

Grosse Exaggerations?

By A. Fryw

Common Tating.

We've run across two new versions of campaign label gadgets which were designed and executed by an Eastern hairdresser.

For a long time we've thought that Jack Navin (Deigh-Navin) was a good photographer—but now we know that he is "tops."

And speaking of pictures, someone sent us three clippings from local papers, that pictured three different women wearing the same evening gown.

Before you say, "Oh fiddlesticks, another recipe," read carefully and we'll bet that you'll add this one to your collection.

Salad: Three-quarter head of hearts of crisp lettuce, cut in fine strips; 1/2 cup of chicken cut in strips; 1/2 cup of baked ham cut in strips; 1 tablespoon of chopped pickle; 1/2 cup tomatoes cut in small "chunks."

Dressing: One tablespoon of finely chopped chives; 1 chopped hard-boiled egg; 3 tablespoons of mayonnaise; 2 tablespoons of vinegar; 3 tablespoons of olive oil; 1 teaspoon of Worcestershire sauce.

Had you noticed (or don't you care?) that I'll Never Smile Again" has dropped back to third place, after having held first place for seven weeks on the Hit Parade.

If you have an after-dinner speaker in your home, you might suggest the following as an opening nonsensicality: "Why are fire engines red?"

A construction idea for radio stations: Why not have a "duck call" broadcast from five a. m. to six a. m., so that the sleepy-eyed duck hunter can take his portable radio along to the duck marsh and let Station WPMFJ call the ducks while the hunter shoots 'em? Why not indeed!

Dept. of super. chic. A few weeks ago we inflated our ego by ordering a pair of shoes (via special order) from one of Detroit's well-heeled shops.

The original plans of the City of Detroit Water Department have been disrupted because of the Belle Isle accident, and the city's only chlorinating machine has constantly been in use there.

Local Willkie Club Speeds Campaign

If a staunch group of Grosse Pointe women have their determined way, Wendel L. Willkie will undoubtedly be the next President of the United States. A non-biased person instantly gains this clear-cut impression upon first entering the recently opened "Willkie for President" headquarters at 16910 Kercheval, near Notre Dame in the City of Grosse Pointe.

The upper grades are reading and discussing the ways in which children of other countries live, as compared with their own. Gradually they will grow in the realization that the United States is one of the few countries in which all of us enjoy many privileges which are taken as a matter of course, but which were hard-earned and dearly loved by our forefathers.

The outdoor flag raising and salute are only a part of a larger activity throughout the school to acquaint tomorrow's citizens with the story of our country's growth as a democracy, and

An orchestra will supply the entertainment according to Peter Broedell and H. R. Houston, a committee of two in charge of the banquet's organization.

Grosse Pointe Park firemen made two trips to Buckingham Road within the space of three hours last Monday and extinguished a pair of roof fires, both caused by sparks from a leaky incinerator.

At the present time the Grosse Pointe Fire Department is making a house-to-house check-up on incinerators and open fire places. This canvass is being made in conjunction with the coming celebration of National Fire Prevention Week.

Brokers' Association Holds Banquet

A gathering of many persons interested in the welfare of Grosse Pointe registered took place at the Grosse Pointe Brokers' Association and were entertained about 40 guests at dinner.

Many phases of real estate and many points-of-view met when representatives of banks, insurance companies, liquidating corporations, the Grosse Pointe municipalities and the Grosse Pointe Board of Education sat down with real estate firms specializing in Grosse Pointe properties.

Also present were builders operating in the section, representatives of the Home Owners Loan Corporation, Federal Housing Administration and the Reconstruction Finance Commission.

W. Gordon Johnstone of Johnstone & Johnstone, president of the association introduced the speakers. Finton L. Henk, past-president of Henk-Garska Co., outlined the history and purposes of the association—a group of firms that have agreed to conduct business in an ethical manner and to protect the interests of property owners, purchasers and brokers of real estate in Grosse Pointe Township.

Kenneth L. Moore of the Kenneth L. Moore Co., spoke of the activity of the association in reducing the quantity of for sale signs on Grosse Pointe properties, recalling the old days when nearly every vacant lot for sale in the section carried several signs.

Leonard P. Reaume of Holden & Reaume, past-president of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, spoke of the endeavors of the association to encourage the right type of purchasers in order to build up the prestige and desirability of the district.

