Grosse Exaggerations?

Another week and another rumor being "hushed" about. What local heiress is said to be contemplating divorce from her present spouse, in order to wed one of Detroit's leading courtiers? Our guess is that it's just one of those 'court of rumor relations.'

Rumor number two, is that Felix, of Felix Francois Beauty Salon, is going to retire. We are happy to announce that such is not the case. The checker-upper-on-things, who plays Watson to our Sherlock, has uncovered the fact that Mr. Felix intends to carry on as usual. So there!

Impression Quickys:

Mrs. Paul Deming Jr.—Little Audrey's big sister.

Mrs. Charles T. Fisher Jr.—Lavender and old lace.

Mrs. Charles A. Dean—"Carmen" driving a station wagon.

Mrs. W. Dean Robinson—Queen Victoria doing the "shag."

Mrs. C. Henry Buhl—Madam Racamer on a pogo stick.

Mrs. Cortland K. Larned—Coco-cola in an "old fashioned" glass.

Mrs. Boyer Candler—Nell Gwynn on a merry-go-round.

About four nights ago, as the crow flies, the Captain of a boat owned by a local sportsman, saw a flare on Lake St. Clair. It looked ominous, so he chugged to the scene and found two elderly couples aboard a sailboat, which was aground and pounding on some rocks. Since the Captain was unable to get his boat near the periled craft because of rough seas, he sent out an S. O. S. which was picked up by Cleveland and relayed to our Coast Guard, who had a boat at the scene in fifteen minutes. The marooned sailboat was tugged to shore and all occupants were safely landed. The point of the story, (if you're looking for one), is that the people, after finding out who was responsible for their rescue, left the dock without one word of thanks. If they happen to read this largest column of its size in America, we hope they will feel ashamed enough to DO something about it.

Now that these what-is-so-rare-as-a-day-in-June days are upon us, we've decided to do all the things we've threatened to do since last summer, ie: cook a weenie in the back yard; finish reading Anthony Adverse; try everything that's advertised on the radio; write the lyrics to two songs whose titles we heard years ago, "Everyone Has Someone, But All I Have Is You" and "When I'm With You I'm So Lonesome."

Debutantes may come and debutantes may go, but Bob Evans and Don Jennings STILL remain prominent in the stag lines. 'Tis many a long moon since we first saw them "looking 'em over" from the side-lines. And speaking of stag-lines, the beautiful Susan Seyburn is tres popular with our young blades. A blades is meant to 'cut,' and when Susan is on the dance floor, there is one continuous trek in her direction.

We hear that the new owners are thinking of modernizing the facade of our quaint little Punch and Judy Theatre. Also, we understand they will instigate that family-to-go-or-not-to-go problem, the "double feature." Personally, we haven't any drastic feelings on the matter, but lots of families with movie-minded offspring, object to having children lose their beauty sleep; if you've ever tried to drag a youngster out of a movie theatre before he's seen all there is to see, you'll know what we mean. When we saw the preview of "Mid-Summer Night's Dream," which lasted for three hours, a child sitting in front of us refused to budge when the lights went up. As his parents prodded him out of his seat, we heard, "Aw gee, no Mickey Mouse?"

Silhouette: Her voice is one of the most fascinating things about her. Someone once said it was like a "muted" viola; low pitched and husky, with all the rough edges smoothed away. She is charming, well poised

Berkey and Gay Offer Furniture Bargains

Grosse Pointers who take pride in the quality of their home furnishings will be especially interested in the Berkey and Gay Furniture Factory operations at Convention Hall.

Berkey and Gay factory decided back in February that people would rather buy direct from the factory and save the retail dealer's profit, and because of the extensiveness of their line of furniture, no one except the factory could have a complete display of it. The finest homes in Grosse Pointe today are furnished in exquisite taste with Berkey and Gay furniture; and this new plan of saving 40 to 50 per cent makes it possible for the home owner to have the finest furniture in his home at prices that he would pay for furniture of unknown manufacture and quality.

The showrooms are located at 4601 Woodward Ave., in Convention Hall, and occupy over 22,000 square feet of floor space.

Open evenings until 9 p. m.

The older students are enacting the former Broadway success of several seasons, "The House That Love Built," a fast-moving, musical revue with outstanding hit tunes (composed by Frank Gillen), melodies that you will be humming when you leave the auditorium.

The public is invited.

Grosse Pointe School Playgrounds Open

The playgrounds of all Grosse Pointe schools are now open and under supervision of experienced men and women. The attendants at the various grounds are:

Richar—Ruth Curl.

High School—Robt. Morse, Roy Koch.

Mason—Barbara Cation.

Grosse Pointe High School Graduates Its Largest Class

The largest class in its history was graduated from Grosse Pointe High School last Thursday evening in outdoor commencement exercises which attracted an audience of approximately 500 people in spite of threatening skies.

Diplomas were presented by Charles E. Leavitt, until recently assistant principal of the high school, to 206 students. Combined with the 76 graduates who received diplomas in January, a total of 282 boys and girls have been graduated this year. When Grosse Pointe's first class was graduated in 1925, diplomas were required for 24 seniors.

Mr. Leavitt was asked to present the diplomas to the graduates by Dr. E. R. Van Kleck, superintendent of schools, who pointed out that Mr. Leavitt leaves the high school this season to become principal of the new John D. Pierce Junior High School.

Quoting from an article written for the school literary magazine by Jack Mueller, one of the graduates, Dr. Van Kleck urged upon the class an appreciation of the responsibilities attending the privilege of living in "one of the most favored areas in one of the most favored states of the richest (Continued on Page Two)

New, Colorful Spoons for Iced Coffee and Tea

Independent Neighborhood Grocers are offering a set of unusual Beetleware spoons of beautiful new design at a special price of 10 cents with each purchase of Coronet Coffee.

