LIKE LAMBS LED TO THE SLAUGHTER

It seems a dirty shame that such outstanding citizens of Grosse Pointe Park as Messrs. Goddard, Fritsch, Petzold and Van Deusen should have been so misled and ill-advised that they have possibly laid themselves wide open for prosecution under the State Election Laws.

It is certain that their promises to "work for a dollar a year"—"to serve for a dollar a year"—"to sacrifice any salary"—"Agreeing to serve for a dollar a year"—are the result of the advice and wishes of the CITIZENS ASSOCIATION for whom they are acting. But isn't it a pity that this so-called Citizens Association or Economy Committee could be so ignorant as to be unfamiliar with election laws and get their candidates into the jams they have? Doesn't it sort of make you wonder if they know anything at all about taxes, sinking funds, economy, etc.?

For your information and so that you may be fully advised as to why these men may be subject to prosecution, we quote portions of a letter received from the Wayne County Prosecutor:

"Section 3289 of the Compiled Laws for the year 1929 reads as follows:

"If any person shall by bribery, menace, or other corrupt means or device whatever, either directly or indirectly, attempt to influence any elector in giving his vote, or deter him from, or interrupt him in giving the same at any election or primary election held pursuant to law, such person shall, on conviction, be deemed guilty of a felony.

"Section 3338 of the Compiled Laws for the year 1929, Section 5, provides:

"Any person found guilty of a felony under the provisions of this act shall, unless herein otherwise provided, be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the state prison for a term not exceeding five years, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court."

"Inasmuch as there are not opinions in this state on the subject, it necessitates looking at the laws of our sister states to determine the definition for bribery with respect to elections. It was held in the case of Attorney General vs. Collier, 72 Mo. 13, that it was not necessary to show the crime of bribery in its strict sense where a public promise by a candidate for probate judge to take for his own use only $1,200 out of $2,600 fees to which he would be entitled, it being an appeal for votes because of the abundance with which he would discharge the duties of office, is in effect bribery, he having made the office 'not a matter of qualification but of bargain and sale,' and the proposal being regarded as decidedly demoralizing in its tendency and utterly subversive of the plaintiff's dictates of public policy."

(Also quoted are cases 18 American Jurisprudence, page 334, Section 231—State ex. rel. Bill v. Elting, 29 Kan. 397—9 R.C.L. 1127, Section 128).

"From the foregoing opinions, it appears that publication of papers and pamphlets that were enclosed in your letter could be considered bribery in its strict sense, because it is an appeal for votes because of the cheapness which the candidates would discharge the duties of their office."

Frankly, we sincerely hope that the Wayne County Prosecutor will make no moves to prosecute the above mentioned gentlemen because we believe they were entirely innocent and acted only in good faith. But it does seem a shame, a dirty shame, that they were so ill-advised by the directing heads of the Citizens Association and thus laid themselves wide open not only to possible prosecution but also disqualification to hold office.

Grosse Exaggerations?

The biggest social event of the season (pour le sport), were the exhibition tennis matches between Perry, Richards, Budge and Tilden, which were played Tuesday at the Everglades Club. The weather behaved beautifully and by the time the first match got under way, every seat and most of the surrounding trees were occupied. At the entrance gate, we were up to our binoculars in Titles and Tycoons but on flashing that old Grosse Pointe Review reporter's badge, like a shot we were shown to the sun-tanning gallery—away from all the hiddys wealth!

We like the way a crowd always goes for the underdog. In this case we mean Big Bill Tilden, who has aged visibly since we last saw him. His tennis is still spectacular, but he seemed to tire long before the others. Everytime he made a touchdown, the crowd roared—oops! that's our football yarn, anyway we can't fool you because everyone knows that tennis fans never 'hoar'. They applaud every like and an occasional brave soul might venture, "Good shot, old thing," and receive dirty looks for his enthusiasm. After the match, we had a few word volleys with Don Budge, who told us that he'd kicked Detroit and Mary Margaret McAlpine. Will someone please page Maggie and tell her the good news?

Warning To Grosse Pointe Housewives

Grosse Pointe Park police have uncovered another racket which has been flourishing in this community lately and Chief James C. Drysdale has issued a warning to all housewives.

A man, pretending to represent a blind institution calls at a residence with a manufactured door-mat. When the maid answers he asks if the lady of the house is in. If the answer is yes, the man asks the name of the family. Then he mumbles that it is the wrong house and leaves. If the answer is no, then the thief explains to the servant that a 50-cent deposit has been made on the door-mat and that he is calling for the balance. He hands the maid the mat and is usually paid whatever he asks.

On February 24 three Grosse Pointe homes were duped in this fashion. This man also wanted in Dearborn and other towns for the same offense. He is described as between 35 and 40 years of age. Stocky build of about 175 pounds and a dark complexion. He wore a blue overcoat and dark hat and was driving a gray colored Ford sedan of 1935 or 1936 vintage.

If a man fitting such a description and using such a method should call at your residence, detain him and call your local police department.

City Police Place New Cars In Service

The City of Grosse Pointe police department has announced that the three new Plymouth scout cars which replaced three used ones are now in service and watchfully patrolling Grosse Pointe streets.

The new two-door sedans are equipped with two radio sets and two complete ambulance service, such as stretchers and first aid kits.

Consider Before You Condemn

Detroit Free Press, Feb. 22, 1940.

"... In common justice, it must forever be kept in mind that indictment does not mean guilt; that if any citizen or public official is accused, judgment should be withheld until he has had his day in court before a jury of his peers."

Detroit Times, Feb. 24, 1940.

"... Of course, those persons indicted should not be hastily condemned by the public. They are entitled to the presumption of complete innocence until they have been proven guilty."

Paul M. Deac Appears At Men's Club

Paul M. Deac, who contributes a column of comment on foreign affairs week has appeared as guest speaker at yesterday's dinner meeting of the Detroit American Business Men's Club, held in the Hotel Book-Cadillac.

He talked on the topic: "What headlines cannot tell you," a highly interesting discussion of current events.

Letter of Appreciation For Job Well Done

My dear Babcock: Congratulations on again breaking the record for motor production! Your skill and enthusiasm and the splendid co-operation you have aroused in your men are directly helping in speeding the sending of more pilots to the front. You are saving thousands of American lives by the remarkable work your shop is doing. It is a pleasure to have you with us.

Faithfully yours,
HIRAM BINGHAM.

Grosse Pointe Park And Farms Prepare For Final Election Monday

The final election of various municipal office-holders will be held in Grosse Pointe Park and Grosse Pointe Farms on Monday, March 11.

Due to the extensive amount of the public interest that has been kindled, and the large share of publicity these campaigns have received, election officials are anticipating a record turnout.

In Grosse Pointe Park a close contest is being staged between Alfred J. Garska, incumbent, and John W. Chandler. Chandler received a 164-vote margin over Garska in the primaries, held on February 13. Over 3,400 ballots were cast in that vote, setting a new high for that Village. Chandler attempted to have his name stricken from the ballot last week, because it was discovered that he had voted illegally in Detroit. The Village Board of Election Commissioners and Circuit Judge Webster ruled that since the Village charter contained no such provision for a candidate's withdrawal, and that Chandler's name must remain on the ballot. An added starter, backed by the Civic Committee, has also been placed on the ballot. He is Kari H. Goddard, Detroit attorney. Mr. Goddard will run as a sticker candidate. There are three Village commissioners to be elected also. William P. Shoemaker, John B. Renaud, and Louis DeHayes, incumbents, lost the primary decision to Homer C. Fritsch, Thomas T. Petzold and Ward S. Van Deusen.

In Grosse Pointe Farms, Paul H. Deming, incumbent, and Charles W. Babcock are running for president. In last month's primaries, Deming received a 403-vote majority. For trustee William K. Muir, incumbent, and David G. Williams are seeking office. Muir took the primary election by 324 votes. Joseph W. Snav, John R. Sutton Jr., and LeRoy May, trustee incumbents, will face Ben H. Cole, John H. Flancher and Raymond C. Moore. Clerk Harry A. Furton, Treasurer Walter Champagne and Assessor Cy L. Lerchenfeld are unopposed.

It is the privilege and duty of every registered voter to go to the polls next Monday and cast a ballot for the candidate whom you consider best qualified to fill your community offices.

Ex-Dancers Enjoy Wedding Feast

A wedding party given for Dick Cook and Beaconsfield avenue and his new bride was held last Saturday night at the ball on Mack avenue, near Neff Road.

Nearly a hundred couples attended and enjoyed an evening of merriment. The party, sponsored by ex-members of the Dancer Club, thanked Miss Beyers for a generous contribution toward the wedding expenses. Miss Beyers showed many of the younger people how to have an evening of real fun.

The wedded couple received an electric percolator.

Circuit Court Judge Rules Chandler Must Run

A decision handed down by Judge Clyde I. Webster of Circuit Court last Friday stated that John W. Chandler cannot remove his name from the official ballot of the final election for mayor in Grosse Pointe Park to be held Monday, March 11.

Judge Webster ruled that he has no right to order Chandler's name removed from the ballot because the Village charter contains no provision for such withdrawal.

Chandler's petition for removal stated that he was not eligible as a candidate because he has been living in Detroit.

Platform of Candidates for Farms Officers Reviewed

At a meeting of the Grosse Pointe Farms Property Owners Association held last Monday evening several candidates for the various offices to be voted on at the Village Election next Monday were called upon to outline their platform and qualifications. The strange part of the whole affair was that none of the incumbent candidates who are up for re-election were present neither were they represented by anyone.

This might be explained by the fact that the incumbent candidates had already attended other meetings instigated by the same group of men who sometimes identify themselves as the Economy League and other times as the Property Owners Association.

The platform and qualifications of the incumbent candidates who are seeking re-election next Monday, namely, Paul H. Deming for President, William K. Muir for Trustee, One Year Term, and LeRoy May, Joseph W. Snav and John R. Sutton, Jr. for Trustees, Two Year Term, are well known to the residents of the Village of Grosse Pointe Farms, since the records of the Village speak for the efficient manner in which the Village has been operated in the past several years.

A few outstanding facts in connection with the operation of the Village are as follows:

Taxpayers are now paying $2.50 less per thousand than they were four years ago.

In the past four years $112,000.00 was spent in Public Improvements benefiting all of the residents of the Village. The major portion of this money was used to replace sewers which were installed many years ago at which time the Village had no outlet but a ditch, when it was impossible to have only high level sewers. The streets which have benefited mostly from this expenditure are Fisher Road, Merrimweather Road, McKinley Avenue, Ridgemoor Road, Hillcrest Road, Morris Road and Lakeview Avenue, and taxpayers residing on the streets just mentioned find that with all of this expenditure their tax bill is less today than it was four years ago since the expenditure which was for the particular benefit of those people in the immediate neighborhood was charged to the Village at large and all taxpayers paid their share.

The Village debt has been reduced $402,000.00 in the past four years which greatly decreases the carrying charge on the remaining portion.

Records indicate that the average tax bill per home owner in 1935 was $405.72 which has since been reduced to $216.82 in 1939.

G. P. Alumnus Gets All A's at U. of M.

Charles Armstrong of the class of June, '38, of Grosse Pointe High School, now a sophomore in the Engineering School at the University of Michigan, received all A's as his first semester's marks. Armstrong holds an anonymous scholarship awarded by a Grosse Pointe High School patron and a Mothers' Club scholarship, both extended to him for the second year because of his excellent record. Although most of his freshman marks were also A's, last semester brought him his first all-A record.

In high school Mr. Armstrong distinguished himself especially in service to the school and was selected as the honor boy of his class.

Original Little Flower Shop Grand Opening This Week-end

Heralding, as it were, the near approach of spring, the Grosse Pointe Branch of the Original Little Flower Shop, Inc. will celebrate its grand opening this week-end (March 8, 9 and 10) with a gorgeous flower show. This beautiful shop, one of the newest additions to Grosse Pointe's flourishing business community, is located in the Punch & Judy building, directly adjoining the theater, convenient of access to all.

It would appear, from advance information received, that nothing will be left undone to make this grand opening and flower show one of the major events of the week. Beautiful spring flowers in great profusion will adorn every corner of the shop. Lovely plants, in innumerable quantities and of great variety, will bear living witness to the horticultural knowledge of their grower. The natural gaiety of such an event will be further enhanced by the presentation, to all who attend, of a delightful floral gift. All in all, it would seem that any who miss this flower show will be deprived of participating in a most entertaining and charming event.

