

"Goodfellows" Preparing for Paper Sale

Grosse Exaggerations?

By A. PRYOR
Impressions of our quick trip to New York last week: We are going to take a stage-coach, but someone suggested our taking the Detroit and we're glad we did. It was very comfortable with its efficient service and air-conditioned cars. We decided that Science must have invented air-conditioning for Pullman cars, because they couldn't figure out how to get the windows open. From outlying spots, you could tell that the snow would be up to your chin in N. Y. If it weren't for the City's speedy clean-up service.

The extent of our night-life was seeing Cole Porter's show, "Leave It To Me," which is great. Be sure to get Eddie Duchin's recording of "Get Out Of Town," from the Porter show. We went to the Iridium room at the St. Regis Hotel and thought it the most attractive room of its kind in New York. We are surprised at the waltz craze. Every other dance that the orchestra played was a waltz, and we remember when—"Do you think the old-fashioned waltz is coming back?"—was supposed to be a funny crack. The Lambeth Walk is still tops however, and gets everybody on the dance floor. We saw one of the Van Asterbults, and noticed that her earrings were definitely lop-sided. Thinking that one of them must have crawled up when she wasn't looking, we were about to nudge her, when a kind friend nudged us. It seems that it is too teddibly sheek to wear one up here and the other down here. We wore our heels down, window shopping on Fifth Avenue. We stared at everything and everybody, just like the yokel we are. The window displays can't be topped anyplace and right now everything is very Kris-Kringle. Stopped at the famous "21" for lunch and was greatly disappointed. Everybody is jammed up against everybody else so that you HAVE to put your elbows on the table, (regardless of Smily Post), because there isn't any place else to put them. The food may be the best in the world, but with our cafeteria background, we wouldn't know.

There is a new building under construction near Rockefeller Centre and the thoughtful builders have erected a glass enclosed platform for the usual hecklers and kibitzers who like to look on. Nothing like a big hole and a crane, for drawing a crowd of sophisticates as well as hicks. We saw Sinclair Lewis and Cary Grant in the group and they were as saucer-eyed as Pa Higgins from Five Forks.

We've heard the good news that Walter Chrysler, who has been ill for so long, is now up and about again. Another N. Y. murmur is that Mrs. Hugh Dillman has finally decided to go through with her divorce suit.

At one of our Pointe houses, where the owners are so nautical that they become sea-sick on windy days, an enterprising maid arranges the window shades at half mast, when her employers are out of the City.

Stop us if you've heard this: Bob Hope, during his radio program last Tuesday night, gave an account of the big California fire. He complimented the Eagle Rock fire department on their foresight in taking two dogs along in order to find the fire hydrants.

If you have read "Rebecca," or even if you haven't, you will want to hear Orson (hughey-man) Welles and Margaret Sullivan enact it on the air this Friday night. We'll be happy if they

School Board To Begin Breaking Ground for Junior High School

Ground will be broken for Grosse Pointe's new junior high school building within a week, Board of Education members announced today. Bids on the building were opened at a special meeting of the Board of Education, Friday afternoon and all four of the bids came within the estimates set up by the architects, Derrick & Gamber. Resolutions of the Board of Education awarding the four contracts to the low bidders were forwarded immediately to the Chicago office of the Public Works Administration and as soon as the approval of the P. W. A. is obtained, the contractors will be notified of the awards and preparations for the work begun.

All four of the low bidders were Detroit firms. An unusual degree of interest was shown by contractors and the list of bidders included many of the prominent contracting firms in Detroit and its vicinity.

The low bidder on the general architectural contract was F. H. Martin Construction Company, of 955 East Jefferson avenue, with a base bid of $468,000. Fourteen other firms bid on the general contracts, the highest bid being $75,000 above the Martin company's proposal.

The low bidder on plumbing was Davis Brothers, Inc., 2631 Bagley avenue, Detroit, with an offer of $33,918. The highest bid on this contract was $6,000 above the Davis Brothers' offer. Nine plumbing concerns bid.

The M. H. Goss Company of 3536 Baldwin avenue, Detroit, with an offer of $69,190 was awarded the heating, ventilating and temperature regulation work. Nine other concerns bid, the highest bid being $83,404.

"Lucky Me" and Shirley to Help 1938 Toy Club

If you're lucky, you will have a chance to win a wonderful 52-inch model sail boat, or a 25-inch genuine Shirley Temple doll, dressed in a gorgeous party dress, for the small sum of one nickel. If you don't win either of these grand prizes, you will have donated that nickel for the grandest little cause you could think of, because it will go towards buying some toy, or a box of candy for some little underprivileged kiddie. It will go to THE TOY CLUB.

"Lucky Me" is the sail boat for which a drawing will be held. The boat is exceptionally well made, having been built from a Pouliot model boat kit by a good friend of THE TOY CLUB. The boat is on display in the window of The Grosse Pointe Review. The Shirley Temple doll has flirty eyes that move from side to side and sleep. It will be on display in various store windows between now and Christmas.

The prize drawing will be held in front of the Christmas tree at Grosse Pointe Park Municipal building at 8 o'clock the evening of Friday, December 23. It is possible that some sort of a program will be held at that time. Tickets for the drawing are 5 cents or 6 for a quarter. They are being sold at various business places. If you win, you will bring joy to yourself and your family. In any event you will help make happy some poor kiddie Christmas morning. Good luck to you—and I do mean YOU.

Republican Women's Club Held Election of Officers

The annual election of officers was held by the Republican Women's Club of Grosse Pointe, following a victory luncheon given at the Whittier last Tuesday.

Goodfellow's Euchre Club Benefit Party Friday, December 16

The Goodfellow's Euchre Club will hold its annual benefit party at the Union Homing Club, 15119 Charlevoix avenue, on Friday, December 16, at 8 p. m.

The Goodfellow's Euchre Club hold these parties annually for the purpose of helping the families of this vicinity. The entire proceeds are devoted entirely to charity. The members of this club have given from 50 to 60 baskets of groceries, fowl, fruit and vegetables to as many families in need of assistance annually.

The committee is making investigations now to see that families who might ordinarily miss out on the enjoyment of a substantial dinner for Christmas, won't be overlooked this Christmas.

This year the need for baskets will be greater than usual therefore the members of the Euchre club urge their many friends of Grosse Pointe to support them. Tickets on that twenty-pound turkey are now available at very moderate cost through club members.

Hundreds have benefited by these annual events for the past five or six years and a great deal of credit is due these Euchre enthusiasts who give a little consideration to those who are in need.

Don't forget their party on Friday, December 16th.

Jacob Van Zanen Funeral Services on Saturday Afternoon

Jacob Van Zanen, a resident of Grosse Pointe for over 25 years, died at the age of 50 of a heart attack at his home, 24 Ridgemont road, Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

He was a charter member of Alger Post V. F. W. No. 995 and was quite active in its management. Funeral services will be held Saturday at 2 p. m. from the E. S. Watko Funeral Home, 958 East Grand Blvd. The Alger Post will conduct the services.

