Costs of War
No sensible man wants war. The pacifist usually imagines that the man who wears the uniform is usually out for blood and that he is never happier than when he hears the big guns roar.

Those who are in the service know this to be wrong. Men who know war despite it. This is the reason they believe in preparing against the evil day.

Garden Center to Open Season on September 15

The Detroit Garden Center will open their 1938-1939 season on Thursday, September 15 at 2:30 o'clock with a timely talk on usual and unusual bulbs to order for an attractive spring garden next year.

This lecture will be at the Garden Center in the Alger Museum and the beautiful green garden, designed by Mrs. Ellen Shipman, one of the most noted of the landscape architects of America, is now well enough started to be of great interest to all since the roses planted against the wall, beside the garden are now enjoying their fall season of bloom.

If you happen to be passing the Rabaut home at 1015 Three Mile drive and hear sounds emanating that would remind you of radio harmony, dispel the thought from your mind for the cause may be the practice hour of the Rabaut Sweet Harmony Five. Many have been the rehearsals recently in preparation for the windup week of their father's campaign for re-election as Representative in Congress for the Fourteenth Congressional District.

You may be sure that there is a tinge of politics in the song that engages these young voices. It's the Congressman's own composition, "Look Out For the Kick of the Democratic Rule." The Rabaut home has always been famous for child life and song. In addition to the five sisters there is Francis Dermott, S. J. who returned home last week for the second time in eight years. He is studying for the Priesthood at West Baden College, West Baden Springs, Indiana. A daughter, Marie Celeste, has entered the Convent of the Sister Servants of the Immaculate Heart of Mary at Monroe. The others two sons at home are Louis III and Vincent C., both attending the University of Detroit.

Parent Teachers Assn. Endorses Junior High School 100 Per Cent

One hundred per cent endorsement of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education's proposal to accept a government grant of $395,100 and to raise by bond issue $350,000 for the badly-needed Junior High School and Public Library building in the Village of Grosse Pointe Park has been given by officers and leaders of the Parent-Teacher associations of the district.

and other organizations in the western part of the district will be allowed as much use as possible of the public auditorium.

Although the locality contributes 55 per cent of the cost of the building to supplement the government's grant of $395,000, only part of the 55 per cent has to be raised by taxation. This is because from excess collection of delinquent taxes and through operating economies, the Board of Education has accumulated a building fund of $132,000.

will, therefore, reduce the total expense proportionately.

The total amount of interest paid will also be decreased by having the bonds run for five years only, as compared with the high school bonds, which run very much longer.

The building will be entirely paid for at the end of five years under the Board's plan.

Messages recording the endorsement of many prominent real estate dealers in Grosse Pointe were reported at the meeting.

None of the government grant has to be paid as it is an outright grant and no interest has to be paid on it.

If the people approve the acceptance of the grant and bond issue, the Board hopes to open the building for use a year from this fall.

Many other points were brought out by the questions of parents, and meetings of other Parent-Teacher associations are to be arranged so that all points can be fully explained.

Tim Bradley, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. X. Bradley, of Ridge road, is driving back to the University of Notre Dame this coming Tuesday morning to begin his senior studies in engineering.

Meeting with other officers of the associations and with J. Randolph Kennedy, president of the council of parent-teacher groups of Grosse Pointe, the parent representatives analyzed all phases of the proposal thoroughly and pledged individual and collective support.

Charles A. Parcels, president of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, and Dr. E. R. Van Kleeck, superintendent of schools, explained fully facts about the plan for the greatly-needed building at a recent meeting of the parent officers. Ralph M. Clark, secretary of the School Board, and Charles A. Poupard, its treasurer, also attended the meeting and answered questions raised by the parents.

Parents of many children who live outside of the zones for which the Board supplies free bus transportation will be relieved of this expense because of the location of the new building near the center of a well-populated section of the school district.

A boys' gymnasium and a girls' gymnasium will be included in the building and will be available for evening use under the existing regulations for all school property.

