

SCHOOL ELECTION MON.

Dr. Loranger's Candidacy School Board Outlined

The following article was submitted for publication in the interest of Dr. C. B. Loranger's candidacy for election to the School Board.

"Whoever serves on the Board of Education of a community performs a public service of great importance, at a considerable personal sacrifice of time and energy. At the coming election next Monday, June 14th, voters will have the opportunity to select one of three candidates to this office. The election will not materially change the general policy of the Board since it consists of five members. It will add or subtract the personality, experience, and knowledge of one person, to or from the sum total of such characteristics possessed by the other men on the Board.

"Dr. Clifford B. Loranger, the present incumbent, has been a life long resident of the vicinity, and has resided in Grosse Pointe Shores for the last eight years. He has two young children, one entering school this fall. He is very much interested in education, being Assistant Professor at Wayne University, from which school he graduated in 1926. He has made a special study of the health problems of the school, and is a member of the School Health Committee of the Wayne County Medical Society. Dr. Loranger has been a regular attendant at all the meetings of the Board, and has comprehensive knowledge of its aims and of the aims of other school boards, particularly Detroit's with whose members he is well acquainted.

Dr. Loranger states that the goal of education is to better fit the individual to cope with the personal and community problems he meets throughout life. The duty of educators is to see that their charges receive such suitable experience, knowledge, and ideals as to properly condition their future conduct. This broad view is general throughout the whole field of education today. In it lies the excuse (if excuse is necessary) for the use of tax moneys to pay for the education of children. He is vitally interested in taxes and believes that tax levies can be held down without lowering educational standards. Our civilization today totters on the brink of chaos, and it will be saved largely by the better education of youth—By a better education that will center its whole effort in turning out social minded, community conscious, less selfish individuals. Civic duty and responsibility go hand in hand with civic liberties, and the schools must teach the youth to accept the one and protect the other."

Register Now for School Election

Grosse Pointe School Election will be held Monday, June 14. Voters can register at the Board of Education offices, 389 St. Clair avenue any day up to Saturday noon.

The polls will be open Monday from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m. slightly deviating from former school elections. School electors, be sure to vote.

Sick or invalid ballots must be applied for to Mr. West, Niagara 2000 early enough to be voted and filed before noon Saturday.

Detailed Report of Committee Survey of School District

The Men's Association of the Grosse Pointe High School in which all fathers of pupils are eligible for membership, has appointed a committee to study the school situation owing to the fact that the average citizen has so little definite knowledge of actual conditions. This Men's Association feels quite strongly that definite knowledge is badly needed by every tax payer and school patron of the Grosse Pointe school district, and will endeavor to supply through the columns of the Grosse Pointe Review, and various other means, such knowledge.

To begin with—it has been estimated that Grosse Pointe will ultimately have a population of sixty to seventy-five thousand. This increase in population makes it necessary that more buildings be provided and forces the citizens to take more active interest.

In 1930, the total population of the Grosse Pointe school district was 21,462. In 1936, the total population was 25,669.

During the year 1936 599 houses were built in the Grosse Pointe area.

In 1930, the school population of Grosse Pointe was 2,953. In 1936, the school population has increased to 3,810, and the latest report available shows the present school population to have increased to 3,953.

Since 1930 only one school building known as the Lewis E. Marie School, located on Cadieux Road, has been built. This building has a capacity of 625. There are now approximately 375 pupils enrolled.

The high school has a pupil capacity of approximately 1400, and this institution is now taking care of 1729 pupils in the Defer School and the Cadieux School in which buildings the Junior high student is hampered because of lack of equipment and space and they will be handicapped when entering Senior High.

The school election held on April 19 to decide on the purchase of property located back of the present high school site brought out considerable discussion as to necessity for added ground. The defeat of this proposition impressed upon the citizens of the Grosse Pointe district the importance of providing more sites and building of junior high school buildings.