These spoons are designed for use when serving iced coffee, iced tea, and sold drinks of all kinds. They are available in the newest striking Fiesta colors—red, blue, green, and cream yellow, one of each in a set of four.

The design is modern with reinforced extra long handles that will withstand hard usage. The spoon end is shaped and designed to facilitate crushing sugar, stirring ice and other contents of glass.

In comparison, the low price quoted on these spoons and the prevailing thrifty price on Coronet Coffee, offers Review readers an unusual purchase opportunity. Illustration and description of this offer will be found in the House of Gehlert advertisement on page five.

Grosse Pointe Park Residents Assert $1500 Fence Probable Menace

Bitter and sarcastic criticism of the high fence recently erected in Lake Front Park, at the foot of Alter Road, Grosse Pointe Park, continues to pour into the office of this paper. Visitors to the park have facetiously named the new fence "The park kennel fence." It is asserted that the high fence just erected at a cost of $1,500.00 of taxpayer's money is not only unsightly in its effect upon the landscape architecture, but might prove dangerous in the event of a rain storm, due to the tendency of persons to crowd exits when under stress. It is pointed out that the turnstiles operate very slowly and are a very close fit for stout persons.

D. J. Leithauser, newly appointed commissioner in charge of the park for this season, has taken full credit and responsibility for the high fence. In a statement printed upon a penny postcard which has been mailed promiscuously to addresses in the village, Leithauser, after praising his new system of keeping persons out of the park, says: "This proves the worth of the system and the new fence which was installed upon my recommendation." Copies of this post card have been received by not only residents but by business firms with stores and offices in the village, although the Lake Front Park has been restricted to use by residents only.

The Village Commission is being severely criticized for permitting the new commissioner to operate the park in a high-handed manner, refusing admission to children of several Grosse Pointe Park churches, because some of them were not residents of the village.

What we need is some good common sense in the operation of the Lake front park which is the property of the entire village and which has been paid for and is being sustained by taxes collected from all property owners.

Why so much power has been granted a newly elected commissioner is the question being asked by a great many thoughtful citizens.

Alger Post Activities

All members are urged to call at Club Rooms for particulars concerning the annual Post picnic. Quite important.

The Post ball team will engage the Grosse Pointe Park Police and Firemen's team in combat this Friday. Those who attended last week's game with the House of August team and the festivities immediately thereafter, enjoyed a rare treat. A return engagement with this team will be played at the annual picnic of the Post on July 9.

The Sons of Veterans Drum and Bugle Corps is constantly and diligently striving for perfection. The corps will participate in the July 4th parade in Detroit.

Not having seen hide nor hair of Jake Berry for the past three weeks, our conclusions are the fishing season has opened.

See you Friday at the ball game.

Garden Party Benefit

Mrs. Jerome Ankle, of 646 Lake-pointe avenue, will hold a garden party at her home, Tuesday afternoon, June 27, for the benefit of the St. Ambrose Unit, League of Catholic Women. The admission is 50 cents, and reservations may be made through Mrs. Ankle or Mrs. William Frahm.

Among those on the committee assisting Mrs. Ankle are Mesdames John Renaud, F. N. Wilson, Joseph Parthum, G. W. Glenwallis, Ros. J. Conroy, Gertrude Brooks, J. L. Weldon, Norman Nichol, E. B. Adelman, Edwin Sneathkamp, E. L. King, Ernest Cockill and F. R. Kilcoyne.

