Grosse Exaggerations?

The 10-day stretch of perfect weather we were crowing about was just a teaser. Today we've had to switch our coat-of-arms back onto our long underwear, but the sun shines and takes the sting out of the north wind.

We got a 14-carat laugh out of a story we heard about a Detroit woman who rented a house down here for the season. She had planned on sending her two butlers, along with the chauffeur, who was to drive her limousine South. A friend suggested that because of the icy roads, it might be a better idea to ship the car on the train. Madam X agreed and promptly called the railroad shipping agent, making all the necessary plans. A few days later, her friends discovered that she had abandoned the idea of shipping the car and had gone back to her original one of having it driven. When asked the reason Madam X replied that she had misunderstood the railroad. She said she had expected them to put her limousine on the train and ship it South with the two butlers and the chauffeur IN IT! The R. R. is, so it seems, adamant on the subject that the three men would have to travel in the Pullman cars—just like human beings.

Rosalind Russell is the latest movie queen to grace the Gold Coast. Not to be outdone by Garbo, Miss Russell appears everywhere without the aid of dark eye makeup and long whiskers; in fact she is the only actress in real skin and hair and her clothes have the hallmarks of Newport rather than Hollywood. People drive her autograph-crazy, but she's a grand sport about the whole thing, even when some tipsy gent in a night club sent his dinner check to her table and asked her to autograph it.

We doubt Maury Paul's observation that the Palm Beachers are "scared stiff" over the growing social popularity of Hobe Sound. Methinks Palm Beach, who's name is now synonymous with Cafe Society, would be only too happy to have the few real McCoy's who are left here, pitch their tents elsewhere, so that the Zerbetites might "take over" in earnest. The only people who might be "scared" are the real Old Names and there are so few of them left here that surely they could find a spot at Hobe Sound, if they cared to do so.

We finally gave Bradley's a break and had dinner there the other night. No matter what changes take place in the world, Bradley's remains the same. The food is still notoriously good and the gambling rooms have the same thick carpeted silence that they've always had. Colonel Bradley, the most beloved and respected man we know of, opened his Casino years ago for the pleasure of rich people, who like their gambling—straight. Looking at the faces of the players, we've decided it's more business than pleasure, with most of them. The place is usually crowded, the roulette tables are covered with

Alfred J. Garaka Bids Farewell

To the People of Grosse Pointe Park:

After fourteen years of service to you as citizens of Grosse Pointe Park and to the Village, itself, I now find myself on the eve of departure from public life.

I've had a lot of heartaches and plenty of headaches but a good time with it all and I leave my office with no grievances and no regrets. I deeply appreciate the support you gave me in the past and again yesterday. While my defeat was regrettable, I stand by the wishes of the people. I fought clean, threw no mud whatsoever, and I am extremely happy in losing.

Furthermore, I stand ready at any time to be of service to you in any way that may be required.

However, as I am about to leave my office as Commissioner of Grosse Pointe Park, I am thinking only of those men who have served under me so faithfully and so well and in so doing have given you Police and Fire Departments that are second to none. I sincerely hope that the incoming officials will not judge them too harshly if they happened to work too hard in my behalf. The chances are they did so at my request and I desire to take all the responsibility and not have them suffer as a result. I hope the incoming officials will see fit to retain them all in their present posts.

Again, let me thank you all for your splendid support during my fourteen years in office and let me repeat that I am retiring a happy man, happy in the knowledge that I am leaving a job well done.

Farms Property Owners Not Affiliated With Economy League

The Grosse Pointe Farms Property Owners Association wishes to refute certain allegations that appeared in the March 4 issue of the Grosse Pointe Review in an article headlined "Platform of Candidates for Farms Officers Reviewed."

Quoting from this article: "At a meeting of the Grosse Pointe Farms Property Owners Association held last Monday evening several candidates for the various offices to be voted on at the Village election next Monday were called upon to outline their platform and qualifications. The strange part of the whole affair was that none of the incumbent candidates who are up for re-election were present, neither were they represented by anyone. This might be explained by the fact that the incumbent candidates had already attended other meetings instigated by the same group of men who sometimes identify themselves as the Economy League and other times as the Farms Property Owners Association (which ever serves their purpose best)."

