Grosse Pointe Rotary To Entertain Rotary Anns February 14

The Grosse Pointe Rotary Club has enjoyed a very happy and prosperous existence during the first six months.

The membership has been increased by eleven members and all signs point to a continual increase for some time to come. The Club's activities have been many and varied.

Their programs have been unusual. Besides being diversified, the speakers and entertainment have been of exceptional quality. The program committee consisting of Al Hermann, William Moir and Vince DePetrus for February arranged for U. S. Dist. Atty. John Lehr who was our guest speaker last Monday and a G-Man for February 21. Next Monday's meeting will be held in the evening and will be in the form of a Valentine Party for the wives and lady guests (Rotary, Anns).

There is no doubt that the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club will make itself felt as a valuable community asset in the very near future if it hasn't already.

Grosse Pointe Cagers Won Over Lansing Quintet Saturday

By DONALD MORRISON
Playing their second game of the week-end, the Grosse Pointe cagers swamped a strong Lansing Eastern quintet last Saturday night to the tune of 24 to 14.

The scoring in the first quarter was very slow in getting started, but finally Winters hooped two foul-shots to give the locals an early lead. Folks scored Lansing's first point of the game by making good a charity-toss. Touhey sank a tip-shot for the Blue Devils and Sherman retaliated for the Quakers with a long shot. Touhey closed the scoring of first period with a foul-toss. Score G. P. 5; Lansing, 3.

There was little scoring in the second quarter, because of the defense work of both squads.

Robert scored first for the Quakers on a nice push-shot and Grosse Pointe followed this up with two field goals: One each by Winters and Piche. Score at half, G. P. 5; Lansing, 5.

In the third quarter Grosse Pointe started checking down the floor, and by this method they completely outplayed the Lansing team.

Rathburn started the scoring in this quarter, when he sank a push shot from the side. Touhey sank a foul for the locals and Rathburn scored again for the Quakers on a two-handed push-shot. Touhey made a foul for the Blue Devils, and Sherman duplicated the feat by making one for the Quakers. Score G. P. 17; Lansing, 10.

The final started with Grosse Pointe scoring five successive points. Miller scored for Lansing on a long, and Winters made a push shot from the side.

At this point of the game the entire starting line up was taken from the game. The boys received a great ovation from the spectators.

The Quakers closed the scoring of the contest on two fouls, one each by Green and Sherman. Ray Touhey was again high point man with a total of 12 points.

Grosse Pointe High School's cagers will play Fordson Saturday evening at 8:15 o'clock at Fordson in the second meeting of the season with the Tractors. In the first encounter the Dearborn boys administered the only defeat Grosse Pointe has suffered this season. The reserves will play in a preliminary tilt.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Goodson, of Merriweather road, returned last week after a three week's stay in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Two Disciples of the Fistic Art

Curious individuals along the avenue have been wondering who the two German lads were that attended the Boxing Tournament Monday at the Neighborhood Club.

But for the dark complexion of one and the light Florida tan of the other the resemblance was striking. The one hid behind a pair of glasses while the other scowled from beneath a cap and watched the fistic exchange complacently without much show of exclamation or any particular expression for or against the ultimate result of the various encounters.

It has created quite a stir among the boys who gather on the avenue and this particular pair have been under discussion for several days.

Employee: (gazing meekly and murmuring) "Twins."

In producing "Polly With a Past" Pointe Players are venturing into the field of gay, sophisticated, light comedy in contrast to the serious mood and themes of Kind Lady, The Show-Off and The Cradle Song. I consider it essential for any dramatic producing organization to offer a varied program and that is one of many reasons for choosing "Polly With a Past?" I believe that it will appeal especially to the students of Grosse Pointe High," Mr. Horton declared.

Try-outs will begin February 14, and copies of the play will be available to Pointe Players interested in Mr. Horton's office. People interested in stage design for the production are urged to consult with Mr. Horton at once.

