

Grosse Exaggerations?

By A. PRYOR

If this out of town guest business continues much longer, we are going to start a movement to have the University of Michigan moved to another State, so WE can be the out of town guest. Once again the town has been in the throes of merriment and everyone is on the edge of dee tees—just waiting to be given a shovel.

In between drinks, we've taken the time to observe the birds that have made themselves at home in our backyard; and DON'T tell us that they aren't brilliant red, sky blue, and beige, with red heads. In our weakened condition, there isn't anything more soul-satisfying than to look out of our bedroom window in the early morning and see these brilliant flashes of color against the drab Autumn. And speaking of birds, they have become so fashionable on women's hats this year, it's a wonder some milliner hasn't dubbed them "Audubonets."

Overheard at the Bowling Alley. "Do you remember the name of that movie at the Punch last Saturday?" "No—but it should have been, 'Goody Goody, You Shoot Me And I'll Shoot You.'"

We just unearthed another radio program of the 'gets-in-your-hair' variety, Milton Berle quizzes a group of men on the answers to riddles and jokes that have been sent in by radio listeners. According to the vintage of most of the jokes, the sender-inners don't get around very much. But the crowning pain in the neck is the announcement for the product, which is Quakers Puffed something-or-other. The announcer, who has a voice like a tin horn, says, "If you don't know what Quakers Puffed something-or-other is, it's been 'trig' from guns 'so 'so 'so give you that 'trig' fast' nutritious value! Great Guns, what is the radio world coming to?!"

What Price Glory Dept. In the last issue of Vogue, several pages were dedicated to, of all things, War STYLES! Being a constant reader of Vogue, we almost frowed up when we read the following paragraph: "The accessory field is the only one in which you find a few extravaganzas. Many women are buying Hermes' leather or canvas gas-mask masks, of nail-studded tweed. Descat makes a dull black bag for them, and Cartier makes a super one of Crocodile with gold initials." What of Crocodile with gold initials? What a breach of fashion it would be, to be caught dead without a chic gas-mask case hanging down your back!

Unsolved Mystery File. For the past month, a taxi has been parking on Ridge Road near Vendome every Thursday morning from ten o'clock until around twelve thirty. The driver whizzes away the two hours by polishing the windows of his cab, shining up the hood, eating peanuts and just sitting. So far, our super-sleuth has been unable to tell us whether it is male or female who arrives and departs to and from—no one knows where, since the taxi is parked near an empty lot. Quick Watson, our ear and domino!

We think that Mr. Titus, who has been mixing medicinal concoctions for Grosse Pointe for years, has done a beautiful job with his new drug store. We especially like the large plate-glass window on the Fisher Road side, which is unmarred by signs and stickers and gives us a view of the passing parade, while we dawdle over a Pepsi-Cola. On the Kercheval front, Mr. Titus has modestly had his name printed in small letters, which are almost overshadowed by the gargantuan Park Davis placards. But we like that too, because we can't imagine a better combination for our ills, than Park Davis products in the capable hands of Mr. T.—and this is NOT an 'ad'.

There is a little candy shop and news stand about a forward pass from Al Green's (and across the street) called the Grosse Pointe Candy Box. Its proprietor is one 'Nick', whose sweet-tooth must have lured him into the candy instead of the restaurant business. Most of G. P.'s domestic assistants (Mv, we like that expression) gather at Nick's place while waiting for the homeward-bound bus. The other night, an English governess with that "long-netted" look, asked

Active Interest Shown In Fall Rotarian Party

Advance ticket sale indicates that this year's Fall Party of the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club to be held next Monday evening at the Neighborhood Club, will be even more successful than the inaugural event in 1938.

The pleasure of doing good for others must usually be confined to the self-satisfaction found in any well performed duty. Somewhat rare are the times when real fun in its old-fashioned meaning, can be enjoyed, accompanied by the knowledge that it is not achieved at the expense of someone else, or without benefit to one's fellows.

