren and Miss Jessie Hendrie were among those taking an active part in its organization. There were 21 beds, including bassinets for infants. The operating deficit was made up by the trustees.

In 1920 Cottage Hospital became a member of the Community Union and received a budget of $6,978 from the Community Fund, which was increased to $11,858 the following year. But as the hospital grew in usefulness it became more and more self-supporting. Last year, with gross expenditures of more than $80,000, the fund was called upon to meet a deficit of only $2,410. On November 1, 1929, Mrs. Murray W. Sales as president. On November 5, the same year, it moved into its present modern plant on Kercheval avenue at Mapleton, representing a total investment of $700,000, all contributed by residents of Grosse Pointe. The site was donated by the late Burns Henry, while contributions from the estates of Mr. and Mrs. Philip H. McMillan formed the nucleus of the building fund. The children's wing was built in its entirety by Mr. and Mrs. Murray W. Sales as a memorial to their children. A nurses' home, completed more recently, was the gift of Mrs. John S. Newberry, and was furnished by Mrs. E. L. Ford.

Fund Supports Free Bed
The new hospital has 63 beds, including bassinets. Its equipment includes a complete X-ray department and laboratory. The cubicle plan is used in the wards, insuring ward patients greater privacy. Last year it cared for 1,734 patients, of whom 354 were babies born in the hospital. With a minimum charge of $3 for ward beds and $8 to $16 for private rooms, the hospital has been able to pay its way. This year the Community Fund has appropriated $2,500 for a free bed to accommodate needy patients of the neighborhood.

Girl Reserves Model

The latest in evening gowns and spring ensembles were displayed by ten models from the Girl Reserves in the auditorium of the Grosse Pointe High school yesterday.

The clothes for this fashion show, sponsored by the Girl Reserves, were furnished by the J. L. Hudson Co.

SCHOOL ENROLLMENT SHOWS GAIN; MOST AT HIGH AND MASON SCHOOLS

Three hundred and thirty-four more pupils were enrolled in the Grosse Pointe public schools in March, 1930, than in March 1929, according to a summary made for the Board of Education, by the department of child accounting.

The statistical enrollment shows the greatest gain is in the Grosse Pointe High School and in the Stevens T. Mason school. The gain in the High school is 19.2 per cent and in the Mason school, 38.6 per cent. According to the report, 2928 students are now enrolled as compared with 2594 a year ago. This is a gain of 12.9 per cent for the whole school system.

Enrollment in 1930 by schools, together with the gain or loss in per cent and the enrollment for last year, is:

Neighborhood Club Activities

ACHILLES DIANA

The Class B Basketball Tournament opened Monday with the following six teams entered: St. Ambrose Wildcats, Universal Athletic Club, Grosse Pointe Athletic Club, Eastminister, St. Ambrose Basketballers, Chenevix. These games are played in the gymnasium of the Neighborhood Club on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at 7 p. m., two games being played each evening. Each of the competing teams has been well trained, and the players are giving a good account of themselves. Come out and boost your favorite team!

A preliminary try-out to determine the entrants in the Inter-Settlement Roller Skating Race will be held at the Neighborhood Club on April 19th, at 1 p. m. The tournament is open to all boys up to and including fourteen years of age.

Spring is really here if one is to judge by the number of dances scheduled by the various organizations of the Neighborhood Club. Beginning April 26th, four of these dances will be held in close succession.

Grosse Pointe's first Annual Kite Day will be held at the Neighborhood Club on Thursday, April 24th, at 3 p. m. The junior boys have made great preparations for this event and it promises to be an exciting affair. Some 13 kites are already completed and more will be entered this week. Prizes will be awarded for altitude, workmanship, and originality. All are cordially invited to come out and see these activities.

Again we remind you that the Jolly Pals are taking over the Monticello Ballroom for their dance on Wednesday, April 23.

The annual Inter-Settlement Roller Skating Race will be held on Saturday, April 26th, at the Neighborhood Club. Further details will be given later.

Plans are now being made for the next Musical to be held at the Neighborhood Club. These programs are held once each month, one of the various clubs serving tea after the program.

The first outdoor examinations for District of the Boy Scouts of America were held on April 8th at the Neighborhood Club grounds. Seven boys passed the following tests toward their second class badges: pacing, fire building, cooking. Three boys passed the cooking test toward their first class badges. There was a very good turnout considering this was our very first outdoor examination. They will, however, be held once a month hereafter, dates to be announced later.

V. V. V. SPRING DANCE

Don't miss the Tenth Annual Spring Dance to be given by the V. V. V. Girls at the Neighborhood Club on Saturday, April 26th. The Michigan dancers will furnish the music and judging by the plans in progress, everyone is assured of a good time. Tickets are being sold by all members and may also be procured at the Neighborhood Club.

