ANOTHER TRAFFIC DEATH SWELLS TOLL

Grosse Pointe Lions Plan "Old Newsboy" Sale On Dec. 17

The Grosse Pointe Lions Club, under the leadership of Committee Chairman Nelson L. Korte, is again organizing its annual "Old Newsboy" street sale of The Grosse Pointe Review to be held this year on Tuesday, December 17.

Each year since its organization in 1929, the Lions Club has held this regular "Goodwill" campaign, which has always been nobly received by generous Grosse Pointe contributors. Funds collected are not dispersed just at Christmas time, but equally distributed throughout the 12 months of the year.

Setting on Chairman Korte's committee are: Herbert F. Denk, Art Gault, Alfred Gorska, George Ingram, Jack Reed and Charles Richardson.

A 16 YEAR OLD GIRL DIED IN THIS CRASH

Lake Shore Rd. Accident Takes Life Of Young Girl; Cry For Safety Increases!

Following close on the heels of a recent accident in which two Grosse Pointe residents were killed, another unsolved crash took the life of a 16-year-old Detroit girl early last Thursday morning, when the car in which she and five other young people were riding struck a tree and overturned on Lake Shore Road 200 feet east of Provençal Road.

The car, a 1941 Plymouth sedan, driven by David Kleck, 18, of 2965 St. Clair avenue, Detroit, was a total wreck. All six passengers were rushed to Cottage Hospital shortly after 1 a.

m. by Grosse Pointe Farms and Grosse Pointe Shores police officers. Marjorie Alexander, 16, of 1166 Lenox, was dead upon admittance to the hospital. Roy Tarsinare, 16, of 3727 Cadillac, and Ruth Jewell, 15, of 1143 Gray, were released after first aid for cuts and bruises was administered.

Jean Austin, 14, of 623 Harding, suffered a broken collar-bone, and was released from Cottage Hospital on Monday. Kleck, who sustained facial injuries was released by hospital officials on Tuesday. Samuel H. Delebach, 17, of 1942 Westphalia, was transferred to Receiving Hospital, where he now lies in "a very serious condition."

Gratiot Township May Have New Type Police Service

Ernest A. Provo, supervisor of Gratiot Township, recently approached the county sheriff's office complaining about the type of service they are receiving. Provo stated that when the sheriff's patrol started in Gratiot Township there were just a little over three hundred homes, but the township has more than doubled in homes since that time.

Provo believes that the township would be better off if one of its residents was appointed as an active deputy sheriff operating a sheriff's car on call duty 24 hours each day. This man, residing in the township, would be responsible for night calls and would attend the same as the sheriff's department the sheriff's car would be used as a patrol car. The sheriff's car would be used as a patrol car. The sheriff's car would be used as a patrol car.

One-Armed Bandit Shoots Taxi-Cab Driver In Back; Captured By Farms Police

Less than 20 minutes after robbing and shooting a taxi-cab driver in Grosse Pointe Woods, late last Sunday evening, one-armed Wilfred Bonno, 23, of 1335 Porter, was captured by Grosse Pointe Farms Patrolmen James Furton and Albert Crooks, near Madison and Chalfont avenues.

Seven Mile Road and Mack. Thrown against the meter, Bonno's nose and left eye were cut and bruised. Infuriated, Bonno robbed Arbuckle of a wallet containing $10, shot him in the back and disappeared on foot. Bonno said he was forced to shoot, because he feared Arbuckle had seen he had only one arm.

Shot through the chest and left lying in the road, William J. Arbuckle of 675 Braimard, staggered one block to the home of Fred H. Lang at 1752 Broadstone, Grosse Pointe Woods. Answering Arbuckle's pounding on the door, Mrs. Lang quickly called police headquarters and the wounded driver was rushed to Cottage Hospital. "He was a very brave man," Mrs. Lang remarked.

Returning from the hospital to aid Woods police in the search, Patrolmen Furton and Crooks received a radio call reporting a suspicious one-armed man in the vicinity of Madison avenue. Upon investigation, the officers found Bonno casually walking down the street.

PATROLMAN JAMES FURTON
He kept saying, "Call the company, call the company and tell them to get my cab!"

