Chrysanthemum Show Scheduled for Nov. 16-17 At Neighborhood Club

The 24th annual Chrysanthemum Show of the Grosse Pointe and Eastern Michigan Horticultural Society will be held at the Neighborhood Club, 17145 Waterloo at St. Clair, on Saturday and Sunday, November 16 and 17.

The show schedule calls for every type of Chrysanthemum from the baby pompon to the giant exhibition blooms. Many classes in cut flowers, potted plants and artistic arrangement groups will also be held.

Co-operating with the horticultural society will be members of the following garden clubs: Garden Club of Michigan, the Little Garden Club, Junior League Garden Club, Grosse Pointe Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association and the Garden Center of Detroit, who will exhibit in six special classes, as follows:

Class I—Arrangement of white flowers in any container. Colored centers permitted.

Class II—Line arrangement of foliage with chrysanthemums for accent, in any container.

Class III—Modern arrangement in any suitable container.

Class IV—Mass arrangement of any flowers in any container.

Class V—Arrangement of gourds and any other material suitable for a Thanksgiving center piece.

Class VI—Arrangement of dried plant material in any container.

Any foliage may be used in all classes.

Richard Sayward is show chairman. Assisting Sayward on the committee are William Crichton, Ernest Wolff, William McInnes and Tom Pearson in charge of publicity.

Members of the executive committee for the garden club section are Mrs. Dexter M. Ferry Jr., John S. Newberry and Mrs. W. Beresford Palmer Jr.

A special class in artistic arrangement, restricted to children of the community, will be under the supervision of Miss Pauline Masak, girls' worker at the Neighborhood Club.

The Chrysanthemum show is part of the extensive educational work of the Grosse Pointe and Eastern Michigan Horticultural Society and is open to the general public free of charge.

Officers of the sponsoring organization are William C. Jones, president; William Lutey, vice-president; Charles E. Farrow, treasurer, and William P. Thomas, secretary.

Beaconsfield Avenue May Be Opened From Huntington To Harper

Ernest A. Provo, supervisor of Gratiot Township, has approached the Wayne County Road Commission on the possibility of immediately opening Beaconsfield avenue, so that children in the East Park Manor section would have a short cut to the Eastwood school house.

Under the present condition, the children have to travel the dangerous highways of Harper avenue and Kelly Road. The distance is considerably further in many instances.

It was necessary for Robert J. Hesse to prepare the road through the Young farm before the opening of Beaconsfield could not be made available.

Grosse Pointe Youth Eagerly Await Tonight's Community Hallowe'en Celebration

The youth of Grosse Pointe are eagerly awaiting the first community Hallowe'en celebration to be held this evening on Kercheval avenue, between Cadieux and St. Clair. This area which will be roped off and closed to traffic, will be gaily decorated in a style typical of the occasion. The work of street adornment is being conducted by a group of representatives from Grosse Pointe schools.

Participation in the events of the evening is not limited only to boys and girls of high school age. Younger children are urged to be on hand, especially during the period from 7 to 9 o'clock.

The schedule for the evening:
7 to 7:30
A performance by the drum and bugle corps of Alger Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. There will be marching in which the younger boys and girls will be given an opportunity to join.

7:30 to 8:30
Concert by the Grosse Pointe High School band. During this period there will be special Terpsichorean features staged by representatives of the Elaine Arndt dancing studios.

8:30 to 9:00
Broadcasting program featuring the well known Sophisticats with their announcer Franklin "Jughead" Ferguson. This entertainment has been made possible through the courtesy of W. T. Scripps Jr., of radio station WWJ.

9:00 O'clock On
Dancing to the music of two fine orchestras, Hal Berdun and his MBC band, plus either Del Delbridge or Ray Gorrell. During this part of the evening there will be interludes of particular interest, including representations of KLV, the popular Joe Gentile and Ralph Bingay, "The Bone Stranger"; Des Davey, a prestidigitator; Mary Kelkenny, a dancer of merit, and Elaine Arndt, who will give a demonstration of the "Congo." There will also be two acts from a local theater, and a special exhibition of roller skating.

As master of ceremonies for the evening, the committee in charge has secured the services of Don Chown, WJR radio announcer. Mr. Chown acted as announcer for the University of Michigan band at the U. of M. alumni celebration last year.

The entertainment will be centered on a platform on Kercheval avenue, a short distance east of Cadieux. Bleachers, erected on the vacant property on the north side of the street will afford a vantage point for spectators. Another platform in the block east of Notre Dame will accommodate the second band for the street dance.

Traditional Hallowe'en hats and noise makers will be distributed among the boys and girls. There will be plenty of refreshments, dispensed to holders of tickets procurable at a nominal charge. Boys and girls are asked to tear off food coupons from their tickets and wear the stubs on their coat lapels.

Roller skating will not be permitted in the blocks set apart for dancing.

Due recognition has not been given to a committee of students actively engaged in the promotion of the celebration, who have contributed much through advice and hard work. This group includes Joanne Anderson, Tom Candler and Dave Walton of Grosse Pointe High School; Alan Bodycombe of the Grosse Pointe Country Day School; Cole Blaeseur of Detroit University School; Jack Greening of the parochial schools, and Chuck Facett of Pierce Junior High School. Their cooperation has been essential to the success of the occasion.

Republicans Work For 100% Vote Turn Out

The Wayne County Precinct Organization, the Grosse Pointe Woman's Republican Club, and the Grosse Pointe Willkie Club, are all working to get out a 100 per cent Republican vote in Grosse Pointe Township at the November 5 election.

Do not fail to go to the polls. If you have no transportation call the Grosse Pointe Willkie Club, 16910 Kercheval avenue, telephone NL 6800 or NL 6801. If you have children who cannot be left alone, arrangements can be made for them. Sample ballots are on display at all headquarters.

New Garbage Ordinance In Grosse Pointe Park Effective November 11

The new garbage and refuse disposal ordinance, recently passed by Grosse Pointe Park's six-man village commission and published in full in last week's Review, goes into effect on November 11.

A notice reprinting the most important regulations will soon be distributed to every home in the Park. The notice explains in detail how garbage, ashes and rubbish should be prepared for pickup by Park collection trucks.

Residents are warned not to dump refuse in vacant lots.

The whole heated response of the business men and other citizens of Grosse Pointe has assured the financial solvency of the enterprise. Names of contributors, not previously published include: Joseph A. Hynes, University of Michigan Club of Grosse Pointe, anonymous, S. C. DRAFT NUMBERS

A list of the serial numbers issued to Selective Service registrants in the City of Grosse Pointe, Michigan, will be on file in the office of Herbert P. Wolf, City Clerk, at 17150 Massachusetts avenue, during office hours tomorrow.

The list is unofficial, and made up alphabetically for quick reference by name.

Wendell Willkie Termed "Very Modest Veteran"

[Editor's Note: The opinions of political organizations are strictly their own and not necessarily those of The Grosse Pointe Review.]

In all of his strenuous campaign, even the weeks before nomination, not once has Wendell Willkie made any personal reference to his World War record. To him that is not a political subject. Hundreds and thousands of Legionnaires do not even know that the Republican nominee was in the service.

On the day after this country had entered the World War, this Hoosier lad, "Win" Willkie, enlisted as a private and finally became a member of Red Arrow division in France. He saw active service in heavy artillery and gained his captaincy due to services in the trenches. But read all of the Willkie speeches. You do not read about his war services. His nearest approach is the statement: "I hate war; I know all about it."