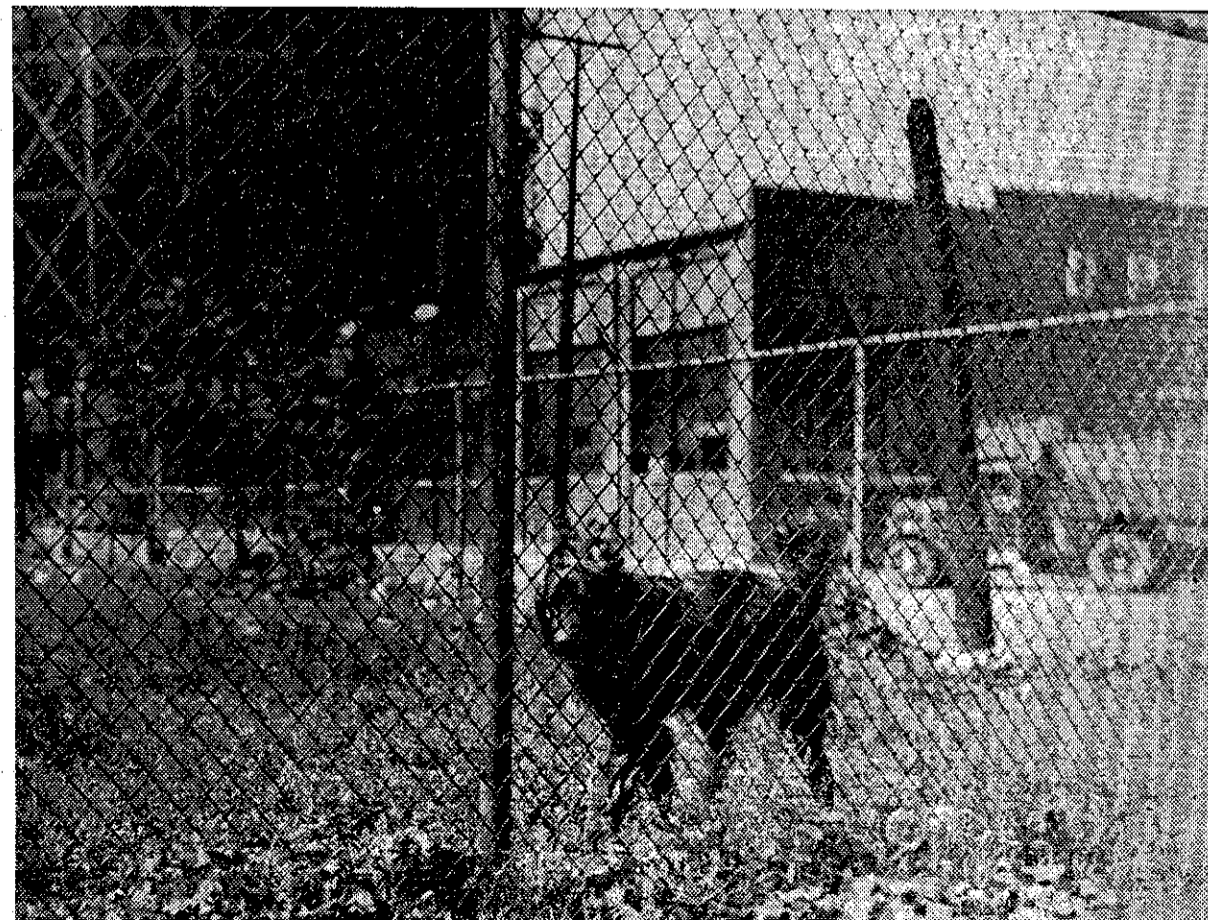

Mrs. Ankle's garden is noted for its beautiful roses, and many will enjoy this opportunity of spending an afternoon in such a delightful setting.

FENCES—INSIDE—LOOKING OUT!

LAKE PARK FENCE

DOG POUND FENCE

Similarity of the new high fence in Grosse Pointe Park's lake front park and the high fence surrounding the City of Detroit Dog Pound at the foot of 24th St. was called to our attention. Here are the photos of the two fences. Visitors have dubbed the new park fence "The park kennel fence." Commissioner Liethauser takes credit for the fence.

Grosse Exaggerations?

(Continued from Page One) and intelligent beyond her years. She is said to have written the cleverest letters that ever came out of a girl's school. She is tall, slender, broad-shouldered; she has flowing ash blonde hair and twinkling blue eyes. As prominent in New York and Newport as she is here, and was once called our number one Glamour Girl. She addresses animals of every description and at one time her family had to cope with a goose, which she insisted share the comforts of home with her four Siamese cats. She is usually the first to try a new lipstick, hair-do, bubble bath, or any of the feminine trivia that women 'go in' for. She likes to sleep late and often does. Her blue and white dressing room is comfortably modern, and prominent in the decor are small china animals which she collects with an eye toward whimsy. Golf, tennis, riding, swimming and dancing rhumbas, are the things she enjoys doing. She likes foreign foods, customs and people. Loathes hats, parlor games and bores. She is popular with both sexes, young and old but still maintains a normal head size. She will soon be taken out of circulation by the Hon. Michael Strutt. Her name, Aerelle Frazer.

In closing Dr. Van Kleeck said, "I give you this challenge, a challenge which you share with the thousands of other graduates of our educational institutions, to stand up for and defend in your daily life those principles of democracy which have made America great, to do your parts in guiding and guarding the future of our American democracy, and in the words of the oath of office taken by our presidents, to preserve, protect, and defend that democracy."

The June class included 32 honors graduates, announced Paul A. Rehmus, principal, in presenting class awards.

The Alpha Tau Omega scholarship of $200 was won by William Shoemaker. This award goes annually to four boys in the metropolitan area from among the candidates proposed by the high schools in the area. This is the second time a Grosse Pointe boy has been given the scholarship.

The Bosch and Lomb award, a medal presented each year to the student most outstanding in science and mathematics, was also won by William Shoemaker.

Albert Grunewald was awarded a watch by the local chapter of the Rotary Club in recognition of his record of unselfish service to the school. This annual award was established last year.

The highest ranking student in scholarship who had also won a varsity letter was William Shoemaker. By virtue of that record he won the Trinity College Alumni Award of a dictionary.

Six students received scholarship awards from the high school Mothers' Club. A $200 scholarship was presented to George Whyte. The following June and January graduates were chosen for $120 awards: Viva Cossey, George Gerow, Eric Gottschalk, Jean Kilmer and Joan Ruetter.

A scholarship of $100 was presented by the Student Association of the high school to Catharine Schully.

The Frederick M. Alger Memorial Scholarship, presented by American Legion Post No. 995, was granted to Carl Schaening, who was chosen by a vote of the senior class and of a faculty committee as the graduate who excelled in Americanism, citizenship, character, and in contributions to the development of sound American principles in the school.

Chosen as the most outstanding girl and boy in the class, Catherine Raupagh and Carl Schaening will have their names engraved upon the Mothers' Club cup, an honor conferred upon the most superior girl and boy of each graduating class.

Formal commencement speeches were given by three of the graduates, Catherine Raupagh, Barbara Clark, and Marcus Everett, who discussed various phases of the work of the school.

Music was provided by the A Cappella Choir and by Marcia Netting and Susan Dannreuther, pianists. The invocation was pronounced by Reverend A. H. Loeber.

Training in Lip Reading Offered to High Students

In an effort to give students who have difficulty in hearing the opportunity to decrease this handicap, training in lip reading has been given to several students this semester as a part of the service of Grosse Pointe schools. According to Mr. L. M. Bartlett, Director of Child Accounting and Adjustment, it is hoped that arrangements can be made so that all pupils in need of such training may profit from this service next year.

Since it is not always possible to detect persons who have difficulty in hearing, Mr. Bartlett has asked students having defective hearing to report this fact to the principal or to him directly.