The Fifth Annual Playground Baseball League of the Neighborhood Club will begin work in about two weeks. All the old teams are invited to re-register, also any new teams desiring to enter. Last year, there were six excellent teams in the league and a number of good, snappy games were played. Let's make it even better this year so we can beat Kercheval's players.

The Junior Handcraft girls have been striving for honors in attendance, each honor girl being given an attractive handmade puzzle. Rebrary honor (Continued on Page Two)

HUDSON IS PLAYED IN EDITORIAL

Grant M. Hudson, representative of the Sixth district, which includes Grosse Pointe, in the United States House of Representatives, was caustically criticized in a scathing editorial published recently in the MICHIGAN STATE DIGEST, Lansing, an unbiased portrayal of state affairs and politics. The complete editorial is printed below for the consideration of Representative Hudson's constituents in Grosse Pointe. An answer to this attack is welcome.

"For the first time in his congressional history Grant M. Hudson has serious opposition. Whether it will be stern enough to send the Anti-Saloon League's prize exhibit in the halls of congress to the place where lame ducks quack remains to be seen. But Done Dry Hudson is going to know he has been somewhere, when the September primary is over.

"State Senator Seymour Person, famed as the attorney for Etta Mae Miller in her liquor-lifter case, fearless enough to oppose the administration whip in the senate when Governor Green shoved through the code requiring life terms for four liquor offenses, respected member of the Lansing bar and a life-long resident of the sixth district, will seek to wrest the Republican nomination from Hudson.

"Person's most valuable asset, the Anti-Saloon League, is being played in the hands of his opponents.

facturers, the farmers or a wet organization. "The people of the sixth and every other district want and need representation in Washington for themselves. They do not want to exercise their franchise, pay their taxes and support a congressman who is in the employ of the Anti-Saloon League or any other organization.

"Person has no entangling affiliations. He may vote his mind and that of his constituents as freely and as fearlessly as does Senator James Couzens. If it should develop that modification is needed to reduce crime, or that tariffs are needed to protect Michigan enterprises, Person can cast his ballot for what is best for the most people, without asking the heads of an organized group.

"Person patently asks what Hudson has ever done for his district or state. The answer is that the sole piece of legislation which is prominent in the public mind as a Hudson child is a recent proposal that motion pictures be censored to eliminate scenes of gambling, drinking, gun play, bare legs—table or otherwise—feminine shoulder blades, pajamas of both sexes, cigarettes, snuff boxes, and bathing beauties.

"For six years in congress, at $10,000 a year, it does not appear that a proposed censorship bill which has given the district a hearty laugh, is much of an accomplishment.

"As a matter of fact Hudson did one thing. He voted right on automobile taxation—but that was a move so apparent that any congressman from an automobile producing state like Michigan couldn't go wrong, and couldn't even refuse to sponsor measures wanted by the industry. It perhaps was a good thing the Anti-Saloon League at that time didn't discover that automobiles were being used for the illegal transportation of liquor.

Charlie Dupont, Tom McGilligan and Bill Ludwig will do their stuff Thursday, April 17th, at the regular luncheon meeting at the Hannan Y. M. C. A. Don't miss this. Charley told me the thing was getting on his nerves. Amos, in preparing to address the Mystic Knights of the Sea had nothing on me. Charley complained to me. But, you know Charley is a modest feller, and he may fool us. Anyhow, be there. If you don't, well, 'twill be just too bad.

Don't forget that the meeting of May 15th will be devoted to nominations for officers and directors for the coming year. A list of the present officers and a list of members showing their attendance average for the first three months of 1930 is completed. Not only our officers, but also the members of some of your committees, have done splendid work this year, and in order to not only duplicate, but to try and excel this work next year, judgment and foresight in the election of your officers for the coming year is imperative.

Humor "Pans" Golden Bear State in History and Gives Florida Chance to Laugh

Californians have been holding their sides laughing over Will Cressy's description of Florida—"chin whiskers of the United States, 600 miles long, 200 miles wide, and three feet high, etc."

