Vernier Urges Approval of Annexation

Vernier Urges Voters of Lochmoor To Favor Annexation Monday

Edmund C. Vernier, president of the Village of Lochmoor, in a statement issued this week urged Lochmoor voters to approve the annexation of the "Country Club Woods" to the Village of Lochmoor in the special election being held in Lochmoor next Monday, November 16.

The statement of Mr. Vernier was contained in a letter he directed this week to the voters of Lochmoor. His letters, addressed to the voters, follows:

"I desire to call your attention to the Special Election to be held on the 16th day of November 1931 in the Village of Lochmoor, at which you will vote upon the annexation to the Village of Lochmoor of those portions of Country Club Woods Subdivision and Country Club Woods Subdivision No. 1 which lie in Grosse Pointe Township.

"The greater portion of these subdivisions already lies in the Village of Lochmoor. The sewer and water were installed by the Village upon petition of the owners, the Club Realty Corporation, and all special assessments for these improvements have been paid by them to date.

"I am firmly convinced that the annexation of the balance of these subdivisions will be for the good of the Village of Lochmoor and I know that its annexation will not be an additional cost to the Village, but that on the contrary it will add a considerable amount of taxable property to the Village rolls.

"I therefore urge you to vote at the coming election and to vote in favor of the annexation."

Evergreen Native of Michigan

Wm. T. Burch of Garden Service, Inc., speaking of gardens said: "There is perhaps, no single tree or shrub that fits into the picture of any well designed landscape garden as does the evergreen. It's rich dark green coloring, its symmetry and solid low-lying growth make it a favorite of those householders of good taste who give thought and effort to the pleasant task of making their home grounds exactly right. While native to Michigan, the

U. of D. Gridders Seek To Avenge Fordham U. Defeat Next Saturday

"Dad's Day" will be observed at the University of Detroit Saturday with the intersectional football game between Coach Charles E. Dorais' Titans and the Villanova College Wildcats featuring a full day's program.

After an official reception in the faculty building parlors the fathers will be taken on a tour of the campus, visiting the deans of the various colleges and inspecting special exhibits to be presented by the chemistry, biology, engineering and physics departments.

Coach Dorais and his staff will have a difficult time preparing their gridmen for the fray with the invading easterners. The Titans took a severe battering at the hands of Major Frank Cavanaugh's Fordham eleven last Saturday.

Tenth Grade Defeats Ninth Graders, 6-0 In Saturday's Game

The ninth and tenth grade teams of the Grosse Pointe high school had it out in a preliminary game before the regular Varsity game, Saturday, November 7. The tenth grade team outplayed their opponents; Ted Grace scored the tenth grade's touchdown in the first half. The final score was 6-0, tenth grade winning.

High School Youth Is Ordered To Be in Bed By 10 P. M. by Judge

Harold Montgomery, 18 years old, of 589 Fisher road, and a student in the Grosse Pointe High School, must go to bed at 10 o'clock every night until he is 21 years old.

The youth ran into a police patrol at Madison avenue and Hastings street October 18. Patrolman William Hertz was injured and Newton Birschell, 1045 Eastlawn avenue, being taken to Receiving Hospital in the patrol, suffering a broken arm.

Miss Alice Hirschman Passes Tests, Obtains Private Pilot's Card

A woman resident of Grosse Pointe Park, Miss Alice Hirschman, was added to the roll of licensed airplane pilots when she passed flight tests last week at the Grosse Ile airport.

In taking the tests, Miss Hirschman climbed into a Curtiss-Wright Junior the same plane in which she made her first solo flight.

As a private pilot's license requires less flying experience than other types require, she was not asked to do any difficult maneuvers.

Colorful Production Staged by Hi School Dramatic Assn.

Color, spectacular acting, emotion, good direction, and feeling were all displayed in the Pointe Players' first production this season. The play was Robert E. Sherwood's comedy, "The Queen's Husband," and was given Friday and Saturday evenings, November 6 and 7 at the Grosse Pointe high school auditorium.

The play was composed of three acts, all taking place in the King's study. The play was centered around a revolution, and the setting was in an imaginary small modern monarchy. The king, Eric VIII, taken by George Lloyd, was a weak ruler, governed chiefly by his stern wife. Of course, the Princess, taken by Ethel Beals was chosen to marry a prince of some other nation, but hated her fiance very much. Her lover, the king's secretary, Frederick Granton, taken by Thomas Groehn, was a likeable chap. Everything turned out all right in the end, even the revolution, and the audience was well pleased with the evening's entertainment.

Music between the acts was furnished by the Grosse Pointe high school special orchestra. The only faculty advisers were, Mr. Axel Gruenberg and Miss Lucille Cornell. This was the first play of the Pointe Players to be entirely under student direction. The director was Jeanne Harding.