Contract Bridge

By P. G. MUNRO Originator of The Autobidder Contract Bridge, like the game of Chess, is scientific. Mr. Culbertson and his associates have devoted years of study and analysis of card combinations, and have given to the world certain formulae for accurate bidding. Unfortunately, however, the large majority of bridge players continue to play bridge year in and year out without making any effort toward improvement.

In the following hand, West's lack of knowledge in bidding fundamentals is responsible for the loss of a game at spades which would have given East and West a rubber:

North S-Q H-K 6 4 3 D-Q 8 4 3 C-J 10 9 2. West S-K 10 8 7 5 H-9 D-9 5 2 C-8 4 3. East S-A J 3 H-A Q 2 D-A 10 7 C-K Q 7 5. South S-9 6 2 H-J 10 8 7 5 D-K J 6 C-A 6.

The Bidding: East and West vulnerable:

East South West North 1 notrump Pass 2 spades Pass 2 notrump Pass 3 spades Pass Pass Pass

West's takeout of his partner's opening one-notrump bid with a six-card suit is correct. But West's second bid of three spades, after his partner's rebid of two-notrump, is a "sign-off" which informs his partner that his original takeout was made with a worthless six-card or longer suit. This, however, is not the case as West's six-card suit contains a King (1/4 honor-trick) and should have been shown by a bid of four spades.

East, believing from the "sign-off" that his partner's hand contained only a worthless six-card suit, was justified in passing three spades since he foresaw the possible loss of at least four tricks, and did not dare rebid three-notrump knowing that only a miracle would enable him to enter his partner's hand to make good the long spades.

Questions on Contract Bridge will be gladly answered without charge. Please address your questions to P. G. Munro, in care of The Grosse Pointe Review, 15121 Kercheval Ave., Grosse Pointe, Mich., and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Major Burns Henry Post News

We are indeed sorry to learn of the serious illness of Mrs. Dave Porter. At this time we do not know the nature of her sickness but understand she is confined to her bed. You women folks might drop her a line or better still, take a trip to her home. The address—3889 Lemay avenue. She is sure to appreciate a visit from you. We are able to announce at this time the re-organization of the Drum and Bugle Corps. Tuesday evening, June 13, 12 boys turned out for the first meeting. Unfortunately the bugle section was not so heavily represented, so we were unable to play. Several buglers have promised to be present at future rehearsals and we are looking forward to hearing the Corps play again after a long time out. If any of you members harbor a secret year to play either a drum or a bugle, turn out Tuesday nights, at 7 p. m. in the rear of the Grosse Pointe High School, corner of Fisher road and Grosse Pointe Blvd., Grosse Pointe Farms. Come one, come all. Ye olde tyme members bring your instruments.

Clem Whately is still looking for a home in Grosse Pointe but no can find. His house is still standing after the heavy wind storm but methinks 'twill never be the same, hence the desire to move. If you know of such a place give Clem a ring.

Remember — Drum Corp practice each and every Tuesday night, rear of Grosse Pointe High School and we'll be seeing you. T. E. X.

At Briggs stadium the boys will see the game from a section reserved for

A staff of six professionally trained men direct and supervise the activities for boys.

The leadership offered by these capable and understanding men assures parents that their boys will come in contact with fine Christian leadership.

Members of the Summer Fun Club will have a chance to enjoy a number of "Know Detroit" trips. Special buses transport the groups on these trips and each trip is carefully supervised.

Hannan Y. M. C. A. is located directly opposite Waterworks Park at 10401 E. Jefferson avenue at Garland. It is easily reached by both street car and bus.

Most boys like to make things and will be given a chance to choose a class in handicraft for the summer.

The Y. M. C. A. operates two summer camps. One is Camp Nissokone, an all-summer camp located on Van Etten Lake.

Ohiyesa and is a short-term camp located about 50 miles northwest of Detroit on Fish Lake.

The Summer Fun Program is only a part of the year round program offered to "Y" members. Interesting, well-supervised activities are carried on throughout the entire year.

Every other Friday night days have a program of baseball, movies and swimming with the sons.

Boys who want to get in on this program should register at the Y, 10401 East Jefferson. Lenox 7200.

Many G. P. Graduates Plan Further Education

Judging by the present aspect of things, over three-fourths of Grosse Pointe High School's June-graduating class will obtain further education after graduation.

Wayne seems to be the favorite college for the June '39 graduates, for 15 Grosse Pointe students plan to attend Wayne. The University of Michigan run a close second with 13 students intending to go to that institution.

The colleges chosen represent a wide range, geographically, as seniors say they hope to enter institutions in Arizona, Indiana, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Washington, Ohio, South Carolina, North Carolina, Iowa, Virginia, Florida, New York, and Connecticut as well as in Michigan.

Twenty-one boys and nine girls expect to work immediately after graduation, and 13 students are still undecided as to their future.

Of the 208 students who expect to graduate, only 21 started their school career in Grosse Pointe schools, according to a questionnaire filled out in the senior home room.

'Little Dies' Bill Defeated in Senate

"The defeat of the Baldwin 'Little Dies' Bill in the Senate today will be hailed by the people of Michigan who cherish American democracy as a signal victory for the cause of civil rights and our democratic traditions," Reverend J. H. Bollens, Chairman of the Civil Rights Federation, stated when the Senate voted 16 to 10 to defeat Senate Bill 50.

After a heated campaign of opposition the bill came up this week for action in the rush of legislation considered on heavy senate calendars. A public hearing on the measure, which proposed a commission vested with a mandatory responsibility of probing any organization or individual accused by anyone of being subversive or seditious, was held on April 25th before the Judiciary Committee.