Now the tables are turned and Will has hit off the amusing characteristics of the Golden Bear State in his "History of California." Among his comments are:

"The first discovery of California has always been in doubt; some local historians claiming that the Garden of Eden was located in the western corner of Golden Gate Park, just back of the Monkey House. * * * California was discovered by the Spanish, settled by the Yankees, built by the Japanese, worked by the Chinese, fought for by the Irish, owned by the Jews, and run by the Native Sons. * * * There are twenty-six ways of pronouncing Los

Although it is never referred to by the natives, Los Angeles has a wonderful climate; you can melt, freeze, and drown in the same spot in the same day. They have but two kinds of weather—perfect and unusual. * * * Los Angeles is the center of the fruit raising industry. They claim to raise the finest fruits in the world. And then pass laws forbidding the entrance of fruit from anywhere else, thus proving their claim of having the best fruit in the state. Years ago I became attached to Los Angeles. I bought some lots there. And as the years have gone by the sheriff has added to these attachments. * * *

"And for years it has always been my dream to sometime settle down in my own little bungalow, on my own little ranch, and there in the golden sunlight and silvery moonlight, dream the hours away, seeing the visions of other times and other places. And where can one find more to arouse such visions than one can on a California ranch.

"You arise in the morning to the music of a Connecticut alarm clock. You button your Boston garters onto your Paris socks, your Baltimore suspenders onto your Detroit overalls, put on your Lynn shoes and Danbury hat, and you are up. You sit down to your Grand Rapids table, have your Hawaiian pineapple, your Cape Cod fish, your Aunt Jenna flap-jacks swimming in New Orleans molasses. You have a bit of Cincinnati ham, cooked in Chicago lard, on a Detroit stove, buring Wyoming coal.

GROSSE POINTE SOCIETY

By DOROTHY DEE

The stately Grosse Pointe Memorial church was the scene of the marriage on Saturday afternoon, at three o'clock, of Miss Constance Lay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barclay Lay, and Mr. Charles Blanchard Phelps, Jr., son of Mr. Charles Blanchard Phelps, Rev. Joseph A. Vance performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception in the home of the bride's parents on Washington road, Grosse Pointe.

The bridal party advanced to the altar through an aisle marked by cathedral tapers entwined with Easter lilies and garlands of greenery. At the chancel a wall of clipped cedars, ending with tall cedar trees and surmounted by cybodium fern, formed a background against which six clusters of cathedral tapers showered with Easter lilies stood out in relief, forming a lovely setting for the nuptials.

Miss Lay was gown in a Lanvin model of eggshell moire, fashioned on princess lines and having a long train extending from the waistline of the close-fitting bodice. She wore a full tulle veil, the cap of which was caught by clusters of orange blossoms and her flowers were a sheaf of calla lilies finished at the base by a spray of gardenias.

Miss Betsy Lay, who attended her sister as maid of honor, wore a Patou model of yellow chiffon, having short sleeves and a long, full skirt formed of tiers of ruffles. She wore a delphinium blue straw hat and carried a large nosegay of forget-me-nots, delphinium and daffodils.

The bridesmaids, Miss Cynthia and Miss Sybil Cram, of Bangor, Me., the bridesmaids, wore costumes identical to that of the honor maid and carried arm bouquets of yellow tulips and blue delphinium.

Mrs. Lay chose for her daughter's wedding, a crepe afternoon gown of the modish candlelight shade, trimmed with Alencon lace, with which she wore a shoulder bouquet of orchids.

Mr. William Henry Reginald Jarvis, of Toronto, served as best man and the guests were ushered to their places by Mr. William Reeve Clark, Mr. Robert Hanaford Thomas, Mr. Robert Jeffers Lay, and Mr. Charles K. Crawford Martin, of Toronto.

The bridal party received in the solarium of the Lays' home before a curtain of greens flanked by tall silver vases filled with Easter lilies. About the rooms were vases of spring flowers in many hues. The bride's table, which was covered by a lace cloth, was embellished by a bouquet of white sweet peas, baby's breath and spray orchids, lighted by ivory tapers.

Mr. and Mrs. Phelps took their departure for a wedding trip to England, planning to be away until the first of June, when they will take up their residence in Detroit.

Among the out-of-town guests who came for the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goodhue Lay, of Greenwich, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. Walbridge Taft, of Glenhead, L. I.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barber Lay, Miss Anna Jeffers, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Schorer, of Kalamazoo, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Felix Wolff, of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome H. Remick were hosts to twelve guests at a luncheon at their Grosse Pointe home Sunday. An arrangement of spring flowers graced the luncheon table.

Mrs. Remick, Jr., returned Tuesday morning after several days in New York with her mother, Mrs. A. Ingersoll Lewis, and her brother, A. Ingersoll Lewis, Jr., who returned recently from South America. They will remain in New York until after Easter.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman H. Newberry will return home Saturday. They have (Continued on Page Four)

Boys and Girls of Senior Class in Row Over Caps and Gowns

The seniors of the Grosse Pointe High school will wear caps and gowns at the graduation this June, according to the latest vote that was held in the senior meeting last Friday. At the previous meeting the motion that the senior class wear gray caps and gowns was defeated. At the last meeting this vote was rescinded and after much discussion it was voted that the senior class should be graduated in caps and gowns.

