Grosse Pointe Park Halts Sale of Obscene Literature Merchants Asked to Co-operate

Acting on complaints received from residents of Grosse Pointe Park, President Alfred J. Garska has ordered the Grosse Pointe Park Police Department to keep a watchful eye on magazines and literature on sale in Grosse Pointe Park. All merchants dealing in magazines and books, whether for sale or rental are requested to co-operate in cleaning up the mass of indecent and obscene literature that has been increasing at an alarming rate.

Mr. Garska when interviewed regarding a ban on filthy and questionable reading matter in Grosse Pointe Park stated: "Aside from the general harm that this obscene literary trash does to everyone who reads it, is the particularly harmful effect it has upon adolescent youth, and its dangerous effect upon the sexual pervert. If this sort of literature is permitted to be sold without protest, we are apt to pay for it in crime.

"I have asked our police to keep a sharp watch on our newsstands and bookshelves for offensive literature and if after a warning the offending merchant does not co-operate in cleaning up the dirt, appropriate action will be taken which will include the publication of names of sellers of indecent and crime-glorifying literature."

"Every decent citizen of Grosse Pointe should refuse to patronize a store offering this sort of literature for sale or rental."

It is expected that several Grosse Pointe organizations interested in youth welfare and the other Grosse Pointe municipalities will join in the fight to clean up Grosse Pointe as far as the sale and rental of questionable books and periodicals is concerned.

This newspaper heartily endorses this movement as a step in the right direction and invites its readers to give their views on this subject.

We reprint below from the Sept. 2, 1932 issue of Grosse Pointe Review, sections from Village of Grosse Pointe Park Ordinance No. 82 (effective Sept. 10, 1932) entitled "An Ordinance to preserve the public peace in the Village of Grosse Pointe Park."

SECTION 8. No person shall show, sell, offer for sale, exhibit or distribute any indecent or obscene picture, drawing, engraving, card, paper, book or pamphlet.

SECTION 9. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be punished by a fine not to exceed One Hundred ($100) dollars and costs of prosecution; or the offender may be sentenced to imprisonment in the Village or Wayne County Jail for a term not to exceed ninety (90) days or both in the discretion of the court.

Alger Post News

Well the Lincoln Birthday party is over, and what a fine party it turned out to be. We have the finest dance floor east of the Book-Cadillac, at least that is what all the guests thought, and the orchestra was sublime. The best we ever had. We are going to have them again next Saturday, Feb. 19.

Next Saturday we are going to have the first open house dance since we moved to our new home. All our friends and neighbors are cordially invited to attend. Don't forget the date, next Saturday, Feb. 19. The address is 1714 1/2 St. Paul, City of Grosse Pointe.

The best attended meeting we have had in years is over and it sure was a pleasure to look at that sea of faces. All the old timers were on hand plus all the other members. We took in another bunch of recruits. Considering everything it was a swell meeting. Comrades. Let's keep the ball rolling forward march.

Next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock we, in conjunction with the Grosse Pointe American Legion Post, No. 303, Grosse Pointe Lutheran Church and the Naval Reserves have planned a Washington birthday celebration to be held at the Gabriel Richard school auditorium under the auspices of the Grosse Pointe Lutheran Church. Rev. Canup, the pastor. A splendid program has been outlined. Rev. Canup will have charge of the regular services. Charles Babcock, presiding officer and Rudolph C. Schmidt, will give the patriotic address. We think it is going to be a very rare treat and we urge all the local residents to attend.

Enoch Bookwalter, of Rivard Blvd., is spending several weeks motoring thru Europe.

NEW 1938 BICYCLES NOW ON SALE

Student Outlines Changes in Our Non-Academic Curriculum

Twenty-five or thirty years ago, high schools were almost entirely academic; only such courses as English, Latin, Geometry, and Algebra were offered. There was reason for this. The high school population at that time was composed of students who were taking a college preparatory course or were distinctly interested in academic subjects "those who were not interested were not compelled to attend high school after they had graduated from the eighth grade.

Within the last fifteen years, however, high schools have been moving more towards a non-academic curriculum. This has been caused in part by a change in the compulsory attendance laws which now require a child to attend school until he is 16. It has necessarily been accompanied by a change in the population of the high school. Only about 40 per cent of our students are preparing to enter college — that remainder expect to finish their formal education at the close of their high school career or plan to attend vocational school after graduation.

