

Will Conscription of Men Mean Conscription of Wealth? Asks Lindemann

Disregarding for the moment the question of whether or not conscription is necessary and vital at this time and assuming that the Burke-Wadsworth Bill will be passed by Congress in some form or other, requiring enforced militarization, how is such a program to be financed and what effect will it have on the property of the American people who are already overburdened with heavy taxes.

This is a question that Frank W. Lindemann, Republican candidate for Congress in the 14th District, has raised and here discusses.

2. Every person would be required to register his gross wealth and financial obligations with the appraisers including life insurance policies and equities in family homes. Failure to disclose such information would subject a citizen to a fine up to $10,000 or imprisonment up to two years.

3. In such amount as the President would then decide, each citizen would have to buy 50-year bonds which would pay 1 per cent—subject to taxation (taxing taxation).

4. Persons lacking cash to buy bonds must borrow from the Government, giving notes secured by collateral and must pay the Government 6 per cent interest on the loans, thereby losing 5 per cent. Failure to buy the 1 per cent bonds within a period stipulated would be punishable by a fine up to $100,000 or by imprisonment up to five years.

Don't be unconcerned because you are not wealthy as only those with a net wealth of less than $1,000 are exempted.

Josh Lee and his co-originatees, if any, want to make everyone who owns as much as a hamburger stand mortgage it to buy bonds and lose 5 per cent interest on the transaction, and in effect, go directly against our constitutional provision that private property shall not be taken for public use without just compensation.

Confiscation of Property. Once confiscated, the property would probably never be recovered by the citizens to whom it honestly belonged.

The country would be made permanently and irrevocably a totalitarian country—another step in strangling our personal liberties and democratic principles.

At present the cost of running the Government in peace time is more than 25 per cent of the total national income. In other words, we are paying out in one form or another one-quarter of our income, or working three months a year (if you are lucky enough to be working 12 months) to support New Deal bureaus, commissions and whatnot. We are gradually following the Russian system where you work 12 months and the tax bill and work year Congressman's attitude toward it. He is only in office to represent you.

It is my prediction that this bill if, as well when brought to the floor of the Senate, will not be heard, but will be railroaded through both houses of Congress.

School Board President's Annual Report Covers 18 Years of Expansion

[Editor's Note: Biggest enterprise in Grosse Pointe is our public school system. Convinced that our Board of Education sincerely desires to maintain close touch with the public, the Review has again obtained for publication the reports given at the annual school district meeting by the president of the board, and the superintendent of schools. Charles A. Parcells appears below.]

Organized in 1922, the Rural Agricultural School District No. 1, Grosse Pointe, Township, Wayne County, Mich., finishes on June 30, 1940, its 18th full year of existence. The year was notable in several ways. The most obvious was the completion and successful operation of the long-planned-for and needed junior high school—named in honor of the first superintendent of public instruction in Michigan. That school, with a capacity of 900, has already an enrollment of 772. The public approval of that school, its program, and its community facilities has been most gratifying. The first installment of the bond issue for the building was paid January 1. Four more payments and the bonded indebtedness on our district for that school will be liquidated.

It might be well to emphasize again that the board has much to do with building and repairs—with budget problems, tax rates, personnel policies and with a constant study of how to keep our fast-growing school population taken care of with a minimum expenditure for a quality program. Our school program has made Grosse Pointe notable and is the reason for many people moving to Grosse Pointe. The real job of education is to bring forth the abilities of our young so that they may take their places in the world. Some years ago our schools were criticized and correctly, as being inadequate. We have had the task of improving the quality of our schools, with a mounting load of pupils and a decreasing taxable base. My firm belief as a taxpayer and a parent is that, due to excellent leadership in our superintendents, Dr. Brownell and Dr. Van Kleeck, and to our very loyal and able staff of administrators and teachers, we have succeeded in our task to the point that the Grosse Pointe School System is recognized as one of the leading public school organizations in America. And our cost is below that of most comparable communities.