Alger Post, V. F. W. to Honor 1st Commander

By THE MOHICAN
"Man receives but little here below." But, when his accredited time is up; when he departs for that land from which no traveler returns, endearing phrases are heaped upon his lifeless form regardless of what he may or may not have been. And the recognition and encouragement that have come too late for him are lost upon and soon forgotten by those he leaves behind.

That has ever been the usual procedure but, in the case of Bill Kane, Alger Post's first commander, the custom is to be reversed. The membership of General Russell A. and Colonel Frederick M. Alger Post and Auxiliary of Grosse Pointe, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and Bill's countless friends throughout the state, will gather in the auditorium of Grosse Pointe High school, Fisher road and Grosse Pointe Blvd., on the evening of Monday, December 12th, to recount and acknowledge his efforts while he still may hear them.

The occasion will be open to the public, without charge, to which all are cordially invited. The presentation of his citation will be followed by a vaudeville show and refreshments.

In the presence of such distinguished guests as the Alger family, Mayor Richard Reading of Detroit, the President of Grosse Pointe, National Commander Eugene Van Antwerp of the V. F. W., state and county officials of the American Legion, Disabled American veterans and officers and members of their various units in Wayne and Macomb counties, former Governor William M. Brucker will sum up what Bill has been, what he is, and the lesson his simplicity and humbleness brings home to all of us.

The former governor may review Bill's enlistment in Troop D, First Michigan Cavalry under the then Maj. Heinrich A. Pickert, Detroit's present police commissioner, in June 1917, which was later mustered into Battery E, 119th Field Artillery, thirty-second division. He may also recall Bill's being proposed for the Distinguished Service Cross for going out of his way to aid several wounded comrades during a barrage in France.

He may touch upon Bill's leaving Johnson Post to assist in the organization of Alger post; his influence in (Continued on Page 5)

Christmas Caroling

The Neighborhood Club Carolers made up of the girls from the A. O. C.'s Neighborhood Club Cadettes and the Grosse Pointe Stars will lend their voices to the Christmas spirit in the Pointe by singing Friday night, December 23rd.

We also wish the public to know that the Neighborhood Club sponsors ONLY one caroling group, which does not accept money, but who sing for the pleasure of the community and not for monetary rewards.

Here is a letter we received from an Orphanage last year:

"Dear Members of The Toy Club: The little ones under our care, all under six years of age, are unable to express their thanks for your kindness in sending them the generous donation of toys, so in their behalf, we wish to say thank you."

"I am deeply grateful and wish to express my sincere thanks for the lovely toys received. I can assure you that the children were most bewildered and it made them a very happy Christmas Day."

JOIN IN THIS SPLENDID WORK. Help make good the slogan, "Not a Kid without a Toy for Christmas." Fill out the coupon appearing on this page and mail it in NOW, with your donation.

Refreshments will be served. Your presence is requested at the Neighborhood Club on Wednesday evening at 7:30.

Support of Citizens In Benefit Drive Asked by Goodfellows

By MARY JANE STOETZEL

Are you a Goodfellow? Your response Tuesday, December 20, to the plea, "Paper Mister," uttered by members of the Grosse Pointe and the Villages of Grosse Pointe Park, Farms, Shores and Lochmoor, will tell the tale. Contribute something to this drive and let your conscience be your guide. If you are in a position to be liberal do so; yet if you find it impossible to give freely give to the best of your ability.

Each Christmas, for nine years, a small group of men have staged a six-hour street sale of the Grosse Pointe Review. In rain or snow they have annually taken their posts and sold their papers. No matter what the elements were, their high spirits have never been daunted, and so they have been able to help minimize the possibility of individuals being left destitute in this community. Yet high spirits have not been the sole cause of the success of these Goodfellow sales in the past. It was the contributions that you Pointers have so generously made, that made these sales go over the highest expectations of the members of the Lions Club. As in other years the men selling The Review will be in high spirits. For real success, therefore, it depends upon you Pointers to give once again generously of your money.

Although the majority of you Pointers need have no fear as to where your next meal will come from, there are many Pointers who do face this very fear. Most of you take the paying of rent bills, gas, light and coal bills so matter-of-factly; yet there are some, perhaps your very neighbors, who live in dread from month to month for they can find no way to pay these bills. On the whole this is a wealthy community, everybody recognizes this fact, but nevertheless there are many living in distressed conditions. It is a duty and should be considered a privilege for all those who can to take care of those less fortunate.

This year the need for help is greater than ever before and so the Grosse Pointe Lions Club begs you to be liberal. Give and rest assured that every penny contributed by you to this Fund will be used for charitable purposes for the quick relief of distress. Not a cent of this money will be used for overhead or incidental expenses to distribution, investigation, etc., for these items are absorbed by members of the Club by contributions of their effort and time.

The sole purpose of this annual Goodfellow Drive is to give immediate relief of distress, or up until the time the case can be referred to the regular channels of charitable work. The Grosse Pointe Neighborhood Club disburses the funds to aid the needy as the emergency arises. Experienced social workers of the Neighborhood Club conduct all the welfare work; while the fund is under the direct supervision of an executive committee made up of members of the Lions Club.

In advance the members of the Grosse Pointe Lions Club thank you for your help in making this drive a success, for they know that you will not let them down in this worthy undertaking.

Grosse Exaggerations?

 give us half the thrill that the book gave us.

If you want to get even with some of your 'mental-giant' friends, ask them to use "you is"—together in a sentence that makes sense. After waiting two or three years for their answer, you might give them these two; "You, is a pronoun" and "One of you is going."

We were disappointed in Fortune's article on Debutantes because we expected more details about Detroit. Denise Bredin was pictured as the outstanding Deb and the only mention of Detroit was, "In Detroit, where it is said that only fifty percent of any year's crop of debutantes are entitled by Detroit standards to a caste debut, the new motor money splurges the average party cost up to five thousand dollars, which is way above the average in New York. At least three twenty-five thousand dollar parties are scheduled in Grosse Pointe this winter."

My, my, we can hardly wait! When going over your list of charitable things to do, don't forget the Michigan Humane Society. You can become a member for one dollar a year and if you love animals, you will feel your dollar well spent. If you are interested, call the Shelter office, Trinity 23400, and a membership blank will be sent to you.

"The bravest are the tenderest, The loving are the daring. Among the noblest of the land, Though he may count himself the least, That man I honor and revere Who without favor, without fear, In the great City dares to stand The friend of every friendless beast" We're in that "plight before Xmas" frenzy—so off to the shops and then home to clean out the chimney.

U. of D. agers Open Season on Friday

A twenty-two game basketball schedule that lists opponents from all sections of the United States, was announced this week for the University of Detroit by Athletic Director Charles E. "Gus" Dorais.

