Fisher Boundary Line Matter Certain to be Voted on Next Spring

Good headway is being made in the matter of securing signers on the petitions being circulated among residents on Fisher road in the Village, according to Norbert P. Neff, Village Clerk. The Villagers are responding very favorably, thereby insuring that the matter will be placed upon a ballot for voting upon at the next March election.

Surveys, plans and descriptions of the strip of property to be annexed from the Farms Village are completed and have been accepted by the councils of both villages. Fisher road residents are invited to telephone or visit their office on Maumee avenue for information as to this project. Plans are on file and all desired data can be obtained readily.

As soon as the necessary census has been taken and the required number of signatures in each subdivision obtained, the petitions will be filed with the County Board of Supervisors and upon their approval, the proposition placed before the voters on March 12, 1932.

The Villagers are again assured that there is absolutely no expense or additional taxes involved in this measure. Contrarily, this move may be the means of avoiding a very considerable expense at a future time. The immediate effect of this measure, when all steps have been completed and ratified by the voters, will be to extend the present boundary line dividing the villages, from its existing location eight feet inside of the sidewalk, to a point 33 feet easterly or along the center of the street.

The officials of Grosse Pointe Farms have been extremely courteous throughout the negotiations and have lent every aid possible. Their co-operation is a splendid example of inter-village good-feeling and is very much appreciated.

The Village has completed a series of small concrete areas on both sides of Kercheval avenue at each cross street intersection at the point where the motor busses stop for passengers, Mr. Neff also stated. This will shortly be accomplished on Jefferson avenue.

A light regulating traffic at the Fisher Kercheval corner will be installed in the immediate future by the Village, it was announced by Mr. Neff.

Lasky Furniture "11" Battles Berkley Team Sunday on Field Here

Lasky Furniture, State football champions, will meet the strong Berkley "11" Sunday afternoon, November 1, at the Neighborhood Club field, St. Clair and Waterloo avenues, in the Village.

The Lasky "11" are undefeated and tied for first place in the Michigan Professional league.

Recently the "Furniture" team played the strong Cleveland Pennzoils in the city of Cleveland's new municipal stadium with the game ending in a scoreless tie.

The record of Lasky's to date indicates to close observers of the Professional league that they are strong contenders for championship honors again this season.

Many of the members of the Lasky team are former Detroit high school football stars and are well known in local football circles. Among them are Frank Deronghe, Jack Sticks and Max Armstrong.

Juniors and Ninth Grade Battle in Preliminary

Grosse Pointe junior high school's first team defeated the Grosse Pointe high school's ninth grade second team in an interesting game of football Saturday, October 24, preceding the regular varsity game.

The ninth grade team pushed the juniors during the first three quarters, but the victors opened up an aerial attack in the last quarter that beat the ninth grade backfield. The winning play was made in the last two minutes of play and was a long pass from Ralph Swyke to Walter Miller.

High School News Briefs

Beginning this week the journalism I classes will gather and write the Grosse Pointe high school news for the Grosse Pointe Review.

Editors were chosen from each of the classes last week. Tom Boyd, the choice of the third hour class, and Donald Clark, the choice of the fifth hour class, received permission from the Grosse Pointe Review to carry out this work. Assignments are given out to the students by these editors and must be covered in the same manner as regular staff workers carry out their assignments.

This will be a very helpful plan for not only the journalism I classes, but the ones to come, as it gives all students a chance to write for a paper, where previously actual writing for print has been done, mainly, by the journalism II class.—Editor's Note.

Neighborhood Club Activities

The A. O. C. girls are having a costume Hallowe'en party on Thursday evening at seven thirty. The program committee, Miss Carolyn Jones and Miss Bertha Dana have been working on the decorations and entertainment so that a good time is expected by all.

The Camp Fire girls also will have a costume Hallowe'en party, Friday afternoon at four o'clock. Only regular members are expected to attend. Miss Marion Jappe is in charge of the arrangements.

The Bluebirds and Miss Beaupre's younger sewing class will have their party together on Wednesday, November 11 at four o'clock. Due to this late date the party will take on more the characteristics of a Thanksgiving party than a Hallowe'en.

The Ladies' Bridge Club met last Monday as usual. Mrs. John Des Rocher, Mrs. R. J. Mauer, and Mrs. V. A. Davison won the three cash prizes for the highest scores. We have sixteen members enrolled now but the more the merrier, you know, so come to our Bridge Club and practice up on your game.

