Andrew T. Phillips Cites Ability to Be Drain Commissioner

Andrew T. Phillips, of Grosse Pointe, and candidate for County Drain commissioner at the primary election, Tuesday, in a statement early this week called attention to his qualifications for that office. He said:

"I have made a special study of sewerage and drain problems in general and particularly in Wayne county and am familiar with the history of all existing sewers and drains in the district.

"I have learned from my studies and examinations, the different problems that face the taxpayers of this community regarding sewerage and surface water drainage.

"From my experience and studies, I am certain that I am better qualified for the office of County Drain commissioner than any of the other candidates for that important position."

Harry S. Toy to War With Crime and Vice as New Prosecutor

When Harry S. Toy, candidate for the Republican nomination for prosecuting attorney of Wayne county received the endorsement of 16 of the 23 assistant prosecuting attorneys of the present staff, recently, he said:

"I am most happy to receive these endorsements. It is an expression of confidence from men who are thoroughly conversant with the extreme situation in regard to crime and vice with which we are faced in Detroit.

"An unsolicited expression of this kind from them is of more value and gives me more personal gratification than any similar endorsement I can think of. It will be a pleasant obligation to prove to them and to the citizens of Wayne County that they were not mistaken in their choice of a man for this most important office."

Seymour H. Person in Speech Analyzes 6th District's Problems

I am a candidate for Congress from the Sixth Congressional District, as against Grant M. Hudson, the present incumbent, said Senator Seymour H. Person in a recent radio speech. The Sixth District is the largest district in the United States. It contains one and one-half million people. It includes one-half of the City of Detroit and one-half of the County of Wayne. Having within it such wards as the 22nd, most of the 21st ward and the northern one-half of all the other wards of the city of Detroit except five. It includes such cities as Dearborn, Wayne, Grosse Pointe, Grosse Pointe Shores, Grosse Pointe Village, Birmingham, Royal Oak, Bloomfield Hills, Pontiac, Flint and Lansing. It also includes such counties as Livingston, Macomb, and Oakland.

Godfrey Friewald in Harmony with Pointe

Godfrey Friewald, candidate for re-election to the office of county treasurer, has worked in perfect harmony with officials of the various Grosse Pointe Villages, particularly on the matter of delinquent taxes, it was pointed out this week by friends of Mr. Friewald. This cooperation has resulted to the convenience of Grosse Pointe taxpayers in many instances and the same feeling of comity will continue to exist. The efficient and economical administration of the duties of the office of county treasurer which Mr. Friewald has effected during his tenure of office will also continue to the service of county taxpayers.

AN OPEN LETTER Hudson's Letter to Mrs. F. M. Alger

Detroit, Michigan, September 3, 1931

Mr. L. B. Oldham, Publisher The Grosse Pointe Review, 14935 Kercheval Avenue, Detroit, Michigan.

Dear Mr. Oldham:—

We, the pastors of three influential churches in the territory served by your community paper, have observed with deep regret that you have allowed your publication to become a propaganda instrument of the Women's Organization for National Prohibition Reform, an organization seeking the repeal of the 18th amendment, the chief spokes-woman of which is Mrs. Frederick M. Alger. We would respectfully call to your attention that in the last four issues of your paper you have given one hundred and thirty column inches of reading matter to unwarranted and malicious attacks upon Honorable Grant M. Hudson, Congressman from the Sixth district. Two thirds of this material has been given front page prominence under bold headlines. All this is in addition to the advertisements attacking Mr. Hudson.

In your issue of August 28th you give over forty inches of space to an open letter addressed by Mrs. Alger to Congressman Hudson. This purports to be a reply to a letter Mr. Hudson addressed to Mrs. Alger on August 20, defending himself against her unwarranted and untrue charges. As Mr. Hudson's letter has not been at any time published by your paper, your readers are at a great disadvantage in judging the adequacy of the reply.

Therefore, in the interest of fairness to both sides of the issue, we respectfully request that you publish this request and the open letter of Mr. Hudson in full in your issue of September 4th. A copy of Mr. Hudson's letter is enclosed herewith.

This request will not require as much space as you have given to attacks upon Mr. Hudson in either of the last two issues of your paper.

Respectfully yours,

W. C. McKNIGHT, Eastminster Presbyterian Church, DUNNING IDLE, Jefferson Ave. Methodist Church, ARTHUR V. ALLEN, Jefferson Avenue Baptist Church (Continued on Page Six)

Flower Display Will Be Held at Club on September 12, 13, 14

Arrangements are being rapidly completed for the eleventh annual flower show of the Grosse Pointe and Eastern Michigan Horticultural Society to be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday, September 12, 13 and 14, at the Neighborhood Club, Watreloo at St. Clair, Grosse Pointe Village.

It has just been announced that Mrs. Dexter M. Ferry, Jr., President of the Garden Club of Michigan, will formally open the exhibit on Friday, September 12th, at 5 p. m.

Despite the dry season a larger number of entries than usual are expected in the one hundred scheduled classes which cover all varieties of perennial and annual flowers, also fruits and vegetables not in season.

In addition to these there are several special classes for luncheon and dinner table decorations and one class which is arousing much interest is restricted to members of the Garden Club of Michigan and the Little Garden Club. This calls for the "best arranged basket of outdoor flowers and foliage for effect." The prize is an autographed copy of "The Complete Garden," presented by Albert D. Taylor, well known authority on gardening.

Two classes have been included to interest cottage gardeners; one for the best collection of flowers and the other for the best collection of vegetables.

In connection with the show a cottage garden contest has been held throughout the season with the slogan and aim "for Grosse Pointe More Beautiful."