Termed by Coach Lloyd Brazil as the toughest and longest cage card ever faced by a U. of D. basketball team, the 1938-39 schedule includes such outstanding foes as Santa Clara from the Pacific Coast, Manhattan from the Atlantic seaboard, Purdue and Wisconsin of the Big-Ten, Notre Dame, Western State, Butler, John Carroll and Illinois Wesleyan, not to mention many others.

The Titan cagers will go into action on December 9, when St. Mary's of Orchard Lake moves into the Naval Armory, scene of all home games, and will close the season on March 10, when John Carroll University of Cleveland plays a return engagement in Detroit. Six of the teams, most of them traditional rivals, will be met in home and encounters. An even dozen games will be played on Detroit's home court, where only Santa Clara will be a newcomer. Wisconsin, Manhattan and Illinois Wesleyan are the other new additions to the Red and White basketball card. Old rivals like Butler, Western Ontario, Toledo and Western State are included among the sixteen opponents.

Brazil's entire squad this year will be made up of sophomores and juniors, as Ernie Kolibar and Chet Laske, who graduated in June, were the only senior members of last year's team, the remainder of the squad being sophomores. Both men, who played the forward positions and were second and third in scoring, will be hard to replace. At present Jack Piana and John Palenscar, hold overs from last year seem to have the inside track on the vacant positions. However, Coach Brazil claims that he has a number of sophomores who will undoubtedly be ready to start, should either of these men fail to live up to expectations.

The 1938-39 University of Detroit basketball schedule is as follows:

December 9, Friday—St. Mary's of Orchard Lake, at Detroit.

December 14, Wednesday—Purdue University, at Lafayette, Ind.

In the month of September, 1938, the number of students using the library was 15,482, and these students checked out 2,544 books. The average attendance per day was 806 students.

Colored movies of Yellowstone National Park were shown to Grosse Pointe High School's Conservation Club at its meeting last week by Mr. Ernest R. LaFollette.

These pictures were taken by Mr. LaFollette last summer. In his brief talk preceding the showing of the movies, Mr. LaFollette said that he hadn't been able to photograph as much wild life as he would have liked to, for one must exercise much patience and spend much time on the trails in order to find the animals.

The movies contained amusing scenes of bears stopping for something to eat as well as pictures of the beautiful falls, pools, hot springs, paint pots, and geysers.

Mr. LaFollette said that there are more than 3,000 hot springs in the park. He stated that about 500 brown bears and only about 300 grizzlies still make their home in the park.

Grosse Pointe High School 8A math classes, under Mr. Lawrence Westerville have been making projects illustrating the mathematical formulas used in determining some of the costs of constructing a home.

Bernard Besso, 8A, and Jack Humphreys, 8A, two of the students, constructed according to scale a balsam wood house which will be on exhibition at the 8A Open House. From this the students figured out the kind and cost of lumber needed, gallons and cost of paint needed, and the yards of carpets needed for the house.

"The projects stimulated considerable interest," pointed out Mr. Westerville.

Twenty-three Grosse Pointe students received all A report cards for the first half semester. They are: Eric Gottschalk and Winifred Bucklin, 12A's; Betty Baer, Helen Barnes, George Whyte, Albert Grunewald, 12B's; Carson Grunewald, Pearce Chambers, Marilyn Bell, 11B's; Margaret Morgan, Barbara Ferry, 10A's; June Harris, Betty Harris, 10B's; Jean Neff, Nancy Williams, Anne Eldridge, 9A's; Marion Bishop, Helen Briggs, Mary Palmer, Fred Gallagher, Nancy Sturman, 9B's; Frances Snodgrass, Trombley Annex, 8B; and Erallee Brutschi, Cadieux Annex, 7A.

Fred Gallagher, Nancy Sturman, Carson Grunewald and Albert Grunewald, are all new to Grosse Pointe High School this semester.

The works and accomplishments of the Detroit Community Fund were described to teachers of all the Grosse Pointe public schools recently at a meeting held in the high school auditorium. F. Lee Johnston was the speaker. Teachers in all the buildings and members of the staff at the Board of Education office are co-operating again this year in the campaign. Mr. Johnston also showed the teachers a film slide describing activities carried on with monies contributed to the Community Fund.

Superintendent E. R. Van Kleek, who presided at the meeting, introduced Mr. Johnston and discussed school topics with the teachers and principals. A series of meetings of the teachers of different grades in the elementary schools is being arranged under the general chairmanship of John R. Barnes, director of instruction. At these meetings teachers will discuss their common problems and exchange information on best procedures for covering the work of the different grades. The first of the meetings is to be for kindergarten and first grade teachers of the system and will be held at the Richard School following the close of school session on Tuesday, November 29. Teachers will also discuss the findings of the annual fall testing program in the elementary schools.

Bids on the new junior high school will be opened by the Board of Education at a special meeting on Friday, December 2, the date previously arranged having been changed by the Public Works Administration. The P. W. A. also postponed the date for the beginning of excavation to December 12. Both steps were taken in order to give bidders further time to prepare their estimates on the large building, according to P. W. A. officials.

"A recent library report shows the startling fact that only 50 per cent of the people in the United States have sufficient reading ability to use available materials," Mrs. Bernice Stoltenberg, high school librarian, pointed out last week, concerning the general problem of inducing people to read a problem high-lighted by the current observance of Book Week.

"This deficiency," Mrs. Stoltenberg declared, "is undoubtedly the result of either improper training in reading or of failure to make an effort to learn to read rapidly."

If a student would eliminate himself from this group, Mrs. Stoltenberg recommends the following formula:

- 1. Force yourself to read rapidly. 2. Make your eyes move rhythmically from the end of one line to the beginning of the next. 3. See groups of words, or phrases instead of single words. 4. Check your reading speed frequently. This can be done by reading a selection of average difficulty for a definite period of time, counting the words read, and dividing that number by the minutes in the reading period. "Your average should be somewhere between 250 and 300 words per minute," Mrs. Stoltenberg continued. "Should your first score be low, don't be discouraged. Joseph Conrad never read a page of English until he was 20 years old."

Uniforms for Grosse Pointe High school's new band will be provided by the Student Association, Paul A. Rehms, principal, announced recently.

Outfits for the 65 members and their director, Dewey D. Kalember, have been ordered. The uniforms are good quality navy blue wool suits with gold braid trimmings. The band will make its first appearance in the new uniforms in a concert to be given at the high school on December 14.

In recognition of the fine school spirit demonstrated by the Student Affairs Committee in appropriating funds for the purchase of band uniforms, Mr. Ralph M. Clark, secretary of the Board of Education, last week expressed the Board's appreciation in a letter to the chairman. Mr. Clark wrote:

"At the meeting of the Board of Education on November 7, the superintendent of schools reported to us the very generous act of the Student Affairs Committee in appropriating funds for the purchase of 65 band uniforms. The Board of Education is deeply appreciative of this indication of the school spirit of our students and realizes the extent and value of your most liberal appropriation. The Board wishes to record in this manner its thanks and gratitude and we hope the expression here given to our sentiments will be conveyed to the students generally by you at some appropriate time."