Those present felt that much had been accomplished to foster goodwill among the many and varied aspects of the business.

The member firms of the Grosse Pointe Brokers' Association are: A. Glenn Duty, S. C. Two Roof Fires On Buckingham Road In Same Day

Grosse Pointe Park firemen made two trips to Buckingham Road within the space of three hours last Monday and extinguished a pair of roof fires, both caused by sparks from a leaky incinerator.

At 12:30 p. m. a call was received from the Taylor residence at 1385 Buckingham. A short time later Park firemen were summoned to the home of Fred Auch, 1246 Buckingham.

At the present time the Grosse Pointe Fire Department is making a house-to-house check-up on incinerators and open fire places. This canvass is being made in conjunction with the coming celebration of National Fire Prevention Week.

Both registrations will be handled by the same personnel in your community and a tremendous load will be thrown upon the registration machinery on that day.

The only way in which the delays and confusion caused by this unhappy circumstance of dates can be reduced, is by voters not waiting until the very last day to register. Voters can register right now, while the hundreds of draftees cannot. They must register on October 16.

Grosse Pointe Township Clerk Carl Schwickart and City of Grosse Pointe Clerk Norbert P. Neff have issued an appeal to the electors who have not already registered for voting, to do so as soon as possible, and avoid standing in line on the last days for registering.

Electors may register at the Township offices, 15115 Jefferson, between the hours of 2 a. m. and 4:30 p. m., and at the office of the city clerk, 17150 Maumee avenue, and St. Clair and Neff, from 9 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. daily, and Saturdays from 8:30 a. m. to 12 noon.

Voters can check their status by telephone to ascertain whether or not they are registered.

An additional service is obtainable in the City of Grosse Pointe on Tuesday, October 3, and Tuesday, October 15, when the clerk's office will be open from 7 to 9 p. m.

When registering to vote, electors are urged to check their correct voting booth. Since the 1936 presidential election, Grosse Pointe Township's voting precincts have been further split up and many residents are still unfamiliar with the new division.

Grosse Pointe men eligible under the Selective Service Act will register for the draft at the same Township voting precincts as the voters.

Men eligible to assist in the registering of conscripts, Clerk Carl Schwickart has asked interested volunteers to contact him at his office.

From time to time full particulars relating to the draft will be published. The board will also issue details as soon as possible covering the various rules and regulations as to eligibility, registration, questionnaires and other important matters.

A missionary recently returned from China says that Japanese occupation is far from complete. The church official remarked, "A Japanese soldier is afraid to walk 200 yards off the right-of-way of a railroad, or outside of a town controlled by Japanese forces. The Chinese go out at night and pick off several Japanese sentries, much like Americans go hunting."

According to a scientific sampling poll made by a Detroit bureau, 60 per cent of Grosse Pointe's voters favor Wendell Willkie while only 22 per cent would cast a ballot for President Roosevelt. The remaining 18 per cent were undecided. Many politicians believe that the nation's substantial "undecided" vote will swing the election one way or the other.

A downtown men's clothing store has undertaken a clever promotional scheme. Men eligible for military training under the Selective Service Act, are urged to purchase a suit, overcoat or topcoat, and if the buyer is drafted before January 31, 1941, his money will be refunded no matter what condition the clothing is in.

Social Studies Classes Learn Voting Procedure

In the weeks to come, the social studies classes of Grosse Pointe High School will study the citizenship procedure necessary in order to cast a proper legal vote. When the day of the general election comes in November the students plan to have proper polling booths erected in the high school building. These will be governed by the usual number of officials arranged through the study undertaken in their civics III class. All registered students will then be permitted to vote during the day upon the regular full-sized ballots under the procedure used by their fathers and mothers at public elections.

In speaking of the effort to make each phase of this educational experience as realistic as possible, Walter Clemmon, principal, said, "We hope that the privilege of voting will constantly be held in the minds of our students as a sacred opportunity to preserve and promote true American democracy."

New features are being introduced into the service, such as story period, period of conducted hymn singing, etc. Families are urged to come as a unit. Everyone is welcome.