PATROLMAN ALBERT CROOKS
Looking out the window the wife of an amateur radio enthusiast, who was following the case on the short wave, had seen a one-armed man pass by and called the Farms station, who in turn phoned transmitting station WRDR.

Chief Wakely, 34-year-old Grosse Pointe Shores patrolman, has been released from Harper Hospital and is rapidly recovering from a recent gall bladder operation.

Wakely, who lives at 971 Lake Shore Road, has been on the force for four years.

Do you feel lucky? If you do, here's an excellent opportunity for you to take advantage of your good fortune!

A new and exciting game starts in this issue of The Grosse Pointe Review, and newspaper readers, both young and old, may find themselves the winners of two free tickets to either the Eclair or French and Judy Theater.

On every two a portion of a crowd attending Grosse Pointe High's last football game will be found. Three faces in that group are circled with a white ring. Is your face one of them? If it is, two free movie tickets await you at our office, 15121 Kercheval, between Maryland and Lakeshore. These tickets are yours after identification, with absolutely no strings attached.

The wheel of luck may have missed you this week, but don't give up. Next week, a new group photograph will be published. Perhaps you recognize a friend! If so, pass along the good word!

Remember this kindergarten game? "Ring 'round Rosie, pocket full of—" free movie tickets!

The special attention of persons or organizations, who intend to sell Christmas trees in the City of Grosse Pointe, is called to the ordinance regulating and licensing the use of vacant lots, published in this issue of The Review.

Crows as Mailmen
Crows were employed in ancient times as letter carriers.

It seemed hardly Tuesday in Grosse Pointe Park, and many named residents gathered Wednesday morning that their front lawns had not been cleared as in previous years. Evidently the Economy Group, now in power in the Park, does not believe in this type of public service.

Toy Club Drive Needs You

"FORGOTTEN"

This cartoon, drawn by the late Tom May, first appeared in The Detroit Journal almost 40 years ago. It tells a poignant story of childish grief at Christmas time.

The Toy Club is organized to eliminate scenes such as this. Its slogan: "Not a Kid Without a Toy for Christmas," is a clarion call to all charitable-minded Grosse Pointers.

Toys and candy are given to hundreds of needy children each Christmas time. This year the club again asks your hearty support. Help now! Send your donation to the Toy Club, 15224 E. Jefferson avenue, Grosse Pointe Park. A membership card will be mailed to you. New toys are welcomed. Call Lenox 4554 for pick-up service.

Professional baseball's new movie, "Batting Around the American League," will be distributed shortly after January 1, just in time to supply cracker-box managers with a fresh chunk of ammunition. Chief topic this week: Who will succeed Roger Peckinpaugh?

With H. C. L. Jackson and S. L. A. Marshall holding forth in regal style, young journalists are earnestly perusing ancient family trees in search of a few spare initials!

Now that tiny Liechtenstein has inaugurated blackouts, Central Europe lies in total darkness every night. For the enlightenment of non-geographical minded readers, Liechtenstein is not Notre Dame's right halfback, but a 65-mile square country morticed snugly in between Nazi Germany and frightened Switzerland.

A few topics for Sunday evening discussion, after dinner and before the "Hornet's Cave"—Is the Selective Service Act democratic?—Will the Tigers repeat in 1941?—What happened to Amelia Earhart?—Is the "joke" box here to stay?—Can the Greeks hold out?—Who's Yaheedi?—Will American labor factions ever kiss and make up?

While somnolently poisoning the minds of Near Eastern minorities, Italy's Fascist chest-thumpers are hysterically claiming that a British agent slipped Egypt's late Premier a lethal "Mickey Finn."

Gratiot Township, states in a note to a Detroit newspaper's Public Letter Box: "Attention, Republicans! I wonder if you have yet learned your lesson? Again you have made a stab at putting your man in the White House and have failed. Until you select a man of better caliber than Al Smith, Joe Louis, CIO Lewis, and many others for your campaign work, I'm afraid you are going to remain on the losing side."

After scanning unofficial results of Michigan's deer hunting season, it is very difficult to decide whether the hunters or the hunted won top honors. One successful marksman parked his good-sized buck outside a bear garden and proudly stomped in to tell friends of his kill, only to find upon returning that the corpse had disappeared! Chanting "we're from Missouri," amused pals tip-toed from the witness box and adjourned the case.