250 Youngsters Entertain Crowds At Dance Recital

Almost every type of dance known was demonstrated for large audiences Monday and Tuesday this week at the Grosse Pointe High School when Elaine Marie Arndt presented 250 pupils in a dance recital. The youth of Grosse Pointe and vicinity performed like troupers, and many outstanding exhibitions of terpsichorean art demonstrated their versatility.

The evening's entertainment was ushered in with a special dance interpretation by Miss Arndt. Among the outstanding numbers was a Toe Tap dance by Kitty Stabile.

Dale Rhodes, guest artist, lately featured on the Paul Whitman program gave some remarkably fine imitations of popular radio stars such as Joe Penner, Ed. Wynn and Maurice Chevalier. His efforts were rewarded with rounds of applause.

In all this was one of the finest programs ever offered by the Elaine Marie Arndt Dance Studio and considering the large number participating in this huge production the groups were handled creditably well.

The entertainment was followed by ball room dancing in which many in the audience participated. Miss Arndt devoted a great deal of time and effort in making this production possible and she deserves credit for the splendid performances her proteges gave for the entertainment of some 1600 Grosse Pointe residents.

Why Should Taxpayers of Today Build Schools for Taxpayers of Tomorrow?

It seems that the will of the people is to be flouted for despite the defeat of the proposal to purchase a new Junior High School site and other acreages about six weeks ago, a similar proposal to purchase acreage will appear on the ballot on Monday, June 14th.

Is the proposal of the School Board to purchase more school property a deep dark secret that it does not desire the voters to delve into, it was only in the last day or two that we were informed of the new movement to purchase property which will appear on the ballot.

If you are not thoroughly familiar with the proposal which will appear on your ballot VOTE NO, and play safe. We certainly don't think that we should give the Board the power to go out and buy property without telling the taxpayers what said property will cost.

The present School Board is of the opinion that three Junior High Schools will have to be constructed for the Grosse Pointe area, and indicate the following sites as ideal for the purpose.

- Number 1 Vicinity of Audubon and St. Paul
- 2 Vicinity of Charlevoix and Lathrop
- 3 Vicinity of Lochmoor Development.

We have also been informed that a new Kerby School is contemplated and abandoning the present structure. Doesn't that seem like waste?

A committee of men from the Grosse Pointe High School Men's Association recommends that four Junior High School sites be purchased. The Board's Committee also reports the ultimate need for eleven elementary schools.

On the face of these reports one can only feel that the School Board is only about a hundred years ahead of the present requirements and spending money of the taxpayers of today that taxpayers of the future might enjoy the advantages of innumerable educational structures occupying vast tracts of land which consequently will be removed from the taxrolls and will be tax exempt while the taxpayers will be shouldered with the cost of constructing millions of dollars worth of School buildings and additional operating expenses with the result that the taxpayers of Grosse Pointe will be carrying a tremendous load which can be avoided if you vote NO, now, and stop this desire to flood the area with schools.

We are in favor of having places of learning that we can be proud of, and feel that the children of Grosse Pointe are receiving a splendid education, but until we are positive that another new school is absolutely a necessity we shall be opposed to the purchase of additional school property.

It is possible that a need for new schools can be created by "packing" one school to justify the request that new structures be built, but what about some of the elementary schools; we have figures available which show that we have 98 rooms in our elementary schools with but 2224 pupils occupying these rooms or an average of about 22 pupils per room. Isn't it a fact that approximately twice that number can be handled with the same facilities, or if the High School is overcrowded for some of its students could be handled at these schools, if necessary.

The responsibility rests solely upon the shoulders of the taxpayers who must bear the burden placed upon them by those who should conserve your taxes, and spend only when there is an absolute necessity to spend to maintain our educational system on the highest plane and yet operate economically and efficiently.

Because it is possible to ask for 35 or 40% additional in taxes to cover a tax delinquency anticipation which seldom reaches 20%, there should be no reason for seeking new channels to dispose of difference, why not return it to the taxpayer in reduced taxes the next year.