The Blue Birds of the Neighborhood Club had a very exciting time Saturday morning when they held their Easter party. There were 39 Blue Birds present and the time was spent in playing Keno, prizes being awarded to ten different girls. Ice cream and cake was served and from the smiling faces, it was judged that a good time was had by all those who attended.

There are still a few gardens left at the Neighborhood Club to be assigned to girls who are interested in gardening. These gardens are judged according to design, neatness and care of plants. Ribbons are awarded each week and at the end of the allotted time, those girls having the most first, second and third place ribbons will receive cash prizes.

We are urging all those girls who are interested to enroll at once at the Neighborhood Club.

Another round of games in the ladies bridge tournament now in progress at the Neighborhood Club was played last Monday, when Mrs. Gertrude Stevenson held high score, with Mrs. J. P. Stuart in second place.

mule, hitch it onto a Moline plow, and plow up a couple of acres covered with Ohio mortgages. You plant Indian corn, Bermuda potatoes, Bavarian malt, Hungarian barley, and Italian hops. And then you sit up all night blending the malt, barley and hops into a camouflaged concoction to reduce the high cost of bootlegging.

"And then you go back to your little home under the orange trees and the mortgage, read a chapter out of the Bible written in London, England, say a prayer written in Jerusalem, wind up your Waterbury watch, put on your China silk pajamas, crawl in between your Fall River sheets, and fight all night with the fleas, (the only native product of your whole damn ranch.)"

"Person has many promises of support. Senator Peter B. Lennon, of Genesee county, a splendid organization in Flint, a strong group of judges and public leaders in Oakland county, many prominent business men and public officials in Macomb county, Polish leaders in Hamtramck and the leaders among those politically in power in Highland Park have pledged their support.

"The district is the largest in the nation. Besides the places mentioned it includes Livingston county, which county friends of Richard H. Scott, former president of the Anti-Saloon League, tried to line up for him for state senator and got turned down. That county, incidentally, is Person's birthplace.

"The eyes of the country will be focused on the sixth district fight, because Hudson has ridden into office year after year on a platform with only one plank—the bone dryness of Hudson. The outcome will be considered a test of the liberal and bone dry radical strength in Michigan.

"If the Literary Digest poll continues its present trend many a voter who heretofore has cast his ballot for bone dry Hudson, on general principles more than anything else, may begin thinking."

The annual district convention of Michigan Lions will be held at Kalamazoo on May 11, 12 and 13th. Your club is entitled to five voting delegates at this convention. The District Convention asks me to forward the names of our delegates to him at the earliest possible moment. May I suggest that our president be authorized to appoint the delegates to this convention? If you want to find out what a dent your Good Fellow Fund has made in Michigan Lionism, go to this convention.

The International convention in Denver, July 15 to 18, should also receive your consideration. Your Club is entitled to two delegates, and the Constitution of the International Association requires that you send at least one delegate. If any of the members desire a vacation trip this summer at a nominal expense, here is a chance. You will receive, within the next week or so, detailed information as to transportation and hotel costs and accommodations. Early arrangements should be made, however.

"Beau Bandit" on Oriental Screen

"Beau Bandit," the spectacular all-talking outdoor classic starring Rod La-Roque as a suave, romantic gentlemanly bandit, opens at the Oriental theater next Friday.

Rod La-Roque is ideally suited to the part and give one of the most remarkable performances of his career in this glorious story of the open plains. The picture was filmed outdoors almost in its entirety, giving a sweep and movement possible only with nature's own scenic sets.

The action of the picture takes place in the Mojave desert country of Arizona, and the exciting story of the old west is done in full dialogue and sound. Doris Kenyon plays the feminine lead and adds a new accomplishment in this film by singing the song hit, "Just a Little Kiss." Miss Kenyon's voice, trained by two year's concert work in the east during the past two years is said to be unusually fine.

The big stage show will be a new innovation of big time vaudeville varying from dance to music and art with a touch of gripping drama in the way of a unique sketch. The program will be presented in five colorful clever acts.

"Lost Zeppelin" Opens at Puch and Judy

"The Lost Zeppelin," a big special filled with romance interwoven with a story of an expedition to the Antarctic regions opens at the Puch and Judy theater Friday and Saturday, April 18 and 19. Heading a notable cast are Conway Tearle, Virginia Valli and Ricardo Cortez.

This all-talking picture, a Tiffany production, tells of Commander Hall, a noted explorer, who is planning to go to the South Pole in a huge Zeppelin. He selects Tom Armstrong, a naval officer, as his chief lieutenant. On the eve of the departure a banquet is given in Hall's honor. He leaves the affair early, preferring to spend the evening quietly at home with his charming wife, Miriam. Reaching his home he finds her in the arms of Armstrong.