The cast was as follows:

- Frederick Granton..... Thomas Groehn
Phipps..... Roy Maypole
Lord Birten..... William Bradley
Mistress-of-Chamber..... Betty Barthel
Princess Ann..... Ethel Beals
Queen Martha..... Mary Sibley
1st Lady-in-Waiting..... Virginia Tower
2nd Lady-in-Waiting..... Marion Simmons
General Northrup..... Edward Ketterer
King Eric VIII..... George Lloyd
Major Blent..... Donald Sullivan
Soldier..... Theodore Peister
Dr. Fellman..... Arnold Wellman
Prince William..... Robert Thibodeau
Laker..... Henry Parsons

The eleventh annual Chrysanthemum Show of the Grosse Pointe and Eastern Michigan Horticultural Society, Saturday and Sunday, November 14th and 15th, will introduce several new Chrysanthemums not previously exhibited at any other show throughout the country.

V. R. DePetris, Grosse Pointe Farms, well known horticulturist and hybridist, will have on display at least three "1932" introductions. Heading the list will be "Edith Newberry," named as a compliment to Mrs. John S. Newberry who will open the show, and who has always displayed keen interest in the work of the Horticultural Society.

The "Titan" is a scarlet red anemone recently named for the U. of D. grid-ders, and the "Pride of Michigan," a large flowering, incurved—the color being maize yellow, measuring 28 inches or more in circumference—is one of the largest and best introductions for 1932.

Mr. DePetris' exhibit will be a very large and choice one and will include a goodly number of unnamed seedlings, and others of recent introduction.

One of these will be "Melba," which is now a national favorite—a bronze red single of exceptional merit.

"Norma," an unusual shade of lavender pink of the anemone type, which caused much favorable comment at the 1930 National Chrysanthemum Show, will be included.

The Society's schedule calls for more than fifty competitive classes in plants, cut flowers and artistic arrangements, and it is, expected that all of these will arouse keen competition.

A touch of variety will be given to the show in a large exhibit of choice evergreens, all named by the Coryell Nursery Company of Birmingham. This exhibit will be under the charge of Mr. Elliott Coryell, landscape architect, who will be glad to give information on the selection, care and planting of evergreens.

Another similar display will be staged by The Carter Nurseries of Ann Arbor, Michigan, whose attractive exhibit at the September flower show was so greatly admired.

The exhibition will be formally opened on Saturday, November 14th, at 5:00 o'clock by Mrs. John S. Newberry. Presiding will be Mrs. Fred T. Murphy, president of the Garden Club of Michigan.

Mr. Tom Pearson is acting as general show chairman.

The bulletin board is covered with interesting cartoons; it would pay to "look in" some day and view an interesting exhibit.

Mr. Jamieson placed job-seekers in two classes: those who desire merely to be placed on the payroll; and those who have a definite goal in view. He urged students to place themselves in the latter group for their own personal benefit.

Money should not be given much consideration when one is choosing a life work in Mr. Jamieson's opinion. "Happiness is the chief criterion," he said. He gave several examples of persons he had known personally who forsook high salaried positions for jobs that would make them happier.

A student affairs committee has been appointed by Mr. Charles Leavitt, assistant principal and chairman of this committee, and Dr. John Barnes, principal.

This committee will have general charge of all matters connected with the extracurricular life of the school (excluding finances) including: Student Council, Service Club, all clubs, administration of the point system, honor banquet, and noon recreation.

Faculty members assisting Mr. Leavitt are: Miss Marie Loughlin, Miss Louise Casebeer, and Mr. Axel Gruenberg. The student members are: William Farr, Betty Hanna, and John Parsons.

A student association board has been formed under the direction of Miss Wilma Crow, chairman of the organization, and Miss Marguerite Mundi, secretary.

This organization will be in complete charge of the adoption and administration of a budget for the student association. Meetings will be held soon to plan methods of handling proposed budgets. Faculty advisers will be asked to hand in budgets of their departments.

Assisting Miss Crow and Miss Mundi are three faculty members: Mrs. John Wagner, Miss Nellie Messerli, and Mr. Don Campbell. The students appointed to the student association board are: Arnold Wellman, Edward Ketterer, and Dorothy Hamer.

Peace Talk Futile Says Rev. Mr. Zwayer

Last Sunday night the Rev. Wayland Zwayer speaking at the Jefferson Avenue Baptist Church stated that "as there has been peace talk before and wars have followed, so there is peace talk today and there will again be war." In opening his address, the Baptist pastor insisted that "we are enjoying at present not peace but merely a temporary cessation of hostilities into which the nations have entered by mutual agreement." In pointing out the probability of future war, the Rev. Mr. Zwayer reminded his congregation that since the close of the Revolution America has had a major war on an average of once every 22 years. Speaking of the possibility of peace, he said in part:

Just so soon as we begin applying the same principles of peace in our relation with little nations as we dream of applying in our relations with England, Germany and Japan, may we judge ourselves honest in our desire for world peace.