CYO Bowling Meet to Begin February 20

The only handicap bowling tournament in Michigan in which seventy-five per cent of the squad prize money is distributed among fifty per cent of the ends until the last competitors have entrants. Such is the seventh annual Catholic Youth Organization handicap bowling tournament which will be held at the Palace Schoenherr Recreation alleys in Detroit, beginning on Sunday, Feb. 20. The keglers will bowl on week had their chance to scatter the pins. Entry blanks may be obtained from the CYO Office on the fifth floor of the Chancery Bldg., 1234 Washington Blvd., Detroit; from Ray Hassee, CYO Bowling Secretary, 10965 Wilshire Ave. or from the Palace Schoenherr Recreation, 14216 East Seven Mile Road, cor. of Gratiot Ave., Detroit. Deadline for entries is midnight Thursday, Feb. 10. Any entry postmarked before that time will be acceptable.

In the five-man events, seventy-five per cent of the prize money will be divided among the teams finishing in the top half of their squad. A squad will consist of four teams or more. The remaining twenty-five per cent of the cash awards will be given out in good bowling prizes.

In the doubles and singles, it will be every man for himself. However, the prizes have been graded so that approximately forty per cent of the competitors will share in the prize money. The tournament is one of the most strictly handicapped competitions in the state. Entrants must submit the highest average they have attained in a sanctioned league in the present season. If they have no average from a sanctioned league, they must submit an average covering not more than 30 games in a non-sanctioned league. Otherwise, they must start from scratch. Teams with averages higher than 860 will be barred from the tourney.

825 is scratch for the five-man teams, 330 for the doubles and 165 for the singles. Any team with an average greater than scratch will be deducted seventy per cent of the difference between its average and scratch. Any team with an average less than scratch will be given seventy per cent of the difference between its average and scratch. The same handicap basis will be used for all events.

The CYO will arrange the bowling schedule so that outstate entrants may call their five-man, doubles and singles games in convenient order. The CYO is also prepared to bring parish bowling leagues into the tournament as separate and intact squads. The earlier entrants will be given the first choice of the dates upon which they wish to bowl.

The meet is sanctioned by the American Bowling Congress.

For any further information in regard to the tourney, keglers are requested to communicate with the Detroit CYO headquarters.

Tigers, of the system employed by the catcher, as field general, to signal the pitcher, second baseman and shortstop, and the means of changing from one code to another when the occasion demands.

Recorded likewise is the action leading to the spiking of Al Simmons, Washington outfielder, by Umpire Harry Geisel in one of the games last season. It is said to be the first time in the history of big league baseball that an accident of this sort has occurred.

Styles of the leading sluggers Charley Geringer, Detroit second sacker, who holds the titles of batting champion and the most valuable player in the league, and home-run hitters such as Joe DiMaggio, Yankee outfielder, Rudy York, catcher, Lou Gehrig, Jimmie Fox, Hank Greenberg and Hal Trosky, New York, Boston, Detroit and Cleveland first basemen, also are analyzed. Slow motion and a device known technically as the "frozen frame," which stops the action momentarily, are employed to illustrate the more important points.

Following the appearance of the six home-run hitters, who amassed a total of 226 circuit drives in the 1937 season, Tommy Bridges, Tiger pitcher, is asked how he would pitch to them to prevent the ball from being knocked out of the park. Very seriously, he describes the steps to be followed, ending up with the sage advice to "hang on to the ball" instead of making the delivery. Other ace hurlers who star in the new picture are, Ted Lyons of the White Sox, Lefty Gomez and Charley Ruffing, New York; Bob Feller and Johnny Allen, of the Cleveland Indians.

Practically every department of play is touched upon in the new film, which will supplant the three previous editions "Heads-Up Baseball," "Take Me Out to the Ball Game" and "Play Ball." Roger Cramer, Boston Red Sox outfielder, demonstrates bunting as a sacrifice and for an attempted hit; Fred "Dixie" Walker, of the Tigers, the use of the hook slide; Shortstop Luke Appling and Second Baseman Jackie Hayes, of the White Sox, the double play; and Joe Kuhel, Washington, the defensive ability required of a first baseman.

Included in the film this year are views of the baseball shool maintained by the American League for boys under 17 years old, the All-Star Game in Washington and the World Series. There are also several problem plays to sharpen the eye of the spectator. Another new feature is the inclusion of several sequences depicting the hobbies of the world champion New York Yankees.

