

Grosse Exaggerations?

(Written for A. Pryor by Aerielle Frazer.)

Dear Public, this column has again become an amateur hour, so with apologies to Major Bowes and to you who attempt to read this, I shall make an effort at spattering this section of the page with juicy little tid-bits gathered from our community's renowned liars.

Here is a tip to those who are still thanking heaven that the problem of Xmas preparations is over. If, on December twenty-fourth, nineteen thirty-nine, you are hectic at the prospect of getting your presents delivered, tote all your little gifties over to the doorstep of our well-known local florist—for on that day, all of Grosse Pointe beats a path to his door. The place is then a beautiful mad-house, full of ranting, ringing telephones, billowy clouds of ribbon, wire, wax paper, and every form of flora from a camelia to a buttercup. You will also see all human fauna, for whom you have presents. They will be there hysterically ordering potted poinsettias for forgotten in-laws. That is the way to make the mountain come to Mohammed. Speaking of Xmas, have you noticed the post-holiday behavior, (good), of our foremost indulgers in stimulating beverages? This, I understand, is not due to an epidemic of hangovers, but to some very popular Yuletide gifts sold by our heaven-sent book and gift shop. These are cocktail and highball glasses bedecked with gleeful pink elephants—a peek at the pink is a preview!

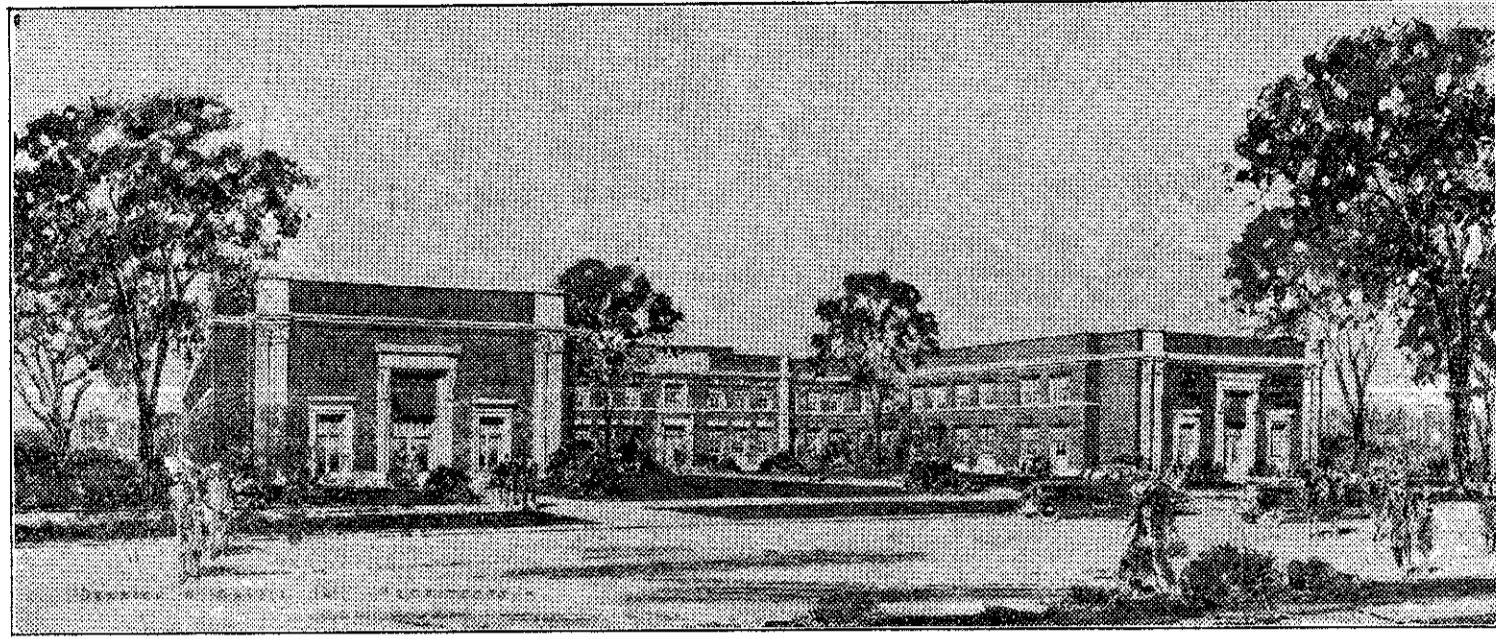

Are you one of those pathetic individuals who are plagued by house-guests that never go home? If so, our recently rejuvenated and stream-lined grocery store can solve your problem perfectly. Among their canned goods, which include all the Duchess cheeses with wines, whole guavas, marrons and truffles, there is canned rattle snake. What would be more effective than dropping this delicacy on toast and sending it up on your non-exit intending guest's breakfast tray?

I hear that poor dear Ella Waxwell is weeping her great big heart out these days and rebukes all consolation with sobbing, scorching slander about "That Woman." "That Woman," as we all know, is the greatest challenge to Ella's supremacy in the art of entertainment, and is totally responsible for the recent round of varied fun making festivities in two of our Clubs. This goddess of gaiety, however, caused cupid to step aside for Morpheus the other day by having, (very practically I might add), moved those divine, deep divans from the mezzanine of the Country Club to the men's coat room. Or should I say Cupid side-stepped for Bacchus?

The equestrian set hereabouts, is very pleased with the complete metamorphosis of a former "Metamor-ron" mocker. He now haunts our hunting grounds and ladies, if you wish to flirt with this Adonis by flattery, nothing would please him more than to be told that he smells like a horse.

New John D. Pierce Junior High School