Prize winners will be announced at the time of the show. Judges for this contest are Tom Pearson, chairman, John Waters, superintendent of the Waldo A. Avery estate, and Maurice W. Haven, landscape architect, Birmingham.

Elect Andrew T. Phillips County Drain Commissioner, on September 9.

To A Reader

The following reply was received from the Board of Education to your inquiry to the Grosse Pointe Review:

"Any resident pupil of school age in Grosse Pointe who desires a course not being offered at the present time should make application with the Superintendent of Schools for such a course. If it seems advisable, the course will be offered at the High School.

If it is not advisable, because of cost, to offer the course in Grosse Pointe High School, the Board of Education may pay the tuition to the city of Detroit for the individual enrollment in a Detroit school where the course can be obtained. It has been the policy of the Board for several years to grant such requests.

Signed, Dr. S. M. Brownell, Superintendent.

Coroner Burgess

Unknown to many, Coroner Burgess who is a candidate for re-election to the office of Wayne county coroner at the primaries, next Tuesday, has been interested in a gigantic charity movement to aid the unemployed and their dependents.

Through an organization with which Coroner Burgess is affiliated and in which he is the directing spirit, some 500 to 600 families have been furnished the necessities of life, an equal number places to sleep and thousands of others and occasional meal. The number of meals estimated to have been served is placed at 95,000.

Approximately $50,000 has been expended in this charity work under the guidance of Coroner Burgess.

HUGH J. WOOD OBTAINS STRONG SUPPORT FOR CIRCUIT COURT POST

(Continued from Page One) His supporters, comprising many of the best known men of the community, urge that his being so well acquainted with conditions in Wayne County due to his having been born and raised in Detroit, and the experience he has had practicing law, together with his business ability, make him one of the outstanding candidates. "If I am elected to the office of circuit court commissioner," said Mr. Wood today, "I shall remember at all times that many of those who appear in my court have never been in court before and in every case shall fully and carefully explain to all litigants what their rights are. This is something that has often been neglected in the past in some of the courts."

Police Radio Station Is Busy, Scout Cars Have 384 Calls—Neff

In a report to the Grosse Pointe Police Radio commission, W. A. Neff, supervisor of the Township Police radio station, stated that Police scout cars in the township had made a total of 384 runs on orders received from the radio station since it was placed in operation several weeks ago.

The runs were classified as follows: 1 run on account of a lost child, 25 runs on account of prowlers, 11 runs on account of mischievous boys, 19 runs on account of drunks, 27 runs on account of accidents, 20 runs on account of suspicious cars, 3 runs on account of attempted attack, 13 runs on account of family rows, 6 runs on account of stolen cars, 3 runs on account of shooting, 2 runs on account of hold-ups, 85 runs on account of miscellaneous calls, such as fire alarms, peddlers, loiterers, noisy parties, etc.

169 calls were put on the air in which the scout cars were ordered to either report to the station, or call their station for the transaction of police work, the nature of which did not necessitate broadcasting to the car designated to handle it.

28 arrests were made on calls broadcast.

17 injured persons in 27 accidents were taken to hospitals.

1 car was stolen in the Township in this period; the value of radio can be seen when it is pointed out that one of the scout cars recovered this car in seven and one half minutes.

In only one instance was failure to receive a report recorded; this was because the broadcast was broken up by another station.

FAITH LUTHERAN CHURCH

Faith Lutheran Church, East Jefferson and Philip Avenues, will begin its fall program Sunday morning at 10:45 with a special Home-Coming service when the pastor, the Rev. R. D. Linhart, will preach on the subject, "Back to the Church." The assistant pastor, the Rev. Theo. P. Fricke, will conduct the altar service. The vested choir of eighty voices, the largest Lutheran choir in the city, will add several special numbers to the program as it returns to the chancel after a two months vacation.

The Sunday School will also celebrate its Home-Coming Day when the children gather in the church auditorium for a brief song and praise service. The ladies', men's and young people's Bible classes will begin their fall lecture series this Sunday.

This service on Sunday morning will be a happy event since it marks the thirteenth anniversary of the first service of the congregation which was held on September 9, 1917 when Faith Church was started as a mission. At the present time the congregation numbers over 1100 with a Sunday School of over 600. Rev. Linhart has been the pastor of the congregation since its beginning.

All the friends of the congregation and visitors are invited to attend this special service. The Sunday School will welcome any boy or girl in the neighborhood to attend its service and instruction.

Mrs. Susan Tucker Dies at 73; Village Resident

The funeral of Mrs. Susan Tucker, who died early last week in the Cottage hospital at the age of 73 years was held from her former residence at 700 St. Clair avenue, Grosse Pointe Village. Surviving her are two sons, Myron Tucker, of Grosse Pointe Village, and Clarence Tucker of St. Clair Shores, and a daughter, Mrs. Grace Burgess, of St. Clair Shores. Her death was attributed to old age.

The surviving members of the family wish to extend their appreciation and gratitude to the many friends who comforted them in their bereavement and also to the attendants at the Cottage hospital and to the members of the Grosse Pointe Village police department for their kind services.

JEFFERSON AVENUE BAPTIST CHURCH

It has become customary to observe the first Sunday after Labor Day as "Home Coming" Sunday. Members who have been absent from us during the summer are glad to return and those at home look forward to the church family reunion. Next Sunday we anticipate two great services. In the morning at 11 o'clock Mr. Allen will use as his sermon topic, "How To Know We Know Him." The ordinance of communion will be observed.

"Prohibition—A Moral Issue" is the subject of Sunday night's sermon. This message will attract real interest in view of the approaching Primary Election involving many important choices. Lay abiding citizens should be made aware of harmful propaganda. This sermon will deal with the side of the question the newspapers don't print. The evening service starts promptly at 8 o'clock.