Entirely new in every sense, "Batter Up" has been written and directed by Lew Fonseca, director of promotion for league, and recorded by Ted Husing, ace sports announcer.

LIGHT
Recreation Room

★ ★ A ROOM with a very low ceiling—such as a basement recreation room—presents a special lighting problem. The lighting fixtures used in a room of ordinary height may hang as much as 12 to 18 inches from the ceiling. These are obviously impractical here.

There are three solutions—any or all of which may be used, depending on the size of the room to be lighted. A recessed glass panel almost flush with the ceiling will provide good general illumination, when used in conjunction with other lighting, and eliminate any danger of bumping one's head on the usual projecting type of light fixture. Wall brackets are another possibility: Graceful new plastic wall urns are an attractive variation of the usual shaded bracket, and supply a good quality of indirect illumination. Finally, there are floor lamps and table lamps with a reflector bowl under the shade to diffuse the light. These have the advantage of being portable, and may be used alone or in combination with the other two types of lighting fixtures mentioned above.

For helpful suggestions on your home lighting, call in a Detroit Edison Home Lighting Advisor. He will show you how to measure your lighting with the Sight Meter, and help you with any lighting problem you may have. If you wish, he will make a complete lighting survey of your house, and give you expert advice on types and arrangement of lamps, fixtures, etc. No charge or obligation! This is part of our service.

THE DETROIT EDISON CO.

Sinclair Lewis To Speak at Town Hall

The lecture event of the year is the coming of Nobel Prizewinner Sinclair Lewis to Detroit. The fiery American writer will speak here for the first time in almost a decade when he comes to the Detroit Town Hall in the Fisher Theatre Wednesday morning, Feb. 16, at 11 o'clock.

In his book, "It Can't Happen Here," published in 1935, later presented as a play but banned as a movie by the Will Hays office in fear of "international complications," he attacked the dictator system and issued his warning—it has happened in Germany and Italy, it can happen here!

Now, says Sinclair Lewis, "It Has Happened Here!" In the lecture he will give under this title he promises to explode some new bombshells in his attacks on stage censorship, Reds, Fascists and other things.

Lewis rose to fame with Main Street in which he attacked the smugness and standardization of ideas in America's small-town life. He attacked the dealers in real estate and the medical profession in Babbitt and Arrowsmith respectively. He defied the ministry in Elmer Gantry. The book was banned in Boston and brought a storm of controversy.

In 1927 Sinclair Lewis refused to accept the Pulitzer Prize. In 1931, the year he didn't publish a book, he became the first American to be awarded the Nobel Prize for literature.

His new book, The Prodigal Parents, deals with "the revolt of the parents against the revolt of youth." Lewis has also written a new play, Publish Glad Tidings, which will be produced on Broadway.

Because of the heavy advance sale, reserved seat tickets are limited. Tickets are on sale at Grinnell's—RA. 1124. $1.10, $1.65, including tax.

New Baseball Film Available to Schools, Colleges and Clubs

Little known facts concerning big league play are revealed, many of them for the first time, in the new official nound motion picture of the American League, "Batter Up," which was previewed at the Book-Cadillac hotel late yesterday by local baseball celebrities and newspapermen.

The film, the fourth of a series produced by the baseball association in cooperation with the Fisher Body Division of General Motors, will be made available without charge to schools, colleges, clubs, and other organizations interested in the subject of baseball in 2 and 4 reel-lengths and in 16 and 35 mm. sizes. The shorter version requires approximately 24 minutes for a showing, and the longer one, 40 minutes.

Among the features in the new picture is a sequence in which Connie Mack, manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, tells in his own words exactly how he employs his famous score card to direct the team from the bench.

Others in the full version of the film include a demonstration by Mickey Cochrane, manager of the Detroit

Pumpkin Pie Goes Modern

THE old fashioned foods — made popular by grandmother's deft touch — still find favor on today's menus.
It's easy to make this old favorite in the modern manner. Watch the folks go for it!

