TWO MILES OF AMUSEMENT FOR NEW YORK FAIR

NEW YORK—The largest amusement park in the world, with every conceivable safe and respectable entertainment device and show, will be a part of the New York World's Fair exposition. The 280-acre amusement zone is shown above in an artist's sketch made from the architects' plans. It will form a two-mile loop. So modern is the type of construction that the drawing looks "futuristic."

Vanity Fair Editor to Speak on Town Hall Program Wed.

Frank Crowninshield, critic and patron of the arts who for many years edited Vanity Fair magazine, will give his first lecture in Detroit when he comes to the Detroit Town Hall in the Fisher Theatre Wednesday morning, January 26, at 11 o'clock. Renowned as one of New York's wittiest after-dinner speakers, Mr. Crowninshield seldom accepts speaking engagements outside of New York. His subject will be "Our Cultural Acrobatics—from the Gay Nineties to the Present Day."
 Mr. Crowninshield has been literary "godfather" to many of the biggest writing names of today. Among the celebrated authors whom he has discovered and given their first positions, or has encouraged and helped to fame are: Robert Benchley, Robert Sherwood, Elinor Wylie, Alexander Wolcott, Edna St. Vincent Millay, Heywood Brown, Dorothy Parker, P. G. Wodehouse, Aldous Huxley and many others.
 Since the merging of Vanity Fair with Vogue, he has occupied an editorial capacity with the latter magazine, continuing his witty appraisals of current trends in arts and manners. His critical writings appear also in other leading magazines.
 The tradition of the English Coffee House in its golden era was fostered by Mr. Crowninshield with his roundtable luncheons at the Algonquin in Manhattan and at the Coffee House Club, which have long been attended by writers, wits and leaders in the arts.
 He was born in Paris, the son of an artist. He was at one time art editor of Century magazine. He is a notable collector, is secretary of the Museum of Modern Art in New York City, and a prominent member of the "400" in Gotham.
 Tickets are on sale now at Grinnell's Music Store, Detroit.

Fordson Tractors Win Over High School 15-11

Gaining an early lead which was never relinquished, the Fordson Tractors gave the Grosse Pointe cagers their first defeat of the season in a game played here last Friday night. The final score was 13 to 11.
 Holahan sent the Blue Devils off to an early lead on a foul shot, but Rebb sank a one-hand push shot, Loranger counted with a pivot shot, and Ruchalla dropped in two foul shots before Grosse Pointe could score again. Touhey gave the hme tea mtwo points on a tip-in shot, and Klein of Fordson closed the scoring for the first quarter with a one-hand shot. Score Fordson 8, Grosse Pointe 3.
 The second quarter saw little scoring. Rebb sank a foul for Fordson, and Beyer made a long shot for the locals. Score Fordson 9, Grosse Pointe 5.

Hannan "Y" News

The Hannan Y. M. C. A. boys' swimming team defeated the Windsor "Y" team 58 to 37 last Saturday. Joe Lamarr and Roger Hart took the honors for the seniors. Sam Driesbach, J. Nelson and Fitzsimmons were winners the 40-yard free style and 40-yard back stroke.
 The Badminton club of the Hannan Y. M. C. A. are giving a January dancing party Friday, January 21, at 8:30 p. m. A special entertainment number in acrobatic and tap dancing by Betty Miller will be a feature. All Y. M. C. A. members and friends are invited to attend. Refreshments will be served. Alger Post Club Rooms Busy Place During Holidays

The advantage of having neat new quarters enabled the Veterans to carry out their holiday program in grand style.

Beginning with the Children's Party, which included a huge tree and trimmings together with Santa Claus and an abundance of gifts, this party was sponsored by the Ladies' Auxiliary. Over 200 children received favors.

Following this was the New Year's Eve celebration, which proved to be the most beautiful party ever conducted by the Veterans. It brought together a great many faces, many unfamiliar to those constantly attending V. F. W. functions as the novelty of the new quarters was responsible for a hundred per cent attendance of the members and their wives.