Economy Committee Warns of Machine Politics

The Economy Committee for Good Government, supporting Karl B. Goddard, running as a "sticker" candidate for the President of the Village of Grosse Pointe Park against Alfred J. Garska, points out that the indictment returned by the grand jury against Mr. Garska clearly indicates that the Village government has not been as clean as represented. The committee also points out that William P. Shoemaker, an incumbent Village commissioner, seeking re-election and reportedly a close confidant of Mr. Garska, has been police commissioners seeking re-election. This is an open violation of the State Law creating such commissions, which reads, "nor shall any commissioner serve on any political committee or take any active part in the management of any political campaign."

The Economy Committee warns residents of Grosse Pointe Park not to confuse the Civic Committee with the Citizens Association of Grosse Pointe Park which endorsed all Economy Committee Candidates as Preferred at the Primary Election.

Mr. Goddard speaking of the candidates Homer Fritsch, Thomas T. Petzold and Ward S. Van Deusen said, "These three candidates for village commissioner are outstanding successes in their own businesses. They believe, as I do, that Grosse Pointe Park should be managed by a Village Manager who is trained expertly in municipal management. And we have offered to work for a dollar a year to pay such a general manager for our village when the new Charter amendment is adopted.

Chandler, who led the field in the primary election for village president, but who has withdrawn from the race because of the possibility of his being here in Grosse Pointe Park to campaign against himself.

"Mr. Chandler carried the standard for the 1600 voters who voted against the Garska 'machine' at the primary election," Mr. Goddard said. "But the residents of Grosse Pointe Park are not so easily cheated of victory. Mr. Chandler is working for my election as

Commission Candidates Express Views

In connection with the final election to be held in Grosse Pointe Park next Monday, this paper has interviewed two of the three candidates running for the office of commissioner on the "Economy Group" ticket.

Ward S. Van Deusen of 1147 York-shire, has lived in Grosse Pointe Park for five years and has been a taxpayer in that municipality for over 10 years. After receiving many phone calls from friends, Mr. Van Deusen agreed to be placed on the ballot as a candidate for a commissioner's post. Prominent in Detroit real estate affairs for many years, Mr. Van Deusen has frequently appeared before the state legislature to fight for and against measures that would affect his community. In the past year he has served as president of the Detroit Real Estate Board.

Although Mr. Van Deusen has had no previous experience in municipal affairs, if he is elected, he will consider and act on each question as it arises in a business-like manner. He added, "If the citizens care to change the charter to allow for a city manager, I will be happy to do anything I can. I will gladly accept $1 a year. I am not working for money."

Thomas T. Petzold of 1022 Buckingham has resided in Grosse Pointe Park for 12 years and has been a taxpayer for four years. Mr. Petzold likewise has had no previous experience in municipal affairs but has been connected with the J. L. Hudson Co. for fifteen years. He has been a member of the Citizens' Association since its organization and was drafted as a candidate for commissioner by the Economy Group. If he is elected Mr. Petzold will produce economy by curbing all unnecessary expenses.

Mr. Petzold believes in the $1 per year issue and states, "Real economy can be affected through the election of responsible citizens who are willing to contribute their time and services and the appointment of a city manager to do the routine work."

Homer C. Fritsch, the third candidate for commissioner has departed on a three weeks' vacation to Florida and could not be reached for a statement. Harvey C. Fruhauf, leader of the Economy Group, is also out of the city.

being here in Grosse Pointe Park to campaign against himself.

"Mr. Chandler carried the standard for the 1600 voters who voted against the Garska 'machine' at the primary election," Mr. Goddard said. "But the residents of Grosse Pointe Park are not so easily cheated of victory. Mr. Chandler is working for my election as

The two young bandits captured by the City of Grosse Pointe police pleaded guilty to charges of possessing assorted weapons and attempting to break into and enter a store at their arraignment in the Grosse Pointe City police station last Friday evening.

The complaint presented to Frank W. Lindeman, Justice of the Peace, and signed by Sergeant Edward Trombley, charged the two lads with possession of a gun, blackjack, two large jimmy bars and a kit of burglar tools. In addition the complaint accused the bandits of attempted breaking into and entering a grocery store at Washington Road and Mack avenue.

Captured Pair Plead Guilty At Arraignment

The two young bandits captured by the City of Grosse Pointe police pleaded guilty to charges of possessing assorted weapons and attempting to break into and enter a store at their arraignment in the Grosse Pointe City police station last Friday evening.

The complaint presented to Frank W. Lindeman, Justice of the Peace, and signed by Sergeant Edward Trombley, charged the two lads with possession of a gun, blackjack, two large jimmy bars and a kit of burglar tools. In addition the complaint accused the bandits of attempted breaking into and entering a grocery store at Washington Road and Mack avenue.

The accused pair, Lee McMillan and Aldredge Fleming of 457 Brainard, murmured pleas of guilty and will be bound over to Circuit Court for trial. Unable to furnish the $1,000 bond the boys waived an examination and are being held in Grosse Pointe until their trial comes up.

The two burglars were seized by Sergeant Trombley and Patrolman Andy Teetart February 27 when the bandits' stolen car crashed into a tree after bullets fired from the policeman's guns forced them to lose control of the wheel. The pair confessed to robbery of 20 business places in and around Detroit and the theft of thirty-some automobiles.

Detroit police found several hundred dollars' worth of radios, cameras and cigars in the suspects' apartment. The car which the bandits used in their Grosse Pointe robbery effort was stolen from Percy Swartz, 1115 Delaware. This automobile was originally reported missing January 25. On February 25 the Detroit police notified Swartz that his car had been found at the rear of 440 Simons avenue. When Swartz got there he found his car out of fuel and missing its ignition wires. The next day he returned prepared to tow his property away. Again the car was gone. This time McMillan and Fleming had appropriated it. Now it peacefully rests in the rear of the City of Grosse Pointe. The front bumper has been torn loose and the radiator grill is crumpled against the front of the motor block. Both front fenders and wheels are badly mangled.

Tax Morality

By TARLETON COLLIER
(Taken from the Atlanta (Ga.) Georgian Nov. 17, 1939.)

In the Supreme Court ruling which yesterday knocked out the Columbus chain store tax, this column faintly discerns a hint to the effect that there is a point of morality to be considered when one sets about passing tax laws.

Without actually saying so, the court seemed to raise the question, what is a tax for, anyhow?

There are numerous authorities on taxation as a social agency or vice, who dispute the idea that taxes should be applied for any other purpose than to raise revenue with which to operate the machinery of government.

True, we get away from this course frequently. We hear talk of applying taxation as a social agency or to equalize advantages or to perform a kind of police service, as when an unsavory occupation is taxed heavily to deter people from entering it.

All these things seem to depart from the true function of taxation. It looks as if we should be able to get at regulation in other, more intelligent, ingenious, courageous and constructive ways, than by the easy and sometimes ruthless way of destroying by taxation.

The Motives
In trying to make its point, this column hopes at this time to keep out of the dispute between chain stores and independents. It will have to ask, however, whether the chain store tax is designed as a revenue-raiser or as a means of overcoming the competition of the chain stores' streamlined methods.

Is it a tax, or is it a display of hostility and rancor?
Returns from the state's chain store tax are not only negligible in comparison with the total income but actually are decreasing. In the fiscal year which closed June 30, 1939, they amounted to $181,153.08, compared to $234,730.41 for the preceding year, a drop of $53,577.39, or nearly 25 per cent.

Chain stores are simply unpopular among a lot of people. It is argued that they take money out of a community, display less community interest than native independents. It is argued that they pay smaller taxes on inventories, accounts and personal property than their independent competitors because their turnover is more rapid and their books are inaccessible.

Some people don't like their labor policies or their wage scales, although many a progressive chain is making its peace with organized labor, as all of them, and all management elsewhere, probably will have to do sooner or later to keep pace with social trends.

And there are others who don't like chains because the chains to them represent "bigness."

What is "bigness?"
But, if a tax is imposed on chain stores to overcome the difference in personal property tax payments, the question naturally arises whether a tax which increases for every store as the total number of stores increases has any relation to store-by-store difference.

Does such a plan of progressive tax increase as was involved in the Columbus ordinance actually represent a calculation of differences, or is it merely a blow aimed at "bigness?"

And, if "bigness" is to be penalized, why not chain stores? Why not the attack while "bigness" in other fields not only goes without special taxation, but actually may win favors in legislation?

The Twentieth Century Fund's Committee on Taxation, in a recent report, made this point, as follows:

"The present taxes . . . ignore substantial similarities between large chains and large merchandising units that are not chains by taxing one and exempting the other. They also tend to ignore marked differences between large chains and small chains."

Who Is Helped?
If this column may be permitted a personal opinion, it would say that the mass-service chain stores represent a phase of business, and perhaps a phase between the old order and the consumer co-operative, which seems certain to be tried in this country on a large scale sooner or later.

For the fact is that competitive advantages brought about by the use of any business technique of organization or efficiency or volume or any other device mean advantages not so much to the business itself as to the consuming public.

We seem to rush into chain store taxation with feeling rather than with study and calculation. If there are evils in chain store operation, they don't lie in cheaper prices, and they are not to be remedied by use of the tax club which penalizes the beneficiary of cheaper prices. Taxation, in purest theory, isn't intended for that sort of thing in the first place.

The remedy lies in regulation of other sorts or in meeting the competition with more efficient merchandising and organization, not in vindictiveness.

The program was planned under the leadership of Harold Husband, general chairman. Other chairmen were: Charles Saltzer, speaker; Mrs. Ruth Pace and H. Leroy Selmer, noon luncheons; Paul Junge, traffic; Mr. Woodworth, stage arrangements and ushers; Miss Doris Trout, publicity; William Watkins, music; Vincent Peterson, printing of programs.

Blue Devils Beat Monroe 23-20
Grosse Pointe High's Blue Devil basketball squad finished its regular season last Friday night by beating Monroe's Trojans 23-20 and ended in a tie with the Fordson Trojans for first place in the Border Cities League standing.

This victory, Grosse Pointe's tenth in 13 contests, brought the Blue Devils' league record to eight wins and two losses. Fordson finished its schedule by trouncing Wyandotte and also registered a final eight and two count.

The Blue Devils started slow and a scoring spree in the third quarter was necessary to snip a Monroe lead. Grosse Pointe trailed 11-14 at the half, but scored nine points in the third quarter, while holding Monroe to a single foul shot. In a rough and exciting last period the Devils scored only three points but Monroe could account for no more than five.

Gordon Tanner, Grosse Pointe forward, who has averaged 10 points a game all season, again led his team's scoring. Tanner, a six-foot junior, marked up three field goals and four free throws. Adolf Neeme, the last of the athletic brothers, threw in seven points and his aggressive defensive game helped the Grosse Pointe cause considerably. Ted Gordon, Monroe forward, contributed seven points for the losers.

Grosse Pointe's reserves also came from behind and nosed out Monroe by almost the same score as their "big brothers". The Blue Devils managed a 23-21 victory with Lee, Ireland and Dillon dividing the scoring laurels for the winners.

"The Saviour's Sacrificial Suffering," will be the subject of the sermon at the Grosse Pointe Lutheran Church, worshiping in the Richard Sunday, Kercheval and McKinley, Sunday morning, March 10th, at 11 o'clock, preached by the Rev. M. Luther Canup, D.D., pastor.

"Triumph Through Surrender," will be the topic taught in Sunday School at 9:45 a. m., where we have classes for all grades.

We need several more consecrated teachers in our Sunday School and shall be glad for applicants. Here is an opportunity to do constructive Christian work.

This will be Passion Sunday observance in our parish and you and your family are cordially invited.

We will again hold a community or neighborhood Good Friday service at the Punch and Judy Theatre Good Friday from 12 to 3 o'clock. There will be three short sermons, solo numbers, Bible reading and hymns singing. Come and join us.

Latest Records
By L. W. MOUNTFORD
The wax world offers some swells tunes this week with Jerry Colonna stealing the spotlight on the Columbia label with "Don't Send My Roy to Prison," and "I Came to Say Good-bye." Columbia's recording of Kay Kyser's orchestra stands out in the light with "Confucius Say" with the reverse side playing "The Starlit Hour."

W. C. Handy, father of the original blues, does a swell job on some new varsity labels with "Loveless Love"; "Way Down South Where the Blues Begin" and the "Beale Street"; "St. Louis Blues." Mr. Handy stars the trumpet solos with selected orchestras.

Ziggy Elman does a top-notch performance on the trumpet, hitting high C "Tootin' My Baby Back Home," backing it with "What I Used to Was, I Used to Was" on Bluebird.