Greta Garbo Stars in Hollywood Film

Greta Garbo's first talking picture, "Anna Christie," a reproduction of one of the most stirring stage plays, is the stellar offering on the Hollywood theater's new program, opening Sunday. The engagement is for four days only. This is Miss Garbo's first oral appearance since coming to America in 1925 and much interest has centered around it, much more so than any American star to appear in the talkies for the first time. "Anna Christie" is a sordid drama of the New York waterfront, with Miss Garbo enacting the title role, the heroine who comes back after many years for a visit with her father, a marine captain. The girl carries memories of an unsavory past and it rises to all but ruin a beautiful romance that enters her life. Charles Bickford, George F. Marion and that screamingly funny feminine clown, Marie Dressler, all have important roles in the picture. "A Continental Revue," an elaborate musical comedy revue, staged by Elizabeth Morgan and company, features the R-K-O stage offerings. Don Donaldson, Al and Jack Edwards and Larry Raymond are some of the entertainers in this funfest of song, dance and novelty. Kane and Ellis in a comedy skit, "A Sont, a Laugh and a Song" and Gaudsmith Brothers in "Get Up," comedy-acrobatic act par excellence are other acts. The Hollywood Merry-makers will be in their places with popular dance music and innovations in orchestral work and Bob Clarke will be at the organ. Short screen subjects include a Fable cartoon, "Good Old School Days," and the sound news reel.

Friday and Saturday the Hollywood theater will again give away Two Free Ford Coupes, one each night at 8:45 p. m. Twenty-one Ford Coupes, in all, have been given away at the Hollywood to date.

Geo. Bancroft at The United Artists

Audiences who go to the United Artists theater expecting to be thrilled are not being disappointed this week, for the mighty George Bancroft is there in "Ladies Love Brutes." He rages and thunders with his vigorous voice, he pummels and pounds with his fearsome fists and he laughs and roars with his whole powerful propensity for burly virility.

"Ladies Love Brutes" is the story of a building contractor who has risen from the ranks and who has amassed a fortune. He decides to become a force in the social life of New York so that he may make even greater successes in his role of the "Skyscraper King." Accordingly he has himself introduced to a beautiful young society matron. He falls in love with her when he learns that she is soon to divorce her erring husband.

"Ladies Love Brutes" is based on a successful stage play "Pardon My Glove" which was written by Zoc Akins, Waldemar Young and Herman J. Mankiewicz, who adapted the play for the talking screen, made an admirably fast-moving and exciting film production.

Rowland V. Lee, the director, here betters his fine mark made in "Dr. Fu Manchu" and "Wolf of Wall Street."

"Ladies of Leisure" at the Paramount

AT THE GROSSE POINTE PUBLIC LIBRARY

During the past month 263 new books have been added to the collection of the Grosse Pointe Public Library, bringing the total number of books up to 7,800.

The following is a selected list of some of the most interesting books received:

Baker, G. P. Hannibal. A readable biography of the greatest general of his day.

Cooper, V. I. Winjamming to Fiji. Two girls went to sea as midshipmen on an old sailing vessel. This book describes the two months voyage from Vancouver to New Caledonia.

Komroff, Marge. Coronet. In this story of the ascent and fall of the aristocracy through the ages, a coronet stands as a symbol of arrogance which brings misfortune to its owners.

Graves, Robert. Goodbye to all that. One of the younger English poets and "Slightly Scarlet" is the central figure in this drama of gangland intrigue. Miss Brent would all but walk away with the show if it were not that Radio Pictures have supplied an unusually capable supporting cast.

"Benson Murder Case" Stays at State Theater

"The Benson Murder Case," the third in the series of Paramount's all-talking Van Dine mysteries, with William Powell again creating the role of that master criminologist, Philo Vance is now in its second week at the State. Considered by many to be the most unusual of all Philo Vance stories, because of the presence of this famous amateur detective in the home of the murdered man at the time of the killing, "The Benson Murder Case" should prove even more popular with audiences than any of its predecessors. The reason for the murder too, is more obvious and logical than those of the other stories, but because of its very simplicity, remains just as difficult in solution as it is possible to imagine.

There is a certain fascination too, in the manner in which Vance sets about to solve the crime. His nonchalance and the manner in which he toys with clues is intriguing by itself. But when he acts, when the evidence is piled so high that he is absolutely sure of the solution, and you in your turn are as much in the dark as ever, dramatic intensity is built up to a pitch unparalleled in the conventional mystery picture. There is an undercurrent of inevitability, arousing audience interest in the very first sequence that never relaxes its hold until the final and impressive climax.