The services of next Sunday will have added enrichment by the return of our chorus choir. Mrs. Douglas, our regular organist, has returned from her vacation and will be at the organ next Lord's Day.

Ice in Arctic Ocean

The entire Arctic ocean is practically covered by permanent heavy ice or ice pack of an average thickness of six or seven feet, but through pressures and under-running it may attain or exceed 30 feet in places. The average maximum thickness of sea ice in the Arctic as determined of eighteen years at fifteen different stations was 76 inches.

Jefferson Avenue Methodist Church

The pastor, Dr. Dunning Idle, has returned from his vacation and will preach both morning and evening next Sunday. In the morning he will speak briefly on the topic, "Which Self?" The Holy Communion will be observed. In the evening his subject will be: "Prohibition, a Moral Issue." It is expected that the Quartette will be on hand providing its usual good music. The end of the conference year is at hand. The annual conference meets in Flint, September 17th. All the members of the church are requested to rally from the summer vacation period as promptly as possible that the conference year may have a suitable closing. The Sunday School teachers who have been away will meet their classes next Sunday morning. It is hoped that they will be greeted by a large attendance. The Mid-Week Service is held on Wednesday evening at 8:00 o'clock. The pastor will be in charge.

Neighborhood Club Activities

On the evening of August 29th, a most enjoyable program was given at the Neighborhood Club by the children of the Playground Department. The program consisted of songs, dances and recitations, ending with "The Jewel Box," a pantomime. A great deal of time and effort was spent in preparation and the children deserve much credit for their efforts.

There was also an exhibition of hand-craft work done by the Department during the summer. In this, too, it is interesting to see what can be accomplished by such small tots.

Now that summer is over, the Fall Schedule of work at the Neighborhood Club will soon be in full swing. New classes for Junior and Intermediate boys are being planned, Boy Scout activities will start, and a new program for the Junior Girls Handcraft Class has been planned. Watch for definite dates.

The Fall Schedule of the Neighborhood Club Music Department is being completed and all pupils are urged to call Niagara 0771 early, in order to secure the most satisfactory periods. There will be a few vacancies and anyone interested is invited to telephone or come to the Neighborhood Club for further information. Rates are $1.00 per half hour, with class instruction (optional) once a week in Music Appreciation and Theory.

with a judge present and surrounded by all the other elements of court procedure. Mr. Atkinson has recently been appointed Chairman of the State Condemnation Commission which promises to draft a new statute that will cut out all the dead wood and bring the practice abreast of other court procedure. The name of John Atkinson was famous in Detroit long before this John Atkinson had a chance to add to its fame. His father, the late Colonel John Atkinson, was one of the best known lawyers and political figures in the city. Col. Atkinson was Hazen S. Pingree's right hand man and balance wheel.

The present John Atkinson holds the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts given him by Detroit College and the degree of Bachelor of Laws conferred upon him in 1904 by the Detroit College of Law. He was born in Detroit 54 years ago and much of his success in condemnation work is due to his knowledge of and intense affection for the city of his birth.

He feels that by reason of his ability to write the new statute, and if he is elected to the Circuit Court, his knowledge of the condemnation work of the city will make it possible for him to achieve a much needed improvement in that court, and incidentally result in the saving of thousands of dollars that are now wasted because of the loose and unsatisfactory manner of trying these law suits.

"In six years the City of Detroit has condemned $45,000,000.00 worth of property. Yours may be next."

Assure yourself of a satisfactory solution of this matter by electing him Circuit Judge.

Grosse Pointe Resident Recommended for Rep.

In addition to this, Mr. Dorn, this week pointed out the needs of the hour as concerning the interests of the Grosse Pointe community. He said:

"It is imperative at this time that Grosse Pointe be represented in the State legislature at Lansing in a more direct way than it is now. Measures are certain to come to the attention of the next session of the legislature that will have considerable significance and be of great importance to the interests and progress of Grosse Pointe. If for no other reason than this, to safeguard these interests, Grosse Pointe should have a direct and responsive voice in these legislative matters. During the past several years, as editor of the Grosse Pointe Review, I have been given the opportunity to study these problems and acquire the knowledge of the various elements entering into these matters and on that score believe myself qualified to represent Grosse Pointe in a particular way.

"One particular problem that I refer to, is the School District problem. Present members of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education concede that the present law under which the Grosse Pointe School system is operating is archaic and destructive of an advanced school system which Grosse Pointe needs. It is certain that some legislative action on this school matter will certainly arise in the next session of the legislature and regardless of whether I am elected to sponsor it, the point remains, it would be well and extremely expedient to have a Representative there who knows the desires of the community and who would act and be responsive to the residents of Grosse Pointe.

"Another point which I desire to call to the attention of Grosse Pointe voters is that with the large field of 112 candidates and the fact that a fair majority of the voters have no knowledge of the personal qualifications of 17 candidates whom they are entitled to vote for, it would be advisable and serve the best interests of the community to vote only for those whom you have knowledge of."

HARRY I. DINGEMAN AS DRAIN COMMISSIONER, CONSIDERS TAXPAYERS

He found that the office was operating under an antiquated system, that was perhaps alright ten years ago, but now totally inadequate to even attempt to serve the taxpayers of Wayne County under stress of modern conditions which have in the last four years tripled the work of the County Drain office.

Recognizing that this is a machine age he immediately made a thorough survey of the work of preparing tax rolls in connection with assessments levied for drains built and to be built.

He discovered that at a trifling cost, compared with the amount of money which could be saved he could install calculating machines, which in one operation would establish a permanent record of assessments for the life of the drain on the tax rolls, either 10 or 15 years depending upon nature, location or type of construction needed.