Just so soon as we quit manufacturing and selling munitions for other people to fight with may we dream of the day when we shall not be firing guns ourselves.

Just so soon as we decide that the American flag does not follow the American dollar and that property or commercial interests are not worth men's lives may we begin to dream of peace.

In closing his remarks, the Rev. Mr. Zwayer, himself an army chaplain during the World War, paid tribute to those who died in service, saying:

"After a long night of waiting, they turned their faces toward the sunrise willing to meet the issues of war, because in the words of their leader, 'God helping them, they could do no other, and with the same fearless hearts met death in the prime of their youth, facing the sunset with equal courage, going west, not to the land of their birth but west into the premature sunset of life and into the land of their new found spiritual birth. They died. Others are living, many are wounded but others show no scars of wounds in their bodies. The world has not yet found its way into the arms of grades, nine, ten, eleven, and twelve will be held Friday, November 20, at 3:30 o'clock.

The events will be: twenty yard free style race, forty yard free style race, one hundred yard free style race, a relay race, shoe diving race, diving.

The rules governing this swimming meet are as follows:

No girl may enter more than three events. Each girl must be present at the two practices Monday, November 16, and Thursday, November 19. Each diver must perform at least three different styles of diving. The awards will consist of a banner to the class winning, and medals to the individual high-point winners. Admission is by student association ticket or ten cents.

"Social Difficulties" is the title of a play to be presented by home room 236 at the Grosse Pointe high school on November 24 for the eighth and ninth grades.

The play is under the direction of Thelma Burkemo, who also plays the role of George Lillcraft. The rest of the cast is as follows:

Constance Winthrop, Coral Blankmeyer; Mrs. Joslyn, Lorraine Goodenow; Mrs. Lillcraft, Mabel Young; Margaret Joslyn, Jean Waterston.

The plot concerns the manners of a bashful little boy.

French themes and projects were completed Friday, November 6, by Miss Elizabeth Harriman's French II classes.

The students had their choice as to what topic they would write on or illustrate in any manner they chose. The only restriction was that the topics must be based on French interests.

A great variety of subjects were discussed, including the lives of great Frenchmen, ways and customs of the French people, furniture and fads of France, as well as phases of France's history. An interesting project illustrating what the different French cities manufacture was posted in room 125 for the students' benefit. It was made by Aline Ingalsbe.

The first meeting of a journalistic club sponsored by Miss Doris K. Trott was held in room 124 last Tuesday afternoon directly following a newspaper writing contest devised by Quill and Scroll, national honorary society for high school journalists. The organization, which is nameless as yet, elected Betty Hanna temporary chairman. Two committees were delegated by her, one to select a suitable name for the club, another to draw up a constitution.

Although the club was organized chiefly to further interest in journalism, it will have its social side as well, according to Miss Trott.

Relationship
Two men who marry sisters are commonly called "brothers-in-law," though Webster's dictionary defines a brother-in-law as "the brother of one's husband or wife" or "the husband of one's sister." The dictionary states that the term is sometimes inaccurately applied to "the husband of one's wife's or husband's sister," and that the relationship between brothers-in-law is called "affinity."

Long a Church Member

D. A. R. To Entertain State Board

On Thursday evening, November 19, at the Detroit Yacht Club, the state executive board of Michigan Daughters of the American Revolution will be the dinner guests of Mrs. Edward J. Savage of Detroit, State Consulting Registrar and Mrs. Osmond D. Heavnerich of Grosse Pointe, Regent of Fort Pontchartrain Chapter. Members of the local chapter will also be present.

At Hotel Statler on Friday afternoon, November 20, the state board members will be guests of Fort Pontchartrain Chapter at the one o'clock luncheon and for the business meeting and program which follows. The guest speaker on the program will be the Rev. Edgar DeWitt Jones, whose address is entitled "The Glory that is Washington's."

Mrs. James H. McDonald as State Regent will preside over the state board meeting scheduled for Thursday afternoon and Friday morning, November 19 and 20 at Hotel Statler.

ODD GADGETS SENT TO PATENT OFFICE

Devices Range From Hen's Nest to Sea Wall.

Washington.—Hard times or no, hopeful inventors are offering the world a constant stream of ponderous achievements and frivolous gadgets.

Recent inventions registered at the United States patent office range from a snowplow to a new kind of hen's nest, replacing the conventional straw variety so long in use, and to an improved type of sea wall.

An inventor in the sheep walks of Australia has received a patent for a "dabbling machine" designed to remove foreign matter from wool. The description accompanying the patent tells in some detail how the sheepskin is put through a mechanical combing process to remove burrs, emerging, the inventor no doubt hopes, as clean as when it first clothed a new-born lamb.