Among facts brought out in the two-hour discussion were the following:

Forty-five per cent of the cost of the erection and equipping of the building and of the site at Somerset and Kercheval avenues will be met by an outright grant of $395,100 from the Federal Government under the P. W. A., provided voters approve the bond issue of $350,000 at the special election Tuesday, September 27th.

As an economy measure, one of the gymnasiums will also serve as the cafeteria for the school. Tables and benches which fold into the wall as in the Mair school will be installed.

Only persons especially registered for school elections may vote on the proposals September 27th. Those who are not sure whether they are registered can obtain information by phoning Mr. Edmund West at Niagara 2000.

Registrations can be made daily and on Saturday mornings at any of the public school buildings and at the Board of Education office at 389 St. Clair avenue. On Saturday of this week and on Saturday, September 17th, registrations can also be made from 3:00 p. m. to 8:00 p. m.

The present P. W. A. program reaches its deadline October 1 and the grant has to be accepted by then if it is to be obtained. The Board of Education has accepted the gift tentatively, subject to approval of the voters September 27th.

The proposed building will serve all seventh, eighth and ninth grade pupils living west of Neff road. It will also greatly relieve overcrowding in the senior high school for senior high school pupils living east of Neff road.

Registrations will close Saturday, September 17th.

To vote at the election, one must be a citizen of the United States, aged 21 years or more, a resident of Michigan for at least six months and of the Grosse Pointe school district at least 90 days.

Besides this, each voter must either be a parent or legal guardian of a child of school age included in the school census or own property that is assessed for school taxes in said school district.

The building will make possible the abandonment of the three present junior high school annexes in the Cadieux, Defer and Trombly schools. This will make greater the number of rooms for the elementary departments in the Defer and Trombly schools.

Elementary school children, regardless of where they live in the district, will benefit when they become seventh graders by being relieved from the unsatisfactory annex arrangement which forces many of them to attend two different schools each day.

An auditorium seating from 950 to 1,000 persons will be included in the proposed building and will be the largest public auditorium in either the Village of Grosse Pointe Park or the City of Grosse Pointe and the other three villages, which, with part of Gratiot Township, make up the school district.

A large public library branch for residents of the school district will be in one of the two front wings of the proposed building and the present branch library housed in the basement of the Park Municipal Building will be moved to the new location.

The building will front on Kercheval avenue just opposite the Defer school, permitting the Park police to handle the traffic protection for both schools simultaneously. James Drysdale, chief of police of Grosse Pointe Park, has already offered his co-operation to the school authorities in this matter.

The financial credit of the school district is so excellent that the Board hopes to obtain a very low interest rate on the school bonds. The cost of one mill a year for five years is based, however, on an interest rate much higher than that which the Board expects to have to pay and any reduction overcrowded, and no means of ventilation and no method of preserving fresh food. The voyages lasted 3 to 4 months. Scurvy was common and epidemics of small pox and scarlet fever were frequent. Piracy flourished on the high seas during this period and mutinies were not uncommon. Navigation was uncertain; the charts were unreliable and there were no lighthouses in America; sextants were inaccurate and vessels had no method of determining longitude. The Mayflower sailed for Virginia but landed at Cape Cod; and many colonists successfully braved the hardships of the long voyage only to be shipwrecked on the shore of their new country. However the dangers of the forest and the abundant supply of fish off the coast soon attracted many settlers to a life at sea. Poor roads and hostile Indians made travel by land difficult or impossible and consequently transportation of freight and most travel was made by water. The sea was more important to the early colony than the railroad is to the modern village. In New England there were ample water power for saw mills and lumber could be obtained from the forests at almost no cost. Consequently ship building soon flourished and a large portion of the population earned their living by building ships or by sailing them. With the development of colonial manufacturing freight was no longer transported merely from one colony to another but to all parts of Europe; and as the whales were driven off shore, the New Englanders pursued them farther and farther to sea until colonial ships were operating from the Arctic to the Antarctic. On the eve of the Revolution, the colonies were building about 150 vessels a year.

