

TOY CLUB OPENS CHRISTMAS ROLL

"Not a Kid Without a Toy for Christmas" Spurs Members to Increase their Ranks for 1936

Grosse Pointers Urged to Sign Up Early

With its familiar slogan "Not a Kid Without a Toy for Christmas" and with thoughts turned to that group of children whose faith in good old Santa Claus would be shattered should Christmas morning find empty stockings as far as toys are concerned The Toy Club starts its 1936 campaign for memberships. This will mark the fourth year of The Toy Club's existence and many hundreds of little hearts have been made happier because of the splendid cooperation of its members.

The Toy Club is a Grosse Pointe institution and is unique in that there are no officers in this club. Every member is a private in the ranks organized to bring joy to underprivileged kiddies. No personal publicity is permitted and no individual name is ever mentioned in connection with the good work of the Club.

Last year the Toy Club furnished toys and candy for about 1500 children and while conditions are better this year than last, there are many poor families whose increased income will still not permit of the luxury of toys. Then too, requests for toys have been made this year by several orphan institutions. Since the beginning of its existence, The Toy Club has never turned down a request to provide a toy for a poor child.

Headquarters of the Club are at 15224 East Jefferson Ave., Grosse Pointe Park, where membership may be secured. New and used toys in good condition will be gladly accepted. Just call LENOX 4554 and the toys will be picked up, or drop them in.

Annual membership dues in the Toy Club are 50 cents per member. Family memberships will be welcomed. Your 50 cents will purchase lots of joy for some poor youngster, as all toys are purchased at very low prices and there is not one cent of overhead expense.

Memberships may also be secured by getting in touch with any of the following:

City and Village Officials and members of the Police and Fire Departments of Grosse Pointe Park, City of Grosse Pointe, Grosse Pointe Farms, Grosse Pointe Shores and Lochmoor.

Members of The Toy Club invite you to join their number. Fill out and mail in the application blank below together with your 1935 dues and help make some unfortunate child happy this Christmas.

Help the Toy Club live up to its slogan:

Grosse Pointe Post 303

Many thanks to the citizens of the community for the splendid patronage afforded us at our feather party last Friday evening. The attendance was very gratifying to our Post members and our only regret is that everyone could not have won some award. Better luck next time, says we—. Our next Bingo party will be held Friday the 27th. As usual the price of admission will be twenty-five cents or which there will be fifteen games played and worthwhile awards made. After the regular session of Bingo there will be a few share-the-wealth games conducted if the interest of those in attendance warrant such an arrangement. There will be the usual refreshments on hand and it is our aim to see to it that a good time is had by all. . . . In due under way and we hope to be of some time our Boy Scout movement will be help to the youngsters. A committee has been appointed to look after this matter, but why your scribe who happens to be a bachelor was named as a member of the committee is beyond my comprehension. After all just what can a bachelor possibly know about the whims and needs of boys.

UNIQUE FLORAL SERVICE RENDERED BY A. L. PASELK

As you begin to prepare for that Thanksgiving dinner, your thoughts stray to table decorations, and if you are busy why not avail yourself of the special service offered by Arthur L. Paskel, Florist in the Punch and Judy Theatre Building.

They are willing to offer suggestions of color schemes to match your dining room, arrange flowers in your bowls or if you desire they will be only pleased to furnish you with bowls for the occasion gratis, arranging the flowers suitably and delivering them in the bowls ready for the table.

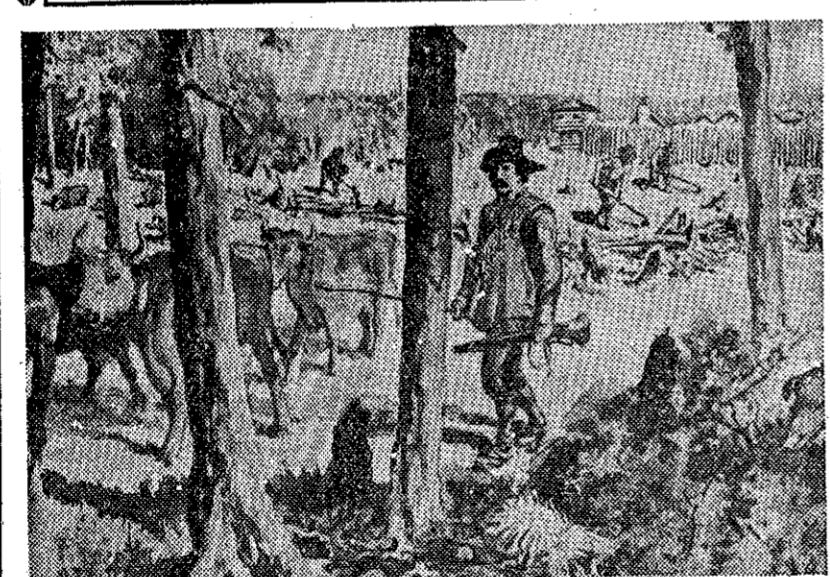

They have a splendid selection of flowers, among them Chrysanthemums from the recent "Mum Show." Why not select your flowers from the choicest of blooms, for your Thanksgiving Table, you will find them at A. L. Paskel's.