The movement toward a non-academic curriculum has also been caused by a feeling on the part of college preparatory students that such courses will be of value and interest, or will add enjoyment to their leisure hours. That Grosse Pointe High School has kept pace with the changing demands of the student body is shown by the fact that since 1928 many new non-academic subjects have been added to the curriculum.

If a student in 1928 had wished to elect courses in the commercial department, for instance, he would have had his choice among two years of typing, shorthand, or bookkeeping. Today he may take, in addition to those, third year typing, commercial law, junior business training, and office practice.

Junior Business training was added as a ninth grade course to acquaint the student with a few of the fundamental

Edwin R. Stroh Passed Away Sunday

A heart ailment caused the death of Mr. Stroh, member of a widely known Detroit family, early Sunday morning in his home, 11 Beverly Road, Grosse Pointe Farms.

Mr. Stroh was born on East Elizabeth street, near Hastings street, Jan. 23, 1888, the son of the late Bernhard and Elizabeth Salzman Stroh. He was educated in the Detroit University School and the Detroit University Michigan, obtaining his literary degree from the latter in 1908. Formerly a manufacturer, he later was in the insurance business. He was a member of the Grosse Pointe Country Club.

Surviving are his wife, the former Katharine Remick, daughter of Jerome H. Remick, a son, Edward R. Jr.; a daughter, Frances Adelaide Stroh, a brother, Bernhard, and two sisters, Mrs. James D. Standish and Mrs. Archie Burroughs of Pasadena, Calif.

The Rev. Francis B. Creamer, of Christ Episcopal Church conducted the services in the home Tuesday.

APPRECIATION

The White House was painted white after its burning by the British in 1814, to cover the marks of the fire.

High School Notes

Dr. William Lyon Phelps, noted teacher, lecturer, and writer, will give an address in the high school auditorium Thursday evening, May 12, under the auspices of the High School Teachers Club, announced Mr. Harold Husband, president.

Dr. Phelps gave the high school dedicatory address ten years ago, and it is the occasion of the tenth anniversary of the opening of the building which prompted the faculty organization to arrange the May engagement, Mr. Husband explained.

A former professor of oratory and English at Yale and Harvard, Dr. Phelps now spends his entire time lecturing and writing.

The ninth annual father and son dinner will be held Tuesday, March 1, at 8:30 o'clock in the high school cafeteria.

The dinner will be sponsored by the Hi-Y under the supervision of Mr. William Hamilton and the Student Association.

Committees for the dinner are to be announced at the Hi-Y meeting tonight and will be reported in the Tower next week.

The price of the dinner is 50 cents per plate.

"Hong Kong is one of the most beautiful cities I've ever been in. They have high hedges of poinsettias and gardenias are everywhere," explained Miss Katherine Taylor in her informal talk last Thursday to the English class at the Grosse Pointe High School concerning her travels in China.

She describes the college as not quite up to the standard of the University of Michigan in all respects except science courses, such as biology or botany.

On her return trip, Miss Taylor managed to visit Siam, the Kniber Pass, Jerusalem, Florence, Vienna, Paris, and many other famous places, traveling third class as much as possible to observe a better cross section of the common people.

Fordson Defeats Pointe Cagers

By DONALD MORRISON
In a very thrilling game played at Fordson last Saturday night the Grosse Pointe cagers lost their second Border Cities League contest this season to the Tractors by the score of 23-19.

Grosse Pointe completely out-played the Dearborn boys in the opening frame and it looked as though the Blue Devils would give the Fordson team its first set-back of the season.

Barrett started the scoring with a foul-toss and Rochalla retaliated for Fordson with a similar shot. Touhey put Grosse Pointe in the lead with a nice push-shot, but Lorenger tied up the game when he sank a dog-shot. Touhey once more gave the locals the lead when he hooped another push-shot, and later he picked up a rolling ball in front of the basket and went in to score. Hintze, Tractor guard, missed two charity shots as the quarter ended. Score, G. P., 7; F., 3.

Fordson came back strong in the second frame and cut the Grosse Pointe lead to one point before the half ended.

Beever found the hoop on a foul toss to start the scoring in the second quarter. Then Touhey and Barrett each sank foul-shots for the locals. The Tractors then scored three straight field-goals, a push-shot by Plecka, a long by Gowins, and a one-handed hook-shot by Magan. Score G. P., 10; F., 9.