Vote NO on the proposal to purchase additional school property Monday, June 14th.

Constructive Program Submitted by Meder School Board Candidacy

"My insistence as a candidate for trustee of the Board of Education," said Albert E. Meder yesterday, "that stricter economy consistent with good education be the guiding star of the Board that the frills be done away with in favor of the essentials of education, that the Board call sectional meetings of parents and taxpayers from time to time when matters of great importance are to be passed upon, and that the greatest possible publicity be given to all the proceedings of the Board, brand me as an unpopular candidate in some quarters. The result will be that unless a considerable number of the electorate vote, I am apt to be defeated.

"The apathy at these school elections is appalling. In June, 1935, 520 persons out of approximately 10,000 eligible to vote, or about 5%, cast ballots. In December of that year, a bond issue for a new school was approved with only 396 voting, or about 4%. In June, 1936, but 398 voted. In an enlightened community such as ours, which should set an example in the number of persons voting, the record is extremely poor. One wonders how our citizens can expect public school individuals to serve them in office year after year without any remuneration when those same citizens are unwilling to devote the five or ten minutes necessary to cast a ballot.

"I can only hope that my promise to do all I can to save every possible tax dollar and at the same time to keep down the school tax and my fifteen years' residence in Grosse Pointe, during which time I have had an opportunity to learn the needs of the community, will have the effect at this election of bringing out the vote."

Ralph Netting Outlines Candidacy for Local School Trustee

Ralph B. Netting, candidate for trustee of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education at the election to be held next Monday reiterated, in an interview with the Grosse Pointe Review, the principles of school board administration which he advocates. These principles are:

1. Have time to express valid objections; and the acquisition of suitable sites, as needed, while still obtainable at reasonable cost.

4. Economical execution of the people's demands for additional school facilities as the circumstances warrant.

Mr. Netting also stated: in dire need of, and deserves a vigorous forward looking administration."

"A study must be made of the present school facilities to determine their adequacy for present needs.

"Crowded conditions at the High School must be relieved and the less crowded schools must be used to better advantage.

"The population increase of the last two years must be studied in relation to its effect on the need for school facilities.

"Perhaps the most important contribution to the solution of our present and future school problem would be a public thoroughly informed in all phases of the subject. The School Board should supply the facts.

"An informed public will dictate a wise course and may rightly demand that the School Board provide school facilities as needed, where needed, and at a cost within reason."

Ralph B. Netting has for years held responsible posts in building management and is well versed in the construction and economical maintenance of buildings. He is a graduate of the United States Naval Academy. Mr. Netting says "he is interested in our schools, and his training fits him to get the most for your tax dollar and he will approach and solve school problems without prejudice."

Township Official Seek Radio Station Change at Washington

Norbert F. Denk, Supervisor of the Township of Grosse Pointe and John DesRocher, Superintendent of Police Radio, were in Washington the first part of the week seeking a change in frequency from 2414 Kilocycles to 2465 kilocycles and an increase from 50 watts to 350 watts for the new Grosse Pointe Township Radio Station. This transfer of kilocycles will cause the Grosse Pointe Township to have a network with Port Huron, Bay City and Flint.

The present kilocycle of 2414 is similar to the Detroit police broadcast and while the change would part the two, Detroit and Grosse Pointe would nevertheless be in touch at all times by monitoring Detroit's frequency with that of Grosse Pointe. In other words, there would be a time-in of twenty-four hours to each other broadcast, both on the part of the City and the Township.

Mr. Rabaut had a conference with Mr. Fulmer of the Federal Communications Committee who in turn arranged a meeting with Mr. White, the engineer in charge of all police radio work.

FINE SELECTION OF GRADUATION GIFTS

There is an exceptionally fine selection of suitable graduation gifts and gifts for the June bride at Edward J. Pongracz, Jr., Jeweler, 17008 Kercheval avenue, and all very reasonable in price. Mr. Pongracz has gained considerable prominence in Grosse Pointe through his splendid workmanship, his repairing department being one of the most thriving on the Eastside. Many antique clocks are ticking off at Grosse Pointe's favorite jewelers.