Pumpkin Chiffon Pie with Brazil Nut Crust
Pumpkin Chiffon Pie
1-1/2 cups cooked or canned pumpkin, drained
1/2 cup old fashioned brown sugar, firmly packed
1 teaspoon cinnamon 1 tablespoon gelatin
1/2 teaspoon ginger 1/4 cup cold water
1-1/4 teaspoons salt Brazil nut pastry
2 eggs, separated 1/4 cup shredded nuts, toasted
1 cup milk
Combine pumpkin, sugar, spices, salt, slightly beaten egg yolks and milk. Cook over boiling water 5 minutes, stirring constantly. Soften gelatin in cold water, add to hot pumpkin mixture and stir until dissolved. Chill until slightly thickened. Then carefully fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Turn into pie plate lined with nut pastry. Top with shredded, toasted nuts. Chill until firm. Approximate yield: 1 (8-inch) pie.

Brazil Nut Crust
1-1/2 cups ground Brazil nuts or walnuts
3 tablespoons granulated sugar
Mix nuts and sugar. Turn into an 8-inch pie plate. With the back of spoon press the mixture evenly against the pie plate. Approximate yield: 1 (8-inch) crust.

High School Notes
A picture of the Grosse Pointe High School band was published last month in "National School Musician," a magazine devoted to school musical interests.
The organization of the band, which has been in training for three months under Mr. Dewey Kalember, music instructor, was explained in an article accompanying the picture. The new sound proof music room, the goals of the band, and the possibility of having it play at the football games and other events next year are discussed.
Impressed by the graduation exercises of the January class of Grosse Pointe High School, an anonymous donor has announced that he will offer a $400 scholarship to a boy or girl graduating from Grosse Pointe from either the January or the June class, who will attend the University of Michigan.
The scholarship will consist of a $100 payment every year for four years, providing the student's marks are satisfactory.
The student receiving the scholarship will be chosen by the scholarship committee, which consists of, Mr. Paul A. Rehms, Mr. Charles Leavitt, Mrs. Ruth Flom, and Mrs. Helen Peterson.
In the January issue of "The Bulletin of Secondary High School Principals," is an article entitled "The Junior High School Library," by Mr. Paul A. Rehms, principal of Grosse Pointe High School.
Mr. Rehms discusses what he thinks are the four distinctive functions of the junior high library, the creation of a love for fine literature, provision of a well-rounded collection, supplementing the work of the classroom, and teaching of the essential skills and tools necessary to use a library to the utmost.
Mr. Rehms points out that "in the whole process, the librarian is the central figure and the success or failure of a library will be largely dependent upon her training, understanding, and wisdom."
Fifteen high school students received all A's as first semester marks.
They are: Lucile Brown, 10B, Marjorie Kaufman, 11B, Elizabeth Baer, 11B, Mary Esther Williams, 12B, Jean Trombley, 12B, Eric Gottschalk, 12B, Vonnice Young, 12B, John Lucas, 10A, Phyllis Elworthy, 10A, Harriet Heames, 12A, Helen Briggs, 7B, Jean Preble, 12A, Betty Lou Ketchum, 7A, Henry Barringer, January '38, and Elaine Taylor, January '38.
The first assemblies of the new semester at the high school will be held February 15 for the ninth and tenth grades and February 17 for the eleventh and twelfth grades. In each assembly athletic and scholarship awards will be presented.
From February 22 through the rest of the semester the usual procedure for assemblies will be followed.

The things which one does in earning this badge helps others to be useful to others, as was as being enjoyable to you. You are taught the Schafer prone pressure method of artificial respiration. E. J. R.