Thus his office is now, in one operation, at one time, doing work that formerly required 10 to 15 separate operations extending once each year over 10 or 15 years.

Incidentally and fortunately for the other taxpayers, Mr. Harry I. Dingeman's office is going over the old tax rolls and putting them under the new system discovered that 55 lots drawing benefits from one drain were not and never had been on the tax rolls.

The tremendous saving accomplished by this bold, revolutionary stroke of Commissioner Harry I. Dingeman is obvious. It has already saved the taxpayers of Wayne County many dollars and will save them thousands more in the years to come.

Furthermore a taxpayer now knows at once how much his each year's assessments will be for each of the 10 or 15 years and can make preparation to meet them as due instead of being forced to wait each year until a couple of months before due date to learn how much money he must pay.

This one of the many economical reforms inaugurated by Harry I. Dingeman since taking office as County Drain Commissioner should be reason enough for hard pressed tax-paying voters to insist upon his re-election at the primaries, September 9th.

Hollywood Screen is Showing "All Quiet on the Western Front"

The biggest selling book of the past ten years and one that has been transcribed into a talking picture that stands out as one of the epic triumphs of the industry comes to the Hollywood Sunday for a four day engagement. This is the magnificent version on Emil Remarque's book, "All Quiet on the Western Front." The plaudits following the metropolitan showing of this picture have been heard throughout the land and it is barely necessary to announce the arrival of the production and its date of showing to fill the theater.

"All Quiet on the Western Front," is regarded everywhere as the greatest human document of the war. It broke all publishing records and has been translated into almost every language. No modern story ever pictured has had as many readers. Lewis Milestone directed it. The story itself is based on the experience and observation of the author who went to war as a school boy. The battle scenes, in which more than 4000 soldiers participated, are the most spectacular and genuine ever pictured.

Louis Wolheim, famous for his creation of Capt. Flagg in the stage production of "What Price Glory," Lewis Ayres, a brilliant youngster of 20 and John Wray, famous stage actor, head the cast.

The regular stage presentation will be offered, the Hollywood Merry-makers being augmented by several new musicians and the vaudeville being headlined by the famous Ronins Family's Variety's most famous and talented family of performers. There will be several other acts, short subjects on the screen and an organ sing conducted by Bob Clarke.

The Hollywood will give away free the 60th and 61st new Ford Coupe or Tudor on Friday and Saturday nights as usual.

"Too Proud to Fight!" In a speech at Philadelphia May 10, 1915, President Wilson said: "There is such a thing as a man being too proud to fight, there is such a thing as a nation being so right that it does not need to convince others by force that it is right."

Nancy Carroll, Buddy Rogers at United Artists

Black-haired, black-eyed, handsome Charles "Buddy" Rogers and red-haired, blue-eyed Nancy Carroll, the lovers of "Abie's Irish Rose" and

"Close Harmony," make a peach of being shown at the Fisher theater this week. Robert Montgomery plays the title role and Dorothy Jordan is cast as his leading lady. J. C. Nugent plays a prominent role and the surrounding cast is built up of a score of youthful stage and screen players.

The story centers around Robert Montgomery, a shipping clerk who knows how to play golf very well. He is hired by his boss to tutor him in the game. At the links he meets charming Miss Jordan and a romance quickly develops. Troubles start, however, when word passes around the course and the clubhouse that the handsome hero is a shipping magnate of international fame. How the matter is settled, and the fears of everyone calmed down—furnishes a snappy climax and happy ending for the picture.

Besides the two stars, "Buddy" Rogers and Nancy Carroll, the cast of "Follow Thru" is alive with stage and screen talent. Zelma O'Neal and Jack Haley, who played the comedy roles in the stage hit, are featured in the film. Eugene Pallette, Thelma Todd, Claude King, Don Tompkins, Albert Gran and a score more have prominent parts. All the tunes of the original play, including the famous "Button Up Your Overcoat" and the rest of the songs, with a flock of new tuneful melodies written especially for the screen version of "Follow Thru," are introduced. The picture has been filmed on a lavish scale, entirely in natural colors, and is full of comedy, romance and fun.

"Love in the Rough" Now at the Fisher

"Love in the Rough" is the title of the comedy romance picture that is being shown at the Fisher theater this week. Robert Montgomery plays the title role and Dorothy Jordan is cast as his leading lady. J. C. Nugent plays a prominent role and the surrounding cast is built up of a score of youthful stage and screen players.

On the Fisher stage this week, the Public show "Sportland" brings Huggie Clark, the nimble foot-fat man, to the Fisher theater in person! Others in the cast of this gay, fast-moving stage show include Olive Faye, Broadway's Brightest Bond, Sis and Buddy Roberts, and the Dave Gould Acrobatic Girls.

Samuel Benavie has devised a new Symphony production and Arsene Siegel furnishes a novel organogue. Newsreels of the latest world events and cartoon comics complete the huge Fisher stage and screen show.

Michigan Theater to Celebrate Anniversary

This week all Detroit is celebrating the fourth anniversary of the Michigan theater. A huge program of stage and screen features are featured in the big show at the Michigan. "The Office Wife" on the screen; the return of Lou Kosloff to Detroit; a special Public stage show, "Greetings"; a Symphony Orchestra surprise, and a score more treats are included.

Faith Baldwin's famed story, "The Office Wife," has been chosen as the screen attraction for the anniversary show. This story, which is one of the most popular of modern novels, is most frank in presenting a situation which occurs constantly in our modern society. It deals with the secretary who takes care of the husband's needs during the day,—who works for him,—who gives him advice,—and takes care of some personal matters that he otherwise would have neglected,—and who eventually falls in love with him. How does the wife stand in this triangle? What is the husband's choice? All these matters are handled in the most effective manner in the film version of "The Office Wife." Lewis Stone, Dorothy Mackall, Natalie Moonhead, Hobart Bosworth, and a fine cast play the leading roles in this picture.