A letter was also received last week by the president of the Student Association from Mr. Dewey D. Kalember, director of the band, and Mr. William J. Watkins, supervisor of music, expressing their appreciation also.

"On behalf of the members of the high school band and the entire instrumental music department, we take this opportunity to extend our sincere thanks and grateful appreciation to all those instrumentalists in making possible the purchase of our new band uniforms. We consider ourselves very fortunate indeed in having such an excellent and sympathetic organization behind our band building program."

The annual spring festival of the Southeastern Band and Orchestra Association will be held at Grosse Pointe High School on April 1, announces Mr. Dewey D. Kalember, director of the band.

Approximately 15 different bands and orchestras will play during the festival, which is to start at 9 o'clock in the morning and last until 9 o'clock in the evening.

Over 600 students will visit the high school to attend the festival.

The Grosse Pointe High School Aquatic Club will present its annual demonstration at the high school natatorium December 14, in a matinee performance at 3:30 o'clock and again on December 15 at 8 o'clock, in an evening performance.

In previous years, this exhibition has been received with such enthusiasm by the student body that an evening performance for parents and friends has been planned. A demonstration of strokes, life saving, stunts, relays, and diving will be presented. Patterned after Cleveland's Aquacade, a floating formation will be offered. A musical grand march with participation by the entire club will open the program.

Among the exhibits displayed at the International Philatelic Week show at the Book-Cadillac recently was one prepared by the Pointe Philatelists of Grosse Pointe High School under the direction of Mr. Humphrey Jackson, faculty sponsor.

Tom Candler 10B, Robert Julien 9B, Richard Ritzenheim 10B, Kathleen Beresford 9B, Betty Flanders 9B, all contributed to the exhibit.

They showed United States Commemorative stamps, different types of Army and Navy stamps, United States Airmail stamps, and Red Cross stamps. It was the first time Grosse Pointe High school had ever participated in such an exhibition.

The Ford Trade School exhibited stamps and covers depicting Greenfield Village and the Ford Airport. A set of four labels and a cachet had been produced to celebrate the occasion. The Detroit News displayed a series of photographs illustrating the steps taken in making an engraving for publication. The Post Office displayed an exhibit marking the twenty-fifth anniversary of the parcel post.

Invitations for the Grosse Pointe High School junior prom on December 10 were issued to all 11A, 12B, and 12A students before Thanksgiving vacation.

The Commodore's orchestra will play from 9 to 12 o'clock. The grand march will be led by Bruce Bockstanz, president of the 11A class, and Shirley Clark, vice president.

Parents of 11A executive officers, Bruce Bockstanz, Shirley Clark, James Sterling, and Sally Morton will act as patrons and patronesses for the Prom. Robert Marr, Stewart Evans, Robert Mance and Warren Mueller, all 11A's, are on the decorations committee.

Pupils of Mason School boarded the "Booktown Special" this past Wednesday afternoon for a journey by train to "Adventureland." The journey, conducted in the school auditorium, was a feature of National Book Week which extended from November 14th through November 19th.

Skippy Dewey, as train conductor, announced the various "stopovers" on the program. Each "stopover" consisted of a five-minute dramatization or impersonation from "A Book We Like Best" selected by a particular homeroom. All homerooms in the school participated.

Football letters will be awarded to the midget team at a special party in the near future.

Ants, Dance of the Butterfly, Hatching of the Epherma, Dance of the Epherma and Funeral March of the Epherma. This ballet-suite, as for the Four Episodes, employs the services of a small orchestra.

The "New World" Symphony, with its universally-beloved Largo, the work by which the Bohemian composer is best known in America, was written in the United States by Dvorak just before the turn of the century. Some admit the work is what Dvorak intended—an interpretation of Negro melody; others insist its character is wholly Czech.

The Czechs themselves declare the symphony expresses the state of soul of an uncultured Czech in America, the state of a homesick soul remembering his native land and stupefied by the din and bustle of a new life. It has been so recognized throughout Bohemia.

Siegfried Idyll was written in 1871 as a birthday greeting to the composer's wife Cosima, and named for his son, Siegfried, who was born while Wagner was composing the music. Of the 43 world-famed conductors who have appeared as guests with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra during the past 24 years, Siegfried Wagner, since deceased, himself conducted this Idyll with the Orchestra in January, 1924.

High School Notes

After a discussion of the work of the farmer supplying the people with food, the Defer A Kindergarten took a trip to the grocery store. Diane Thompson and Trudy Klemann asked the clerk to sell them some whipping cream and crackers. On returning to school, they took a mixing bowl and egg beater and started to whip the cream. Each child had turns in using the beater and, to their surprise, the whipping cream turned into butter. The butter was spread on crackers, and everyone re-had ever tasted. The B Kindergarten group in learning to tell stories. Carl Weber can tell "Little Black Sambo," and Bob Van Steelart, Carol Fischer, Marilyn Walter, Anne Busby, and Bette Ann Hendrick know "The Three Bears." The children in the B group are learning to write their names. Ruth Reynolds, Bob Cassell, Eldon Mueller, Jimmy Reindel, Jean Barlow, Mary Ann Hagg, Ellen Vander Burg, Audrey Dale, Peggy Fisher, Eleanor Froehlin, Toby Singer and Bob Law can all write their own names.

One day the Defer Kindergarten students were weighed and measured in the clinic. Some children were tall, some were short, some were fat and others were thin. So these students talked about vegetables and fruits they knew, and then cut out the pictures from magazines and made health scrap books. The students found out where their mothers buy their vegetables and fruits and decided to visit one store. It was an open market on Kercheval Ave. They walked there from school one sunny day. The market man let them look at everything. The students saw many vegetables they knew—carrots, cabbage, spinach, onions, potatoes, beets, celery, cauliflower, string beans, lettuce, cucumbers and tomatoes. They knew the fruit too; apples, peaches, pears, oranges, plums and grapes. After the children returned to school they decided to build an open market. They used orange crates, lath, paper, paint, nails and hammers. Everyone helped. The boys built the frame while the girls cut and colored paper for the roof. When it was finished they took turns painting it. It looks like a real market, for they made paper and clay fruits, vegetables and baskets. Judy McMahon brought a box to make a cash register. Everyone made money and pocket books. When the children play keeping house, they go to the store to buy. Joseph Duchene is a very good storekeeper and Jimmy Hoskins is his helper. The students can all sell or buy because they have taken turns playing store. They call their market "The Defer Market." To provide 8A students and their parents an opportunity to acquaint themselves with the subjects offered by Grosse Pointe High School so that they may make a wise selection of electives, open house for 8A students was held Tuesday, November 29, at the high school from 7:30 to 10 o'clock. The program opened in the auditorium where Dr. E. R. Van Kleeck, superintendent of schools, gave a short greeting to parents. Mr. Paul A. Rehms, principal, talked on "Why We Have an 8A Open House." Mr. Ernest LaFollette presented an instructional movie which has just been completed for the use of shop students. The 8A combined chorus sang under the direction of Mr. John Finch. A home room period followed from 8 to 8:30 o'clock. Teachers discussed enrollment problems with the parents. Exhibits of all 8A and 9B work were shown from 8:30 to 10 o'clock in the girls' gym and special rooms. Be sure to see the Christmas Cards at the Review office, 15121 Kercheval.

