The members of the Grosse Pointe Businessmen's Bowling League held a party at the home of H. Cramer, 1320 Beaconsfield avenue, last Saturday evening.

We understand the boys attended in substantial numbers and really enjoyed the party to the fullest extent. Some of them are still talking about the good time they had. The annual banquet is to be held at a later date.

New State Law Requires Drivers to Pass Examination

When your present driver's license expires and you must secure a new one, the State of Michigan has set up certain requirements which must be complied with, and which are effective April 1.

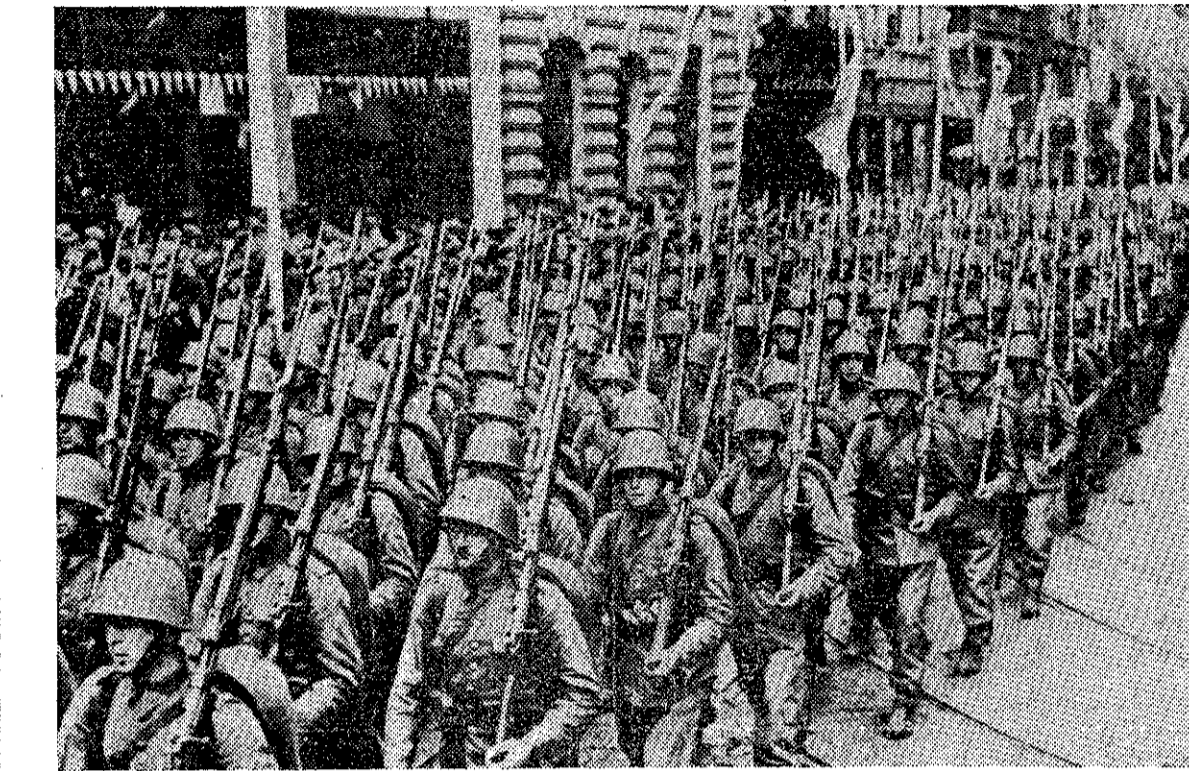

James Drysdale, chief of the Grosse Pointe Park police department, outlined the new requirements in an interview early this week.

First of all you must give a detailed list of your driving activities and list traffic violations, etc. You must pass an examination provided by the Secretary of State's office.

A comprehensive booklet has been prepared by the Secretary of State to aid drivers in passing this examination known as the "Rules of the Road" which may be had for the asking at your local police department.

These books are of substantial benefit for both new and old drivers and should be thoroughly studied by all who drive vehicles upon the streets and public highways. A better understand-

When Poles Prepared for Invasion

Well equipped, well-drilled, these steel-helmeted Polish troops were photographed at Bydgoszcz recently as they marched past their commander in chief, General Smigly-Rydz. Soon afterward they were rushed to the Lithuanian border to enforce a Polish ultimatum. When Lithuania capitulated the world breathed easier as a threat of war was removed.