With Dickinson's lieutenant governor appointee at the helm, fervent believers in the "dominant male" theory are clearing out of the state until after January 1.

The ex-census clerk who threatened the life of President Roosevelt has been given a two-to-six-year prison sentence.

"Wenne" Willkie threatened Roosevelt's political life and notched himself a permanent niche in American history!

In addition to Harmon and Evashevski, five other University of Michigan seniors have played their final intercollegiate football game. Heartened by an above-average freshman squad, Coach Fritz Crisler can rest on his laurels now that he is between seasons.

They take their high school football seriously in Cambridge, Mass. Eight persons, including a trampled policeman, were injured in a riot following a series of unpopular decisions by a set of equally unpopular officials.

Radio station WEXL, featuring phonograph recording 24 hours a day, has received permission from the Federal Communications Commission to increase its operating power to 250 watts.

Side by side, the "fifth down" and the "fifth column" have chased digits 7, 11, 13 and 158 well out of the numerical spotlight!

No contract trouble here—Signing on the over-worked dotted line, Eugene Ormsby has pocketed a new five-year contract as musical director and conductor of the Philadelphia orchestra.

Past the 22 million mark, Wendell L. Willkie has received many more votes than any other previous Republican candidate according to unofficial tabulations. Besieged by president-seeking colleges, Willkie may return to the peaceful sanctuary of some quiet utility company.

Mason School Notes

The speaker for the meeting was Professor Louis M. McKnight of the Detroit Institute of Technology.

The boys and girls of the 4A grade are enjoying a study of "Man and His Boat." They have made a library trip and are reading many books to find out why people in the Nile Valley, the Tigris, Euphrates and Congo used the river to transport their commodities.

The children in the 1B grade participated in a recent program, making the theme of "Good Behavior—Good Living." The characters which came alive for the afternoon were Little Black Sambo, The Three Bears and Goldilocks, Mr. Rabbit, Mr. Man and the Tar Baby, and Ping and His Master.

The M. J. Sherman residence on Meadowlark will be the scene of a potluck dinner Friday night. The guests who will participate in the fun are friends of daughter, Kay.

Auto Club of Michigan Enters Review Safety Campaign

Traffic Engineer Confers With Police Officials

Eager to co-operate in the reduction of Grosse Pointe traffic accidents, Ernest P. Davis, safety and traffic engineer of the Automobile Club of Michigan, conferred with Police Chiefs Henry W. Piel and Thomas V. Trombly this week, following a survey made by The Grosse Pointe Review of local accident records during the past eight weeks.