In the third frame the locals were held scoreless, while the Tractors added ten points to their total.

Fordson tied up the contest in the opening minutes of the third quarter, when Rachalla made good a foul-toss and then Hintze gave the Tractors the lead on two successive long-shots. Fordson continued its scoring spree on three foul-tosses, two by Rachalla and another by Fleming, and also a field-goal by the latter. Score G. P. 10, F., 19.

With a comfortable lead, the Tractors attempted to freeze the ball until the final whistle, and the locals tried desperately to gain possession of the ball, but Fordson managed to hold its lead until the game was over. Grosse Pointe did, however, succeed in cutting the Tractor lead to four points but because of lack of time they could not overtake the boys from Dearborn.

Touhey started the scoring with a foul-toss and Winters followed up with the same. Gowins then hooped a push-shot from the Tractors and Grosse Pointe followed this with two field goals by Winters. Fordson made two foul-tosses, one by Rebl and the other by Fleming, and the locals scored on a long-shot by Touhey. Lec closed the scoring of the contest with a one-handed push shot from the side. Final score G. P., 19; F., 23.

Ray Touhey was high scorer with 10 points.

The Grosse Pointe High School basketball team will play the Monroe squad next Friday night in the local high school gymnasium at 8:15 o'clock.

This will be the second tilt between these two teams this season, the Blue Devils having trounced the Trojans 39 to 30 earlier in the season.

Christian Science Churches

"Mind" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, February 20.

The Golden Text, from Psalm 92:5, is: "O Lord, how great are thy works! and thy thoughts are very deep."

Among the Bible citations is this passage (Romans 11:33, 34): "O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out! For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?"

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 273): "Divine metaphysics, as revealed to spiritual understanding, shows clearly that all is Mind, and that Mind is God, omnipotence, omnipresence, omniscience—that is, all power, all presence, all Science."

Vegetarians To Hear Dr. Onderdonk

Dr. Francis S. Onderdonk, formerly instructor in the College of Architecture of the University of Michigan, will be the speaker at the dinner of the Vegetarian Society, Friday evening, February 18th.

Dr. Onderdonk, who is a member of the Sons of the American Revolution, was born in New York but spent twenty years abroad and during the entire World War lived in Vienna, Austria, studying architecture. He became interested in the vegetarian ideal through the philosophy of the great Russian novelist, Count Leo N. Tolstoy and his lecture will describe with the aid of lantern slides—the life and teaching of this prophetic thinker. This lecture will be of interest even to those who have merely smiles for the vegetarian movement for the speaker will describe Tolstoy's family tragedy, his flight from the Countess with whom he had lived for 50 years as well as his re-discovery of the significance of the teaching of Jesus for the modern crisis.

The public is invited to attend the Vegetarian dinner at 6:30 p. m., at the Women's City Club, 2110 Park avenue corner Elizabeth. For reservations, call Cherry 5987.

The Hannan Branch Y. M. C. A. at Jefferson and Garland is fortunate to have the services of 3 of these men for special group meetings during the next few days.

Members of the several boys' clubs of the Hannan Branch will meet with Dr. Brace for a Chinese meal at noon on Saturday, February 19 in the club rooms. On Thursday evening, February 24, at 6:00 o'clock, Dr. Brace will enjoy a Chinese menu with 75 members of the senior organized groups of the Hannan Y. M. C. A. Wives of members, members of the Mothers' Club, women members of the badminton group and other ladies are invited to attend as are other interested friends in the community. Dr. Brace will speak of the present situation in China out of more than 25 years of experience as a "Y" Secretary and teacher in Western China. He is personally acquainted with Generalissimo and Mrs. Chiang Kia-shek and with many of the leading figures in China's present struggle.