Lou Kosloff, whom thousands of Detroiters will remember, has returned to the Michigan this week to take over the duties of master of ceremonies. Kosloff, who is well-known throughout the country for his violin ability and his pleasing personality, headlines the special birthday frolic on the stage. "Greetings," which has more than 70 singers, dancers and comedians featured, is the bright joyous affair. Stan Kavanagh, famous Broadway comedian, and a score of Public stars are in the stage show.

The Michigan Symphony Orchestra, under the able direction of Edward Werner, has a big special production. Arthur Gutow has added treats and a score more surprises are in the Anniversary Show this week.

Judge Pliny W. Marsh Has Envious Record in Recorder's Court

He also established a night court so that working men and others who might get into some trivial difficulty could have their cases heard and disposed of without the necessity of losing a day's pay.

While very considerate of the young and inexperienced offender, Judge Marsh always believed in severe penalties for hardened and serious offenders. During his time on the bench, crime was materially reduced because of a belief on the part of those who make a business of crime that the penalty for their mistakes would be sure and severe. Judge Marsh, however, when it came to sentencing the youthful, mild and technical offender, showed that he had human kindness in him, by placing many of such offenders on probation or suspending sentence.

Prior to coming on the bench, he drafted the Charter Amendment providing for the City Election Commission in Detroit. Before the adoption of this amendment, every election was followed by charges of fraud and manipulation of the ballots in the so-called "controlled precincts." Since this plan has been in operation, no scandal has been attached to any election held in the City of Detroit, and numerous recounts have made only the slightest change in the vote, as disclosed by the original returns.

Judge Marsh is a man of high ideals, known for his fairness, courteous treatment, impartiality and courageousness; he is a tireless and full time worker, an independent thinker and free from bias or grounds of race, creed, color or any other class distinction, and with sincere interest in the public welfare, as his official record pointedly discloses.

In soliciting the support of the voters at the Primary Election, September 9, 1930, Judge Marsh has promised to render the most efficient service possible with the view of aiding in the reduction of public expense which he believes can be accomplished by progressive functioning of the courts.

RE-ELECT Senator COUZENS

JAMES COUZENS

"I want to do what I can to see that life is not made a burden for the many and a holiday for the few."—Senator Couzens.

By reason of his great ability and the operation of the seniority rule which advances a member on Senate Committees as his tenure in office lengthens, Senator Couzens has attained a place of great power and prestige in the Senate. He is now Chairman of the powerful Committee on Interstate Commerce, and a member of the important Committees on Finance, Civil Service, Education and Labor, and Pensions. His leadership has brought to Michigan a large influence in the councils of the nation. The citizens of Grosse Pointe should bear in mind that they should not surrender this great advantage unless they have some very sound reason for making a change. A new Senator would, under the seniority rule, be forced to start from the bottom of the ladder.

"Common Clay" Again at the Madison Theater

Madison theater has brought "Common Clay" to Madison theater for a limited engagement. No stage or screen drama of today has caused such a furore as this study of a girl of today in a man's world. As a play it enjoyed one of the longest runs on record, and as a als. Constance Bennett, Lew Ayres, Tully Marshall, and a fine cast present this film version, which follows the stage play faithfully.

Does one slip make a bad woman? This is the question propounded by "Common Clay," and its stirring melodrama gives the unmistakable answer. Tears mingle with laughter in this portrayal of a girl's soul, battling against the conventions of a man-made and man-ruled world.

Molecules Face About

In the course of a recent lecture at the California Technical it was stated that the molecules of any mass may occupy any position under ordinary circumstances, but the instant that the mass is subjected to the influence of magnetism the molecules alertly turn and face in the same direction. If it happens that the molecules are oblong this action will cause an imperceptible lengthening of the bar.

GEORGE MURPHY, WELL KNOWN LAWYER, SEEKS CIRCUIT COURT POST

(Continued from Page One) During his law practice he has handled successfully many important cases which have been given wide publicity and is recognized as one of the leading trial lawyers at the Detroit bar. His record in private practice indicates that he would make a fine high type of jurist and would prove a valuable asset to the bench according to his friends.

Among the propositions which Mr. Murphy advocates are: an able, well trained and fearless bench; raising standards of the bench and bar; rigid examinations by board of recognized leaders of the bar of all candidates for judicial office for purpose of testing their judicial fitness.

Also court reform along practical lines as result of long years of trial experience; and permitting only experienced trial lawyers to try cases before the Circuit court to hasten litigation, thus saving both litigant and taxpayer unnecessary delay and costs.

Mr. Murphy is married, has two children and resides at 18975 Parkside avenue.

Village "Nine" Trounced by River Rouge Team, 8-1; Record Crowd on Hand

By C. J. ROLAND

The River Rouge Monarchs, the down river colored team, met and defeated the Grosse Pointe Village Club at the Neighborhood Club last Sunday, 8 to 1, before one of the largest crowds this season.

Knucks had the situation in hand from start to finish, being known as a pitcher who never lets up. Seven Pointers were set down via the strike out route, and but five hits were garnered off his delivery.

Johnnie Desrocher, the veteran hurler, was niched for ten safeties, including a double and a four-ply wallop. "Teddy" Hinz opened the seventh inning with a line drive to center for the only score for the Villagers. Eight errors played havoc, good and bad fielding being mixed, and three double plays cut off Monarch runs.

Paul Kelly had but three chances, and he made three sensational running catches, making good on wallops that had two-ply price marks on them.