American ambassadors, returning from Europe this week to help the third term candidate, very near openly admit that the entrance of America into the conflict is imminent. In fact only awaiting the re-election of Roosevelt. Under the Constitution and the law, it is Congress that must take the final step towards war, but with his demanded dictator powers, this will not be necessary on the part of President Roosevelt.

"Ladies and Persons Not Employed" Urged to Vote Early by Mayor Rumney

The largest number of new registrations recorded in the history of Grosse Pointe is indicative of the large turnout of voters expected on election day, next Tuesday, November 5.

Mason P. Rumney, City of Grosse Pointe Mayor, stated: "Registrations prior to the primary election approximated 700, and there has been nearly 500 additional registrations since that time. This means that there are nearly 4,000 qualified, registered electors in the City of Grosse Pointe, a record number for our municipality."

Rumney continued, "Anticipating an extremely large vote, I am urging that electors vote as early as possible in the day, and that the ladies and those not employed, vote during the midday and early afternoon period and thus avoid the congestion bound to occur if they delay voting until the late afternoon or evening, when people who are employed downtown are returning home."

"The voting polls will open at 7 a. m. and our board can conveniently handle well upward of 200 voters per hour, but a great deal of discomfort and confusion is bound to result if voters delay voting until late in the day or around dinner time," Mayor Rumney concluded.

A few suggestions to assist the voters:

1. Upon entering the voting booth, state whether or not you pay taxes on property assessed in Grosse Pointe.
2. If a taxpayer, you will sign two applications for ballots. Hand both of them to proper official for comparison of signature and approval.

3. In voting, remember to fold each ballot separately before you leave the booth. Fold them so that numbered corner is on the outside in each instance.

4. Vote early.

If the voters will cast ballots early in the day and before late afternoon, no congestion should result. Persons who are not downtown or able to leave their place of employment, can readily avail themselves of the opportunity to vote during the less congested part of the day.

One of the five ballots to be voted on by qualified Grosse Pointe electors concerns the establishment of a sinking fund for the purchase of property and construction of buildings for public purposes by the County Board of Supervisors. Only taxpayers, or the husbands or wives of taxpayers may vote upon this proposition, inasmuch as an expenditure of money is involved.

Such taxpayers must own real estate or personal property assessed in Grosse Pointe, and in order to vote, they must sign an additional ballot application. Election board officials are urging that those taxpayers qualified to vote upon such measures declare that they own property and pay taxes upon entering the booth.

Gratiot Township Club
Changes Meeting Date

A meeting of the Gratiot Township Club, scheduled for last Friday evening, October 25, was adjourned until Saturday evening, November 2, when club officials were unable to be present.

The few members present agreed that a complete rejuvenating of the club is necessary. The first business on hand at the next meeting will be the election of a new chairman.

Wendell Willkie On Punch & Judy Screen

Of timely interest to Grosse Pointers will be the presentation at the Punch & Judy Theatre, on November 2, 3 and 4, only of Wendell Willkie as guest expert in "Information Please." Mr. Willkie gives a star performance, and his vivid personal life is nowhere better exemplified than in his unusual picture.

Republican Women Plan
Pre-Election Rally

On Monday afternoon, November 4, at 2 o'clock, the Women's Republican Club of Grosse Pointe will hold a pre-election day rally at the Neighborhood Club.

An interesting program, including patriotic singing and addresses by George B. Schaeffer, William Hartman and others, has been planned.

Mrs. Frank Kriegerhoff will preside and Mrs. Alfred Whitaker will be at the piano. Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting.

Gratiot Supervisor
Supports Schaeffer,
Hartman in Election

In a recent interview, Ernest A. Provo, supervisor of Gratiot Township, stated that he "heartily" endorsed William Hartman, Republican candidate for State Senator from the First District.

Provo remarked that all outlying municipalities were in future danger of losing their own form of government, and men of the type of William Hartman would be a very important asset in the State Senate to fight such threatened legislation.

Provo also said that he was endorsing George B. Schaeffer, Republican candidate for Congressman from the 14th District. Provo stated that the residents of Gratiot Township will remember the promise made by present Congressman, Louis C. Rabaut. This promise, made in 1936 by Rabaut, stated that if he were elected Congressman he would see that Gratiot Township received its water project. After his election, Provo stated that Rabaut even refused to answer letters by representatives of Gratiot Township.

Several German crew members of two Nazi vessels anchored in a Mexican harbor have married native girls and applied for Mexican citizenship. Evidently the Nazi sailors prefer Mexican "spitfires" to those of the British type.

Public opinion apparently did not agree with Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia's actions during last week's "incident" on the city hall steps. Letterbox columns in Detroit newspapers have been filled with resentful notes denouncing the New Yorker's rough treatment of a heckler. The heckler's heckle, "Are you still taking orders from Boss Flynn," is well on its way to becoming a national password.

Four Grosse Pointe residents were among the 128 applicants who passed their state bar examination last week.

Thirty-two of the 95 Michigan hospitals on the approved list of the American College of Surgeons are in the Detroit area.

This unfortunate individual never won a contest or a raffle in his life. He never came away from a county fair with a free 5-lb. ham or a sack of sugar. The Irish sweepstakes always passed him by, but his number was the first one drawn in Tuesday's national draft lottery.

State Highway Users Conference Urges "Yes" Vote On Proposal No. 3

"There is no reason why Detroit Street Railways shouldn't be treated exactly like other citizens when it runs its motorbuses over the public highways of this state outside of Detroit," said William Palmes, chairman of the Highway Users Conference of Michigan today. "The farmer is exempt from gasoline taxes and other state regulations when he is operating his tractor on the farm but the minute he runs that tractor out on to the highways of the state he has to pay highway taxes, including gasoline taxes, and submit to highway regulations."

"A 'yes' vote on Proposal Number 3 appearing on the ballot November 5th, will put Detroit Street Railways buses using state highways outside Detroit under state regulation and control and force it to pay its share toward the cost of maintaining the highways. It will not affect them in Detroit. What can be fairer than that? I don't see why there should be one law for the Detroit Street Railways and another for the farmer and every other motor car owner who uses our state highways. Nor do I see why Detroit Street Railways shouldn't be required to stand on its own feet out in the state the same as it does in Detroit."

"The Detroit City Charter provides that Detroit Street Railways shall pay city taxes 'the same as any other corporation'. Twice in the 19 years of its existence the Detroit Street Railways has tried to get out from under some of those taxes and both times the voters of the city refused to let them out. Why should the rest of the state treat Detroit Street Railways any differently than its own home town does?"

"A 'yes' vote on Proposal Number 3 will protect the fundamental principle on which Michigan's great state highway systems were built and are maintained—that the users of the highways should pay highway costs. It is certainly an unjust rule that would permit one tax-free group of car owners to use and wear out highways that are built and maintained by another group of car owners."

"The proposal is an amendment to the Motor Carrier Act passed by the 1939 Legislature by a more than two-thirds majority of both houses, bringing all operators of passenger buses for hire, no matter who owns them, when using the highways of this state more than two miles beyond the corporate limits of cities and villages, under the same law. Now if the Motor Carrier Act, which was passed to control bus and truck operations on the state highways, to prevent traffic chaos, to promote safety, to prevent discrimination between communities, and to provide for the collection of privilege taxes and taxes, is a good law for one bus operator it is a good law for another bus operator."

"The only way for the people of this state to stop Detroit Street Railways from starting the breakdown of the state's control of its highways outside of cities and villages is to vote 'yes' on Proposal Number 3."

The Highway Users Conference urges a 'yes' vote on Proposal Number 3 in a pamphlet issued this week calling upon the voters to "protect your highway rights." It asks several questions, among which are:

"Should the public regulate public carriers according to the needs of the community rather than the whim of caprice of bus operators?"