Comrade Chamberlain is to be congratulated on this colorful and successful party and it is with eagerness that all members are looking forward to the grand opening to be held in the not distant future under his direction.
The new permanent quarters have been an incentive to great many Veterans in the Grosse Pointe District to seek membership in the organization. Each meeting night finds a few more of our prominent citizenry joining up and it is hoped that within a short time the club will have enrolled all eligible members of our "60 Families."
For the benefit of Veterans in the district, the following information is being supplied:—

Meetings are held regularly on second and fourth Monday nights of each month starting promptly at 8:00. Application blanks may be procured from any member or Post Headquarters.
This is your invitation to join and any Veteran who has seen Foreign Service with the United States Army or Navy in any war in which this country was involved is eligible.

You will enjoy belonging to any participating in the fine spirit of fellowship prevailing at this Post.

Phoebe Grant Is Love Interest on 'Party Line'

This pretty young girl is the center of romance on "The Party Line" these days and she has two suitors—handsome David Hunter and Lucky Peters, wealthy young cowboy and ranch owner. It's Phoebe's problem to decide whether she should accept the attentions of David, who is engaged to another girl or to accept the marriage proposal of Lucky. Her romantic story is a daily part of "The Party Line" which is attracting thousands of new listeners through its realistic presentation of small town life.

GIRL SCOUTS

Last Tuesday many of the older girls passed their home nursing course. They think it was very interesting and are sure the lessons will be of some use to them. Miss Allen, from the Grosse Pointe Department of Health, gave the lessons. She has been coming every week for eight weeks and the girls appreciate it very much. At the end of the last meeting, which was on Tuesday, January 11, Miss Allen joined in our good night circle and sang taps with the girls. After the taps the girls presented her with a lovely black compact. They certainly enjoyed having her with them and hope they will see her again soon.
The girls of Troop 131 are planning to take many interesting trips this year.
The members of the troop are trying to raise money for charity work. It was suggested by Carlisle Frost that they have a bazaar. J. G. E.

TROOP 140
During the horseshoe formation on Monday evening, Ilene Johnson was awarded her Girl Scout pin by Vera Crichton, the assistant leader.
Troop 140 is proud to announce that all of the girls have passed their tenderfoot test and are now working on second class. Shirley Sickels received her swimmer's badge.
Second class signaling is finished, and several of the scouts passed signaling at the last meeting. S. R. S.

TROOP 127
To pass the second class nature test is the aim of the girl scouts of Troop 127 at present.
The main subject of discussion at the last meeting was "Trees." Many kinds of trees are being studied. Other subjects of interest include stars and animals.
In a month all the girls hope to be through with second class work. R. P.

The Girl Scouts of Troop 140 decided at their last meeting to work hard and make 1938 better than the previous year. A list was made of the things the girls wanted to accomplish including the test which the girls have not passed.
The money collected from the Christmas card sale was sufficient to buy a troop flag.

U. S. Turned Down Offer of the Fijis for Song

Had Uncle Sam been a good debt collector more than 60 years ago he might have had the Fiji islands for a few thousand dollars, and thus added advantageously to the number of American-owned lands of sunshine in the South Seas, asserts a writer in the Philadelphia Inquirer.
The home of an American named Williams who was acting as United States consul to Fiji, was pillaged and burned, the Fijians taking the furniture and stores of food. Williams demanded $3,000 damages. Thakombau, king of the Fijis, refused to pay. Williams wrote to Washington about the matter, and his losses, with delays, grew until $45,000 was demanded. Thakombau had no means of paying such a sum. His subjects had no money—needed none, as food grew wild on the trees, and houses cost nothing to build.
Australian money-lenders offered to settle the claim for 200,000 acres of the best land. The king accepted. Here was a chance for a stroke of bold American diplomacy, but for some reason it did not materialize. Uncle Sam might have had the islands outright for the debt.
When the news of the Australian offer reached England that government would not permit the consumption of the transaction. In a moment of fear and excitement Thakombau agreed to cede the islands to Great Britain if that country would pay the debt.
At first the British declined, but finally relented, annexing the Fijian domain.
It seems that Williams finally wearied of trying to collect his claim, and so the money never was paid.