Edward Arthur Forbes of West Palm Beach, Fla., obtained the patent for a sea wall. Wherein this particular sea wall is an improvement upon other sea walls is not immediately apparent from the description in the Patent Office Gazette, but it might be considered significant that a Floridian should invent a sea wall.

Freak Inventions Predominate.
Minor and freak inventions dominate the patent office lists. Only rarely does one appear so revolutionary as to cause a sensation, except, perhaps, among technicians especially interested. Most of the names appearing as inventors are either large corporations or their employees.

In the latter class is Olof Bjork of Taft, B. C. The world may live to see delegations of motorists making pilgrimages to Bjork, for he has invented a backstop for automobiles. It is a simple device of rubber and coil springs, taking the place of the familiar rear bumper, and is designed to cause a recoil when one automobile sneaks up and bumps another in the rear.

Another recent invention is a combination fountain pen and inkstand, in which a device in the inkstand operates the filling device in the pen, thus saving labor for the pen's owner.

Prune Pitter Designed.
From California came a design for a prune pitter. This machine has a gadget for gripping the prune firmly, a rubber tube to be applied to the end of the prune, and a device for extracting the pit. The pit then is sucked through the tube and deposited wherever they deposit prune pits in California.

A few other recent patents, as listed in the Gazette, are: Handbag and concealed muff (this combines the old-fashioned hand warmer with the modern oversize purse), cigarette cork tipper, handband fastener, game board, hair-cutting machine, identifier for toothbrushes and the like (being an initialed necklace for your toothbrush), machines for wrapping cigars and other elongated bodies, finger ring (this has a series of hairs, alternately right side up and upside down).

Forgets Rented Horse; Tied to Tree 3 Days

Pittsburgh.—When Frank Sopolski hired a saddle horse and had not returned it two days later George Fassender, owner of the South Hills riding schools, figured something was wrong. A 12-hour search located Sopolski at his home.

Then, Fassender told humane society officials, Sopolski thought of the horse for the first time since he had gone swimming in a South park pool. He wasn't quite certain where he had left the horse, Fassender said, but they finally found it in a clump of woods a quarter of a mile from the pool. The horse, its owner said, had been tied to a tree so closely that it had not been able to reach food nor water during the 76 hours it was there.

At a hearing before Aid. Patrick Cawley, Sopolski was fined $10 for cruelty to animals and posted $1,000 bond for a hearing on the criminal charge of failing to return a rented horse.

New Aluminum Metal Produced in Sweden

Stockholm.—A new aluminum alloy called "chromal," which combines great hardness and tensile strength with the light weight of aluminum, has been perfected in Sweden by a metallurgist, J. Haerden. By means of a special patented process the inventor has been able to unite aluminum with chromium.

Tree-Sitting Cat Quits

Knoxville, Tenn.—A tree-sitting cat spent a week in a tree here without food or water before it was forcibly lowered to the ground.

Oldest Office Holder on Job for 60 Years

Richmond, Va.—Sergt. Patrick Boisseau of the Richmond police force claims to be Virginia's oldest officeholder. He is eighty-one and is entering his sixty-first consecutive year of public service in Richmond.

He was sheriff at Danville during the race riot there in the early '90s. Once, almost single-handed, he turned back a mob seeking to attack the jail to secure a negro prisoner.

Hope
Hope is an endless chain that is often broken but easily repaired.

LIGHTS of NEW YORK

Practically anyone can go to bed, but not everyone can go to sleep. For this there are various remedies. All depends upon the form of wakefulness from which a person suffers. I know a man who is kept awake by any light. He happened to get a room in a hotel where a street light shone through the window. Knowing that his wife sometimes slept with a stocking over her eyes, he tried the scheme with a sock. Apparently, he didn't know the trick of adjusting it, as it constantly slipped down over his nose and mouth, threatening to smother him. Finally, he remade the bed so that he lay with his head away from the window. This was a pretty good idea, except for the fact that he had a stiff neck in the morning from twisting about to see whether the light was still there.

Another man I know can't stand noises; at least, city noises are a source of irritation to him. When he lies down to sleep he finds himself counting trucks and automobiles which roll by. Somebody told him about some wax things which you put in your ears and he thought the problem was solved. The next time he came in from the country, he prepared for a peaceful night in town by getting some of the wax plugs and inserting them. The rest of the night he lay awake, straining his ears to discover whether he could hear through the wax.