News Flash from The City of Grosse Pointe for the Week

Charles Talos, age 23, who was picked up on February 18, for carrying concealed weapons and having sawed-off shotgun in possession, was tried on March 22, before Federal Judge Monnet and was sentenced to three and one-half years in Leavenworth penitentiary.

On March 24, 1938 at 7:41 a. m. Fire Box No. 26, located at Neff and Jefferson was pulled, and same found to be false alarm. On information of John Ostwedre, 390 St. Clair avenue, who at time was in attendance at Darling's gas station at gas pumps, noticed a dilapidated looking Ford with rear broken window going west on Jefferson. On this information Officers Collins and Casey took up the pursuit and overtook above car at Wayburn and Jefferson.

Mr. C. B. Sarvis, 17185 East Jefferson, noticed these lads pull box and gave chase to the above car, and at Park's Station he flagged Grosse Pointe Park's scout car and gave them the information, and they took up the chase and arrived just as above officers stopped the car.

This car contained six lads between the ages of 19 and 22 who had been fishing all night. After a few minutes questioning one of the boys admitted stopping at that corner for a few minutes. Upon this information a steady grilling of all parties continued and in a few minutes the police had enough information to know whom the guilty party was. Complaint was written and signed by Fire Chief Ledger Chauvin Justice called and party tried and by 10 a. m. was sentenced to serve 45 days in the county jail. Taken to jail immediately to serve time.

Again calling your attention to the hours in which operator's license will be issued after April 1, 1938, when new forms go in effect. Issued between hours of 8 a. m. and 6 p. m. only. (sgd) CHIEF TROMBLY.

All dogs not licensed will be picked up by the police department and impounded. This means an impounding fee of $2.00 which is provided for by ordinance and is rigidly enforced as well as the regular license fee of $1.00 for male and unsexed dogs and $2.00 for female dogs.

No vicious or fierce dogs shall be permitted to run at large upon the streets unless in the custody of some person who can control the same.

James Drysdale, chief of the Grosse Pointe Park police department, asks that residents co-operate with the department as much as possible in the interests of safety for the people who traverse our streets.

The Board of Canvassers of Grosse Pointe Farms conducted a recount of the votes cast in the Village election of March 14, 1938. The recount was held Tuesday, March 29, 1938, on the petition of L. Noll, who alleged there had been irregularities in the counting of the votes.

Grosse Pointe Township Officers Seek Re-Election On Administrative Record

On Monday, April 4, the Township supervisor, Norbert F. Denk, a resident of Grosse Pointe Farms, on Moross road, goes before the voters of the Township for the post with which he has been connected for a number of years, managing it quite economically and efficiently. His experience and past accomplishments warrant his re-election.

As a member of the Ways and Means Committee and the Jail Committee of Wayne County, Mr. Denk is thoroughly familiar with the functioning of the county government, which is also a great aid in effecting many economies in Township administration.

Adolph L. Damman, who is a candidate to succeed himself as treasurer of Grosse Pointe Township, has conducted the affairs of this most important office in a very capable and creditable manner, collecting and disbursing the funds

Former Waltz Champion Returns

The many friends of Mrs. Fred C. Gamber will be pleased to know that she was the winner of the waltz contest Friday, March 18, at the American Legion Headquarters on St. Paul, at Neff road.

of the Township economically and efficiently.

His tenure of office has been just what one would wish for with regards to the handling of public funds. Such conscientious and honest efforts deserve commendation and consideration and merit his re-election.

He is a taxpayer in Grosse Pointe Township and resides at 1325 Maryland avenue. His many friends have taken an active interest in the campaign to re-elect Mr. Damman to the office in which he has served so faithfully.

Carl Schweikart, a resident and taxpayer of Grosse Pointe Township, residing at 1325 Maryland avenue, who had the endorsement of a vast number of friends to become elected clerk of the Township last year, is a candidate to succeed himself this year.

Mr. Schweikart has been very capable and conscientious during the past year as clerk of Grosse Pointe Township and the office has functioned very satisfactorily. He is justly entitled to succeed himself and should be re-elected at the polls Monday.

Mr. Schweikart, an attorney by profession, is well qualified to hold this important office, and his experience in public life, gained while in the Wayne County prosecutor's office, should be of great benefit to the residents of Grosse Pointe.

Kenneth M. Thomas, candidate for Justice of the Peace of Grosse Pointe Township, is a man of broad legal experience which eminently qualifies him for the office he seeks, and makes him a valuable member of the Township Board.

Born 38 years ago in Detroit, he lived for a number of years in Grosse Pointe Park, and is now a resident of Grosse Pointe Farms.