The Fall Party of the Grosse Pointe Rotarians affords one of these occasions. Those who attend, will have an evening of lively sport. Many of them will win attractive prizes, having a monetary value considerably in excess of expenditure for tickets. Everyone will be contributing to the happiness of someone, whose situation in life is less fortunate.

Charitable projects sponsored by the Rotary Club, through proceeds from the Fall Party, are carefully investigated. A large attendance at the affair will enable this year's program to embrace a wider field than has been possible in the past. The party will start at 8 o'clock. Advance sale tickets are eligible for the Door Prize, and can be obtained from any local Rotarian.

Knights of Columbus Memorial Service to Be Held on Sunday

The members of Gabriel Richard Council, Knights of Columbus, will exemplify their sixteenth annual Memorial Services, Sunday, November 19th, starting with Mass and the reception of Holy Communion at Annunciation Church, Parkview just north of Jefferson.

Eight members of Gabriel Richard Council, who died during the past year, will be remembered in the memorial service. They are: Joseph J. Beske, Charles A. Bonet, Rudolph Krupitzer, Michael J. Lavin, John Maier, James A. Murphy and Joseph Zayak. Monsignor Ames Stapleton, pastor of Annunciation Church, and the first Chaplain of Gabriel Richard Council, following its institution in April, 1923, will say the Memorial Mass at 8:00 o'clock. Council members will receive Holy Communion in a body in honor of their deceased Brothers, particularly those who have died during the past year.

Immediately following the Mass, there will be a complimentary breakfast in the dining room of the parish auditorium. The breakfast will be prepared and served by the wives of members living in Annunciation parish, assisted by wives of Richardians living elsewhere. Mrs. Robert Halter is chairman of the breakfast committee.

Following the breakfast, the Order's ritualistic ceremonial exercises will be held in the auditorium, under the direction of Chancellor James Haggerty. Honorable Joseph A. Gillis, Judge of the Recorders Court will deliver the Memorial address, and Honorable Philip McHugh will deliver the eulogy.

The musical program will be directed by Richardian Musical Director W. J. Boell, assisted by Michael Clancy and Patrick Kearns as soloists. Council officers taking part in the ceremonies are: Monsignor Stapleton, Former Chaplain, Father John C. Visnara, D. D., Chaplain, Grand Knight John S. Mannix, Deputy Grand Knight Thomas O'Brien, Chancellor James Haggerty, Recorder Robert Bonn, Executive Secretary Mark Dunn, Financial Secretary W. T. Buckenridge, Warden John Ginnerella, Guards Sam Ginnerella, George Findley and Paul Davidson. The Fourth Degree Commandery, under the leadership of Dr. C. B. Lendy, will act as uard of Honor.

Vernier School Notes

Seeds have been collected for next year's garden. They were taken from the Vernier School Garden which was planted by the children in the spring, cared for by them during vacation and enjoyed by all when school opened. They burned the old plants while preparing for winter. A meeting for the parents of Vernier School will be held Thursday evening, November 9, at which time Dr. Van Kleeck will speak. Mrs. Lynn Street who is chairman of the refreshment committee is to be assisted by mothers of the school.

Notice!

The Grosse Pointe Review will be delivered on Tuesday, Nov. 21nd, instead of Thursday next week on account of Thanksgiving day. All notices must be in not later than Saturday to insure publication.

Trend of Events Inside Germany

By PAUL M. DEAC
"If the German people want peace they first must throw Hitler and his clique overboard!" This is in a few words the meaning of the Allies' response to Hitler's latest peace offer presented by Queen Wilhelmina of Holland and King Leopold of Belgium. Of course this does not mean that Hitler will give up any further hopes for an early peace, but there is little likelihood he will ever induce the British and the French to listen to him.

The Allies have no illusions as to the real reasons behind the Fuehrer's sudden and insistent desire for peace. They well know it is not so much peace he wants as a stay of execution during which he would try to pull himself out of the precarious position he has been struck into by "kammerad" Stalin's falacious promises and the unexpected Allied declaration of war. That the Fuehrer's blunders have placed the Reich in a state of extreme vulnerability is shown by the fact that Nazi Germany (let us not forget the real Germany which is not Nazi) has been, so far, utterly unable to pacify and consolidate its ill-gotten gains in Poland, Czechoslovakia, and Austria, a subject of constant worry for the Nazis.

