Severe Penalty for Interfering with Police Broadcasts

We are herewith publishing excerpts from a Washington Federal Communications Commission letter relative to intercepting and publishing of police radio calls:

In view of the large number of combination broadcast and short-wave receiving sets in the hands of the public the Federal Communications Commission today issued a statement calling attention to provisions of the Communications Act of 1934, regarding the secrecy of certain radio messages and the heavy penalties provided for violations:

Section 605 of the Communications Act of 1934 provides as follows:

"No person receiving or assisting in receiving, or transmitting, any interstate or foreign communications by wire or radio shall divulge or publish the existence, contents, substance, purpose, effect or meaning thereof, except through authorized channels of transmission or reception, to any person other than the addressee, his agent, or attorney, or to a person employed or authorized to forward such communication to its destination, or to proper accounting or distributing officers of the various communicating centers over which the communication may be passed, or to the master of a ship under whom he is serving, or in response to a subpoena issued by a court of competent jurisdiction, or on demand of other lawful authority; and no person not being authorized by the sender shall intercept any communication and divulge or publish the existence, contents, substance, purport, effect, or meaning of such intercepted communication to any person; and no person not being entitled thereto shall receive or assist in receiving any interstate or foreign communication by wire or radio and use the same or any information therein contained for his own benefit or for the benefit of another not entitled thereto; and no person having received such intercepted communication or having become acquainted with the contents substance, purport, effect, or meaning of the same or any part thereof, knowing that such information was so obtained, shall divulge or publish the existence, contents, substance, purport, effect or meaning of the same or any part thereof, or use the same or any information therein contained for his own benefit or for the benefit of another not entitled thereto: Provided, That this section shall not apply to the receiving, divulging, publishing, or utilizing the contents of any radio communication broadcast or transmitted by amateurs or other for the use of the general public, or relating to ships in distress."

Heavy penalties are provided in Section 501 of the same Act for violations of its provisions. That Section reads as follows:

"Any person who willfully and knowingly does or causes or suffers to be done any act, matter of thing, in this Act prohibited or declared to be unlawful, or who willfully and knowingly omits or fails to do any act, matter, or thing in this Act required to be done, or willfully and knowingly causes to suffer such omission or failure, shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished for such offense, for which no penalty (other than a forfeiture) is provided herein, by a fine of no more than $10,000 or imprisonment for a term of not more than two years, or both."

News Digest

By JOHN SMITH

What a screwy world. Some rich men wish they were poor, and poor men wish they were rich, we go to the drug store for furniture, to the beer garden for meals, to the department store for haircuts, to coal companies for ice, oh what's the use, just plain looney.

P. Q. Speeder monopolized the highways over the week-end resulting in a number of serious accidents. What some of them need is a race track.

I'll wager Wayne County's ballot will look like an assessment roll in the forthcoming election. Tom, Dick and Harry and all the boys will be filing for office very shortly. Might have a chance in the scramble.

Tony, as large as life, was at his usual stand for the opening session of Waterfront Park last Saturday.

Who said we don't have storms in this vicinity. The rough weather of Tuesday did some damage in and about Detroit, and several persons were killed.

Here is another for Ripley. A robber held up an individual and then fell asleep while doing so. He woke up behind bars.

When France and England get through fighting over the speed supremacy of their passenger boats. Germany will invent one that will jump across in half the time. You just can't beat the Germans when it comes to inventions.

Never kick at anyone's door excepting your own. You might get shot or you might get an invitation to enjoy the hospitality of the County behind bars.

Hope they speed that coast guard proposal through for Lake St. Clair. There is a need for such a station, on this stretch of treacherous waters.

Otto A. Wurm, Local Merchant, Died May 24

Otto A. Wurm, who was active in the plumbing business for over a quarter of a century, died after an illness which extended over several years, but confined him to his home for only a few weeks, Sunday, May 24.