"Should every bus company be required to pay its proportionate share of taxes to pay for construction and maintenance of the highways it uses?"

"Should all bus companies be required to maintain a decent standard of service and adhere to a schedule upon which the public may depend?"

"Should every bus company, either privately or municipally owned, be subject to state safety regulations and inspection when it operates buses on state highways beyond the limits of a municipality?"

"The answer, of course, is yes."

WAKIYA CAMP FIRE GROUP

The Wakiya Camp Fire Girls held their regular meeting on Friday, October 25th.

The girls were happy to have Mrs. Corey, their group sponsor, attend the meeting and tell them what part they could take in doing Red Cross work.

After the service, Dr. and Mrs. M. Luther Canup will open their home to all members of the church and Sunday School.

Mrs. Corey also suggested that the girls should form a knitting project to make afghans for war-stricken people.

A report was given by the chairman of the play committee, Charlotte Braca. It was decided that a one-act Christmas play will be presented. After a few business interests were discussed, the meeting was adjourned, after which Miss Masak took the girls upstairs and taught them a charming folk dance.

A Woolworth dance will be held on Friday, November 1. If you have been missing these dances, you have been missing a lot of fun. Everybody welcome!

ELECTION SCHOOL

In accordance with established practice, a "school" for voters, who have not previously voted or who may otherwise desire information on the manner in which to cast a ballot, will be held tomorrow evening, November 1, at the office of City Clerk Herbert P. Neff, 17150 Maumee, beginning at 7:30.

No candidates, local issues, or partisan matters will be discussed. The elections of the City of Grosse Pointe are cordially invited to attend. It is hoped that confusion on election day, November 5, will thus be avoided.

Neighborhood Thrift Shop History Told

The Neighborhood Thrift Shop was organized in 1932 to help support the Neighborhood Club, which is the project furnishing wholesome recreational facilities and giving relief to the needy in our community.

The shop was first opened in a building on Maumee avenue, across from the City of Grosse Pointe police station. This served the purpose for five years, but when the public library vacated the building on a corner of the property of the Neighborhood Club, it was decided to move the shop to that location and enlarge it to meet present needs.

While many donors give their better articles to the shop, there are many who feel they cannot discard last year's evening dress or suit or buy a new fur coat without some sort of reimbursement, so the articles of clothing are consigned to the French room for resale. Here the consignor receives 70 per cent of the sale and the shop 30 per cent.

The Thrift Shop does good in many important ways. It gives many people an opportunity of buying necessities at very small sums. The shop is a constructive piece of social service work that makes possible the practice of a real charity and at the same time preserving the self respect of the recipient.

FOR YOUR CHILDREN'S SAKE!

Vote Yes on the PARKWAY PLAYGROUND PROPOSAL (STATE PROPOSAL NUMBER 5)

What the Parkway-Playground Proposal Means to You!

- Your "Yes" vote means the setting up of a joint Commission for the Metropolitan Counties of Wayne, Washtenaw, Oakland, Livingston, Macomb . . . representing you in the planning, developing and operating of adequate playgrounds, parks and bathing beaches, and of safe, fast, convenient express highways to take you to your destination without delay due to traffic jams! (An annual cost of less than 15 cents a person . . . the mere price of a nut sundae! . . . will get this vitally-needed program well under way.)
- Your "Yes" vote means children of this crowded area will have an abundance of safe places to go and play! Actually, your "Yes" can save the lives of many children who otherwise are destined to meet sudden tragedy on our motor-jammed streets and highways! (In seven years of Parkway-Playground progress, the Greater New York area has reduced traffic accidents to boys and girls 42 per cent! And juvenile delinquency 20 per cent!) Let's approve the Parkway-Playground Proposal—and give our own children a chance for happiness! On Tuesday . . . let's all say "Yes!"
- Your "Yes" vote means manifold benefits that will be shared by every one of the three million people living in the five counties centering about Detroit! "Yes" means greater employment, for it takes men to build parkways, drives, parks, playgrounds, bathing beaches! "Yes" means millions more tourist dollars for this area, because parkways, playlands attract visitors! "Yes" means a more gracious home environment! "Yes" means healthier, happier, more prosperous grown-ups and children, too! For all our sakes . . . let's all vote "Yes!"

Of Traffic Court

Faulty Equipment

Many things contribute to the hazards of operating a motor vehicle. There are wide variations in the degree of individual expertness of drivers and many people lack the proper sense of responsibility for the rights and safety of others. Motor vehicle laws cannot make people good drivers and law-makers cannot legislate into motorists courtesy and regard for their fellows.

There is one rule of traffic safety, however, that every motorist can and must obey. Motor vehicle equipment which pertains to safety must be kept in perfect condition.

Foremost among the causes of accidents attributable to equipment is that of operating a motor vehicle with defective brakes. People who drive an automobile that they are not able properly to control are those who might be expected to stand under a tree during a violent electrical storm. After the lightning strikes it is too late. Yet there are those who foolishly delay having their brakes adjusted or otherwise attended to until after the damage is done.

Drivers who operate their vehicles with insufficient lights, or who must use their glaring headlights because other bulbs are burned out, are making no contribution to the cause of traffic safety. There are times and places for the use of such lights but certainly not on well lighted city streets when a stop at a corner gas station is all that is needed to replace a bulb.

The law prescribes that a motor vehicle must be in safe operating condition and drivers who play the game safely live the longest.

Kerby School Notes

LEARNING ABOUT CHINA

The 4A and 5B grades at Kerby School have been studying about China. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Smith, grandparents of one of the pupils, have been missionaries in China since 1892, but are back now and living here. They gave an illustrated lecture showing pictures of China—the people, costumes and customs. This very informational and interesting talk was followed by singing a Chinese song which the Smiths had taught to many Chinese people.

This group also had a Chinese tea at which Mrs. Moy, a Chinese lady, and her daughter spoke and sang. They were dressed in native costumes. After the program, Chinese tea and rice cakes were served to the parents and children.

Discarding their pedagogical manners, the staff of Kerby School have been meeting once a week to learn the mysteries of bowling. Each Wednesday afternoon at 4:15, they assemble at the bowling alley in Grosse Pointe Woods to change their shoes, forget their worries, and send the balls rolling.

Teachers from other Grosse Pointe schools are welcome to join the group any Wednesday.

"We Can Help" Week Will Be Observed In Grosse Pointe Schools

As a means of teaching citizenship responsibilities, Grosse Pointe public schools will co-operate again this year with the Detroit Community Fund, the Neighborhood Club, the Thrift Shop, and the Volunteers of America in carrying their campaigns for contributions into the classrooms. E. R. Van Kleck, superintendent, explained this week.

November 4 to 8 will be known as "We Can Help Week" in all the public school rooms of Grosse Pointe. Every child will be urged to make his contribution to the assistance of the less fortunate. Money gifts will be made by children who can contribute from their allowances and savings, and discarded clothing and toys will be solicited from all.

All funds raised by the children will go to the Detroit Community Fund. Last year the public school pupils gave $326.98, an average of 7.3 cents each, to the fund.

Clothing contributions are being requested in co-operation with the Neighborhood Club and the Volunteers of America. All contributions will go first to the Neighborhood Club, which will take care of assisting Grosse Pointe's needy families.

Pointe Players Stage "Our Town" Nov. 13

Wednesday night, November 13, the curtain will rise on the Pointe Players' production of "Our Town," Thornton Wilder's Pulitzer prize play, which established a record run on Broadway recently. "Our Town" is considered one of the finest portrayals of the typical small American town with its tender pattern of happy and humorous moments woven together with the more serious side of life.