Cadillac Society, D. A. R.

Cadillac Society, children of the American Revolution, is holding its first big social event of the season in the form of a dinner dance on Wednesday evening, November 25, 6:30 at Ingleside Club.

Miss Janet Homer, Junior President, promises many unique features for the entertainment of members and guests. Among the list of patrons and patronesses are Mr. and Mrs. Russell V. Allman, Mr. and Mrs. Carl D. Macpherson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Vibbert, and Mr. and Mrs. L. Wallace Hoffman.

Pioneers Always Prepared for Attacks

Never was death far from the Seventeenth century pioneers and even into so pastoral a scene as this must the ugly, sinister muzzle of a gun intrude. On the walk to church, while plowing or planting, even while courting there was the evil face of death looking on and the man must have in his hand the tool to beat it off.

FELIX FRANCOIS BEAUTY SALON AMONG LEADERS

While the popular Felix Francois Beauty Salon specializes in Zotos permanent waves because of their resilient quality and beauty, you can also secure Eugene, Frederics, Gabrielen, spiral or croquisnole at this delightful beauty establishment which located in Grosse Pointe some seven years ago when the Punch and Judy sprang in existence.

In order to maintain the high type of beauty service which you would expect in an establishment of this type every operator has been carefully and efficiently trained and yet you will find that prices are not exorbitant at this Beauty Salon.

The Gifts Renewed

In fields but lately seared by summer's drought,
Where famine seemed to lay its withering hand,
A miracle has come to still our doubt
And spread a glad Thanksgiving through the land.

Unseen beneath the drab brown coat she wore,
The soil grew rich to nurture other seeds.
Then autumn rains released the hidden store
In verdant growths, to fill our winter needs.

So, God of Wisdom, may we learn to build
In quiet faith, through even darkest days;
Assured our destiny will be fulfilled
Through Thy inscrutable and wondrous ways.

Mrs. Roosevelt Visits Detroit N. R. S. Office

Michigan employees of the National Reemployment Service, especially those of the Detroit office were working today with renewed enthusiasm following the unqualified praise of Major Howard Starret's organization by the First Lady of the Land, Mrs. Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

Following a surprise visit to the Detroit office at 318 East Jefferson avenue Tuesday afternoon when the activity of the local office and the state organization was reviewed to her, Mrs. Roosevelt was overjoyed with the success of the NRS offices in placing the unemployed in private industry jobs.

"You are doing a very fine job," Mrs. Roosevelt said. "Your work is a great service and one of which we may all be proud."

She stopped at various employee's desks and commented upon the work being done.

Mrs. Roosevelt who is actively interested in the problems of youth, asked the number of people being placed in jobs. When told that approximately 500 of the 3,099 Detroit office private placements during October were for young men and women between 16 and 21 years of age, she was pleased and asked additional information about the methods used in finding these jobs.

At the time of her visit Major Starret telephoned from Grand Rapids where he was on the last leg of a tour of inspection of the state offices. A message was delivered to Mrs. Roosevelt saying that Major Starret regretted his inability to greet her personally.

Over 500 persons were in the office seeking information about work when Mrs. Roosevelt arrived. She was recognized by a score or so of men and women applicants whom she warmly greeted with hand shakes.

The visit was one of the few made during her day's stay in Detroit where she addressed an audience November 16 at the Masonic Temple. The meeting was sponsored by the National Youth Administration.

Thanksgiving '36

FOR the moon and the stars that shine,
For the stout heart that beats with mine,
For my home and its daily cares,
For dreams that grow along the years,
For those friends whom I hold most dear,
For my senses, e'er keen and clear,
For the seasons which come and go,
For the books that I've learned to know,
For music and its lovely way,
For the sun pouring out gold all day,
For the hills of my native land,
And the clasp of my children's hand,
For the life that binds me to these
Let me be thankful, dear God—please!

TWIN GABLES GRAND OPENING SATURDAY

Twin Gables Cafe at Alter Road and Charlevoix will hold its Grand Opening Saturday, November 28th, and invite residents of the vicinity and their friends to participate in the festivities. Alfons De Schryter the new owner has added a new cocktail bar and secured the services of an excellent chef, so that meals at attractively low prices are available at all times. They are prepared and licensed to provide music for special parties.