With construction proceeding ahead of schedule on Grosse Pointe's new John D. Pierce Junior High School other problems caused by the rapidly growing school enrollment are being studied. The new building is being erected on Kercheval avenue, opposite the Defer elementary school. Completion by next fall is hoped for.

Due to the shape of the site, the shorter side of the building faces the street running back about two-fifths of the distance from Kercheval to St. Paul. Near the sidewalk on the west wing on the Kercheval side is a large public library branch which is to be operated separately from the rest of the building. Above this are art rooms and other classrooms. The wing nearest Kercheval on the east side will house an auditorium with a balcony.

Seventh, eighth, and ninth grade pupils from the western and central portions of the school district, including the Village of Grosse Pointe Park and the City of Grosse Pointe, will attend school in the new building. The junior high school children living east of Fisher road will go to the senior high school building.

Even with the opening of the Pierce Junior High School, the present high school building will be filled up to normal capacity next fall, according to Dr. E. R. Van Kleeck, Superintendent of Schools. The junior high school building will open filled to at least five-sixths of its capacity of nine hundred pupils, he said. Normal enrollment growth among junior high school grades in the area west of Fisher road is expected to fill the junior high school building to capacity within a year or two after it is opened.

Rapid growth in the eastern end of the district will probably cause the opening next fall of one or two additional rooms in the Vernier School, Vernier road. This building, which had not been used for school purposes for a number of years, was re-opened this fall to relieve the Mason school. Three rooms are being utilized but the Mason school enrollment has again reached its last June total due to home construction in the Lochmoor area. To relieve the Mason school next fall, the Vernier school will probably become a kindergarten and six grade building, and the boundary between it and the Mason district, which is now Black Marsh Ditch, will probably have to be moved north in the direction of Mack avenue, school officials believe.

When the second term of the current school year opens on January 30, the library in the Mason school will be converted into a classroom and an additional first grade will be opened to provide for the growth.

At the same time, an additional second grade will be opened at the Defer school, utilizing the only unoccupied room left in that building.

Board of Education members have been studying for some months the problem of the serious over-crowding in the Richard school. Various different possible solutions for next year have been analyzed. One suggestion, to which parents of children in the

Those who have had the privilege of listening to Dr. Hillary at any of his series at the Central M. E. Church, St. John's Episcopal Church, North-west Baptist, or the Northeast Y. M. C. A. know the skill with which he approaches this most vital subject of our relationship with other people.