Untaught Rustic Youth

Rose to Fame as Poet

The first English poet whose name can be found in ancient archives is Caedmon, who lived in Northumbria, near the Streanhalch monastery. Streanhalch is now known as the town of Whitby. Caedmon is regarded more or less as a saint by the Anglo-Saxon church, although for the greater part of his life he lived a monk and died faithful to his vows on February 11, 680.

The legend of Caedmon's first inspiration to poetry is as follows: At a feast attended by Caedmon, then a raw country youth, the harpist applied to him for a song. Abashed at his inability to compose even a drinking song, Caedmon left the hall and fled to the hills, where he spent the night. In his slumbers, a song called "Creaton" came upon him, which he remembered and sang when he awoke and returned to his village.

The village bailiff, or reeve as he was then called, took the singing rustic to the Streanhalch monastery, where he was induced by the Abbess Hilda to take holy orders. He dwelt the rest of his life in the monastery composing many fine ecclesiastical poems and translating the Scriptures into the current Anglo-Saxon of the country of that time.—Vancouver Province.

Solitary in His Rank

There is only one "cornet" in the United States army. He is a member of the headquarters troop Fifty-second Cavalry brigade, Philadelphia. The reason for this one assignment is that the history of the regiment goes back to the Revolutionary war, and at that time this regiment had a cornet. According to the national defense act, the regiment may retain this privilege. The grade is between that of an enlisted man and an officer.

All for the Best

"The unfulfilled wish," said Hi Ho, the sage of Chinatown, "is a source of mild regret. Had it been realized, it might have led to positive sorrow; for who shall say he knows better than Eternal Wisdom what is best for mortals?"—Washington Star.

Installment Buying

The system of purchasing on the installment plan can be traced back to antiquity. Crassus, a contemporary of Julius Caesar, is said to have made a fortune by building houses outside of Rome and selling them on the installment plan. The present system is known to have existed a century ago.

Followed Columbus' Lead

Before the time of Columbus little had been done in the way of exploration during the preceding ages. When the news of discovery of the New world reached Europe, there followed such a stampede for exploration as the world has never known before or since.

Trout Lose "Wildness"

Trout kept in hatcheries until they are six or eight inches long lose their wild instincts, and so when planted in streams or lakes become easier prey to predatory fishes than young trout planted at a smaller size.

Special Carburetor Secret of Speed in Hupp Straight Eight

A great many people have searched for years to find a stream of water that runs up hill. Yet few motorists realize that in the average automobile that is exactly what happens to the gasoline before it reaches the carburetor and engine, according to Hupp mobile engineers.

"Since the announcement three months ago of the big 133 horsepower Hupp mobile straight eight, many inquiries have reached this manufacturer asking how its great power and speed of 90 miles an hour is obtained. Here is Hupp mobile's answer as relates to the mixing and distribution of fuel.

"The Hupp mobile Model 'H' engine uses a double downdraft carburetor because in engines of such great horsepower this type of carburetor is more efficient. Its use immeasurably increases the volumetric efficiency of the engine. In other words, this type of carburetor makes possible the filling of the combustion chambers with a greater amount of fuel than with the conventional updraft carburetor. The brake horsepower of this engine is increased from twelve to fifteen per cent because of the greater amount of fuel drawn into the engine on the intake stroke of the piston, and because of the increased intensity of the explosion and the greater amount of power developed per explosion.

"In the downdraft type of carburetor the gasoline flows downward with the aid of gravity instead of having to be pulled upward against gravity by the manifold suction of the conventional updraft carburetor. Everyone has had the experience of the windshield wiper slowing up on hills or during sudden acceleration. Yet this force that operates the windshield wiper is the same that pulls the gasoline upward to the carburetor and engine. In such cases, therefore, the efficiency of the engine is far from being fully utilized, unless special provisions are made for such cases, and the suction is greatly reduced with a 'starving' of the cylinders resulting because of the thin mixture. Thus conventional practice has often demanded a restriction of the conventional carburetor's throat below the normal 'breathing capacity' of the engine in order to obtain a higher pressure within the manifold.

"It is at this point that the double downdraft carburetor proves most efficient. Instead of having to pull the fuel upward against gravity with a low vacuum pressure the fuel is pulled downward into the carburetor and manifold aided by gravity, actually requiring a marked reduction in the intake vacuum necessary to fully fill the engine.