The game, play by play:

First Inning Monarchs—Henry singled and went to third when Amos' attempted sacrifice was thrown over first base by Desrocher. Amos taking second. Beasley sacrificed both runners, Louwers to Crandall, Henry scoring. Amos scored on a passed ball. Pankey walked, going to third on Louwer's overthrow of second after Turkey had fled to King. Hilgendorf threw out Charles. Two runs, one hit, two errors. Village—King popped to Chafles. Crandall was thrown out, Henry to Charles. Kelly singled over short. Kaatz walked, advancing Kelly to second. Both runners advanced when Hinz was hit by a pitched ball. Hinz was caught napping, Knucks to Charles. No run, one hit, no error.

Second Inning Monarchs—Orr walked. Holmes popped to Hinz. Knucks tried a Texas Leaguer over third, and Kelly made a fine running catch, Orr scrambling back to first. Henry went out, Desrocher to Crandall. No run, no hit, no error. Village—Hilgendorf was thrown out, Knucks to Charles. Louwers and Behrens were victims on strikes. No run, no hit, no error.

Third Inning Monarchs—Amos was thrown out, Hinz to Crandall. Beasley saw the third strike go by. Pankey singled and went to third on Louwer's overthrow to get him stealing. Hilgendorf bobbled Turkey's drive, and Pankey counted. Charles was thrown out, Louwers to Crandall, after the third strike. One run, one hit, two errors. Village—Desrocher died, Turkey to Charles. Charles got King's foul fly behind first base. Crandall was called out, Henry to Charles. No run, no hit, no error.

Fourth Inning Monarchs—Kelly made sensational catches of liners by Orr and Holmes behind third base. Time was called, Kelly being unconscious, having hit the ground very hard after his long run. Knucks was hit by his own batted ball for the third out. No run, no hit, no error. Village—Desrocher struck out. Knucks picked up King's bunt and beat him to the bag. Kelly went out, Amos to Charles, after Crandall reached first on Henry's error. No run, no hit, one error.

Ninth Inning Monarchs—Holmes' liner to center was gathered by Kaatz. Knucks hit for two bases and took third when Henry was safe on Hinz's bobble of Henry's grounder to short. The error by Hinz was unavoidable as Knucks jumped over the ball while going to third, a heavy piece of baserunning. Amos went out, Desrocher to Crandall, Knucks scoring. Beasley was safe on Hinz' error, but Louwers' throw to second to Hilgendorf got him stealing. Two runs, one hit, two errors. Village—Kaatz fled to Charles. Hinz walked. Hilgendorf fled to Charles, Hinz holding him first. Louwers ended the game by lining to Henry, who made a beautiful one-handed catch. No run, no hit, no error.

"The Big Pond" at the Punch and Judy

Want to know something about chewing gum making?

There is a new authority on this peculiarly American industry. He is Maurice Chevalier, formerly "idol of Paris," but currently "weakness of feminine hearts" in the movie world. Maurice is now a walking encyclopedia of information on the subject of producing what old Doc Moriarty calls "the great American cud."

He gained his knowledge when working in the factory of the American Chicle Company at the Long Island City, where some of the numerous episodes of his current new show world production, "The Big Pond," showing at the Punch and Judy theater Friday and Saturday, September 5 and 6, were registered by the cameras and microphones.

For the benefit of the cameras, Chevalier operated the gum-mixing kettles the coating machines and the wrapping devices through which America's favorite confection passes in its transition from raw gum and chicle to the finished, flavored commercial product.

In "The Big Pond" Chevalier plays the role of a young Frenchman who enters American "big business" via a chewing gum factory. He starts at the bottom of the ladder, in this case the gum-mixing kettles of the chicle plant.

By an arrangement with the American Chicle Company, a complete production unit from the Paramount Long Island studio was permitted to operate in the company's factory, photographing the actual processes and recording the genuine sounds of the plant. Six cameras, a huge battery of lights, and the necessary sound recording devices formed the bulk of the equipment which the motion picture producers introduced into the chewing gum factory for the filming of these episodes.

The supporting cast includes Claudio Colbert, George Barbier, Marion Ballou, Andree Corday, Frank Lyon, Nat Pendleton and Elaine Koch—all of them stage-trained favorites.

"All Quiet" Film at the Riviera Theater

"All Quiet on the Western Front," the spectacular film version of the famous Eric Marie Remarque story that recently swept the country by storm, is the screen feature at the Public Riviera theater this week.

In this thrilling story of the western front during the days of the war, Lew Ayres and a great human cast of players are featured. The story pictures all the humor, grim, and pathos of the battle-fields and is shown on the audible screen in a remarkable likeness. The picture scored a real success during its first Detroit showing at the Paramount and Madison theaters, and is now having its first local showings at the Riviera.

Carl Rupp, famous headliner of Radio Station WXYZ, heads the Public stage show this week. A score of novelties are introduced in the unusual show. Don Miller features a unique singing solo at the organ and the balance of the cast is complete with short talking subjects and the latest sound news events.

"Moby Dick" Now in Second Week at State

It is true that much of the danger has been taken out of the making of motion pictures and that no reputable studio will willingly risk the life of a star or of an extra in the making of a picture, but some stories cannot be filmed without taking chances and "Moby Dick," the current feature now at the State theater, starring John Barrymore, is one of them.

The very nature of the story, based on the famous Herman Melville novel of whaling days, required that Barrymore be willing to risk danger and discomfort in the filming. A dramatic and spectacular sea story, dealing with a madman's chase of a great white whale, climaxed by a hand encounter with the monster, "Moby Dick," demanded that Barrymore take great chances to make the sequences realistic.