Alger Post News

On Friday evening, January 13, and in spite of the inclement weather conditions, the Sons of Veterans of Alger Post, V. F. W., under the leadership of Comrade Van Wormer and Commander Lawrence Dolan, conducted a dancing party that was attended by some 150 boys and girls of Alger Post and the Grosse Pointe vicinity. They danced to an orchestra in charge of Vernon Armstrong that is ably named the "Rist-A-Kats" to fit into the spirit of this modern youth. It goes without saying that these dances which are to be held semi-monthly during the winter months, on Friday nights, afford clean, enjoyable entertainment for the young people who attend them. And Alger Post, through the Sons of Veterans of that post, extends a cordial invitation to all high school students of this neighborhood to participate in these functions which are in all respects put on for you and your enjoyment. There is a slight charge for dancing in accordance to the expense incurred.

Tentative plans are being made through which the Alger Post of Grosse Pointe, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will stage one of those familiar all-men musical comedies, that were so popular among the boys in France after the Armistice. The cast will include several high officials of the Grosse Pointe section who have kindly entered into the spirit of the occasion. And, if the plans work out in order, it will undoubtedly be a side-splitting performance any veteran or citizen will more than enjoy. The show will be staged in the auditorium of the Grosse Pointe High school on the evening of February 17, at 8:15, and as many nights after as the public may demand. Read the Grosse Pointe Review for further details.

Newsboy Guest of Metropolitan Opera

George Malaiko, 54, Toronto newsboy, has frequently attracted attention by selling his papers attired in dress clothes and top hat, all set for the opera when his papers were sold. This year he lost his money in the stock market, and offered a year's subscription to anyone who would finance a trip to New York where he could hear "Don Giovanni." The trip was arranged by Edward Johnson, general manager of the Metropolitan opera, and Richard Crooks, leading member.

Dizzy Dean Says He'll 'Mow 'Em Down'

Louder than ever, Dizzy Dean predicts the Cubs a pennant cinch for next year. Now that his ailing shoulder is back in shape, he is confident of his ability to "mow 'em down." His boasts had rather a familiar ring to Bob Lewis, traveling secretary for the Chicago Cubs. Doctors, however, have stated that he is all set to pitch.

move with her husband, daughter and dainty Siamese female feline to Tibet, where she might gracefully prevent the family name from being saturated in scandal?

Are you interested in Child Psychology? Or maybe you might be a very maternal individual, a sort of personification of Mother Macree? In either case, I have discovered the ideal paradise for you. Some Saturday afternoon, when the movies are just over, step into the ice-cream bar next door, and you will be enveloped in gallons of little folk, gladly guzzling gobs of ghastly confections.

It seems that one of our long established and favorite drug stores, is rapidly reverting to a zoo. Or was I dreaming when I saw its very dignified manager prone, amid wads of chewing gum and good humor wrappings, on the floor on his stomach, trying to extract a squirrel from under a radiator—with a yard stick.

Why not be different, as they all say, and entertain your friends with an Italian dinner? Serve them risotto—a delicious rice dish with baby octopus, (which you can say to people with emotional abdomens)—is soft shell crab. It really tastes much better. Octopi are prevalent in Long Island Sound and your grocer can get them for you very easily. Don't forget zabaglioni, a very seductive dessert made with Marsala wine, which you can get at a market on Kercheval. And of course, Minestrone is the only soup to have. This can be brewed with very tired out old vegetables that have been cluttering up the kitchen for weeks. Sprinkle grated cheese in it and you will discover it really belongs in an epicure's heaven. You might as well ask your fruit vendor to come over and sing "O Solo Mio" to add atmosphere, but if your husband is an adamant condemner of Mussolini, it would be better to give the whole thing up. Zabaglioni—to Serve Four 6 yolks of eggs

4 tablespoonsful granulated sugar
4 tablespoonsful Marsalla wine (Florie)
4 tablespoonsful water

Put the whole works into a pan (a round pan). Put the pan on the fire and beat with a French beater. Also keep raising the pan so it won't cook too fast. You should end up with a fluffy looking goo to be served in sherbet glasses, but even the best cooks have often wound up with scrambled eggs instead. It's worth trying though and also very fattening! The Minestrone is easy—ask anyone.

Well, I think I hear a gong, so good-bye now, and back to the nut house.

