What to Eat And How to Prepare it

By ELIZABETH MONAGHAN

Bran—Its Necessity in the Diet There is a horde of people who are working in offices, etc., and living in rooms to whom the obtaining of home made whole wheat bread or even genuine whole wheat grains for breakfast food is an impossibility. I wonder if you realize what this means to you? It is an absolute fact that those who start on whole wheat grain food today will discard all pills or artificial laxatives of any kind within a month. The bran of the whole grains is nature's own laxative.

Lions Declare War On Money Hoarding

Through their national organizations, twenty million American citizens have pledged their support of the nation-wide movement to end hoarding. ### Band Concert At High School Will Assist Women and Children

Under the leadership of Edmund A. Vernier, Township Supervisor, public officials of Grosse Pointe have arranged for the Catholic Boys Band, of Detroit to stage a concert in the Grosse Pointe High school auditorium next Thursday evening, February 25.

The purpose of the band concert, Mr. Vernier stated, is to raise funds for welfare relief in Grosse Pointe Township.

Tickets for the affair are priced at 50 cents per person and are being distributed by members of the police and fire departments of the several Grosse Pointe villages. Officials of the Township and the several villages are also assisting in the advance ticket sale.

"Proceeds from the band concert next Thursday," said Mr. Vernier, "will be expended particularly to assist in the welfare relief of deserving women and children. The greater the fund realized by our effort, the lighter will be the load on taxpayers. It is my earnest and sincere wish that residents of Grosse Pointe will rally to the assistance of less fortunate members of the community by attending the band concert next Thursday evening."

Leo Teetaert, trustee of Grosse Pointe Village, announced that as part of the program he had arranged for a "Sisters' dancing and singing act that promises to be of exceptional entertaining merit.

The band concert will start at 8:30 p. m. next Thursday. Tickets may be purchased at the door on the evening of the concert.

Public Letter Box

The recent activities of the Grosse Pointe School Administration have been carefully followed by residents of the Defer District and they indicate that it is the desire of the Superintendent of schools to remove the Principal, Mr. Fred Kerby, from the George Defer School.

An effort to disclose any serious reasons for this action, has met with no satisfactory results.

A canvass of the district shows that Mr. Kerby commands the highest respect in this community for his ability, sincerity and efficiency in maintaining the high morale and co-operative discipline manifested in this school.

The Board of Education should not be permitted to disrupt the present harmonious and successful leadership of Mr. Kerby, but rather devote their time and energy to formulating and perfecting plans for a drastic reduction in School Expenditures and no waste time haggling over petty technicalities.

The removal of the present Principal will not meet with high favor at this or any other time.

Very truly,
A TAXPAYER.

Opera Program at Orchestra Hall

gaining in popularity in the concert halls of this country. Mr. Kolar is a great admirer of Sibelius and will open the concert with the Symphony in E minor.

The brilliant Poeme Choregraphique, "La Valse," of Ravel and the spirited Rhapsody "Italia," of Casella, will complete the list.
Dolies Prantz, a pupil of Guy Maier, head of the piano department of the University School of Music, Ann Arbor, will be the soloist at the popular concert Saturday evening. He will play the Liszt First Concerto in E flat major. Prantz received the highest rating from the judges at the auditions held during January in Orchestra Hall, to discover promising young talent capable of appearances with the orchestra. The Detroit Symphony is the only major organization doing such a constructive pioneer work. This season the auditions were limited to pianists; next season it is hoped to give opportunity to singers and instrumentalists.

Besides Prantz, two other pianists have been judged of the artistic calibre for an appearance with the symphony: Dorothy Hess, a pupil of Margaret Mannebach, and May Jirasek, nine-year-old pupil of James Breakey, of Detroit, formerly of the State Normal College, Ypsilanti. They will appear at a future date.

A feature of this popular program also will be the performance of the Dvorak Second Symphony. This work, which Victor Kolar introduced to Detroiters at the last pair of subscription concerts, was so favorably received that it is believed it will make as great an impression with the Saturday night audience. It is a work of great melody and will be used to close the program. The charming Overture "In Bohemia," of Henry Hadley, will open the concert.