GOOD COLLEGE RESULTS There are too few means of checking our results but one is by the records of our students who go on to college. Here is a report on 511 recommended graduates of Grosse Pointe High School who have entered college from February, 1932, to February, 1940:

[Notes: At this point President Parcells presented tables of figures showing that 45.2 per cent of the college marks of the 511 graduates were either A or B marks, nearly half this being of this high quality. Forty and four-tenths per cent were C, or average. Ten and six-tenths per cent were D's. Only 3.8 per cent were E, or failing marks. Grosse Pointe graduates entered 66 different institutions in the nine years covered by the report. The largest number of different colleges attended in any one year was 22 in 1936-37. This year 21 different colleges were attended by recommended graduates of the school.]

ALUMNI-WIN SUCCESS At the honors convocation held at the high school on May 20, 318 students were honored for their contribution to scholarship, athletics, administrative work in school, music, forensics, participation in club work, dramatics, and literary effort and student government. There was also special mention of a reporting that list to you: Charles Armstrong—Phi Eta Sigma, all "A" record, University of Michigan. Stuart Anderson—Winner Justin Smith scholarship, Dartmouth.

Dubbers Meet August 19 The fourth Dubbers' tournament of Grosse Pointe municipal employees will be held at Lake Shore Country Club on Monday, August 19.

These meets have provided a great deal of competition and entertainment for the employees of the various Grosse Pointe municipalities and their friends as has been shown by the attendance record.

After a round of golf the boys gather in the evening with their wives or lady friends and enjoy an evening of dancing.

New Grosse Pointe High Students Requested To Enroll Early Students planning on attending Grosse Pointe High School for the first time in September should go out to the school before school starts to see about their programs. A transcript of credits should either be sent by the previous school or brought by the students when enrolling.

Charles E. Saltzer, assistant principal, will be in his office from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m., Monday to Friday, to take care of the enrollment of the new students.

Sneak Thieves Caught In Hardware Store City of Grosse Pointe police arrested a man and his wife in the Grosse Pointe Hardware store, 16915 East Jefferson, last Friday morning on a simple larceny charge.

Several weeks ago over $50 worth of goods was lifted from the store's counters. An alert clerk recorded the license number of a suspicious car leaving the vicinity of the store. The license was traced to George Rice, of 838 Abbott street, Detroit.

Friday, Rice and his wife, Mary, returned to the store and were recognized by Julius Nagel, proprietor. Nagel phoned the City and Grosse Pointe police and they promptly made the arrest. Several new paint brushes and many types of assorted tools, believed stolen from a Sears, Roebuck store in Detroit, were found in Rice's car.

The couple were turned over to Lieutenant Nosenowitz of the Detroit police and arraigned before a Recorder's Court judge. Both were released.

DISTRICT DEBT REDUCED Another field of the board's interest is in the liquidation of the debt created to furnish sites, schools and equipment. Besides the $70,000 paid off on the John D. Pierce Junior High School bond, we can report $32,000 serial bonds paid off this year, plus $38,000 of the Maire School bonds provided for, which will be paid November 1, 1940, finishing the payments on that building. This is a total of $140,000 reduction. Our sinking fund has been largely increased this year and stands at $97,684.52. This is slightly ahead of schedule and is an excellent achievement.

Shaeffer Agrees With Republican Women In Voting Booth Debate

[George B. Shaeffer, Republican candidate for Congress from the 14th District, has written the following article in connection with the recent voting booth controversy in the City of Grosse Pointe.]

"For the past several weeks I have read with interest, both sides of the controversy raging in the columns of The Grosse Pointe Review regarding the number of voting booths or polling places in the City of Grosse Pointe. As a candidate for the Republican nomination to Congress in the 14th District, expediency should dictate silence upon what is at first glance a purely local issue. However, I feel that the subject is of more than local importance and will frankly, at the risk of offending my friend, Al Meder, differ with him and all other opponents of bringing voting booths, and hence government itself, conveniently to the people.

"I take this position for the following reasons:

Summer Camp Has Three-Fold Aim The aim of the summer camp at the Grosse Pointe kindergarten school is three-fold: to do for others, for our camp, for ourselves.

At the opening of camp the children discuss, with the leaders, these aims and decide what to do.