This first night performance is sponsored by the Mothers Club of Grosse Pointe High School to benefit the scholarship fund. Members of the Mothers Club are especially urged to come and bring their friends.

Citizenship Class Opens In High School Nov. 6

The first meeting of the Grosse Pointe citizenship class for aliens desiring to take out naturalization papers will be held in room 110 of the high school building, 11 Grosse Pointe Blvd., next Wednesday evening, November 6, at 8 o'clock.

The class has been arranged in response to local requests by the Board of Education as a special service in meeting national emergency conditions.

The dates and length of future meetings will be arranged to suit the convenience of the group. Forty hours of attendance at a citizenship class are required, and certificates will be issued testing attendance at the close of the course. In addition to giving instruction in the requirements for obtaining citizenship papers, many other types of help will be given to aliens. These consist of giving help in filling out alien registration blanks, finding out the correct port of entry, giving advice concerning immigration papers, and many others. The teacher will be provided by the Works Progress Administration.

Candidate Van Wagoner Visits Pointe Home

Murray D. Van Wagoner, Democratic candidate for governor and present State Highway Commissioner, was the guest of John Lynch, prominent Detroit attorney and Regent of the University of Michigan, at the home of Mr. Lynch's sister, Mrs. Otto Rumpel, 1018 Yorkshire Road, last Sunday evening.

A host of business and professional people gathered to meet Van Wagoner during an interesting evening of entertainment. Joseph A. Murphy, Detroit Justice of Probate, was among the prominent guests.

ERNEST G. NAGEL
Ernest G. Nagel, 11240 Corbett avenue, Detroit, Michigan, State Representative of Detroit and Wayne County, served during the sessions of 1933-35-37-39. Mr. Nagel has been outstanding as a representative because of his desire to sponsor worth-while legislation.

His most recent achievement was the introduction and passage of House Bill No. 19. This bill was designed to amend the Garage Keepers' Lien Law. In face of great odds, this bill became a law, and is now known as House Enrolled Act No. 159.

The offers and members of the Automotive Maintenance Association of Michigan take this opportunity to publicly thank Representative Nagel for his untiring efforts in their behalf. Mr. Nagel is a candidate for State Senator, First District. Democrat. War veteran.—Adv.

GIRL SCOUTS

Girl Scout Week, October 27 to November 2, is now being celebrated throughout the nation. Most of the troops in the Grosse Pointe district are making a special effort to observe this occasion in some particular way.

One troop is wearing its uniforms all week to help make the public more girl scout conscious.

Troop No. 84, under the leadership of Mrs. R. Z. Crane, is taking a 10-week course in Red Cross first aid.

All Girl Scouts in Grosse Pointe wishing to buy or sell uniforms or equipment, should see Miss Palek at the Neighborhood Thrift Shop, 17121 Waterloo avenue at St. Clair.

All scribes wishing to earn their journalism badge should meet at the home of Mrs. John Veech, 532 Lakeland, on Monday afternoon, November 4, at 4 o'clock.

Y. W. C. A. Notes

In spite of blitzkriegs, blockades and black-outs, the spirit of international friendship and good will still continues to burn brightly here in America, and all of Detroit's leading nationality groups will be doing "business as usual" at the 10th annual old world market at the international center branch of the Detroit Y. W. C. A. on Friday and Saturday, November 8 and 9.

Not a single foreign group has canceled its booth, Mrs. H. A. Pickert and Mrs. S. A. Courtis, co-chairmen of the market, report. And the Finnish booth will be larger than ever. "In fact the nationality groups have gone out into the highways and byways to discover new and interesting imported novelties and gifts never before offered at an Old World Market," Mrs. Pickert said.

Ask Voters to Decide Fairly On Issue No. 3

Voters on Tuesday will be asked to decide on State Proposal No. 3, designed to establish fairness in the bus transportation business in Michigan. The State Public Service Commission would have power to regulate intercity bus lines whenever they operate outside of cities and villages, over state highways, provided the voters cast a majority of "yes" votes on the proposal.

At present, the Detroit Street Railways has the right to extend its lines 10 miles beyond the Detroit city limits and virtually becomes a dictator on passenger-bus service in such areas.

While friends of the DSR support the present situation on the specious argument of home rule, they have not explained how such home rule provides any safety guarantees for independent cities lying within the 10-mile zone of the DSR's out-city operations.

Those favoring a "yes" vote on the proposal point out that the DSR, having a monopoly such as it now enjoys, within the Detroit limits, should assume at least some responsibilities outside of the city to assure suburban communities of permanent service. In recent years the DSR suddenly abandoned its suburban service in Dearborn, Centerline and Lincoln Park, without giving notice to the riders.

Private companies were hurriedly formed to provide continuation of service, and now the DSR is attempting to re-enter some of these areas which have been expanded to the point that the greedy DSR officials are anxious to experiment again—with service uncontrolled by anyone except the Detroit DSR officials, as the recent Detroit-Royal Oak controversy proved.

Turned down by the City of Royal Oak on a renewal of contract, the DSR informed the Royal Oak council it would come out to that suburban city whether Royal Oak wanted its buses or not. As the law now stands, Royal Oak has no power to prevent DSR from doing just that, the Royal Oak corporation counsel was forced to admit.

Thus the "yes" vote backers explain that a "yes" vote is necessary to provide home rule in communities surrounding Detroit. In addition to providing smaller communities a voice in their transportation problems, it opens up to these suburban cities recourse to the Public Service Commission for settlement of any disputes which might arise between such communities and the DSR.

There will be choice things from Mexico, Sweden, Roumania, Switzerland, Armenia, Poland, China, Russia, India, Italy, Finland, Jugo-Slavia, Ukraine and The Americas. A novel feature this year, to delight the hearts of little girls, is an unusual collection of 100 dolls of all nations.

The Old World Market will be open from 2:30 to midnight, and there will be the usual feast of foreign foods, both nights from 5 to 8 o'clock. Special attractions include a foreign kitchen, unusual Christmas cards, a maltese lace maker at work and strolling troubadours, who will present folk music and

Shaeffer Warns Against Pitfalls Of Foreign War And Class Hatred

"Campaigns for election to public service are never won by signboards, over the radio waves, nor from the platform," says George B. Shaeffer, successful Detroit attorney and Republican nominee for Congress in the 14th District, in a stirring address delivered recently.

"As to 'enemies without' I say with all emphasis," continued Mr. Shaeffer, "let us build tanks, airplanes, armies and navies capable of the total defense of our American shores but let us limit their use to our protection and keep our government from aggressive action. Let us turn our backs on foreign military ambition, let us shun dictatorship and avoid the pitfalls of international intrigue. No war has ever been won. The only victors in war are plague, famine, human suffering and death. What price glory! As to 'enemies within,' we have plenty of things to devote our attention to. Some of them in brief, are un-American class hatreds, un-American seizure of governmental powers, un-American efforts toward perpetual continuance in office, un-American attacks upon our Constitution, un-American regimentation of our people, un-American national extravagance to the point of bankruptcy, and above all, un-American philosophies of subsidy, intimidation, planned scarcity and planned economy.

"I am convinced that my message of Americanism, is, like an avalanche, sweeping all other 'isms' before it and that the efforts of my friends and neighbors on behalf of responsible representative government, will be rewarded with victory for us on November 5th."