Dr. Bruce is a native Canadian. His career as soldier, lecturer, explorer and Y. M. C. A. secretary has been very colorful and interesting. In June 1936 he completed 25 years of Y. M. C. A. work in Chengtu, China. In that period he has served as a boys' work secretary a professor of Modern History in Sze-Chwan University, a researcher into the life and history of Tibet and as a translator of some of China's wealth of literature. For his researches he received a doctorate from British Columbia University in 1936 and a fellowship from the Royal Geographic Society in London. As physical director in China, he taught the young men and boys of Chengtu boxing, swimming and other sports along with their Christianity. In 1915, he became general secretary of the Chengtu Association. In 1917, with the military rank of Captain, he commanded a Chinese Labor Battalion on the Western Front digging reserve trenches. Mr. Bruce returned to W. China in 1919. Through his contacts as a teacher of English in many of Chengtu's forty-six government schools, he interested many young men in the Young Men's Christian Association. For the last five years, he has taught Modern History in the Provincial University of Sze-Chwan.

Added to his Young Men's Christian Association and teaching activities Dr. Bruce has found time to spend two hours each day for the last 20 years in the study and translation of Chinese. He has made such worthy pieces of Chinese literature as the Proverbs, Philosophers, Tu Fu Poems and Teachings of Confucius available in English. Dr. Bruce has also made many explorations into the life of Tibet, including anthropology, making maps and taking photographs.

On Tuesday evening, February 22 at 6:00 o'clock, Mr. Arthur Guttery will meet a group of Hannan Branch residents at supper for a discussion of the present situation in China. Mr. Guttery, for 13 years served as General Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in Hankow, China, a city then of 1,500,000 people with several Y. M. C. A. branches serving 7000 members.

Mr. Guttery was in China during some of China's most crucial hours. One of his most interesting experiences was during the "Reign of Terror" in 1926-27 when the Nationalist Government, with headquarters then at Hankow, was dominated by Communism with Russian advisors to the important government and army officers. All Americans and Europeans had been evacuated from the state and Canada will be represented.

There will be dancing to music of Don Russo and his orchestra and a fine program of entertainment.

The North-East Lions will meet every Thursday at 12:15 P. M. at the YMCA building, at Cadillac and Harper Dr. Gene Bielaski has been elected president of the club. The club is making rapid progress and should be quite a factor in the life of the community before long.

Mt. Olive Lutheran Church

"The Little White Church Around the corner," Radnor avenue (Lincoln Rd.), at Mack avenue. P. E. Stern, pastor; Sunday school, 9:30 a. m. Divine services, 10:45 a. m.; Men's Club meeting, Monday, 8:00 p. m. Choir rehearsal, Tuesday, 7:45 p. m. Sunday School Teachers' meeting Wednesday, 8:00 p. m. A cordial welcome awaits you at all services.

Cadillac Society, D. A. R.

Cadillac Society, Children of the American Revolution, is scheduling two events for the coming week, Mrs. Harry J. Vibbert, senior president, announces. On Monday, February 21, the group is sponsoring a benefit bridge-luncheon at 12:30 o'clock, at the New Center Building. Proceeds will be devoted to the Society's charitable projects.

Y. M. C. A. Notes

A two weeks' educational campaign on its World Service in other lands, was inaugurated by the Detroit Y. M. C. A. Monday with four national "Y" speakers being brought to Detroit for a series of addresses at the eight "Y" branches in the metropolitan area.

Speakers are Dr. A. J. Brace, traveler, soldier and "Y" secretary in China; Lloyd R. Killam, of the National "Y" Council; Arthur M. Guttery, for many years identified with the Y. M. C. A. in China; and Harry Herman, of the National "Y" Council.

The Hannan Branch Y. M. C. A. at Jefferson and Garland is fortunate to have the services of 3 of these men for special group meetings during the next few days.

Dr. Warren Issues Health Bulletin

The health conditions of Grosse Pointe Township have been very good so far this year.

Regarding contagion there are at present 7 Scarlet Fever; 9 Measles; 6 Whooping Cough; and 6 Chickenpox cases. More measles are looked for because of the epidemic in the State. 5775 cases since January 1st, in the State, of which Detroit had 3141 cases, and 1021 last week, so naturally we may expect an increase in Grosse Pointe. We suggest to the parents that they keep their children in bed and consult their physician should the child show any indisposition. Measles rank high in the death rate due largely to the fact of it not being taken seriously. Pneumonia being the most likely complication and is very likely to result fatally. A child showing any signs of illness even in a very mild form should not be sent to school. A little precaution these days may save a serious illness or the life of a child.

B. H. Warren, M. D.,
Health Commissioner.

Diphtheria has increased some in the State during the past three or four months, 49 cases in Detroit since Jan. 1st. There is as yet to be a case of diphtheria in Grosse Pointe in the past five years and the only way in which to keep this record clear is to have the doctor immunize the babies against this disease which is so easily and positively prevented, saving suffering and possible death.