Mississippi's Mouth at Sea Level; Source Above

According to Stimpson's "Popular Questions Answered," there are certain small streams which occasionally reverse the direction of their currents. One example is given, the river Crossing, a small stream in Penobscot county, Maine; this stream sometimes flows south and sometimes north, depending on the flood conditions in the Soudabscot and Kenduskeag rivers which it connects. The same authority deals with the common belief that the Casiquiare river in Venezuela sometimes reverses the current direction, but this is stated to be incorrect.
The question is often asked with regard to the Mississippi, the idea being that because the earth bulges at the center and is flattened toward the poles, the mouth of the river is about four miles farther than its source from the center of the earth. In measuring elevations, however, all of these are referred to sea level, not to the earth's center.
Surface measurements have shown the Mississippi's source to be several hundred feet above sea level, while its mouth is at sea level.

Hard and Soft Wheat

Hard wheat is any wheat with hard, flinty, usually dark-colored kernels high in gluten and yielding a strong flour especially suitable for bread and macaroni. Soft wheat is any wheat with soft, starchy, usually pale kernels high in starch and low in gluten yielding a weak flour, especially suitable for pastry and breakfast food.

Fish Climbs and Walks; Wiggles Tail and Fins

The climbing perch of China deserves its name but some of the stories about it are more likely to be true of a monkey than of this particular fish. It is a natural curiosity even if its alleged altitude records are questioned, observes a writer in the Detroit News.
Known scientifically as the Anabas testu-dineus, it is said to climb trees and propel itself into locations accessible only with a pair of wings.
The climbing perch can live for a rather long time out of water and can make his way over land. An examination of a specimen reveals that he has no legs, arms or other appendages which would enable him to climb a tree, even if he had any particular reason for climbing one.
He is able to wiggle his way over land by means of some spines which extend from the edge of the gill covers on either side of his head. These spines are stiff and bony.
When a climbing perch finds it desirable to move from one body of water to another he extends his gill covers at right angles to his body. Then, by wiggling his tail and pectoral fins and rolling from side to side as he uses the spines as levers he is able to move over fairly rough ground with an ungainly gait.
His locomotive apparatus is so constructed that it would not function on a smooth surface or in such a precarious footing as the limb of a tree.
The climbing fish is a relative of the Bettas, paradise fish and Gouramis and, like these species, has the ability to breathe air.

UNBREAKABLE SPECS

Miss Grace Fox demonstrates the durability of the new unbreakable eye-glass lenses developed by E. G. Lloyd of Beverly Hills, Calif., as she uses a hammer in trying to break them. Made of a crystal material, the lenses promise to revolutionize optical science as well as prove a boon to millions of spectacle wearers everywhere.

MOVIES FOR MONTAGUE

A million-dollar contract for appearances in movies, radio broadcasts and professional golf matches was signed by John Montague, fabulous golfing friend of Hollywood notables after his acquittal recently of the seven-year-old first-degree robbery charge on which he was brought back to Elizabethtown, N. J. Montague, whose real name is LaVerne Moore, was a mystery man in Hollywood for a number of years.

Freedom of Press

NEW YORK—Portraying "the unadorned truth," this statue will be dedicated to the constitutional right of freedom of the press in the "Freedom" statuary group on the Central Mall of the New York World's Fair 1939.

Amusement Zone Of New York Fair Biggest in History

NEW YORK (Special)—An amusement zone designed to accommodate at one time the entire population of cities the size of Akron, Atlanta, Birmingham, Dallas, Denver or St. Paul will greet millions of visitors to the New York World's Fair 1939, Grover A. Whalen, president of the Fair corporation, announces.