"Radio Jake"

Jimmy Melton and Francis White start their new show on WWJ at 8 o'clock Monday night. . . . Kate Smith, Angel of Mercy, off the air for a week, switches to WJR at 4:45 p. m. on October 7th. . . . Lerry Gentile, chief cook and bottle washer of CKLW's Dawn Patrol, tells me he'll have Orzelle Nelson and his adorable wife, Harriett Hilliard, on the show this week. . . . A lot of you will be glad to know that Tony Woon comes back October 13. . . . Laurence Olivier, the English actor, will be the first guestie when Silver Theater comes back to WJR Sunday night. . . . Wayne's King's music comes back to WJR October 5, at 8:30. Buddy Clark will do the vocals. . . . Jack Benny will be back on WWJ next Sunday night with about the same cast. . . . They're calling CKLW's Val Clare "Limpy" since a bad spill causes him to use a cane. . . . Val says he's better and "can't kick." . . . CKLW has exclusive on the World Series game—dial 1030 KC. . . . Bob Hawk will make a personal appearance in Detroit in October and his WJR-CBS broadcast will come from the Staler on the 20th. . . . WJR will broadcast the Michigan State game from Ann Arbor on Saturday and the Lions-Cardinals tussle on Sunday. . . . WXYZ and the Michigan network will be broadcasting a lot of fights this fall and winter. . . . Richard Crooks will be the soloist on the next Ford Sunday Evening Hour on WJR. . . . The Red Grange broadcasts will bring you all the football dope from CKLW each Friday night at 7:15. . . . "County Road No. 13" is the Hermit's offering on Sunday night and the writers tip Old Jake that it is plenty weird. . . . Brazil is to sponsor a U. S. radio series with Drew Pearson and Robert S. Allen—the Merry-Go-Round boys—as ambassadors. WXYZ will show it at 7 o'clock Sunday night. . . . CKLW's boss—J. E. (Ted) Campeau—is hopping around by plane so much that the boys are suggesting he get one of those "Spitfire" planes that Frank Burke is campaigning for for the English army. . . . The University of Michigan extension courses in radio started at the WJR studios last week but there is still time to enroll. Prof. Waldo Abbot is again in charge. . . . Major Bowes refused to tell his age at the last show, but publicity files at WJR say he was born "during the seventies." Our guess: "The early seventies."

Men's Leather Gloves Fashion New Style For Smart Women

Another men's fashion has fallen into the hands of the women—and literally into their hands, because it's men's leather gloves which are the latest feminine prey. It's no wonder, though, because so many of the newest men's American glove styles are so smart and good looking. Women are adopting these mannish gloves to wear with their tweed suits and jackets, their covert cloth topcoats, and their pork pie hats. . . . all of which are also fashions they have borrowed (or stolen) from their husbands or best beaux. And they look smart as all get out when "Mr. and Mrs." go walking together.

Sometimes these "Mr. and Mrs." gloves match exactly, in leather, color, style and trimming. Sometimes the feminine version is in a lighter type leather. . . . as in the cast of a woman's pigskin copy of a man's goatskin glove. Or you may like the idea of the same style but different colors, and that's smart, too.

In fact, the main idea is for the style and trimming to be the same and the

Y. M. C. A. Notes

The second physical and social school of skills of Hannan Y. M. C. A. opens on Monday, October 14, and will run for six consecutive weeks. During this time special courses will be given in 22 different skills in which young men are interested. These include badminton, basketball, boxing, diving, gymnastics, handball, life saving, male chorus, photography, public speaking, fly and bait casting, radio broadcasting, swimming and volleyball.

This project provides an opportunity for young men to test their interest and skill in the various activities before lining up a full fall and winter program. More than 300 young men participated in the school last year, and it is expected this number will be greatly exceeded during the present season.

Exposure Plus Infection Means Irritating Colds. Grandmother was right about drafts and wet feet causing some colds, but not in the way she probably thought. The State Health Department said early this week that without germs or other organisms there wouldn't be any colds, in spite of drafts and wet feet, but added that this is the season when the germs population of noses and throats takes on an annual increase. "Just why exposure to cold or wet may set off greater activity of germs already in the nose and throat isn't yet understood," said Dr. H. Allen Moyer, State health commissioner. "But there is no doubt that such exposure often is responsible for a flareup that results in a cold or other infection. "Before exposure can cause trouble, however, there must be infecting organisms present in the body. Some of them are easily passed from one person to another, usually in the unseen spray of droplets that comes from mouth and nose. The common cold is just one of the winter infections that are spread because of crowding."