The board of directors of the Property Owners Association deny that there is any connection between the association and the Economy League, political organization and its purpose as defined in its articles of association is "To promote the interest and welfare of the residents of Grosse Pointe Farms; to enforce building restrictions within the subdivision located in Grosse Pointe Farms; to secure the construction of and maintenance of necessary public improvements, and all other matters of general interest to the welfare and advancement of the property and residents of the area."

Membership originally was restricted to any person residing or owning property within a relatively small area of the western portion of Grosse Pointe Farms. In response to interest shown by property owners in adjoining districts the area was increased to include all of the Village west of Kercheval avenue, and at the last meeting of the association the membership voted to allow all residents and property owners within the limits of Grosse Pointe Farms to be eligible for membership.

Citizens

Now that the battle is over, let's scrape off the mud and examine our present situation.

The people have shown they wish a change in the administration and they have elected their candidates. These new officials are all hard-working, successful business men. They have stated that they will put the Village government on a business-like basis. Let's give them a chance and see what they can do. Don't condemn them before they have had a fair trial.

The only way good, efficient government can be obtained is by co-operation. Be open-minded. Don't forsake these new officials because of petty political feuds. Lincoln once said, "Democracy is a government for the people and by the people." Forget your grudges and prejudices. Bend yourself to the wheel and let's make OUR government work!

Speeding Car Hits Light Pole

A speeding car, driven by Oliver Graves, 33, of 2156 Manistique, shot past the Grosse Pointe Shores police station at Eight Mile Road and Lake Shore Drive last Saturday morning.

A shock front end caught up with the spooler at Ford's Curve near the Wayne-Macomb County line. The new 1940 Ford sedan had leaped the curb and was squashed around a utility light pole. Police Chief O. C. Ingalsbe had noticed the fast-moving car when it passed the station and had sent scout car in pursuit.

The driver had gotten out of the smashed car and was walking around in a daze. He was rushed to the Cottage Hospital. An examination disclosed no broken bones, but it is believed he suffered internal injuries. Shores police officials stated that Graves was intoxicated.

At his arraignment Tuesday night before Justice Victor De Beekle in the Grosse Pointe Shores Municipal Building, Graves was fined $50. He was released from the hospital on Monday. It is expected his license will also be revoked.

Grosse Pointe Park Receives New Set Of Municipal Officials

In the first major political upheaval in 20 years, Grosse Pointe Park voters streamed to the polls last Monday and cast a record number of over 4,400 ballots in electing a complete new slate of municipal officials.

Karl B. Goddard, Detroit attorney, running as a sticker candidate, was swept into office as Village President with a 367 vote majority. Goddard led the incumbent President Alfred J. Garaka in both precincts, although the winner was not determined until the last few hundred ballots were tallied. Goddard held a mere 18 vote lead in the 2nd precinct.

Petzold, Van Deusen, and Fritsch were elected to the commissioners' post by a substantial margin. The incumbent commissioners De Hayes, Renaud, and Shoemaker were less than 100 votes behind in the 2nd precinct but lagged in the heavy balloting in the 1st precinct. The official results were:

	1st	2nd

Goddard	1363	895
Garaka	1016	877

Petzold	1481	982

Wm. P. Shoemaker Makes Statement

To the Citizens of Grosse Pointe Park:

Thanks, and more thanks, for your most generous support afforded me during my twenty-two years of public life and for your splendid support yesterday. I leave my office of President of the Village of Grosse Pointe a most contented man, happy that I have been able to serve you and proud of what I have been able to do for you and our Village.

As I stand ready to leave my office, I have been commiserated with by one thought in my mind—the constant good and betterment of our Village, and I believe you will agree with me that we have accomplished a great deal.

I am leaving my office of President with absolutely no regrets in my heart. It was the wishes of you people and I will abide by your decision.