By far the largest entertainment structure ever constructed, it will contain enough shows, devices, restaurants, villages, shaded rest spots, secondary streets and plazas to handle more than 250,000 fun-seekers.

One huge theater-restaurant alone will have seats for 5,000. Another music auditorium will seat 2,500. An amphitheater to contain huge crowds will be built by the state of New York at a cost of $1,600,000; erected at the head of one of the lakes it will be the scene of operas, aquatic exhibitions, pageants and other extravaganzas.

The visitor to the Fair will walk about two miles merely to pass through the amusement section which will be laid out in the form of an oval loop with no "dead end" streets.

The 280-acre tract will be divided into at least thirteen villages or zones and every concession will conform in design and atmosphere to the particular zone in which it is located.

An example will be the "Little Old New York" village, where the theater will be a replica of the famous old Park theater, the principal cafe will duplicate Steve Brodie's saloon and the attendants will dress in character. All architecture will be attuned to that picturesque period. Admission to the zones will be free.

New York Fair To Honor Press

NEW YORK (Special)—To remind millions of visitors to the New York World's Fair 1939 that freedom of the press has helped preserve the democratic form of our government, a statue dedicated to that constitutional liberty will be erected on the $60,000,000 Central Mall, Grover A. Whalen, president of the Fair corporation, announces.

The statue will depict a partially nude woman, representing "the unadorned truth," watching the passing show of world events and recording history day-by-day. A tribute to the moral standard of the press as a whole is contained in the subordinate figure of a child reading a newspaper.

Freedom of religion, speech and assembly will be combined with freedom of press to suggest that these four factors are the cornerstone of democratic government.

Early Ohio Inhabitants At the end of the Revolutionary war the only white inhabitants of what is now Ohio, with few exceptions, were Canadian fur traders.

Origin of Word "Dunce" Duns or dunsman was a name applied by their opponents to the Scots, or followers of Duns Scotus, the great schoolman. When in the sixteenth century the Scotch opposed the new learning, the term duns or dunce became in the mouths of the reformers a term of abuse, a synonym for one incapable of scholarship.

Grosse Pointe Post 303 NEWS

By LEO M. WEIL Burning the midnight oil, to give you an idea how our Post is progressing is something to boast about. Our membership has increased in to the extent that it is about 25 per cent better than the past two years, and from all indications the allotted membership of one hundred will be reached within a very short time. Good work, Comrade Nielsen, it takes a cool guy that does a lot of pumping to put a job of this type over.

Our joint party held with the University Post was well attended and from a social standpoint a success and outstanding for quite some time.

After the business meeting that was very short, the "Legion on Parade" pictures were shown through the courtesy of "Hiram Walker," followed by lunch and a bit of that fluid, with the ice cream collar. Everyone from all indications had a swell time. Thanks, boys, for coming.

Sorry to miss the installation of the Grosse Pointe Canadian Legion Post held last week. Understand your organization is really going places. Believe me, we of the Post, wish you lots of success.

Saw Russ Murphy out to corps rehearsal the first time in months. Clem Whately was recently initiated into the order of Cooties V. F. W. (the bug). Comrade Butts took in the winter caucus at Grand Rapids.

Commander Korte and Comrade Del Barba officially closed our old building when the last piece of furniture was carried out. Comrade Ed Foley is looking in vain for a ballyhoor man. Comrade Ted Endres got the painter's colic spraying Christmas trees—what you need is a dose of turps and you will be in condition to attend meetings.

Comrade Doc Cranson paid us a surprise visit. I hope you're in earnest. Comrade Vic De Baeko accuses me of being a bit snobbish. I am, but not to you, pal. Would like to know where Comrade Rudy Schmidt always gets that big smile, or is that a laugh. Comrade Al Zarb took the cleaners to the boys in their last huddle.

