If you've had any experience with modeling clay, you'll understand the value of the piece of art turned in by Harriet Harrison, 10-B room 224. It is a clay model of chateau Pierrefonds, made of different colors; green bushes, grey walks, slate roof, towers and May. 8 detail windows and columns.

Madame Marthe Klinger, French instructor, was so moved by these displays of interest in subjects which the builders were little acquainted, that she immediately went down to Mr. Barnes | June 11 to tell him about it and make sure that both students have an honorable mention.

A spirited Grosse Pointe quintet that Sept. 4 would not admit defeat faced its crucial test last Friday evening at River Oct. 2 Rouge and emerged victorious by a score of 22 to 14.

River Rouge, heretofore undefeated in its first four starts, was treated to an exhibition of team passing and fast blocking that was not only pretty to watch, but also very effective. There was no weak link in either the Pointer's offense or defense. Every man on the regular five had scores to his credit except Kinzie. But in bringing Kinzie up from the reserves, Coach Geary did not need a basket shooter. What he needed was pep and spirit and he got it. It could easily be seen that Kinzie by his aggressive spirit injected into the team that old "we can't-belicked" spirit.

Kaiser and Ziegler, the Blue and Gold speed boys, crashed through to garner eleven points between them. Hanneman and Thibodeau were only two points behind them with nine points to their credit

In shifting Hanneman to the pivot and Thibodeau to his familiar post at April 2 guard, it is thought that Coach Geary has at last found the proper position May 27 for these two excellent players.

In winning this game Grosse Pointe again placed itself in the running for the Southeastern League Championship May 27 with one victory and one defeat. June 4 The Reserves won their game 36 to 13 with Thibodeau as high point man July 8 with nine points. However, in victory they suffered a loss as the same Hugh Thibodeau, smooth little forward, broke July 11 his wrist while attempting to take the ball off the board. All Hughy had to July 20 say about it, like the game kid he is, was, "Gee, why I won't be able to play anymore this season."

whereas cities have their own supervisors.

The pamphlet stresses the factor of centain savings in governmental costs and that there are no added expenses in city government as opposed to that of a village and states that the additional duties of a city are: (1) Must provide for a Justice or Municipal Court, (2) Must keep a registry of Chattel Mortgages, (3) Must collect State, County and School taxes and (4) Must conduct State and County elections. Of these four items the first three are self supporting or more, and the last can be so consolidated with municipal elections under a city home rule charter that it is no more expense than the cost of conducting village elections. The matter of caring for poor relief might be the only case wherein the local villages would be assuming an expense greater in extent than the benefits through reduced expenses in other directions.

In order to study the matter thoroughly, the Council of the Village of Grosse Pointe has invited a representative of the League to be present at a meeting to be held shortly at which it is expected many important points will be covered.

Dust in Home Air

Ruins Furnishings Home interiors become extraordinarily dirty during winter, because the atmosphere is continually laden with the smokes, fumes and dusts from thousands of home fires and the increased firing necessary in industrial activity during winter. Tests have shown that in some industrial centers deposits of dust from the air approximate 200 tons or more per square mile per year. Home interiors become grimy, largely because this dust-laden air filters into the house through the cracks around doors and windows, according to Holland Institute of Thermology, of Holland, Michigan, During winter air-borne dust is especially objectionable, because of the tar and acids that quickly sully and damage fine household furnishings. Home airwashing machines are now available. the Institute points out, that effectually remove 98% or more of the dust from the home air.

Rooms Evenly Heated

Uniformity of indoor temperature during the heating season at floor, head and ceiling levels, is one of the important benefits derived from recently perfected home air-conditioning systems, points out the Holland Institute of Thermology, of Holland, Mich. That this is a big step forward to complete home comfort is patent, states the Institute, when one considers that in the typical home warmed by old style heating systems, room temperatures at floor and ceiling may vary as much as 20 degrees. Air-circulators, an integral part of these home air-conditioning systems, keep the indoor air in constant yet draftless motion and thoroughly diffused, thus obviating the common condition of cold floors and over-heated head room.