I stand ready, however, to offer any assistance I can to help your new officials take over their offices. I hope they will feel free to call upon me any time at all.

And now, as I am about to retire, let me leave this one thought with you. From the bottom of my heart I hope you will support your new President and Commissioners as loyally as you have me for the good of our Village. Thank you.

Farms Election Propaganda Corrected

Last minute election propaganda of candidates in opposition to the incumbents issued under the endorsement of the so-called Economy League of Grosse Pointe Farms has been checked and corrected by the Village officials of the taxpayer residents of the Village.

The following are a portion of the statements made on a mimeograph letter distributed Saturday evening and Sunday morning previous to the election which may have caused confusion.

First statement: That the assessed valuation of the Village of Grosse Pointe Farms remained static at an approximate amount of $22,000,000 for the past 20 years. Records of the Village disclose that the assessed valuation in 1920 was $12,124,000. In 1934, $19,523,000; in 1939, $23,128,000.

Statement number two: That the Village had over $8,000,000 in new construction in the last five years followed by an unanswered question reading "Who got the reduction?" Records of the Village indicate that no assessments were reduced in the past five years and that the difference, $4,000,000 in assessments in the past five years as shown above, represents the result of new construction which is partly the reason for the reduction in the tax rate.

Third statement: That the population in 1920 was 1,600; in 1930, 3,200; in 1938, 6,800. That the tax levy was just as heavy when we had 3,200 population as it was when we had 6,800, followed by the unanswered question "Why?" To anyone analyzing this statement it is plainly evident that the growth of the Village is to be commended and should result in a tax rate which will render the services of the Village to double the number of population.

Statements four and five have referred to "Why no reports are published?" Residents may obtain any information desired relative to the financial operation of the Village upon request for same.

Statement number six: That the present Village officials permitted an additional assessment of $16,000,000 to be levied against our properties by the Township supervisor without any official action to prevent it and without any official protest. The answer to this is given in two articles which appeared in the Grosse Pointe Review issue of March 7, one headed "Village Administration Not Responsible for December Taxes" the other headed "A. E. Champney Reports on Tax Re-assessments." Furthermore the increase for the Village of Grosse Pointe Farms was not $16,000,000, as records indicate that the increase was approximately $6,000,000.

Statement number seven: That the three taxing units, namely, the School district, the Township and the Village all act independently of each other and without any co-ordinated effort for the benefit of the whole and all reviews either separately or collectively to assume the responsibility for the increase of assessments. The articles which appeared in the Grosse Pointe Review last issue show that the Wayne County Bureau of Taxation and the Township officials have assumed the responsibility for the increase of assessments and the law does not provide that the three taxing units should act as one board in the operation of the Village, school and Township.

The above statements, it is felt, are to be commended for their correct and logical reasoning and are to be published in the Review before casting their vote.

For President
Goddard	1363	895
Garaka	1016	877
Chandler	34	34

Fritsch	1397	931
De Hayes	988	825
Renaud	944	825
Shoemaker	936	827

Victor H. Wehmeier, President of the Citizens Association, remarked that, "The force in office for 20 years, has finally been defeated despite the handicap of a sticker candidate."

"A relatively small number of ballots were spoiled by the use of stickers, showing that the people have apparently realized the chance to put the government on a business-like basis by electing business executives."

The proposed Charter Amendment of a Village Manager Plan was passed by a large majority. 2358 citizens voted Yes, and only 1798 voted No. The new president has the authority to appoint the new manager, with the consent of the commission. The official voting was as follows:

	1st	2nd
Yes	2358	917
No	962	836

Ice Boaters Get Cold Bath in Lake

An ice boat piloted by Harold Stock, 20, of 41 Vernier Road, and Fred Heim of Nottingham, crashed through some thin ice off Gaikler Point last Sunday afternoon and both occupants were thrown into 12 feet of freezing water.

Harold B. Hoyt of 954 Lake Shore navigated the party's dilemma and called the Grosse Pointe Shores police. When the officers arrived the men had pulled themselves up onto stanchion ice and were eagerly making their way toward shore.