Victor has a new recording of Lionel Hampton and Company of top-notch stars on "I Found a New Baby"—Kenny Baker sings "On a Little Street in Singapore" for Vic. and "Faithful Forever."

"The Parade of The Little White Mice" followed by "It's My Turn Now" with a swell vocal by Penny Parker with Vincent Lopez and orchestra.

We would like to call your attention to the Decca recording of "The Flight of the Bumble Bee" by the world's best sax player, Jimmy Dorsey, with his orchestra, it's tops in swing.

Record and Radio Questions
F.G.W., Philco Model 640.—The fact that the shadowgraph is affected by the condition described in your letter points to trouble in the R.F. portion of the receiver. We suggest replacement of the triple section electrolytic condenser, one section of which is the screen-grid bypass condenser. The manufacturer's part number is 30-3114 for this condenser. Check the 6A7 tube.

M.J.M.—As far as we can make out since Artie Shaw left his orchestra the boys got together and formed a co-operative band and named 21 year old George Auld their band leader. George is from Toronto and plays tenor sax. There will be some swell records soon with the boys that will show it wasn't all Artie Shaw.

Address all record or radio questions to "The Record Player" in care of this paper.

Grosse Exaggerations?

In our movie-going around this week, we caught up with Joan Bennett's new vee-hickle, "Green Hell." We sat through all kinds of it and toward the finish, when the four remaining men prayed for their ammunition to hold out, we prayed too—for five bullets, —four for them and one for us.

We missed "Streets Of London," with Laughton and Leigh, but think we know why people were so disappointed in Vivien's acting in this opus. The billing for the picture reads, "See Scarlett rise to new emotional heights." As a matter of fact, they're her old heights, because "Streets Of London" was produced in England long before Margaret Mitchell got the Yankees out of Atlanta.

"Pinnocchio" is drawing as big a crowd as did "Gone." From behind locked doors and with drawn sword, we'd like to venture the statement that either we are crazy or the Nation is. Having sat through an hour or more of Snow White and those little men, we've decided that fifteen minutes of Mr. Disney's family is about all we can laugh off. Everyone say, Pinnocchio is a 'must.' Pryor say, so is spinach.

Margaret Halsey, who wrote "With Malice Toward Some," (a poison-al account of her trip through England), is here with the Artists and Writers group. She is young, attractive and surprisingly taciturn. When we met her we expected to be 'gipped' to a fare-thee-well, but she's probably hoarding her material for another 'bomb-shell' novel. If it happens to be about THIS place, we're laughing already!

The social barometer of Palm Beach is or are, the "Jay" O'Briens. Jay used to be one of Mae Murray's husbands, and Mrs. O.B. used to be a Miss Hylian, who went from Hemmingway to Fleischman to O'Brien. (Stop me if I'm getting too, too, Maury Paulish).

Anyway, the O'Briens specialize in collecting "names in the news." If a prominent visiting freeman isn't guesting at the O'Briens, you can bet there's a foul play someplace. This year, among other guests, they are hosting to Mrs. Philip Ammidon, the former Bea Hudson. A few years ago, Bea was a model and just as pretty and cute as she is now, but NOW Phil Ammidon's social background and $$$ have made Bea an O'Brien "catch." When Paulette Goddard was a chorus girl (here) three years ago, she couldn't have crashed the back door of sashy but three years ago, when she returned here as Mrs. Charles Chaplin and a potential "Scarlett," the O'Briens housed her, much to the envy of the Palm Beach "Feetage." Bea and Paulette are two good examples of girls who built better mouse traps and THAT'S why one famous columnist says that Palm Beach is as phoney as a lead quarter.

If you ladies want to treat yourselves to a begg thrill, take a look at the new Platina Fox skins. We saw two of them in one of the shops here and were told we could have four made into a neat little jacket for only forty seven hundred dollars. They are the most beautiful "Foxen" we've ever seen and are just about as hardy as an orchid.

cleaning helps prolong the life of your clothes
Yes, sir, that's a fact. Frequent Alger cleaning makes your clothes wear longer because quality, careful cleaning gently removes oils and grime that deteriorate fabric fibres and dull patterns and colors. But it is important that a quality cleaner like Alger does the job. Modern methods and skillful handling insure the long life of garments cleaned by us.

Population Census Explained

"If every family would devote the conversation at one single dinner hour to a discussion of the coming census of population, it would be a great convenience to the family, and an aid to the community and to the government," said Mr. Wm. F. Lehmann, manager of the census for this district.

home early in April," said Mr. Lehmann "and some member of each family should be designated by the family to act as spokesman when the census taker comes and give all the information required about every household occupant, even including roomers and hired help who live in the household." According to Mr. Lehmann, these are the facts that the census man will call for about every household: about every household: House number and street.

Home owned, or rented; home value, if owned; monthly rental, if rented. Live on farm? "Yes or no). Name of every person in household and relationship to head of family; sex, color or race; age last birthday; single, married, widowed or divorced. Whether attended school or college since March 1, 1940; highest grade completed. State or country of birth. Citizenship of any foreign-born. Where did each person live five years ago, that is on April 1, 1935? (This is to get a study of internal migration.) To get complete facts of employment and unemployment, each person 14 or over must say whether at work for pay or profit in private industry during week March 24-30. If not working for private industry, or non-emergency government work, or regular government work, whether working for WPA, NYA, CCC same week. If neither at work nor assigned to public emergency work, each person must say whether or not he is seeking work; if not seeking work, whether he has a job or business from which he is temporarily away.

Each person not at work or not seeking work must say whether engaged in home housework, in school, unable to work or "other". All persons employed by private industry or on regular government work are required to give the number of hours worked the week of March 14-30 and those seeking work and those assigned to public emergency work must state the duration of their unemployment in weeks up to March 30, 1940.

Every person at work, either private or emergency, must give present occupation, industry and class of worker. Those without work but seeking work, must report on whether they have had previous work experience lasting one month or more and give their last occupation, industry and class of worker. If they have not had previous work experience and are seeking work they will be listed as "new workers."

Information sought on "occupation" above, must include exact nature of duties performed, such as trade, profession or particular kind of work done. Under "industry" above, report kind of factory, store or other business in which duties are performed. Under "Class of worker" above, report whether a wage or salary worker in private work; a wage or salary worker in government work (including WPA, CCC, NYA); an employer; working on own account, or an unpaid family worker.

Report the number of weeks worked during 1939 (equivalent full-time weeks). Report the amount of money, wages, or salary received (including commissions) during 1939 and whether there was additional income of $50 or more from other sources during the year.

To get a national study of racial origin, war veterans, social security, usual occupations and industry and number of children born to women, each twentieth person will be asked the state or country of birth of father and mother; mother tongue; whether a veteran; whether a wife, widow or child under 18 of a veteran; if a child, is the veteran father dead; what war or military service.

Each twentieth person will also be asked whether he or she has a social security number, whether or not deductions were paid for federal old age insurance, or railroad retirement in 1939. If deductions were made, were they based on all, one-half, or more, or less than half of wages or salary?

Each twentieth person will also be asked his or her "usual" occupation, industry and class of worker. State as usual occupation that one so regarded, or if not sure, that one at which has worked most during the past 10 years. This supplementary census will also ask each woman who has been married whether married more than one; age at first marriage and number of children ever born.

Dogs

By DICK BODYCOMBE
 Perhaps you own a dog and perhaps you don't. But whether you are a canine fancier or not these figures should prove interesting to you.

Do you know that there are over 2,500 dogs in Grosse Pointe Township?
 Do you know that only 1,964 of these animals are registered at the various municipal offices?

Do you realize that there are more dogs than children of school age?
 Do you realize that if all the dogs in Grosse Pointe were lined up end to end they would reach from Cadieux Road to Fisher Road on Kercheval Avenue?
 Perhaps the exact figure on the registered dogs might interest you.

Grosse Pointe Park ..... 494
 City of Grosse Pointe ..... 543
 Grosse Pointe Farms ..... 305
 Grosse Pointe Shores ..... 106
 Grosse Pointe Woods ..... 226

Is your dog registered?
 Black dogs! White dogs! Brown dogs! Spotted dogs! Mean dogs! Friend dogs! Sick dogs! Happy dogs! Tired dogs! Old dogs! Young dogs! Homeless dogs! Dogs! Dogs! Grosse Pointe has all kinds of dogs. Pedigreed dogs! Valuable dogs! And the good old mongrels!

Faithful dogs! A dog is a man's best friend. Do you treat yours as one?

Some girls worked on their second class requirements. Others who had already completed these tried to pass tests in order to earn merit badges. The troop bused itself till 4 o'clock by playing games. Then the first and second class scouts divided, so that each group could work separately. Later the scouts formed patrols and discussed the trip they will take to Metamora Camp on March 8, 9 and 10.

School Dentist Examines Teeth

Believe it or not, the students of Grosse Pointe High School do not clean their teeth as often as they should. Among 127, 128 students, Dr. Maxwell Laffrey, school dentist, found only 59 with perfect teeth. Among 88 12A students examined, only 33 were found to have perfect teeth. Only one disease that might prove harmful to others was found.

Young men and women of today should recognize more and more the importance of good dental health in their scholastic, business and social life," asserts Dr. Laffrey. "The average, healthy and happy person is one physically free of diseases," Dr. Laffrey advises. "Every sick spell or accident leaves a scar of some kind, to be carried the rest of your life. There is no doubt that infected and neglected teeth cause a great deal of unnecessary illness. Since dental infection is so common, let us all start a systematized care of our teeth."

There are a few important rules that one should always remember, emphasized Dr. Laffrey. "First, we must provide our body with the proper nourishment by eating plenty of vegetables, fruits, eggs and drinking plenty of milk," he said. Dr. Laffrey suggests that everyone should eat a certain amount of coarse food to exercise his jaw bones and the supporting tissues. "We must also remember a clean tooth never decays," Dr. Laffrey said. Dr. Laffrey insists one or two early trips to the dentist before decay has progressed will save several long and painful trips later and may save one serious physical disability resulting from infected teeth.

Devil Cagers Enter State Competition

Grosse Pointe High's Border Cities League championship basketball squad will put in its bid for the state championship this week when the Blue Devils tangle with six other class A schools in the regional tournament to be held in the new $185,000 gymnasium at Ferndale, Mich.

Coch Forrester Geary's well-trained quintet, which finished in a deadlock with the Fordson Tractors in the league standings, drew deep into the hat early this week and came up with a slip of paper which bore the name of the pesky Royal Oak squad. This means that Grosse Pointe will meet Royal Oak in the first round of an elimination series. The winner advances and the loser hangs up his knee-guards for the season. Pontiac, Hazel Park, Mt. Clemens, Port Huron and Ferndale have also entered this cut-throat scramble and the final winner receives the honor of proceeding to Battle Creek to meet the other regional champs. Other regionals will be held at Lansing, Fordson, Lincoln Park, Saginaw, Kalamazoo, Grand Rapids and Holland. Flint Northern won the coveted title last year.

If Grosse Pointe can pass the Royal Oak barrier they will meet the winner of the Port Huron-Ferndale tilt at 9 o'clock on Friday evening. Royal Oak is remembered as the team that broke the Blue Devil seven-game winning streak early in February and knocked Grosse Pointe back into a tie with Fordson. Coach Geary's charges suffered a severe set-back early this week when Gordon Tanner, Blue Devil high scorer and all-around hero, was sent to the hospital with injuries requiring 12 stitches. Strangely enough, Tanner's injuries were not sustained on the basketball court but during an innocent little game of ping-pong. The circumstances of the accident are veiled with mystery, but persons "in the know" claim Tanner came out on the short end of a tussle with some sort of indirect floor lighting lamp. This reduces Grosse Pointe's chances considerably and "second-guessers" have already counted the Blue Devils out. But a squad packed with the ability of the present Grosse Pointe team can never be counted out until the final basket is marked in the little red score book.

Miss Mary Kathleen Schrage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendelin C. Schrage, 1321 Devonshire Road, and a student at Marygrove College, recently had an article published in the Catholic Family Monthly.

The paper, which was written to satisfy Miss Schrage's senior thesis requirements, was entitled "How the Baby Grows." It discussed the development of the infant.

Miss Schrage is a senior at the college and is majoring in home economics.

School Notes

More than 400 University of Michigan students were awarded degrees at the close of the first semester of the 1939-1940 school year. This number included Gladys H. Kelsey of Grosse Pointe Park, who received her Bachelor of Arts degree.