SOCIAL NOTES

On Sunday afternoon, September 22, Mrs. John P. Verlinden of Wayburn avenue, entertained 70 friends at tea in honor of Miss Helen A. Gaffney, who will become the bride of John H. Verlinden on October 12 in Holy Redeemer Church.

Receiving with Mrs. Verlinden and Miss Gaffney was Miss Louise Ryan, an aunt of the bride-to-be.

The Misses Patricia and Mary Grace Schneider and Virginia Lang, presided at the tea table, which was beautifully covered by a lace cloth with an over-cloth of pale yellow organza. The centerpiece was a bronze fountain in which floated yellow rosebuds and bronze mums.

Mrs. John G. Seals will open her home on Stratcona Drive, Palmer Woods, Friday afternoon, October 4, from 3 to 5 o'clock, for a membership tea. Guests for the afternoon will include members and prospective members of the junior group of Fort Pontchartrain Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mrs. D. K. Auer, Mrs. Harold G. Stevens, Mrs. H. Sanborn Brown, Mrs. Frederick J. Dykstra, Mrs. Bernhard H. Hartman and Mrs. Allen W. Barron have been asked to assist the hostess during the afternoon.

More than 65 expect to attend this party and Mrs. Charles Hall and Mrs. Russell V. Allman will preside at the tea table, which will be laid with an Italian lace cloth and centered with a large arrangement of bronze, yellow and white bebe mums. Pale yellow candles will burn in silver candelabra.

The Altar Society of St. Paul's Church, Grosse Pointe Farms, is sponsoring a musical tea at the home of Mrs. E. J. Hickey, 23 McKinley Road, on Tuesday, October 8, from 3 to 6 p. m.

The general chairman is Mrs. Wm. C. Roney, assisted by Mrs. Fred A. Behr, arrangements; Mrs. Harold Frear and Mrs. Van Husan Moore, reception.

The musical program is in charge of Mrs. Joseph Hickey.

A cordial invitation is extended to all friends of the parish.

St. Paul High Trips St. Bernard 12-0

Although he was roughly spilled by a determined St. Bernard tackler, Donald Piche bounced over the goal-line with St. Paul's second touchdown, which proved a large factor in the latter's 12-0 victory on the Grosse Pointe High School gridiron last Sunday afternoon. The white blotch opposite Piche's left shoulder is all that is visible of the St. Bernard player.

U. S. Food Stamp Plan Receives 30-Day Trial Here, Starting Oct. 1

Bringing bounty and improved health to more than 40,000 Detroit and Wayne County families, as well as an estimated annual $7,000,000 worth of new business for retail and wholesale food merchants in this area, "Surplus Sal," the U. S. Department of Agriculture's food stamp plan, was put into operation here last Tuesday, October 1.

In other areas throughout the country where the food stamp plan has been placed in operation, welfare families and food trade representatives alike have, with characteristic American informality, tagged the plan with the simple, friendly nickname of "Surplus Sal." Detroit and Wayne County are no different than other cities and areas in this country, and today "Sal" is well known to more than 10,000 retail and wholesale food merchants, not to mention some 40,000 welfare families.

Although only a year and a half old, this favorite daughter of the American farmer is doing her bit in more than 150 cities and areas throughout the nation to aid in moving accumulated agricultural surpluses to market. At the same time, her bounty has been spread to hundreds of thousands of needy families, filling empty stomachs and bringing about a general improvement in health and standard of living for these families. "Sal" doesn't miss any of the angles, however, and wherever she goes, business, as represented by the food trades, greets her with open arms. More foodstuffs moved through the normal trade channels naturally means an increase of cash business to food merchants.

Osteopathy Celebrates Founder's Day Oct. 5

Founder's day, October 5, is an annual event observed nationally by osteopathic physicians and persons benefited by osteopathic treatment, in honor of the founder, Dr. Andrew Taylor Still.

Dr. Still was born August 6, 1828, near Jonesboro, Lee County, Virginia. When he was 6 years of age the family moved to Newmarket, Tenn. Two years later his father, Rev. Abraham Still, was appointed by the M. E. Conference of Tennessee as a missionary to Missouri. Rev. Still bought land in Baldwin, Kans., and gave it to the Methodist Episcopal Church for the building of the Baldwin and Baker University, which he helped to erect.