He was a Past Master of Acacia Lodge F. & A. M., a member of the Shrine, and Past President of the Master Plumbers Association. He installed equipment in some of the finest homes in Grosse Pointe, and was quite well known locally.

He was an individual of remarkably fine character and personality. His family will presumably carry on the business which he founded so many years ago.

St. Ambrose Parish Moonlight on June 16

Before making any plans for the middle of June put a ring around the number 16 on your calendar, for on June 16 St. Ambrose Parish is sponsoring a Moonlight on the Steamer Tashmo, the boat stopping at Sugar Island for an hour.

This gala affair already promises to be the outstanding success of the season, all of the parish's clubs and societies combining to lend their support. Assisting Ed Krass, R. Schmidt, T. Clancy, and W. J. Reddin are committees consisting of more than 40 workers.

A floor show on the boat will feature the evening. The entertainment, which hasn't as yet been booked, will be announced next week. However, the committee promises a card that will certainly meet with your approval.

The funds derived from this Moonlight will go into the fund for a announced next week. However, the comment for the Sisters of St. Ambrose.

One of the highlights in the Memorial Day parade was a company of Germans who fought on the opposing side during the World War, many of them now citizens of the States, and they were applauded by many along the line of march.

Renmor Golf Course completely reconditioned, ideally and conveniently located on Lechmoor Blvd.

Lake St. Clair Not a "Mill Pond"

Since the issue of THE REVIEW last week in which was recounted the aim and purpose of securing Coast Guard patrol and assistance on Lake St. Clair, for aid in emergencies, at least three more drownings have occurred. Two men having been lost under rather mysterious circumstances while bringing a new boat down from Algonac in a rough sea, and one member of a fishing party having drowned off St. Clair Shores. In addition to these fatal accidents, there were four minor incidents; either strandings or boats becoming disabled and brought to harbor safely.

A brief compilation of the activity of local volunteer crews working under Grosse Pointe police with a privately owned boat shows the follows record of accidents in the period from March 1932 to and including December 1935:

Boats disabled 20; becalmed 36; swamped 4; sheltered and unable to proceed 4; lost in fog 3; capsized 16; fire 3; sinking 3, missing or overdue 4; beached to prevent sinking 2; convoyed through heavy seas 9; strandings 25; drifting debris or wreckage menace to small boats 16; collisions 2; stolen 2; man making experimental trip on pontoons 1; drownings 27; persons taken from freighters to Marine Hospital 3; person thrown overboard from speedboat. Total persons involved in all recorded accidents in this period, 540.

Christina Braff Dies After Serious Operation

Mrs. Christina Braff, 551 Notre Dame avenue, City of Grosse Pointe, died on May 27 after a serious operation for kidney trouble. The funeral services were held at the Verheyden Funeral Parlors Friday, May 29, and interment was in Forest Lawn Cemetery.

The family extends their sincere thanks to the maintenance department staff of the Board of Education, the Girl Scouts of Defer school, and their many friends for their kindness and expressions of condolence in their bereavement.

Thurman, Mental Marvel, Coming to E. Jefferson Pontiac

Through the efforts of Mr. F. Whitchurch, president of the East Jefferson Pontiac company of 8777 E. Jefferson avenue, Thurman the Great, well known to many Grosse Pointers, nationally famous as a psycho-analyst and clairvoyant, will make a personal appearance at the East Jefferson Pontiac company's salesrooms the week of June 7th.

Thurman, who is known as the mental marvel, will answer any question which may be of importance to you. This service will be entirely complimentary and his accurate predictions will prove astonishing.

He has appeared successfully in theatres and auditoriums throughout the United States and is gifted with a keen analytical mind. Avail yourself of this opportunity.

Many crimes today are arranged so that blame will fall on the Black Legion. I would suggest that a little less publicity and a little private investigating might bring some definite solution.