Neighborhood Club Activities

Standings of Neighborhood Club Class A Basketball League:

Table with 3 columns: Team, W, L, Pct. Includes Indians, Rangers, Wolverines, X-V Blue Devils, Saints, Essex.

Schedule for week of January 16:
Monday: Saints vs. Essex
Thursday: X-V Blue Devils vs. Wolverines
Friday: Rangers vs. Indians.

The results of last week's competition finds the Indians the only undefeated team in the league. Held to the slight margin of four points at the intermission, by a much smaller Saint aggregation, the ex-St. Paul cagers came back with a shower of baskets in the last half to subdue the tiring Saints by the score of 32-19. The Indians were led by the rugged Al Ghesquiere who scored eight points. Young Jimmy Locke was the sparkplug of the Saints with his defensive play, also scoring three field goals and a foul for seven points.

The Rangers, last year's champs, were handed their first defeat of the season by a revised and highly improved Wolverine squad. Aided by two newcomers, "Honey" Marsack and George Verdonck, the Wolverine's took an early lead and were never headed. Leading by a score of 14-9, at half time, the Wolverines poured on the heat in the half to hand the pacesetters a decisive beating by the tune of 30-17. Marsack, a former Grosse Pointe High cager, was the key man of the Wolverine attack. Displaying a fine floor game while scoring eight points, Verdonck was high point man for the evening with four field goals and a charity toss for nine points. Geo. Savory was high for the losers with eight points.

The X-V Blue Devils eeked out an unimpressive victory from the under-rated Essex A. C. by the narrow margin of 16-14. Essex displayed a great defensive game in holding the X-V's to seven fields goals and two fouls for 16 points for the evening. Rankin, playing manager of the Essex Club with six points was high for the evening. Boesen, a cool, steady guard, scored five for the winners. Manager Van Derwel of the X-V Blue Devils is moaning loudly over the loss of his star center, Dick Bodycombe. Bodycombe is expected to play varsity ball for Grosse Pointe High School, it was revealed last week.

Plans are being made to form a junior basketball league at the club. Any boys between the ages of 12-14, interested in such a league, should get in touch with John Curran, at the Club, immediately.

Woolworth Dance: Another Woolworth Dance is scheduled for this Friday, January 20, at 8 p. m. Everybody is welcome.

High School Notes

Last week's issue of The Tower, Grosse Pointe High School's weekly newspaper, is the product of the Journalism I class, which customarily has charge of editing the Tower once each semester under the direction of Miss Doris Trott, journalism instructor.

The paper was published under the leadership of Barbara Cowe, 12B, who was elected managing editor. Assisting her were: Barbara Godfrey, associate editor; Viva Cossey, third page editor; Glenn Siewert, sports editor; Phoebe McGuire, circulation manager; and Bob Flemming, business manager. Also doing their share were: Chilton Drysdale, Louise Carlson, Clayton Bennett, Marilyn Rosselle, Audrey Fisher, Carol McHenry, Marian Armstrong, Crystal Gunter, June Sarvis, George Savory, and Fred Phillips.

An article by Mr. William J. Watkins, director of music in Grosse Pointe schools, appears in the December issue of the Michigan Education Association Journal.

Entitled "After Many Years," the article shows that many children benefit from athletics, music, debating, and other similar school projects rather than only a few who make public performances, as is so often claimed. The school teams and other performance groups are merely "end-products," Mr. Watkins declares.

A profit of $200 was made from the sale of Christmas trees by Boy Scout Troop 39 during the five days before Christmas, state Mr. Chester Sampson, scoutmaster.

"I want to thank the students of the high school and their parents for the excellent co-operation they gave us in making this Christmas tree sale the biggest and most successful activity of our troop to this date," Mr. Sampson asserted.

Grosse Pointe High school art students carried off two prizes in the third annual poster contest sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Women's Club for the benefit of the Thrift Shop. A first prize went to Betsy Cadwell, 8B, and a second prize to Marilyn Smith, 8B.

Students in the fifth through the eighth grades in private, public and parochial schools took part in the contest.