There is a friend of mine who lives next to an armory. In the regiment to which the armory belonged was a man who evidently had ambitions to become a bugler. After everything was over on dull nights and the others had gone home, he would remain and practice bugle calls. Perhaps at eleven o'clock, he would blow tattoo for a while, which was fair enough, but around midnight he would start in on reveille, or boots and saddles. Later still, he might blow the mess call. Now the listener to whom I refer is a man who retires and rises early, but he had no desire to boot and saddle at 1 a. m. And as for the mess call, his doctor refuses to permit him to eat at night. The result is that a good, hard-working fellow with music in his soul may never become an expert bugler, merely through lack of practice.

Some persons are like that. They have no appreciation of honest effort. A side street in New York was being excavated, as all streets are. Some time in the early hours a workman with a lantern climbed down into the trench and began to beat cheerfully with a hammer on a piece of metal. Henry W. Longfellow would have appreciated such industry. He might have been inspired to write something else along the line of "The Village Blacksmith." But the fellow who did hear the musical notes was no poet, but only a retired for the night business man. Scarcely three electric light bulbs, he hurled them in quick succession from a seventh-story window, so that they struck what was left of the street in the immediate vicinity of the worker. If you ever have dropped an electric light bulb on a hard surface from any height, you know what happened. The cheerful worker got out of that excavation in one jump and made the first 100 yards in record time. To his dying day, he probably will believe that some one was shooting at him.

Golfers and bridge players' insomnia are among the commonest forms of the malady. The golfer plays each shot over; the bridge player each hand. Between dark and daylight, some most remarkable drives are made and every finess is successful. About the only cure I know for this form of wakefulness is chloroform.

But there is the old reliable method of inducing slumber. First you must relax all your muscles and your jaw. Then you must close your eyes and vision a great green meadow, divided by a hedge. Now it is necessary to fill the meadow with sheep and start them jumping over the hedge. As they go over, you count them, one by one. After you have counted a million, it may be well, for the sake of variety, to switch to goats.

Part of Noted Robinson Crusoe Island Vanishes

Santiago, Chile.—Six persons were killed when a part of the island of Juan Fernandez, 350 miles off Valparaiso, suddenly slid into the ocean, it was announced by the war ministry. The disaster, which was attributed to effects of a strong storm and a tidal wave which swept it, affects Cumberland bay, the only harbor on the island, and surrounding hills.

It was Juan Fernandez Island which inspired the book "Robinson Crusoe" by Daniel Defoe. That story is supposed to have been based on tales told by Alexander Selkirk, a sailor who was left on the island following a mutiny on his ship in the Seventeenth century. After the island became a possession of Chile, following Chilean independence in the Nineteenth century, it was used for years as a state prison.

stead, built in 1835 by Alexander Buel, was occupied after his death by his daughter, Mrs. Charles H. Wetmore, and by Mrs. Hodges until she moved to Grosse Pointe Park.

Mrs. Hodges was active throughout her life in improving the living conditions of girls and women. In 1923 she was elected president of the Girls' Protective League and throughout her presidency worked for the establishment of similar league in other Michigan communities. Through the activities of the league the woman's division of the Detroit Police department was established. Also, the Juvenile Court was established through the exertions of Mrs. Hodges.

She was married in 1885 to Charles Henry Hodges. Besides her husband Mrs. Hodges is survived by two sons, Wetmore Hodges, Beverly Farms, Mass., and Charles H. Hodges, Jr., of Grosse Pointe Farms; her sister, Mrs. Charles Beecher Warren, and two brothers, James McMillen Wetmore and Buel Wetmore, both living near Phoenix, Ariz.

Brother Against Brother: De La Salle Battles Alumni Stars

De La Salle Collegiate, leaders in the Catholic High School league, will meet their school alumni in their annual tilt, Sunday afternoon, November 15th at De La Salle field, Conners avenue at Glenfield opposite the Municipal Airport.

This is the third of these annual affairs. The two previous games were won by the Varsity eleven and this year the Alumni have determined to turn the tables. All of the De La Salle players have been coached by the same mentor, Bob Maniere, a star half-back of the University of Detroit teams of 1926, '27 and '28, and their teams have topped the Catholic High School League for the past three years, winning the championship in 1929, being runner-up in 1930 after having taken the 1930 champions into camp; and this year's Varsity are still unbeaten with St. Catherine's and St. Anthony's ahead of them on November 21st and Thanksgiving Day respectively.

An interesting feature of this game as it was in the previous games, will be the playing of brother against brother. This year, two pair of brothers will face each other from opposite sides of the scrimmage line. Bill McClellan of the Alumni will captain the old times against Dick McClellan, captain of the Varsity. Bill Schmid, of De La Salle's clever right guard will lock shoulders with his brother Hank, a member of this year's University of Detroit Freshmen team. The combined lineups contain several of the outstanding stars of the local and state high school grid game. Four members of the 1930 team were selected on the all-star team of the Southern Michigan League and these players will be in the game Sunday.