In 1917-18-19 he served in the United States Navy, was honorably discharged and re-entered Southeastern High school. He later graduated from the Detroit College of Law, L. L. B., and the University of Detroit, L. L. M. For the past 14 years he has been actively engaged in the practice of law.

Reminiscence of the Recent Flower Show at Convention Hall

By MARY JANE STOETZEL
Even in this modern day and age it seems that the old fashioned plants have been able to regain their lost favor, if the crowds constantly gathered around the unusual exhibit of herbs and aromatic plants shown by the Edelweiss Gardens Nursery during the annual flower show held last week at Convention Hall can be used as a basis for judging. Over the aged brick paths, that divided the series of small beds, millings throngs, young as well as old, all interested in the many aromatic and sweet scented plants that have inspired poets and writers of all ages.

This garden enclosed by a wooden fence along which ivy and bittersweet grew was Elizabethan in character and contained many representatives of the four utilitarian classes in which herbs are divided. A few of the simple medicinal herbs that were present in abundance were the wormwood plants, those asteraceous plants that have a bitter yet slightly aromatic taste; that well known white flavored perennial plant which belongs to the aster family called "fever-jew," and the bitter tasting tansy plant. Two types of aromatic herbs found in the garden were the rosemary plants, the flower of remembrance, and the lavender, the plant which everyone in the days gone by used for sachet.

One found contained in practically every flower bed in the garden some type of seasoning herb. There was the sage, whose common use is that of seasoning turkey and chicken dressings; the spey mint plants, which one naturally associates with lamb; the coriander and anise, two prim little annual seeds that are used for garnishing and sweet meats; and the curled chervil, a dainty plant resembling the parsley, which is one of the finest herbs that may be used for garnishing. The marigold and castron are only two of the many plants that I found which may be used for coloring purposes. (Continued on Page Six)

Light is Cheap!

You can operate this 100-watt lamp 2 hours 47 minutes for 1 cent (at average residence rates)

a penny provides over 2 1/4 hours of good room-wide KITCHEN LIGHTING

WHAT a difference good lighting makes in the average kitchen! A bright, cheerful room is so much more desirable—it speeds work along so much faster and makes the surroundings so much pleasanter—that it is a wonder any woman will consent to be without it. Very few of them would be, if they realized how little it costs!

A 100-watt lamp in the ceiling fixture, for example, will provide good room-wide kitchen lighting—and you need not worry about leaving it on: The cost for two-and-a-half hours is less than a penny. A 60-watt lamp over the range is a great help, too—and one over the sink. Both of them together cost less than a penny for two hours' operation. A bright, attractive kitchen is NOT a luxury—you can enjoy it for the price of a postage stamp! Why put up any longer with a drab, dreary room? Remember that LIGHT is one of the cheapest things you buy: use it for a cheerier, more inviting kitchen.

NAVAL CUSTOMS

The ceremony of launching a ship or vessel originated back in the early times. It was then done, and so continued for many years, as a propitiation to the Gods of the Elements. As was the case with all offerings to the various Gods, the medium used in the ceremony were many and varied.

In Tahiti it was once the custom to shed human blood at launching ceremonies, while other and more war-like people would bind slaves to the ways so that they would be crushed as the ship slid into the water.

The launching ceremonies up until the nineteenth century have always been in the hands of the high religious officials. In fact the religious element has been a major part that religious shrines were placed aboard all ships a few centuries ago. In China the custom still survives to this day.

Later, wine was universally used in launching ceremonies, a bottle being broken over the bow, although water was used to some extent as a token of purification.

History tells us that two futile attempts were made to launch the Constitution with water, and not until a bottle of wine was broken over her bow did she slip into the sea to com-

O'Brien-Piper Bill Is Passed by Legislature of State of New York

Passage by the New York State Legislature, last week, of the O'Brien-Piper bill, which prohibits charges to agents for policies that lapse by surrender or non-payment after having been in force for three years or more, was announced today by the United Office and Professional Workers of America, CIO, sponsors of the measure.

Describing this as a major victory for the Union, officials said that passage of the bill means a saving of thousands of dollars annually to agents in New York State and increased protection of policyholders who would no longer be high-pressed into maintaining insurance they could ill-afford to carry.

At the same time, the Michigan section of the union announced its determination to fight for the enactment of a similar bill in this state.

The Michigan section of the union has been participating in a nationwide drive to enroll 120,000 industrial agents and claims to be making steady progress in Detroit and surrounding cities. There are approximately 4,000 industrial insurance agents throughout the State.