The posters were on display for two weeks at the Alger House and were also exhibited at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Everyone who submitted a poster was invited to a tea which was held Friday, December 23, at the Alger House. The prizes were given out at this time.

Other high school students who contributed to the contest were: Jean Schultz, 8B; Mary Titus, 8B; Hazel Wood, 8B; Dick Sleje, 8A; Marilyn White, 8B; Edith Walter, 8A; Patricia Morse, 8B; Martha Hindquest, 8B; David Wallon, 8B; Ruth Gieche, 8B; Sam Seris, 8B; Mary Wade, 8B; Mildred Braund, 8B; Francis Burch, 8B; Atis Schroader, 8B; Jacqueline Hiet, 8A; Helen Alles, 8A; Elaine Waring, 8B.

This exhibit is on display in the art room and everyone interested in it may go in and see it.

Capt. W. M. Tompkins Is January 22 Speaker at Detroit Art Institute

Captain Warwick M. Tompkins, author, adventurer, and skipper of the 85-foot sailing boat "Wander Bird," will show his exclusive sea motion pictures and speak on "Twenty Thousand Miles in the Schooner Wander Bird" for the World Adventure Series at 3:30 next Sunday afternoon, January 22, at the Detroit Institute of Arts. Captain Tompkins will relate the pictorial story of his exciting voyage in the tiny Wander Bird from Gloucester to San Francisco via Africa, Rio, and Cape Horn. His pictures tell a breathtaking story of storms and squalls, of 90-mile-an-hour gales and the dauntless little Wander Bird fighting her way through 50-foot combers. Captain Tompkins skipped the schooner "Sir Arthur" in New Guinea when he was only 21. In 1933 he established a new trans-Atlantic speed record for sailing ships less than 100 feet long by making the voyage in 16 days, 21 hours. For the last nine years he has lived aboard the Wander Bird.

The monthly meeting of the Garden Club of Michigan was held at the home of Mrs. Roy D. Chapin, of Lake Shore road, Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs. William G. Mather, of Cleveland, spoke on "Conservation Projects for Garden Clubs," while Dr. Miles Pirnie, of the Kellogg Bird Sanctuary gave an illustrated lecture.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Novel Wetherbee entertained at a supper in their home on Whittier road last Sunday for their neighbors during the summer months at the St. Clair Flats.

"Christianity the Only Cure for the World's Leprosy," will be the subject of the sermon at the Grosse Pointe Lutheran Church, worshipping in the Richard school auditorium, Kercheval and McKinley, Sunday morning, January 22, at 11 o'clock, preached by the Rev. M. Luther Canup, D. D. pastor. There will be baptism of children at this service.

"Meeting Unexpected Temptations," will be the topic taught in the upper grades of the Sunday School at 9:45 a. m., where we have classes for all ages and grades.

Again the girls won over the boys in getting out the larger percentage of their enrollment January 15. Will the girls win over the boys again January 22? New scholars are enrolled in our school almost every week. We invite you and your family to join us and make our church your church home. Watch for our Father and Son services February 12, also our George Washington birthday celebration held jointly with the Alger Post V. F. W., the Burns Henry Post No. 303 American Legion, Ladies' Auxiliary to the Alger Post and Alger Post Sons of Veterans, February 19.

The Gospel Lesson for the coming Sunday, January 22, tells us that Jesus marvelled over the great faith of the Roman Centurion. This fact will be discussed in the sermon to be delivered on that day. The service will begin at 11:15 a. m. The Sunday School will be in session from 10 to 11 o'clock.

The Ladies' Aid will meet Wednesday of next week, January 25, at 1:30 p. m.

Eastminster Presbyterian Church

Sunday School at 9:45 a. m.

At 11 a. m. Dr. C. E. Kircher will speak on "Are You Square?" This is the first sermon in a series "Qualities God Expects in Us."

Youth meetings at 6:15 p. m.

At 7:30 p. m. there will be music by the male chorus, as well as the Eastminster choir. Dr. Kircher will speak on "The Greatest Blessing and the Greatest Curse in the World."