This summer we decided to do something for the Red Cross. What can we do? Raise money. How? Have a fair and invite our parents and friends.

Everyone is very busy making such novelties as door stops, baskets, apron rings, coasters, pot holders, picnic cake plates, etc. for the novelty booth. Julie Hibberd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hibberd, will be in charge of this booth. Her assistants are Carol Larwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Larwin, and Robert Blanchard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Blanchard.

Josh Blanchard will be in charge of the candy and cookie booth. These novelties will be sold at the fair.

The reinforcement of the State's budget is the first District, William H. Hartman bids for the support of men and women who derive their living from the business and industry of the Detroit area.

The great factories which make the East Side of Detroit world famous and the thousands of homes and small businesses which depend on them need the undivided allegiance of the State Legislature. A man who has put in his time in the shop, Hartman sees eye to eye with the intelligent laboring man without being under pledge to any pressure group. As an employer and business man, he appreciates the problems of the man who meets the payroll.

WILLIAM H. HARTMAN The budget of the State of Michigan, says Mr. Hartman, can be substantially reduced by a more efficient system of tax collection. There is no question that thousands of dollars paid by the citizens in the form of sales tax never reach the State Treasury. In Ohio every cent of sales tax must be shown by stamps which the vendors buy and which the purchasers receive as receipt. Incidentally the Ohioan can deduct his sales tax from his federal income tax, which we in Michigan cannot do on account of sloppy work in Lansing.

Michigan should co-operate with the Federal Government and with other states in passing stringent regulations to curb un-American activities. Our factories are particularly vulnerable, both plant and personnel, to "fifth column" work. With many foreign-born and foreign-descended groups living in the First District, in spite of the fact that the overwhelming majority of these people are loyal Americans, they nevertheless offer a temptation to the alien agitator.

William H. Hartman resides at 14273 Maiden avenue and is well known on the East Side as a gasoline distributor and auto supply dealer. He has received the endorsement of many local civic groups, including a "preferred" rating by the Detroit Citizens League. His name will be found on the Republican primary ballot at the election to be held September 14.

State's Crippled Children Need Help; Do Your Part

A. Disruption of Michigan's Crippled Children's Problem by Arthur W. Semmler, Candidate for First District State Senator. The views of political candidates are not necessarily the opinions of The Grosse Pointe Review.

One of the foremost problems which will face the Michigan State Legislature when it convenes in January will be that of providing an adequate program to care for Michigan's unfortunate and crippled children. It is essential that Michigan, a state always foremost in caring for its less fortunate citizens, appropriate the needed funds to reopen the crippled children's hospitals throughout the state, and this work cannot be placed under the heading of a welfare or social welfare organization. The care of crippled children is primarily a medical problem, and to provide medical care it is imperative that doctors, hospitals and nurses be adequately compensated for their services. Part-time volunteer help is of little value, and of no value at all unless it is properly supervised and directed. The Legislature's failure last year to provide sufficient funds for the administration of the crippled children left the agencies dealing in this important work short-handed. The lack of funds was particularly felt in giving aid to handicapped children and the furnishing of such orthopaedic appliances such as casts, braces, orthopaedic shoes and other appliances, as well as the facilities to repair those already in use. Now, after a year of operation with inadequate appropriations made by the Legislature during the past session there is an urgent necessity of obtaining more help in this field. Stocks of the needed supplies are exhausted, and the work of rehabilitation and the training of the mind of the crippled child was the first to suffer when the funds were cut off. Since restoration of health was the prime purpose of hospital care, the training of the crippled child's mind was left to others if it was to receive any training at all. Such is the situation. If it goes on we can readily see that a state of complete inability of self support will exist among these insipid individuals. That will mean relief, and on the shoulders of a future population will rest not only the difficulties of discovering a manner of providing for these unfortunate, but of how to prevent their child-cripples from being subject to the same dismal fate.