Stay-at-Home Camp Now Enrolling

The Stay-at-Home camp which enters its fifth season at the Trombley School and Lakefront Park will be continued again this year. The camp took care of 45 children last summer and already a large number of reservations are being made for the current season.

Here your child will have expert care and guidance all day and return to the roof tree at night. The day will be balanced by sunshine at the beach, bathing or swimming, luncheon, rest, games and opportunities to pursue such interests as art, music, nature study, drama and other school subjects under the direction of Mrs. Bertha Bright Knapp and associates. For a little extra cost, special trips will be planned to places of interest with which all children should be familiar.

There are a number of advantages in this plan besides the low cost. The headquarters at the Trombley School offer large airy rooms and excellent sanitary conditions for all physical needs of the group. The children dress and undress in the rest rooms of the school, thus avoiding the bath house at the beach. The dining room and the kitchen are screened and the lunches are carefully planned.

Mrs. Knapp has had a wide experience in the directing of children's activities. This is her fifth year for the camp and her sixth year for the Grosse Pointe's Children's Playhouse.

The campers will be transported to the camp at the Trombley School between 9:30 and 10 a. m., and return to your home at 4 p. m. every day except Saturday and Sunday. This arrangement gives a vacation to both of you without the loneliness of long absence from home and with the security that all is well with your kiddies when night comes.

The day's program: 9:30 to 10 a. m., Campers collected by private auto.

10 to 10:30, Preparation for swimming at the park; children taken there in auto.

10:30 to 12:30, Play and bathing. Swimming taught by instructor. All of these activities are strictly supervised. Children return to school and dress for lunch.

12 to 2, Lunch, housekeeping and a rest. Many of the children sleep for an hour or more and are allowed to do so.

2 to 3, Group activities according to interests, art, music, nature study, woodwork and games.

3:30 to 4, Preparation for home.

A well balanced luncheon will be served at 1 p. m. each day. Each camper will be delegated to assist in his turn and according to his ability, thus many opportunities for learning the joy of working and playing together will arise during the day.

Requirements: Ages, 5 to 13 years of age, boys and girls. Physical examination to insure protection to all.

Fees: For designated period at the camp are payable at registration. Make your reservation early as only a limited number of campers can be accommodated. Call Mrs. Bertha Bright Knapp, Lenox 7795 or Cadillac 7049.

Christian Science Churches

"God the Preserver of Man" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, June 13.

Among the Bible citations is this passage (I Cor. 10:13): "There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man; but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 593): "Rise in the strength of the Spirit to resist all that is unlike good. God has made man capable of this, and nothing can vitiate the ability and power divinely bestowed on man."

Reed's Defeat Farms In Twin Bill Last Sunday

The Reed A. C. baseball team defeated Grosse Pointe Farms in a double header Sunday at Kerby Field.

The first game was a tight affair, ending 3 to 2. Telep of the Farms, pitched a credible game; but bad breaks decided the game in favor of the visitors.

Many fine plays featured the second game, but misplays by the locals again brought defeat.

Vic Heimbuch with five hits, two doubles and three singles was the offensive star of the game.

The team suffered a more severe loss than the double setback, when it lost the services of one of its players. The player being the left fielder, Hillsinger, who broke his leg in the second game. He was both a grand ball player and a fine fellow, who was admired by everyone.

I am sure that it is the wish of all the fans that he has a speedy and complete recovery.

The Seven Seas
When Kipling wrote about the Seven Seas he was probably thinking of the Aratura sea, Banda sea, Celebes sea, Flores sea, Java sea, Sulu sea, and Timor sea.