Exploring the Magic World of Color

Herbert Thompson Strong, the color magician who brought the hues of Bermuda sea water and of butterfly wings into everyday use in industry, will give an illustrated lecture on "Exploring the Magic World of Color" at the Detroit Institute of Arts at 3:30 Sunday afternoon, November 29.

With a new powerful projection machine that magnifies 200,000 times, Mr. Strong shows that the colors within a single drop of asparagus juice are more gorgeous than the aurora borealis. By means of ultra violet rays, he turns ordinary rocks into flaming jewels. He reveals iridescent colors, by special rays, that are beyond the range of unassisted human vision.

Mr. Strong is well known to Detroit automobile manufacturers, as he has designed special colors for automobiles and automobile fabrics for General Motors, Ford and Packard cars.

Ancient Mayas Kept Thanksgiving Day

WHEN football fans turn out for the Thanksgiving games they will perhaps realize that they are conforming with an old American custom, but do they know how old that custom is? asks a writer in the St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Thanksgiving football games were instituted in America about 2000 B. C. The custom began among the ancient Mayas, who, although they did not eat mince pie or sit in concrete stadiums, did dine on turkey and did set aside a day on which they offered up the first fruits of the harvest season, feasted and played, or watched a ball game in a stone-walled enclosure.

The department of middle American research at Tulane university has discovered that the Mayan games were like ours in many respects. Just as fans today travel for miles to see the Thanksgiving games, so did our predecessors on this continent journey across the land, on foot or horseback, to Chichen-Itza, holy city of the Mayas, to view the holiday spectacle.

In his description of the Mayan game, Maurice Reis, on the staff of the department of middle American research at Tulane, says:

"As it began when Rome ruled the waves and Frenchmen wore bear skins as their Sunday best, football wasn't just football. That is, the ball wasn't kicked with the foot and the scores were produced by persuading the ball to pass through a perpendicular ring high on a stone wall."

When the thousands of pilgrims who came every year arrived at Chichen-Itza, they offered sacrifices to the earth gods in an impressive thanksgiving ceremony led by the ruler.

"The earth gods," says Alredo Barrera Vasquez, of the staffs of the Mexican National Museum and the National University of Mexico, who is of Maya descent, "are called the Four Bacabs and are represented as supporting the four corners of the earth. Each god has an appropriate color: red for the east where the sun rises, black for the west where it sinks into darkness, yellow for the warm south and white for the cold north. Yum K'ax, Lord of the Forest, resides at the center of the universe and is characterized by the colors blue and green."

The Thanksgiving ceremonies still take place in some parts of Mexico today, although most of the old customs are dominated by the Catholic influence.

The name of the principal god of the harvest is lost. However, we have many representations of him on ancient monuments. He is always depicted as being young and handsome, symbolic of life and growth. From his head grows maize instead of hair.

Stuffing for the Thanksgiving Bird

GOOD stuffing for Thanksgiving bird is of prime importance to the success of the yearly feast. It must, first of all, be well selected, a delicately flavored stuffing for the roast chicken and turkey, a more strongly flavored one for the roast goose or duck, writes Helen Robertson in the Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Second, it must be perfectly seasoned. Not too strongly to overwhelm the deliciousness of the bird, nor yet so bland in taste as to be uninteresting. Third, it must be of the proper consistency, not too moist, nor yet too dry. And fourth, there must be enough.

Bread being the usual foundation of the dressing, let us talk of it first. All kinds of breads may be used in the dressing providing the white bread predominates. Cold biscuits, pieces of corn bread, slices of toast, slices of whole wheat and of rye may all be used. Use part crust too, as well as the crumb. The bread should be dry and if part or all is lightly toasted, so much the better. And bread cut into small cubes makes better dressing than when crumbed.

For the very large turkey, upward of eighteen or nineteen pounds, two and one-half to three pounds of bread will be needed for the dressing, while for the smaller bird of around ten pounds, one and three-fourths to two pounds of bread may be used. And for the smaller bird, one pound and three-quarters should be sufficient.

Bread Dressing

8 qts. stale bread cubes Sage to taste 2 tsp. salt 1 cup melted butter 1 tsp. pepper 2 cups chopped celery 1 tbsp. chopped parsley Cooked giblets

Prepare bread, sprinkle with seasonings. Pour over them melted butter and enough boiling water or stock from cooking giblets and neck to moisten. In adding butter and stock, toss the ingredients together lightly with a fork. Never press them together.