Then, there are the growing dissensions between Nazi radicals and the national socialist party's conservative right wing, punctuated last week by a new attempt on the Fuehrer's life at Munich. This and many other facts clearly prove that the danger Adolph Hitler dreams most is not outside, but within Germany.

The trouble that is brewing in the Third Reich is not surprising if we recall that out of 64 million inhabitants of pre-Nazi Germany, 67 per cent were social-democrats; that communists alone numbered over 11 millions; that pro-military organizations like the Reichsbanner, the Steelhelmets, etc., also claimed a considerable number of followers. Their ruthless suppression by the Nazis compelled them all to go underground. To better cover their subversive activities, they enlisted with the national-socialist party and donned the brown-shirt just like so many true Nazis. This disguise renders their detection by the Ghestapho (dreaded political police) practically impossible.

Right now they are impudently making things uncomfortable for the Nazi leaders under the very nose of Heinrich Himmler chief of the political police. And, nobody knows—but everybody can guess, what they are liable to do should war start in earnest, and a drive be followed by disaster. Furthermore, it is feared that large scale operations on the Western Front would put Adolph Hitler and other Nazi bigwigs at the German High Command's mercy overnight. And, this is one thing the Hitlerites must avoid at any cost. It is generally known that the proud Reichswehr (Army) has never fully accepted the Nazis whom it considers as usurpers. The Junkers and other layers of the German ruling classes have never forgotten Adolph Hitler for having failed to resign his post in favor of the Hoenzollerns which promised to restore Germany to her former glory.

Evidently, war under such circumstances is tantamount to suicide, for neither the Fuehrer nor the Nazi party can reasonably hope to emerge from its ruins alive. The deadly fear of ultimate internal collapse (and not vague humanitarian considerations) is the only reason why Dictator Adolph Hitler has not dared to unleash the "blitzkrieg" he had so long threatened the world with. Besides, dictators, who are so prompt and crushing a helpless neighbor, fall back on even odds. Perhaps, this is the trait that relates them most to gangsters.

Remember one Benito Mussolini and of

More Voting Precincts Are Granted Voters

At the last regular meeting of the Township Board petitions were presented to the Board asking that the election precincts in the Township of Grosse Pointe be revised. The Board took immediate action on these petitions and voted to supplant the existing 13 precincts by 11 more, making a total of 24. The Village of Grosse Pointe Park was the main point of revision. Fifteen precincts will take the place of eight, while in the Farms six will replace the present three. Grosse Pointe Woods will have two and the Shores one. There is no doubt but that this revision is very beneficial to the voters of Grosse Pointe Township and it should be a major factor in attempting to stimulate more interest in the elections which seem to be at a very low ebb at present.

Neighborhood Thrift Shop Tea November 20

The Neighborhood Thrift Shop cordially invites the children who are competing in the poster contest, and their parents to the annual tea and exhibition to be held at the Alger Museum, 32 Lake Shore road, on Tuesday, November 21, from 4 to 5:30 o'clock. Posters will be on exhibition for one week.

"Sinbad the Sailor," Marionette Show to Play Here Nov. 25th

The latest of a Broadway musical comedy will be seen by the children of Grosse Pointe when "Sinbad the Sailor" is presented on Saturday, November 25 at Pierce Junior High School. Sponsored by the Parent Teachers Association the performance bears the approved stamp of Junior Programs, Inc., non-commercial organization devoted to the presentation of selected children's entertainment. "Sinbad the Sailor" was nearly ten years in the making by the Sue Hastings Marionette organization, largest and most renowned of its kind in America. Six years ago after much patient toil by marionette craftsmen, the production was ruined by a fire which destroyed all the equipment in the New York studio of the Sue Hastings Marionettes. It took all that time to build a new production of the Arabian Nights fantasy.

Also in the Garden Club section, two outstanding complimentary arrangements were contributed by Mrs. W. Beresford Palmer.