In 1874, after having studied nature, anatomy, physiology, pathology, hygiene and chemistry for 20 years, Dr. Still permanently settled in Kirksville, Mo., and "hung to the breeze the banner of osteopathy." In 1892 his work became too much for him to handle alone, so he instituted the first school to teach osteopathy. This first college was chartered in Kirksville by the State of Missouri and was re-chartered in 1894.

George H. Verbrugge of 1423 Lakepointe and Jack De Yonker, son of the late John Detonker, have recently returned to their studies at the Kirksville institution. Verbrugge is a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School.

"Sal's" appeal to the general public, to business, to welfare, and to the farmer is her logical, business-like approach to a real problem, coupled with her record of accomplishment during the past year and a half.

Born of necessity, "Sal's" real job is to offset the loss of our foreign export markets in agricultural commodities, and to protect the American farmer who must produce the food needs of the nation for his own living. With foreign markets rapidly falling off as a result of world unrest and economic warfare, it has become necessary to create new domestic markets to handle the surpluses which have been accumulating. "Sal," or more seriously speaking, the food stamp plan, is one method of opening up these new domestic markets.

Through the mechanics of the plan's operation, it is possible to provide a new and broader market for the farmer, to provide a new stimulus for business, whose job is to handle this large task of distribution of these surplus foodstuffs, and finally, insofar as the consumer-welfare client is concerned, it is possible to give them a more adequate diet, improve their general health and give them a moral boost.

Grosse Pointers Prominent At G. O. P. State Convention

To be raised in the "foist of de foist" used to be considered necessary for a successful political career. Now-a-days it seems that Grosse Pointe is producing most of the leaders, at least so far as Michigan Republicans are concerned. It was the precinct organization, led by Fred Alger, Jim McEvoy, George Nicholson and Brad Hitt, which challenged the supremacy of Boss Ed Barnard at the Wayne County convention two weeks ago.

Then came the state convention, where rival delegations from Wayne strove for recognition. One group, appointed by former Justice Harry Toy on authority of the convention chairman, went to Grand Rapids under the leadership of Grosse Pointe's Ben H. Cole, who also is a candidate for prosecutor.

The other delegation was Barnard's, selected at the so-called rump convention. After a series of parliamentary set-backs from the State Central Committee, largely controlled by Bosses McKay, McKeighan and Barnard, the battle of credentials was eventually brought to the floor of the convention by an overwhelming vote of the delegates. The Toy-Cole delegation was seated and the Barnard bloc ejected from the convention.

Supporting Mr. Cole were the following Grosse Pointe delegates: Mrs. Charles B. Warren, who is a national committee woman; Mrs. Dudley C. Ray, Congressional Nominee George B. Shaeffer, Frederick M. Alger Jr., Edward C. Parker, who was elected assistant secretary of the convention, George A. Nicholson Jr., Dr. Rex P. Cranston, who presided over the 14th district caucus; Hal H. Smith, C. Bradford Hitt, John S. Sweeney Jr., Edward N. Hartwick, Col. Miles N. Culehan, who served on the important credentials committee; Justice Frank W. Lindemann Jr., Mrs. Kathryn Rex.

Joe Faust, Grosse Pointe High quarterback, snared a short sneaker pass from Gordon Tanner in the second quarter of last Saturday's game and ran nine yards for a touchdown, but the Pointers dropped a 19-12 decision to River Rouge High. Other Grosse Pointe players (light uniforms) in the picture are Bill Carlson (40), Dave Lavina (42) and George Gennatas (41). The white chalk line is River Rouge's 10-yard marker.

Grosse Pointe Drops Close 19-12 Contest To River Rouge High

By DICK BODYCOMBE

Another chapter in the old football argument of the forward pass play versus the running play was written on Grosse Pointe High's gridiron last Saturday afternoon when an aerial-minded Pointe eleven lost a thrill-packed 19-12 decision to a powerful line-plunging squad from River Rouge.

Scoring on long runs in the first quarter and early in the second period, River Rouge suddenly saw the Grosse Pointe offensive spring very much to life. Gordon "Babe" Tanner, rugged Pointe passing ace, connected on a 42-yard toss to John Perry, advancing the ball to the Rouge 23-yard line. On the next play Tanner again faded back and fired a short pass to Quarterback Joe Faust, who streaked across the goal-line in eight games (29 consecutive scoreless quarters).

In the closing minutes of the second quarter, Grosse Pointe threatened again when Bob Carman, husky "Blue Devil" end, snared another of Tanner's accurate passes and romped down to the 10-yard marker, but River Rouge held until the gun sounded ending the half.