Danger Lurks in Raw Milk—Drink Pasteurized Milk Only
"Why take a chance," asks Dr. Warren, Health Commissioner of Grosse Pointe, by drinking raw milk, or even using it in coffee, or on cereal? Undulant fever, septic sore throat and scarlet fever are only some of the diseases that may be contracted by men, women and children from raw milk.

"Although most people want clean and safe milk, they are unaware of the hidden dangers of raw milk, and the dairy industry, more-thoroughly familiar with the problem than the general public, have been willing and anxious to provide safe milk."

"The cows where you purchase raw milk may be well-kept and the milk may be handled in a sanitary manner, yet still harbor the dreaded germs that give people undulant fever. In fact, this disease in cows is not apparent to the eye—the cows do not appear to suffer any physical discomfort—and the final diagnosis must depend on the use of the microscope and test-tube in detecting it."

"From extensive laboratory tests made throughout the country, dairymen know that nearly 90% of all cows carry the germ. This bad little Bang bug—so-called because a man by the name of Bang isolated it—costs the people of the United States who own cattle nearly eighty million dollars every year. Until dairymen could find some means to eradicate the disease from their herds other means to protect the public had to be taken," explains Dr. Warren.

"Pasteurization, which kills all harmful bacteria and in one way impairs the food value of milk, was the inevitable method chosen by milk dealers to provide safe milk. In fact, pasteurization of all milk sold by milk dealers is now compulsory by law in the city of Royal Oak and many nearby towns.

"Before you drink a glass of raw milk, it will be mighty wise for you to ask a simple question. Can you afford to be ill for long weeks with undulant fever, or an infectious sore throat? Do you want to see any of your family, wife, husband, little Johnny, or Mary suffering with these diseases? Emphatically no!"

"Of course, pasteurized milk costs a little more than raw milk. Elaborate machinery for heating the milk to a temperature of 145 degrees is expensive; more hours of labor for completing the process do add a few pennies to the cost of a quart of pasteurized milk."

"Yet is not pasteurized milk the most economical in the end?"

"Will the few cents difference in the price of a quart of raw milk and a quart of pasteurized milk ever equal the cost of lost time from the job, medicine and treatment? Or compensate for weeks of suffering? Not in a whole year.

"Why take a chance on contracting a lingering fever, accompanied by aches and pains in the joints, that may return to exhaust you over a period of years? Pasteurized milk," concludes Dr. Warren, "is not only the safest, but the most economical of foods."

Townsend Club Party Feb. 22

Commemorating Washington's Birthday on February 22nd, 1938, Townsend Club No. 7 invites you to attend a Colonial Dinner and Party with dancing in St. Columba Episcopal Parish Bldg., Jefferson east at Manistique avenues. Dinner will be served at 6:30 p. m. at which time 25 valuable prizes will be given away at the tables.

On the program, following the dinner will be heard Miss Ione Rosenbrock and Mrs. Kennedy Brooks in readings, a short address on the Townsend Plan, and music. Several kinds of games, including cards will entertain those who do not care to dance, especially attention to the children. Dancing on the upper floor from 9:00 until 12:00 p. m. will round out a full evening. Music by Del Casino Orchestra.

Prizes will be awarded the winners of the games and a drawing for the grand door prize. Admission for adults will be 50c, children 12 years or under, 25c. Party dancing without the Colonial Dinner will be 25c. These tickets may be obtained at the door.

Two floors in the Parish Building are being used to entertain our guests. The following chairmen of the committees have been appointed: General Chairman, Mrs. A. V. Baker, 1054 Marlborough Ave., Lenox 5929 who also has charge of reservations for the dinner tickets; dinner Mrs. C. Heidemark; program, Mrs. Kennedy Brooks; games, Dr. A. V. Baker; prizes, Mrs. H. H. Vincent; dancing, Mr. C. T. Carlson; checking Mr. Ben Rawson; advertising, Mr. Fred Ashford. You will be welcome.

Awarded Plaques for Baseball

Tom Meany, president of the New York Chapter of Baseball Writers, center, presents plaques to Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis, left, and Joe Di Maggio, New York Yankees' slugger, for their activities in the baseball world. Judge Landis was honored for his services to baseball, while Di Maggio was honored as the "player of the year" for 1937.