Dazey Ice Crusher Contest Prize Winners

A. Pryor, Grosse Pointe Review: It is a great delight to find as efficient a tool as the Dazey Ice Crusher. The results obtained by this simple method of crushing ice enables one to achieve in home served drinks the apex of fountain smartness. As a time saver it is unequalled and I can now serve delicious frosty drinks in a jiffy. Added to this its simple operation and attractive appearance makes the Dazey Ice Crusher a valuable addition to our modern kitchen equipment. MRS. JOSEPH G. RYAN

A. Pryor, c/o Grosse Pointe Review, Dear Sir: Am delighted to express my appreciation of the Dazey products. The Dazey Ice Crusher and Dazey Can Opener make unexpected guests a pleasure instead of a panic. When canned delicacies may be chilled thoroughly, and quickly with the aid of a Dazey Ice Crusher, there need be no anxiety about refreshments. And in the sickroom it is even more welcome (a life saver for patient and attendant!) for ice bags and ice water. The Dazey Ice Crusher is surely one of the most efficient, substantial, safe, and easy to operate of all modern household helps. Really, it's a daisy! Sincerely, MRS. E. R. PEIRCE

My dear Mr. Pryor, Our family is large and the use of an ice bag or ice collar is frequent, the Dazey ice crusher with its three adjustments for different sized crushed ice is perfect. The simplicity of the crusher in using makes it possible for my small children to operate without danger or mess. A small amount of ice when crushed goes a long way. We use crushed ice in so many, many ways that Dr. and I often wonder how we ever managed without the Dazey Ice Crusher. Sincerely, MRS. BENJAMIN W. CLARK

Dazey Ice Crusher Contest, Grosse Pointe: The Dazey Ice Crusher has proven one of my ablest assistants, because it saves time and work and is so compact, easy to operate, keep clean, and produces such uniform particles of crushed ice ready for immediate use. A small cube of ice and a simple turn of the Dazey Ice Crusher into a glass of beverage and it is ready for the unexpected guest. It has many uses but for the sick room it is indispensable. Quickly crushed, correct sized ice in the rubber water bottle and you're ready for an emergency. It is economically priced, too. FLORENCE E. McDOWELL

To the Contest Editor: Thanks for the contest! It made me acquainted with the Dazey Ice Crusher—so appropriate for holiday gift-giving and entertaining. It comes in attractive red with white, complete with wall attachment for $3.75—ready at a moment's notice to grind up cubes for ice bags during sickness or to make glistening, tinkling ice "flakes" for beverages. Any man or woman would welcome a "Dazey" in their Christmas stocking—a real "find" for friends who "have everything"—but not a Dazey. It's a thrifty thrill the Dazey lends to holiday cheer with family and friends. MRS. P. RICE

As an added attraction, Hubert Strem, 11B, drum major, will lead the band while Marion Bishop, 9B, and Dick Hunter 10B, twirling bantam majors, go through a twirling routine. Mr. Dewey Kalember, band director, declares, "The band has shown considerable improvement since last year in tone and technique." Tickets for the concert are now on sale and may be purchased for 25 cents at the Student Council Booth or from any members of the band. Elizabeth Derrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. Derrick, of Ridge road, made her bow to society Saturday afternoon at a tea in the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Frederick W. Hodges, of Lincoln road. Her assistants were, Ann Buhl, Dorothy Backus, Barbara Holton, Pamela Turner, Helen Odell and Betty Small. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bonbright entertained the bud at a small dinner at the Country Club. Order your Christmas Cards NOW!

Baha'i Discussion Group Hear Talented Lecturer

A recent visitor to Palestine, Mrs. Margery McCormick of Chicago, spoke last week at the Baha'i Discussion Group, 104 Moran avenue, Grosse Pointe.

Rapidly reviewing the stupendous progress of humanity during the past four centuries in discovering, inhabiting and linking together by means of communication the entire earth until, for the first time, the world has become one single organic unity, the speaker passed on to the forces which are today tearing at a humanity which can neither understand nor explain them.

"Ten million men under arms, civil wars and economic distress—in this world, which is one organic unity, we see a tragic picture of national, racial, religious and class prejudice. Even in our own democratic America we see an almost feverish pursuit of materialism. These and all our other disturbances are symptoms of a civilization which must be reborn or perish in chaos.

The Baha'i Faith teaches that the very order of the universe pre-supposes an order Maker. It never just happens. This order is far beyond the control of mankind. If we consider the regularity in which day follows night until we can tell the exact second when Halley's comet will next flash across the sky—this does not "just happen."

Arabs sitting on the rails. Tel Aviv, the wonderful modern Jewish city was to Jaffa the 100 per cent Arab city much like St. Paul to Minnesota, but a Jew dared not set foot in Jaffa nor an Arab in Tel Aviv.

Jews had returned to Palestine for many reasons and Jews of every type and opinion were included in their population and because of this difference in religious and political opinion there was not apparent the real unity among them one would expect. The sad differences among all the sects of Christians were apparent in the actual lines marking out sections of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, the most sacred spot for Christians, where the priests of the various denominations would officiate, being careful not to overstep the section allotted. Moslem police for the last six hundred years had had to keep order among the Christians on some festivals and recently the Governor of Palestine and Chief of Police had had to intervene to maintain order in the holy places.

Such conditions indicate the winter in the cycle of life in the great religious systems of the world. The coming of the prophet is a spiritual spring-time, when the regenerative power of revealed law raises a people such as the Israelites, or the Christians by re-establishing in times of crisis and chaos, when civilization itself seems about to collapse, the great spiritual and moral laws of life; a Moses to lead people out of the wilderness, a Christ to recall us to the law of love and brotherhood.