Chrysler Jefferson Ave. Plant Open to Visitors

Visitors are cordially welcomed at the Chrysler plant, 12200 East Jefferson avenue. A guide service is available from Monday to Friday, inclusive at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. The guides have had long experience in showing visitors the most interesting of the Chrysler manufacturing and assembly operations and their locations are interesting and informative. A tour of the factory embraces the body plant, the various departments where Chrysler parts are machined, the progressive assembly line and other departments.

Chrysler is noted for the cleanliness and spaciousness of its plants and visitors can make a tour without running the risk of soiling their clothing. The plants are equipped with the most modern machinery used in the industry, and a tour of the East Jefferson factory is a liberal education in seeing how automobiles are manufactured under precision methods never before attained and with an economy that is reflected in the low prices at which they are sold. One sees a car take form from the time the frame is put on the progressive assembly conveyor to the time when it leaves the end of the line complete. With production at full speed, a Chrysler Six or Eight will be turned out at the rate of slightly over one a minute.

It seems that the House of Representatives is in favor of investigating the death of Huey Long and wishes to appropriate funds for an investigation. Who woke up?

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM J. CHESBROUGH, of Yorkshire Road, and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Dewey, of Hamilton Road, spent the holiday week-end at the Chesborough lodge, Wilwin, near Trout Lake.

Coast Guard Service To Be Established On Lake St. Clair

Grosse Pointe's Coast Guard station on Lake St. Clair became a virtual certainty of the near future Wednesday, when Henry Morgenthau, Jr., Secretary of the Treasury, ordered the project placed high on the list of stations to be built.

As a result of three days' feverish work by Commodore Alger Sheldon, Jr., of Grosse Pointe, and Rep. Clarence J. McLeod, the Treasury Wednesday was to forward a favorable recommendation to the House on Mc-

Leod's pending bill authorizing establishment of the station.

This came on the heels of indorsement by Admiral H. G. Hamlet, commandant of the Coast Guard, who was convinced by Sheldon and McLeod that the recent series of drownings in the lake have created an emergency which must be taken care of at once.

Morgenthau placed the Detroit station in fourth place among stations to be built, and informed McLeod that Daniel W. Bell, acting budget director, had passed the project after a sharp debate with McLeod and Sheldon late Tuesday. The Detroiters thus won an exception to the blanket presidential "economy" order that no more Coast Guard stations be built.

Meanwhile, Reps. McLeod and Louis C. Rabaut (Dem.), Detroit, were urging Rep. Schuyler O. Bland (Dem.), Virginia, chairman of the Merchant Marine Committee, to report out Wednesday the bill "authorizing" construction of the station. An appropriation of from $10,000 to $40,000 would follow in a deficiency bill next session.

Admiral Hamlet already has directed that a 75-foot Coast Guard boat be transferred to the lake from New York, to be moored to the dock of the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

There is also some discussion of seaplane to be stationed at Selfridge Field by the Coast Guard, and a smaller boat at the mouth of the St. Clair River.

Warning Issued About State Trailer Law

With the exodus of vacationists beginning and with thousands more to follow within a few weeks, the legal department of the Automobile Club of Michigan today warned tourists taking their vacations in trailers to observe the state laws before departure.

Numerous complaints have been received by the legal department from irate tourists who did not study the state laws before embarking on a "trailer tour." Predominant among the complaints concerned attachment of the trailer to the automobile. The state law on this reads: "All trailers or semi-trailers hauled by any motor propelled vehicle must be attached to such vehicle and to each other with such forms of coupling devices as will prevent such trailer or semi-trailer from being deflected more than 6 inches from the path of the towing vehicle's wheels. The trailers must also be connected to the towing vehicle, or to each other by suitable safety chains or devices, one on each side of the couplings and at the extreme outer edge of the vehicle and each such chain or device and connection so used shall be of sufficient strength to haul the trailer when loaded."

Post Office to Handle Bonus Payment Bonds

All of the work in connection with the delivery, certification and payment of Adjusted Service Bonds has been entrusted to the Post Office department and detailed instructions have been received locally setting forth the manner in which it must be carried out.