Most Dangerous Hour

The most dangerous hour for those who drive automobiles is between five and six o'clock in the afternoon. More accidents occur then than at any other time of the day. "About five in the evening the driver is tired out by the day's activities," explains the head of the National Safety council in Country Home. "His mind and muscles are not well co-ordinated and he is slow-minded."

Evergreen Native of Michigan

evergreen is one of the most difficult of all the trees to bring to maturity, and requires the most expert knowledge of transplantation and care. It has many enemies, which however scientific methods are able to control successfully. The last of these foes and the hardest to combat was the dog.

"Protection of the tender young evergreen has been a problem; wire nettings have been used, but they were unsightly and of small benefit; thorny bushes have been planted around them and, while this saved the expensive tree, its beauty was hidden by the bush and it's appearance was spoiled."

We, at Garden Service, attacked the problem from a different angle, and have discovered a combination of harmless chemicals, the odor of which is particularly displeasing to the dog. So distasteful in fact that we simply hang a tube on the tree we wish to protect and Mr. Dog will not go near it. It surely is good insurance and we are using it in our regular business as a matter of course."

Cadillac Society, G. A. R.

Both Senior and Junior groups of Cadillac Society, Children of the American Revolution, will be entertained from two until five o'clock on Saturday afternoon, November 21, in the home of Mrs. Osmond D. Heavnerich, on Pemberton Road, Grosse Pointe. Mrs. William F. Catlin, director of the Society, will be assisted by Miss Betty Shaw, president of the Senior Group, in the business session, and by Mrs. C. D. Macpherson and Mrs. L. W. Hoffman in the social hour.

Members of the society are children of members of Fort Pontchartrain Chapter, D. A. R., of which Mrs. Heavnerich is Regent.

Wilson Theatre
"The Admirable Crichton" the Barrie play in which Walter Hampden and Fay Bainter have the principal roles; will open at the Wilson theatre on Wednesday, November 18, instead of Nov. 25 as previously stated, running four nights with Thursday and Saturday matinees.

"June Moon" from the hilarious pens of Ring Lardner and George S. Kaufman, will be presented at the Detroit Civic Theatre next week, opening Monday night, Nov. 16. "June Moon" was one of the biggest New York hits running for more than a year on Broadway and touring very successfully last winter.

R. K. O., Downtown
"Are These Our Children," featuring Beryl Mercer, the Mrs. Higgins of "Miracle Woman" and a juvenile cast consisting of Rochelle Hudson, Arline Judge, Roberta Gale and Ben Alexander. The theme of "Are These Our Children," is said to be similar to that of "An American Tragedy," in that it deals with the misdemeanors of our modern youth.

"Touchdown" Now At the Fisher!

"Touchdown" is the thrilling action-packed romance picture which is showing at the Fisher theater this week, beginning Saturday November 14th. Appearing in the picture are Richard Arlen, lovely Peggy Shannon, Regis Toomey, Jack Oakie, J. Farrell MacDonald, Charles Starrett and many others.

The story of this football picture is treated in an unusual manner, being different from any similar type of picture filmed before. It is filled with plenty of action and romance and presents five All-American football stars in leading roles.

Joan Crawford At the United Artists

Joan Crawford and Clark Gable are appearing together for the first time in "Possessed," which opened Thursday at the United Artists theater. Film fans have been clamoring for these stars to appear together and now they have their wish granted.

Appearing in this picture with these stars are many outstanding personalities. Among them is Detroit's own favorite, Wallace Ford, who is making his film debut. Mr. Ford appeared in Detroit last season with a stock company. "Skeets" Gallagher does his share towards livening up the picture. In addition to this there are Frank Conroy, Marjorie White, John Miljan and Clara Blandick.

Four Marx Bros. At the Riviera Theatre

Groucho, Chico, Harpo and Zeppo, the mad brothers known as the Marxes, are the stars of a new and hilarious comedy "Monkey Business" at the Riviera theater, Grand River and Joy road during the entire week.

"Monkey Business," the funniest picture the four brothers have yet made. They are revealed as stowaways on a great transatlantic liner.

Five Stars Appear At the State

A brilliant cast headed by Walter Huston appears in "The Ruling Voice" written by Rowland Lee, and shown for the first time in Detroit at the State. The other members of the cast include Loretta Young, Daris Kenyon, David Manners, Dudley Digges, John Halliday and Gilbert Emery.

Walter Huston as the man who portrays the grim role of Bannister—czar of the milk trust, plays the part without any of the trappings of the conventional politician. Outwardly he is a polished gentleman and patriotic citizen. Only those who come before him as enemies of his grafting organization know the ruthless cruelty of which he is capable.

George Bancroft At the Michigan

"Rich Man's Folly," the current screen feature at the Michigan theater, has a cast of great strength and popularity. George Bancroft, the famous star of the picture, has one of the strongest character roles he has ever undertaken.