Although every possible safeguard was put about the cast and crew and the picture was finally completed without serious accident to any one, there were many anxious minutes during its making.

A Cliff Edwards "Ukulele Ike" singing novelty, "The Flower Garden," and the laugh hits, "Never Strike Your Mother," with Eddie Buzzell and "His Error," with T. Roy Barnes conclude the State program.

Green Parole Record Aired by Groesbeck

That Governor Fred W. Green has released almost as many convicts on parole in three and one-half years as was done by Alex J. Groesbeck in six years is revealed by records of the state parole commission. The total is 8,302 paroles for Green up to June 30 last while Groesbeck's total ran to about 9,000 in six years.

This is at an approximate rate of 2,500 paroles a year for Green to 1,500 a year for Groesbeck.

The records further show that a considerable number of the Green paroles were of men confined at Marquette prison, to which the more desperate criminals are sent.

Under the Michigan indeterminate sentence law criminals are not sent up for a definite period but for a minimum and a maximum, with time off for good behavior, it has become customary to consider a parole at the end of the minimum sentence.

During Groesbeck's time each parole was thoroughly scrutinized and local officials were consulted before the application was granted. The governor gave his own time personally to study of the individual cases. Since Groesbeck left office the responsibility has rested largely upon employes of the parole department, owing to the varied social demands upon the governor's time, and this may account for the increase in the parole rate.

Hudson's Letter to Mrs. F. M. Alger

interest the statements of yourself and your organization concerning the Congressional Primaries in the Sixth District, especially as relating to myself and my record before Congress. Your statements seem to indicate an exceedingly biased position in reference to my eight years of service in Congress. You state that I have only one interest in mind, viz., the carrying out of the orders of the Anti-Saloon League. The same statements were made four years ago by the husbands of the women of your organization, when they attempted to defeat my re-nomination at that time, and the two candidates who were supported against me received only 45,000 votes from the district while I received 56,000. The answer to the charges then, which you now make of my single interest, was so thorough that only as a smoke-screen can it be brought out again at this time. In the four years that have elapsed, the Congressional Record will prove that I have said less about prohibition on the floor of Congress than is taken up by your statement concerning the same in the Detroit Free Press of August 11th. Your further statement is untrue, either through lack of information or deliberate intent to misrepresent, when you say that I repeatedly voted to prevent Wayne County and other large centers of population from having the number of Congressmen and electors to which they are entitled, and the Congressional Record and my vote will show the contrary. Your statement in reference to the Border Patrol Bill is misleading, untrue and without foundation. You state if the bill had passed it would seriously handicap traffic on the Detroit River. The bill did pass the House of Representatives and will pass the Senate in short session. It was the bill of the administration, requested and endorsed by President Hoover, and drawn up by the Treasury Department. It in no way handicaps pleasure boating or yachting on the Detroit River and Lake St. Clair. To the contrary it will protect and make more enjoyable such pleasure. There were only eighteen votes recorded against its passage and the bill was not altered after it was reported by the Committee with the exception of one Committee amendment for the amplifying of its provisions as worked out by myself and the members of the Committee. You are ringing the doorbells of homes to inform the women that you want a Representative not allied in any way with the Anti-Saloon League. While I am not allied with the Anti-Saloon League, may I ask you whether it is more detrimental to general legislation in Congress to be identified with the Anti-Saloon League than the Association Against Prohibition, or your own Association for the Reform of Prohibition? In my four campaigns for Congress, the Anti-Saloon League has never contributed a dollar to myself or to any committee furthering my campaign, neither has it paid for an advertisement or a pamphlet. Senator Person, whom your organization has endorsed and whose leaflet you are trying to place in the homes of everyone in the district, says he is a poor man; that he has no money to put into a campaign. District who is paying for his expensive headquarters and the stenographers in the cities of the Sixth District; who is paying for the expensive advertising that is being run in every country newspaper through the district? Will your organization or some other such organization tell who is paying for the expensive workers, who for the past month and a half have been going up and down the district, some of them claiming they are receiving as high as $200.00 per week? In other words, what organization is paying for these offices, helpers, stenographers, literature, posters, and expensive workers?

Attorney Robert Cook, a liberal candidate for Congress in this district, stated on the public platform at Howell that he was offered $5,000.00 by supporters of Senator Person to withdraw and guaranteed $200.00 a week if he would campaign for the Senator. Will your organization or someone else tell the voters of the district where the $5,000.00 offer was coming from? Will Senator Person, if nominated, be an independent or will he go to Congress as one obligated and indebted to organizations such as yours and the League of Modification?

Mrs. Alger, will you ask the Department of Education of the State of Michigan; will you ask the Department of Highways; will you ask the Department of Health; will you ask the Tariff Commission, at Washington; the Veterans' Bureau at Washington and Detroit; the Post Office Department at Washington; the Department of Labor and the Bureau of Immigration, as to whether our Congressman of the past eight years has been interested and effective in the legislation that should be beneficial and helpful. Your statement in reference to my public service is so silly and so absurd to the average voter as to be ridiculous. Come out fairly, squarely and in the open and say that the only cause of complaint that you can have and justify in my eight years of service is that I am not only a dry politically, but I am a dry personally.

Why do you women need a separate organization to promulgate a candidate? What about the League of Women Voters, the Federation of Women's Clubs, The National Woman's Party, the Parent-Teachers Congress, and other women's organizations in the district. They are composed of intelligent, earnest, capable and able, broadminded women. I have received no resolution of condemnation as to my service in Congress from such organizations.

Your candidate has built his fame upon his so-called defense of a woman in the so-called "Life for a Pint Law", a law that was passed while he was a member of the Judiciary Committee, without his voice being raised in construction, criticism or condemnation of its passage. The Journal of the Senate, on the contrary, shows his repeated absence without leave during its consideration, but his hearty vote, "yes," for its passage.