"This is going to be a tremendous task for us" said Postmaster Roscoe B. Huston, "but, with the co-operation of the veterans themselves, I am certain that it can be carried out without difficulty and to the satisfaction of all concerned."

"All vacations of postal employees scheduled for this period have been ordered cancelled and both clerks and carriers will be required to work extra hours in addition to their regular schedules in order to cope with the additional work entailed in the handling of those Adjusted Service Bonds."

Bonds for delivery in the Detroit Postal District are being prepared in Chicago and they are scheduled to arrive here on Monday, June 15. While it is believed that most of them will be included in this initial shipment, it is probable that some will not be ready for mailing by the Treasury Department until after June 15, and should some veterans fail to receive theirs on the date the first deliveries are made they are requested not to call at or phone the post office as no information is available as to when particular bonds have been mailed. Deliveries will, in all cases, be made as soon as received.

Bonds received here on the 15th will be delivered by the carriers on the afternoon of the 16th—Tuesday, and those who will be at home then should tell their letter carrier several days in advance. For the convenience of others who are away at work during the day, a special trip will be made by letter carriers throughout the city Tuesday evening, beginning at 5:30 p. m. Veterans should arrange to be at home either during the afternoon or evening to receive this mail. The bonds are being sent out by registered mail and every letter is marked: "Deliver to Addressee Only."

"It is absolutely necessary," said Postmaster Huston, "that the one to whom the bonds are addressed be at home to receive them in person. We can not deliver them to anyone else even though they should be addressed in care of another person or an institution."

Proper identification is also necessary before delivery can be made. Should the addressee not be known to the letter carrier, he should be prepared to have some one present to vouch for his identity; either some other member of the family—someone who usually receives his ordinary mail for him; a neighbor or anyone known to the carrier. The registry receipt, in addition to being signed by the person receiving Adjusted Service Bonds, must also be signed by the one making the identification, together with his address.

Bonds will not be forwarded to another post office. If undeliverable by reason of death or removal to another post office, they will be returned to the Treasury Department.

Adjusted Service Bonds may be redeemed on and after June 15, 1936. Although they earn simple interest at the rate of three per cent per annum no interest is payable on any bonds redeemed prior to June 15, 1937.

Veterans who desire to cash their bonds must sign the request for payment on the back of the bonds in the presence of a certifying officer who will be a postal employee. As soon as arrangements are completed, a list of public buildings throughout the city will be given where the veterans may call to obtain certification for payment.

When the bonds have been accepted for payment, the owner will be given an interim receipt, the certified bonds being sent to the general post office from where checks will be mailed in full payment of the amount of the bonds submitted. No payments will be made at the time of certification.

Detailed instructions as to the procedure to be followed in redeeming these bonds will be given when the places designated for certification are announced.

Republican Clubs to Sponsor Excursion to Cleveland June 11th

The Federated Republican Clubs of Michigan, an organization composed of outstanding incorporated and recognized Republican clubs in the community, have arranged a "One Day Excursion" to the National Republican Convention in Cleveland, on Thursday, June 11, rain or shine. There are thousands of Detroiters who would like to get down to Cleveland for the convention, but who hesitate for lack of time and money.

It is commonly known that hotel rates and food and entertainment costs are a great deal higher during a convention than at other times. The Federation has therefore arranged this trip and has brought the price down to $3.50 for the round trip. The eating problem has been solved by securing Mr. W. F. Detting, traffic manager of Schmidt Brewing Co., who will serve various refreshments at extremely popular prices on board the train. Baggage cars will be attached for the purpose of dancing and each train will be regaled with the martial music of brass bands.

Trains will leave the Michigan Central depot at 7:30 a. m. and will start back from Cleveland at midnight. In Cleveland the excursionists will be entertained in many novel ways. There will be torch parades, sightseeing trips, visits to the convention, and contests of one kind and another.

Mr. Joseph Scheiges is general chairman, and Mr. Fred G. Stanley his assistant.