Wednesday evening will begin the first of a series of School of Missions programs. Prominent speakers of Detroit will be present, and address the adult groups. Classes for youth and children will be taught by Mrs. Everett Bradley and Miss Lila Carlson.

Lochmoor Protestant Church

The third sermon in a series on "Modern Meanings in Old Doctrines," being given by the Rev. O. W. Burdette Olson at the Lochmoor Protestant Church, Mason School on Vernier road, will be preached next Sunday, January 22, and is entitled "The Doctrine of Jesus Christ."

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed at this service.

Worship service is from 9:30-10:40, followed by an adult and young people's Sunday school service from 10:45-11:15 a. m. As usual, Sunday School will be held for all children from 2-11 years of age, from 9:30-11:15 a. m.

The new series, which began two weeks ago by the Rev. Olson, aims to more clearly define old religious and philosophical concepts in the light of the new generation. Two more will follow the one mentioned above. They are as follows: January 29, "The Doctrine of Sin"; February 5, "The Doctrine of Salvation."

School Music to Have Busy Year in Pointe

Musical activity in the Grosse Pointe Schools will move forward at a rapid pace during 1939 reports William J. Watkins, director of music for the Grosse Pointe schools. Events already scheduled for the first six months promise many a treat in store not only for the students but for the public as well. Programs are being planned which will include not only high school music groups but junior high and elementary school presentations.

First on the list of outstanding programs is the concert to be held in the High School auditorium tomorrow night, January 13. At that time a chorus of 100 girls will present the "Song of Man," a cantata; a mixed chorus of 90 will offer Bruch's "Fair Ellen," and a select group of voices will sing two numbers. Mr. John Finch is the director and soloists will be Elizabeth Keydell, Don Bliss '35 and Betty Underwood, a former student. Final number of this concert will be the Gilbert and Sullivan Operetta "Trial by Jury," presented by the A. Capella Choir.

On January 26 the A. Capella Choir will again appear in two groups of songs as part of the Commencement exercises. A group of seventh grade boys from the Defer Annex under the direction of Miss Frances Loucks is planning a program for presentation early in March. The week of March 19 finds Detroit the center of school music interest because of the biennial meeting of the North Central Music Educators Conference. On April 1 the schools of Grosse Pointe will act as host to the annual festival of the Southeastern Michigan Band and Orchestra Association. This is an all-day event culminating in a fine evening concert. The High School band will appear in a formal concert in the spring and again hopes to attend the State Festival in Ann Arbor on April 29. On the evenings of May 26 and 27 the University of Michigan Symphony Orchestra and soloists from the University School of Music will again act as assisting artists for the presentation of Mendelssohn's "Elijah." The fine reception last spring of Gounod's St. Cecilia Mass has prompted the renewal of this event in which over 100 Grosse Pointe students participated.

Probably the largest musical event ever held in Grosse Pointe will take place on the High School campus the evening of June 9. Students from every school in the district, elementary, Junior High, Senior High, choruses, glee clubs and bands will combine in what is hoped will be a concert of more than local interest.

Jim Tully to Speak on Town Hall Series

Wednesday, Jan. 25th

Jim Tully, noted author and leading Hollywood authority, comes to the Fisher Theatre next Wednesday, January 25, at 11 a. m. to speak before the Detroit Town Hall. His subject will be "Behind the Scenes in Hollywood."

Tully's fare for calling a spade a spade has made him the most widely read writer on the movies, and reputedly the highest paid. He has been assistant to Charlie Chaplin, a director in the movies, and on intimate terms with both actors and directors in the world's largest picture colony.

In his intensely dramatic life, Jim Tully had to fight overwhelming odds. Raised in a "poor house," with no education, friends or money, he became farm laborer, link heater, tramp, circus roustabout, chain-maker and pugilist. Today his books and writings have raised him to the top rank of realistic writers. Among his widely read books are "Emmett Lawler," "Beggars of Life," "Jarnegan," "Circus Parade" and "Shanty Irish."

Tickets are on sale at Grinnell's Music Store, Detroit.