Ferry Boat Passengers Cool Their Heels

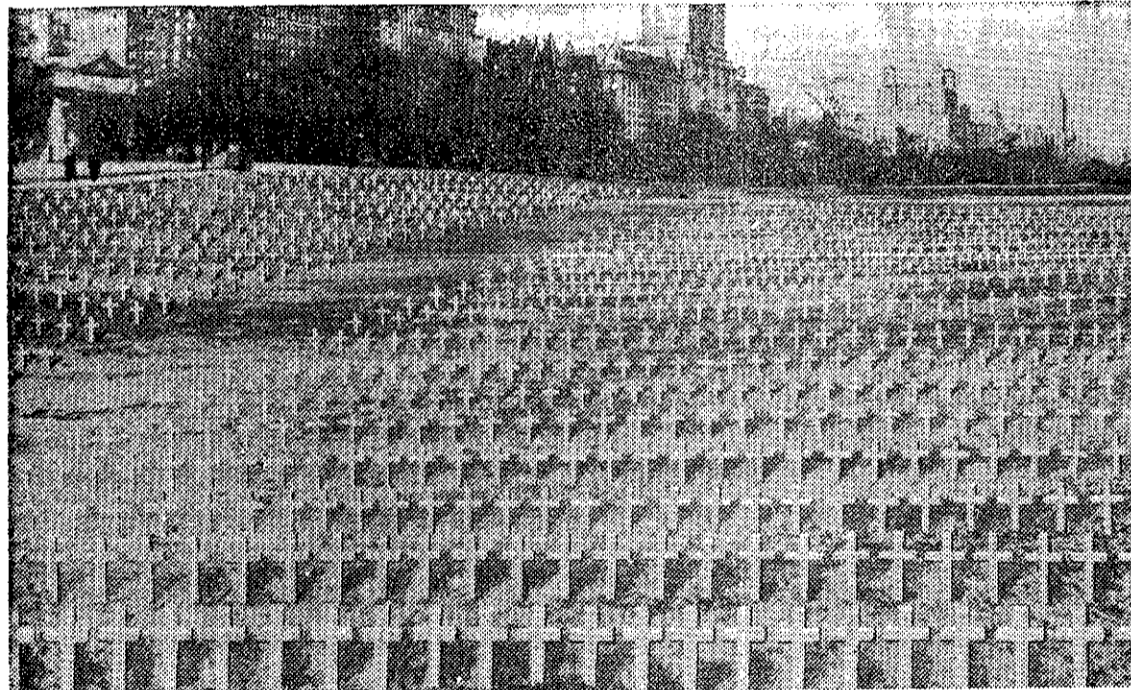

An ice jam which formed in the Hudson river off Newburgh, N. Y., trapped the ferryboat Dutchess with 20 passengers aboard for five hours. The ferryboat was bound from Beacon, N. Y., and only a change of tide allowed it to work free and dock.