The Federation invites all citizens interested in Republican affairs to be their guests this day. Tickets are now on sale at the headquarters of the Federation, located at 301 Transportation building, telephone Cadillac 1575.

Arrangements have been made to provide special coaches for parties of 50. Congressional district committee members for the excursion are as follows:

- 11st District—Henry S. Kaweck, 2125 Theodore. Ivanhoe 6908.
13th District—George J. Haines, 722 Ford Bldg. Randolph 8549.
14th District—Jos. Scheiges, 4448 Seyburn. Plaza 1140.
15th District—Geo. W. Smith, 6212 Vermont. Trinity 4-9688.
16th District—Barney Na Lepa, 6073 Chopin. Trinity 2-9677.

Grosse Pointe Matron Invents Kitchen Aid

The internationally famous American breakfast of bacon and eggs is about to be improved upon, and the credit is due to one of our Grosse Pointe women. You will protest that this is such a perfect setting-up meal just as it is that it can't be bettered. But please take our word for it, it can * * * and here's how.

Thanks to this semi-circular rack which you place right on top of any size skillet, your bacon will be more deliciously hot and less greasy when it reaches the breakfast table. The rack, you see, keeps the bacon warm-as-your-tongue-can-stand-it and permits the excess grease to drip down into the pan, favoring the eggs being fried or scrambled beneath.

Any French toast addicts in your family? Stack it up ceiling-high on the rack as you're preparing it and then take the whole piping hot supply in to the famished family impatiently drumming on the dining room table. This method will dispense with "relay" cooking, and husbands, wives and we ones all can participate in the marathon at the same time?

When you're frying chops or cube steaks transfer each finished one to the rack and let it bask in the frying-pan warmth till you've prepared all the meat for tonight's dinner. Much more satisfactory than a lukewarm platter, don't you think?

The same rack placed on a deep kettle will be helpful when you're satisfying demands for French fried potatoes. Or anchor it to the skillet and slide it right in the broiler with jumbo mushrooms, tomato slices, or liver and bacon on it.

It was designed right here in Grosse Pointe by a Grosse Pointe matron, which proves conclusively that society women do find time to think up bright ideas in the kitchen! It's a bright metal, rustproof affair and it costs you only 25 cents.

Coyote Is Cunning The coyote is fast, wary and can more than hold its own when chased by hounds. It knows how to double back on its tracks, throwing the dogs off, and will use every ounce of its strength and fury to prevent a kill.

The "Frozen North" The "Frozen North" is not nearly so bleak and inhospitable as most people think. In Spitzbergen summer temperatures range up to 80 degrees, and the atmosphere is dry and exhilarating.

Grosse Pointe Farms Defeats Esser Brothers

Another game was won for Grosse Pointe Farms Sunday when they defeated the fast Class A team of Esser Brothers, 7 to 5, in one of the best played games ever to be witnessed at Kerby Field.

Esser Brothers beat the Farms last year and were out there to repeat but the Pointers had other plans. Vic Telep, who has won every game he has thrown for the Farms, pitched while Joe Perry, new peppy chafter-box catcher, did the receiving. Nine hits which were fairly well scattered were made off Vic, but he evened things up by striking out nine men. In the meantime the Farms were collecting 13 hits, two of which went for doubles hit by Gregg and Buser, and Verhison getting two out of three and Spencer, reliable shortstop and most envied by rival teams, getting three out of five. Only four men went out by the strike-out route, showing the boys are meeting the old apple.

The outstanding feature of the game was the assurance and pep both teams showed on the field. Any good team will be improved 100 per cent if the players show ambition and pep. After a strikeout they instill courage in a pitcher by the way the ball is tossed from Perry to Pritchard to Kovac to Spencer to Bauer, all closing in on the pitcher shouting words of encouragement. All this is bound to react on the opposition, especially since they keep it up at bat. This may be the reason the team is batting .333 with four of the players hitting .300 or better and four more in the very select class of .400.