"Among the other features of the downdraft carburetion system on the Hupp mobile Models 'H' and 'U' is the double type carburetor, one section of which provides fuel for the four inner cylinders and the other for the two outer pairs. This insures an equal distribution of fuel to each of the eight cylinders. This carburetor also has an exclusive accelerating pump which provides an extra spurt of fuel direct to the carburetor when sudden acceleration is demanded. Also, the air taken into this type of carburetor is from 15 to 20 degrees cooler than that in the updraft type because the downdraft carburetor is on top of the engine where only cool, clean air is used. A fume is included on this carburetor for easy starting in cold weather. Electric current is supplied to the heating elements of the fume when the starter pedal is depressed. The heated elements vaporize the gasoline, making it more combustible—and important aid in quick and easy starting. As soon as the engine starts, this electric contact is broken and the fume ceases to operate.

33,479 Titles Filed With County Register of Deeds This Year

Record title changes in Wayne County real estate to the number of 33,479 were recorded in the office of Otto Stoll, county register of deeds, during the first quarter of 1930, ending March 31.

Comprised in the above total were 17,178 deeds, 13,543 mortgages and 2,758 miscellaneous documents, according to Stoll's reports. During January, there were 5813 deeds, 5010 mortgages, and 983 miscellaneous papers recorded. During February the totals were, respectively, 5515, 4078 and 828, and during March they were 5850, 4455, and 947. It will be noted that the number of deeds filed in March exceeded the totals for both January and February. Fees collected by Stoll during the three month period amounted to $40,084.72. There were also 7 plats of new subdivisions filed, 11 condemnation notices, and 35 redemptions of property by owners, from mortgage foreclosures.

"Cohens and Kellys" in 2nd Week at Adams

Charlie Murray has put in more than two score years in the theatrical profession—but no one would have guessed it who worked with him in "The Cohens and Kellys in Scotland." Universal's uproarious comedy now in its second week at the Adams Theater. Murray entered pictures in 1911. His beginning was sensational. He was blown up in a powder explosion that kept him in a hospital for seven months. In most businesses and professions long service is likely to produce a matter-of-fact and somewhat blasé attitude. Not so with the veterans of the stage and screen.

To make use of a hackneyed phrase, Murray was "the life of the party" on the set. No matter how long the hours or how tired the company, Murray would come through with some "wise crack" that would put everyone in good humor again. Murray's humor is not confined to his roles.

Greta Garbo Talks at Publix Riviera

Greta Garbo starring in her first all-talking picture "Anna Christie," is heard at the Publix Riviera theater this week. This picture marks her first oral appearance of any kind since coming to this country in 1925 as an unknown Swedish actress. She rose rapidly to stardom in silent pictures, scoring sensational successes in "Flesh and the Devil," "Love," "A Woman of Affairs," "The Sign of the Cross," "Wild Orchids," "The Kiss" and many others. The whole world has been waiting for her talking picture debut and her performance in "Anna Christie," her first all-talking picture, is undoubtedly her finest role.

Monk Watson and the jazz Serenaders, playing lively melodies and tunes, headline the special Publix stage show "Bunnyland." This Easter frolic of fun has many entertainers feature. Don Miller at the grande organ playing one of his novel singing solos, short talking subjects and Paramount sound news complete the program.

Seek $1,000,000 to Boost Detroit as Tourist Center

To build tourist and convention business far beyond present high levels, and to sell Detroit's industrial advantages to outside manufacturers, the Greater Detroit Committee, Inc., formed three years ago, has set out to raise a fund of $1,000,000 with which to advertise Detroit nationally in "key" cities. Preliminary plans are under way and the formal opening of the campaign will come April 28, lasting one week.

Tourists and convention visitors numbering more than 8,000,000 were attracted to Detroit in the last three years, bringing nearly $400,000,000 in money to pour into Detroit channels, according to Fred Wardell, president of the organization.

William Robert Wilson, head of the Reo Motor Car Company, is acting as general chairman of the campaign. Mr. Wardell is returning from the south to serve as chairman of preliminary subscriptions efforts, while Harvey J. Campbell, secretary of the Board of Commerce, is to lead the "sales army" in the final phase, ending May 2.

In 1929, a peak year nationally for tourists, it is reported that $148,000,000 was brought into Detroit. This amounted to an industrial payroll of $12,500,000 a month.

Michigan Wheat Crop Will Be Three Million Bushels Less in 1930

The condition of the Michigan wheat crop on April 1 was below both the ten-year average and that reported for the 1929 crop on the same date, according to the report released today from the office of the Michigan Co-operative Crop Reporting Service. Returns received from nearly five hundred farmers indicate a condition of 79 per cent. The acreage planted last fall is estimated at 868,000 acres. Allowing for average abandonment, there will be 836,000 acres left for harvest this year. On the basis of this acreage and the present condition of the crop, the probable production is now forecast at 13,500,000 bushels or three million bushels less than that of 1929.