Officials said that the men were demanding relief from exorbitant lapse and surrender charges, increased collection salaries, elimination of high-pressure in the offices, job security, seniority rights and other benefits. The Union has filed a petition with the National Labor Relations Board in Washington, D. C. for certification as sole national collective bargaining agent for 9,500 agency employees of the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance company, one of the three major industrial insurance companies in the United States. Hearings before the New York State Labor Relations Board on the union's petition for certification as sole collective bargaining agent for 2,400 agency employees of Metropolitan Life Insurance company in New York City have recently been concluded and a decision by the Board is expected in a few weeks.

Funds Required to Battle the White Plague in Michigan

Unquestionably, eradication of tuberculosis is the most vital public health problem facing Michigan today, Dr. Philip Forsbeck, new director of the Bureau of Epidemiology under the Michigan Department of Health, declared this week in discussing the program for controlling communicable diseases. Lack of adequate funds was emphasized as being the greatest single obstacle in the way of reducing the White Plague to a rare disease.

Though a case of typhoid or scarlet fever can be found and isolated before the disease is spread to any great extent, a different problem is met in searching for the tuberculosis individual, it was pointed out. Symptoms of tuberculosis were stressed as being almost unnoticeable in the early stages.

"Quietly attacking the delicate lung tissue, the disease can exist for a long period of time before the infected person feels ill enough to seek medical advice," Dr. Forsbeck said. "It is during this period that millions of death-dealing tubercle bacilli are showered into the air to enter the bodies of unsuspecting people. In great need of money to find these tuberculosis spreaders and their contacts are public health workers of today."

Comparison was made of the tuberculosis situation to a huge bank where dividends far exceed the original deposit.

"Instead of a small percentage of interest accrued from our dollar in the modern bank," said Dr. Forsbeck, "double and triple returns are received from the dollar invested in preventing tuberculosis, as is so well demonstrated by the Michigan Tuberculosis Association. Proved again and again is the fact that money spent to prevent the White Plague makes an astonishing reduction in the cost of controlling actual cases. Why, then, do not more of us try this new kind of deposit on future protection from tuberculosis?"

Christian Science Church

"Unreality" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, April 3.

The Golden Text, (1 John 2:17), is: "And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof; but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever."

Among the Bible citations in this passage (Ps. 107:21): "Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!"

Correlatives passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 115): "God is natural good, and is represented only by the idea of goodness; while evil should be regarded as unnatural, because it is opposed to the nature of Spirit, God."

The last of this year's mid-week Lenten services will be held next Wednesday, April 6, at 7:45 p. m. The sermon will speak of "The Suffering Savior—Forsaken by God."

On the coming Sunday, April 3, the public examination of the children's confirmation class will be held in the service at 11:15 a. m. The questioning is to show the congregation that the children have been duly instructed in the doctrines of the Church and that they are eligible to partake of the Lord's Supper. Their confirmation will occur on Palm Sunday, April 10.

The Sunday School will be in session next Sunday from 10 to 11 o'clock.

Lost Titles Total Thousands Annually

In the rush to serve the public just before the March 1 deadline for the purchase of 1938 automobile license-plates, Department of State officials became impressed with the apparently carelessness with which thousands of motorists handle their car titles.

Annually great numbers of people are delayed in buying plates until they can locate their titles. This year an unusually large number of persons applied for duplicate titles, being totally unable to locate the original ones. In the last 15 days of February more than 5,000 duplicate titles were issued by the Department of State.

Motor vehicle owners are deprived from exercising ordinary legal rights in connection with their cars, if they lack titles. They must not sell them, trade them in, or even give them away, without titles to prove their ownership.

Complications sometimes follow in the wake of applications for duplicate titles. A comparison of signatures on the two applications may reveal a discrepancy which cannot be ignored; three applications in February disclosed that, innocently on not, persons had acquired stolen cars. Police were notified, and asked to investigate.

Duplicate titles cost $1.00, as do original titles. Every application for a duplicate must be accompanied by a statement as to what happened to the original. Most people merely write tersely but significantly: "It was lost."

Gasoline Tax Deductible from Income Tax Return

When making Federal income tax returns, Michigan motorists may deduct money paid out during 1937 as a result of the State's gasoline tax rate of 3 per cent per gallon, Wm. A. Bruch, president of the Automobile Club of Michigan, declared today.