Next Sunday the Farms are scheduled to meet Hazel Park at Kerby Field. This is one of the seven teams that defeated the Pointers last year in a slugging affair with Hazel Park getting the best of the hits. This year, with the much improved team Grosse Pointe now have, they will have a tough time trying to out-hit or out-field them.

Vacation Church School at G.P. Memorial Church

Beginning on Monday, June 29th and continuing through Friday, July 24th, there will be a Vacation Church School at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, 16 Lake Shore road, for the children of the community between the ages of 3 and 12. They will meet every week day morning, excepting Saturday, from 9:30 to 12. There will be an outing with swimming and a picnic lunch at the Park every Friday morning.

Instead of the daily offering there will be a registration fee of $2 for the entire month. There are a number of scholarships available for those who desire them.

In connection with the vacation school there will be a music school under the direction of Mrs. Jeanette Strauss Brunck for the boys and girls who are 12 years old and older. This program will be a varied one also, and will be most enjoyable for those who will be able to attend.

Williams Comments on Soldiers Bonus Payment

By BUN WILLIAMS

The Soldiers' Bonus, to be paid off shortly, remains a question to be answered. Many think it will boost the building and automobile industries considerably; at least the manufacturers and lumber dealers figure on it to help them. Their optimism may be rewarded, because the veterans are in a better position now to afford things that were impossible four years ago when they borrowed on their bonus. The money they borrowed, statistics show in most cases, was used to pay up back debts and for the necessities of sustenance. Of course some of them squandered it foolishly, sadly enough those who could not afford it; those who did not need it at the time did not borrow.

So it remains to be seen how the money will be invested, whether it will be wisely spent, thrown away—literally, or put into savings account. Four years ago it did not take long for the money to find its way back to Wall Street, which means that the vets will receive the same money they spent when they borrowed on their bonus.

There are those who are of the opinion that the bonus should never have been paid, at least to the greater majority of the soldiers who never even crossed the ocean. These grumbling complaints come from people who did not serve or have any part in the World War. The fact is, the government isn't giving the vets anything—they paid for their bonus themselves out of the insurance money that the government deducted from each enlisted man's monthly pay. Putting two and two together, we find that the government isn't paying for services on this side of the big pond or fighting on the other side, it's simply repaying the soldiers money that was theirs in the first place.

'Kitchen Slackers' Lack Health

What has become of all the pale, sickly children so common a few years ago? Where are the babies which were jounced and walked all night by weary parents, unable to quiet the fretful wailing? Children today all seem to be round, rosy and full of pep. Babies are cuddly, merry infants who sleep the clock round without a sound.

What has brought about this change? Without a doubt we must bow to the nutritionists, dietitians and doctors who have discovered the secrets of good nutrition, and who have worked untiringly that this knowledge may be made the property of everyone from Mrs. Verypoor of Tumble-down Flats with her brood of eight to Mrs. Muchmoney of Highup Manor. Because proper diets—plenty of the right kind of food—has unquestionably fostered this miraculous change in appearance, habits, and health of children.

Newspapers, magazines, radios, colleges—all have combined to shower the newer knowledge of nutrition on their patrons. There is today no excuse for anyone to lack information about proper diet. The woman whose family is thin, pale, listless—or overweight and sluggish—is, sad to say, a kitchen slacker. The information on how to feed her family for robust health and vitality is here—it she will take it.

Now there may be a chorus of "That's all very well to say. But on a limited food budget—" and here the nutritionists put in their word. The amount of money a woman has to spend on food has little to do with it. In fact, glowing health comes as often, or more so, in the least expensive foods as in "Extra fancy" brands.

Eat at least two vegetables, aside from potatoes, every day, say the nutritionists, and include at least one green leafy one. Vegetables—this may mean dandelion greens, spinach, carrots, cabbage, lettuce, beets—as well as artichoke hearts, broccoli, endive and cauliflower.