Comrade Dave Porter claims with the wrinkles all gone, he feels fit as a harp. Comrade Art Simms is doing his stuff on Lake St. Clair with his new ice boat—in fact Comrade Baldwin doesn't do bad himself with his 1933 model. Comrade Chas. Bishop will give skating lessons at a very nominal fee—to any lady or ladies interested. They tell me he is really good.

Comrade Father Ross must be a very busy man, haven't seen him for quite some time. Comrade Barney Besso claims he really put the final touches on that Big Apple dance.

Comrade Bud Lingeman says he's the last word when it comes to put on the Bollero. I could go on and on but I'll cease for the time being, so, until the next writing do your good turn daily.

On the coming Sunday, January 23, the sermon will treat the word of Jesus: "Ye Are the Salt of the Earth." What is meant by this statement? Are we proving ourselves a salt? Why does the earth need salt? These and other questions will be answered next Sunday. The service will begin at 11:15 a. m. The Sunday School will be in session from 10 to 11 o'clock.

The Ladies' Aid will be in host to all the women of the congregation at a gathering next Wednesday, January 26, at 2 p. m.

Christian Science Church

"Truth" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, January 23.

The Golden Text, from Psalm 86:15, is: "Thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, long-suffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth."

Among the Bible citations is this passage (Psalm 25:5): "Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 272): "The spiritual sense of truth must be gained before Truth can be understood. This sense is assimilated only as we are honest, unselfish, loving, and meek."

Held scoreless a little over a week ago by a strong Michigan State Normal team, Chet Laske, University of Detroit basketball captain, is expected to play one of the peak games of his career when the two teams meet for the second time this year Saturday night in the Naval Armory. The Huron game marked the first time in more than two years of college basketball that Laske played an entire game without ringing up a basket. That Mr. Laske is plenty sore about the whole business was evidenced in the Kentucky game that followed when he hit the hoops for 11 points to lead his team in

Larned Outlines State Unemployment Fund Collection

Abner E. Larned, director of the Michigan Unemployment Compensation Commission, today reminded all employers subject to the state job insurance law that failure to pay their December payroll contributions by Jan. 31, the due date, would result in their having to pay a double tax.

pays his Michigan contributions before the Federal taxes are due, he is permitted to deduct 90 per cent of the tax paid to Michigan from the Federal tax.

"This deduction, or credit, is allowed, however, only when the state tax has been paid before the Federal tax," Larned declared. "The Federal tax is due January 31. If the state contribution is not paid on or before that date, then the employer must pay the full amount to both the state and the Federal Governments."

The final 1937 Michigan contribution of two per cent on December payrolls is due January 31, the same date as payment on the Federal tax of two per cent under Title Nine of the Social Security Act.

Larned stressed the importance of employers including all salaries up to and including December 31 and bonuses applicable to the year 1937 in computing this final report on last year's payrolls.

The Michigan commission has been collecting two per cent during 1937 for the state's unemployment compensation fund from which benefits will be paid to eligible, out-of-work employees after July 1.

The state contributions are payable to the Michigan Unemployment Compensation Fund, while the Federal tax is paid to the Collector of Internal Revenue. Michigan employers may claim a credit against the Federal tax only for the amount of contributions ACTUALLY PAID into the Michigan fund before the date of filing the Federal return.

Beginning January 1, the Michigan contribution rate was increased to three per cent, as was the Federal tax. The January contribution will be due February 28.

Thrills of Big Game Hunting at Art Institute Sunday

Thrilling motion pictures of American big game will be shown at the Detroit Institute of Arts, Woodward at Kirby, next Sunday afternoon, Jan. 23, when William L. Finley, famous naturalist and photographer, appears there to speak on "Woods, Waters and Wildlife." The motion picture-lecture is scheduled for 3:30 p. m.