Integrity

ACCORDING to the dictionary, integrity may be defined as "uprightness, rectitude, honesty, faithfulness." In Scriptural record we find the Psalmist praying for integrity, the wise man praising it as a combination of justice, faithfulness, and wisdom; and Job fervently valuing its possession.
In the twelfth chapter of II Kings we have a refreshing example of practical integrity. We read there that the temple at Jerusalem was in need of repairs, and Jehoshaphat, then king of Judah, ordered that the money which it came into any man's heart to contribute for this purpose, be used to repair the breaches of the temple wherever they were found. When this work was finally taken in hand, a man read (II Kings 12:15), "They reckoned not with the man, into whose hand they delivered the money to be bestowed on workmen: for they dealt faithfully."
What a lesson for posterity to profit from! The recognized integrity of the men entrusted with the funds dedicated to put the Lord's house in order, obviated the need for grudging against misappropriation, and excluded unlovely thoughts of suspicion and mistrust. The requisite amounts had been contributed with a willing heart, and they were disbursed in the same way. A suitable, harmonious condition this, for restoring the house of the Lord, and for accomplishing His work, while preserving the sanctity of the temple.

Actually, is not every day the Lord's day? All men, therefore, may work happily in God-bestowed integrity, since God, good, is omnipotent, and make of their workshop a sanctuary. They may also enjoy the accompanying reward, which Isaiah prophesied in the name of God, in these words (Isaiah 52:13): "Behold, my servant shall deal prudently; he shall be exalted and exalted, and be very high." These Scriptural words apply to all who are obedient to divine Principle, no matter what their occupation, since "the earth is the Lord's."
The servants of the Most High have always been blessed in the knowledge of their uprightness—in the consciousness of being faithful administrators in their Master's service. The conviction of his earnest endeavors to do the will of God furnished Job with the courage to exclaim, "Let me be weighed in an even balance, that God may know mine integrity."
Faithfulness and honesty alone are satisfying, in civil as in political life. Can an unfaithful, careless, dishonest worker be truly self-respecting and happy about his achievements? The answer must always be, No. In his innermost heart he knows his actions to be unworthy.

In an address on the subject of "Godlikeness" Mary Baker Eddy, the revered and beloved Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, said in her Message to The Mother Church for 1902 (p. 17): "Happiness consists in being and in doing good; only what God gives, and what we give ourselves and others through His tenure, confers happiness: conscious worth satisfies the hungry heart, and nothing else can."
No maladministrator can possibly be proud and happy over his monetary gains. He, too, knows his actions to be unworthy, and must sooner or later suffer from self-reproach and secret condemnation. Self-examination is an invaluable aid in determining whether one is upright, honest, faithful; whether one justly and conscientiously applies these God-given qualities. If this test results negatively, our need is to improve. We also read in the same message: "Consult thy every-day life; take its answer as to thy aims, motives, fondest purposes, and this oracle of years will put to flight all care for the world's soft flattery or its frown."
What a delightful condition of government by divine Principle we should have in all departments of life, if persons would cease to value irregular financial gains, or uncertain worldly honors! Mrs. Eddy, who valued only that which would pass the test of divine approval, gave to her followers, the members of The First Church of Christ, Scientist, which she founded, "A Rule for Motives and Acts" (Manual of The Mother Church, Art. VIII, Sect. 1), which begins with the following: "Neither animosity nor mere personal attachment should impel the motives or acts of the members of The Mother Church. In Science, divine Love alone governs man." Should not obedience to these words ensure soundness of action, true integrity?

When fairness, faithfulness, honesty, prudence, actuated by love for God and men, accompany every human undertaking, in the home, in business, in educational institutions, in politics; when each individual strives for the ability to pray with confidence, "Let me be weighed in an even balance, that God may know mine integrity," we shall be well on the way towards a demonstration of God's kingdom on earth.—The Christian Science Monitor.

Judge Malcolm Hatfield

A sixteen year old boy was arrested yesterday for automobile banditry. This youngster's parents should stand trial in his place as they are primarily responsible for his crime.