Neither of the men were injured. But Mr. Stock remarked, "We got awful wet." The boat, owned by Heim, is expected to be salvaged. A sheet of ice before casting their vote.

chips, and every other person has his "system" in front of him. It's rather pathetic—like trying to work out a system to control the weather. If anyone has time to look UP (and WE did), you can see several balcony-like enclosures with peep-holes in them. We've heard that there are men stationed there with the wherewithal to Handle any possible banditry. We were reminded of an incident that happened several years ago on our last visit to Bradley's. A Detroit woman (what, again?), who has so many millions, it taxes OUR brain to think of them, was on the same dinner party with your article, but she didn't gamble because she said she didn't believe in it. On the way out our hostess stopped at the desk and handing the attendant a dollar bill, she asked for four quarters, having in mind the fact that she had no change with which to tip the maid in the cloak room. The non-gambling female also asked for some change and when we got inside the powder den, Mrs. Gotrocks whispered, "Where's the quarter machine?" Her astonished hostess told her there wasn't one, whereupon the woman hissed, "Oh! I thought that was the reason you exchanged that bill for quarters. That's why I did it—I thought I'd put one in the machine." Whoopla!

Grosse Pointe Garage Held Up By Youthful Bandits
The hold-up of the Grosse Pointe Garage, at 17153 Jefferson Avenue, last week was but one step in a crime wave which swept Detroit and vicinity and resulted in the capture and arrest of three young bandits.

Driving a car borrowed from one of the lads' fathers, the trio embarked on a short and sorrowful career of crime. After the bandits had visited the local garage at 3:30 a. m. Saturday, they proceeded to another filling station in Royal Oak. There, they were discovered by two Pleasant Ridge police officers, who saw them hastily depart. A merry chase at 85 miles per hour followed, until the fleeing lads were trapped in a dead-end street.

Previous to the Grosse Pointe robbery, the bandits had attempted three other hold-ups. Starting at 10:00 p. m. Friday, the youths had robbed two drug stores and a gas station, for a total of $75.00. All these burglarized establishments were inside the City of Detroit boundaries.

At 3:30 a. m., station attendant Joseph Stocker, of 1624 Hurlbut, saw a car drive into the Grosse Pointe Garage. He went out to take their order, and received a gun pointed in his direction. He was quickly removed of his rolls of bills and the money changer which hung from his belt. This loot totaled $25.07, $20 in bills and $5.07 in change. The bandits then continued out Jefferson Avenue at a high rate of speed. Stocker phoned the City police station, but the youths had easily disappeared.

After removal to the Pleasant Ridge jail, the trio were identified as Casmer Reznick, 21, of 1095 Areola Avenue; Edward Chom, 18, of 7123 Milton Avenue; and Thomas Pagen, 18, of 6218 Kenney Avenue. The car and gun were borrowed from Pagen's father.

The younger boys confessed to plotting Reznick in a beer garden and meeting their unsuccessful criminal career. Neither boy had worked since quitting high school. Reznick carried the gun, and all three pleaded guilty at their arraignment on Saturday.

Dr. Roy Chapman Andrews, world-famous explorer and Director of the American Museum of Natural History in New York, will present his classic motion picture public lecture, "Explorations in the Gobi Desert," at 3:30 next Sunday afternoon, March 17, at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Dr. Andrews' motion pictures show his expedition fighting its way into the heart of the Gobi Desert by car and camel caravan. Here Dr. Andrews discovered giant new fossil beds, bones of dinosaurs that lived 100,000,000 years ago, the first known dinosaur eggs, and relics that proved the Gobi to have been one of the earliest centers of prehistoric animal and human life.

TREND OF EVENTS

By PAUL M. DEAC

Those who a little too hastily accused this writer of giving a vicious travesty of politics in Finland will probably admit he was right after all, now that peace negotiations between Finland and Russia are under way. For he only deplored that the Finnish leaders refused to compromise in the beginning, while disaster could still have been avoided on terms they seem eager to accept now that the end is at hand.