Mr. Shaeffer pledges that he will give all of the citizens of the 14th District personal representation, not a tool of special interests and minority groups, or a "yes" man for government by bureaucracy, as has been the condition existing here for the past six years. He is 100 per cent for continuance of constitutional government, against regimentation as exemplified in our new conscription law, and is for old age pensions, unemployment insurance, and the right of organized labor to collectively bargain, a right already threatened by certain provisions of the new Conscription Act.

He is familiar, through experience with the needs and problems of all the people of the 14th District and bears the enthusiastic endorsement and approval of many thousands of the citizens of the 14th Congressional District, which extends east from Field and Van Dyke avenues in Detroit to Grosse Pointe.

High School Journalism Students Honor 500th Anniversary Of Printing

On exhibit in the journalism class room of Grosse Pointe High School are two unique "newspapers" made by journalism students to celebrate the 500th anniversary of the invention of printing and the 250th anniversary of America's first newspaper.

"The Anniversary Argus" and "Printers' Progress" are two large cardboards on which are pasted typewritten news stories and pictures of famous events in the newspaper world. Each article bears a fictional dateline, under which a student writer presents an account of a historical achievement as it might have been reported at the time it occurred.

"Mainz, Germany, May 15, 1464.—After years of work, John Gutenberg has successfully printed a Latin Bible through the use of movable type," begins a report of the invention of printing, the 500th anniversary of which is being observed this year.

"Cambridge, Mass., May 23, 1640.—With a crude hand press and a small box of type brought from England, Stephen Daye and his son set up this country's first printing shop here today." This is the opening of a story which outlines the plans for Stephen Daye's production of America's first printed book, which took place 300 years ago.

The appearance 250 years ago of the one and only issue of "Public Occurrences," America's first newspaper, is reported as follows:

"September 25, 1690, Boston, Mass.—The first issue of Benjamin Harris' newspaper Public Occurrences, was issued today. Harris plans to publish the paper once a month or oftener, but as it is not published by authority it is rumored that the governor and council will order its suppression."

"Invention of Printing Brought to England by Caxton," "Modern Printing Press a Mechanical Masterpiece," and "Zenger Freed in Libel Suit," read headlines of other stories. The headlines were set in type and printed by the journalism students.

The exhibits were prepared by the beginning journalism classes as a part of their study of the history of journalism. Miss Doris K. Trotter is the instructor.

Under the auspices of the staff of the school newspaper, The Tower, the school assembly on Thursday, October 10, was devoted to the anniversary celebration and National Newspaper Week. Lee A. White of The Detroit News spoke and a colored sound film depicting the trial of Peter Zenger was shown through the courtesy of "The Detroit News."

New License Plates Now Available At All State Branch Offices

Michigan automobile license plates for 1941 are now on sale in all branch offices of the secretary of state.

The plates are the same size as those of 1939 and the uniform letter and numeral system (two letters and four numerals) will be retained.

The color scheme for 1941 is white letters and numerals on a maroon background, this combination having been recommended by auto engineers, traffic experts, police, auto club officials and other interested parties after a series of visibility tests at the General Motors proving grounds, at Midland.

The new plates were placed on sale eight days earlier than in 1939 to correspond with the earlier date of this year's automobile show.

On Monday, October 28, Miss Elaine Arndt entertained at two huge Halloween parties. In the afternoon, over two hundred of her wee pupils were her guests from 5 to 7 o'clock at a lovely costume party.

Miss Arndt received her many gypsies, blue fairies and ghosts, gowned in a creation with a gold bodice and a bouffant black net skirt with gold moons and stars sprinkled over it.

The senior classes met in the evening, which was gay with many novelty dances and the usual Halloween refreshments.

The advisory board of Michigan State Society of Daughters of American Colonists met on Tuesday, October 22, at the home of Mrs. William D. Lent-Koop in Ann Arbor.

Guests included Mrs. Edward F. Dickieson Jr., Mrs. Robert C. Gammon, Mrs. Harold A. Breck of Detroit and Mrs. Mayne F. Glock, Mrs. John F. Klein and Mrs. Harold R. Smith of Grosse Pointe.

The meeting was preceded by a luncheon.

Citizens' Association Opposes Proposal No. 3

The Citizens Association of Grosse Pointe Park, through its board of directors, has considered No. 3 Proposal to be voted upon at the coming election on Tuesday, November 5. Many residents of Grosse Pointe Park may feel that they are not concerned with this proposal; however, an examination of the facts will show that it does vitally affect not only the residents of Grosse Pointe Park but the residents of the entire Grosse Pointe area.

It is the opinion of the Citizens' Association that the present status should remain unchanged. In arriving at its determination it did not consider the merits of the service given by the present bus system. Likewise, it did not consider whether it was better for the people of any community to have a municipally owned transportation system or one owned by a private corporation. The controlling factor which it sees in this controversy is whether or not the people of Grosse Pointe shall retain the privilege of inviting the D. S. R. to come into its community whenever it sees fit to do so and upon such terms as may be mutually agreed upon by the D. S. R. and the respective municipalities without first having to go before some administrative board at Lansing.

It is the belief of the Citizens Association that both parties shall be free to contract without the interference of some governmental administrative board.

The association is informed that the cities of Highland Park, Ferndale and Royal Oak, which are at present served by the D. S. R., believe that the proposal should be turned down and, likewise, it is the opinion of the Citizens Association that the people of Grosse Pointe communities will be giving up a valuable right if this proposal is carried. For that reason, it recommends that Proposal No. 3 shall be voted "No."

U. of M. Film Library Loans Motion Pictures

Motion pictures, selected as valuable aids to education, are available to schools and churches, civic and educational organizations from the University of Michigan Extension Service film library. The library's 500 instructional films include such a variety of subjects as agriculture, first aid, safety, nature study, recreation and sports, biology, chemistry, geology, social studies, geography, vocational guidance, arts and music, home economics, foreign languages and forestry.

Seventy-one films, produced originally for the theater, but which have educational merit and 15 cuttings from regular movies are to be found in the film library. These cuttings include scenes from "Captains Courageous," "The Good Earth," "The Life of Emile Zola," and "The Story of Louis Pasteur." Several "March of Time" and numerous industrial and United States government films are also available.

Vote early Tuesday, November 5.

ELECT WILLIAM H. HARTMAN STATE SENATOR FIRST SENATORIAL DISTRICT Endorsed by the Civic Searchlight, Veteran, Business and Professional Groups as PREFERRED