The beginning of this young man's criminal career started years ago when his parents let the whip fall from their grasp. The boy soon picked it up and from that day forward never dropped it. His father and mother never realized that they had abdicated their authority and stepped down from their legitimate places as heads of the family. Consequently, the boy was never taught to respect authority or the rights of others and as a result soon violated both the federal and state laws.

"A dollar saved by the board is equal to a dollar of tax collected."

"The community has become too large for any substantial part of it to attend each meeting of the board. Nevertheless the public should be continually informed as to what is happening in the government of its schools. If it had been in the past, much of the criticism of the board which has been heard when the public is aroused because of the school election or a proposal to construct a new school would probably never have existed."

May 3, 1937, a committee of citizens from the Grosse Pointe Farms was present. Among the citizens present were—Messrs. William K. Muir, John Sweeney, Jr., E. P. Wright, John Watkins, John T. Hurley, Harry Furton, Mr. Murray Smith, and Mr. N. F. Herbert, Mrs. Waddell, Mrs. Herman Deuster.

After considerable discussion of the subject of junior high school sites, it was suggested that it would be a wise idea to secure disinterested and competent authorities to study the proposals of the Board of Education and render a full and complete report.

It was finally decided that Dr. Arthur B. Moehlman of the University of Michigan be chairman of this Survey Committee, and that Superintendent Cody of the Detroit Public School System appoint a representative. He appointed Dr. Malcolm Price. The third member of the committee was Dr. W. W. Theisen who is Director of School Plant Extension in Milwaukee, Wis.

This committee submitted its report to the Board of Education on May 15. In going over this report it is interesting to note that there have been six previous surveys made by nationally known experts or by local authorities, and to quote from the Moehlman report—"A summary of these surveys indicates that the district of Grosse Pointe has been thoroughly surveyed and studied by a number of competent authorities on the school plant, representing different philosophies and methods of attack. There has been complete unanimity of opinion, both with respect to the number and the location of junior high schools. This complete agreement is probably due to the peculiar shape of the Grosse Pointe district which produces a certain inflexibility in placement. Such a unanimity of opinion among specialists is unusual enough to be given most serious consideration."

This report, while too long to quote in full, recommends that ultimately the Grosse Pointe school district will require four Junior high school sites. In the view of the Men's Association, there can be no dispute with the report of the Survey Commission. Without doubt four junior high school sites will be needed. The only question for the citizens to decide is the size of the sites and their location.

Further the survey commission reports—"It is desirable that so far as possible these be independent sites of approximately 15 to 20 acres each to provide for the buildings, landscaping, and differentiated playground needs of the children. Since the present health education program is based on free and group play activities, the desirable playground space per child must be increased over the older standards of the more conventional programs. The National Recreation Association now recommends a per capita range of 160 to 200 square feet per child for exclusive playground use. This allotment does not include desirable outdoor science laboratories, gardens, building approaches, or landscaping or parking facilities."

The four sites recommended by the Survey Commission for junior high school buildings are as follows:

The block bounded by St. Paul, Audubon, Jefferson Avenue, and Three Mile Drive containing approximately 13 acres.

The block bounded by Charlevoix, Cloverly Road, Beaupre and Mount Vernon. This site contains approximately 20 acres.

The area west of Lochmoor Boulevard, bounded by the future extension of Fairway and W. Street. This site contains approximately 20 acres.

The area south of Mack Avenue bounded by the probable future extension of Edgemore Road. This site contains approximately 20 acres.

Further the Survey Committee reports—"All of these sites are sufficiently large to provide for adequate screening, acoustical landscape treatment, and the protection of adjection property. The so-called noise factor on these sites can be reduced to a minimum."

An informal meeting of the School Board was held on the evening of May 28 at which a committee representing various Parent Teacher Associations, and other interested school patrons, was present.