AT THE THEATRES

Michigan. "Gris About Town." How blonde and brunette squeeze orders out of butter and egg men. Paramount. "Platinum Blonde." Newspaperman marries money, misfits, and returns to cinders. Fisher. "Local Boy Makes Good." He of the cavernous mouth, Joe E. Brown, in college story. United Artists. "The Unholy Garden." In which Ronald Colman stars in Hecht-MacArthur action story. State. "Susan Lenox." Dramatic story of regeneration, of a woman's rise to power through love.

reigning member of the royal family of the theater is stopping over here only for one week, following her previously announced intentions of limited engagements everywhere this season, so that she might cover the greatest area in the time allotted to her tour. Immediately following her brief visit in Detroit, she will commence her classic repertoire season in her own playhouse in New York. "The School for Scandal" will inaugurate a series of plays by Pinero, Ibsen, D'Annunzio and others. In each generation the theater's foremost actress has played the role of Lady Teazle in Sheridan's great play. Although Miss Barrymore has played the role before, she only appeared in it in New York some eight years ago, when the play was done by The Players with an all-star cast. This will mark the celebrated star's first visit here in the great feminine character, and in view of this her appearance in the role from coast to coast already has been hailed as one of the most significant theatrical and artistic events of remark that this generation.

Miss Barrymore is bringing with her to Detroit a cast of distinguished artists, many of whom have been selected for their notable characterizations of their present roles in previous celebrated revivals. Walter Gilbert will be Charles Surface; McKay Morris will be Joseph; Charles Croker-King will be Sir Peter Teazle; Beatrice Terry will be Lady Sneerwell; Anita Rothe, Mrs. Candour; Harry Plimmer, Sir Oliver; others are A. G. Andrews, Anna Seymour, Ernest Rowan, Charles Romano, William Kershaw, Arthur Treacher and Marcel Dill.

THE SPIRIT OF NOTRE DAME

It should be understood to begin with that this is strictly a football picture for football fans. Dedicated to the memory of Knute Rockne, the late coach of Notre Dame, the film upholds the finest traditions of the game and Rockne's own lessons on the value of team work. Not being a football fan, I can hardly write on the technical details of the game or be hailed as one of the most significant theatrical and artistic events of remark that this generation.

that attends the playing of any game enthusiastically played, is caught splendidly. J. Farrell MacDonald, portrays Rockne, and those who knew the coach will appreciate the manner in which he brings out the strength and loveliness of the man. The famous Four Horsemen are there and the game shots are the best obtained in any college film I have ever seen.

Lew Ayres, William Bakewell and Sally Blaine provide a slight thread of story and a junior prom to serve as relief to the sober business of football. The weakness of the story exists in dragging in an injured member of the team to add suspense. He lies, one is given to understanding, dying in hospital of pneumonia, and yet he listens to the progress of the Army game on the radio. It is doubtful whether a pneumonia patient as ill as he is, could show quite so much enthusiasm or energy; and cap it off with an immediate recovery on hearing of the college triumph. Maybe I'm wrong but it seems a bit too big to bite.

probably be headed by Greta Garbo, Joan Crawford, Clarke Gable and John Gilbert. The idea of mixing big names to draw the public to the box office, is a good one, and ought to make for much better pictures, provided the names are chosen to fit peculiarly the roles, and not randomly chosen as star names and nothing else.

When Lil Dagover's first American picture has a permanent title attached we will herewith inform you. Starting with "I Spy," it has gone through too many changes to continue in pursuit; a good cast is promised in the meantime with Walter Huston, Maud Eburne and Warren Williams.

Jackie Cooper, the little "Skippy," and "Donovan's Kid," has changed studios three times in his short career. Starting with Paramount and going on to RKO, he has now moved over to MGM, where he will begin on the picture, "Limpy," from the William Johnston book.

Sounds and Shadows

Sketches—Chic Sale. The pained expressions on the face of his music instructor were responsible for Charles "Chic" Sale's decision to make faces and mimic.

Born in Urbana, Illinois, from whence he drew the characters that later he would imitate and become famed for, a talent for drawing caused him to go to Chicago, where he told a theatrical manager that "he drew pictures and made faces," the manager was not impressed and turned him down—later though he became a huge success on the same circuit. The characters he portrays are all-American, redolent of earth, hay and rural things. His next picture is to be "Old Man Minick," from the Edna Ferber-George Kaufman play.

"Grand Hotel," the Vicki Baum sensation, is under preparation at M. G. M. and so far as Edmund Goulding has been chosen to direct, and the cast will

"Her Cardboard Lover," to be resurrected in talkie guise; Marian Davies used it some, not so many years ago with Nils Asther in support; this time it will be billed as Buster Keaton's picture and Nils, the genial Swede, will repeat his part.