Five hundred persons were present at the hearing in which speakers representing the Michigan Council of Churches, the Detroit Chapter of the National Lawyers Guild, the Congress of Industrial Organizations, the Civil Rights Federation, and numerous other groups opposed the Baldwin Bill as undemocratic and dangerous to the best interests of the people of Michigan. This hearing was held when the bill was returned to committee on the motion of Senator Allen Ludington after it had been voted out into the senate.

Recognizing the Baldwin Senate Bill 50 as a dangerous effort on the part of the same reactionary forces who sought to pass the Dunkel-Baldwin Bill in the Michigan legislature four years ago, the Civil Rights Federation organized a vigorous campaign of unifying major church, labor, farm, legal, professional, and fraternal groups in a campaign to secure its defeat. Representatives of the Federation contacted leaders in many communities in Michigan in an effective campaign to articulate the will of the people against the fascist-like probe which the passage of this measure would have instituted.

The speaker for the Civil Rights Federation at the April 25th public hearing, was Reverend Owen A. Knox, who upon announcement of the defeat of the bill, commented as follows: "The defeat of the 'Little Dies' Bill by conclusive vote shows what can be done when all forces of labor and liberalism work together. Democracy can be maintained and extended by thoughtful adherence to the Bill of Rights. Let everyone be heard. By careful safeguarding the rights of minority groups and by insisting upon thorough democratic procedure we will be able to defeat the spirit of fascism in the United States. All forces who sincerely believe in democracy must submerge their prejudices and stand united in this one great ideal. The defeat of Senate Bill 50 is a clear cut victory for united liberalism."

Fighting Tuberculosis with Knowledge

Knowledge is one of the prime needs of man if he wishes to be healthy. Ordinarily, a high level of community intelligence goes hand in hand with a good record in disease control. To the average citizen knowledge gives a longer life and greater freedom from disease.

Records on file in the offices of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association show what has happened in respect to tuberculosis. Since 1907, when the Association was organized to battle tuberculosis in Michigan, the annual death rate from that disease has dropped from 1024 to 41.6 per 100,000 population. During that period of thirty-one years, health education has been a major weapon in the fight to control the spread of the White Plague.

Throughout the entire year the Association conducts its health education campaign which includes the showing of talking motion pictures and the distribution of health literature. Thus Michigan people are kept informed with modern facts about tuberculosis. During April, when health education was concentrated in the twelfth annual Early Diagnosis Campaign, the Association distributed 27,000 pamphlets. They were prepared especially for the Campaign and were sent to people throughout the state.

The Association's efforts to give Michigan people modern information about tuberculosis are financed entirely through tuberculosis Christmas seal funds.

Christian Science

"Christian Science" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, June 25.

The Golden Text (Isaiah 49:13) is: "Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains; for the Lord hath comforted his people, and will have mercy upon his afflicted."

Among the Bible citations is this passage (John 14:12): "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 107): "Through Christian Science, religion and medicine are inspired with a diviner nature and essence; fresh pinions are given to faith and understanding, and thoughts acquaint themselves intelligently with God."

Practical Civic Planning Kelly Ruling Means Just What It Says

Professional City Planning came into existence as a result of civic urgency and necessity, in the interests of protection and economy.

Organization is indispensable for growth and development. Organization with Planning is best insurance for controlled growth and perfect development.

Planning is easily confused with administrative management. Instead, it is a technique used by management in the interests of safety and efficiency, and for a quicker realization of desired objectives.

Planning is a work program involving fact-finding research, fact-finding assembly, and fact-finding analysis, in order to establish appropriate methods, to correctly design plans, to formulate adequate policies and to integrate essential inter-relationships. By employing scientific Planning processes of investigation and analysis, conscious direction, continuity of interest, and harmonious coordination in all of its activities are accomplished.

As a technique, Planning is independent of any particular type or set form but is dependent on complete assembly of pertinent facts; through understanding of their relationships; scientific analysis and keen foresight in the interpretation and application of results. As a means of method, a process or procedure, Planning is neither good nor bad in itself, but is good or bad according to the desired objective, the motives that govern, the persistent patience and continued activity that rules, the co-ordinated support obtained, and the permanency of resulting accomplishments.

The value of Planning can be realized only in its application. The civic techniques, sound principles, scientific analysis and keen foresight are useless unless utilized. Improvement in Planning is directly proportional to its use.

The objective of Planning is not in the perfection of a process, but in the interests of humanity—that people may have greater opportunities to enjoy living, to live longer and better, and to hasten the realization of the desired future objectives.

That the ruling of Harry F. Kelly, Secretary of State, against his department issuing any more low numbers or so-called "trick license" plates means exactly what it said is the opinion of Representative John B. Smith of Gratiot County, who early this session introduced House Bill No. 580, after an investigation of the system now in effect in the motor vehicle division of the Department of State. His bill would have made it unlawful for any motor vehicle license plate to be of special type or bear any special insignia or advertising device. If any such special license plates were made the Secretary of State could be by the terms of Smith's bill issue them at a cost of $2.50 for each set of plates so issued.

After being satisfied that the present Secretary of State is not issuing any type of special plates, Representative Smith asked that House Bill 580 be referred to committee.

The outlawing of trick plates is undoubtedly the most popular order with the public at large that has been made in many a day as the old system was costly to the state and caused endless confusion and brought many "head-aches" to officials and citizens in general, alike.

Leithauser Considers Himself Superior to Other Commissioners

You no doubt have, by this time, received one of Commissioner Leithauser's cards in reference to the Park. From the information thereon one would assume that he thinks himself the head-man in all affairs pertaining to the Park, but do not overlook the fact that the Village is still being operated by the duly elected President and six Commissioners and that the Park belongs to the property owners and taxpayers who contribute to the upkeep of the Park by the payment of their taxes.