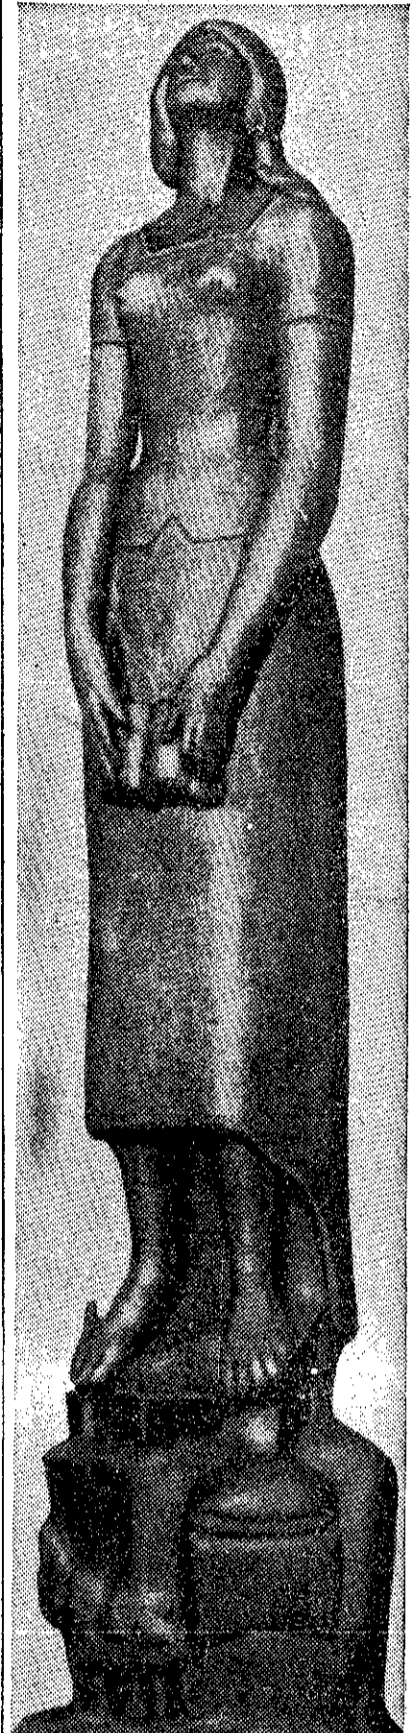

For thirty years Mr and Mrs. Finley have been roaming the wilds of western and southwestern United States making a picture record of wild life. They have the largest collection of animal pictures in the world, containing 200,000 feet of motion pictures and 20,000 negatives of stillpictures.

Mr. Finley will show intimate pictures of bears, mountain lions, moose, eagles, hawks and other game and fowl of the west. His movies have delighted audiences at the White House. His stories and articles have appeared in several national magazines.

Mr. Finley's motion picture lecture is sponsored by the World Adventure Series of the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Freedom of Religion

NEW YORK—This chaste figure of a young girl lifting her face to the skies will be dedicated to freedom of religion in the "Four Freedoms" staturary group on the Central Mall of the New York World's Fair 1939.

Religious Rights Stressed at Fair

NEW YORK (Special)—A tribute to the constitutional right of freedom of worship will have a prominent part in the statuary to be placed upon the $60,000,000 Central Mall of the New York World's Fair 1939, Grover A. Whalen, president of the Fair corporation, announces.

Part of a group known as "The Four Freedoms," the statue will depict a chaste, young girl, her face raised to the skies, holding a prayerbook in her hands. On the base of the statue, a number of churches of various denominations will signify that freedom of religion in this country is not confined to any one sect or creed.

Titan Cagers to Clash with State Normal Saturday

Captain Lou Wenger and Tex Walker will get the starting call at the guard posts for the Hurons. Both men do a great job on the defense and are fair shots.