Demonstration of the power of the Baha'i Faith to unite the followers of all faiths was found by Mrs. McCormick in the believers from Egypt, Iran and other oriental countries as well as from occidental places who were at one time Mohammedans, Jews or Christians and who had found the original purity of their prophet's teachings restored and fulfilled in the Baha'i Faith and who had broken down the bitter barriers of creed and sectarianism in serving the promulgation of the Baha'i teachings. Mrs. McCormick said in America had no idea of how strong religious prejudice could be. An Arab told his irate English customer who complained of the price of 50 cents for a cup of coffee "We do not grow coffee here. We have to import it and prepare it and serve it and after you have finished we have to break the cup, as we do not drink after dogs of Christians." This was in great contrast to the Egyptian, Syrian and Persian Baha'is who greeted Mrs. McCormick and her fellow pilgrims with Baha'i Fellowship.

Shahi Effendi, the leader of the Baha'i Faith at Haifa, looked forward to the great "Commonwealth of Man" in the future as being less difficult of achievement than the unification of the United States in the early history of this country. Out of the present chaos a chastened humanity would arise to live more nearly to God's laws. Mrs. McCormick closed with the statement that we are now witnessing the death pangs of the old materialistic order and the birth throes of that great Commonwealth of Man where humanity will find its true unity spiritually, culturally, economically and physically.

Christian Science Churches

"God the Preserver of Man" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, December 11. The Golden Text (Psalm 40:11) is: "Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O Lord: let thy lovingkindness and thy truth continually preserve me."

Among the Bible citations is this passage (Luke 12:29-30): "And seek not yet what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind. For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 254): "When we wait patiently on God and seek Truth righteously, He directs our path."

Opera Guild to Present Opera 'Martha' Thursday Evening

The Opera Guild of Detroit will present the opera "Martha" by Von Flotow on Thursday evening, December 8, (tonight) at the Masonic Temple Consistory. The music is very lovely and enchanting, and the plot exceedingly amusing. The Guild is under the very fine direction of Mrs. Ida Kitching Cordes, and the dramatics are coached by Mrs. Elaine Newell, one of the outstanding dramatic coaches in the city. Mrs. Cordes is known throughout the state of Michigan for her interest in the opera movement. The leading roles in the opera "Martha" are being sung by Olive Herb, Doris Sperring Markel, Carl Nelson, William Tennant, Jr., Richard Badge and Matthew Sally.

The Guild has been in existence six years and has a membership of about 75, ranging in ages between 16 and 65. The Guild is non-sectarian, and also non-profit making, all proceeds from sales of tickets, going to charity. The Guild offers an excellent form of education, recreation and social outlet and the members use their leisure time constructively. Many are trained singers, others are professional pianists, violinists, etc. and others who never had an opportunity to study music, are given the chance to meet in a musical atmosphere. All of the work is done gratis and much time and sacrifice has been spent in making "Martha" a success. Tickets can be purchased at the Masonic Consistory, Grinnell's or J. L. Hudson Music Store.—The first time in the history of Detroit that the opera "Martha" is being sung solely by Detroit singers. It is our feeling that local people should attend this fine production since it is being produced only by Detroiters.

Human Rights League Advocates German Boycott

A recent survey made by the League for Human Rights, the organization composed of leading Protestants, Catholics, and Jews, which conducts the boycott of German goods and services as a protest against Hitlerism in Detroit, reveals this ironical fact: from Germany, where the Prince of Peace is repudiated and his followers persecuted without mercy, come many of the Christmas tree ornaments found in the Detroit shops, especially the 5 and 10 cent stores. Creches and the religious figures for holy scenes are found in great abundance all marked "Germany," where, without a doubt, their use is strictly forbidden. It is indeed ironical that Hitler's program of religious persecution is financed by the sale of these religious figures and Christmas ornaments.

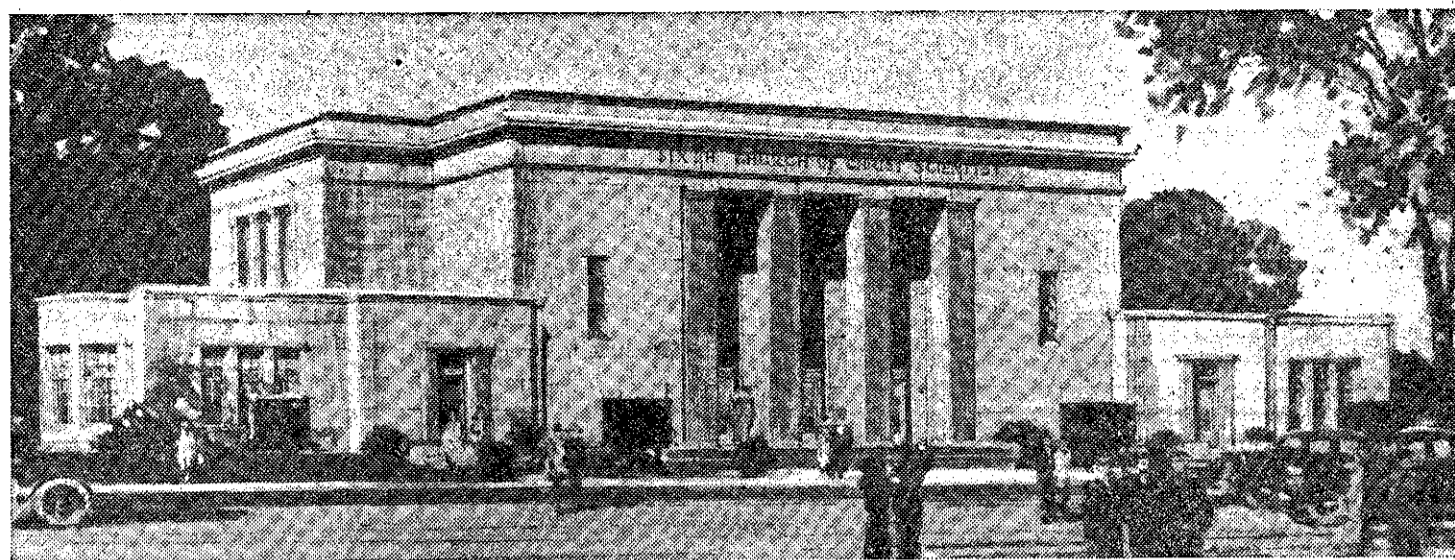

Instead of words of protest, every American can fight Nazism and at the same time benefit American labor by refusing to desecrate the Christmas tree with Nazi ornaments, and buying instead the American-made items which are equal, if not superior, to the Nazi product.

The League for Human Rights, 2302 David Stott Building, Cherry 6906, will be pleased to furnish detailed information with regard to Nazi-made goods sold in Detroit, and will be glad to guide individuals and organizations in conducting the boycott against Hitler.

Corner Stone Laid For New East Side Church

In keeping with the provisions made by Mary Baker Eddy (Manual p. 60) that "No large gathering of people nor display shall be allowed when laying the Corner Stone of a Church of Christ, Scientist," a few of the officers and former officers of Sixth Church of Christ, Scientist, Detroit, met at six o'clock Monday evening, December 5, to lay the corner stone of the new edifice being erected on Kercheval avenue between Marlborough and Ashland avenues.