David A. Coolidge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Coolidge of Kensington Road, was recently re-elected a member of the executive committee of the freshman class of Haverford College. Besides being a class officer Dave was elected to the business board of the Haverford News at mid-year elections. Last fall he had a leading part in the Cap and Bells' play, "The Ghost Train." In addition he sings baritone in the Haverford glee club, which is currently giving concerts in and about Philadelphia.

Three Marygrove students from this section were outstanding for scholarship at the college for the first semester. Their names were included on the scholastic honors list released last week.

Village Administration Not Responsible For December Taxes

Confusion has arisen in the minds of many of the residents of Grosse Pointe Park as to the duties and functions of the various municipal governmental units.

The State of Michigan, through its various legislative, judicial and executive officers, boards, commissions, etc., administers matters which are purely state functions.

The state, under the constitution, is divided into counties, one of which is Wayne County. The county administers county affairs, such as the various courts, the sheriff's department, county jail, homes for the poor and insane, county roads and various other county functions.

In addition to certain fees, revenues and other income, the county is financed by a property tax which is determined by the County Board of Supervisors, and which is levied and collected as a part of the December tax.

The administration of schools is handled by school districts which are organized under statutory provisions. Our school district embraces the Villages of Grosse Pointe Woods, Grosse Pointe Farms, Grosse Pointe Shores, Grosse Pointe Park and City of Grosse Pointe, and part of Gratiot Township.

The school district is financed by various revenues, and primary school funds from the state and a tax levied on property in the school district, which property tax is determined by the board of education and is certified for collection to the Township of Grosse Pointe, Gratiot Township, and the City of Grosse Pointe and is collected as a part of the December tax.

The board of education has the sole power to determine the amount of money to be raised by tax within constitutional limitations, and is not subject to the control of township or Village officials.

The Township of Grosse Pointe embraces all of the Villages of Grosse Pointe Woods, Grosse Pointe Farms, Grosse Pointe Shores and Grosse Pointe Park. The township operates the public health department, police radio, the conduct of all state, county and national elections, the welfare and destitution of the township and all other matters purely township in character.

The township supervisor prepares the December tax roll, based upon taxes directed to be levied for the county, the school district as well as the township. But the township cannot control the tax to be levied for either the county or the school district.

Prior to 1929 the offices of Grosse Pointe Township were situated on Maumee avenue near Roosevelt avenue in the City of Grosse Pointe. This location was inaccessible to the great majority of Grosse Pointe residents, so in 1929 the township offices were moved to the Grosse Pointe Park Municipal Building, in the quarters on the second floor previously vacated by the Grosse Pointe Fire Department.

For these quarters, the Township of Grosse Pointe pays rental to Grosse Pointe Park. The location was handy to the great majority of Grosse Pointe residents who depended upon public transportation system for conveyance.

Although the offices of the township are in the same building as that the Village offices, the Village and its officials have no authority over the conduct of township affairs, any more than such officials control the state, county or school activities. The Village officials have no voice in determining the amount of the December tax, or its levy and collection.

The Village is financed by a tax levied and collected in July. This tax is determined by the Village commission and is the only tax over which the Village officials have control.

Louisa St. Clair Chapter D. A. R.

Mrs. Robert Bruce Rutherford of 19200 Rutherford avenue is entertaining at her home the pages of the Louisa St. Clair Chapter, D. A. R., at a membership tea next Thursday, March 7, from 3 to 5 p. m.

A patriotic color scheme of red, white and blue will be used on the lace covered table. A floating arrangement of red, white and blue carnations in a crystal bowl will form the centerpiece, being flanked on either side with matching tapers and crystal candelabra.

Mrs. Ellsworth Kramer will pour at the silver tea, service and will be assisted by Miss Olga Erickson.

Among the guests will be Mrs. William Bruce Gregory, Mrs. Wright Belinger, Miss Joanne Harris, Mrs. Ford Spikerman, Miss Anita Chandler, Miss Marion Brooke, Miss Betty Owen, Mrs. William Kruger, Mrs. Harold I. Tanner and Mrs. John Purcell.

Hikers Enjoy Rainy Walk

Last Sunday's rain did not keep the hikers of Unit 19 from enjoying the activities planned for the day. They drove out to Vacation Farm near Holly, where Units 15 and 19 were the guests of Unit 2.

About twenty members from all units went on a short hike while others stayed at the farm where they played games and sang. Following a delicious farm dinner the hikers drove to a nearby hall where they held a dance. Virginia reels and circular fox-trots were called by one of the local residents.

Next Sunday, Unit 19 will meet at Seven Mile Road and Mack at 1:30 p. m. From there they will drive out Dequindre Road about 1 mile beyond Auburn Road to Spring Valley Tavern.

Here they will park their cars and hike in the vicinity of the tavern. The hike will be followed by dinner and dancing at the tavern. Everyone 18 years of age and over is welcome to hike with this Unit.

a "sticker" candidate, and hundreds of workers have gathered to carry the message of the Economy Committee to every voter in the village.

Mr. Goddard said that his attention had been called to a large advertisement carried in the Grosse Pointe Review, and to a circular letter, both of which carried the endorsement of the Civic Committee.

"The advertisement stated '8 Reasons Why You Should Keep Your Present Administration,' but so far as I could see, the reasons stated were eight reasons why the present administration should be indicted for mismanagement and incompetence in municipal affairs. I would label the advertisement: '8 Reasons for the Perpetuation of Wretched Village Government!'"

Mr. Goddard declared that the shortcomings of the present administration are well summarized in the recent bulletin of the Economy Committee.

"An indictment of the present village administration should recite the following," he said:

"1. Village taxes have been raised by the present administration, and in addition to this increase in taxes, the village officials have borrowed $182,197.61 from the sinking fund of the village to pay operating expenses. This deficit will have to be met, yet most of the $180,250.52 set up as delinquent taxes to meet this deficit will probably never be collected since most of the property has been put up at the scavenger sale.

"The claim that the present administration has lived within its budget is a false political gesture. What the voters quarrel with is the size of the budget. The budget can be cut, and taxes can be saved by efficient municipal operation. Salaries need not be cut, nor vital services impaired.

"2. Our present administration has gradually increased taxes. Every old resident of Grosse Pointe Park remembers the old tax rate, and how our present officers used to justify high taxes by saying that Grosse Pointe Park was sparsely settled—that as soon as more houses were built, the tax rate would be decreased. Today we have built up the bare spots, but the taxes are higher than ever. There must be a quirk in their figuring.

Mr. Goddard said that village employees should feel assured that no disciplinary tactics were planned against them by candidates sponsored by the Economy Committee, upon taking office.

"We realize," he said, "that the village employees who have been urged to work against us have agreed to do so under a misapprehension created purposely by President Garska and his 'machine.' We are not out to 'get' any Village employee but there is no place in a Village Government for people who have selfishly opposed the kind of municipal government which the residents of the Park demand. The Economy Committee Candidates are not politicians. But we do intend to sacrifice our time and business sufficiently to put the Village on a sound financial basis, and to organize an efficient and economical municipal government."

KARL B. GODDARD Sticker Candidate for VILLAGE PRESIDENT

KARL B. GODDARD

Successful Detroit attorney, who has lived in Grosse Pointe Park for the past 14 years, has been drafted by the Economy Committee to run for Village President since the withdrawal of Mr. John W. Chandler.

Mr. Goddard lives at 1240 Yorkshire road, is married and has always taken a keen interest in public affairs. He is a graduate of the Law Department of the University of Michigan, 1916, LL. B. Admitted to practice in the state of Illinois and Michigan. Is a member of the American Bar, the State Bar of Michigan, and the Detroit Bar Association. In addition to his professional duties he has gained prominence as an executive of unusual ability as Vice President and Secretary of the Universal Products Company and as a director of the Eureka Vacuum Cleaner Company.

The confusion caused by the challenge of John W. Chandler's qualifications is over. Mr. Chandler has withdrawn—out of fairness to the people of Grosse Pointe. Mr. Chandler is asking the residents not to vote for him but for Mr. Goddard. You may rest assured that when you have elected Karl B. Goddard you will have a Village President who will serve you well. The people of the Grosse Pointe Park will not be cheated out of their victory.—It is plain to everyone—that this is the time for a change.

How to Vote Your "Sticker Vote" INSTRUCTIONS 1. Detach one sticker, and fasten securely to the ballot in the space provided for it, beneath the last name of the candidate for president, and at NO OTHER PLACE. 2. Be SURE to mark [X] in the [ ] in front of Mr. Goddard's name. YOUR BALLOT WILL NOT BE COUNTED IF you do not mark a cross in the square before Mr. Goddard's name or IF the sticker comes off. FASTEN THE STICKER SECURELY.

Citizens' Association Explains 'Manager Plan'

(This is a continuation of the article started in the Grosse Pointe Review last week.)

"A capable, experienced full time Village manager having but one interest in mind and devoting his full efforts to his single job, would, as has been done in neighboring examples, alleviate this wasted effort, bungling and costly procedure.

"Residents of Grosse Pointe Park must by now be aware of the fact that Village finances are in anything but a satisfactory state. We are bonded dangerously close to the statutory limit; some $182,000.00 of sinking funds that should have been set aside for paying off of indebtedness has been transferred to the general fund and expended for general administration; many thousands of dollars of the securities held in the sinking fund are obligations of small municipalities and tax districts where are in default and are worth only a fraction of their face value or the value at which they appear on the Village books, and we now stand to lose at least a substantial portion of some $180,000.00 in back taxes through the State tax sales. Yet it is being contended that the budgets of the present administration are in balance and that your present officers have conducted all the affairs of Village administration within $2,000.00 of their budget."

"In the first place, staying within a municipal budget is hardly a difficult task. One has only to set the budget high enough and even the most extravagant officers could accomplish the fact. Next, increase the assessed valuations, raise the tax rate, shift funds from one account to another at will and collect the taxes and presto—the budget is in theoretical balance. Any taxpayer knows the ultimate answer to this story. It can mean but one of two things, either radically reduced services or further increases in assessed valuations and tax rates. And in the end as even now, higher rents for tenants or vacant rental properties; lower property values for owners because of forced sales and migration of residents to lower tax areas, and less new building since lower tax rates exist in nearby areas.

"It is a noteworthy fact that the present annual budget was adopted by the Village Commission, as submitted by the individual commissioners for their respective departments, at a single meeting without review or study by the commission as a whole. Such a system of procedure and action obviously points to the sky as the limit. Such methods can only be corrected by a change from such a system to a plan more soundly conceived and more ably executed such as the Village manager plan.

"In 1939 32.7 cents of each Village tax dollar was expended for debt service. That is, 22 1/2 cents for interest and 10.2 cents, at least in theory, for the retirement of prior indebtedness through sinking fund or otherwise. Of course, if one owes money, one must pay interest and also make some move toward payment of the principal. The rub is, however, the size of the debt and the rate of interest that we must pay. It is freely admitted by municipal bond experts, that if our Village finances were in a more satisfactory condition that we could have sold the recent issues of sewer bonds on a one-third lower interest rate. This savings alone would amount to approximately $8,500.00 per year. If the lower interest rate could be applied to the entire debt, it would mean a savings of approximately $38,000.00 or 7 1/2 cents out of each tax dollar, or a tax bill of $92.50 instead of $100.00 for the average taxpayer.

"The City of Alpena, Mich., a Manager Plan City, with a population approximating our own, sold bonds bearing interest at an average of 2 1/4 per cent or 35 per cent lower than our 3 1/4 per cent, while New Rochelle, N. Y., population about 54,000, another manager plan city, has an issue outstanding at 2 per cent interest or 45 per cent lower interest than our Village is obliged to pay. Kalamazoo, Mich., under the manager plan, has paid off its entire indebtedness and is now on a complete pay-as-you-go basis. If this situation existed in Grosse Pointe Park the average tax bill for 1939 would have been $32.70 less for each $100.00 of taxes assessed. Under a village manager our Village can do it because it is being done under municipal conditions where welfare costs have, in recent years, been a greater factor than is true here.

"Finally, what will a village manager cost in the way of salary? This question naturally cannot be answered specifically. An opponent of the village manager plan has, however, cited that the manager of Royal Oak receives $4,575.00 annually. Royal Oak has a population of about 23,000. On the basis of population comparison our Village should be obliged to pay only $3,100.00. Investigation shows, however, that for the average well managed city of comparable size salaries range from $4,000 to $5,000, apparently based somewhat on living costs in the area. Approximately the probably salary can be saved by the adoption of the charter amendment providing for annual savings of $4,320.00 in present president and commissioner salaries."