Since the Park was created in 1931 all affairs of the Park have been handled from the Municipal Building and while we have been operating the Park we have learned many things and from time to time we have tried to correct the many evils which naturally come up in the operation of a public place. But Commissioner Leithauser seems to think himself so superior in all matters that he does not even want the public to leave their application cards at the Village Hall, which would indicate that he has very little faith in anybody connected with the Municipal Building. It is only natural that people will call the Clerk's office on matters pertaining to their Park Permits, but since he has removed all of the records to the Park and then hired a Superintendent to operate the Park, we are unable to answer any questions. The tickets for the Park were in the care of Commissioner Leithauser and his Superintendent, and since he has discharged this Superintendent he claims there is a shortage of 1,000 tickets. WHO GOT THE TICKETS? Figure it out for yourself.

On this card he states that they have turned away over 200 people in one day which will be nothing if we ever get hot weather as there is nothing to indicate that the Park is private and in most of the above cases these folks who were turned away had made application and had not received their cards.

In the matter of guests, if you will stop to figure it out it is a simple matter to find out why there are so many so-called strangers at the Park. There are about 3,300 families residing in the Village of Grosse Pointe Park and each family receives one guest card containing 20 free guest privileges, which amounts to 66,000 free guest privileges this season, besides the regular residents who have their own cards. If 1,000 residents were to go to the Park and be accompanied by say three friends, you would have 1,000 Grosse Pointers and 3,000 outsiders. Give this matter a little thought.

The fact that Commissioner Leithauser refused the children of St. Ambrose School and other schools in Grosse Pointe Park the privilege of having a picnic with their teachers at the Park on the last days of school, surely has not helped him any, especially after allowing a group of teachers from a neighboring Village the use of the Park without passes or paying.

WILLIAM G. STAMMAN,
Village Clerk.

Detroit Dairy Council Urges "Let's Use More Milk, Milk Products"

"Let's use more milk and milk products" is the slogan for the June 1939 Dairy Month being sponsored by the Michigan Milk Producers Association in Detroit and Michigan in conjunction with a national movement being launched today throughout the United States.

B. F. Beach, secretary of the Michigan Milk Producers Association states "Throughout the United States, June is a month of profusion of sunshine and grass, which means an abundance of milk and dairy products. Millions of dairy farmers in America and thousands in Michigan are standing face-to-face with huge milk production and with the resultant necessity of disposing of it at fair, reasonable prices. If the farmers earning and spending power," continued Beach, "can be stimulated, it will be an economic benefit to Detroit and Michigan, as well as to the rest of the nation."

Realizing the necessity of utilizing this June surplus of milk, many distributors in Detroit and the metropolitan area are co-operating with chain stores, drug stores and variety stores, engaged in selling milk and dairy products, in arranging store and window displays. In addition, radio announcements and newspaper advertisements are planned.

"The consumer will be greatly benefited, also," concluded Mr. Beach. "Leading physicians, dentists and nutritionists, all agree that a plentiful supply of milk and dairy products is needed in the daily diet of children and adults, alike. With the present low price of dairy products, every individual can well afford to increase his consumption of these health-promoting foods."

Received Cooley Cane Award

Charles Probst, of Detroit, received the Cooley Cane awarded annually to the outstanding stump-speaking junior member of Sigma Rho Tau, at the honorary engineering society's annual Tung Oil banquet. The cane, which is the gift of Dean Emeritus Mortimer E. Cooley, of the College of Engineering, dates back to the very early days of the college when a picket fence with a cowproof gateway of staggered posts guarded the campus from wandering cattle. This old fence was taken down in 1887 and a few choice bits were turned into canes. Years later Dean Cooley presented one of the canes to the society, to be awarded to the outstanding junior student.

'Good Food is Good Health' Contest Winners Announced

Winners of the major prizes in the "Good Food is Good Health" contest sponsored by Coronet Coffee and the House of Gehlert have been announced by the judges, Mr. C. Lee Henry, President, Detroit Caterers-Restaurant Association; William J. Cusick, Business Manager, Detroit Retail Grocers Association and J. Lee Barrett, Executive Vice President Detroit Convention and Tourist Bureau, as follows:

First prize winner—Mrs. Marah N. Crane, 531 Gardenia Street, Royal Oak, Michigan—trip for two to the New York World's Fair with all expenses paid—cash award to Acorn Restaurant, Royal Oak, Michigan, for giving out winning entry blank.

Second prize winner—Miss Margaret O. Taylor, 80 West Warren, Detroit—5-day cruise on Great Lakes for two with all expenses paid. Cash award to Rheume's Restaurant, 4825 Woodward, for giving out winning entry blank.

Third prize winner—Mrs. Shirley Burdick Hochman, 9103 Linwood, Detroit—trip for two to Niagara Falls and Buffalo with all expenses paid. Cash award to Rois Grocery, 8937 Linwood for giving out winning entry blank.

The large number of entries in this contest, which proved very popular, has delayed selection of all the prize winners. The judging is continuing as rapidly as possible and the other winners will be announced next week.

Of particular interest in this contest, the entries very clearly indicated that the standard of American living is still on the upward trend. Typical of the American family to desire and strive for better things, the entries in the contest showed a preference for better food for better living. An examination of the entries reveals why coffee is the universal American beverage. It would seem that almost everyone is aware that nowhere else in the world can such good coffee be served so economically as in American homes and restaurants.

The House of Gehlert, importers and roasters of Coronet Coffee for home use and special blends for the restaurant trade, have asked the Grosse Pointe Review to express to its readers their appreciation of the interest taken in the "Good Food is Good Health" House of Gehlert Coffee Contest.