Many human lives could have been spared, much property saved from useless destruction through timely negotiations with Moscow. And, no doubt, had Helsinki refused to follow outside advice, there would have been no war at all with the Russians.

This writer voiced his wrath because he could not stand headlessly by and see the brave Finns led off to a hopeless struggle, without at least denouncing those who were to be held responsible for the setting up of the avoidable tragedy which was to come.

In spite of their amazing resistance the Finns could not hope to hold out much longer against such a bulky power as Russia. So much more so that Allied assistance is not forthcoming. The Allies, it is said, have other plans for the time being.

Before her war with Russia, these same Allies advised Finland to be intransigent in her pourparlers with Moscow; they must have revised their initial attitude for they now advise the Finns to make peace with the Russians, if they can.

This is a polite way for the Allies to get rid of the Finns. And, if London and Paris treat certain Finnish leaders right, the people of Finland—the same bleeding for months, will never know what this bloody war was all about.

For the Allies, the Russo-Finnish scrap served as an excellent terrain for Russia's armed forces. The test was carried on without the slightest risk or obligation for those who derived strategical advantages or lessons from it. In other words, the Finns have served as human guinea-pigs for Allied strategists, just like the Poles somewhat earlier and the Spaniards earlier still. Incredible, yet so. England and France have no use for an associate they have to defend. Great powers are all that way.

Now that she has helped deflate the legend of Russian invincible military might, Finland's role is over. The only thing left for her to do is to step out and make peace with Russia, or else go under fighting. For the Allies simply cannot afford to extend their war front from the Mediterranean all the way up to the Arctic.

Besides a truce between Helmsfors and Moscow would further help keep the Russian Bear away from the Scandinavian democracies. The independence of Sweden and Norway is considered in London as a condition sine qua non to the strategical security of the British Isles. Thus England may sacrifice Finland but she could never afford to let any foreign power take over control of the Scandinavian countries. And, it is more than probable that should peace intervene between Russia and Finland the latter country will be set up as a buffer state between Soviet Russia and the strategically important Scandinavian peninsula.

Germany herself is said to favor an immediate cessation of hostilities between Russia and Finland. In fact, this is the only way for Germany to stop Russia from securing too strong a foothold in the Baltic. The Baltic Sea being a German sea, any advantage the Russians may gain in those parts can only be made at the Reich's expense.

As for the French, they never have promised the Finns help and are therefore less inclined than ever to fight for Finland's political independence or territorial integrity. They say they will have enough on their hands to restore Czecho-Slovakia, Austria and Poland when the time will come.

Of course things might still be reversed if Russia, now that she is doing better and taking advantage of Finland's distress, would demand that country's unconditional surrender. The Allies might then turn around and put up a spectacular fight to save the Finns from communism. That is why I think Russia will be moderate in her peace demands.

Who said the League of Nations was dead? The old lady must still be going, since she has dispatched a full-sized commission, with photographers and all, to investigate Russian atrocities in Finland. Much good does it do the beleaguered Finns.

Money, guns and some fighting planes would do them more good at this time than a batch of inoffensive "kibitzers," such as these gentlemen of the League.

Posture Week Observed by Schools

The parochial schools are this year joining the Grosse Pointe public schools in the annual observance of Posture Week, which was started three years ago.

At Grosse Pointe High School the gym classes are emphasizing exercises and the like to correct posture. Miss Helen King, consultant on body mechanics for the Detroit Board of Education, presented two movies, one on posture and the other on feet, in the assembly last Tuesday for the students of the seventh, eighth and ninth grades.

The art department has been co-operating with the physical education department by making and displaying posters on good and bad posture. Pamphlets entitled "Posture from the Ground Up," are being distributed among the pupils at the Richard School, the St. Clair School and the Grosse Pointe High School.

Posture Week was conceived in 1939 by the physical education department at the high school. Miss Dorris Tefft, girls' gym instructor, declared, "There seemed to be a need for calling students' attention to the generally poor posture of the student body."