MASTER MILER

Glenn Cunningham of the New York Curb exchange winning the K. of C. mile, in 4:13:8, before a packed house in Boston Garden. The so-called master miler was supreme in the inaugural cup test of the floor board campaign, defeating Archie San Romani, his Curb exchange colleague, by 12 yards. Gene Venzke of the N. Y. A. C. finished third. Glenn won with a pulverizing sprint in the final furlong and shared major honors of the seventeenth annual Front Memorial games with Don Lash, who won the Larrivee two-mile event.

DISCOVERS NEW "TNT"

Wendell Zimmerman, twenty-four, postgraduate student at the University of California, who has announced discovery of a new explosive said to be up to 53 times more powerful than TNT. Known only as RPX, the new formula was first announced for use in interplanetary rocket experiments. Now Zimmerman reports he is in correspondence with various world powers in the market for his secret.

"VAMP" OF YESTERDAY

Surely you haven't forgotten Theda Bara, the come-hither girl of the silent days of the movies. Well, here she is in a cogitative mood in her Mayfair, London, home. She is Mrs. Charles Brabin, having been happily married for the past fifteen years. Although many years out of the films, Mrs. Brabin still receives fan mail from hundreds of her faithful followers in the days when she was the vampiest vamp of them all.

Ex-Gov. Gifford Pinchot of Pennsylvania, who announced that he is a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, and as a symbol of his decision, throws his hat in the ring. Pinchot scouts have been covering the state in recent months arousing sentiment for the former governor.

T. B. Death Rates Being Studied

Why the highest death rates from tuberculosis in Michigan occur within particular county boundary lines is expected to be the subject of intensive research by the Michigan Tuberculosis Association in the coming months, Theodore J. Werle, executive secretary of the Association, announced this week. A study of mortality statistics compiled by the Michigan Department of Health makes apparent two facts, Mr. Werle pointed out: that in spite of improved methods of case-finding and hospitalization of the tuberculosis the Michigan tuberculosis death rate is revealing a tendency to climb; that certain sections of the state have a consistently high rate of deaths from the disease.

"Of Michigan's eighty-three counties, twenty-seven, or one-third, have a tuberculosis death rate higher than the average for the entire state. Several have a rate more than twice the state average. Here, then," Mr. Werle declared, "is uncovered a new field for tuberculosis workers to venture. To discover why many high death rate counties are nearly surrounded by counties having low tuberculosis mortality, while others form an almost unbroken area of high death rates, will require painstaking study."

In the rising number of tuberculosis deaths is seen a new solution, Mr. Werle believed.

"Heretofore," he said, "tuberculosis fighters have been winning a steady victory over the White Plague. At the half-way mark, however, advance against the disease has been checked temporarily. The Michigan Tuberculosis Association, a volunteer agency whose work is financed entirely by tuberculosis Christmas seal funds, will continue to bend every effort toward lowering the present high number of Michigan deaths caused annually by the White Plague," Mr. Werle said.

"Michigan people, themselves, are making possible the proposed extensive campaign of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association. Their generosity in purchasing tuberculosis Christmas seals again is pushing forward vigorous efforts to prevent the spread of the great disease menace, tuberculosis."

A Shakespearean Garden for Detroit

Over thirty years ago a Shakespeare Study Club was organized in Detroit with the purpose of studying and interpreting the works of William Shakespeare. The interest of this club developed to the point of an enthusiastic desire for a Shakespeare Garden. This enthusiasm was so genuine and substantial that they secured concessions for the sale of seeds, candy, beverages, and ice cream at the National Flower Shows. They obtained funds by this means for the purpose of establishing a Shakespeare Garden and fitting memorial.

A succession of trials, misfortunes and disappointments, entirely beyond the responsibility or control of the Shakespeare Club, made the realization of their hopes more prospective than promising. Undaunted in courage, and untiring in their determined persistence, this most loyal group of ladies have finally awakened the active interest of Councilman Philip Breitmeyer, Commissioner Bush of the Department of Parks and Boulevards, and also the City Plan Commission in this worthy project.