Bancroft acts the part of a big ship-builder, a man of large affairs in the business world, a dominating personality. Just to portray such a type is "easy stuff" for Bancroft, but the part calls for much more. He has to portray not only a type, but impersonate a character—a domineering, hard-fisted, ambition-mad man who has stifled all love and friendly feeling. This calls for the highest dramatic technique and vigor.

AMERICA WAS ONCE JOINED TO EUROPE

French Scientist Says Deluge Parted Continents.

Paris.—The Abbe Moreux, eminent French meteorologist and scientist, has aroused intense scientific interest by reviving discussion of the theory that the American continent once was joined to the Old world but, after the deluge, floated away to its present position.

This theory was advanced during the early part of this century by the German meteorologist Wegener, who died recently. Accepting the theory that the interior of the earth is fluid, then the solidified continents may be giant expanses of floating earth, attached to the interior of the earth by a supple, gradually diminishing link.

The Abbe Moreux points out that the German scientist held that the two continents, when they were close together, fitted into one another almost perfectly, as though they were parts of a jigsaw puzzle. Examination of a world map shows that this jigsaw puzzle idea is not so far-fetched as it would seem at first.

When the deluge came, Abbe Moreux says, the narrow gap between the continents widened, America drifted away, leaving the wide expanse of the Atlantic to separate the newly created world from the old.

The French scientist declares the theory is not new. It was first advanced by Pierre Placet in 1663, and again by Snider in 1880. Abbe Moreux, while unwilling to pass on the theory, points to the curiosity of the islands of the Atlantic, such as the Azores and Madeira. Have they remained stationary, or are they floating more slowly toward the new world?

It is indicated that the French academy of sciences may discuss the theory in its entirety, while organization of a mission to study the composition of the Azores and other Atlantic islands is being urged.

Legion Would Push Work on Public Improvements

Chicago.—"While the American Legion is constantly looking after the welfare of physically disabled comrades, the Legion now feels that it should give attention to the many thousands of veterans who are physically sound but financially disabled." This statement was made by Ralph T. O'Neil, national commander of the American Legion in commenting on the public improvement programs being sponsored by the ten thousand Legion posts in ten thousand cities.

"Government reports show that there are about $2,500,000,000 worth of public improvements planned and nearly ready to carry through," points out Mr. O'Neil. "But many millions of dollars worth of projects are tied up in red tape and money appropriated is lying idle. Since a great deal of man-power is required in construction work, labor's share of this two-and-a-half-billion-dollar program will be in the neighborhood of one and a half billion dollars. Labor needs that money."

"The American Legion unemployment commission, headed by Howard Savage, past national commander, asks that each Legion post support in its own community needed projects so that employment may be furnished immediately. This will be to the public benefit for projects built now will cost far less than later when higher prices return. Further, money productively spent to the benefit of labor and the community will not have to be spent next winter in nonproductive relief work with the same men. The ex-service man asks no charity, but an opportunity to support himself by building up his community and his home."

New Geyser Discovered by Explorers in Alps

Schül, Switzerland.—The Alps have had heretofore everything that mountains should have except a geyser. That fault has now been remedied, for a geyser, somewhat less powerful than those in Yellowstone National park, has just been discovered in the mountains here.

The geyser erupts regularly each 15 minutes, shooting a jet of water about 80 feet into the air. Scientists attribute the phenomenon to the accumulation of carbonic gas in a natural reservoir below the surface.

Monument to Taine Being Erected in Paris

Paris, France.—A monument is being erected in front of the Invalides to the memory of Henri Taine, whose real name was Hippolyte Adolphe Taine. The site of the memorial was chosen because Taine was given the name of Henri through the whim of the editor of the Revue des Deux Mondes, who also styled him a French critic. He was more truly a great historian and philosopher, who enjoyed a considerable vogue in the latter part of the Nineteenth century.

New Process Makes Leather in One Week

Stockholm, Sweden.—The problem of producing high-grade leather from raw hides in a week has been solved through a Swedish invention, the so-called Wrangle-Friberg method. So far 10,000 raw hides, weighing 180 tons, have been successfully treated.

The vital part of the process is performed with a strong vacuum pump which makes possible the tanning of the hides in a nearly complete vacuum and in only seven days.