Competition in the general show schedule was better than usual, judges for this being Harry Cartwright, Alex L. Lamond and James W. Hopton.

Private estate of Grosse Pointe, Bloomfield Hills, Rochester and Pontiac district showed much friendly rivalry. The following estates and gardeners were awarded prizes: Emory L. Ford—Ernest Wolff. Mrs. Truman H. Newberry—Roy Berry. Mrs. John S. Newberry—Richard Sayward. Mrs. Lawrence D. Buhl—Theodore Kalkhoff. Mrs. Walter O. Briggs—Ernest Marsh. Mrs. E. D. Speck—Erich Bauer. Mrs. A. D. Wilson—Herman Siewert. Mrs. E. A. Turnbull—William P. Thomas. Mrs. E. S. Evans—Fred Martin. Mrs. Russell A. Alger, Sr.—Patrick J. McKnight. Mrs. J. B. Ford, Jr.—Charles MacDonald. L. H. Green—Henry Martin. Mrs. E. S. Barbour—John Cheney.

In the various classes in arrangement for private gardeners, ribbons were won by Ernest Wolff, Herman Siewert, Anthony Joyce and Ben Nantervis. Other blue ribbon winners in this section were Robert Walters and Julian Richards, both from the Mrs. W. W. McKnight Estate, Perrysburg, Ohio. Mrs. Roy Berry was awarded the first and Mrs. William P. Thomas, the second prize in a luncheon table arrangement restricted to wives of gardeners who are members of the sponsoring society.

Judges for the above classes were Robert Stewart, William Crichton and Theodore Kalkhoff. For the most meritorious exhibit within the entire schedule, Richard Sayward of the Mrs. John S. Newberry Estate was awarded the Pearson prize, for a large group of potted chrysanthemums. Mrs. Lloyd Murray received a blue ribbon for a basket of hardy outdoor grown chrysanthemums. Of special interest to the public were the arrangements by the children of the Neighborhood Club.

In a class ages 8 to 10 first prize went to Betty Maloney and second to Virginia Clinton; and in another class age 11 to 12, Mary Van Tiem was awarded first with Lorraine DeWolf in second place.

Numerous complimentary exhibits were presented including the following: potted cascade chrysanthemums in yellow and white varieties by William Bartel and Sons Florists, Plymouth; collection of cacti and succulents by Allemen's Florists, Detroit; basket of indoor varieties of chrysanthemums grown out of doors by A. K. Lauke. An outstanding table centerpiece by Myron Bloy, florist, Detroit; table arrangement featuring chrysanthemums, a centerpiece in fall shades and corsages of the current mode by Alger Flower Shop.

Another pleasing table display consisting of potted Liliun speciosum rubrum and soft pink geraniums was that staged by the Paul H. Deming Estate (William McInnis, gardener). A basket arrangement of chrysanthemums "Mayfield Sunrise," a charming shade of old rose, and another basket of chrysanthemums and berries shrubs were contributed by Mrs. H. N. Tostey (Alex L. Lamond, gardener). Greatly admired was the bowl arrangement of chrysanthemums and snapdragons in shades of pink by Clarke E. Stevenson, florist, Detroit.

Another basket arrangement of single and double chrysanthemums with autumn tinted foliage was displayed by James the Florist, Detroit. In a stage setting, V. R. DePetris, Inc., Grosse Pointe Farms, displayed many original flower arrangements and unusual combinations which were greatly admired. Mr. DePetris also included several seedling chrysanthemums and name varieties of his own introduction. The flower show committee of 1939 are to be heartily congratulated for having staged such a fine and well arranged exhibition; the material throughout the entire show was noteworthy for its high quality and cultural perfection.

Grosse Pointe Schools Included in Annual International Program

Friday afternoon, November 17, has been set as the date for the Fifth Annual International Festival Program for the school children of Southeast Detroit and Grosse Pointe.

Each year the children have prepared a project which has been sent directly to chosen foreign countries.

This year the boys and girls in 20 elementary schools in the district are preparing a commemorative stamp project to be presented at the annual program at Hannan Y.M.C.A.