I grant you and your organization of women the right to work for the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment. I grant you the right to oppose me because I, on the floor of Congress, have supported constructive legislation for its adequate enforcement, but you have no right to make misstatements as to my work in Congress being of no value to my district. Such work is simply throwing dust and only reveals the bigotry and narrowness, which you impute to others.

My position in Congress on the Eighteenth Amendment is one of supporting my own state's constitution and laws and until the people of Michigan repeal or change their constitutional amendment and the statutory laws in reference to its enforcement, if I value my oath of office, I must ally myself in the future as I have in the past with the forces in Congress passing legislation for the support of the Amendment.

I have faith in the American voters; in the American home; in the average American man and woman as being fair and square and having good sportsmanship; they will not snipe and shoot in the back with false and malicious statements. I believe in the future of American boys and girls, six of whom I have been proud to call my sons and daughters and whom I have taken the pains to educate into useful working American men and women.

Ring your doorbells, but for every one woman who will espouse your cause nine will stand for the American home and the American people in opposition to your platform. Respectfully yours, GRANT M. HUDSON, M. C. GMH:H

Grosse Pointe Farms Win Double Header

The baseball team of the Grosse Pointe Farms A. C. won both ends of a double header last Sunday, defeating the Hamtramck Stars, a colored nine, in both games. This double victory brings the present winning streak to nine consecutive games.

An exceptionally large crowd was on hand to witness the two victories and an equally large attendance is expected this Sunday when another double header will be played, the first game starting at 1 p. m. and the second game immediately after. In last Sunday's games, Murray pitched the first game and allowed only four hits. The score was 3 to 1. Hartin hurled the second game and won 2 to 1, allowing only six hits.

Joan Crawford in "Our Blushing Brides" Will Be at Punch and Judy

"Our Blushing Brides" with Joan Crawford in the starring role and such cinema favorites as Anita Page, Dorothy Sebastian, Robert Montgomery, Raymond Hackett and John Miljan in prominent supporting roles will be the screen attraction at the Punch and Judy theater, Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, September 7, 8, 9 and 10.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer is said to have outdone itself in the matter of lavish settings, costumes, and unusual features for this production, having started off with a bang by hiring an entire Los Angeles department store, personnel and all, for the opening scenes which depict the daily routine of three women employees. Subsequent romances of the three girls place them in the environment of the millionaire class, and advance information has it that these settings are the most lavish and artistic representations of modernistic interviews yet seen on the screen.

Unusual features of the picture include a spectacular fashion-show held in the gardens of a Long Island estate and an Albertina Rasch ballet, photographed at night. This last sequence required a six weeks' training course in Greek dancing upon the part of Miss Crawford who studied under the direct supervision of Mme. Albertina Rasch.

WXYZ NEWS

Little Mitzi Green, who has created such a sensation in the talking pictures, and dainty Lillian Roth, former stage star who is now queen over screen musical shows, are among the Public artists who will be heard over WXYZ during the month of September. Both little Miss Green and Miss Roth will be heard from the studios of WXYZ while they are in Detroit, playing at the Michigan theater.

"Old Doctor Applesauce," long familiar to St. Louis radio fans, has been made honorary announcer of the "Jambouree" programs of WXYZ from 11 p. m. to midnight, Tuesdays. "Old Doc" who is in professional life, manager Freudenfeld of the newly-opened RKO Downtown theater in Detroit, was unable to resist the call of the mike when he was lured into the studios of WXYZ.

American "Commonwealths" The term "Commonwealth" is the official designation of Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Kentucky and Virginia.

Man and Thought The key to every man is his thought. Sturdy and defying though he look, he has a helm which he obeys, which is the idea after which all his facts are classified. He can only be reformed by showing him a new idea which can command his own.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

P. J. M. Hally Cites Experience and Work as Ass't. Prosecutor

Because of an awakened interest in the administration of criminal law and a realization of the need of strengthening every remedial agency against the organized front presented by the underworld, as exemplified by our recent kidnappings, and other major crimes, the importance of electing a Prosecuting Attorney of Wayne County, who is qualified by experience, assumes greater significance than heretofore, according to P. J. M. Hally, a candidate.

With the tremendous growth of the county, the necessity of electing officials capable of preventing criminals from securing a foothold here, as they have in our other larger cities, is of vital importance to every home owner and taxpayer. Vigorous prosecution is the keynote to the safety of our citizens.

As an assistant to the retiring Prosecutor, I aspire to that office and offer as proof of my ability, my record while connected with the Prosecuting Attorney's office. If elected, I promise to personally prosecute all major crimes and to cooperate to the fullest extent with the Police Department.

From my experience, I believe that certain social problems with reference to young women, can only be effectively handled through the keen sense of a woman assistant, and if elected, I promise to the women of this community that I shall appoint to my staff, a capable and understanding woman lawyer to handle all such cases in court.

I am also in favor of adding a number of trained investigators to assist in the preparation of criminal cases. At the present time, assistants are tremendously handicapped in that they have not the time to adequately prepare cases. Very often it is necessary for an assistant, while trying one case in court, to review and prepare the case following. It is easy to see that an assistant cannot thereby give of his best efforts. In contrast, the defense attorney has devoted his entire attention to the particular case in hand, and knows in advance what each witness is going to say, thus seizing an unfair, but most effective advantage.

It is a well known fact that the reputation of the Prosecuting Attorney stands or falls by his assistants' records. It is my plan to appoint only seasoned lawyers whose ability and reputation will insure the best and most experienced handling of all criminal prosecutions.