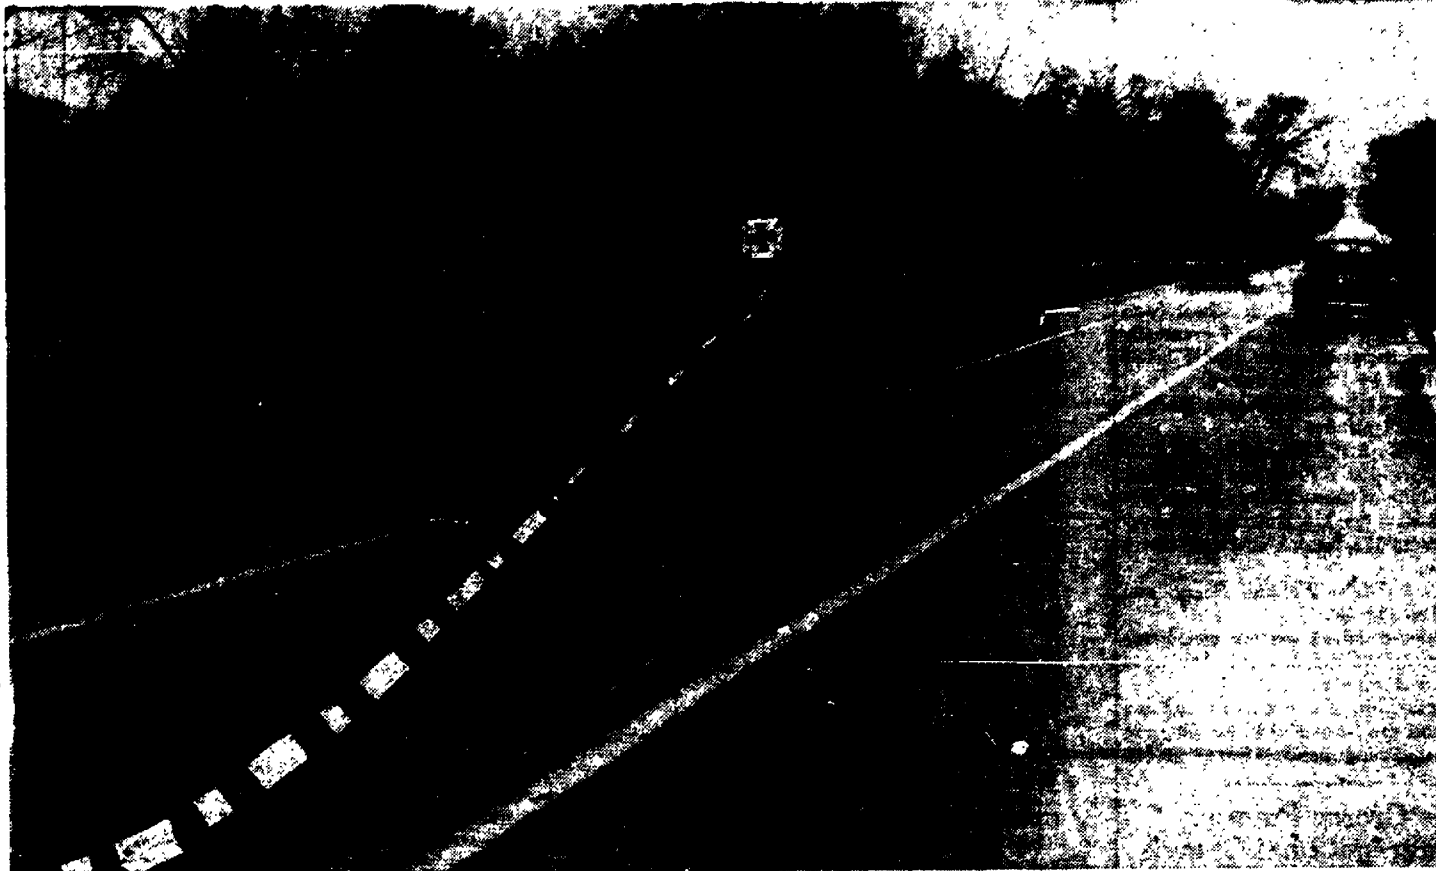

"There is no one single cause of these accidents," Davis reported following an examination of the records. "Speed has played an important part in some, while inattention contributes its quota. Frankly, we are at a loss to make any suggestions which might help the situation, unless it is the use of more police cars patrolling the streets more hours. It is during these hours that the more serious accidents have occurred.

"As a matter of fact, the records compare very favorably with those of previous years. The recently inaugurated driver instruction school held in the Grosse Pointe High School has hardly had time to show appreciable results, but experiences in other cities throughout the country indicate that such a school is practical and effective. The Automobile Club of Michigan has been co-operating with the high school in supplying booklets on "Sportsmanlike Driving," and these are being used extensively for the younger and prospective drivers," David remarked.

"As we see the problem, police officials are doing everything possible to reduce accidents, now it is up to the drivers. Young drivers in the Pointes have two strikes called on them, because most of them own their own cars and it is always assumed that they are the cause of it when accidents occur. We found recently they have been involved in accidents which resulted in widespread publicity."

Diagram Of Fatal Accident

The dotted line marks the path of the car which struck a tree (marked with X) on Lake Shore Road early last Thanksgiving morning, fatally injuring a 16-year-old Detroit girl and putting three other young passengers in the hospital.—(See story and picture on page one.)

Naturalization Class Attracts Over 30 Pointe Residents

The Grosse Pointe Board of Education's new naturalization class for aliens attracted over 30 men and women at its third meeting, held in Grosse Pointe High School, Fisher Road at Grosse Pointe Blvd., on Thursday evening, November 14.