Patrolmen Prevent Serious Explosion

The quick action of two City of Grosse Pointe patrolmen prevented a serious explosion early last Wednesday, when the pair stopped a dangerous gas leak in the Grosse Pointe Bank Building at East Jefferson and Rivard Boulevard.

At 4 a. m. Avery Chauvin, building caretaker, phoned the city police station. Chauvin had discovered a gas leak and attempted to repair it. When this failed, he called the police.

Patrolmen Jack Manning and Andrew Michelson cruising in the vicinity, quickly arrived at the building. Chauvin warned them that gas had been pouring into the structure for over 20 minutes, but the officers entered the basement and found the leak. Manning held his hand over the gap, while Michelson called the station on the scout car radio and told the desk sergeant to contact the gas company. With a coal-fired furnace blazing in the next room, a terrific explosion threatened to occur at any moment. Michelson returned to the basement and relieved his partner by whittling down a piece of cork to plug the hole. The patrolmen then threw open all available windows and waited for the gas company men to arrive and complete the repair job.

Questioned later about their experience, the courageous men shrugged it off as "just another routine job."

Christian Science Church

"Substance" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, March 17.

The Golden Text (Revelation 4:8) is: "Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come."

Among the Bible citations is this passage (Psalm 33:6, 9): "By the word of the Lord were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of the Lord; he commanded, and it stood fast."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 468): "Substance is that which is eternal and incapable of discord and decay. The spiritual universe, including individual man, is a compound idea, reflecting the divine substance of Spirit."

The Grosse Pointe Lutheran Church

"Knees Bowing and Tongues Confessing," will be the subject of the sermon at the Grosse Pointe Lutheran Church, Richard School auditorium, Kercheval and McKinley, Palm Sunday, March 17, at 11 a. m. Preaching by the Rev. M. Luther Canup, D.D., pastor.

The chancel will be appropriately decorated with palms and each worshiper will be presented with a Palm Sunday memento.

Come and make this a celebration of the anniversary of your day of confirmation. Begin Holy Week by listening to God's Holy Word and seeking His forgiveness.

Sunday School at 9:45 a. m. Join quite early. As Kate says, arrived for our school where we have classes for all ages and grades and enter our friendly contest for new scholars. The festival of the palms will be a very happy one for the children at the Sunday School hour and each child will be given a Palm Sunday souvenir.

Ladies' Auxiliary of Major Burns Henry

The luncheon at Kate Porter's home was very well attended. A lovely lunch was served by Mrs. Wright, Miss Martin and Gladys Craig, also yours truly, the scribe, wearing an apron that fitted too soon. Del Barba being sergeant at arms, was afraid she would be unable to attend on account of serving on the jury, but as luck would have it, she was excused and arrived at Kate's breakfast. Girls, I wasn't afraid of missing lunch; I wanted to do my duty for initiation of Carrie Finn, which took place after lunch was served. Mrs. Finn was presented with a large bouquet of dark red carnations by President Elva Nielsen from the unit. We were very glad to have Lena Thompson and Miss Marjorie Thompson with us. Although Marjorie is a charter member, it was the first time she was able to attend on account of working nights.

We are sorry that Hazel Allan and Sylvia Sharp were unable to attend. Kate Porter, I guess you will have to do without—as Betty Hoyt says, "no more card parties for awhile."

Clara Bishop, what did you mean when you said you sleep in the park, so you vote there? You will have to explain, as it is too deep for yours truly.

Al Zarb is still quite ill and would appreciate a little nursing care. So, girls, try and give a few hours of your time to him.

Don't forget the post dance March 16 at Eastwood ballroom. I'll be seeing you.—Mary Del Barba.

BOY SCOUTS

Charles F. Smith, author and educator, assistant national director of education of the Boy Scouts of America, with headquarters in New York City, is visiting Metropolitan Detroit on Friday and Saturday of this week, to conduct a cub pack organization team training course at the hostess cake kitchen auditorium, 1100 Oakman Blvd.