This committee of citizens recommended that the School Board immediately designed the block bounded by Charlevoix, Cloverly Road, Beaupre and Mount Vernon as a school site, with the idea in mind that so far as possible the school district be protected from many increases in value due to subdivision or installation of improvements, and that sometime in the future the question of the purchase of this property be submitted to the voters.

This committee of citizens further recommended to the School Board that it endeavor, by negotiation, to purchase four acres adjacent to the Richard Elementary School since it seems that the four acres could possibly be secured as easily and with very little added expense to the school district in place of the three acres mentioned in the past discussions.

The foregoing will give the citizens of Grosse Pointe some idea of the latest developments in the school situation.

Future articles will appear from time to time endeavoring to give full information of School Board actions and future plans.

Champion Figure Skater In Cleveland Exposition Spectacle

Evelyn Chandler, world's champion professional figure skater, has been engaged to star in "Winterland," the mammoth ice spectacle at the Great Lakes Exposition here, featuring a summer-time ice extravaganza is a setting of icebergs, snow storms on a skating surface of 4,000 square feet.

Miss Chandler is known from coast to coast as America's queen of figure skaters, and was the star attraction at Chicago's A Century of Progress where she appeared on the ice at the Black Forest. Her performance include such feats as the "Arabian Cartwheel," a complete somersault without touching the ice; her remarkable "Axel Poulson" of five turns in succession and her "Jackson Haynes" sitdown spin or butterfly cartwheel.

In addition to Miss Chandler, Bruce Mapes, her husband who won the 1934 Middle Atlantic skating championship and their two children age 8 and 12 have been engaged. The youngsters perform some of the most dexterous feats, being natural-born skaters.

Another addition to the galaxy of stars include Duke and Noble, the sensational comedy team, and Ralph Jamison who will play the role of Prince Charming in a glorified fairy tale on the ice.

Winterland is one of the big attractions at the Great Lakes Exposition, which opened on May 29 continuing through September 6. It is presented by Harry P. Harrison, the veteran showman and Isaac "Yanny" Van Grove, formerly conductor of the Chicago Civic Opera, the Grace Moore programs for N.B.C., and more recently Reinhardt's production of "The Eternal Road."

Walter Arian, producer of the internationally famous Toronto Skating Carnival will direct the skating features, and will appear in his famous skating specialty solos and rhythmic dance numbers with his partner Miss Claudette.

Interesting Facts About the Sugar Industry of U. S.

The sugar refiners of this country are the link between the raw producers of the tropics and the consumers of the Continent. Three years ago the nature of that link was decidedly changed. At that time our Government boldly stepped in to stabilize the sugar industry when it was at the bottom of its depression. It established quotas for raw refined sugar, and it granted subsidies to the producers of sugar beets and sugar cane. The Government itself largely controlled our sugar supplies, prices, and incomes. Such Federal control was of great assistance to a depressed industry.

The sugar plan is again before Congress. The Committee on Agriculture of the House has had extensive hearings on this complicated subject. Administrative officers have offered recommendations as to a permanent sugar policy. All interests and groups have been heard. But still a great deal of confusion has attended the discussion of this National problem. It is extremely complex because of the many interests involved; intricacies are bound to arise under any quota system. Sugar is not a "free" industry. No element or factor in the industry can expect to be an absolutely "free" agent. Each factor has been assigned a position in the general American sugar system, and the question before Congress is whether the economic benefits of that system are fairly distributed as between agriculture, labor and capital.

The home refiners are now before Congress, as are all other elements in the sugar industry, far and near. The home refiners contend that their part—their "quotas"—is the cane sugar refining end of the business, as it has been since Colonial days, and that the tropical areas should be assigned the production of the crude raw sugar—their "quotas"—for which they are best fitted and which always has been their business.

This is the division made by England, Holland and Japan and all countries that have tropical or overseas sugar areas. World experiences prove such a division is in the public interest. Moving sugar refining to the tropics, or crippling home refining by assigning refining "quotas" to the tropics—the same thing—would prove a disastrous National experiment, and would unnecessarily destroy employment and investments at home. In the event of war, a hazardous situation would have been created.