If you like onion in dressing, saute one or two slices in a portion of the butter before adding it to the dressing.

For oyster dressing omit giblets, add one pint of oysters cut in half and the oyster liquor, well strained.

To make mushroom dressing saute one-half pound mushrooms, sliced, in a portion of the butter and mix with bread crumbs. In using the mushrooms celery may be omitted or a smaller amount used.

Chestnut dressing is usually liked. To make it, prepare one-half pound chestnuts, chopping them rather fine. Mix with bread.

Sausage dressing is another favorite. One-half pound is sufficient for this amount. Cook it over a low fire fifteen minutes before adding to the dressing.

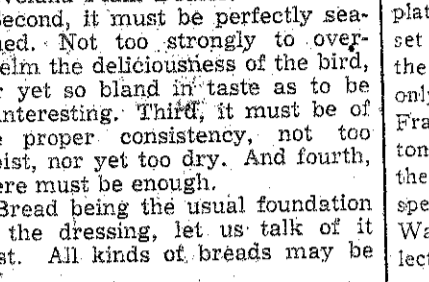

For the roast duck or goose you will find this rice and prune stuffing tasty: Brown three tablespoons of finely minced onion in two tablespoons butter. Add one cup well washed, drained rice. Let simmer until rice is slightly browned. Then add four cups soup stock or water in which bouillon cubes have been dissolved, eight or nine cooked prunes, pitted, and one teaspoon salt. Cook over a very low fire or over hot water until rice is tender. Season well.

Clinic on Early American Glass

Have you a piece of early American blown glass you would like to have identified or evaluated by an expert? Then bring it to the Clinic on Early American Glass, to be held by the Detroit Historical Society, at their Historical Museum, on the 23rd floor of the Barlum Tower, Saturday, November 21, from two to five o'clock. Or, if you would like to learn about this very important hobby, come to hear Harry Hall White, authority on glass, who will talk on this subject, and, at the close of his talk, will answer questions, and examine specimens.

There will also be exhibits of various specimens, by local glass collectors. Mrs. Charles H. Laughlin will display her collection of "cup plates." A cup plate, one may need to explain, was to set the cup on, while one drank from the saucer, when that custom was not only proper, but fashionable. Mrs. Francis Courtney and Mrs. W. H. Burton will also exhibit specimens from their collections, as will the wife of the speaker, Mrs. Harry Hall White. Mrs. Walter O'Hair is another local collector with interesting pieces of value.

This program is by way of celebration of the eighth anniversary of the establishment of the Detroit Historical Museum. Mr. Arthur S. Hampton was appointed curator in June, 1928, and opened the Museum November 19, that year, with less than 50 articles. He now has over 6,000, with more arriving constantly. If you have never made this sortie into Detroit's historic past, plan to do so, some afternoon, between the hours of 1 and 5, any week day; on Saturday the Museum is open from 9 to 5, always free to the public. Last year, Mr. Hampton conducted 90 student groups through the Museum on Saturdays; this year, he has already exceeded that record, as 100 groups have been conducted to date. Many interesting new articles have been added this fall, so that even those who have visited the Museum previously, will find it profitable to return. Be sure, on your visit, to allow time to do justice to the variety of things to be shown you there. What better place could be found to which to take your children for an hour or two on a Saturday.

Messiah Lutheran Church

Southeast Corner of Kercheval Ave. A. H. A. Loeber, pastor, 1434 Lakewood Avenue. Telephone Lenox 2121.

The service on Thanksgiving Day will begin at 10 o'clock in the morning and last about 15 minutes. Those people in our community who have no church home of their own in Detroit, but desire to attend a Thanksgiving Day service are cordially invited to attend the service at Messiah Church. Next Sunday, November 29, will be the first Sunday in Advent as well as the first Sunday of the new church year. The theme of the first sermon to be delivered in the new church year will be: "Christ Jesus came to save sinners, of whom I am chief." The service will take place at 11:15 A. M., while the Sunday School will be in session from 10 to 11 o'clock. In the evening of the first three Wednesdays of the Advent Season, special Advent services will be held. These will take place on Wednesdays, December 2, 9, and 16 at 7:30 P. M. Old Testament conditions and occurrences will be treated in the sermons. "The Rainbow after the Flood," will be the subject of the sermon next Wednesday, December 2.

Within a ten-day period late in October, CCC enrollees at Camp Sable River under Junior Forester Lynn E. Rogers planted 125,000 box elder, soft maple, viburnum lentago, elderberry, suman, red osier dogwood, white ash, green ash, basswood and black cherry seedlings in game areas in and near the Nirvana swamp to provide future food and cover for wildlife. One thousand pounds of acorns were gathered by another crew to be used in deer feeding experiments by representatives of the game division of the state department of conservation.