"Wildcats" Meet Ivory Rangers in Grudge Polo Match Sunday

Grosse Pointe Hunt Club's "Wildcat" polo squad will resume their long-standing "feud" with the Ivory Rangers from Pontiac this coming Sunday on the Cook Road field, beginning at 3:30. The Rangers are undefeated so far this year and are in first place in the Michigan State Polo Association. Earlier this season the "Wildcats" bowed to Jack Ivory's well-mounted swiftness in a thrilling 7-6 battle. The "Wildcats" have no "warm" spot in their heart for the Rangers and the contest should prove a grudge battle to end all grudge battles. The Ivory line-up will feature Max Stefani, Bert Beveridge, Jack Ivory and the ever-dangerous Volney Bailey. The "Wildcats" will start Mac Crimm, Fred Collin, and the sharp-shooting Hammond brothers, Tom and John. Last Sunday the "Wildcats" laced Toledo's Carranor Polo Club 9-3, while the other half of the Hunt Club squad posed out Flint 9-7 in an inter-state game.

St. James Lutheran Church

"I have learned in whatsoever state I am therewith to be content. I can do all things through Christ, which strengtheneth me." (Phil. 4: 11, 13). With these words of St. Paul as his text for next Sunday, the pastor will preach on the subject, "The Christian's Contentment." Are you content with what life has to offer you? You are welcome to worship at St. James, to learn why Christians are content. Sunday School at 9:45 a. m. The lesson for Sunday, David and Goliath. Children are welcome!

Lutheran Mission Opened In Woods

The opening service of the proposed Lutheran Mission for Grosse Pointe Woods was held last Sunday, August 11, at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The sermon at this occasion was delivered by the Rev. Frank Schumm, pastor of Memorial Lutheran Church of Toledo. A canvass of the entire field was made a number of months ago to determine the prospects for a mission in Grosse Pointe Woods. This canvass showed there is every reason to believe that there is room for a Lutheran Church and that it should have a rapid growth. Due to the fact that no building of any kind could be rented as a temporary place of worship, a store building has been erected at the corner of Mack and Lancaster, where services will be held until such a time when de-church is being sponsored by the Missions have shown where the parish Board of the English District of the Lutheran Missouri Synod.

tain in most school systems. Grosse Pointe may well take pride in the quality of the teaching staff, take pride in fact that those selected for the training of our children are selected always and ever on the basis of merit, not on the basis of influence, either personal or political. I can think of nothing that would change for the worse our school system more quickly and effectively than a change in that policy of appointment on merit.

House of Representatives rallied behind the efforts of Congressman Louis C.
Rabaut, Democrat, of the 14th District, to vote its approval with only four dissenting votes.

Originally introduced some six years ago by Senator Prentiss M. Brown, the measure had been held up in the House since its passage by the upper chamber.
The bill, as passed, does not appropriate any money for the structure, but simply asks permission of the War Department to consider such an undertaking.
Accordingly, it makes possible consideration of the project by the Michigan Legislature.

In urging Congressional support of the measure, Congressman Rabaut stressed its importance to the Michigan tourist trade, pointing out that this business amounts to an excess of $400,- 000,000 a year and is second only to the automobile industry.

Don Bryant Hurls
No-Hit Game

The stellar pitching performances of Donald Bryant of Grosse Pointe Woods and Roy De Perno of Grosse Pointe Park, played a great part in the elimination of two more teams in the Grosse Pointe Baseball League play-off series last Sunday afternoon.

Bryant carved himself a big notch in the league's hall of fame by pitching a no-run, no-hit game. Bryant faced only 28 Bower Roller Batters batters as his teammates trotted across the plate 11 times.

Bryant, who weighs some 200-odd pounds and stands well over six feet, bore down on every pitcher. He had the batters fooled from beginning to end as he whiffed 11 men. He gave up only two free passes, and won his third game of the season.

Leading the Woods assault, Second Baseman Bill Schmidt banged out two singles and a double. Everyone on the squad had at least one hit.

On the Kerby Field diamond, Grosse Pointe Park scored a 5-2 victory over the Carrier Sawdusters behind the two-hit pitching of Roy De Perno.

De Perno gave up these two hits in the sixth frame when Carriers scored one of their runs. Their only run came in the second stanza as the result of a three-base error and squeeze play.

De Perno, who registered his sixth win of the year, had exceptional control with no base on balls. He also fanned 12.