In a long search for a choice location of a Shakespeare Garden, all available ones had supposedly been well considered. Recently, however, Scripps Park was mentioned as a desirable site. The ladies of the Shakespeare Club visited this suggested site and appeared unanimously in their recommendation that Scripps Park be accepted as the choice location. The action of the Shakespeare Club was supported by both the Department of Parks and Boulevards, and the City Plan Commission.

The Staff of the City Plan Commission is now working on the detail Plans and have asked the Cranbrook Academy to participate with them in the plan an design for a Shakespeare Garden. It seems very consistent and fitting that Cranbrook Academy have a part in this work because the Scripps family, donors of the Park to the City, also have interests in the Academy.

Present prospects appear bright that in the near future Detroit can have a truly great Shakespeare Garden—one that they may be proud of and one for which the loyal group of ladies of the Shakespeare Club are mostly responsible.

Changes In Our Non-Academic Curriculum

functions of the business world. It lays a foundation for advanced commercial work.

Third year typing is a course for those preparing to become secretaries. Greater speed and accuracy are demanded, and the laboratory work consisting of typing manuscripts, statistical tables, charts, payrolls, and legal documents.

Office practice provides practical training in operating business machines and appliances. Besides work on the calculating machines, the students learn to operate the Ediphone dictating and transcribing machines, the Ditto duplicator, and the mimeograph. A short course in filing is also a part of this training.

This department has helped immeasurably in securing jobs for our graduates. They have stepped directly into typing, filing, assistant bookkeeper positions, and in a few cases into secretarialships. The personnel director of one of the largest concerns in Detroit is very well pleased with our commercial graduates and has spoken very highly of the department.

Nine years ago less than 3 per cent of all the girls in the high school were taking Home Economics courses, whereas in March of last year 25 of the girls were enrolled. This marked increase is attributable to two causes: first, to a growing conviction that education for home membership is not only desirable but necessary, and second, to the addition of Homemaking III-IV Foods I-II, and Clothing III-IV.

Second-year clothing was added during the depression at the request of the girls and their mothers who realized, as never before, the great value of knowing how to make one's own garments. This course differs from the first year course chiefly in the difficulty of the projects. Here the girls learn the principles of clothing selection and the science of good buying, how to judge quality of fabrics and how to alter patterns and how to remove stains. They study, too, the history of costume and the vocational possibilities in home economics.

Offered for the first time to Senior girls this semester, Foods I and II have proved very popular.

Foods I is concerned with the planning and preparation of the three daily meals for a family, with informal meals serving emphasized. Throughout the semester the girls serve meals every week. The Foods II class studies dietetics and preparation for formal entertaining such as teas, buffet lunches, and dinners.

The Homemaking I and II courses revised this semester, may be summed up as a study of home management. This class is housed in our apartment, which has a kitchen, dining room, living room, bedroom and bath.

If one were to visit the apartment during class period, one would find the girls planning meals for the week, cooking, serving a group of girls who are entertaining, dusting, hemming curtains, washing dishes, or ironing—in fact, all the household tasks that one might do in managing a home are performed.

Child care, an important part of the work of a home, is studied in Homemaking III. The work of this class is supplemented by contact with youngsters. The girls observe the children at Richard, and those showing greatest interest and ability are given an opportunity to work with children in the Richard School. They give several children's parties during the semester; they learn the principles of toy selection; they dress dolls, and make and mend toys to be given to the Franklin Street Settlement.

Homemaking IV is the study of Home Decoration. Every phase of selecting, planning, and furnishing a home is studied. The students design floor plans and plan the decorations and color schemes for each room in the house.

There has been an increase in the enrollment in the manual arts for boys somewhat comparable with the increase in Home Economics for girls. In 1929 only 1/3 of the boys were enrolled in manual arts as against 1/2 of the boys in 1937.

Second and third year Mechanical Drawing are among the courses added in this department. The third year is concerned with architectural drawing. In this course the boys design in detail their own houses, including floor plans and diagrams for the electricity, water, and gas lines.

Auto Shop, another addition in this department, consists of the study of the mechanics of the automobile.

General Shop I and II involves five types of work: woodworking, forge practice, woodturning, electricity, and general metals. General Shop III-IV have been added to permit boys to specialize in one or two of these fields. A new method of teaching is now planned for the course. Movies showing demonstrations of different processes are being taken by one of our teachers and will be shown to the boys. The subject of this plan is to insure uniform instruction and to give the boys a chance to see the process done in slow motion by an expert.