So Now We Live
In a Cabbage Patch

To the Editor:
As we all well know, most election campaigns have contained some well-known mud slinging and personal calumny but it certainly takes a woman to cast aspersions on a whole community. We refer to a recent statement made by the wife of a leading member of the Citizens Association of Grosse Pointe Park during a whispering campaign bridge party, that "we must get rid of the cabbage patch west of Somerset."

Now, ain't that somethin'? Imagine the surprise of a large proportion of the residents of Grosse Pointe Park when they suddenly wake up to the fact that they no longer live in a beautiful, homey, comfortable community but in a "cabbage patch." That expression is a distinct slur and a definite slap at many of our oldest citizens who settled our Village 25 years ago and now have to stand for such slanderous remarks from a woman who has only lived in Grosse Pointe Park eight years. 'Tain't right!

It might have been right—yet we wouldn't condone it—had this charming (?) woman taken a crack at some of the candidates—we're used to that from the men in the Citizens' Association—but we don't feel that the residents of Grosse Pointe Park should take that "cabbage patch" remark sitting down. While they might not own large, palatial "palaces" they are certainly fine, honorable, God-fearing, upstanding citizens and a credit to any community, particularly Grosse Pointe Park. God-fearing, upstanding citizens and a credit to any community, particularly Grosse Pointe Park.

However, this "cabbage patch" slur of the above-mentioned "charming lady (?) is so typical of the Citizens' Association campaign of misrepresentation and untruth—of bad advice and lack of knowledge—that we should perhaps forget the whole incident, because if the husbands don't know any better, how can we expect the wives to curb their tongues? But those residents who do not choose to take that dirty dig lying down and certainly repay it in full on election day, March 11.

Marden Answers Critics

March 4, 1940

To the taxpayers of the Village of Grosse Pointe Park:

For the past year and with increasing intensity during the last few months, misleading reports have been circulated through various sources concerning the engineering costs on the Storm Water Relief Sewer System now in the process of completion in the Village of Grosse Pointe Park. As your Village Engineer, I feel it my duty to you, to the present Village Administration, and to my many friends throughout the Park, to present a clear statement of facts regarding the much discussed 5% fee that I am receiving for engineering expenses on this project. I have been employed by the Village of Grosse Pointe Park for some twenty odd years as Village Engineer and General Maintenance Superintendent for which I have received a monthly salary. In 1938 it became necessary to construct a storm water relief sewer system. I entered into a contract with the Village Commissioners to do the necessary engineering work in connection with the proposed project on a commission basis of 5% of the construction cost.

At the start of this project my salary as General Maintenance Superintendent was discontinued by the Village Commissioners although I still carry on all the duties for which I was paid said salary.

Following I am submitting an itemized statement of expenditures incurred by me on this project as of March 1, 1940:

Total amount received from the Village as of March 1, 1940, $42,087.23. (5% of construction cost as per contract.)
Itemized account of expenses (June 1, 1938 to March 1, 1940).

Employee's salaries (7 men employed, includes no salary for myself) $13,629.57.

Test borings (tests necessary to determine nature of ground prior to advertising for bids) $700.00.

Laboratory work (testing materials etc.) $1,246.10.

Travel expense (necessary trips to P. W. A. Central Office in Chicago and also includes expense of auto used by field crews) $2,448.15.

Printing costs (plans and specifications) $1,074.00.

Office supplies (misc. printing, drafting and survey supplies) $413.86.

Consultants fees (Design fees and general consulting services) $8,791.40.

General Acc't. (Social Security Taxes and misc. expense) $654.97. Total, $28,858.05.

My salary as Maintenance Supt. for the same period would have been, $9,625.00.

Amount received over and above salary, $3,604.18.

Note: The government paid 45% of this fee with a resultant saving to the Village.

The usual engineering cost of projects of this nature vary from 5 to 7 1/2%. The federal government has allowed as high as 7% for engineering into consideration the above facts work on similar P. W. A. projects. Tak- and figures, it is apparent that the Village Commissioners did not make an unwise or costly contract for the engineering on the Storm Water Relief Sewer Project for the Village of Grosse Pointe Park.

Respectfully yours,
Village Engr.

A. E. Champney Reports
On Tax Re-assessment

The recent re-assessment of all property in Grosse Pointe Township was part of a county-wide project undertaken by the Wayne County Board of Tax Allocation, Albert E. Champney, director of the board, said this week in an interview.

The project was designed to make the basis for taxation in Wayne County uniform throughout every township. Fifteen of the 18 townships in the county have been completed and re-assessment work is under way in the remaining three townships at the present time, Champney said.

Villages within the township are not compelled to accept this re-assessment as a basis for their taxation purposes. The Village officials, who had no part in the re-assessment project, may accept the re-assessment, or may not as they see fit. Incorporated cities within the township must, however, under the statute, accept the new assessment for their tax rolls.

The work of re-assessing every home and piece of vacant property in Grosse Pointe Township last year took a staff of 12 men approximately nine months. It was completed last fall. Salaries of these men were paid by Wayne County, not by the township, Champney continued. Some of the work was done as a WPA project.

Every house in the township was actually measured by persons trained in tax assessing, and the value was estimated uniformly for all houses. The valuations were made according to a uniform plan that had been carefully worked out by Champney and his staff. Valuations were based on the present day cost of construction of the house, less depreciation, Champney said.

"We figured present building costs accurately, from all statistics available to us," Champney said. "We computed depreciation according to a uniform scale. We plan to make annual changes in these assessments, depending on whether building costs go up or down. Depreciation will, of course, be considered at all times."

"We found many inequalities in the assessments of certain houses in Grosse Pointe Township. It is our belief that these inequalities have been erased, and that every house in the township now is assessed correctly, on a uniform scale."

Before the county-wide project was undertaken it was explained to a meeting of all the township supervisors, who approved it. When the assessment was completed in each township it was submitted to the supervisor of that township, who had to approve or disapprove of every single assessment before it could be placed on the tax roll, Champney continued.

The new assessments usually are considerably below the actual cost of the house—even of a new house—because the assessors did not consider architects' fees, builders' fees, contractors' profits, financing costs and other more or less intangible items, he said.

The re-assessment should not be blamed, Champney said, for an increase in the total amount of taxes collected in the township. Certain individual increases may be attributed to the re-assessment, but there are other cases in which the individual assessment may have been reduced.

If the amount collected for township taxes has increased, it is because more money was needed to operate the schools, the county government or the township government, Champney said, not because the property has been re-assessed.

Pierce Comedy Postponed One Week

Due to the illness of several members of the cast, the comedy, "Here Comes Charlie," has been postponed until next week. The matinee will be held in the Pierce Auditorium on Thursday afternoon, March 7, at 4 o'clock. The evening performance will be held on Saturday evening, March 9, at 8:15.

Rehearsals have been held regularly for three weeks and all indications point toward a very entertaining performance. The play is being produced by Boy Scout Troop 39, and all roles are being taken by boys.

The cast is as follows:

- Larry Elliot.....Jack Waugaman
  - Mrs. Farnham.....Peter Baker
  - Charlie Hoops.....John Hanley
  - Alex Twiggs.....Bill DeLand
  - Ted Hartley.....Charles Foster
  - Mrs. Smythe Kersey.....Larry King
  - Vivian Smythe Kersey.....Donald Droll
  - Mortimer Smythe Kersey.....
  - .....Henry Wilson
  - Nora Malone.....Amer Marshall
  - Tim McGill.....Kenneth Cunningham
- The play is under the direction of the Scoutmaster, Chet Sampson.

Why Change OUR PRESENT FORM OF GOVERNMENT? It's Operated Economically And Efficiently

With all the hullabaloo and noise being raised in Grosse Pointe Park about our Village Administration, your Civic Committee has been unable to substantiate any of the charges lodged against the present incumbent officers. Of course, if only half the truth is told, a great number of citizens perhaps may be unduly influenced. But we can't find anything wrong with our present administration and can see no reason to change. And here's why:

We have no complaint with the candidates of the Citizens' Association as gentlemen but we do object to their lack of experience. Why even their advisers are so ignorant of State Election Laws that these candidates have laid themselves wide open to possible prosecution and disqualification to hold office. This lack of experience would be a distinct hindrance to economic government rather than a help. Your present officers are all men experienced in handling the municipal affairs of your Village. They've given you the finest police and fire departments, health and public works departments in the Grosse Pointe area.

Don't believe for a minute that your Village officers had anything to do with your December taxes. THE ONLY TAX OVER WHICH THE VILLAGE OFFICIALS HAVE ANY CONTROL IS THE JULY TAX, LEVIED TO FINANCE THE VILLAGE OF GROSSE POINTE PARK. Your school tax is determined by your Board of Education, while your Township Tax is prepared by the Township Board. Just because your July tax and December tax is paid in our Municipal Building is no reason to believe the Village officers are responsible for both. They are separate and distinct. And there will be no increase in your 1940 Village tax.

We claim the Sinking Fund for our Bonds is adequate and has been handled intelligently, else why would all our Bonds be selling way above par? Furthermore, the net debt ratio of our Village is only 8% of the valuation while the statute limitation allows 10%. In addition, the per capita debt of our Village is about $166 per capita and our governmental cost is about $35 per capita and these figures are the lowest in the Grosse Pointe area. Incidentally, out of over $800,000 in the Sinking Fund, only $5,000 worth of bonds are in default.

The Citizens Association wants a City Manager form of government. Most emphatically do we urge you all to vote—NO—on this measure. In the first place, it would not take effect until 1941 and no possible so-called saving could be effected until then. In the second place, your whole governmental setup would be disturbed and we personally can see absolutely nothing wrong with our present setup. In the third place, the Wayne County Prosecutor has just ruled that these Economy Drafts cannot legally waive their salary, so the whole plan goes for naught.

What about our present administration? In our opinion, and in the opinion of several other "old timers," your present administration and officers are plenty all right. Do you realize that they are responsible for setting you a public library—the first in Grosse Pointe Township—that they furnished the quarters, heat and light free so that you could enjoy good books at no cost whatsoever? Do you realize that they are responsible for giving you the finest park in the Grosse Pointe area—that this park was acquired and developed under their supervision? Do you realize that they saved you nearly $300,000 by contracting with the City of Detroit to build the outlet for our storm sewer? The benefits our present administration have given the Village of Grosse Pointe Park are too numerous to mention.

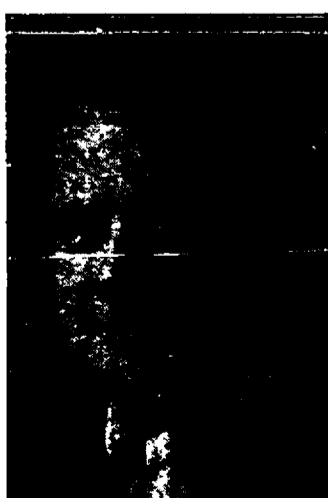

Don't be influenced by any of the misrepresentations and half truths that are being shouted from the housetops. Make up your own mind and we're sure that the men who have ACTUALLY GIVEN YOU A GOOD, ECONOMICAL ADMINISTRATION are the ones deserving your support — not the ones who are making MERELY CAMPAIGN PROMISES.

Major Burns Henry Post, 303, Auxiliary

Mr. and Mrs. Richard, with whom Al Zach has made his home for the past 25 years, wish to thank comrades of 303 Weil, Cramer, Nielsen, Bishop, and Hoyt, and Snay Auxiliary members Elva Nielsen, Clara Bishop and Betty Hoyt, who, along with Richards, were able to give 24 hours nursing service for one week. He would still enjoy any visit you can give him. Although unable to talk he can smile his welcome and by the way he dearly loves mail won't the girls please drop him a line? Al is at Marine Hospital.

Kate Sorter is giving a luncheon at 3988 Lemay Monday, March 11, at 1 p. m. at which time President Elva Nielsen will initiate Kate's mother, Mrs. Carrie Finn, who, by the way, is our oldest member and unable to attend meetings. Girls, let's have a good turnout.

One of our newest members, Grace Smith, has been quite sick but is on the road to recovery and again able to go out to Deaborn Veterans' Faculty Hospital and hold Bill's hand. (How about it, Bill?)

We are indeed pleased to have David Sorter's sister, Mrs. Martin, and Kate's daughter, Phyllis Wiggert, sign up with us at the last meeting. This makes us 40 members. Let's make it at least 50 by June 1.

We also miss our other two members, Lida Elerick and Irene Sims, who are unable to attend on account of working. Hope you will be able to make a meeting some of these days.