Statement To The People About Proposal Number 3 BY MANFRED BURLEIGH, CHAIRMAN LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE, MICHIGAN MOTORBUS ASSOCIATION In none of the literature circulated by the D. S. R. have I seen a statement... 6. To fix, alter, regulate rates, fares... 7. ... to prevent unjust discrimination; 8. To provide for the levy and collection of certain privilege fees and taxes, etc. Nothing complicated or obscure about that, is there? Proposal Number 3 simply asks that the D. S. R. play according to state rules when, and only when, it seeks to operate its buses on the public highways of this state more than two miles beyond the city limits or into another municipality. It puts the D. S. R. operations on the Public Highways of the state outside Detroit under state regulation the same as any other carrier. That's all there is to Proposal Number 3. Many Backing Act Although I represent the Michigan Motorbus Association, I am not speaking in its behalf alone. There are a great many other organizations beside the Motorbus Association interested in Proposal Number 3 because they consider that the campaign of the D. S. R. against the Proposal is an attack on the basic principle on which Michigan's great highway system was built—that those who use the highways should build and maintain them. The private car owner who pays his $10 for a license plate every year and gives up 45 cents in taxes every time he buys 10 gallons of gas is interested in Proposal Number 3. So is the farmer, the workman, the school teacher and all persons interested in transportation. The state-wide campaign is sponsored by the Highway Users Conference, which includes 40 or more organizations of the state interested in protecting Michigan highways. We are members of that conference as are several organizations of private car owners, including the Michigan State Grange which unanimously endorsed Proposal Number 3 last week. There are many other highway users represented, big and little. No City Exemption The D. S. R. is asking something from the state which it could never get from the City of Detroit—tax exemption. The Detroit city charter provisions creating the D. S. R. specified that the D. S. R. should pay all taxes "the same as any other private corporation." Twice in its 19 years history the D. S. R. has asked the voters of Detroit to relieve them of part of those taxes and twice the voters have refused, the last time by a two to one vote. I don't like to be drawn into a discussion of issues which have nothing to do with the operation of this law, but I cannot overlook certain false statements being circulated by the D. S. R., statements that the D. S. R. officials know are false. Assures Ford Workers Some of the insinuations are that the private bus companies want to take over the D. S. R.; that if Proposal Number 3 is passed double fares will be collected from workers traveling to the Ford Motor Company downtown plant; that persons wishing to come into Detroit will have to get off at the city limits and transfer to a D. S. R. limit, and many other stories like that. I repeat that such statements are false and the persons making them know they are false. Proposal Number 3 can't possibly affect the street car-bus operations to the Ford Motor Company plant, for the reason that the Motor Carrier Act doesn't include street cars. So D. S. R. street cars to Dearborn or Royal Oak can't be hampered by the Proposal. And as to its bus operations to the Ford plant, the privately owned bus companies not only have no desire to duplicate the motorbus end of the D. S. R.'s operations but have repeatedly and publicly offered to stipulate before the Public Service Commission that the D. S. R. have this territory exclusively. The D. S. R. has a monopoly on the Ford Motor Company operations which nobody can legally disturb. How About Home Rule? Without Proposal Number 3, the suburban communities of Detroit do not have Home Rule. Under the law as it stood until amended by the last Legislature, the D. S. R. had the right to start or stop service in any suburban territory it wished, whether the community liked it or not. One spokesman for the D. S. R. has said this statement is untrue. But the best legal advice we have been able to get and the best legal advice the City of Royal Oak could get, including the corporation counsel, Mr. W. C. Hudson, is that the D. S. R. can run its buses into Royal Oak whether Royal Oak wants them or not. That's the legal advice the D. S. R. lawyers gave Royal Oak, too. And the Mayor of Detroit declared recently: "The D. S. R. should be allowed to go anywhere it pleases in the state—Lansing, Grand Rapids or elsewhere." If Proposal Number 3 is approved, suburban towns and villages will have a more effective voice in their own transportation problems. If they disagree with the D. S. R., they won't have to take or leave what the D. S. R. offers. They will have an appeal to the Public Service Commission and if either side feels aggrieved by the action of the Commission then it can appeal to the Supreme Court as is provided in the Motor Carrier Act. I AM SURE THAT NOW, KNOWING THE REAL FACTS ABOUT PROPOSAL NUMBER 3, YOU WILL NEXT TUESDAY VOTE YES ON PROPOSAL NUMBER 3

"Town Hall" Schedules Popular World Traveler

Frederic Snyder, journalist and world traveler, returned to Detroit by popular request, will continue his amazing and accurate prophecies "Keeping Ahead of the Headlines," at the Detroit Town Hall in the Cass Theater, tomorrow morning, November 1st, at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Snyder, called the "Platform Publisher," is also the creator of "The Verbal Newspaper." Snyder predicts, with telling accuracy, what is going on beneath the surface in this mad scramble of the nations of the world for supremacy. His latest travels have taken him from Canada to Cuba to observe the pan-American Assembly and the United States-Canadian defense moves.

Jefferson Avenue Baptist Church

The Rev. Wayland Zwyer, minister of the Jefferson Avenue Baptist Church, leaves next week for New York after over nine years in the Detroit pastorate. He will occupy the Jefferson Avenue Baptist pulpit for the last time as pastor this Sunday, preaching at 11 a. m. and officiating at a candle light communion service at 7:30 p. m.

Everyone is cordially invited to join with the members of the Jefferson Avenue Baptist congregation in this farewell service. The Rev. Mr. Zwyer will become the pastor of the Emmanuel Church in Brooklyn.

Christian Science Church

"Everlasting Punishment" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, November 3.

Among the Bible citations is this passage (Isaiah 3:10, 11): "Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him: for they shall eat the fruit of their doing. Woe unto the wicked! It shall be ill with him: for the reward of his hands shall be given him."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 266): "The sinner makes his own hell by doing evil, and the saint his own heaven by doing right."

Laundrying Space

Space must be provided for laundrying and household tasks in the new small home. If there is a basement, laundrying and most of the chores can be done there. Wherever possible, it is better for laundrying to be done on the first floor. Laundry work is difficult at best, but when carried on in unpleasant dark surroundings it becomes needlessly burdensome. Sometimes chores and laundrying can be done in the kitchen, utility room, and to some extent in the garage.

1940 Call for Red Cross Recruits

The 1940 Poster of The American Red Cross sounds the call to the nation to serve humanity within the ranks of this army of mercy.

KEEPING step with the boys called to the colors in America's new defense army and navy, will be the American Red Cross, fulfilling its mission of service to the men in the line and to their loved ones at home. Chairman Norman H. Davis announced in Washington.

"Several thousand Red Cross nurses already have been called to the colors," Mr. Davis said, "and Red Cross field directors, and thousands of Red Cross workers in Chapters throughout the nation, are ready to help America's soldiers and sailors with personal problems, just as in the 1917-18 World War period.

"Every patriotic man and woman in the United States, who wants to do his or her share in upholding the national defense of our nation, can do so by sharing in the vitally important work of the Red Cross. Join as a member of the local Chapter during the roll call, November 11 to 30, and through your support you will strengthen the Red Cross army of mercy.

"Recruits are needed not alone as members, but also as volunteer workers in the Red Cross Chapters."

Red Cross work will continue undiminished in its usual domestic program of relief in disaster; community public health nursing; safety education and promotion of the Junior Red Cross. An individual membership supports all of this work, not only in Red Cross Chapters, but in the nation.

Relief to war victims in Europe is financed by the $20,000,000 war relief fund contributed by the public during the summer of 1940.

Judge D. J. Healy Seeks Re-Election

Judge D. J. Healy, Judge of Probate, who seeks re-election to the office of Judge of Probate in the election on November 5th, was born in Detroit of a pioneer family whose reputation in business and civic affairs of Wayne County is a matter of public record. He is 57 years of age, is married and lives with his family in Detroit. He is a graduate of the University of Detroit Law School, and practiced law before taking office as Judge of Probate in 1932.

Judge Healy's reputation as a socially-minded citizen has been honestly earned through 25 years of social service to the community, especially with boys' groups. He has proven himself to be judicially and temperamentally suited to handle the thousands of children's cases that have come before him during his eight years as Judge of Probate in charge of juvenile problems.

Judge Healy has always felt that it is foolish to just sit back and wait until children get into trouble before some effort is made to help them in their difficulties. It has been his belief that it is much better to prevent their getting into trouble at all, if possible. To carry out these ideals, Judge Healy has been responsible for an active delinquency prevention program in Wayne County, through the medium of community councils. He has developed and sponsored a "Big Brother" movement among church and civic groups. For the past four years, Judge Healy has presented to the public a "Mock Trial," as an educational program to stress community responsibility in the prevention of crime and delinquency among juveniles. He established the Juvenile Traffic Court for traffic violators under 17 years of age, in order to better control violations among youths. The worthwhile results of this progressive program is evidenced by the fact that the number of juvenile delinquents coming to the attention of the Court has dropped by more than 50 per cent since 1929. In that year, 3330 boys and 434 girls came to the attention of the Court, whereas the average for the last four years was approximately 1500 for boys and 200 for girls.