Reinforced concrete walls and floors of the new edifice are practically completed, and the structural steel erectors will start within a few days. Construction work is ahead of schedule and there is hope that the new structure will be completed and ready for occupancy on or before Easter Sunday next April.

George D. Mason and Company are the church architects and Walbridge-Aldinger company are the general contractors. Cost of the finished structure including land, equipment, and furnishings will be approximately $250,000.

The new church edifice occupies the entire block on the south side of Kercheval avenue between Manistique and Ashland avenues, with open space allowing for adequate landscaping and setting. The exterior will be of Indiana limestone. The architecture is of classic design.

The plans provide for an auditorium seating more than 800 on the main floor, arranged in banked semi-circles about a flat floor. The entire building is to be air conditioned for winter and summer. There are no windows in the auditorium which will be lighted by the most modern indirect lighting for all services.

The lower floor provides a Sunday School seating more than 500, this likewise being air conditioned and indirectly lighted.

A spacious reading room, together with literature sales room, church office, Board of Directors rooms, etc. are constructed as an integral part of the building. Two deep wells, one a ten-inch and the other a six-inch, have already been successfully driven on the premises, which will supply cold water for summer air conditioning.

Sixth Church of Christ, Scientist, was organized ten years ago. The first services of the new branch were held in Carstens Public school auditorium on July 14, 1928. In less than a year, larger quarters were found necessary. In 1929 a lease was secured for the use of the auditorium and lodge rooms of the new Masonic Temple then being erected by Pillar Lodge on Kercheval avenue between Marlborough and Philip avenues where services have since been held.

The seating capacity of 650 in the Pillar Lodge auditorium is now outgrown, and overflow facilities have to be provided in the Church Reading Room on some Sundays.

Revolution, at a buffet luncheon at her home on Monday, December 12. This will be the annual Christmas party of the group, with informal games, Christmas music and a tree laden with gifts the order of the day. No one will tell in advance how these gifts are to be distributed, as it is going to be something of a novelty and surprise rolled into one. Miss Mitchell will be assisted by Miss Marion Brooke, Miss Rebecca Jane Erickson, Mrs. John B. Hollister, Mrs. Ellsworth Kramer, Mrs. Ford Spikerman, Mrs. Harvey Luke Kimmery, Mrs. Max Frederick Utting, and Mrs. Thomas H. Macksey.

Beginning his study at the age of 13, Mr. Morrison was advised after five years of study to give up music, but his high ambition and intense interest caused him to persist, and fame was finally his reward. Mr. Morrison practices on the average of eight hours a day.

Dr. Augustus Record to Be at Grosse Pointe Memorial Dec. 11

Dr. Augustus P. Record, of the Church of Our Father, Detroit, will conduct the vespers service for religious liberals in the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church House Sunday afternoon, December 11. The service on December 25, Christmas Day, will be omitted.

DeMolay Frolic Friday, Dec. 9

The annual DeMolay Varsity Frolic, sponsored by Findlater Chapter, will be held Friday evening, December 9, at the Ballroom Grande, located on Grand River avenue near Joy road. Bernard Smith is general chairman and will be assisted by Edward Witt, Robert Rissman, Arthur Higgins, Edward Halligan and Robert Hood. Ben Young and his famous Casa Manana orchestra from Texas will be featured in a program of sweet and swing dance music.

Freshmen from Pointe Do Well in College

Very satisfactory work is being done by the 17 alumni who are now freshmen at the University of Michigan and the 8 enrolled at Michigan State at Lansing according to Mr. Paul Rehms, principal.

Each of these students has been interviewed recently by Mr. Rehms, Mrs. Ruth Flom, dean of girls, or Mr. Charles E. Leavitt, assistant principal.

Hannan 'Y' Boys Form Archery Club

The "Y" boys' archery club at the Hannan branch have set up an indoor archery range in the "Y" gymnasium. With a standard straw tournament target and a rubber back stop, the club members are planning to enjoy this fascinating sport all winter. The club is shooting each Friday afternoon right after school.

In the hobby shop the club members are making bows and arrows each Tuesday evening under the leadership of Mr. Frederick D. Hess. Many of the fathers of club members are also making bows and arrows right along with their sons.

Professional Women Will Meet Wednesday, December 14

The meeting of the Grosse Pointe Professional Women's Club will be held at the lounge of the Grosse Pointe Memorial church on Wednesday, December 14 at 6:30. Mr. Perry Rathbone of the Alger Museum will speak on "Italian Madonnas."

Julien Bryan to Speak at Art Institute Sunday

"Inside Nazi Germany," the new and comprehensive motion picture story of what is happening in the Hitlerized Reich, will be shown and told by Julien Bryan, explorer and roving photographer, on the World Adventure Series platform at the Detroit Institute of Arts at 3:30 and again at 8:30 next Sunday, December 11. So great has been the interest in these new and uncensored Nazi Germany pictures that the World Adventure Series has cancelled the Soviet Russia lecture, originally scheduled for Sunday evening, in order to repeat the afternoon program.

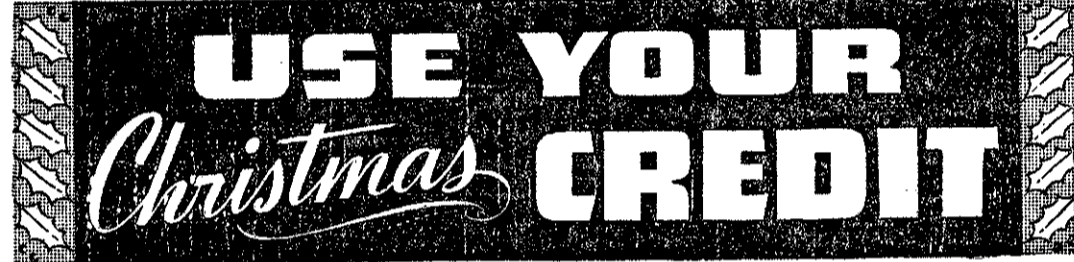

Bryan will show the best sequences selected from the twenty-five reels he himself filmed in Germany. A few of the highlights:

One million Nazis at the Nuremberg Congress; a crack Nazi Army corps in a mimic battle, using real bombs; Jewish persecutions; new roads and model housing; what is happening to the Christian church; Labor Service boys and girls at work; Storm Troopers and propaganda organizations; Munich Museum of "degenerate art"; Hitler welcoming Mussolini; German aviation; German home life and the beauties of the Rhine and Bavaria.

High School to Hear Donald Scott-Morrison in All-School Assembly

Donald Scott-Morrison, piano artist extraordinary, will be presented at an all-school assembly in the boys' gymnasium at the Grosse Pointe High school at 10 o'clock Friday.