These programs are held each year to encourage more friendly attitude and a more sympathetic understanding of our foreign neighbors.

The Bears won their first game of the season when they defeated the second place Wildcats 20-14, in what proved to be a thriller up until the final whistle.

Trailing 14-0 at the end of the first quarter, the Wildcat eleven made a desperate fight to obtain victory and knotted the count at 14 all with just 3 minutes left to play.

The Bears began to fill the air with passes and had advanced to the Wildcats' 15-yd. line when Habitz intercepted a pass from McCloy and with this interception went victory for the Wildcats, for two plays later the game ended.

The Jr. Lions met their stiffest opposition of the season thus far when they subdued a hard-blocking and fighting Red Wing eleven 26-20.

Louisa St. Clair Chapter
 A poster contest on the subject of Conservation of Natural and Animal Resources of the State of Michigan is being sponsored by the Louisa St. Clair Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. The subjects pertinent to the project are: Soil Erosion, Stream Pollution, Weeds and Shrubbery, Forest Fires, Flowers, Birds and Fish.
 Mabel Arbuckle, Supervisor of Art for the Detroit Public Schools, is directing the contest which will be conducted in grades seven through 12, in intermediate, technical and comprehensive high schools, with prizes to be awarded.

A list of slogans, prepared by the Educational Division of the Department of Conservation at Lansing, has been sent to each school. These slogans may be used by the students in whole or in part, or may suggest other ideas to them. The contest will close on Friday, November tenth. On Monday, November thirteenth, the posters will be judged for their aesthetic and commercial value. Mrs. Paul Hale Bruske, Regent of the Louisa St. Clair Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution and Mrs. Basil L. Connelly, Chairman of the Conservation Department of the Chapter, will assist with the judging and awarding of the prizes.
 The posters will be on exhibition on Thursday, December fourteenth at Newberry House, Jefferson Avenue, and may be viewed by the public.

 Antique clocks are rarely included in the furnishings owned by old residents in the northern Arkansas hills. The pioneers could waste no covered wagon space on things not absolutely essential for hewing down timber, constructing cabins and tilling the land. Homemade devices for telling time have given rise to a picturesque phraseology. The true mountaineer tells time by the sun. Some of them are accurate to the minute.
 "A hillman will refer to time as 'an hour before sun-up,' 'an hour before sun-down,' 'straight-up by the sun,' 'moon-rise time,' 'an hour by the sun.' In some of the old-time cabins there were 'sundials' on the floor. When the house was built a mark would be placed where the sun shone through the open door at noon. The housewives timed their cooking by the lengthening streak of sunshine. There was a sort of primitive satisfaction in living and working by the sun. Many men who now possess watches prefer to tell time by the sun.
 Other old hill people used the puncheon boards—logs split in two and the flat side used as the floor—to tell time. In one section of Arkansas the phrase 'puncheon time' still is used. Most of the puncheons were approximately the same width, and the lengthening of sunshine or shadow on them was counted by puncheons, which usually approximated one hour. Thus 'a puncheon until noon' would be 11 o'clock, and 'a puncheon after noon, straight up and down,' would be one o'clock.
 It is said that when the first saw-mill was erected at Fayetteville, Ark., the customers demanded that the 'timber floorin'' they purchased be the exact width of the old-time puncheons, so that they could still live by 'puncheon time.'

Dwelling Comfort
 Considerable work has been done toward the establishment of the correct degree of humidity for dwellings. There is a so-called comfort zone, which has a maximum temperature of 70 degrees Fahrenheit and a minimum humidity of 30 per cent; a minimum temperature of 66 to 68 degrees Fahrenheit, and a maximum humidity of 55 per cent. This is the range which has been established as being most agreeable to people living in temperate climates.

Modern Swedish Ensemble for the Young Hopefuls

 In contrast with the past, when only wealthy families could afford special furniture for the nursery and less fortunate children inherited hand-me-downs from adult bedrooms, is the present practice of using juvenile furniture for the coming generation. Moderately well-off families now are buying ensembles like this Swedish modern suite for their hopefuls.