No fooling this time, we have purchased a metal cabinet for our colors. Thanks to Comrades Endres and Nielsen for the shelf lock and name painted on the door. Please remember the post dance March 16, at Eastwood hall room.

Very sorry to hear that our American Chairman Ruth Cross has been ill with a cold. Hope you are better now.

Eastminister went on another scoring spree last Thursday evening when they completely swamped an inexperienced Ranger outfit 60-21. Led by the "little but mighty" Elmer Schram the league leaders seemed to score at will and took a 30 to 10 lead at the intermission. Schram broke all "club" records when he connected for 13 hoops and a foul toss for 27 points.

Fighting hard for a playoff berth the Saints A. C. captured a well-earned 21-23 victory from the Fifteen Club. Tom Myers, rangy center of the Saints, was the menace to the "15" Club cagers as he gathered in 15 points on seven baskets and a charity toss. Bob Koebel, former Calvin College star, was high man for the losers with four two-pointers and a foul of nine.

The most thrilling game of the week was played when the Essex A. C. clashed with the second place Comets on Friday evening. The Comets emerged with a two point victory, 47-45. Holding a five point lead with three minutes left to play, the Essex team failed in their attempt to freeze the ball. Three quick baskets (two by Bill Nutton and one by Lou Durocher) put the Comets ahead by a point. Jack Bretz, husky center of the Comets, then made a foul to sew up the game.

The Reds are still leading the Midget League as the result of their 46-43 victory over the Yankees. Bill Mesmer, captain and leading scorer of his team again came through with a fine exhibition of shooting and scored 20 points, which aided his mates considerably.

The N. C. Stars continued to follow the Reds closely when they subdued a speedy boy club 32-23. Bud Hudson, left handed sharp-shooter of the boys' club, was high scorer with 14 points.

Starting the second half of the Intermediate League found the Dukes, Mohawks and Barons all coming through with wins. The Dukes defeated the Jr. Eagles 30-30, with Bonmerito getting 23 points. Mohawks conquered the Jr. Lions 48-3, when they held their opponents to three successful foul tosses. The Barons bested the Flashes 33-16 as Grubba was gathering 23 points.

Theatre party: The usual theatre party will be held on Friday night, March 8 at 7:30. The program includes songs, dances and party games. All children are welcome to attend.

Girls' club: The Gamma Gamma Club is sponsoring a hay ride for all the girls' clubs within the Neighborhood Club on Friday night, March 15. Elizabeth DeWolf, president, is in charge of arrangements.

Alger Auxiliary

Lincoln's birthday was commemorated by the auxiliary presenting to the Martin Luther Church Boys Scout Troop their colors. In appreciation the boys had a very fine program arranged to entertain the ladies.

On February 25 a good number of our members turned out to join with our post and the American Legion Post and auxiliary in celebrating Washington's birthday. These services were held at the Richard School and all attending enjoyed a very inspiring discourse on George Washington by Former Governor Brucker.

Students of the Grosse Pointe High Schools have been busy working on their essays and it will not be long now before the selected essays will be presented to the judges for decision as to the winners.

We shall in the very near future present to the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Girl Scout Troop No. 136, their colors.

Coming event—No dinner will be served at the club house during the month of March, but on Thursday evening, March 14, a card party will be sponsored for the Sons of Veterans drum and bugle corps by the auxiliary, under the leadership of Mesdames Collins and Keller. It will be held at the club, 17145 St. Paul avenue, at 8 o'clock. A nice selection of door prizes, table prizes and "cats" will be the highlights of the evening.

NOTICE OF Submission of Special Proposition TO BE VOTED ON Monday, March 11th, 1940 TO THE QUALIFIED ELECTORS OF THE VILLAGE OF GROSE POINTE FARMS:

You are hereby notified that by direction of the Village Council, by resolution duly adopted, there will be submitted to vote of the electors of the Village of Grosse Pointe Farms at the annual Village Election to be held March 11th, 1940, a proposition to sell at such times as market conditions shall be deemed advantageous by the Village Council and for such residential and business use as permitted by Village Zoning Ordinance a parcel of land owned by the Village located on the northeasterly side of Kerby Road between Mack Avenue and Webster Avenue (extending northerly) containing approximately ten (10) acres of land and that the form of ballot to be used for the submission of said proposition will be substantially as follows:

OFFICIAL BALLOT ON SALE OF PARCEL OF PROPERTY OWNED BY VILLAGE OF GROSE POINTE FARMS

Shall the Village sell parcel of land on the northeasterly side of Kerby Road between Mack Avenue and Webster Avenue (extending northerly) containing approximately ten (10) acres and described as—

That part of Lots 1, 2, 3 and 4 of Survey and Subdivision of easterly part of Private Claim 404, being Estate of Mrs. Margaret Tucker, deceased, made for Commissioners in Partition of said Estate, January 4, 1881, and recorded in Wayne County Circuit Court Chancery file No. 6386, beginning at the intersection of the northerly line of P. eer. Street Lighting and Maintenance of Improvements. Mr. Babcock, Candidate for the office of President, spoke and stated "My opponent from all that I can learn is a very high type of gentleman but I do not believe he cares for a third term any more than I do." The writer wonders if Mr. Babcock, although he is a candidate for office, realizes that the Village is operated under a non-partisan form of government and that Mr. Deming, the present incumbent, is a successful retired business man and has held the office of President continuously since 1936, and that he has run and held the office of President because of the many requests of the residents that he be induced to continue as such. There is no salary for either the President or any of the Trustees, therefore, Mr. Deming would have no interest in the office other than to serve the Public honestly and efficiently. Mr. Babcock spoke about the increase in his Township assessment and the increased cost of school operations and stated that something should be done about the tax situation. He further said "I am fairly convinced that action should start in our local community." The question arises why should action start in our Local Community where taxes have been reduced and improvements installed without any increase in assessed valuations. Mr. David Williams, Candidate for the office of Trustee One Year Term, was called upon and stated that his qualifications for the office were that he was in the building game. He further mentioned that he was not in the banking business nor a saloon keeper. We wonder if the building game is a better qualification. Mr. Williams seems to be under the same illusion as Mr. Babcock, that is, that the increased assessed valuations and the school taxes could be avoided if there was a proper Village Council in control of Village affairs. Evidently he has not familiarized himself with the fact that the voters elect Township officials to administer Township affairs and School officials to administer School affairs. Mr. Williams mentioned that Township officials had changed parties in the last two years. The writer wonders what party he would have run on should he have decided to run for a Township office where it is necessary to designate your party. None of his remarks could be found to have any bearing on the interests of the Village.

Mr. John Flancher, Candidate for the office of Trustee, for the Two Year Term, was called upon and stated that he had been a resident of Grosse Pointe Township for 15 years, but a resident of the Village for only 2 years. He gave as his platform "If elected I propose that this Village print a budget." Evidently Mr. Flancher is not familiar with the fact that the records of the Village office are public and are written in the English language, and a taxpayer or resident has the right to request any information he desires with respect to the operation of the Village, and the writer is sure that any resident or taxpayer who has been interested enough in the Village affairs to inquire with respect to budgets and financial operations have received the information which they desired in a courteous and efficient manner.

Mr. Raymond Moore, Candidate for the office of Trustee Two Year Term, gave his qualifications as being a Certified Public Accountant and stated that "The present Administration have been conscientious but they were lax and failed in the proper presentation to the Public of the present status of the Village." He further stated "I have anxiously awaited a balance sheet or a copy of the budget but not one has been published." It seems strange to the writer that Mr. Moore who is so interested in the activities of the Village and its economical operation should wait 8 years before mentioning the fact that he has not seen a copy of the budget or a balance sheet, and since Mr. Moore has been in the business of making out governmental periodical analysis of appropriations it would seem that if he had any interest in the Village affairs he would have inquired for a copy of the balance sheet or budget sooner than now as he surely knows that the records of the Village are Public. Mr. Moore must have forgotten, or he did not take the time to read, the report which was prepared in 1937 and distributed by personal delivery to each house in the Village. No doubt the residents were pleased to receive the report which was delivered to their homes in 1937, but the Council at various times have questioned the wisdom of spending the necessary money to prepare and distribute a report from year to year when any interested person or taxpayer may obtain copies of any information they desire upon request at the Village office.

Mr. Ben Cole, also a Candidate for Trustee for the Two Year Term stated that two members of the Board advised him that the Village were anticipating using the Township assessment for Village purposes. To this date there has been no plans made to use the Township assessment, and the taxpayers and residents in the Village may be sure that such a plan as is now in use by the Township will not be used until it is proven that it is equitable to all taxpayers. The writer wonders if the opposing candidates to the present incumbents are running under the endorsement of the Economy League, if there is such, or the Property Owners Association, or whether they are disgruntled individuals who have political aspirations.

Supervising the luncheon and table arrangements in the dining room is Mrs. Roy De Hart, who will be aided by Mrs. David Sutter and Mrs. C. Clark Ross. Mrs. Charles Cecil Andrews will begin the afternoon's entertainment with a fashion clinic in which Mary Gray will depict new fashions in color combinations and accessories for a spring wardrobe. Mrs. Leroy Vandever is in charge of ticket disposals and with her committee will oversee bridge table arrangements and candy sales. A large cake in the form and color of the American flag will be featured. Mrs. Vandever's guests for the day will include Mrs. Winfield S. Jewell, Jr., Mrs. James E. Haggerty, Mrs. William A. Siskey and Mrs. William Walters. Mrs. Lloyd L. Hughes will have at her table Mrs. Gilbert G. White, Mrs. Graham H. Lindley and Miss Alma L'Hommedieu. In Mrs. Earl Presley's party will be Mrs. Sterling Brown, Mrs. William J. Watkins, Mrs. George Ingram, Mrs. Elmer Teater, Mrs. J. J. Sullivan, Mrs. Herman Cramer, Mrs. Julius Berns, Mrs. Hal Pigott, Mrs. Louis Baze and Mrs. Ben Elias Lyons. Mrs. Paul Hale Bruske will have a table of guests as will also Mrs. Louis J. Flint, Mrs. Raymond H. Berry, Mrs. Harold M. Hastings, Mrs. Walter Pomeroy, Mrs. Lloyd De Witt Smith, Mrs. John M. Phillips and Mrs. Basil L. Connelly. Among Junior members who have table reservations are Mrs. Mitchell V. Allen, Mrs. Robert B. Rutherford, Mrs. William N. Hawkins, Jr., Mrs. William Bruce Gregory, Mrs. Orrin P. Fox, Mrs. Frederic E. Harley, Mrs. Stuart Nunneley, Mrs. Douglas R. Ginn, Mrs. Warren Talcott, Mrs. Frederick Fiske, and Mrs. Jack Doerr. Others are Mrs. Percy Kamly, Mrs. Theodore Blackler, Mrs. Ford Spiker, Mrs. S. Wright Bellingier, Mrs. Wallace Wilson, Mrs. H. B. Hopper, Mrs. Fred Lindbloom and Mrs. Ellsworth Kramer. Others expected are Mrs. Emmons H. Goddard, Mrs. C. Ronald Davidge, Mrs. Robert Murphy, Mrs. Robin Grey Fifth, Mrs. Norman P. Sanborn, Mrs. Robert E. Hozena and Mrs. Elliot Davies.

Punch and Judy Attractions for Week

Friday and Saturday the Punch and Judy Theater will be showing "That's Right, You're Wrong," with radio's outstanding band leader, Kay Kyser, and his band, who go to Hollywood for a picture engagement. They are supported by an able cast headed by Adolphe Menjou, May Robson and Edward Everett Horton. One of the season's most unusual pictures, "Destry Rides Again," is the Sunday, Monday and Tuesday attraction. Marlene Dietrich, in the role of a frontier entertainer, co-stars with James Stewart and they are supported by Mischa Auer, Charles Winninger, Ina Merkel and Allen Jenkins. Joe and Ethel Turp will come to the Punch and Judy Wednesday and Thursday in "Joe and Ethel Turp Call On The President," and they bid fair to be as popular as screen personalities as they are in printed form. Damon Runyon's famous characters are portrayed by Ann Sother and William Gargan and their debut on the screen is full of entertainment.

New Strawberry Variety As long as 11 years of breeding work involving approximately 60,000 seedlings of known parentage may be required to produce a new variety of strawberries of commercial value.