Isadore Weinberg was the big gun of the Park's squad as he drove in three runs with a single and a marathon clout.

Rudolph Hasspacher, Carrier outfielder, gave the fans cause to applaud him twice as he made two unbelieveable catches in left field.

With the Park having played some more games than either the Farms or Woods they will draw a bye next Sunday, while the Farms and Woods battle it out at Kerby Field at 3 o'clock next Sunday.

Local Law Enforcement
Discussed By Woods
President Ghesquiere

[Editor's Note: Another in a series of articles on village government activities by A. A. Ghesquiere, Grosse Pointe Woods President.]

Blackstone, who has written many books and who is considered to be quite an authority on law, once said that the purpose of all law is to make it as easy as possible for good people to be good and as hard as possible for bad people to do wrong. To this might be added that another purpose of law is to be a reminder to good people to avoid doing harm to others through carelessness or thoughtlessness.

All laws made with these principles in mind are usually not difficult to enforce. If on the other hand a law is put into effect that does not have as its basis these principles it is usually very unpopular and hard to enforce.

An idea that is quite prevalent in people's minds nowadays is that there are far too many laws and restrictions of all kinds. That may be partially true, but if one thinks about or examines any law he nearly always discovers that law was passed because certain people took advantage of certain situations to the detriment of other people, therefore the law was passed to prohibit such recurrences. Because some people are always trying to take advantage of others we must have laws.
Of course sometimes laws are passed just to keep certain privileged groups in power or to help certain selfish interests but in general such happenings are the exception to the rule.

We believe that in the Village of Grosse Pointe Woods all of our laws, ordinances and restrictions are as fair and equitable as it has been humanly possible to make them. They all have as their basis the principles stated by Blackstone and the others above mentioned and therefore we have no major law enforcement problems in our village.

Our building, zoning, plumbing and electrical ordinances are fairly and sensibly enforced by our building, plumbing and electrical inspectors and all other ordinances, local and state laws are efficiently and honestly enforced by our police department. Because all of the officials responsible for the proper functioning of the law have been honest, fair and sensible we have as before stated, no major enforcement problems but we do have, from time to time, certain annoying instances caused by the following:

- 1. Some people think that the law is something for everybody else to obey but not for themselves.
2. Certain individuals sometimes think that because they are personally not confronted with the law, they can get away with it.
3. Some people think that the law is something for everybody else to obey
but not for themselves.

But even these annoyances have been greatly minimized because all of the elected officials of our village have seen the dangers in the granting of special privileges to any one. They have taken the broader and better view of treating everyone equally under the law.

Our officials have come to agree with J. Edgar Hoover, head G-man that letting down the bars even for such a minor thing as fixing a traffic ticket leads to trouble.

In fact about one month ago all of the village commissioners, the clerk and this writer entered into a gentlemen's agreement to at no time use our influence in any manner to have traffic tickets fixed or have other violations of the law overlooked and to the best of my knowledge this agreement has been kept, with the result that all tickets are accounted for either by payment or appearance in court.

We have also discovered that requests for fixing have been greatly reduced since refusals have been made and that respect has grown both for our police department and for all the officials.

All this of course does not mean that we are extremely officious or aggressive in our law enforcement; quite the contrary is true, the violator is given every consideration, the benefit of any doubt and every courtesy by all of our law enforcement agents, be they inspectors of construction work or police officers.

The whole idea behind all our law enforcement is to use the words of the late Theodore Roosevelt "to speak softly but wield a big stick."

All of which makes the Village of Grosse Pointe Woods one of the most pleasant communities in which to live.

A community where the home builders' interests are protected.

A community where traffic is so controlled that our percentage of accidents is the lowest of any around within a goodly radius.

A community where no commercialized, illegal gambling of any kind is allowed.

A community where robbery and burglary is almost unheard of.

A community where we all feel secure in raising our children.

Prefer Gin to Vodka Polish sailors on destroyers serving in the British navy now prefer gin to vodka because it is less bery.
So they have evolved a "gin gin" of their own. It is drunk neat with a couple of dashes of red pepper, instead of bitters.