Reporting on income tax deductions allowed motorists by reason of car operation, he said:

"Every penny paid to the state in the form of registration may be deducted by Michigan motorists. Also, they may deduct amounts paid out in state gasoline taxes when traveling through most of the other states as the Bureau of Internal Revenue now allows full deductions for all but ten states, namely, Alabama, California, Georgia, Mississippi, Nebraska, South Carolina, Tennessee, Utah, Wyoming and Ohio where 3 cents of the 4-cent tax is deductible.

However, it is important to remember that amounts paid out in Federal gasoline and other excise taxes are strictly not deductible.

Tuberculosis Is on the Increase

Again the trend of Michigan deaths from tuberculosis has swung slightly upwards, with a rate of 41.7 per 100,000 rate of 41.3, Dr. Bruce Douglas, president of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association, declared in a discussion this week of tuberculosis mortality in Michigan. Confirming the general consensus of opinion that last year the White Plague gained another foothold was the 41.7 figure, issued officially by the Michigan Department of Health.

"Why the present hold of tuberculosis seems to resist all efforts to break it is difficult to explain," Dr. Douglas said. "To drive downwards the needless toll of tuberculosis each year is the aim of many organizations in Michigan. Now operating are enough well equipped tuberculosis hospitals private and state-owned, to give Michigan's tuberculosis modern, individual treatment. Country anti-tuberculosis associations and health units work constantly to improve the tuberculosis situation in their respective areas. And now in its second year of existence is the Division of Tuberculosis under the Michigan Department of Health."

Oldest of all tuberculosis-fighting agencies in this state, however, is the Michigan Tuberculosis Association. "With thirty years of experienced campaigning against the disease, the Michigan Tuberculosis Association's sole purpose is to prevent and control the spread of tuberculosis in Michigan. To every part of the state extend its Christmas seal financed activities. Health education and early case-finding are the Association's two defense weapons against tuberculosis, and are made possible by Michigan people, themselves, through tuberculosis Christmas seals. With their continued cooperation, the Association is bending all efforts towards lowering the present high rate of tuberculosis deaths.

Drive Safely

Many motorists fail to realize the danger of night driving with only one headlight burning, although their experience in meeting cars at night having only one headlamp lighted should make them conscious of it. When meeting a car with one glaring headlight it is impossible to know the position of the car. Fear of being struck often forces careful drivers approaching such a car to drive off onto the shoulder of the road, possibly striking a post, culvert or bridge abutment, or other object on the roadside.

Neglecting to spend five minutes of your time and about 25 cents to correct this condition has these effects:

The danger of being involved in a collision is greatly increased, with the possibility you and others may be injured or killed.

You are likely to be stopped by a police officer and given a ticket, settlement amounting to several times the cost of replacing one light bulb.

The next time you discover one of your lights out, drive into the nearest garage or gasoline station and have it replaced. By so doing you will have contributed measurably to your safety and that of others on the highway.

ARRIVE SAFELY!

Business Recession a Boon to Education

Figures released recently by the Rev. Norbert J. Preusser, S. J., treasurer of the University of Detroit, show the school has not in any way been affected by the recent business recession. The number of students paying tuition by the note plan, or monthly installments, rather than in a lump sum is far less this year than it has been at any time during the past eight years.

Prof. Paul P. Harbrecht, head of the Student Counsel Bureau at the University, announced that the school's enrollment for 1938 is 28 per cent higher than for the same time last year. "Unless it is a case of being dead broke," said Prof. Harbrecht, "a large percentage of young men return to school when they find themselves out of work for any period of time. I guess that's the reason for an increase in enrollment despite the fact that we are in the midst of a business recession."

Stability

THE temptation to feel, with Hamlet, that "the time is out of joint" is common to many of earth's inhabitants today. And unquestionably, sometimes with less provocation, sometimes with more, such has often been the opinion in the past. Men normally desire safety, stability, security, and have looked for them in human governments, persons, investments, position, professions, and achievements of all kinds.

But have they found these things? No! Not in any material plans or possessions, however humanly wise or good, have permanent safety and security been found. Certainly not in what we call our times have these been experienced. And that makes all the more interesting a statement which has stood in Isaiah for more than two thousand years: "Wisdom and knowledge shall be the stability of thy times," he said. Not gold, not armaments, not organizations and unified materiality, but "wisdom and knowledge" alone bring stability!