Louisa St. Clair Chapter State C.A.R. Board

When the continental congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution convenes in Washington April 15 to 19, Detroit, Grosse Pointe and Highland Park will be well represented. Louisa St. Clair Chapter will send the largest Michigan delegation, which will include Mrs. Henry Bourne Joy, honorary vice-president general; Mrs. Paul Hale Bruske, Louisa St. Clair regent; Mrs. William F. Streit, treasurer of the National Junior Assembly, and Mrs. Ralph E. Wisner. Delegates and alternates will be Mrs. Harold M. Hastings, Mrs. Raymond H. Berry, Mrs. Lloyd L. Hughes, Mrs. Louis Gascoigne, Mrs. Stanley Nute, Mrs. Charles B. Warner, Mrs. Edward H. Eichler, Mrs. Charles H. Metcalf, Mrs. Louis Edgar, Mrs. Denton Johnson, Mrs. Lloyd DeWitt Smith, Mrs. E. H. Lindberg, Mrs. Anna Lloyd Cooley and Mrs. Charles U. Stevens. Also serving on committees will be Mrs. John Jacob Lamb, Mrs. Charles Swales, Mrs. Thomas Day Moulé, Mrs. James E. Morrison, Mrs. Hansel Dwight Wilson, Mrs. Frank L. Scott Jr., Mrs. Humphreys Springstun and Miss Marion Louise Brooke. Pages who will serve are Mrs. Ellsworth Kramer, Mrs. Herbert Poehle, Mrs. Fred Lindbloom, Mrs. Douglas R. Ginn, Miss Kathleen Morrison and Mrs. E. H. Goodman. Also among those planning to attend as daughters are Mrs. Charles Wisner, Mrs. Lyman P. Johnson and Mrs. Louis Flint.

For the benefit of their charity projects, mountain schools and scholarship funds, the Juniors of the Louisa St. Clair Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution will sponsor a St. Patrick's party with a dessert lunch, a fashion clinic and a bridge next Friday afternoon March 15th. It will be staged at Newberry House on Jefferson Avenue and is the Group's only money-raising function of the year. Mrs. Wayne F. Clock heads the workers and is guiding all plans. Assisting her is Mrs. Hugh L. McComb, who is superintending the decorations. St. Patrick colors, with green and gold, will predominate in the floral schemes and on the bridge tables. Mrs. Hansel Dwight Wilson, Junior President, is also co-chairman for the occasion. Others helping to promote the cause are Mrs. Harold L. Tanner, Mrs. Richard Wagner, Mrs. Herbert Poehle, Mrs. William F. Streit, Mrs. Humphreys Springstun, Marion Brooke and Kathleen Morrison.

Supervising the luncheon and table arrangements in the dining room is Mrs. Roy De Hart, who will be aided by Mrs. David Sutter and Mrs. C. Clark Ross. Mrs. Charles Cecil Andrews will begin the afternoon's entertainment with a fashion clinic in which Mary Gray will depict new fashions in color combinations and accessories for a spring wardrobe. Wild Duck Species There are 200 distinct species of wild ducks in the world, one-fourth of which are found in North America.

Clever Bill at Club Royale

Coleman Clark, world's table tennis champion, comes into the Royale Friday night with an act as unique as it is fascinating. Unlike the usual technical demonstrations of star athletes, Clark's running commentary on the play is crammed with wit, and in addition to showing patrons the fine points of the game, he challenges anyone to a seven-point game with him while he sits strapped to a chair. He comes to the Royale straight from an engagement in the famous Coconut Grove in Los Angeles.

RKO's singing and dancing starlet, Rita Oshman, with her partner, Eddie Oshman, brings a carload of youthful vigor and enthusiasm to the club. Their ballroom dancing, with aerial lifts and spins and a lot of young enthusiasm is as much fun for the onlookers as for the performers. Bernice Stone, acrobatic dancing star, has some clever routines, and Tommy Jones sings Irish ballads in addition to performing his duties as master of ceremonies. The Royettes have new production numbers and music for shows and dancing is by Danny Demetry and his orchestra.

Grosse Pointe Farms Voters

Increased December taxes on your homes were taxes levied to support School and County and Township activities. They were not levied to support Village activities. Your Village Council had no control over such levy nor over the spending of the money.

The Village activities are paid for by your Village taxes payable in July. The Village Council fixes the amount of these. Such taxes pay for your police and fire protection, your streets, sewers, street lighting, garbage and rubbish collection, parks and municipal pier. These taxes have decreased for individual home-owner under the officers now seeking re-election to your Village Council.

The Village fiscal year ends February 28th. During the preceding FIVE fiscal years the following facts prevailed:

Table with 5 columns: Year Ending Feb. 28, Tax Rate Per Thousand, Total Taxes Budgeted, Total Homes in Village, Average Tax Bill per Home Owner. Rows for years 1935, 1936, 1937, 1938, 1939.

The above figures include personal property taxes. They reflect the downward trend over a five year period accomplished by the incumbent officers of the Village.

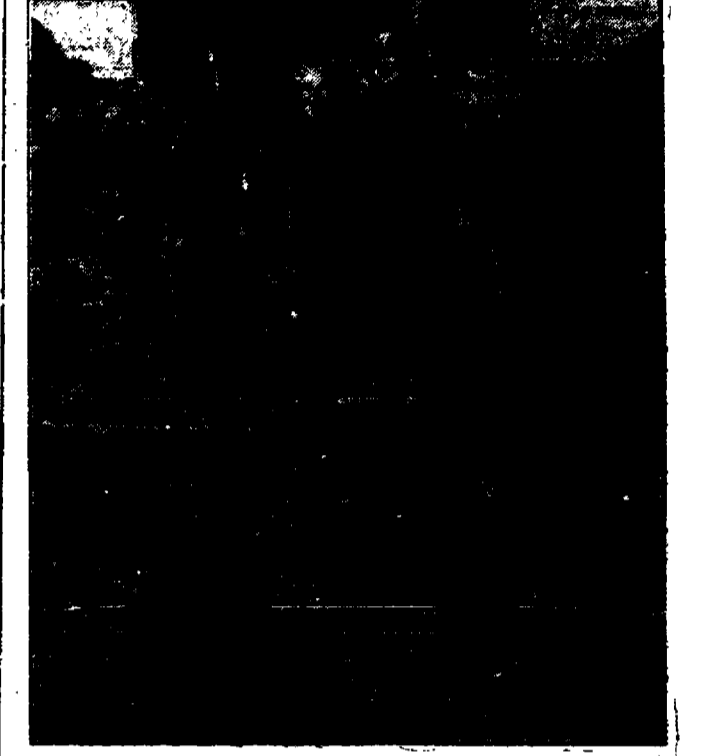

To incur no new debt, to pay as we go, and to keep Village spending at an absolute minimum consistent with the maintenance of Village services on the basis demanded by the taxpayers has been and will be the purpose of the following candidates for re-election.

- President . . . . . Paul H. Deming

Rough Walking Here

THE site of this excavation work, where a new wing for the Ford Exposition will rise, is hardly the spot for an afternoon's stroll, as these two young visitors discovered. Here you see graphically the progress of construction work on the new auditorium — one of the largest and most important building projects for the 1940 New York World's Fair. Shows of a varied nature will be presented in the auditorium. A re-vamped and streamlined exhibit pavilion will be ready to charm the 1940 guests when the gates open May 11. Walter Dorwin Teague, one of the foremost industrial designers in the country, who is responsible for the plan of the beautiful white modern building that houses the Ford Exhibit, has re-designed the facade to change completely that view of the structure. Brilliant light will flood through an all-glass front and the stainless steel Mercury, the largest figure of Mercury in the world, will be placed closer to the ground with one foot resting on a pedestal. Technicians in the River House plant are working with the designer on plans for installing many new mechanical and scientific exhibits that will enthrall the nation's visitors as much as the 1939 display did. A small army of workmen at the Fair are busily engaged in carrying out the many changes. This photograph shows the final stages toward this ultimate goal. Notice the columns and wall foundations and the emergency exit in the main building.

An Indictment Does Not Mean A Conviction!

• The American Spirit of fair play logically calls for careful analysis of all the facts before jumping to hasty conclusions.
• The eminent record of your present Village President, acquired during the past 22 years in Public office entitles him to a fair hearing before a Jury of his Peers before judgment is pronounced.
• All operations of law and order have not yet been suspended in free America. We have not, thank fortune, arrived at a point where a man is considered guilty before trial.
• All right minded citizens are therefore urged to go to the Polls next Monday and cast their ballot on the merits of each candidate alone.

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

Remember?

An insignificant little article tucked away in the corner of a page in a Detroit newspaper last week brought back fond memories to some of Grosse Pointe's pioneer residents.

The story told briefly of the death of one Joseph P. Gahagan, "nationally known trainer and owner of harness race horses."

Since the establishment referred to as the Grosse Pointe race track was destroyed many years ago, its history has been lost in the rapidly expanding east side.

Built in the 1880's and originally known as "The Blue Ribbon Race Track," trotting enthusiasts from all over Detroit and surrounding territory swarmed to the "races."

With the perfection of the automobile in the early 1900's, the interest in trotting races waned.

The idea of men chasing each other in cars rather than on horse-back swept through Detroit like a forest fire.

Using the track as a testing ground for new models, people again began to frequent the old structure to watch the "new-fangled devices" roar and snort around the circle.

Henry Ford brought his famous "999" racer to the proving grounds on several occasions and races were arranged with other "speed demons."

As real estate frontage on Jefferson avenue boomed, the Chalmers Company having no more use for the track, sold the rickety grand stand and other buildings to expanding business concerns.

Newspaper Advertising Discussed by Speaker

"The cost of our modern newspapers would be between 12 and 15 cents if it were not for advertising," declared Miss Louise Grace of Grace and Bennett Advertising Agency.

Miss Grace went on to say that advertising is as old as business itself, and that it definitely has a place in present economic life.

Pointing out the small cost of advertising to the public, the speaker said that less than one cent is paid for soft drinks advertising, three and a half per cent of the total cost of an automobile is spent for advertising.

In concluding her talk, Miss Grace touched upon the subject of misleading advertising, and the legislation which has been effected to counteract this problem.

Well known soloists have been selected to sing the airs of the oratorio. In this work each soloist must be excellent in his or her own field rather than merely a member of a quartette.

Leaving New York where she is studying to become a member of the Metropolitan Opera Company, Winifred Heidt, well known to Grosse Pointe and Detroit music lovers for her concert work here, will sing the second soprano part.

Having been well received last year for their work in the tenor and bass roles of the Elijah, Warren Foster and Hardin Van Deusen of the University of Michigan, will return to be soloists in the May concert.

The oratorio will be directed by W. J. Watkins, head of the music department, who will lead both the University of Michigan Symphony Orchestra and the chorus, composed of the glee clubs and the A Cappella Choir in the musical masterpiece.

Stabat Mater pictures Mary despairing beneath the cross where her son, Jesus, was being crucified. The title itself means "The Mother Was Standing."

Sad and mournful music for the Stabat Mater has been written by Haydn, Palestrina, Staniford and Dvorak. When Rossini wrote cheerful music, musicians everywhere pronounced the work a "happy operatic work" rather than religious oratorio.

Many of the airs in the oratorio resemble marches rather than hymns. Public reaction shows that people would rather hear the vigor and vitality of Rossini's Stabat Mater from the opening chorus to the stirring finale than any other composer's conception of the text.

Women's Field Army Will Give Program

A benefit program for the Women's Field Army for the Control of Cancer will be held on Friday, March 8, 8:15 p. m. in the small auditorium of the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Through the courtesy of Grinnell Brothers, John Hammond will play several selections on the new and unique Novachord. This recently created instrument is an electric organ which utilizes radio tubes to produce tones.

Mrs. Lois Johnston Chapman, well-known Detroit singer, will sing. Edgar A. Guest, Free Press poet, will read some of his poetry.

The proceeds of the benefit program will go to the educational program of the Field Army. Each year during the month of April, the program is carried on an intense educational and fund-raising campaign.

Many thousands of lives are saved each year by the work of the Field Army in spreading the message of hope that "Early Cancer Is Curable. Fight it with Knowledge."

TREND OF EVENTS

By PAUL M. DEAC
The Allies have been very careful not to say anything that could reveal their ultimate plans in this war. But, they sure have more than one way to make Hitler talk. They do it indirectly, through an interposed person. This invaluable go-between is none other than our good President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Nearly a year ago, right after Italy's seizure of Albania when nobody could tell just what the dreaded partners of the Axis gang would do next, our President saved peace and the day by pinning the two dictators, Mussolini and Hitler, up against the wall and bluntly asking them what would be their price for a ten-year period of peace. The manoeuvre was a very clever one, as we shall see.