The Pointe Pantry

By MARY KATHLEEN EBNER Let us treat the family to a real thrill and go native in food fashions this week. A Chinese supper could be the theme—one that is deliciously tasty, yet unbelievably easy to prepare. We could start off with a "bang" by serving the age-old Chow Mein and Chinese Noodles. Then follow through with a novel chopstick salad and hard rolls. Pineapple-Ching-Ching, accompanied by black tea will be a sure hit with everyone. So the menu is: Chow Mein Chinese Noodles Chopstick Salad Hard Rolls Butter Pineapple-Ching-Ching Black Tea

An excellent recipe for Chow Mein is as follows: 2 cups shredded cooked chicken or 1 lb. chopped veal or pork (cooked) 1 cup shredded green peppers 2 cups shredded celery and leaves 1 1/2 cups chicken broth when using chicken, otherwise use 2 1/2 cups water 4 tablespoons soy sauce 3 tablespoon butter 1 cup shredded onions 2 cups canned bean sprouts 1 cup toasted almonds 1 tablespoon cornstarch Melt the butter in skillet. Put the green pepper and the onion in the butter. Cook a few minutes, but do not brown. Add the meat and cook five minutes. Add celery, bean sprouts and broth, reserving enough broth to make a paste with the cornstarch. Add the paste and cook gently for 10 minutes, stirring well and carefully. Stir in almonds and soy sauce. Add mushrooms if desired. Serve with warm Chinese Noodles. Chopstick salad is new in dinner and supper accompaniments. Prepare by using: 1 small can of pears, diced 1 small can of peaches, diced 1 jar maraschino cherries Slender celery stalks Combine diced pears and peaches and arrange small mound on crisp lettuce leaves. Lay one thin 4-inch stalk of celery on each side of fruit mound. Top mound with dab of mayonnaise and maraschino cherry. Pineapple-Ching-Ching is made by combining 2 cups diced pineapple 2 cups cold cooked rice 1 cup coffee cream, whipped Whip cream, combine rice and pineapple, and fold in whipped cream. Chill and serve.

C. S. Houston Candidate for State Representative (Continued from Page One)

employees in each of their establishments. In addition to this he represents 476 outstate small business men. His experience and success with fair trade practices and labor organizations have been so outstanding that he enjoys a national reputation in the industry with which he is connected. The employees in these firms have been so fairly treated that they have unanimously expressed the desire to support his candidacy even though a great number of them are sympathetic to the Democratic platform.

Mr. Houston is 40 years old, married and has one son. He has a sister who has been a missionary in China for the past 20 years. He is not a politician but he is seeking this office because he is definitely opposed to the outrageous and unnecessary tax burden that is imposed upon the workers and business man alike. Every new tax upon business drives industry out of Michigan, thus causing many workers to lose their homes due to lack of employment and the voters of Detroit are most fortunate in finding a man of Mr. Houston's ability willing to accept this office due to the fact that the salary is only $3,000 a day and unless the voters can secure business men to accept this office, they can only expect to have grafters, because no one can live in Lansing on a salary of $3,000 a day and at the same time fairly and honestly fulfill the duties of their office.

Christian Science

"Substance" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, September 11.

The Golden Text, (Matt. 5:6), is "Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled."

Among the Bible citations is this passage (Hebr. 11:1, 3) "Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 300): "The universe reflects and expresses the divine substance or Mind; therefore God is seen only in the spiritual universe and spiritual man, as the sun is seen in the ray of light which goes out from it."

McNally Kept Busy Explaining Platform

(Continued from Page One) Enthusiastic comments he had received from laboring men, unions and employers alike. He reaffirmed his stand that he would only vote as he thought proper and without regard to any personal advantages he might obtain otherwise. He criticized the New Dealers and their wild, unstable plans and showed how a solid foundation and security for all the people of the United States could be established by proper action of their Representatives and Senators.

He is married, residing at 1314 Nottingham in Grosse Pointe Park, and is the father of four sons. He has been a member of the Naval Reserve at Detroit for the past 17 years and at the present time holds the rank of Chief Quartermaster. In 1935 he was elected a Justice of the Peace of Grosse Pointe Township and has held this office ever since. He is engaged at the present time and has been for the past fourteen years in the practice of law.