Include some Vitamin C food every day, is rule two for glowing health. Vitamin C comes as happily in tomatoes, as in oranges, lemons and grapefruit. One whole grain cereal every day, say those who know. And Mrs. Muchmoney who buys a fancy, expensive prepared brand is getting less value for her money than Mrs. Verypoor who buys plain cereals and cooks them herself.

One quart of milk every day for every child and one pint per day for each adult is the next "must." Considering the amount of food value—the minerals, vitamins and calories—in other words, the healthy value of milk, is in one of the least expensive foods anyone may buy.

One egg a day for children, at least 3 a week for adults is important, because eggs are rich in iron, and iron is the food element which helps build good rich, red blood. One serving a day of meat is valuable in the diet because the protein of it helps rebuild body tissues torn down by fatigue and build new ones in growing children.

Vegetables, fruit, cereals, milk, eggs, meat—not at all a frightening array of foods from a budget standpoint for health, is it? A thrifty housekeeper will recognize in the following menu, meals economical of both time and money, as well as health-giving, satisfying ones.

BREAKFAST
Whole Wheat Cereal Scrambled Eggs
Toast
Coffee
Milk

LUNCHEON
Scalloped cabbage, Spaghetti and cheese
Chopped Raw Lettuce and Spinach
Salad-Lemon Juice
Dressing
Apple Sauce
Gingerbread
Milk

DINNER
Pot Roast Cooked with Potatoes, Carrots and Onions
Gravy
Celery
Hot Rolls
Prune Whip
Coffee
Milk

Scalloped Cabbage, Spaghetti and Cheese
1 pound spaghetti
3 tablespoons flour
1/2 head cabbage chopped into small pieces.
1 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons fat
3 cups milk
1 cup bread crumbs
1/2 pound cheese

Cook spaghetti in boiling water for 20 minutes. Pour off the water. Melt the fat, add flour and salt, then milk. Cook until smooth, stirring all the while. Cut cheese into small pieces and add to the sauce. Put the cabbage spaghetti and sauce into a greased pan; cover the top with bread crumbs, and bake slowly in the oven for 30 minutes.

Falconing in Old Days
In the days of chivalry falconing was developed as a sport. The armored knight rode forth with his falcon on his arm, his jesses on his hand and a hood on the head of the bird. The jesses are short leather thongs held in the hand to hold the falcon. The hood is placed over the bird's head to keep it quiet while being transported.

IT SEEMS THAT ...

By BUN WILLIAMS

Memorial Day Memories: Hundreds of cops standing on the curb with nothing to do but clean their fingernails ... Musicians blowing the rust out of their windpipes ... Spanish-American Vets feeling as spry as young World War Vets ... The army band from the Lightguard Armory practicing on a side street before joining the parade on the main stem ...

Women as eager to get started as their men compatriots ... Not as many flags as there used to be on Memorial Day ... Uniforms of every color and description (where did those chrome-yellow colored outfits come from?) ... Standing in a safety zone, a cop pumping his trombone while waiting for a street car ... An army officer motioning for a ride downtown, and getting it ...

A child, dressed in patriotic attire, crying for an ice cream cone ... Vets, who skipped away, at Navin Field ... Roaming photographers doing a good business ...

The last week in May isn't patriotic enough to suit the U. S. Supreme Court, who, last May 27, 1935, added Recovery Day to the calendar of American freedom. Nothing was done about it because it's a little green yet—we haven't fully decided whether or not we have recovered.

It is suggested that we celebrate—in the Fourth of July manner—the recovery of our constitutional rights, liberties, and privileges.

What do they mean—celebrate the Recovery? How? We would, as a race of humans who look for things to celebrate, gladly blow the lid off but we haven't any money for liquid hilarity; nor can we shoot off fireworks since the boom-and-go-pretty display manufacturing plant burned on Long Island, giving the islanders a preview of what would have been.

What are we supposed to do? Sit around on front porches and get calouses—from cracking peanuts?