At least two more classes will be formed, due to the larger enrollment. The classes are free, the WPA providing the instruction. Lynn M. Bartlett, director of child accounting and adjustment, is in charge.

Two Lough Irving Young, a Concord, N. H., power company inspector, came in contact with 12,000 volts of electricity, but only suffered burned hands and wrists.

State Census Figures Record Trend From City To Rural Areas

Families are leaving a number of Michigan cities, but evidently are not going far, according to a study of preliminary 1940 census figures made recently by the Michigan Department of Health. The report shows that in several counties the chief cities lost population, yet the total for the county was higher than in 1930.

Migration of city workers to suburban areas explains the population increases in such counties as Macomb and Oakland. The same trend is evident in the state's second and third largest cities. Grand Rapids lost 2.7 per cent of its population in the last 10 years and Flint lost 3.3 per cent. Yet Kent county gained 2.2 per cent in spite of the Grand Rapids loss and Genesee gained 7.5 per cent in spite of the drop in Flint. Battle Creek, Kalamazoo, Owosso, Ironwood and Niles are other examples of city losses and county gains.

The state's growth from 1930 to 1940 was the smallest recorded in any census period since the first enumeration showed a population of 4,762 in 1810 when Michigan was a territory. A hundred years ago, the population increased 570.9 per cent, but in the last 10 years it has increased 8.3 per cent. The state total is provisionally recorded as 5,245,012, compared with 4,842,325 in 1930.

"BEYOND THE BENCH"

By JUDGE THOMAS F. MAHER
Of Traffic Court

Green Signals and Amber

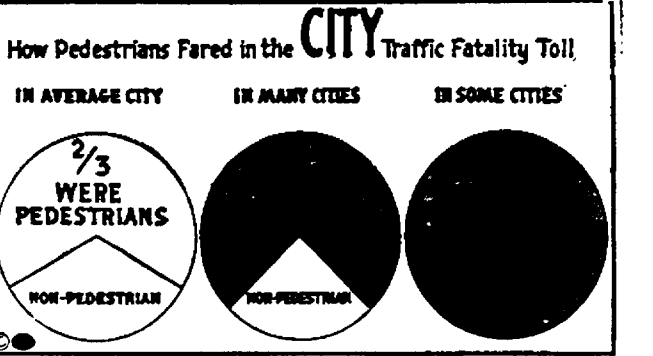

The disposition of certain typical accident cases which confront the traffic judge, makes him sigh for the wisdom of a Solomon so that the ends of justice might be better served. The other day, two motorists were brought before me in one of these cases, both patched up and battered from the encounter. It developed that one had started across an intersection at high speed as soon as the traffic light flashed green, while the other was crossing from the opposite direction on the amber signal. As usual, both claimed that the other driver was at fault, and, as usual, both were equally to blame.

The driver who sat at the wheel of his vehicle and itched for the green signal to appear, so he could "give her the gun" and roar across the intersection, violated the law, because he should have looked for the other car and waited for it to traverse the crossing in front of him. And the other party to the accident, who disregarded the amber signal was simply inviting danger from such an individual as the one he chanced to meet at this particular intersection.

Motorists should realize that the green signal is only a "go" sign and "go" does not mean "get going fast!" If green signals could speak they would say: "Motorist, you may enter this intersection carefully. Drive straight through, or turn to the right or left as you choose. But first yield the right of way to other vehicles or to pedestrians lawfully within the intersection. Proceed in safety!" If approaching an intersection when the green signal is displayed in combination with the amber, the motorist should bring his vehicle to a stop behind the crosswalk.

Had both drivers in the case I have described obeyed the law, there would have been no accident.

Yearly automobile accidents in the United States take a greater toll than all American soldiers killed in actual warfare since 1776.

URBAN TOLL LARGE: The pedestrian fatality record is worst in cities. In the thirteen largest cities, 79.3% of all persons killed are pedestrians. Worst yet, the high ratios in many cities and states have been increasing. Sufficient reason for every person afoot to always be on the alert when crossing streets!

"Sea Hawk" Opens at Esquire Theatre

"The Sea Hawk," starring Errol Flynn in the most glorious screen adventure of his career, has been scheduled by the Esquire Theatre as the next feature attraction, and will open there Friday.