During his eight years in office, Judge Healy has built around him an organization of highly skilled and trained personnel, which is so essential in dealing with human lives and problems. At the same time he has saved the tax payer money, through an economical and business-like operation of the Court.

This year the Judges of Probate will be elected on a non-partisan ballot, which will be separate from the regular party ballots.

Mason School Notes

SONG FEST

On Friday morning, October 18, an assembly program for the boys and girls in the fifth and sixth grades was held in the Mason School auditorium. Mr. Jameson and Mrs. Meldrum were in charge of the program, which included presentation of colors, salute to the flag and songs by entire student assembly.

An interesting and varied program of community activities is now in full swing at Mason School. The groups which meet regularly are as follows:

Monday, 3:30 to 5:15, Girl Scouts, elementary group; 7 to 9, Boy Scouts; 8:30 to 10, men's gym.

Tuesday, 7 to 8:30, Girl Scouts, senior high group; 8:30 to 10, women's gym.

Wednesday, 7:30 to 10, landscaping; 7 to 10, badminton.

Thursday, 4 to 5:30, Girl Scouts, junior high group.

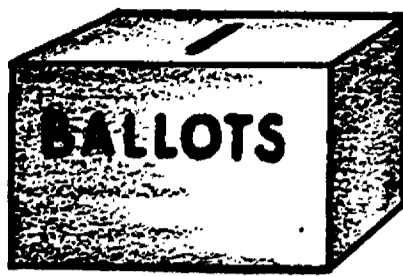

Friday, 1:30 to 3, interior decorating.

Since the opening of school nine weeks ago, there has been only one change in the teaching staff of the Stevens T. Mason School. Robert Bollard has been replaced by John Hammel, teaching interne from Buffalo, N. Y. Mr. Hammel has charge of science and physical education classes in the upper elementary grades.

Children in the primary grades at Mason School have received some varicolored rolling hoops. The hoops are about 30 inches in diameter and are propelled by round sticks about a foot long. The distance and speed at which a hoop is rolled depends upon the child's ability to run and to guide the hoops while running. The children enjoy sharing the hoops during play periods on the school grounds.

On Friday evening, November 1, the association will sponsor a costume dance in the school gymnasium, Verner Road near Mack, beginning at 9 o'clock.

Bill Boell's orchestra will supply the music and Elaine Marie Arndt's dancers the entertainment.

Two Designs Compete For Cover Honors On High School Magazine

Two cover designs have been chosen as possibilities for the winter issue of Proem, Grosse Pointe High School's all-American literary magazine.

A three-color design of a jaunty scarecrow in yellow, brown and green has been made by Evelyn Lance, 10A. It is the first cover, calling for three different colored inks, even been designed for a Proem cut.

A gray showman, its large blue shadow predominant, is Virginia Shoemaker's bid for the cover decoration. The showman will be a two-color red and blue combination on a gray background.

The two covers were approved by the Proem staff, and the winning design will be chosen after a linoleum cutting has been made.

'New Dawn' Rose The "New Dawn" rose, a freak of nature, was the first plant patented under the plant patent act. It was found growing among a group of Van Fleet roses.

Cock Fighting Although cock fighting in California is against the law and both cocks and cock fighting paraphernalia subject to confiscation, it is estimated there are between 60,000 and 100,000 game cocks in that state. Farmers raise them "to improve the breed." They are now organizing to fight the measure which subjects the birds to confiscation.

Hartman Urges Return To Constitutional Form Of Government

(Editor's Note: The opinions of political candidates are strictly their own and not necessarily those of The Grosse Pointe Review.)

"If there is one single thing to be accomplished, or one sole thought to be borne in mind at all times during this campaign, it is that we must return immediately to a constitutional form of government, and never again allow ourselves to stray from it," William T. Hartman, candidate for State Senator from the First District, stated recently.

Hartman has continually and religiously brought this message to his many constituents in his talks and addresses before civic organizations in this district.

"A constitutional form of government implies sanity in government through the proper and smooth workings of our present system based upon checks and balances, through the free and separate parts of our government, the judicial, the executive and the legislative. The will of the people must be expressed through their legislators and that will when expressed is enforced by the executive department and that will is interpreted and applied by their judicial department. How important, therefore, that we choose our representatives and our senators from every district only with the utmost of care and only after the most painstaking scrutiny. How important that each man whom we call on to represent us be the type both morally and mentally to not only know our needs, recognize their causes, but who shall also have the courage and the ability to promote, ratify and encourage such legislation as will express the will of the people, and shall radiate and encourage their best interests. Over one hundred years of experience has shown us that our present system of government is the only true government of the people. Shall we now sacrifice this experience, this system, this government, yes, even our American ideal of personal liberty on the altar of ignorance or indifference? Of course not, and on November 5th, we can, and I am sure you will, do your part to perpetuate for all time our 'American' status. There is no doubt that a battle is being fought this fall that dwarfs all local issues in magnitude, and our present system of government may possibly be hanging in the balance, but I am confident that an answer will be echoed through every part of our land, as it always has been, on the side of constitutional government, by, for, and of the people.

"And I would welcome the opportunity of doing my part as your Senator to restore and to perpetuate our present system of government, and to return again to political sanity. Through my many years of experience as a business man in this locality I feel that I am justified in requesting your support as your next State Senator. In the heat of a great national campaign we must never lose sight of the campaign for offices of less magnitude than our national offices. We must at all times remember that in the majority of cases the average citizen and voter can only express his needs, desires and will through the representatives and senators of his own immediate district. I can assure you that a vote for me as your State Senator will be justified in the knowledge that I believe in our American way of living and in our American standards, and as your State Senator that thought will never be forgotten."

The record of Hartman's opponent, incumbent Ernest G. Nagel, has been investigated and shows: "Out of 99 sessions of the State Legislature, Nagel was absent 32 times, or approximately one-third of the time. Out of a total of 452 House and Senate bills up for final passage, Nagel failed, refused or neglected to vote 112 times, or about one-fourth or 25 per cent of the time."

Louis C. Rabaut Seeks Re-Election

Grosse Pointe's own distinguished representative in the United States Congress, the Hon. Louis C. Rabaut, stands for re-election in Tuesday's balloting, on his outstanding record at Washington during the last six years. Now one of the most influential members of the House of Representatives by virtue of his chairmanship of the powerful Legislative Establishment Appropriations Committee, Congressman Rabaut was first called to public office many years ago when he served this community as a trustee of Grosse Pointe Village.

Although he now plays a major role in matters of national importance through his committee work, Mr. Rabaut from the very beginning of his career in Congress has worked courageously for the benefit of the people of his district, and this year, as in the past, his candidacy has transcended party lines and Republicans and Democrats alike have joined to praise his work. This year, however, an unprecedented tribute was paid him by the ranking minority (i.e., Republican) member of the Appropriations Committee, the Hon. Robert F. Rich, of Pennsylvania, who has publicly told his colleagues, "Congressman Rabaut displayed business judgment and ability in everything he did in handling the hearings and I have not seen anything like it in years."

That this praise was justified is evidenced by the fact that for the last two years consecutively, Congressman Rabaut has led all of the chairmen of House appropriations subcommittees in making the largest per cent reduction under budget estimates for regular expenditures of the Federal Government. Yet this record for economy is no new thing, for during his first year in Congress, Representative Rabaut managed to save the people of Michigan and the United States over $9,000,000 by reducing expenditures, and he was publicly praised for this work by the then Majority Floor Leader William Bankhead.