"Polyanna," beloved by Mary Pickford fans, has been bought by Fox Corp., for Janet Gaynor. That ought to suit Janet rather well; there was some talk of (I think Paramount) making a talkie version of "Seventh Heaven." Hope they don't, to make a better picture would not be possible, to spoil a good thing by a poor repetition would be dismal.

Every Wednesday night at the Aloma theatre, $50.00 worth of Poultry Free.

Quotation From Bible The proverb "A house divided against itself cannot stand" is found in the Bible, Mark 3:25. Abraham Lincoln quoted it in a statement about the North and South at the time of the Civil war.

Catholic Central To Play De La Salle In Feature Game Sunday

 De La Salle defeated Holy Redeemer high, two weeks ago, and prior to that trimmed St. Peter and Paul's of Ionia.
 Following Catholic Central, they will meet St. Anthony's and St. Catherine's in regular league games, with an Alami-ni game sandwiched in between. Barring further serious accidents to his players, Coach Bob Moniere is confident of again finishing the season with a clean slate.
 A pleasing feature of this Sunday game is the fact that many parents and friends will be able to attend who could not be present on Friday or Saturday afternoons. De La Salle field is very conveniently located. Just north of Gratiot on Connors and directly opposite the main entrance of the Airport. The field is enclosed and has ample seating and parking facilities.

Eastminster Presby- terian Church

East Jefferson avenue at Manistique.
 Carl E. Kircher, pastor.
 Next Sunday morning the pastor of the Eastminster Presbyterian church, Carl E. Kircher, pastor, will speak on "Why Roses Have Thorns." Sunday School is growing right along now.
 At 6:30 the Endeavor Societies will meet, and at 7:30 there will be a concert by the great male choir, "The St.
 Paul's Choir" of some 40 men. Those who heard them last year will want to hear the magain. We are having the Junior Christian Endeavor at 4:00 p. m.
 Monday. Mrs. Morrissey is having a splendid attendance at that service.
 Thursday night the men will meet for an evening of fellowship. Sunday evening Rev. Kircher will preach the second of the series on "The Hereafter" on "Where is the Soul From Death to the Judgment?"

The anniversary of the Reformation of the Church by Martin Luther will be observed in the services on the coming Sunday, November 1. Services will be held as follows: German service at 9 a. m., English service at 11:15; Sunday school at 10:15. The pastor will take as the theme for the Reformation sermon: "Not Ashamed of the Gospel." The monthly Bible Hour under the auspices of the Young People's Society will be held next Sunday, beginning at 5:15 p. m.

A sauerkraut supper will be served by the Ladies' Aid, next Wednesday, November 4, from 5 to 8 p. m.

Jefferson Avenue Baptist Church

"You Haven't Touched Bottom Yet," will be the unusual subject of the sermon this Sunday night by the Rev.
 Wayland Zwyer at the Jefferson Avenue Baptist Church. This subject is announced by the new pastor as a message not only for his members but for a city which feels itself in the midst of a depression. The service begins at 7:30 o'clock with congregational singing led by Lincoln Igou, instructor of music at the Grosse Pointe high school. Mr. Zwyer holds the length of time of the evening service strictly to sixty minutes. There is a fifteen minute period of worship thru music preceding the evening hour with Mrs. Winifred Douglas, organist-director at the console.

At the 11 o'clock morning worship Pastor Zwyer will officiate at the regular monthly observance of the Lord's Supper, opening the second month of his pastorate. The morning preacher will be the Rev. A. C. Darrow of Burma.

The first month of the new pastorate at the Jefferson Avenue Baptist Church has shown uniformly large congregations both morning and evening with the large auditorium always well filled by members and guests. Both young people's groups meeting at 6:15 p. m. have interesting programs planned for this Sunday. The Harvest Festival held under the auspices of the Friendly B. Y. P. U. resulted in the collection of a store of staple goods that will be used for the relief of needy during the next few weeks. The Sunday school which meets at 9:45 a. m. under the leadership of the General Superintendent, Mr. Kessel D. Green, closed the month of October with an attendance of only 26 under its former high average of 800. A Junior Church conducted during the morning worship hour has been planned by the Board of Religious Education.

In Six Parts

An epitaph quoted by the Natal Mercury via the Boston Traveler, reads:
 "In Memory of Our Father, Gone to Join His Appendix, His Tonells, His Kidneys, His Ear-Drum and a Leg Prematurely Removed by a Hospital Surgeon Who Craved Experience."