Background of the stirring story of "The Sea Hawk" is England in the lusty days of Queen Elizabeth. Among England's heroes of the time are sea fighters, who prey on the Spanish galleons, stripping them of their rich booty and bringing it home to swell England's dwindling treasury.

The fortunes of England are at a low ebb, however, and King Philip of Spain, aided by Elizabeth's traitorous chancellor, is planning to attack and seize the weakened country. To further his plans he sends one of his most able men to England as ambassador.

In secret conference with the Queen, Thorpe outlines a plan whereby he can salvage considerable gold from the Spaniards in Panama. Before Maria can warn him that the Spaniards have learned of his plans, Thorpe sets sail for Panama.

The dauntless sea hawk, however, still has a trick or two at his command. When the slave ship arrives in Cadiz, Thorpe steals a knife from one of the guards, frees himself and his men from their chains, and under cover of night, they daringly capture the "Maestre Di Dios," and make a dash for the open sea.

Back in London, he has to fight his way through the traitorous chancellor's guard of henchmen before he can lay the charge before the Queen, but then he gets to her he's knighted for his great service to England.

The 1940-41 clubs sponsored by the University of Children's agricultural extension service have become "big business." Last year they invested $282,384 in live stock and crop projects and reaped benefits of $112,746.

Y. M. C. A. Notes

Children from 20 different elementary grade schools in southeastern Detroit and Grosse Pointe will share a major part in the sixth annual international festival to be held at Hannan Y. M. C. A. on November 29 and 30.

The purpose of the festival is to recognize some of the national groups that have contributed much to the life and culture of Detroit, such as the Polish, French, German, Italian, Scandinavian and Canadian groups.

One of the major parts of the program will be a joint elementary school-Y. M. C. A. project in which children will write short compositions on the topic: "Children in the War Countries." For the past five years, children in the elementary schools have figured prominently in these annual festivals.

Starting with the sixth grade in each school, the two best compositions will be selected and sent to the office of the district principal, James Baird, at Guyton School. From the compositions sent to Guyton, the six best will be chosen by a group of judges from the public libraries of the district.

The six winning essays will be printed in The Detroit News' Young Writers' column by its editor, Miss M. K. Williams. The children submitting the six chosen essays will be guests of honor of the mothers club of Hannan Y. M. C. A. at the international dinner to be held at the "Y" on Saturday evening, November 30.

Social Security Card Number Necessary In Answering Draft Quiz

Questionnaires, which selective service draft boards are now sending to all men whose numbers were among the first drawn, ask for social security account numbers in one question.

Persons retaining this form who have lost or misplaced their social security account number cards, can obtain duplicate cards from the East Side field office of the Social Security Board.

Duplicate account cards can be had by filling in a simple application, which may be secured from any post office or through the East Side field office, located at 8037 Harper, near Van Dyke. E. E. Pollock, field office manager, has stated, "I strongly urge any young man who has lost his account number, and who needs it for his selective service questionnaire, to be sure he gets a duplicate of his original social security number, and not a new number, as the latter practice often delays posting of wage credits of those who are covered by the Social Security Act."

St. James Lutheran Church

Next Sunday is the first Sunday in Advent, beginning a new church year. Service at 11 a. m., Holy Communion. Sunday School at 9:45 a. m. Visitors welcome.

That's what this hillbilly told his wife and added, "All I was a-tryin' to do was git her some fittin' clothes—poor gal is most noddid." Mama didn't see it that way, however, and here she is soon taking pappy to task. It's a scene from Bob Burns' new Paramount picture, "Comin' Round the Mountain," which comes to the Esquire Theatre Friday.

Maire School Notes

Monday, November 11, Armistice Day, was observed by the Maire School children. At 9 o'clock a radio program was sent to all rooms by the school broadcasting system. Each room in the school from the kindergarten through the 6A participated in the program, under the direction of Miss Chesarek. Carl Raiss and Teddy Gordon were the announcers. At 11 o'clock a signal was given and all the children in the school stood in reverence for one minute in observance of those who had lost their lives in the World War.

The children in each of the home rooms of the Maire School wrote letters to their parents inviting them to visit their school on Tuesday, November 12. At 3 o'clock a tea was given by the teachers for the visiting parents.