Courtesy

HOW one appreciates courtesy! It may be expressed in one's opening of a door, in a smiling "Thank you," in the gracious doing of commonplace duty, or in listening with interest to another's views. Courtesy includes deference and respectfulness. Yet, is there not something more than deference and respect involved in genuine courtesy? Indeed there is. It is love for mankind. Henry Drummond has spoken of courtesy as "love in little things."
 If one truly loves, does he not express that love in even his least contact with others—in thoughtfulness for others, in deeds of kindness, in little helpful acts, all of which constitute what we are pleased to call courtesy?
 Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, in her "Miscellaneous Writings," says (p. 250): "Love is not something put upon a shelf, to be taken down on rare occasions with sugar-tongs and laid on a rose-leaf. I make strong demands on love, call for active witness to prove it, and noble sacrifices and grand achievements as its results. And she also says: "As a human quality, the glorious significance of affection is more than words: it is the tender, unselfish deed done in secret; the silent, ceaseless prayer; the self-forgetful heart that overflows."
 The Apostle Peter admonished thus (1 Peter 3:8, 9): "Be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous: not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing; but contrariwise blessing."
 The dictionary defines "courtesy," in part, as "an act of kindness, or favor performed with politeness." But what, then, is the source of inherent kindness and consideration?
 The real man is not the mortal, so-called man, who may or may not be in His own image and likeness, as stated in Genesis. And since God is Love, man is the forever expression of Love; hence love and kindness are inherent qualities of the real man.
 But one may ask, Why do some persons appear to express much of love, while others seem almost devoid of it, and at times may be discourteous and disagreeable? May not the logical explanation be that some are allowing man's true being as Love's reflection to find expression through their thinking and living; while others may have their thoughts so filled with a false sense of evil as real that love and goodness are not manifested through their thinking or living?
 True courtesy expresses love. And loving consideration expressed to another arouses a kindred response from that one. The writer witnessed an example of this in a crowded theater one evening. Two women were standing in the aisle when a seat was vacated. The one who was seated in front of them made no attempt to take the seat, evidently expecting the other to do so. But instead, noting the telltale bag of the domestic servant, the other asked, "Have you been working all day?" To which there was a momentary pause. "Yes, ma'am." "Then you take the seat," was the response. Soon the other was also seated, and when the worker arose to leave the car, she bestowed a most gracious and appreciative smile upon her courteous benefactor.
 Is not the test of true culture, which must include courtesy, found in the respect with which one treats others?
 All of God's children express equally His infinite love. Hence God loves all, and forever expresses through men His universal goodness and love. All men are in reality the children of God, subject to His love and care. When this is comprehended, one is enabled to look through and beyond the false veils of personality, differences in social standing, education, and race, and to see and love the man of God's creation.
 Such a one will always be found manifesting loving thoughtfulness, consideration, and kindness to all, even in the least of human affairs—in that expression of true culture which is known as courtesy. And need we add that he who includes all in his bestowal of courtesy has glimpsed the love which characterizes the real man, who reflects and expresses God, divine, impartial Love!—The Christian Science Monitor.

At the Grosse Pointe City Branch, 700 Cadieux Rd. Monday and Tuesday, Maire School will be in charge; Wednesday, St. Clare; Thursday, St. Paul; Friday, Richard School.

All Grosse Pointe boys and girls are invited. Plan to visit the exhibit the day your school is in charge.

Parents interested in building up a personal library for their children will find many suggestions here. The librarians will be glad to recommend suitable titles for various tastes and ages.

Recent titles for Boys and Girls: Baldwin—Sou'wester Victorious

The third of the sou'wester stories. This time there is a 1,500-mile rescue trip to the West Indies.

Barnes—She Shall Have Music

"A delightful story of the casual, unmusical family to which Karan belonged, and of her struggles to express herself on the piano. Her zeal fired with a touch of genius carried her over barriers to ultimate success. Deft touches of humor and fine characterization."

Cormack—Land for My Sons

A vivid romance of the American revolution. Of interest to older boys and girls.