Dates Set for Circus of American Legion

booked from all parts of America, as well as several from Europe which will make their first appearance in America.

Rudy Rudynoff, in charge of the "liberty" act, will present his 12 famous black and white spotted horses in their complicated routine. These beautiful and astonishingly intelligent equines are part of a great herd of 60 horses, which includes the sleek Top Hat High Jumpers, the menage or high school group ridden by charming equestriennes, the resin backs and comedy mounts. The Zavatta troupe, internationally popular bareback riders, will be here for their first time, also the Zoppe Italian head-balancing trapeze artists. Other stars included in the two and a half hour program include the Six Antaleks in their high perch number, Ray Goody and Don Bernardo, slack wire comedy experts; Donahue and LaSalle, comedy acrobats; Daredevil Gay Best in his Slide for Life on one foot from the topmost point of the roof to the track; the Wen Hai Chinese novelty act; 20 pretty girl aerialists in a colorful Golden Whirl, and the Harolds and Voices in breath-taking flying aerial exhibitions.

One of the sensational highlights of the event will be the exhibition, twice each day, of the Great Gretonas on the high wire, 80 feet above the ground. This feature will be free to everyone.

Arabian stallions, midget ponies, trained dogs, monkeys and three of the funniest mules that ever barked in a circus ring will share the limelight with Christy's herd of great, ponderous pachyderms (also called elephants).

Of course there'll be clowns. Yes sir, more than a score and a half of the most comical 'Joey's' that ever emerged from clown alley, will be like the "bad penny" — everywhere. Watch them—they have a habit of picking on good-looking customers to help them in their stunts. Each season the clowns concoct a brand new batch of gags, and this year's crop is a pippin (you can take our word for it, 'cause we had a preview).

As a grand climax to every performance there will be a real Wild West concert. Joe Greer, one of the finest horsemen alive, is bringing his troupe of 30 saddle horses from his training ranch in Wisconsin, and the cleverest riders in America, for this event, which is being billed as an added attraction.

General admission tickets may be obtained from any member of any Legion post in the Detroit districts or direct from the Legion Home at Lafayette and Cass avenues. Reserved seat tickets are now on sale at the Legion Home, where a special staff is on duty to give prompt service on telephone and mail orders. Call Cadillac 1632 and make your reservations now.

Grosse Pointe High School Again Approved by North Central Assn.

Mr. Paul R. Rehms, principal of the Grosse Pointe High School has just been notified that this school has been approved by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools for the period ending June 30, 1940. In explanation of the term of approving, the local school authorities have been advised that it is the established policy of the Association to prepare each year a new list of approved secondary schools accorded this honor and that no school is approved by the North Central Association for a period longer than one year.

Before any school can be considered for approval by the North Central Association, it must be on the highest list of schools approved and accredited by the school authorities within the state. It must also meet the policies, regulations, and criteria which the Association maintains. These include such matters as instruction and spirit, school plant, sanitation and janitorial service, instructional equipment, the school library and library service, school records, policies of the board of education and the administration of the school and its financial support, preparation of the instructional supervisory staff, the teaching load, the pupil load, and the educational program. This last item includes such matters as the school's program of studies, its allied activities program, its guidance provisions, the success of its program, and the school and its community relations.

The North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools approves both secondary schools and institutions of higher learning in twenty states comprising a large portion of North Central and Central United States reaching from Montana in the northwest and Arizona and New Mexico in the Southwest to Ohio, Indiana, and West Virginia in the East. It is the aim of the association to bring about a better acquaintance, a keener sympathy and a heartier co-operation between colleges and secondary schools; second, to consider common educational problems and devise the best ways and means of solving them; and third, to promote the physical, intellectual, and moral well-being of students by urging proper sanitary conditions of school buildings, adequate library and laboratory facilities, and higher standards of scholarship. All decisions of the association bearing on the policies and management of secondary schools and institutions of higher education are understood to be advisory in their character. The approval of schools by this Association is a co-operative undertaking and membership is purely voluntary. No school is approved unless there is the expressed desire of the local authorities of a high school for such approval. Certain advantages result from such approval. In brief, they are:

1. Graduates of any approved high school are privileged to enter institutions of higher learning within the North Central states without entrance examinations, provided they have credits in the high school subjects required by the college or university to which admission is sought. Since other approving agencies recognize North Central schools, this privilege of entering institutions of higher education without examination is extended practically throughout the United States. (There are some institutions of higher learning who do not admit graduates of North Central high schools if the rankings of these graduates are in the lowest one-fourth of the graduating class.)
2. The graduates of approved high schools have the assurance that their high school diplomas will be acceptable to State Boards having to do with the granting of certificates for the various professions of medicine, dentistry, law, etc. In states requiring graduation from approved high schools as a prerequisite to the obtaining of a teaching certificate, the graduates of schools approved by the North Central Association meet the requirements of such a law.
3. A high school approved by the North Central Association must maintain high standards and consequently the community is assured of a program of modern high school education.
4. The visitation of the school at regular intervals by supervisors serves to stimulate progress and to prevent the development of questionable practices and tendencies.
5. A high school approved by the North Central Association enjoys a greater prestige in the surrounding country and therefore finds it easier to attract non-resident students.
6. The patrons have more confidence in and are generally more willing to support an approved high school.

What Is Abroad in the World Today?

"Open the door, let in the air. The winds are sweet, and the flowers are fair. Joy is abroad in the world today, If your door is wide open it will come your way."

THIS stanza was memorized by the writer when a child. At that time it made an appealing largely because of its pretty picturing and happy rhyme. Many years later it came back to thought with a deeper significance, which led to the contemplation of spiritual joy. The door to our mental home is our receptiveness to whatever comes knocking for admission. To what are we opening our door? Are we definitely closing it against the intrusion of fear, distrust, despair, ill-health, poverty? Do we welcome in the good we wish to see objectified in our experience?