Ice Tears Away Niagara Falls Bridge

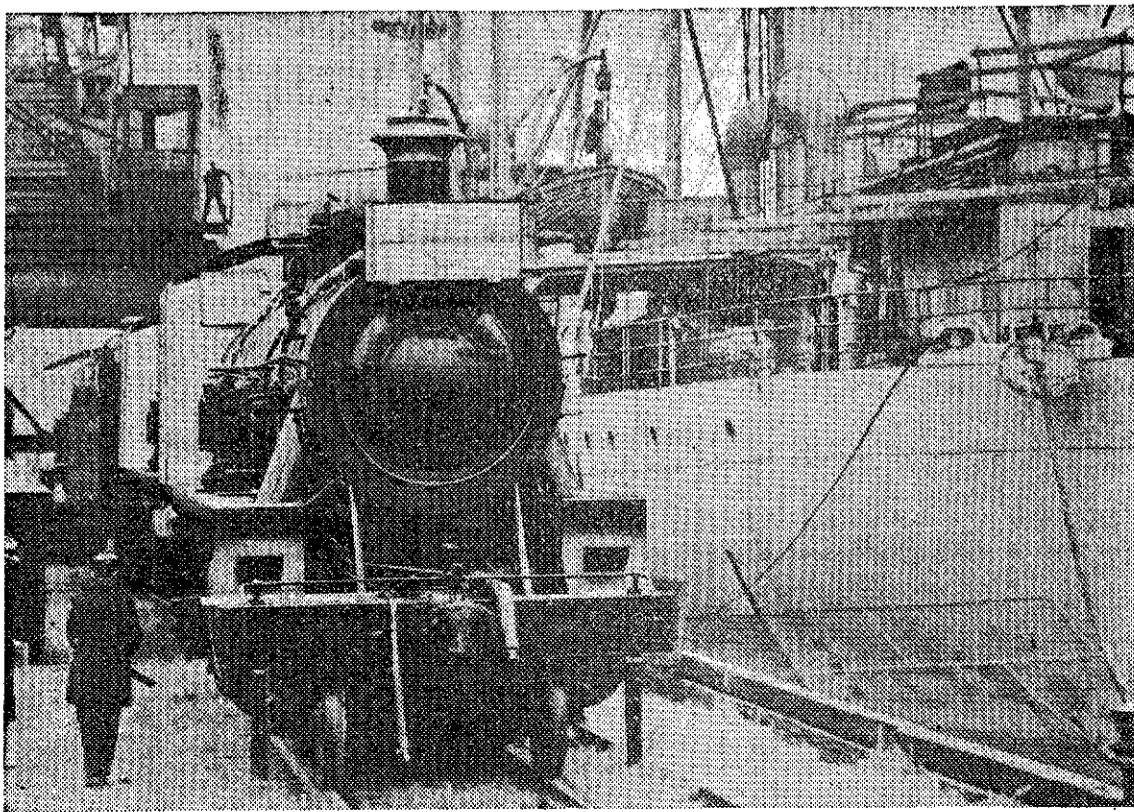

This twisted mass of steel girders among mountainous blocks of ice is all that remains of the 40-year-old Falls View International bridge which collapsed into the ice-filled gorge below Niagara falls after resisting an ice jam for 24 hours. This view of the famed "honeymoon bridge" was made from the American side. The noise of the crash of the 4,500,000-pound structure blotted out for a moment the roar of Niagara falls, 500 yards upstream. Thousands of spectators watched as the girders buckled. Workmen who had been sent into the gorge to strengthen the bridge's supports narrowly escaped death when the crash came.

New York's Auto Dead for One Year

How that huge area of New York's Central park known as the "mall" would look if all the persons killed by automobiles for the year of 1937 were buried there is visualized by the above picture. The crosses were painted on this photograph to impress motorists and pedestrians alike of the enormity of the death toll. Police figures show that in 1937 a total of 943 people were killed by automobiles in New York.

American Locomotives Bound for China

First of a shipment of 20 locomotives being shipped to China by American locomotive manufacturers from Philadelphia. The shipment, one of the biggest made from the United States in recent years, was bought and paid for by the Chinese government. Plans for getting the locomotives past the Japanese blockade were not disclosed.

Harrison III, New York lawyer, shown in their car as they left the Christ Protestant Episcopal church, Wilmington, Del., after their marriage. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., and the former Ethel duPont, second cousin of the bride, were married in the same church last June.

Looks at Record Between Dips

Farr Gives Tardy Handshake

Tommy Farr, left, shakes hands with Jimmy Braddock, who won a surprising ten-round decision from the Welshman at Madison Square Garden, New York, recently, as the two met in Promoter Mike Jacobs' office. Farr, greatly disappointed over the result, said he had not seen Braddock coming over to shake his hand. Both were agreeable to a return bout.

Presiding at Utility Trial

United States Circuit Justice Florence Allen, shown as she presided over the three-judge court hearing the recent TVA-Utility company case at Chattanooga, Tenn. Judge Allen was prominently mentioned for the vacancy on the Supreme court of the United States for which President Roosevelt nominated Solicitor General Stanley Reed.

100 HOURS AWAKE

Miss Ruth Jimmerson, nineteen, of Unadilla, Ga., one of six students at the University of Georgia who completed 100 hours of voluntary insomnia in a psychology experiment "in the interest of pure science," which was conducted by Dr. Austin S. HAS "WHISTLING" EYE

COWBOY LOU

KISS FOR PUTTER

Henry Picard kissing the putter that helped him win the Pasadena $3,000 golf open over the Brookside course at Pasadena, Calif. Picard was victorious with a total of 276. He made the final turn home in 35 which added to his outgoing 34 gave him a total of 69 for the final round and 276 for the tournament.