The sugar refiners do not receive direct cash subsidies or benefits, and ask for none. They do claim, and do insist, however, that their organizations are entitled, under any permanent quota system, to their historical and economic place as refiners of crude raw sugar from the tropics.

Case Moves To End Evasion of Gasoline Tax

Instances of suspected collusion between retailers and consumers of gasoline for the evasion of the state's gasoline tax have caused Leon D. Case, Secretary of State, warn against certain practices in the submission of tax refund claims to the Department of State.

The gasoline tax law provides that users of gasoline for other than highway purposes are entitled to gas tax refunds, on written applications by the users themselves, after the fuel has been consumed. Applications must be accompanied by copies of invoices; refunds, when allowed, are sent directly to the retailers for distribution to the consumers entitled to them.

For some time the Department has been receiving refund claims which investigation has shown were signed in blank by the consumer at the time of purchase, the remainder of the affidavit under his direction and observation, and the submission of the claim being then only after the fuel has actually been used, the state law specifically provides, it is pointed out. Retailers are especially warned by gas tax collection officials against securing consumers' signatures in blank on refund applications to be made by the purchaser personally, or through

On and Off the Records

by Lee Montgomery
Caspar J. Lingeman opened his mail yesterday morning and was bowled over by a cryptic note from Garden City:

"I am fifty five years old and my profession demands a wife. I got married a week ago and was shocked to find the marriage license you gave me is a plain affair. In my business I need a fancy one to hang on the wall. Can you quote me prices and designs? Yours cordially"

Lingeman has no fancy license. They all come plain simple...typical of everything American. These licenses become more beautiful with age and nothing Mr. Lingeman can do will either beautify or destroy them. A license is worth only what the couple thinks its worth.

The general public considers the life of a judge as one of leisure and luxury. This is not true. The monthly report of the presiding judge of Circuit Court for the month of April contains some interesting figures.

There were 1356 matters disposed of during April by the Circuit bench. 112 of these were assigned law cases, and 39 were assignment Chancery cases. 29 of these were appeals, 652 were presiding cases, 42 were on the criminal docket, 150 were taken care of by the pre-trial docket, and 355 were dismissed on motion.

These figures do not estimate the work done off the bench. After each case the judge must draw an opinion covering the case. This can be quite a job when there are many points of law to decide and when the case represents the more difficult problems of the law.

A good judge must study continuously, not only must he know the law and keep himself pointed on recent Supreme Court rulings, but he should be versed in other subjects, such as medicine, real estate, finance, etc. Law is based on human behavior, and is merely the set of rules by which we play this game of life. The rules govern all business, all social life, all human relationship from the primary unity, the family to the more complicated relationships between nations.

The judge is the umpire and he has a long diversified set of rules. Rules that constantly change which he must be able to apply to any set of facts.

Ray Schneider, Wayne County Auditor, although called the Boy Auditor, when first elected, had already made an enviable reputation as a builder. As a builder, he was interested in the small home owner and the would be small home owner. He realized that the home gave solidity to a fast civilization. He contended that many people wanted to buy homes who were prevented from doing so only because of the down payment, which for the average worker is hard to raise. He has spent two years during his spare time, devising a workable plan to have the government help these people get a home.

His plan resembles that of the late Senator James Couzens, who with the Federal government, built 150 houses in Oakland County, each house being on an acre of land. The payments on these houses approximate $30 a month, including interest and taxes. There is no down payment to be made. Young couples, lawyers, factory workers, and doctors have a chance to build a family in their youth, otherwise denied.

Schneider would have the Federal government finance homes like this at lower interest rates. He would allow each applicant to build his own home and to buy his own plans. The houses would not be all alike, as are the Couzens homes. They would be nearer Detroit.

Schneider is attempting to persuade the Federal government. If he fails here, he will attempt to interest our local capital. In all events he predicts success soon, and this is good news to the salaried men.