ORDINANCE

75 AMEND ORDINANCE No. 75 entitled "An Ordinance To Promote the Health, Safety and General Welfare of the People of The Village of Grosse Pointe Park by Creating a Department of Building and Safety Engineering for the Regulation of Light, Ventilation, Sanitation, Plumbing, Electrical Wiring, Fire Protection, Maintenance, Alteration, Repair, Construction, Improvement, Use and Occupancy of Buildings, and To Establish Administrative Requirements and To Provide Penalties for the Violation of the Requirements Thereof," Enacted by The Village of Grosse Pointe Park on the 30th Day of January, 1930.

THE VILLAGE OF GROSSE POINTE PARK ORDAINS:

Section 1. That Article 7, Section 9, Article 8 Section 4, Article 8 Section 6, Article 11 Section 25, and Article 30 Section 2 be amended as follows, and that Article 32 be amended by adding the section thereto, to be known as Section 5-A.

Article 7 Section 9. FOOTINGS AND FOUNDATION.

The footing courses under walls shall be of reinforced concrete of a width of 8" in excess of the width of the masonry wall which rests upon such footing. Reinforced rods shall not be less than 3/8" thick and placed not more than 3" from the edge of the wood form and not more than 10" space shall be permitted between rods. If the soil is wet and soft, or of quick sand, or of black loam or filled with rubbish, the footing shall be increased in proportion to the pressure which the soil is capable of sustaining. The Department of Buildings and Safety Engineering shall be notified so that an inspection may be made before concrete is poured.

The footing for walls, piers and chimneys for all permanent buildings shall be extended to a depth of not less than 3' 6" below the grade or further if necessary to rest the building upon a firm natural earth.

Article 8 Section 4. JOISTS AND JOIST RANGERS.

No joist shall be placed in excess of 16" on center so that lath or wall boards will fit and joists will break over joists. Double joists shall be provided under all bearing partitions and under non-bearing partitions where the span or joist upon which it rests exceeds ten feet. Such double joists shall be set in such a manner as not to interfere with the installation of plumbing or heating apparatus.

If good yellow pine lumber is used, joists should be:
2" x 6" — 16" on center, if span does not exceed 10' 0".
2" x 8" — 16" on center, if span does not exceed 13' 6".
2" x 10" — 16" on center, if span does not exceed 16' 6".

If other lumber of a poorer quality or lesser fibre stress is used, the span must be reduced or joists increased in proportion.

Joists shall not be spliced between bearing points. When it is necessary to cut or sever joists, headers shall be provided to carry such joists. When the header carries more than two joists, it will be necessary to double the headers and the trimmer joists, when the tail joists exceed more than half the original span.

If a stairway is extended to the attic, the attic floor joists shall be at least 2" x 6" — 16" on center if the clear span does not exceed 13' 0". When the span exceeds 13' 0" larger joists shall be used.

Joist Hangers. When the header carries more than two joists, the headers and trimmer joists shall be doubled and joist hangers shall be used.

When the tail joist exceeds more than half of the original span, joist hangers shall be used.

Article 8 Section 6. STUDS AND BACKING FOR LATH.

Walls and partitions shall have at least 2" x 4" studs placed not in excess of 16" on center. Stud should be of sound straight-grained material and free from large, loose knots or breaks. Where studs run from first floor to roof, a ribbon or ledger strip of sufficient size and strength shall be provided on studs at joist line. Where upper story walls or partitions are placed over lower story walls or partitions, they must rest upon a plate of sufficient strength to carry the load imposed thereon, and the studs shall rest directly over the studs below. Where partitions do not rest over the lower partitions, the partition plate and studs shall be supported by joists directly under them, rather than resting on strips or nailing them to the side of the joists, when the partition runs at right angles to the joists underneath. When the upper partitions run parallel to the joists beneath, the joists shall be doubled as required in Section 4 of this Article. Triple studs shall be used at all corners.

No stud shall be spliced. Backing for Lath. Where joists are not placed close to partitions, a 1 1/2" backing on top of partition walls projecting 2" over the wall to receive the lath shall be installed.

Article 11 Section 25. BEARING OF JOISTS AND BEAMS.

All joists resting upon masonry walls shall have a 2" x 8" bond timber grouted in place by cement mortar, so as to give complete uniform bearings. The bearing of all joists, beams, girders and trusses on masonry walls shall be as specified for construction of various types of walls.

The bearing of wood or steel joists on masonry walls shall not be less than 4 inches.