True knowledge, really helpful knowledge, consists in understanding spiritual and eternal facts. If all men everywhere would consciously reflect the wisdom of divine Mind, the intelligence and integrity, the far-seeing judgment and complete kindness of that Mind, there would be no more confusion and distress, no more hate and fear, no more warfare and insecurity. But all men are not consciously doing this, nor do the majority seem yet ready to do so. Therefore, those of us who are in a measure spiritually ready, must do our part particularly well, that we may lead the world to see that it is not primarily our times but our thinking that is wrong.

He who dwells on high, who habitually keeps thought above the sordid and material, the dishonest and the low, dwells in the divinely mental atmosphere above the fears and disturbances of so-called mortal mind. He who understands even partially that God is omnipotent, the one and only real power, and that God is knowable and available, has in this understanding a sure defence, a rock of stability.

The fear of losing good, the belief in fluctuating good, produces a sense of insecurity, begets instability. The individual who understands that the one changeless God is the everlasting source of all true life, happiness, provision, security, and stability knows no fear.

How safe and undisturbed was Jesus in spite of the great disturbances, ignorance, and poverty which also characterized his times! Was not this because of the spiritual conviction expressed in his statement, "I and my Father are one"? His spiritual wisdom, his selfless, loving knowledge of good, gave him a sense of his own and God's eternal security as an individual idea in Mind, forever safe from harm.

Today, mankind must learn that not in matter but in Spirit is true safety; that it is hate and fear, selfishness and materiality that make for instability, and that love and wise co-operation, fearlessness, and intelligent helpfulness bring security. Learning this, they will begin to appreciate as a present possibility the heaven defined on page 587 of the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, thus: "HEAVEN. Harmony; the reign of Spirit; government by divine Principle; spirituality; bliss; the atmosphere of Soul."

Then the nations will see that true riches are mental; that valuable possessions are spiritual; that a country's real need is not geographical expansion, but an expanding mental horizon. Then they will realize that the only necessary armament is the assurance of good founded on the rock, Truth; that the only seeming enemy is evil—ignorance of God; that the only needed weapon is the law of God intelligently applied, and that spiritual wisdom, the knowledge of God constitutes the only stability of our own or any other time.—The Christian Science Monitor.

Faith Lutheran Church

East Jefferson and Phiip avenues. R. D. Luhnart, pastor.

Next Sunday's sermon theme at 10:45 a. m. the last in the series on Miracles of Calvary, will be: "The Miraculous Death of the Savior." Wednesday evening Lenten service at 8 o'clock. "The Cross, Our Only Glory." Special music.

New scholars are being added each week to the increasing Sunday school enrollment. Parents and children are asked to send to the church by next Saturday their magazines and papers for the paper drive.

A class of 67 children and a large class of adults, will be received by the rite of confirmation on Palm Sunday, also a large number by transfer and application. On Monday evening the new members to be received will meet for final preparation for reception.

Highway Repair Staff Reduced

State Highway Commissioner Murray D. Van Wagoner announced this week the lay-off of 300 employees of the state highway department effective April 1.

Approximately half the number of dismissals, the commissioner said, will be maintenance workers paid on an hourly wage basis while the rest will be salaried employees from the other divisions of the department, particularly the construction division. The reductions will approximate $473,000 on a yearly payroll basis.

The commissioner said the payroll reductions were necessary in view of the department's financial condition. He pointed to reduced revenues from the gasoline tax and uncertainty surrounding Federal funds this year.

"Gasoline tax revenue available to the department has declined $340,341 for the first two months of this year compared with the same period in 1937. If the ratio continues throughout the year, it will mean a drop in this revenue of more than $2,000,000 for the year. Due recognition is given to the recent million dollar appropriation from the general fund but this money was immediately turned into the highway sinking fund obligation.

Lobsters Are Scavengers

Lobsters eat anything they find, either fresh or stale. They are scavengers, but not to the exclusion of fresh food, which they prefer and makes up the bulk of their diet. They devour many slow-moving creatures that habitate the ocean floor, and can crack mussel shells with their powerful mandibles. The young, spidery lobsters exist mostly on plankton, minute floating organisms.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Barrows entertained 20 guests in their home on Bedford road last Saturday evening.

GIRL Scouts

CAMP RALLY

Great enthusiasm is being shown in the plans for the camp rally to be held by the Girl Scouts next Tuesday, April 5, in the gymnasium of the Lewis E. Maire school at 7:30 in the evening.

Seven Grosse Pointe troops will combine as the color guard to open the program. Miss Cutler, the director of the Detroit area, will tell the plans for the 1938 camp. Mrs. Norman Preble will review the history of the Metamora Camp, and two movies will be shown, portraying the life and various activities followed by the campers. During the evening, members of Troop 138 will sing scout songs.