If we are alert, and listening to Truth, we shall become aware of the spiritual joy, trust, healthy thoughts, assurance of peace and happiness which are awaiting only our receptiveness to come in and abide with us. In the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," Mary Baker Eddy gives us this counsel, which, when obeyed, is far-reaching in its effects and influence (p. 332): "Stand porter at the door of thought. Admitting only such conclusions as you wish realized in bodily results, you will control yourself harmoniously."

Today mankind, finding itself in a condition of great economic complication, is asking, "What is the way out?" Fear of lack of individual and national security is knocking loudly for entrance into human consciousness. Are we to stand by, helplessly feeling that there is no answer available, or that the answer is dependent upon those in authority who may or may not be guided wisely? Definitely, no!

There is an answer, a solution, to the individual and world problems of today. . . . We read (ibid., p. 390), "It is our ignorance of God, the divine Principle, which produces apparent discord, and the right understanding of Him restores harmony." How simple, yet how profound, is the answer—"the right understanding of Him!" In His great love, God has endowed each one of His children with the ability to understand His Father-Mother God. . . . This understanding of God, and of man in His likeness, displaces all that is imperfect, unlovely, sinful, sick, or sorrowing.

Divine ever-operative Principle, when understood and applied in our human experience, establishes the true concept of brotherly love, and a corresponding desire to reflect Love, God. Thus, as understanding is gained, wars will cease; and so in due course whatever is wrong will be annihilated, and nothing discordant will remain. . . .

The only real, true government of man is by God's law of harmony. And the understanding of God's law precedes obedience to that law. When we shall have fully awakened to the glorious privilege of submission to the guidance of unerring, infinite divine Mind, then shall we experience the reign of everlasting Life, Truth, and Love. We need not wait one hour to begin the joyous task of helping to bring about the kingdom of heaven on earth. What we harbor in thought decides whether or not the pathway we are treading is leading us upward and onward into God's Kingdom. The radiance of thought which is in accord with divine Love not only illumines our own journey but helps to brighten the pathway for others. As the light of a tiny candle displaces some darkness, so does the least reflection of the light of Truth in our consciousness dispel some error; and gradually but surely shall all humanity come to the recognition of universal good, glorious and triumphant.

May we then open wide the door of our thought to let in light, peace, freedom, dominion, power, and the spiritual joy that are more and more appearing in the world today. Then shall be brought to pass the promise given by the prophet Jeremiah (Jeremiah 31:34), "And they shall teach no more every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the Lord."—The Christian Science Monitor.

Open House at Northern Speech Center

"Hear Yourself as Others Hear You." That is the keynote of an unusual evening planned by the Speech Center at Northern Night School, tonight, June 1, at 7 o'clock. For the past eight months a small but determined group of Stammerers have been meeting two evenings a week to find the answer to a problem which has long perplexed those handicapped by this particular impediment. Encouraged by the progress which they have so far enjoyed and by the fine spirit of co-operation shown by leading medical men and manufacturers of equipment, the Speech Center is inviting the general public, especially those interested in the complete and permanent correction of various speech defects, to attend an open house in the auditorium at Northern High School, located at Woodward and Clairmount.

Dr. A. S. Church, of Eloise Hospital, a noted psychiatrist, will be the featured speaker of the evening; he will discuss, "The Classification and Treatment of Speech Impediments."

The program will also include: a talking picture through the courtesy of Victor Animatograph, a color symphony of classical music accompanied by illustrations in technicolor depicting the mood; the Voice Mirror, exhibited by the Michigan Bell Telephone company, for testing the human voice as it sounds over a telephone transmitter. Hall Smith, recording engineer for KLA Laboratories, will give a demonstration of electrical transcription and will make life-like recordings of those who would like to hear themselves as they would sound on the air. The Dictaphone Corporation will exhibit all of their instruments, as well as a series of permanent cylinders called, "American Speech."

The general public is invited to this unusual program, and there is no charge for admission.

Behavior Cases Cost One County $254,000

A year's law-enforcement and institutional treatment of behavior cases from one Michigan county of 70,000 people cost the state and county taxpayers $254,000, according to the Michigan Child Guidance Institute. These costs amounted to about $14 per year for each of the 17,000 families in the county.

These costs are based on an actual count of the county's 491 cases in prisons, correctional institutions, and hospitals and on the actual number of weeks that each inmate spent in each institution multiplied by the average number per capita cost per week reported by each institution. Added to this total is the cost that can reasonably be charged to behavior-control functions of such agencies as justice's courts, the circuit court, sheriff's office, and police departments. The study was made by Bruno Nardi, of Caspian, holder of a Michigan Child Guidance Institute fellowship in the Horace H. Rackham School of Graduate Studies at the University of Michigan. Since the selected county was not studied to compare it with any other, its identity is withheld.

The results of this study, the report says, suggest that, if the selected county is typical, behavior cases would cost the taxpayers of Michigan a minimum of a quarter of a million dollars for every 70,000 population, or more than $17,000,000 a year.

This amount is unquestionably too low, the report states, in view of the fact that the cost of handling and treating juvenile delinquents alone in Michigan is estimated at $1,100,000 a year, and the cost of operating the state's prisons, mental hospitals, state police and circuit courts totals about $11,000,000. This total does not include the Detroit city police budget of over $10,000,000 and the other police and sheriff's figures in the state. Based on these budgets it is estimated that the total "visible" cost of juvenile delinquency, prisons, mental disease, and law enforcement in Michigan is between $25,000,000 and $30,000,000.