The bearing of lintels or lintel beams shall not be less than 4 inches.

The bearing of wood or steel beams shall not be less than 6 inches.

The bearing of wood or steel trusses shall not be less than 8 inches.

The amount of bearing above specified is the minimum in any case and must be increased where made necessary by the size of the member or the reaction so that the allowable stresses for the masonry are not exceeded.

All steel beams, girders or wood girders or trusses carried on masonry walls must be provided with standard steel or iron bearing plates or grillages of proper size and thickness to distribute their reactions, except that reinforced concrete may be used for this purpose if approved by the Department of Buildings and Safety Engineering.

All bearing plates, base plates or grillages bearing on masonry shall be shimmed at proper location and elevation and grouted in place with pure Portland cement mortar so as to give a complete and uniform bearing.

Article 30 Section 2. CHIMNEYS FOR INCINERATORS.

An incinerator may be connected to the same chimney as furnaces, provided that the chimney flue is not less than 12" x 12" and the incinerator deposit door is installed below the furnace smoke pipe. Under no circumstances shall the deposit door be installed above the furnace smoke pipe.

Article 32 Section 5-A. DRAINAGE

During construction, excavations shall be kept well drained, and before walls are constructed above the foundation, tile drains shall be installed and connected with a public sewer, or in case no such sewer is available, then such connection shall be made to a sump pit provided with an automatic sump pump designed to remove the water from the premises. The drainage system shall consist of a line of porous tile, not less than 4" in diameter, laid outside of all foundation walls, except in cases where the wall extends to an adjoining property line, in which event the drain shall be placed on the inside of the wall. The joists of drain tile shall be covered with tarred roofing paper which will permit free entry of ground water into tile, and all drain lines shall be backfilled to a depth of at least 1 foot, or to the under side of the basement floor, above, with coarse cinders, gravel or other porous materials so as to provide drainage.

Section 2. All ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance are hereby expressly repealed.

Section 3. Any person, firm or corporation, its, his, her or their agents, employees, who shall violate or assist in the violation of any provision of this ordinance or who shall in any manner interfere with its proper enforcement shall be punishable by a fine of more than $100.00, or by imprisonment in the Village or County Jail for a period not exceeding 90 days, or both, in the discretion of the Court, and every day that a violation of the ordinance shall continue shall be deemed to be a separate and distinct offense.

Section 4. This ordinance shall take effect twenty (20) days from the date of its enactment.

You are cordially invited to use this Sight Meter in your home. Sensitive as a photographic film to light, it will measure the amount of illumination from your floor and table lamps... tell you whether they are providing enough light to protect your eyes. Held in the palm of your hand, the Sight Meter is easy to read — and a pleasure to use. You place it in the same position as the book or newspaper you are reading, and watch the pointer on the dial move up the scale.

*There is no charge for this service.

You will enjoy going from room to room in your house and learning about your lighting. A phone call, Randolph 2100 or any Edison Office, will bring a Sight Meter promptly. In addition, your eyes examined every year.

Thanksgiving Day

NO DOUBT the same old question will be asked that we have so often heard — what have we to be thankful for? The question is foolish, almost as foolish as the attempts to answer it. Thanksgiving means gratitude, and there is probably no man alive who does not hold ingratitude to be one of the blackest sins. Of course, there can be no gratitude except as it is shown not only for something but to some one. Therefore, observes a writer in the Indianapolis News, it is that the thought of Thanksgiving necessarily implies the existence of a Divine Giver and Benefactor. So we are bidden to return thanks to Almighty God as "the Giver of every good and perfect gift." When there seems to be a scarcity of gifts one is tempted to ask the question, why be thankful? And that is a question which every one must answer for himself, and it will be answered as it always has been, in different ways. It is futile to catalogue what we know to be blessings and what we believe to be anything but blessings, and set off one list against the other; and be thankful in proportion as the good exceeds the evil.
 Carlyle long ago showed us the folly of the bookkeeping method as applied to things spiritual. Probably most people get out of life about what they deserve and in proportion to what they put into it. It seems to be true that the most thankful people are those who have the least. On the other hand, those who are surfeited with good things take them as matters of course, as their due, and so calling for no gratitude. The question seems to be whether one has a thankful spirit, which surely is something to be greatly desired. Without it, man is less than man. Even beasts are grateful. Practically, the question suggested by the day touches character. There is nothing mechanical or formal about it. One can not pump up thankfulness, and the setting apart of a day does not suggest that there should be such an attempt. The day is rather a recognition, less of a duty than of an opportunity which it would be or might be fatal to neglect. "Be ye thankful" is an apostolic command. It ought to be easy to obey. Those men are nearest the truth who feel that in this life nothing is due them, and that whatever they get is in a very true sense a gift, and one which may be far beyond their deserts. So we are called to keep another Thanksgiving day, which should bring an outpouring of not only thankful but kindly hearts. Appropriate to the day is Pope's well-known verse:

 Teach me to feel another's woe,
 To hide the fault I see;
 That mercy I to others show,
 That mercy show to me.
 What We Live On
 I live on hope, and that I think do all who come into this world.