Detroit is most fortunate in having this beautiful permanent camp in the hills of Metamora, and this camp rally is planned especially for the parents who are considering sending their Girl Scout daughters to the camp this summer. Any questions will be answered, and the adults will see what a happy vacation the girls have at the camp.

Mrs. Bruce Chalmers is chairman of the affair, and she is being assisted by the members of the district committee, and their sub-committees, among whom are Mrs. James J. Phelan, Jr., Mrs. Albert Dickson, Mrs. Hayward Thompson, Mrs. C. H. Moore, Mrs. Guy Wedthoff, Mrs. Norman Anderson, Mrs. Sherman Fitzsimmons, Jr., Mrs. Ray Jacobs, Mrs. Henry H. Hubbard, Mrs. John Veech, Mrs. Ford Wheldon, and Miss Frances Brossy.

TROOP 166

On last Monday afternoon, the girls who are passing second class gave a party for the tenderfeet. They played several games. The team winning the most games received a prize. After the games refreshments were served.

The tenderfeet girls are nearly finished learning the knots, flags, promise and laws. They will receive their prizes very soon. —M. S.

TROOP 140

The parents of the Girl Scouts of Troop 140 attended the last meeting, which was held on March 21. The purpose was to show how a meeting is conducted and to exhibit the new troop flag which the scouts had just received. A court of awards was held and many badges were awarded. Jean Neff, Barbara Hughes, Ann Freuhauf, Katherine Best and Shirley Sicksels received the scholarship badge. Those who received their needlewoman's badge were, Katherine Best, Mary Jane MacKenzie and Shirley Sicksels. Ruth Ogden received the second class badge and the scribe badge was awarded to Shirley Sicksels. Everyone is proud of the new flags and the troop will be well represented at the scout rally which will be held some time in April. —S. S.

TROOP 124

Saturday, March 26, was a big day for Star Troop 124. Twenty-five girls were driven to Convention Hall by Mrs. Sutton, Mrs. Nichols, Mrs. Robertson, Mrs. Romaine, and Mrs. Ross, to see Detroit's big 1938 Flower Show.

It was wonderful. The girls were especially looking for ideas which they could apply to their scout gardens this summer. Perhaps the sections which proved to be most interesting were views of wild flowers and other outdoor scenes.

About twelve o'clock each girl was accounted for at Cass avenue entrance the group started on another anticipated trip to historical Botsford Tavern. This tavern is located at Eight Mile road and Grand River and is about one hundred years old.

One hundred years ago, the "16-Mile House" was an outpost of civilization, in the wilderness—a foretaste of the comfort and the amenities of life that the future would bring forth. Its principal patrons were farmers and drovers, and the tavern was an official stopping place for the stage coach line. In 1860 the Botsford's began their sixty-four years managing the Botsford Tavern. In 1924 the present regime came and the tavern was completely restored in the spirit of its earliest days.

Lunch was served to the girls in the beautiful old dining hall, which consisted of a variety of dainty sandwiches, cocoa, and cookies.

This is the first of many trips planned by the troop this spring. They wish to thank the troop committee for securing transportation and also helping to pay expenses. —E. J. R.

There will be an exhibit table at the rally displaying various activities of the scouts. Any troops having a contribution for this table are asked to call Mrs. Breece Chalmers before Saturday, April 2.

Be sure to see "Girl Scouting Begins at Seven," at the Punch and Judy Theatre this week, and then, come to the rally Tuesday night.

Heads Up Hunters and Fishermen

A meeting was held at 11640 East Jefferson avenue, March 21, to organize the Hunting and Fishing Club of Hudson Local No. 154, U. A. W. The following officers were elected: President, George Moore; Vice President, Fred Anderson; Treasurer, Frank Sipple; Trustees, Charles Quinn and Jack Cuthbertson; Recording Secretary, Eva Laramie; and a board of directors of ten members.

The purpose of this club is to promote good sportsmanship and the observance of the rules of courtesy and safety while enjoying the collective and co-operative benefits of the club.

An effort is now being made to contact members of the U. A. W. who may have land suitable for hunting, fishing, trap shooting, or other outdoor sports. Many properties, while useless for farming, might be ideal for club purposes and might be bought or leased.

By pooling funds and effort, favorable rates can be obtained from boat livery, trailer, tent and camp rentals, transportation and prices on fishing tackle and hunting equipment.

Next meeting of the Hunting and Fishing Club will be held April 4, 1938, 7 p. m., at 11640 East Jefferson avenue.