Visiting Nurses' Meeting Held Thursday, Feb. 3

Emphasis was on maternity care at the annual meeting of the Visiting Nurse Association at Alger Center, 4421 Woodward Avenue, Rear, Thursday afternoon, February 3. The speaker was Dr. George Kemperman, one of the city's outstanding obstetricians and a member of the Association's Medical Advisory Committee, who stressed the need for the services of both doctor and graduate nurse at confinement.

Some figures relating to maternal and infant health, and the Association's part in promoting them, were given by the maternity supervisor, Miss Gladys Carrison. She showed how, of the 27,525 babies born in Detroit last year, the Association gave care to 20 per cent of them in the first 10 days of their lives.

Detroit is one of the few large cities in the United States which have a "delivery service"—assistance to the physician at the birth of a baby. This service was instituted in 1920 by the Detroit Visiting Nurse Association, one of the first such services to be offered, and is now recognized as the training ground for such services by other organizations.

The delivery is declared by physicians to be the most crucial time of the maternity cycle, and this was emphasized at the recent conference on maternity care sponsored by the Children's Bureau at Washington. When the Bureau was recently granted $3,800,000 to extend and improve services for promoting the health of mothers and children, especially in rural areas, and the Michigan State Department of Health was authorized to begin a rural maternity and delivery service in two counties, the state chose two nurses from the staff of the Visiting Nurses Association.

Yet the people of Detroit make small use of their own delivery services, Miss Carrison said. She told her audience that of the 27,525 live births in Detroit in 1937, approximately 9,008 were born at home (the remainder in hospitals) and that a visiting delivery nurse assisted at 885 births, or slightly less than 10 per cent of this number. This figure represented 12 per cent of the 6,660 babies to whom nurses of the Association gave care in the first 10 days of their lives, which in turn was 25 per cent of the babies born in the metropolitan area, 20 per cent of those in the City of Detroit, and 69 per cent of those born in their homes in Detroit.

In 1937, nurses of the Association gave care in all to 32,522 patients in their homes, and 2,181 patients in clinics. Visits numbered 188,440 an increase of 3,370, or two per cent. The patient-load increase was 972, or three per cent over 1936. This increase occurred among patients with communicable disease, particularly scarlet fever, The Association nurses cared for 12 per cent of all the reported scarlet fever patients in Detroit, and eight per cent of all the pneumonia patients. Some of the diagnoses were as follows: pneumonia, 716 in 1936, and 699 in 1937; cancer and tumors, 294 in 1936, and 361 in 1937; heart ailments, 285 and 269; diabetes, 104 both years; scarlet fever, 515, and 1,527; poliomyelitis, 115 in 1937 and syphilis, eight and 17.

Only 1,016 patients were referred in 1937 for nursing care by the City Physician's Office; and by the Medical Bureau, which is responsible for the medical and nursing care of patients who are welfare clients. Commenting on these figures in relation to the size of the welfare rolls, Miss Emilie G. Sargent, executive director, said "It would seem that many Welfare clients have gone without needed nursing service in time of sickness."

The report of Mrs. James Q. Goudie, chairman of the Social Service Committee, revealed that during the year 242 patients were lent hospital beds, wheel chairs and other pieces of sick-room equipment by the Association, which had in turn received them as gifts from friends and former patients.

Wild Life In Art Institute Lecture Series

Grey Owl, author of "Pilgrims of the Wild" and other nature books, will appear at the Detroit Institute of Arts, Woodward at Kirby next Sunday afternoon, February 13, at 3:30 to present his motion picture lecture, "My Friends of the Deep Wilderness."

Grey Owl gained international attention recently when he attempted to broadcast in England a plea against fox hunting, one of England's most popular sports. He was cut off the air and stalked from the broadcasting station refusing to alter his script. Prior to the broadcast incident, Grey Owl had appeared before the royal family and had appeared nightly throughout England before large audiences.

Grey Owl was adopted and brought up by the Ojibway Indians. Virtually his entire life has been spent in the wilds. He is a splendid speaker and his motion pictures are considered among the best nature pictures ever filmed. He will appear in full costume for his performance at the Detroit Institute of Arts. Reservations may be made by calling the World Adventure Series of the Detroit Institute of Arts, Temple 2-7676.