Christ Church Cranbrook
 On Thanksgiving Day, November 26th, at eleven o'clock in the morning there is to be held at Christ Church Cranbrook a service known as the Festival of Ingathering. This service includes a processional of all the choirs about the church; the singing of the grand old hymn, "Prayer of Thanksgiving"; and a simple pageant by the children, in which is depicted the thanksgiving expression of the people of all ages—the ancient Hebrews, the Chinese, the ancient Greeks, and the Indians and Puritans of this land. Immediately preceding this service there will be a special carillon recital of Thanksgiving hymns.
 This coming Sunday morning, Nov. 22nd, at the eleven o'clock service the Rev. W. Hamilton Aulenbach will preach on "Living, as you live."

Christian Science Churches
 "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, November 29.
 Among the Bible citations is the following (Eph. 6:13): "Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand."
 Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 571): "At all times and under all circumstances, overcome evil with good. Know thyself, and God will supply the wisdom and the occasion for a victory over evil. Clad in the panoply of Love, human hatred cannot reach you."

Eastminster Presbyterian Church
 Thanksgiving Day services at 11 a. m. We will have our Thanksgiving Day services on Sunday morning. There will be special Thanksgiving music and there will be a sermon on the subject, "Thankful, For What?"
 Wednesday evening we will unite with the other churches of Southeast Detroit for a Thanksgiving service at the Jefferson Avenue Methodist Church.

REVIEW LINERS GET RESULTS

Jefferson Avenue Baptist Church
 The Jefferson Baptist Church will celebrate its Fifteenth Anniversary this Sunday with a special service of recognition, memorial and Thanksgiving at eleven o'clock. A review of its history will be pictured by the Procession of the Years and Candle Lighting. The contribution of all organizations will be portrayed by a tribute of flowers brought to the altar by the heads of the various groups. The Rev. Wayland Zwyer, minister, will preach the Anniversary sermon.
 Sunday at 6:15 p. m. Friendly Union and Judson Union, young peoples organizations have planned a reunion meeting for all former B. Y. U. P. members. A special musical service has been planned under the direction of Jason Moore, organist, and choir director; for 7:30 p. m. when the Rev. Mr. Zwyer, pastor, will speak briefly.

Jefferson Avenue Baptist Church represents the merger of the old Clinton Avenue Baptist Church and the Jefferson Mission at Engle Avenue. These united with the Lakeview Mission at the present location in the summer of 1921 and the church was incorporated in November. The four story educational unit facing Lakewood Avenue was completed that year and the second unit including church sanctuary on the Jefferson - Lakewood corner was completed in 1928. Following the Rev. Arthur V. Allen, the present minister, the Rev. Wayland Zwyer, came to the church in the fall of 1931.
 The Jefferson Avenue Baptist Church will have its usual community Thanksgiving service Wednesday evening at eight o'clock. The sermon will be by the Rev. Wayland Zwyer, minister.

Faith Lutheran Church
 Special Thanksgiving Day Service will be conducted in the sanctuary of worship, Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, at the corner of E. Jefferson and Philip. Rev. R. D. Linhart preaching on the theme "My Thanksgiving Confession." All are invited to "enter into His gates with thanksgiving and into His courts with praise."
 Tuesday, November 24, beginning at 10 A. M. the faithful ladies of Faith are conducting a bazaar. From the beautiful display of merchandise you may select appropriate gifts for Christmas. Tickets for the supper, served from 5:00 to 7:00 P. M. may be obtained for fifty cents.
 Wednesday Thanksgiving Baskets will be delivered to the needy families of the congregation. In the evening at 8 o'clock the advisory board will assemble for its monthly meeting.

 Sunday, November 29, is the first Sunday in Advent and thus the first day of a new church year. To commemorate this day, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated. The Communion Services will be held at 8:00 A. M. and 10:45 A. M.
 Sunday School Services are conducted at the usual hour, 9:15 A. M.