After a brief exchange of punts opened the third quarter, Tanner hammered home three passes in a row to account for Grosse Pointe's second touchdown. Apparently well-covered in the end zone, Bob Carman took the last 35-yard heave going away, after Walter Rickard's perfect block flattened two River Rouge backfield men. Tanner's place-kick for the extra point was blocked.

Still dazed by Grosse Pointe's "blitzkrieg" touchdown, River Rouge fumbled the kick-off, but intercepted the "Blue Devil's" next forward pass and started their third scoring march. After a 41-yard sustained drive, Randy Royals, River Rouge fullback, plunged off tackle for seven yards and the game's last touchdown.

Grosse Pointe rallied in the twilight of the final period, but another River Rouge interception applied the finishing touches to an exciting and well-played contest.

Next Saturday afternoon the Pointers will travel to Royal Oak to open the 1940 Border Cities League competition. The opening kick-off is scheduled for 2 p. m. Last season the Oaks squeezed out a 7-0 victory over Grosse Pointe but finished fifth in the league standing.

The Border Cities loop, composed of class A high schools in the nearby vicinity of Detroit, includes Mt. Clemens, Wyandotte, Fordson, Monroe, Royal Oak and Grosse Pointe. Monroe won the 1939 football crown and was awarded last year's "sweepstakes" trophy, having the best total average for the seven inter-scholastic sports.

for the opening date, has been postponed to November 6. His first motion picture, "Citizen Kane," of which he is producer, director and leading actor, will be finished the middle of October. Welles will speak here on "The New Actor."

Coming October 23 will be Pierre Van Paasen, foreign correspondent and author of the best seller, "Days of Our Years." His subject will be "The Crisis in Western Civilization." McClelland Barclay, famous artist and originator of "The Fisher Girl," will speak on October 30 on the subject, "An Artist Looks at Life and Art."

Other celebrities in the series of 20 Wednesday mornings will include Gene Tunney, Leland Sowe, David Seabury, Kathryn Turney Garten, Admiral Harry E. Yarnell, Margaret Bourke-White, William Lyons Phelps and Julia Sanderson and Frank Crumit.

Parkway Proposal On November Ballot

More than 100 representatives of the professions, labor, industry, the clergy, the schools, the press, numerous governmental agencies and civic and business organizations of all kinds have joined hands as a Wayne County committee to further the Detroit-Huron-Clinton Parkway-Playground Proposal, which comes before the voters of five Southeastern Michigan counties, including Wayne, in the November election.

The Parkway-Playground Proposal, officially known as Public Act 147, was passed by the State Legislature in 1939. If approved by the voters in November, it calls for the establishment in Wayne, Washtenaw, Livingston, Oakland and Macomb counties of a metropolitan authority, or commission, empowered to plan and develop a unified system of parkways, express highways and scenic drives and also public recreational facilities, such as bathing beaches, parks, playgrounds, picnic areas, fishing preserves, hiking and bicycling trails and the like.

University of Michigan Students Register For Draft At Ann Arbor

University of Michigan students will register under the Conscription Act in Ann Arbor and will not have to return to their homes on national registration day, October 16, according to word recently received from Washington.

Brown states: "Students registering under Conscription Act, October 16, will present themselves at the regular voting places in Ann Arbor where registration will be handled by selective service committee machinery there. As a convenience the county clerk may appoint at your institution if it is desirable a special registration board. University officials will have nothing to do with the registration. Grosse Pointe High Students Hold School Presidential Election

How Grosse Pointe High School students feel about Wendell L. Willkie and Franklin Delano Roosevelt will be determined by a school presidential election to be held in as realistic a manner as possible Monday, November 4.

Students will register during the week of October 7-11. The registration consisting of each student signing his name on a typewritten copy of his home room roll.

In addition to studying the regular full size instruction ballots, which will be distributed before election day, social studies classes will take as much time as is necessary for an explanation of the legal method of marking a ballot. A few moments of the last three student assemblies prior to the election will also be spent in reminding the students of the proper way to vote.

The election will be held in 25 booths on the auditorium stage on November 4 during study halls.

Seven students will act as election officials to see that only registered voters vote and to prevent any confusion or mistakes. There will be two sets of officials: one for the morning period and one for the afternoon.