Mr. Smith is well known to many club leaders of this area, having conducted courses here on previous occasions. For many years he was on the faculty of Columbia University, and has given special courses in many leading universities of the United States and England. "Games and Recreational Methods" and "Games and Game Leadership" are two of his best known literary works. He has served in Scouting since 1910 as a scoutmaster, troop committeeman, scout commissioner and executive board member.

Many of those attending his course on March 15 and 16 are from local institutions which are planning to organize new cub packs. Mr. Smith's training will enable teams of men to return to their own or other institutions and organize cub packs for boys 9, 10 and 11 years of age.

In the local council there are, at present 48 packs with a membership of 2,610 cubs.

Saints	5	5	.500
Fifteen Club	5	6	.454
Essex A. C.	3	8	.272
Rangers	3	8	.272
Arrows	2	8	.200

The Indians, last year champs, lightened their grip on a playoff position last week when they registered two victories defeating the Arrows and Essex, 52-36; 53-37 respectively. Having two players (Toepel and LeRoy) ejected from the game via the foul route proved to be fatal for the Arrows. With only six men in uniform the Arrows started the last quarter with only four men and trailing by 2 points. Two quick baskets, one by Bob Allor and another by Forest Piche put the Indians in the lead. From this point they coasted into victory. Piche was high scorer with 17 points. Taking a 27-15 lead at the half time the Indians had rather an easy time of it in defeating Essex. Bob Allor was the sharp shooter in this game hitting the mark for 8 baskets and 2 free throws for 18.

Eastminster rang the bell plenty on Thursday evening when they hit a new high for scoring against the Saints A. C., chalking up an 82-49 victory for their 11th straight win. Coach "Butch" Ten Eyck can boast of the smoothest passing and highest scores of the league when he talks of his Eastminster cagers. Four players scored over 13 points in their win over the Saints which is a lot of scoring in any one game. Schram, Clinard, McLaughlin, Ed Clague scored 18-17, 16-16 points respectively to aid greatly in their team's victory. T. Meyers and Jim Locke were high for the Saints with 16 and 14 points.

The Fifteen Club, won from the Rangers on forfeit when the Rangers failed to place five men on the floor. Needing every victory they can obtain the "15" Club were most fortunate. An interesting battle for 3rd-4th playoff berths is foreseen between the Indian, Saints and "15" Club.

The Reds were assured of at least a tie for first place in the Midget League when they defeated the second place N. C. Stars 41-30 with Bill Mesmer again topping the scorers with 28 points.

The Boys Club won their second game of the season when they subdued a fast moving Yankee five, 46-45. Bob Smith only scored six points but it was his basket that won the game for the Boys Club.

The Dukes and Mohawks went into a tie for first place in the Intermediate league as the result of victories over the Flashes and the Barons. The Dukes defeated the Flashes 49-19 with Yost leading the attack, scoring 23 points, while the Mohawks subdued the Baron aggregation 30-19 as Bob Mesmer and Savory each scored 10 points.

ST. PATRICK'S DANCE: Friday night will be the scene of a big St. Patrick's celebration at the Neighborhood Club. Dancing starts at 8:30 p. m. and the time has been extended to 11 p. m. for closing. Don't forget the "Wearing of the Green." Everybody is welcome.

Last Saturday night saw the start of the Grosse Pointe Girls' Championship tournament. Grosse Pointe Imperials and St. Ambrose second team clashed, with the Imperials coming out on top 48-2.

In the second game St. Ambrose's first team took the incomplete Cadette team for a loss of 31-11. With Marie Allard and Rita Bour sinking the ball for St. Ambrose.

On Monday night, March 11th, the Cadettes defeated St. Ambrose's second team 32-21 thus dropping St. Ambrose (2) out of the tournament. St. Paul defeated the G. P. Imperials 22-13 with Shirley Carr and Beatrice Wrubel sharing honors in looping the ball.

Pioneer Pointe Resident Dies

With the passing of Fred G. Moran on February 23, Grosse Pointe lost one of its oldest citizens.

Prominent in the construction of the Detroit United Railway's street car line into the Pointe, Mr. Moran watched his community mushroom from a few scattered farm houses into a populated suburb.