The two racketeers naively believed they at last had the entire world at their mercy. This was, they thought, the time if ever to wrest sweeping concessions from the panicky democracies. Not one single moment did it occur to them that their utterances could immediately be brought as evidence to bear against them before the court of world opinion.

As expected in Washington, the wild demands set down by the two accomplices as their conditions for a durable peace shook the whole world with indignation. From that day on, everybody, everywhere, considered Mussolini and Hitler as the real troublemakers in Europe, they were charged with all the unease and fear which paralyzed humanity in late years. And, if war came, people knew just where to lay the responsibility for such a calamity: Berlin and Rome.

The two dictators never fully recovered from that damaging coup. It was indeed a coup de maitre.

Meanwhile, the Duce got wise to himself. After barely escaping a sound thrashing at the hands of the French for a few timid claims over Tunisia and Djibuti, he stopped playing the conqueror. He finally realized that all profitable conquests were already in the bag and that it was utterly useless to insist.

Not so with Adolf Hitler. The clumsy brown-shirted sign-painter had learned nothing. He continued to play with dynamite, that figurative kind of pyrotechnics which exploded in his hands last September and made the world ring with the word WAR.

Hitler bears the responsibility for the war, so far. And, before going any further, the Allies wanted to make it plain that Nazi Germany is also to be held responsible for what is to come. But, as no same trick can safely be put to work twice, this time President Roosevelt used an entirely different stratagem to make Adolf Hitler talk. He pretended he was sending his Under-Secretary of State abroad with the sole purpose of gathering information as to the basic conditions for just and durable peace in Europe.

Hitler, who has been unusually silent lately, readily welcomed this as a chance to say something—something that would enhearten the gallery, in Germany. Unfortunately for him and the Nazi cause, by saying what he said he played right into the Allies' hands. To the layman, his claims and threats must have sounded like something virile and warlike, but to the trained ear of diplomatic experts they were pure bravado. In his talk with Sumner Welles, Hitler appeared like a lonely wayfarer going through some dark woods and whistling to reassure himself. But, had someone crept up from behind and suddenly cried "Boo!" the brave fuchrer would probably have dropped dead with fear. And, who wouldn't, in Hitler's predicament.

The wide publicity given throughout the world to Nazi aims as voiced by Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler has definitely pinned the responsibility of World War II on Germany. The Nazis are asking for the Moon. Their demands are simply ridiculous. And, whatever measures will be ultimately taken by the Allies will appear in the views of world opinion as perfectly justified.

The world now begins to realize that what Nazi Germany really craves for is not the overpublicized "Lebensraum," but world supremacy—that is what Germany wants. She would break what Hitler calls England's "stranglehold" over Europe and the world only to replace it with one of her own invention. Unfortunately for Nazism, under prevailing circumstances, the world will continue to prefer England's grip to that of Germany.

Mainly because the British for of penetration is of a peaceful kind; its basic policy is "live and let live," whereas that of Nazi Germany literally strangles to death anyone it can lay its hands on. One method is economical and financial and therefore constructive; the other is warlike, ruthless and destructive.

The Britons thrive and maintain their supremacy by trade. The Nazis rely on brutal force. Fire and sword is their weapon. That is just why their approach is dreaded; their domination unbearable.

Masonic Temple Show Features 'Shawn'

Variety and color mark Shawn's newest program called "The Dome" which he and his company will give in the Scottish Rite Cathedral at Masonic Temple, Saturday evening, March 16. He has used those creative works which have been emerging through the years and which did not fit into the programs of the last several years. Inspired by Shelley's lines, "Life, like a dome of many colored glass, stains the white radiance of eternity," he has created in this production a many-colored picture of life's infinite variety. Consequently this new production called "The Dome" probably has a wider variety of thematic material wrapped in its two-hour entertainment than anything he has previously presented. There are 26 dances on the program, all presented as Shawn is quoted as saying: "For the simple reason that we wanted to do them."

The program includes a prologue called, "The Dome," seven dances to the music of Johann Sebastian Bach, a group of 13 dances under the heading: Remembrance of Things Past, Excursions into Visible Song, Studies in Rhythmic Form, and a finale entitled "Jacob's Pillow Concerto."

Of the young men who make up the group this year, all were members last year in the company. All of them were athletes in school or college. They represent practically every section east of the Rockies. Included in the group are Frank and John Delmar, identical twins who joined the group two years ago. They come from Chicago, where they attended Northwestern University. While at the university they participated in field events and distinguished themselves in marksmanship. Leaving the university they appeared in a number of Broadway musical shows. They have spent three summers at Shawn's estate, Jacob's Pillow, in the Berkshires, where the entire group work, play, rest, rehearse and devise new dances for the coming year.

On this remote farm the boys and Shawn live a life of Spartan simplicity. They do all the work on the farm... gardening, carpentering, painting, road and cement work, cutting firewood. They even dammed a mountain stream and made a big outdoor bathing pool. Some of the boys have built their own cabins on the extensive acreage.

The physical labor and studio work is only a portion of the strenuous training and daily routine. Each day there are hours devoted to reading, study and research under the personal guidance of Shawn, who is an able scholar.

It is this group of American men who will appear in dances which have been termed "Miracles of beauty."

Social Security

Documentary evidence of a person's age, ranging from a birth certificate to a license to drive an automobile, is going to have an increasing importance as the Federal Government's old-age survivors insurance program develops, according to E. E. Pollock, manager of the Social Security Board's Detroit Side field office at 8037 Harper. Mr. Pollock explained that the Government will insist upon the proof of one's declaration of age before insurance payments are made. The law provides that monthly payments may be made to workers who have reached the age of 65 if they qualify, but, Mr. Pollock asserted, it will accept no loose statement as to age.

Similarly, the age of a worker's wife or widow or of his children must be proved before they can receive any of the supplementary benefits provided under the revised Social Security Act. But a claimant will be given every opportunity to supply the required proof. The applicant probably will be asked if he has a birth certificate. As a matter of fact, birth certificates of persons now 65 years old or more are comparatively scarce. In only eight States and the District of Columbia had the practice of keeping birth certificates been adopted before 1874. The District of Columbia began keeping of such records in 1874; Florida in 1865; Massachusetts in 1850; Michigan in 1867; New Hampshire in 1840; New Jersey in 1848; Rhode Island in 1853; Vermont in 1857; and Virginia in 1853.

"If, however, the claimant cannot produce a birth certificate, a church record or similar document," Mr. Pollock added, "he may submit the statements of two other persons who have personal knowledge that he was born on a certain date, but since such persons will be even older than the claimant, the obtaining of this evidence is admittedly difficult. If it cannot be produced, the Board will open the way to the presentation of a miscellaneous lot of evidence, which, when viewed as a whole, may be regarded as sufficient. This type of evidence will include public documents of varying nature, such as a man's army discharge, school records, or marriage certificates."

William Lyon Phelps Receives Award

The American Education Award, one of the highest honors open to educators, was presented to Professor William Lyon Phelps, well known in Grosse Pointe, at the annual convention of the American Association of School Administrators at St. Louis last week.

Professor Phelps was the speaker at the dedication program at the Grosse Pointe High School 12 years ago and returned 10 years ago this month to celebrate the tenth anniversary of the dedication.

Among those present from Grosse Pointe when the award was made before an audience of 10,000 people in the Municipal Auditorium at St. Louis was Charles A. Parcels, president of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, and a relative of Professor Phelps.

Christian Science Church

"Man" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, March 10, 1940.

The Golden Text (Daniel 10:19) is: "O man greatly beloved, fear not; peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong."

Among the Bible citations in this passage (Genesis 1:27): "So God created man in his own image, in the image male created he him."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 336): "Immortal man was and is God's image-or idea, even the infinite expression of infinite Mind, and immortal man is coexistent and eternal with that Mind."

Letter Carriers Sponsor St. Patrick's Dance

The Detroit Letter Carriers are sponsoring a Saint Patrick's party at Carpathia Hall Saturday, March 10th, 1940.

A three-act comedy followed by dancing and refreshments. This is the first of a series of gala events toward their goal to send their Delegates and Band to the Los Angeles convention, 1941. Good music and grand entertainment is offered to all. The public is invited.

Detroit Garden Center

On Thursday, March 14, at 2:30 o'clock at the Alger House, 32 Lake Shore Road, Grosse Pointe, the Detroit Garden Center will present a well known landscape architect, George Wasson Vance, who received her degree of Master of Landscape Design at the University of Michigan.

Mrs. Vance will talk on "Combination of Plant Material," which she will illustrate with colored slides. Few gardeners know of the different effects which may be had in their gardens by using plant material which by the color of the foliage, its form and size in combination with plants of different color, size and form make a background for their flowers which greatly enhances their beauty.

ferent color, size and form make a background for their flowers which greatly enhances their beauty. Mrs. Vance will also be glad to answer any questions as to design, if desired, and this should bring all of the thoughtful gardeners in the vicinity for the help and pleasure which they may receive. This lecture is free and open to the public.

Detroit Institute of Arts

"Exploring the Bottom of the Sea" and "More About Sweden" will be the next two motion pictures public lecture programs offered by the World Adventure series at the Detroit Institute of Arts. Rene Dussaq, Hollywood's daredevil undersea photographer, will tell of his adventures on the ocean floor in the West Indies at 3:30 next Sunday afternoon, March 10.

Burton Holmes, world's greatest travel lecturer, takes his audience on a pictorial motor tour of Sweden at 8:30 next Tuesday evening, March 12. Dussaq shows exciting motion pictures of 65-foot "skin divers" to plant his cameras and to rescue cameramen trapped in the weird submarine jungles.

Veterans of Foreign Wars Ladies' Auxiliary

To inspire the boys and girls of today with a greater appreciation of the privilege of being an American citizen is the major purpose of the "Benefits of Democracy" essay contest now being participated in by junior and senior high English classes of the Grosse Pointe public schools.

Any member of one of the English classes may write a superior enough essay on democracy to have it judged as one of the best three in his class. His essay will then go to a committee which will choose the 10 best manuscripts to send to the Grosse Pointe auxiliary.

The auxiliary will also receive entries from Grosse Pointe's private and parochial schools, and the 10 best essays from the community will be awarded local prizes. The first prize is $15, the second is $10, the third $5, and the seven next best will be given citations.

Veteran Industrialist Dies in Florida

P. C. Sauerbrey of 1041 Harvard Road and first vice-president of the Plymouth Motors Corporation, died last Sunday night while vacationing in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. Sauerbrey had suffered poor health since over a year ago, when he suffered a broken leg during a fire in his Grosse Pointe home.

The deceased man had been in Florida for five weeks and died in the Broward General Hospital. He is survived by his wife and a daughter, Mrs. Lynn Holley.

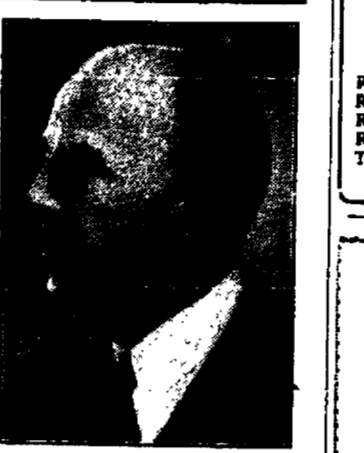

Mr. Sauerbrey experienced a long career in the automobile industry. In 1906 he started as a machinist for the Palmer-Singer Automobile Company and progressed upward to become Plymouth's manufacturing head in 1929.

Makes Sales Record

E. H. LITTLE (above), a farm boy by birth, has become known during the last two years as one of the new leaders of American industry. In April, 1938, after rising step by step in the business world, he was elected president of the Colgate-Palmolive-Peet Company, and in 1939 the company established a new world-wide sales record of $101,935,438.

Mr. Little was born on a farm in Mecklinburg County, North Carolina, the "third eldest" of a family of 10, and began working as a cotton weigher when a boy of 17.

Grosse Exaggerations

Chances are that when we (or you) have unexpected callers, we're stuck with them; not so with the Grand Dames of this neighborhood. Coffee In The Living Room Is A Comfortable Custom

IT'S moving day for after-dinner coffee! Right out of the dining room into the living room! Leave the table feeling as though you could eat a little more—but relax with after-dinner coffee in more comfortable surroundings and become accustomed to a pleasant custom. The elegant service pictured in the illustration, accompanied by nuts and candied strawberries, is smart—but not a necessity. Use your usual coffee cups and make your coffee double-strength (two heaping tablespoons to each cup). Have coffee with your meal—and have it after dinner in the living room—and relax.