Mason—Woodcraft

Practical book for readers of all ages who are interested in camping and pioneer crafts.

De Angeli—Skipjack School

With a lively story and interesting illustrations Mrs. De Angeli has brought alive the quaint colorful period of the Meaconite settlers in Pennsylvania about 1750.

Read that won't read through a Grosse Pointe Review lens.

"Soul and Body" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, November 19, 1939. The Golden Text (I Cor. 6:19) is: "What? Know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?"

Among the Bible citations in this passage (Matt. 6:25): "Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?"

Trombly School Notes

Defer and Trombly Schools in Grosse Pointe, together with 18 electro, will participate in the Fifth Annual International Festival program for school children to be held Friday afternoon, November 17th at Hannan Y. M. C. A.

According to Alvin R. Reiss, Boy's Work Secretary, this special program is for the purpose of developing a more sympathetic, tolerant, appreciative and understanding attitude towards peoples of foreign lands. Six to eight hundred school children annually attend the Festival.

Each year the children have prepared a project which has been sent directly to chosen foreign countries. Last year greetings to six Balkan Countries were recorded on phonograph records and mailed to the school children of those countries. This year a commemorative stamp project has been instituted in the Grosse Pointe and Southeast Detroit schools. Booklets of these stamps with descriptive materials are to be mailed to school children in 16 foreign countries. An interesting program of sound movies of travel, the New York's World Fair, adventure and comedy will be featured. Folk dancers from the studios of J. J. Jalmussinski will be an attractive part of the program.

The Festival will culminate on Saturday night with the big International Dinner, which is to be held in the main gymnasium. The dinner is open to the public and this year more than 20 dinner reservations are expected. Mr. Charles E. Hurrey of New York City will be the principal speaker. Professor Nelson, of the University of Michigan and 22 graduate foreign students representing 19 different countries will be guests of honor at the dinner.

Dinner Reservations may be made by telephone. LEsex 7200.

Tower Editorial

The following student-written editorial appeared in last week's issue of the Tower, which is a student paper of the Grose Pointe High School—

"A most favored community in the most favored country of the world," Dr. E. R. Van Kleeck, superintendent, called Grose Pointe at the commencement exercises last June.

Occupying such unique position, Grose Pointe and everything about it is quite naturally of particular interest to the rest of the world. Anything out of the ordinary that happens in Grose Pointe makes news even though similar incidents in other parts of the city would attract little attention.

It is at tremendous privilege to live in a favored community in the most favored country of the world. It is a privilege that rightly carries responsibilities.

What a boon it would be if we could restrict residence in our community to those who are capable of understanding and willing to assume the special responsibilities of citizenship in Grose Pointe!

We are all gravely injured when even a few are guilty of denying their responsibilities. Can we not find some way of enlightening them?

Y. M. C. A. Notes

Professor Nelson, of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, has made arrangements whereby 22 graduate foreign students will represent 19 different countries at the International Dinner on Saturday evening, November 18. Countries represented will be China, Japan, Korea, Siam, Philippine Commonwealth, India, Palestine, Bulgaria, Hungary, Greece, Italy, Turkey, Poland, Brazil, Columbia, Bolivia, Argentina, Venezuela and Union of South Africa. These foreign students will be guests of the Hannan Y. M. C. A. for the dinner.

Open Houses for 8A Pupils Planned

Open Houses for the 8A grades at the Grose Pointe High School and the John D. Pierce Junior High School of Grose Pointe will be held November 21 and December 1, respectively. Their object is to give parents a special opportunity to see with their children the achievements made in the seventh and eighth grades and to judge the best possible choices for the pupils.

Deliciously Different Chocolate Cookies

Toll House Cookies

THE problem of what to give the kiddies coming home from school, or to serve the Bridge Club the next time it's your turn to entertain, can be solved by a batch of these delicious cookies.

They're "Toll House Cookies" because Ruth Wakefield of New England's famous Toll House Inn originated them. These cookies are sure to delight your Bridge Club and the family too, they're new and different. Crisp, tender, golden brown cookies, and when you bite in to one—surprise! There's a rich bit of semi-sweet chocolate and a taste of walnut in that bite, and the next and the next. A perfect flavor combination.