The severe drought last year delayed planting and restricted growth so that the crop went into the winter with a condition reported at eight points below average. There was good snow cover throughout the winter until the latter half of February, after which time the ground was bare and considerable freezing and thawing occurred. Some damage has been reported from heaving, principally in the Saginaw Valley section. However, the probable abandonment is anticipated to be only normal in amount for the state as a whole.

The condition of rye in Michigan on April 1 was reported at 81 per cent. This is five points below that of the 1929 crop on the same date. The planted acreage is estimated at 185,000 acres.

The present condition of the wheat crop of the United States is 77.4 per cent. The acreage planted last fall was estimated at 43,690,000 on December 1. After making allowance for probable abandonment, the production forecast is crop of 559,300,000 bushels. If realized, this would mean a crop approximately twenty-eight million bushels smaller than that produced in 1929. The condition of the nation's rye crop is reported at 82 per cent. The acreage estimated planted last fall was 3,466,000.

Zane Grey Thriller at Michigan Theater

"The Light of Western Stars," the first Zane Grey novel to be dramatized to the talking screen by Paramount, will come to the Michigan theater for one week beginning Friday, April 18. Heading the cast of screen favorites who will be seen and heard in this romantic melodrama of frontier days are Richard Arlen, Mary Brian, Harry Green, Fred Kohler and Regis Toomey. This popular Zane Grey story as adapted to the talking screen abounds in lively fast-moving action in which two-fisted daring holds its own. And to top it off, these venturesome exciting sequences are delightfully blended with broad, full throated easy going humor that is a joy to listen to. And of course, as is the case with all western stories, there is a pleasing love story, which, interpreted by Mary Brian and Richard Arlen, is refreshingly gay and sincere and at all times thoroughly believable.

Fourteen seniors in Cast Chosen for Play "So This Is London"

Fourteen seniors have been chosen to play the lead roles in the senior play at the Grosse Pointe High school to be given later May. A double cast has been picked in as many cases as possible. Several parts have not been doubled due to difficulty in finding two people who could interpret the part correctly.

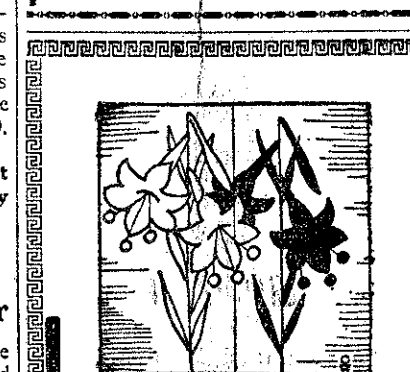

The chosen play has been produced in England as "How Very American" and in the United States as "So This Is London," its original title. The adventures of an American family in England and their associations with an English family who dislike Americans make up the plot of the story. The difficulties are finally ironed out by a woman who is being engineered the whole thing on the play proceeds to the usual happy ending.

"Anna Christie" on Bill at the Junch and Judy

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's screen adaptation of Eugene O'Neill's widely known drama, "Anna Christie," starring Greta Garbo in her first talking role, will be seen Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, April 22, 23 and 24 at the Junch and Judy theater. The picture, said to be the most distinguished of Clarence Brown's directorial efforts, was adapted from the original stage play by Frances Marion. The supporting cast contains Charles Bickford, George F. Marion, Marie Dressler in her first straight role, James T. Mack and Lee Phelps. The picture will represent Marion's third portrayal of the father role, the actor having played the original stage role with Pauline Lord, later again assuming the part in the silent picture made with Blanche Sweet.

The production has been particularly looked forward to because of general curiosity concerning Miss Garbo's voice and her reputed Swedish accent. It is said that Miss Garbo began work on the picture without a preliminary voice test, but having once started, broke all existing records for length of dialogue sequences. From all reports her voice is perfectly suited to microphone requirements.

The story of "Anna Christie" revolves about the regeneration of a Swedish girl who, brought up without care or guidance, chose a shameful career to escape the tyranny of life on a Minnesota farm. Several months spent with her father on an old sea barge and the love of an Irish sailor inspire her to a fresh start on life.

It is said the production has been filmed with close attention to authenticity of settings, the various scenes including reproductions of New York's waterfront, cobbled streets, horse-drawn vehicles, old saloons and a picturesque representation of Coney Island with its Eden Musee, side shows, concessions and other details.

Garbo's performance as Anna is declared to be the finest thing she has ever done, the tragic sincerity of the role being of the type to which the distinguished actress is particularly well suited.

As a play, "Anna Christie" ran for 177 performances on Broadway and continued for two solid seasons in the United States and in England. It is regarded as one of the best of O'Neill's works.