Have you ever hunted in the dark to turn on a light? Aside from the lurking ambush of an open cupboard door (a favorite object to bump into in the dark) there are many good reasons for not putting up with this annoyance. One's time can be spent much more pleasantly than in groping for a dangling chain on a light fixture in the center of the room. A light switch on the wall by the door costs very little, and pays for itself many times over in convenience and safety. Telephone any electrical contractor for an estimate on this work. Christian Science

"Truth" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, January 22.

The Golden Text (Deuteronomy 32: 3, 4) is: "Ascribe ye greatness unto our God. He is the Rock, his work is perfect; for all his ways are judgment; a God of truth and without iniquity, just and right is he."

Among the Bible citations is this passage (Psalm 57:9, 10): "I will praise thee, O Lord, among the people: I will sing unto thee among the nations. For thy mercy is great unto the heavens, and thy truth unto the clouds."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 286): "The understanding of Truth gives full faith in Truth, and spiritual understanding is better than all burnt offerings."

Close-Checking Acorns to Oppose Grosse Pointe High Cagers on Friday

Grosse Pointe High School's basketball team is scheduled to meet the strong Royal Oak five on the local court this week.

Royal Oak is still using the zone style of defense which has proved irritating to the Blue Devils in the past. This contest will, as always, be a close defensive battle. Each year the contests between these two rivals have been highlighted by close checking which has resulted in very low scores.

The records show that the Blue Devils have emerged victorious in five of the eight games the two teams have played. In 1936 the Acorns came out on top with a 23 to 12 score. Last year the home lads trimmed the North Siders by scores of 16-13 and 28-17.

On January 27 the local cage team will journey to Monroe for the final game of the present semester. This game will ring the curtain on the careers of four players for Grosse Pointe. The four leaving are: Donald Beaver and Harold Lee, who will graduate, and Billie Scott and Ray Touhey, who will become ninth semester students. Monroe has often proved that it has a fighting spirit which is hard to overcome. Next in line to Fordson, Monroe has probably the strongest team in the Border Cities League. Previously it has downed Wyandotte by a 20 to 19 count. Fordson just barely eked out a 17 to 14 victory over the Trojans.

Veteran Educator to Be Honored

Edward E. Gallup, veteran educational leader in Michigan, is to be honored at a dinner Friday evening at the Peoples' Church in East Lansing, when more than 400 friends and associates of Mr. Gallup will pay tribute to the "father of vocational agriculture in Michigan."

Born on a farm in Jackson County, Mr. Gallup has had a lengthy career in Michigan educational circles. He is a graduate of Jackson High School, Michigan State College, and the University of Michigan. His teaching experience includes two years in the rural schools of Ingham County, five years as superintendent at Hanover, three as head of the Chelsea school system, five years as principal of the Adrian High School and five years as superintendent of Monroe schools. He also served as a summer school instructor at Michigan State Normal College for five years.

Mr. Gallup has served as president of the American Association for the Advancement of Agriculture Teaching, an honor accorded him for his work in founding the vocational education program in Michigan, which he served as directing head for 18 years. For 18 years he was secretary of the Michigan High School Oratorical Association, and also served as its president. He has also served as president of the Michigan High School Principals' Association.

Ilya Schkolnik Guest Soloist at Symphony Concert January 26

No season of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra would seem to be complete without the appearance of the orchestra's popular concertmaster, Ilya Schkolnik, as soloist. The noted violinist's annual appearance as soloist with the symphony consistently has marked one of the high points in the orchestra's winter concerts.

Schkolnik, therefore, will be soloist at the ninth subscription concert in Orchestra Hall, Thursday night, January 26. He will, in fact, perform a Herculean task, playing as he will, two complete concertos with the orchestra. These works, Tartini's Concerto in D Minor and Stravinsky's Concerto, are as sharply contrasting as any two major violin compositions can be and permit the qualified performer an opportunity to demonstrate all the details of fine violin playing. That Schkolnik is fully equipped to meet the demands of these important numbers is common knowledge to thousands of his local admirers.

It will be a week of violinists for the orchestra, actually, for at the third of the popular-priced concerts, Saturday night, January 28, the soloist also will be a violinist. In this instance the assisting artist will be Viola Mitchell gifted young American, who has won enviable success on both sides of the Atlantic.