Toll House Cookies are as much fun to make as they are to serve.

Besides a short general meeting in the auditorium of each school, there will be a home room conference and guidance period when the faculty advisers will meet with the parents and children of each group. There will also be individual conference periods and exhibits. Exhibits at the high school Open House will be in charge of Vincent Peterson of the faculty and at Pierce in charge of Custer Homier of the faculty.

French Service Decoration

The Medaille Militaire, France's premier decoration for distinguished service in action, commands so much respect for its owner that even in military prison unusual favors are granted to him, declares Collier's. As another honor, the medal is fastened to the front of his cell door and a guard is stationed there to watch it.

Sauerkraut History

Sauerkraut was introduced and popularized in this country by German immigrants, and of course the name is German, but there is evidence to show that it may not have originated in Germany. There is no definite information as to when or where the idea occurred to shred cabbage and leave it to ferment in brine made from salt and its own juice. One writer traces it to Asia, showing how the Tartars first passed on a sauerkraut recipe to the Slavic peoples of eastern Europe, who in turn gave it to the ancient Germans. There is evidence also that this food has been made in Alsace and in Holland from very early times.

Cowbell Organ

Smiley Burnette, a comedian of Hollywood, Calif., wasn't satisfied with playing 52 different musical instruments, so he invented another one—a cowbell organ, says the American Magazine.

Perfect Public Library

Tourists seeking the perfect public library are advised to go to Leipzig in Germany, where readers sit out on a pleasant terrace in the sunshine, read their books, and enjoy a quiet smoke.

Record Number of Disasters Reported by Red Cross for Year

The American Red Cross gave emergency relief and rehabilitation aid to 136,000 sufferers of 137 disasters in the United States during the fiscal year ended June 30, according to a report submitted by DeWitt Smith, newly appointed director of the Red Cross disaster relief service.

Mr. Smith said the number of disaster operations exceeded that of any previous year, with cloudbursts, epidemics, fires, windstorms, snowslides and other catastrophes striking in 43 states and the territory of Alaska. Red Cross disaster relief expenditures totaled $2,374,109 for the year.

"Since its founding in 1881 the Red Cross has aided victims of 2,495 disasters of all types, here and abroad, expending $143,000,000 for rescue, food, clothing, shelter, medical and nursing aid and the permanent rehabilitation of families unable to re-establish themselves," Mr. Smith said.

Since 1910 the American Red Cross has taught first aid methods to more than 2,000,000 persons, life saving skills to more than 1,000,000 and home hygiene and care of the sick to more than 1,000,000 women and older girls.

Ostrich Blocks Traffic

Involving Nairobi, Kenya colony, an ostrich took a stand in the middle of the main street and held up motorists until a woman sounded the siren on her car, at which the bird stepped aside and let the line pass.

National Guard

A member of the national guard draws the same pay as a member of the regular army for each time he drills. A member of the national guard drills 48 times each year and goes to camp for 15 days. While in camp he also receives the same pay as that paid the regular army.

Italian Clock

One of the oldest clocks in the world is on the old Clock tower of Venice, Italy. It has been ticking time since 1496, or for 441 years. On its platform are two black giants who have struck the hours 34 times every day or nearly four million times.

Oldest Toy

The doll is the oldest toy known and has been found in various forms among all nations and tribes from remote antiquity. In the British museum in London there is a collection of dolls, one of which is 4,000 years old, having been found in an Egyptian tomb. Dolls were also common in Greece and Rome. Recent scientific investigations seem to indicate that dolls were also used by some tribes in religious ceremonies.

Catholic Trappists

The members of the Reformed Cistercian order of the Roman Catholic church, better known as Trappists, live an entirely secluded life, devoting their time to religious worship, contemplation and prayer, with hard physical work as their recreation. There are three monasteries: La Trappe, at Gethsemane, Ky.; Our Lady of the Valley, Cumberland, R. I.; and New Malheray, near Dubuque, Iowa.