Mr. Moran, in addition to being a carpenter contractor, engaged in the house moving business. Untold numbers of old houses were shifted from place to place by this resourceful individual.

Fred Moran also served the Farms government as highway commissioner for 18 years. The Morans, a very early Grosse Pointe family, were honored by the naming of Moran Road.

In his youth, Mr. Moran was known for his horsemanship and his story-telling ability. All unruly and unbreakable colts were handed to Moran to subdue.

Suffering from heart trouble in his recent years, Moran succumbed to an attack of pneumonia, and as it must to all men, death came to honest, well-loved, old Fred G. Moran.

Devil Swimmers Banqueted by Coach

director, and Mr. Pat Kaultz and Mr. Harold Husband, who served as starters and judges during the season proved anything but "light eaters."

Mrs. Frank Banach, the cook responsible for the palatable meal, received the thanks of a satisfied and well-filled pack of Blue Devils.

William Lyon Phelps Will Dedicate Pierce Junior High School

Professor William Lyon Phelps, internationally known author and lecturer, has accepted the invitation of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education to deliver the dedication address for the new John D. Preice Junior High School, it was announced today.

Detailed plans for the dedication were put into motion immediately on receipt of Professor Phelps' acceptance.

Professor Phelps spoke in Detroit last Wednesday on the Town Hall program. Two weeks ago he was awarded the American Education Award of the Associated Exhibitors of the National Education Association at the 70th annual convention in St. Louis of the American Association of School Administrators.

It is hoped to use the Pierce School's public address system to carry Professor Phelps' address and other portions of the dedication program from the Pierce Auditorium to other rooms throughout the building so that all who attend will be able to hear the exercises.

Recognizing the close interest in the building shared by hundreds of Grosse Pointe taxpayers as well as numerous friends of the public schools and of the public libraries, the parents of the 730 children now attending the school and many others, a policy of "first come, first served" on the admission of adults to the exercises has been established.

There will be no reserved seats for anyone in the auditorium or elsewhere. Only adults will be admitted to the auditorium and students, even when accompanied by parents, are to be asked to occupy seats in the gymnasium and elsewhere in the building.

By Order of the Board of Directors. FRED J. AMSUS, Secy.

Louisa St. Clair Chapter State C.A.R. Board

Preparatory to the Chapter's Annual May Election, officers and directors for the coming year will be nominated by members of the Louisa St. Clair Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution at their meeting at Newberry House next Thursday morning.

Mrs. Charles G. Franklin will trace the progress of her committee in the research and compilation of genealogical records, and Mrs. Lloyd De Witt Smith, Chairman of the House Committee, will list in her account new gifts bestowed upon the Chapter, including a recent painting of Honorary Regent and National Honorary Vice-President-General, Mrs. Henry Bourne Joy, to be hung in the assembly room.

At the close of the business session, members will listen to a talk by Captain Donald Leonard of the Michigan State Police.

Hostesses for the day will be Mrs. Gordon K. MacEdward, assisted by Mrs. Jack A. Doerr and Mrs. Glenn H. Shepler.

Any person therefore, office holder, prospective office holder, the most ardent Republican, Democrat, etc., is eligible to join the association so long as he lives in or owns property in Grosse Pointe Farms.

The article further stated "The platform qualifications of the incumbent candidates who are seeking reelection next Monday are well known to the residents of the Village of Grosse Pointe Farms since the records of the Village speak for the efficient manner in which the Village has been operated, in the past several years.

The success of our system of government is dependent upon the intelligent use of the ballot by the citizens. Only a small fraction of the total number of eligible voters have exercised their right to vote at the various local elections.

The population of the Farms is growing rapidly and the new residents have few opportunities of becoming acquainted with public office holders.

It is not known who inspired the article from which the above quotations were taken, but the association will continue to endeavor to keep its members informed as to the conduct of public affairs in the hope of creating interest in elections and government in general in order that our system of government will function as honestly and efficiently as possible.

By Order of the Board of Directors. FRED J. AMSUS, Secy.