Modern Freedom
 ... FOR MODERN WOMEN

 Sanitary Protection without Pads, Napkins or Belts
 FOR today's woman... busy, modern, throwing off ancient shackles... B-ettes were created. Here is a method that ends the discomfort, the inconvenience and the embarrassment that heretofore has been an unavoidable part of this feminine problem. With B-ettes there is no consciousness of wearing a sanitary protection at all. They are completely invisible in use... deodorant... and, though they safely and efficiently perform the purpose of ordinary napkins, B-ettes are so tiny that a day's supply can be carried unobtrusively in a handbag. Never before have women known such comfort... such convenience... such daintiness... in a sanitary protection.
 * Worn internally, approved by physicians.

The Gang Drops In

Thanksgiving holidays find the young set home for a brief vacation—and that means a merry group dropping in at all hours of the day and night for fun, frolic and food. Refrigerator raids are common occurrences, and lucky is the woman who can gain the title of ever-ready hostess.

Smart hostesses in New York and London are finding that milk bars are a popular form of buffet for both young and older guests. Sometimes it is a pitcher of chilled milk, at other times a tall silver pot of hot chocolate. Accompaniments are exciting snacks, skillfully devised from a variety of crackers, cheese, fish pastes and fruit.

An assortment of crackers and a choice of several of the following spreads, for guests to fix their own sandwiches gives promise of arousing the artistic instincts of the group and uncovering hidden culinary genius.

California Canape: Mash avocado pear; mix with french dressing; add a dash of lemon or onion juice; spread on crackers or toast wedges.

Piquante Cheese Crackers: Put cheese through a food chopper. Add Sherry flavoring, mustard, salt and cayenne to taste. Mix smooth with cream. Spread on wafer crackers.

Roquefort Crackers: Cream 1/4 cup butter, add 1 tablespoon Roquefort cheese crumbs and a few drops of onion juice. Spread on wafers.

Anchovy Canape: Add lemon or onion juice to anchovy paste.

Olives, mashed, hard cooked egg, and a bit of chopped green are materials for garnish that turn decorators for these delicious snacks.

The hostess would always be prepared for any number at any time, if she keeps her refrigerator stocked with milk, her cupboard with crackers, cheese, a tube of anchovy paste or sardines. Salted nuts and fresh fruit complete the necessary equipment for easy, pleasant and delicious entertainment for unexpected guests.

Camp Fire Girls

Camp Fire Girls and their leaders are invited to visit the Camp Fire office this week and view the exhibit of Goodfellow dolls which girls in various groups throughout the city have dressed.

Dressing Goodfellow dolls is one of the numerous service projects which Camp Fire Girls participate in annually during the holiday season.

Red Riding Hood, the quintuplets and other story book characters are among the two hundred dolls which the girls have dressed.

All dolls must be dressed and returned to the Camp Fire office by Saturday, November 21.

Grosse Pointe Library

Telephone either the Park Library, Lenox 9721 or the branch on Waterloo Niagara 3621 if you would like one of these new books which have just been added to the Grosse Pointe Library.

Davis—People, People Everywhere. Short anecdotes of many people whom this roving reporter has met or heard of during his extensive travels of the past thirty years.

Bowers—Jefferson in Power. A political history covering the eight momentous years of Jefferson's presidency. A continuation of his "Jefferson and Hamilton."

Diemer—Factory Organization and Administration. A new edition.

Kallen—Decline and Rise of the Consumer. A history and summary of consumer co-operation, with data for those interested in organizing co-operatives.

Cahill—Art in America. A brief survey of the arts in America from the beginning to the present. Lavishly illustrated.

Lutes—The Country Kitchen. Round the year reminiscences of the author's childhood in Southern Michigan, telling particularly of the good things cooked in the home kitchen.

Cary—The African Witch. A novel about a small colony of white people living snugly in the colorful, mysterious, black-magic of Nigeria, West Africa.

Cepung—Valiant Dust. The saga of the Dillon family, who come to Michigan from Ireland and became pioneers in the automobile industry.

Selling Christmas Cards, as a money making scheme has been adopted by many Camp Fire groups in the city. Any groups interested may call headquarters, Columbia 1600 for further information about the project.

With the Thanksgiving holidays approaching many Camp Fire groups are preparing baskets, scrap books, and working on other service projects to be given to hospitals and families in need. This is an annual part of the "Give Service" project carried out by the Camp Fire Program.

Christ M. E. Bazaar, Tea, December 4th

The ladies of the Christ Methodist Episcopal Church, located at Warren and Haverhill, are holding a bazaar tea in the church Sunday School room on Friday afternoon, December 4.

The booths will contain items such as baked goods, candy, hand made aprons, towels, and various miscellaneous items which are most interesting to every housewife.

Tea and dainties will be served between the hours of 1 and 5 p. m. at a cost of 25 cents. The public is invited.