While in a patriotic mood I may as well add this: Skinny Roland, who has never been caught without an answer, burst out on the Vets Poppy Day. "Well," came the quick reply, "the girl who sold them to me, didn't have change for a nickel so I took two."

This one a Grosse Pointe Vet tells on himself: For 17 years he hounded the Compensation boys in an effort to get what he thought he was entitled to. And for 17 years he was turned down, despite the fact that he had a game leg that necessitated a cane and expelled him from work.

On the eighteenth year (18 years since the war) he again submitted himself for a physical examination, being given the annual once-over. Much to his surprise he was declared eligible for a permanent pension—because of faulty lungs, something wrong with his breathing.

Pleased to hear that he would be given a pension, but nevertheless abashed by the doctors' decision, he stormed: "What the hell do you guys think I've been carrying this cane around 17 years for!"

There is a pet shop on Jefferson that invariably attracts and entertains passersby, who have, since the shop was opened, grown to expect something different every week from that window which has displayed from time to time the various victims of human coddling.

Even in the evening, when the dark window appears empty, pedestrians step up close to see if it might be little guinea pigs huddling in a crepuscular corner. As a rule the unsuspecting entertainers are the young of Fissipedia.

A fight between game bantam roosters would attract a good crowd. Or a spelling bee between a sea-going parrot and an asylum-reared cuckoo bird would gain our approval.

The egotist pledges his love: Darling, I love you more than myself.

Write a poem! Every conscientious person should write a little piece of "something." In case you haven't heard, this is National Poetry Week. It may be Anti-Noise Week to the City of Detroit, and Drive Safely Week in Grosse Pointe, but it's Poetry Week for the nation.

See if you can't add to this little "something" below: What do you do on a balmy zero night? Do you sit outside and let the 'squitoes bite? Do you take in a movie? Or go on a hike? Or do you go to a party and proceed to get tight? The person sending in the best four-line answer will be rewarded with ring-side tickets for the next bull fight at Navin Field. (There will be a bull fight if Mickey Cochran can find a suitable competitor for the bull that was presented to him last week. Or maybe he's figuring on leaving it out in the center field pasture while the Tigers are on the road for the next 16 days.)

V. F. W. Stars Midget Racing Season June 6

Midget racing in Detroit starts its annual outdoor season next Saturday night, Don Zeiter, general manager of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Motor Speedway, Schoenherr and Eight Mile roads, announced today.

"We will race both Saturday night and Sunday night until further notice," Zeiter said. "The demand for midget racing is so great that the Veterans have decided to run two nights in succession."

Zeiter said that not only had the lights been installed for the opener Saturday but the new quarter mile track inside the half mile oval will be ready.

"We will use the big car straight-aways but the curves will be shorter, cutting the distance down to a quarter of a mile," Zeiter said. "Running the popular midget events will not interfere with the standard car races whenever the public is in the mood. But right now the Veterans will concentrate on the midget races." They are more popular than ever. More than 40,000 see the little cars run in Philadelphia every week and Madison Square Garden Bowl in New York is a weekly sellout.

Zeiter believes that about once or twice a month the Veterans will stage standard car races but that the midgets will run weekly whether there are big car races or not.

Next Saturday's races will start at 8:45 p. m. The drivers will begin qualifying at 7 p. m.

Nome, Alaska, "Anvil City"
Nome, Alaska, was first called Anvil City. The name Nome is derived from Cape Nome, first so called on a chart dated 1849, and said to have been a draughtsman's mistake for the query, name, on the original chart.

First Against Slavery
The Mennonites were the first group to advocate the abolition of slavery in the colonies, making their first recommendations in this matter as early as 1688.

Dog Similar to Human Beings
The dog is a bundle of inhibitions, stimulations and complexes exactly as human beings, being subject to the same phobias and mental nervous disorders as man. Apart from the familiar traits of jealousy, affection, shame and fear, the dog matches all of man's emotional peculiarities and moods.