Abner Larned Urges Securing Social Security Numbers

Abner E. Larned, Director of the Unemployment Compensation Commission today urged all workers in Michigan to procure Social Security Account numbers to facilitate filing of claims for benefits, which will be accepted after July 1, the date set for accepting applications.

"There has been some cause for asking questions regarding the need of those over 65 years of age procuring the Social Security Account numbers," said Mr. Larned.

"To clarify the regulations, we wish to inform workers that the Social Security Account numbers will be used to identify claimants for benefits from the Michigan Unemployment Compensation fund.

"Persons 65 years of age or over are not subject to the taxing provisions of the Social Security Act associated with the Old-Age Insurance, nor is an employer required to contribute under this Title for employees who are 65 years of age or over.

"They are, nevertheless, covered by the provisions of the Michigan Unemployment Compensation Commission and are entitled to benefit from the fund established under the provisions of that Act, if they have earned wages in employment covered by the Act and are otherwise eligible in all respects.

"For this reason, the Social Security Board has made arrangements that their office will issue Social Security Account numbers to all persons 65 years of age or over, upon application therefor.

"This provision has been made by the Michigan Unemployment Compensation Commission to facilitate the administration of the Unemployment Compensation Commission funds.

"Persons 65 years of age or over must procure such numbers, in order to assure their receiving benefits without unnecessary delay."

U of D Sport Shorts

University of Detroit football Players keep in shape during the off season by doing the Big Apple, new dance craze. The Titan gridmen claim that the dance keeps their muscles from growing tight as well as being a lot of fun. Many of the boys have become so good at demonstrating the dance that coeds now have them putting on exhibitions during the lunch hours. Linemen do the leading while the smaller backfield men follow.

Members of the University of Detroit fencing team dip the ends of their swords in red paint before each practice match. As a result every time one of the fencers scores a hit on his opponent he leaves a red mark on the opponent's white practice shirt. Because the red paint looks so much like blood, Coach Charley Schmitter claims his men take practice sessions pretty seriously.

Because their is no ruling preventing cheerleaders from remaining on the squad longer than three years, Ted Sura, head yell fan at the University of Detroit, will be serving his seventh season with the Titans next fall. Sura is taking a seven year law course and has been cheering U. of D. teams on to victory ever since his freshman year. Now if arrangements could be made to keep football players on the squad for—but why go into that.

Lloyd Brazil, University of Detroit basketball coach, is thinking very seriously of writing Mayor Kelley of Chicago, Ill., a letter of appreciation for the 1937 Titan cage team. Due to the fact that center Bob Calihan and guards Frank O'Donnell and Roger Hayes are all graduates of St. George's high school of Chicago, while John McDermott and Charley Buchholz, who play the guard positions, hail from St. Ignatius and Calumet high schools respectively, Brazil feels that it is only fitting that he should thank someone connected with the official life of the Windy City. All five of the Chicago boys are first stringers at the University of Detroit this season and have won nine of eleven games played to date.

Used Car Owners Should Own Titles

People who must transfer titles of cars to themselves before purchasing 1938 license plates or half year plates should not delay this action longer. Department of State officials have warned, as license plate sales continued to lag.

While a record for title transfers was established in 1937, there is every indication that thousands of people who have acquired used cars in the past few months, are still deferring title transfer until they are ready to buy their new plates or permits. As a rule, motorists defer this transfer in the belief they will evade the $1.00 fee for transferring license plates. However, this charge is collected regardless of the time of the title transfer.

Frank W. Carney, Director of the Motor Vehicle Division of the Department of State points out, that those selling cars to subsequent purchasers should see to it that the titles are transferred. Legal responsibility for damages resulting from operation of a motor vehicle, rests with the recorded owner, Carney has observed.

Indications are that more than a million motor vehicles will lack 1938 plates or permits on February 1, with the deadline fixed by law at March 1. Those who involve plate purchases with title transfer applications will not only slow down the whole process for themselves but for everyone else applying for plates, motorists are reminded.