The A Cappella Choir, which was newly formed this semester, is composed of 38 voices. By next year it is hoped that the number will have increased to 50. The choir sings entirely without accompaniment. Although a very new organization, the choir has already made nine public appearances. Plans for next year's performances include several tours. The class is conducted in the new sound proof music room on the third floor where the instrumental classes are held.

Instruction in instrumental music has been resumed this year. At present the course is restricted to seventh and eighth grade students. Ground work for this class is being laid in the elementary school through the medium of the new Saxette classes. In a year or so, as material is developed in the grades, instrumental music will be offered to Senior high students, and orchestral type music will be added to band.

It is our hope that in the future costume design may be resumed in connection with clothing classes, and that music appreciation will again be offered—especially since the radio plays so prominent a part in our lives. We hope, too, that the future will see the addition of the crafts type of art course such as pottery, jewelry making, and textile design. A course in the operation of an automobile would also be a valuable addition in this age where nearly everyone drives a car.

County Reflections

By Jack Sabin

Petitions were being circulated this past week to amend the constitution of the State of Michigan to extend the term of office of County Clerk, Prosecuting Attorney, Sheriff, Treasurer and Register of Deeds of four years. This constitution provision shall affect the aforesaid officers elected at the November election and every four years thereafter.

To date there have been two statewide meetings at Lansing and distribution of the petition has covered the entire state. There will have to be secured about 165,000 signatures of voters to have this amendment placed on the ballot. Little difficulty is expected however in securing more than sufficient number of signatures as the response has been very favorable, not only from the office affected but likewise from various civic groups that feel that a four year tenure of office would provide for more efficient and economical operation of state government.

As most taxpayers are aware it takes a newly elected official the greater part of his first year in familiarizing himself with the duties of his office, and in making those adjustments that he feels are essential to more capable direction of his office, and by that time under the present setup, the office holder is compelled to start his campaigning for re-election and not only are his attentions diverted from the proper service to the public but likewise that of his staff, who realize that if they are not returned to office they are going to be unemployed and consequently their interests are also solely devoted to the campaign instead of to the public service as they should be.

By changing the tenure of these offices to four years instead of the present two year term, a savings will be made to the taxpayers on the election costs; a greater economy will be affected by more efficient supervision of office by the elected official and a more capable staff will be at their service as the employees will be devoting their entire attention to the serving of the public instead of turning goodly portion of their time to the re-election campaigns.

We elect our President of the United States for a four year term, and this basic national and constitutional term of office has proven its worth many times in the history of the nation. Every citizen will be doing their part for the better government by signing these petitions and voting for the amendment at the November election.

If we can believe the reports of the newspapers of the past few days the State Liquor Control Commission has finally awakened to the necessity of cleaning up the beer gardens and night clubs throughout the city. Your columnist reminds you that two months ago in our column we decried the tactics of the commission in permitting girls of eighteen years of age serving as waitresses and entertainers in these environments, but at that time the Liquor Commission appeared to be more interested in wholesale disposal at great losses on over-stocked supplies of slow moving liquors and with petty entanglements such as attempting to force the army and navy officers units in the state to purchase from the commission, whereas the federal manual gives them the right to purchase direct from the distilleries.

Passionist Benefit Party Wednesday February 23rd

A Card Party is being sponsored by 40 pastors of the City of Detroit and vicinity together with the Gemma Gagliani Guild and Associates for the benefit of the Passionist Monastery to be held at the Naval Armory, 7600 E. Jefferson avenue, Wednesday, Feb. 23rd, at 8 p. m.

The Passionist Fathers whose Monastery is located at 23300 Davison avenue, west, and their work are comparatively unknown. They have no Parish and therefore very few contacts with the laity of Detroit. For this reason they are being assisted by the various pastors.

The Fathers specialize in Mission and Retreat work, and have rendered assistance to the priests of the City of Detroit and the Archdiocese. For years the Fathers have taken care of the spiritual ministrations of Maybury and Eastlawn Sanitariums, Wayne County Training School and both the Men's and Women's Divisions of the Detroit House of Correction. Recently they have undertaken apostolic work among the Colored people of Detroit.

Mr. Carmine DiGiovanni, Metropolitan Opera Star, accompanied by Mr. Lew Betterly, at the Hammond Organ, will render selections.