Revenge hungry as they are, the Michigan State Normal team will not find Coach Brazil's Titan cagers taking the coming game lightly. Remember not only the first encounter this year with the Hurons, but likewise last season's games, the Brazilians will be on their toes when the opening tip off rolls around for the Ypsi game Saturday night.

The Titan five will again be depending on the dead eye of center Bob Callihan to trip the Hurons for the second successive time in as many weeks. In the game played at Ypsilanti, Callihan found the Hurons' baskets for a total of 14 points to take scoring honors for the evening. While the Rynearson coached five were fairly successful in stopping other Titan sharpshooters, they couldn't keep Mr. Callihan from dropping the ball through the hoops with an ease that had them groggy.

Although University of Detroit handball players, numbering somewhere in the neighborhood of 1000, thought their playing space difficulties were solved this year when the University built two new regulation courts, they now find themselves ready to enter another campaign for some more courts. It seems like Coach Bud Boeringer is occupying the new building with a group of football men who wish to get some pointers before the spring practice season opens.

Fort Pontchartrain Chapter Activities

Mrs. O. Dale Reynolds, social chairman of Fort Pontchartrain Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, has arranged a "cards and conversation" afternoon, Friday, January 28. Hostesses will be Mrs. Osmond D. Heavenrich, who will open her home on Virginia Park for a dessert-bridge at one o'clock. Her assistants will be

gram at the meeting of Fort Pontchartrain Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Friday afternoon, January 21st, at the Hotel Statler, the Junior and Page Group have secured Miss Hazel Benedict, who, in Oriental costumes, will present a group of Oriental dances.

On the same afternoon, Mrs. Clarence Eisman will greet members at her home on Wildemere avenue, at a bridge tea from two to four o'clock. Assisting Mrs. Eisman will be Mrs. Ivan Disc. Mrs. John C. Shaw and Mrs. Glenn S. Patterson.

Members may attend either or both of these affairs, which are planned to promote better acquaintance and sociability between new and old members and prospective members. Reservations may be made with the hostesses.

As an added attraction for the program at the meeting of Fort Pontchartrain Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Friday afternoon, January 21st, at the Hotel Statler, the Junior and Page Group have secured Miss Hazel Benedict, who, in Oriental costumes, will present a group of Oriental dances.

Sailors Don't Swim. It is an unusual thing for Newfoundland sailors to know how to swim. If they slip into the water, the icy temperature causes instant paralysis of the muscles, so only about one in a hundred of these hardy sailors bothers to learn the art of swimming.

That Southern Charm Again

Grosse Pointe Lutheran Church

"The Centurian's Knowledge, His Faith and His Reward," will be the subject of the sermon at the Grosse Pointe Lutheran Church, worshipping in the Richard School auditorium, Kercheval avenue and McKinley road, Sunday, January 23, at 11 a. m., preached by the Rev. M. Luther Canup, D. D., pastor.

"Ministering to Physical Needs," will be the subject taught among the higher grades in the Sunday School where there are classes for all ages and grades.

The girls brought in more new scholars than the boys in the first report in the attendance contest last Sunday. The boys, however, has 82 per cent of their enrollment present while the girls had only 79 per cent. This contest will last until Easter Sunday. We teach and preach the Word of God. Religious education should be the heritage of every child. Spiritual illiteracy is the forerunner of moral bankruptcy. Bring your family and attend a Sunday school and church service right in your neighborhood. You are welcome.

High Blood Pressure. Hypertension—high blood pressure—overworks the heart, imposes upon it an extra load, produces a breakdown of the arteries, and an ultimate collapse of the heart.

"Bowdlerize" means censor. The term "to Bowdlerize," meaning to censor or cut out, comes from a squeamish editor named Bowdler, who flourished in the early Nineteenth century.

Indians and Citizenship. An Indian, so long as he remains as of his Indian tribe, is not a citizen and can not vote. But an Indian can take an oath of allegiance and become a citizen. It has been held that the language of the Fourteenth amendment to the United States Constitution is not broad enough to include Indians.
