for Past Year

An itemized report of the annual expenditures of the Grosse Pointe School Board for the period just ended appears on page two and subsequent pages of this issue of the Grosse Pointe Review.

Activities continued at a rapid pace luring the past week for James N. Mc-Nally, candidate for Congress on the Republican ticket in the 14th District. Last Sunday at the Knights of Columbus picnic he received hearty applause on his criticism of the New Deal and their spending of the taxpayers' money.

The financial report of the board is also included for your perusal, so that you might know how your school tax dollar is being utilized.

By THE DUBBER

For the third time in as many months the employees of the Township of Grosse Pointe got together for a friendly game of golf and entertainment. Again the 'Dubbers" were out to show the "Pros" up. Chief Tom Trombly, of the City of Grosse Pointe, showed the boys some snappy golf by turning in a card of 79 (after taking a 33 handicap).

Chief Ledyard Chauvin, who was having trouble staying out of traps and bunkers, gave several of the boys red faces, including the writer, when Chief Pointe, has resigned to accept a position overshot the ninth green at least 60 feet. Several of us started to give him the "old rub." Chief nonchalantly. pulled his trusty No. 7 iron and sank the chip shot. How was we to know that Chief has been taking lessons? Jim Casey did not sell his clubs as thought. Jim played with one hand. Some of us Dubbers wonder why he ever used two.

Clarence Gamber, that likeable Pro at Beverly Hills, and Jim Beaupre. Farms Dock employee, played a special nine-hole match. Jim rimmed the cup on the ninth green to miss a 10-foot putt and lost the match one up.

All players and their friends turned out in the evening for dancing and to help the players celebrate their victories.

First prize was taken by Al Crooks, Farms patrolman; second by "Duck" Reaume, Grosse Pointe City fireman, and third by Ray Snay. Farms fireman. Twenty other prizes were won by the lucky boys.

Mrs. Blanch Casey and Mrs. Wm. Coriaden won the prizes on the drawings for the ladies.