Grace Church
The Laymen's Missionary Movement was organized twenty-five years ago next Sunday. The date also marks the one hundred twenty-fifth anniversary of the famous Haystack Prayer Meeting at Williams College. Both events have vitally influenced the progress of missionary activity of the Christian Church in America. A special Men and Missions Service commemorative of the above anniversaries will be held here next Sunday morning at 10:45. The pastor will speak on "Men and Religion." All men of the community are especially invited.
The church school will meet at the usual hour, 9:20.
The Boy Scout Troop, No. 12 has been reorganized and meets every Tuesday evening at 7:30. Mr. Walter L. Buckenizer is the new scoutmaster and Mr. Arnold Saville, the new assistant scoutmaster. Boys of scout age are invited to join.
The annual convention of League and church school members and workers in the Michigan District of the Evangelical Synod will take place at Bethel Evangelical Church, Nov. 13 to 15. We hope to see many of our people at the opening banquet on Friday evening at 6:30, as well as at the following sessions. One of the features of the convention will be an address by Dr. Edgar DeWitt Jones of Central Woodward Christian Church on Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Bethel Church is at 2270 West Grand Blvd., near Linwood.
A men's retreat will be conducted at St. Matthew's Evangelical church, Concord and Stuart, on the evening of Wednesday, Nov. 18, 8:00 P. M. Dr. John L. Ernst will be the speaker. The retreat is held under the auspices of the Detroit Federation of Evangelical Brotherhoods.

Next Sunday morning we hope to see the Sunday school, directed by Paul Hirt, in still larger growth. At 11:00 a. m. there will be a "Surprise Service." You will be glad you came. At 6:30 the Christian Endeavor societies are meeting. At 7:30 p. m. there will be a Scotch service, directed by Mrs. Alfred Wilson and Mrs. Strang. The services will be conducted in Scotch fashion. Rev. C. E. Kircher will preach the third of the series of evening sermons on "The Hereafter." This will be entitled "Can We Talk With Our Departed Ones?"

Messiah Lutheran
In the sermon to be delivered in the services on the coming Sunday, November 15, the second of three great texts from Romans will be treated. Services will be held as follows: German service at 9 a. m., English service at 11:15 a. m.; Sunday school at 10:15 a. m.
The Men's Club will meet next Tuesday evening, November 17, at 8 o'clock while the Junior Society will meet on Friday of the coming week, at 7:15 P. M.

Jefferson Avenue Baptist Church
A thoroughly modern interpretation of some ancient questions will be made by the Rev. Wayland Zwyer of the Jefferson Avenue Baptist Church in a group of evening sermons which begin Sunday night. The first of these will be "Does God Tempt Us." This will be followed by the question, "What Is the Source of Evil?" Do temptations come from God, from the devil, from the outside us or from within? The following two Sunday nights Mr. Zwyer will ask, "Can Good Be Accomplished by Evil?" and "What Is the Proof of Our Religion." These Sunday evenings at the Jefferson Avenue Baptist Church are held strictly within sixty minutes, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The large congregations enjoy the opening song service of well known hymns, led by Lincoln Igou, chorister and the choir of twenty-four voices.

"Hearts That Beat True," will be the subject of a message by Mr. Zwyer at the 11 o'clock morning worship. Last Sunday morning 115 visitors registered their attendance. A cordial invitation is extended by the Pastor and members to all who are without a regular church home, welcoming them to this hour of morning worship.

It is doubtful whether or not three Titan regulars will be able to oppose the Wildcats Saturday. The loss of George Howell, regular, who was carried off the field with a wrenched knee will be seriously felt by the Red and White team which is weak on pivot men. Ed Turashoof, fullback, suffered an ankle injury, while Cliff Marsh, quarterback, is out of the lineup with a hurt back.

Villanova is coached by Harry Stuldreher, who achieved football fame as a regular of the famous "Four Horsemen" of Notre Dame. He will present a veteran team which has been greatly bolstered by several valuable additions from last year's freshman squad. Heading this list of sophs is Bill Potts, fullback, who has been starring for the "Cats in the kicking role. He averaged 46 yards on 13 punts against Bucknell as the teams played to a scoreless tie. The remainder of the Villanova regular backfield is composed of veterans. Toby Cavanagh, quarterback, is credited with gaining victory over Boston College with his ability to return punts. START BASKETBALL PRACTICE
Nearly forty candidates daily report to Coach Lloyd Brazil as the University of Detroit cagers prepare for an 18-game schedule which opens on Saturday evening, Dec. 12, with St. John's University of Toledo furnishing the opposition.
Brazil has but four veterans from last year's squad to use as a nucleus for the '31 combination. Lettermen available for service this year are: Captain Ed Chapp, guard; Hugh Cicotte, center; and Roger Lau and Gordon Aitchison, forwards. Promising sophomores include: Ed Skrycki and John O'Hagen centers; Francis McCarthy, Thomas Teal and Bill Hayes, forwards; and Norbert Reisterer and John Toker, guards.

The schedule this year features home and home series with Michigan State College, Marquette, DePaul University of Chicago, and Xavier University of Cincinnati. Ten opponents of last year appear on the 1931-32 card. Home games this year will be played at the Naval Armory, on East Jefferson ave.