Certainly no candidate for Congress was ever more familiar with the problems of Grosse Pointe than Representative Rabaut. He spent his boyhood here, and having made a success at business, he returned when he was ready to establish his home. His nine children were born here, and they were sent to schools in the district as he had been sent before them. During his earlier community service, he had a major part in establishing the park system of Grosse Pointe as it exists today, and as a real estate man, he helped greatly to increase the value of community property, pioneering in its development. He has been instrumental in securing Federal funds for many community improvements, including schools, parks and boulevards, etc.

Grosse Pointe has profited from Congressman Rabaut's service at Washington, and this is doubtlessly one of the major reasons why many his Republican friends this year have again assured him that they will split their tickets in his favor, following a precedent established in 1936 when David G. Williams, runner-up for the Republican nomination, gave his support to Representative Rabaut on the Democratic ticket rather than to the candidate of his own party.

Mt. Clemens High Ends Grosse Pointe Three-Game Winning Streak

As it must to all good things, an abrupt end was written to Grosse Pointe High's spectacular three-game winning streak last Saturday afternoon, when a highly-touted football machine from Mt. Clemens High roared into the Pointe and limped home with a hard-fought 15-7 victory.

After a scoreless first half in which both teams muffed an excellent scoring chance, Mt. Clemens turned on a 43-yard touchdown march mid-way in the third quarter, crossing the final white stripe on a tricky end-around play, Grosse Pointe bounced right back with a touchdown of their own, and with Gordon Tanner adding the extra point on a perfect place-kick, took over a short-lived 7-6 lead.

The Pointe touchdown plunge by Fullback Adolph Neeme climaxed a thrilling attack, with Tanner connecting on three passes to Joe Faust and on a pair to Bob Bureau. Neeme's touchdown was termed "disputed" in a story of the game published in Monday's Mt. Clemens Daily Leader. The Leader sports writer claimed that the ball slipped from Neeme's fingers, struck the ground in front of the goal-line, and was recovered by the ball carrier in the end zone.

Mt. Clemens scored the winning touchdown in the final period on a short plunge, after a 56-yard run by Alex Wakefield, "Bather" backfield ace, had advanced the pigskin deep into Grosse Pointe territory. On the last play on the game, a Grosse Pointe ball carrier was tackled deep in his own end zone, giving the "Bathers" an additional two points.

Saturday the Grosse Pointe squad will travel to Dearborn, meeting Fordson High in the final game of the Border Cities League season. As usual, Fordson has another strange team. In addition to three league victories, the "Tractors" have defeated Saginaw and Toledo Central.

'The Stock Market After Election'

By LEE BALINGER

On the train from Washington there were two prominent business men, one a Democrat from Virginia, and one a Republican from California. They were engaged in speculative discussion about what the market will do after election day. I heard the gentleman from Virginia say, "Well, sir, prices may be pushed up and stocks go wild, but it can't last for long, if the present crowd stays in." The gentleman from California agreed... which all raises the question in mind of just what is going to happen to the stock market after election.

At every presidential election since 1900 the stock market has shown increased sales on the day following election... except one—the election of 1932. The day following this one activity declined.

The election this time introduces the new eventuality... third term. If it were not for the great probable stimulation to come from government defense spending, the results after election day might well be quite a speculation. Some experts feel sure that regardless of election results, there will be a release of long delayed activity which has been accumulating for several weeks because of well sustained earnings and the prospects of actual disbursements on defense contracts to take place in the next few months. The immediate effect of taxation is discounted, although most economists agree that with the present trend of governmental debt creation in order to continue great spending, the eventual taxation will inevitably lead to disaster for the nation. Today our national debt is $44,088,166.21, which has been increased by $1,219,973,044.13 in the past year. Our gold assets amount to $21,428,062,611.16. If the government were forced to pay its promises in gold it could pay only approximately 50 cents on the present paper dollar.

A great statesman once said, "Beware of the Ides of March." Perhaps this would go double today for the election day of 1940.

To those who have any doubts as to the true greatness of John L. Lewis as a man and as a patriot, the memorable and history making speech delivered Friday evening should be an unforgettable experience. The complete summation of facts regarding the peril of our country and the mastery eloquence of his delivery, make this speech a great one of all time. This is the one voice which can earnestly tell about a situation which has arisen... the voice to be carefully heeded by Secretary Wallace's "working man." Regardless of how the market might go, let us stop in the midst of profit seeking efforts, to pay tribute to John L. Lewis, the man who has done more for labor and the success of this nation which depends on labor than any other individual. We owe him everlasting gratitude for his example in placing patriotism ahead of assured personal power.

Dorothy Maynor Teams With Bruno Walter In Tonight's Symphony

Dorothy Maynor, sensational new Negro soprano, and Bruno Walter, recognized generally as one of the foremost conductors of the world, will combine tonight with the Detroit Symphony forces to make the orchestra's second subscription program Thursday night in Masonic Auditorium one of the season's most memorable concerts. Walter is the first of the noted guest conductors scheduled to appear this season.

The entire program will be repeated at 2:30 p. m., Friday, November 1, in the Scottish Rite Cathedral of Masonic Temple. This concert will mark the opening of the Friday matinee series of six programs, repeat performances of as many preceding Thursdays.

Miss Maynor, who last winter was declared to be the year's greatest musical "find" will make her Detroit debut at the concert, although she is already well known to many Detroiters. Walter has not appeared here for more than a dozen years.

The program: Brahms First Symphony in C Minor, Op. 68; Debussy Prelude "The Afternoon of a Faun"; Three Arias, sung by Miss Maynor; Mozart "L'americo saro costante" ("Il Re Pastore"); Weber "Leise, leise" ("Der Freischutz"); Carpentier "Depuis le jour" ("Louise"); Wagner Prelude and Love-Death from "Tristan und Isolde."

It is only a short time ago that Miss Dorothy Maynor, still an unknown, went to listen to music at the Berkshire festival conducted by Serge Koussevitzky. She presented herself before the great Boston leader, who immediately praised her in the highest terms, saying "The world must hear her." Critics who were present proclaimed her the discovery of the decade. During her first season she enjoyed the unusual distinction of appearing as soloist with four of the country's leading symphonies.

The daughter of a Norfolk, Va., minister, Miss Maynor received her first musical training in the choir of her father's church. She is a graduate of Hampton Institute, which she entered at 14, and where she received her first vocal lessons. A few years later she toured Europe as a member of the institute's famous Negro chorus. Afterwards she studied at the Westminster

The Stage Has Frozen Over; Ice Attractions 'Steal The Show'

The stage has frozen over. In the last few years the amusement world, or that part of it that looks for entertainment outside of the screen or those who desire to see the performance in person, has turned to the frosted surface.

Ice events, entertainments on ice, have led all other "legitimates" in the last 12 months. This is true not only in Detroit but throughout the country. From the time a surface of ice is put on the arena floor of Olympia early in October until mid-April, there is something happening on it almost continuously night and day, seven days a week. Hockey players, speed skaters, figure skaters and just the mine run of public skaters for pleasure and exercise, make use of the ice surface of Olympia at whatever hours can be allotted to them.

Hockey and the huge skating spectacles, such as Sonja Heine's production and the elaborate "Ice Follies" continue to steal the show, but there are many other less spectacular uses made of the ice sheet which Olympia offers. The Olympia skating club, being among its members many of the leading citizens of Detroit, brings hundreds of skaters to Olympia every week, including a large group of children