Pere Marquette to Be Repaired

The Manitowoc Shipbuilding Co. of Manitowoc, Wisc., submitted the low bid this week (Tuesday, March 15) of $123,540 for the remodeling work on the Pere Marquette No. 20, latest addition to the fleet of state-owned boats operating at the Straits of Mackinac.

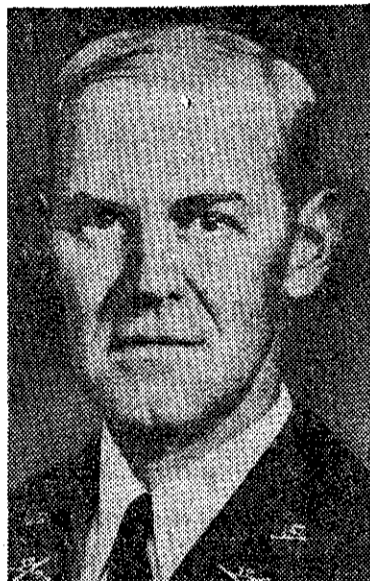

Only one other company submitted a bid. The Great Lakes Engineering Works, of River Rouge, had a bid of $172,800. Five Michigan companies and the Manitowoc concern had been invited to bid.

State Highway Commissioner Murray D. Van Wagoner said that the boat will be in service at the Straits of Mackinac by the July Fourth holiday season and possibly earlier.

The Pere Marquette 20 was purchased by the state for $60,000 from the Pere Marquette Railroad Company. It formerly operated as a railroad ferry on Lake Michigan. It is the fifth state-owned and largest boat in the ferry fleet. The fleet also includes a leased steamer.

Tornado Plays Freak Tricks

Property damage estimated at a million dollars and the loss of nine lives were the toll of a tornado that swept through Belleville, Ill., recently. This picture shows an automobile owner looking at his wrecked car. Note the piece of wood that went all the way through the tire.

An aged, grey stone, mossy wishing well over which English ivy grew, attracted all to this ancient garden. This well aroused the sentiment of the public visiting the show so much that coins thrown into this well that the Edelweiss Gardens Nursery placed a sign above the well announcing the fact that "Your Pennies Will Make Some Crippled Child Happy."

A true dittany plant of ancient Greece was on display in a little, quaint, thatched roof just across from the garden, so typical of the Elizabethan days. This plant is the only one of its kind in Michigan. The reason for its scarcity is due to the fact that it requires such special care and will only grow in a temperature of 40 degrees.

Guibe Kuiper was the recipient of much praise last week, for he alone was responsible for the design of this unusual and interesting garden, which was so common in the times of Queen Elizabeth, but which is practically extinct at the present time.

On Wings of a Hurricane Alexander Hamilton rode the pathway to fame on the wings of a hurricane. A clerk in a counting house in the Virgin islands in 1772, Hamilton wrote a detailed, vivid description of a hurricane which swept over the islands. Sent to friends in the American colonies, it was hailed with delight. The friends raised his passage money on the strength of his writing ability and Hamilton was brought to the colonies where he completed his education and went on to become one of the foremost statesmen of his time.

Fulton Had Fertile Mind

Robert Fulton, whose sailing of the Clermont up the Hudson in 1793 revolutionized navigation, had a fertile mind which made him not only a great inventor but a writer and painter as well. His claim to primacy in steamboat progress has been questioned, but it was Fulton's boat which proved practicable. Fulton spent the first seventeen years of his life at his birthplace, earning some attention from his schoolmaster at an early age by fashioning his own lead pencils. He moved to Philadelphia in 1782 and took up his residence as a painter of miniatures and portraits. He also drew plans for machinery and designed carriages.

People for Hire

The two hiring fairs at Aberystwyth are preceded in the mountain villages by a festival known as the Parting of the Ways, says London Tit-Bits Magazine. This terminates the yearly contracts between farmers and their hired hands, and young men and boys dress as girls and girls as men. Faces are blackened and there is much merrymaking and feasting. Later, at the hiring fairs which are held beneath the Aberystwyth town clock, new contracts are entered into. Wages are not always based on current coin of the realm, but on factors such as porklings, swedes, and potatoes—an old custom which has survived for centuries.

Nicotine Nicotine is thought of as a poison, and that is true, if it be used to excess; but it is not taken into consideration that the smoker is not put directly in contact with the nicotine which the tobacco contains, but only with the smoke that comes from it, which radically changes the problem of studying the hygiene of smokers.