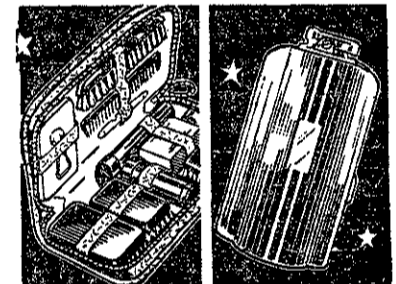

Mr. Morrison will play examples to illustrate the development of music from its crude beginnings up through such recent creations as the late George Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue."

Ohioan Makes Lecture Tour

Victor H. Ries, extension specialist in floriculture at Ohio State University, will make a tour of Michigan this coming week, lecturing in the larger cities, as guest of the Michigan Horticultural Society. He will appear in Detroit, Thursday evening, December 8, presenting his lecture on "Interesting Uses for Less Common Plants," at 8 p. m. in the conference room of The Detroit News.

Long experience and devotion to the study of horticulture, as teacher, writer and practical gardener, provide Prof. Ries with a background of wide knowledge in his field. He has selected a variety of subjects for presentation in Michigan—spring bulbs, evergreens, ground covers, continuous bloom, planting nooks and corners or problem spots. His Detroit lecture will cover unusual plants that lend distinction to the garden.

The problems of the amateur gardener have been his special concern during his years at the University, where his work has brought him in close touch with garden clubs and students. Prof. Ries, whose magazine articles are familiar to a large circle of readers, has been a frequent contributor to the Michigan Horticultural Magazine.

His books include "How to Grow Perennials," "Pruning and Repairing of Trees and Shrubs," "How to Grow Annuals," "Plant Waste-are" and "Flower Shows." This last-name volume is based upon his work as secretary of the Ohio Association of Garden Clubs and appears, this winter, in a new, enlarged edition.

The lecture in the conference room of The Detroit News, Thursday evening, is in charge of Mrs. Chas. W. Burton, regional director of the Michigan Horticultural Society. It will be illustrated with slides in natural colors, picturing the unusual plants under discussion.

The public is cordially invited to hear Prof. Ries at The Detroit News. There is no admission charge and no reservation or ticket is required.

moulding it into the outstanding post it is today, during its first three years under his command. Brucker may point out that Fairview, Fort Gratiot and Stinson Posts of Detroit and Bruce Post of St. Clair Shores, V. F. W., were instituted under Bill's guidance. That, later, when the Council of Administration of the V. F. W. issued a call, Bill answered, wholeheartedly, against his own best interests in private life, for his devotion to his country, Americanism, and the future security of the coming generation were and still are foremost in his thoughts.

The former governor may dwell upon Bill's having given the obligation, the serious ritualistic side of the V. F. W., to more recruits than any other one man in the organization and that he has probably performed the last rites for a large number of these same candidates since then. That, in this, the present and most exemplifying side of his nature, his star has become a beacon bringing the light of hope and comfort into countless homes Father Time has all but shattered.

This one thing, above many other splendid accomplishments, has made the name of Bill Kane a topic of conversation and gratitude throughout all veterandom.

Asking nothing for himself, expecting nothing, giving all he has to his organization and comrades, have made Bill's life, in the past twenty years, a continuous round of service, a guiding light to all who know him, veteran and civilian alike. Many are they, in both categories, who have known him to drop everything and drive miles through the night to ease the burden of a bereaved family and turn grief and uncertainty into something much brighter and harder to explain. And many are they who will be on hand to express their feelings when Bill receives his living acclaim.

But, oddly enough, in spite of their desire to do it, he is looking forward to their gesture with all the misgivings of doomsday, for he avoids all pretense, show, clamor or glory.

When the modest Bill was asked what he thought of a night dedicated to him he remarked, simply, "I wish they wouldn't do it." But, when he realized he had to face it anyway and was asked again what part of it would mean the more to him, he confessed to one desire. "I would like to have a list of names of the people who think enough of me to come. I would like to keep that list, always. That would mean the most to me."

That list would be long; the names of the friends of this man whose life has indelibly portrayed the very essence of the organization he has so faithfully served. Long but not sufficient for it has gone beyond that. As the auditorium is dimmed for his citation, he will get most of those names but, in the shadows in the rear, there will be strangers to him just as deeply moved as he is. Tears of some he never knew will silently tell their story of reverence for the man bowing in deep appreciation of something he never expected but richly deserves.

Louisa St. Clair Chapter, D.A.R. to Meet Dec. 15

Mrs. George D. Schermerhorn, National organizing secretary general of the Daughters of the American Revolution, will be the guest of the recent of the Louisa St. Clair Chapter at the meeting at Newberry House of Thursday, December 15. The reader, Mr. Harry Elliott, is well known in Detroit circle. He will be accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Johnson, as will Mrs. Grace Louise Grigg, who will give an unusual whistling solo. There will be other Christmas music, and a tree to contain the shower of Christmas gifts for Newberry House.

Mrs. Frederick E. McCain, Mrs. Frederick Conant Gilbert and Mrs. Robert C. Gammon will be hostesses of the day. In spite of the gala atmosphere, time will be taken for the election of delegates and alternates to the thirty-ninth state conference which will be held in Saginaw, March 29 to 31.

Mrs. Percy Hamly will be in charge of luncheon arrangements assisted by Mrs. Jack A. Doerr, Mrs. Clarence E. Carroll, Mrs. Orrin P. Fox, Mrs. Hugh Macomb, Mrs. John R. Kilpatrick, Mrs. John H. Varnum and Mrs. Theodore E. Winkler, and others of the junior department.

A BEAUTY CHAT WITH DONNA WILLIAMS

CONCENTRA, is as the name implies, a highly concentrated, dehydrated vegetable root and fruit compound. This is in capsule form and contains rhubarb, soya bean meal, Irish sea moss, gravel root, and dehydrated cranberries.

There are sixteen major elements in the body which must be furnished to the body through foods. If there is an over-supply or a deficiency of these elements in the body, then that body is abnormal.

The rhubarb aids the elimination of poisons from the body. The rhubarb used in CONCENTRA is the very highest grade of the Chinese variety.

The soya bean meal is the food substance containing a powerful ferment oil which is an excellent diabetic food. The Irish sea moss furnishes iron and iodine. Most vegetables do not contain a sufficient amount of iron and iodine.

The gravel root is a cleaner for our kidneys, thereby eliminating poisons accumulated in the kidneys, just as the rhubarb does for the alimentary tract. The Dehydrated Cranberries is a table item whose value is familiar in every household.

As long as we have to eat why not eat the correct way? Whether the food is raw, cooked or concentrated, shouldn't make any difference, if we satisfy our body's need.

"Man With the Hoe" Edwin Markham's "Man With the Hoe" has been translated into more than 40 languages. Within a year after its publication, more than 5,000 "answers" had been written to it.

Why Age Before Your Time?

Premature ageing is often caused by improper dieting. Some foods create an oversupply of body elements while others a deficiency.