"Girls About Town" At Michigan

Comedy—sparkling seeds of it—and drama, romance, pathos are the elements which get a thorough workout in the hands of a very capable and very large cast of stage and screen favorites in "Girls About Town," Paramount's lavish and brilliant talkie now at the Michigan theater with Kay Francis, Lilyan Tashman, Eugene Pallette and Joel McCrea in the leading roles.
 The story is an original by Zoe Alkins, the woman novelist and playwright who has achieved glory in a few years in the field of letters and of the stage and screen, with such opi as the scenario of "Sarah and Son" and "Anybody's Woman"—and the stage original "The Greed Had a Word For It."

"Platinum Blonde" At Paramount

"Platinum Blonde" is heralded as one of the most amusing, clever and outstanding pictures of the year. Robert Williams makes his first important appearance in this picture and he is one of the most original and clever actors on the screen, in short, he is Clark Gable and James Dunn roled into one, and is the biggest hit in years.
 The story is that of a newspaper man marrying the wealthy girl as played by Jean Harlow, and finding himself, a "Cinderella Man" in a gilded cage, turns and marries the poor girl as played by Loretta Young.

Joe E. Brown Comedy Feature Now at Fisher!

Joe E. Brown, one of the funniest comedians on the screen, is starred in the Fisher attraction of "Local Boy Makes Good." Appearing with him in the production are Dorothy Lee and Ruth Hall, two of Hollywood's prettiest beauties.
 The story centers around Joe E.
 Brown, a college student that the girls are crazy over. Naturally there are plenty of funny situations and the picture is filled with laughs from beginning to end.

"Susan Lenox" Now at State

Greta Garbo and Clark Gable in "Susan Lenox" continue their downtown record run at the State theater where they are now showing for the first time at bargain prices. Very seldom does such a combination of popular screen talent appear in any one picture, two stars that are the most popular of their sex.
 Garbo is magnificent as the heroine of the David Graham Phillips story which Robert Z. Leonard directed.
 The famous novel was adapted for the screen by Wanda Tuschek with dialogue written by Zelta Shears and Leon Gordon. Modernized as it is, the dramatic regeneration theme makes it ideal material for Garbo. In the opinion of many she accomplishes the greatest individual characterization of all her talkie efforts.

Fredric March In "My Sin" at the Riviera

"My sin" is the feature attraction now showing at the Riviera theater. Frederic March and Tallulah Bankhead share honors in the production.
 The picture opens with the scene of a dive, cafe in the Panama where Tallulah is a singer and March a young lawyer who has succumbed to drink and the tropics. Tallulah's worthless husband demands more money from her and in a struggle which ensues he is killed and the woman is held for murder.

Brides Drugged for 3 Days Brides of the Bugis tribe on the Celebes Island are drugged three days before their marriage to keep them from looking at any males other than their intended husbands.

First Saw a Snake

Talus, the Greek, is said to have invented the saw from having once found the jawbone of a snake, which he employed to cut through a small piece of wood.

High School Eleven Triumphs in Colorful Contest With Monroe

Grosse Pointe high school football team defeated Monroe high school for the fourth victory this season, in a hard fought, colorful game Saturday, October 24. The Monroe team threatened Grosse Pointe's goal line in the last two minutes of play, but was unable to crash the strong defensive wall built by the Pointers.

The game started with the Blue and Gold kicking off at 2:30 p. m. The stands were well filled with enthusiastic fans. The home team crashed their opponent's line from the very beginning and made steady advances until they were on the Monroe ten yard line.

Their opponent's touchdown gave Monroe more spirit and started out to gain territory. They began to gain on Grosse Pointe steadily, but Hanneman's long punts sent them back.

The second quarter saw both teams fighting wonderfully and displaying remarkable football. Monroe, which was making gains steadily, at no time threatened the Pointer's goal line.

The Monroe boys began in the fourth quarter for what looked like a sure touchdown. The began to use a passing attack to gain ground. Slowly they forced the Pointers back until the last two minutes of play, the ball rested on the Grosse Pointe two yard line, Monroe's ball, first down. The fans were yelling tremendously loud. The Grosse Pointe coaches were in tears. Monroe, however, failed to gain any ground in the first and second downs, but a gain of one yard, two and a half feet was given to the Monroe boys on the third down. It looked like a sure touchdown. A heap of players on the Grosse Pointe goal line was the result of the fourth down. No one knew whether or not the ball was over the line. The spectators were in silence. When all of the players got up, the ball was still six inches from the line. Grosse Pointe punted, this ending the game.

Grosse Pointe's next game is with the Mt. Clemens high school Saturday, October 31, at Mt. Clemens.