The results of the Community Fund drive were most gratifying this year. The children contributed $34.61—an average of approximately 9 cents per pupil. This compares with a total of $26.02 last year—an average of 7 cents per pupil. The Maire School staff responded very generously to the Community Fund drive with a donation of $134—an average of approximately $7 per person, including the four members of the clerical and custodial staff.

The clothing drive which was held last week to help the Neighborhood Club and Volunteers of America resulted in the donations of 128 pairs of shoes and 698 articles of clothing. The toy drive for the Neighborhood Thrift Shop resulted in gifts of 683 toys and 113 books.

Irving's Has 23 Years Record, Exclusive Millinery Stylists

DISTINCTIVE SHOPPING STORE IS CELEBRATED AS LEADING CENTER OF WOMEN'S FASHIONS

The fashionable women have come to realize that the proper place to purchase their exclusive clothes, finest millinery, gowns and wraps is at Irving's, 1530 Washington Blvd. This Detroit enterprise was established 23 years ago and is recognized for its constant effort to secure authentic fashions and here may be found those fashions which are prevalent in our large style centers of Europe and our metropolitan fashion shows.

Irving's has not gained its enviable reputation for ladies' wear alone. The personal interest in each and every patron and their valuable suggestions, courtesy and competence has done much to place them in the position which it holds among the women of the Grosse Pointe regions.

Mr. Walter Irving, the president, and his personnel, have made a study of women's finest clothing and ready-to-wear. It is interesting to know that the management has made 22 trips to European cities to keep abreast of the latest style and fashion trends. The creative business policies of this firm have been appreciated by a discriminating clientele who regularly depend upon the courteous attention and largest selection of Irving's. This home-owned Detroit firm has increased their patronage by straight forward business policies.

Over 100 experienced people are employed at Irving's. The entire personnel are trained to uphold the progressive merchandizing policies that have assured a distinctive shop for the discriminating shopper. The attractive store, modern displays and genuine assistance has placed Irving's among Detroit's finest retail outlets.

How is Irving's well qualified to present the exclusive clothing selection?

GROSSE POINTE UNITARIAN

Last Friday, November 22, members of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Women's Alliance met at the Women's City Club for a luncheon given in honor of Mrs. Russell Wise of Boston, Mass. Mrs. Wise, president of the National Association of Unitarian Women's Alliances, came to Detroit to visit the newly formed Grosse Pointe Alliance.

After the luncheon Mrs. Wise gave a short talk explaining the aims and purposes of the National Alliance. This talk proved interesting to the newer members of the alliance, who were not well acquainted with the liberalism of the Unitarian Church.

On Sunday at 3:45 p. m., the young people's religious union will hold open house at the Alger Museum. At this time they will present a "Round Table" discussion on the "Social Problems in Detroit," as observed in the numerous trips they have taken this fall. Parents of the young people, members of the church, and their friends are invited to attend.

Miss Players Present "Problem Father"

Successful last year when they attempted a three-act play, the Miss Players, junior dramatics club of Grosse Pointe High School, will repeat on December 6 with "Problem Father," a farce by Conrad Seiler.

"Problem Father" is the story of a family with a father who is a definite faddist. His most recent eccentricity is to walk on all fours, believing that is really the most natural posture of man. In an attempt to cure their father, the two children go to several extremes of almost equal absurdity, but all to little avail. The conclusion of the play is the climax of all three acts, one big boom-crang.

In describing the play Mrs. Zella Sloggett, director, said: "It is intended simply for an evening of fun, definitely a comedy. It appealed to me because the play is not beyond the experiences of junior high school students.

Some of those in the cast who have already been chosen are Stanley Mumford, 9B; Jean Loring, 9B; James Tronsdale, 9B; Jean Malcolmson, 9B; Bob Reyst, 9B; Dorothy Duncan, 9B; Dick Ryan, 7A; Ella Mae Brainard, 8A; Caroline Pierson, 7A; Suzanne Kamm, 8B; Estelle Needham, 8B, and Bill Noreen, 9B.

High School Senior Wins "Book Week" True-False Contest

During the celebration of National Book Week, November 10 to November 16, the Grosse Pointe High School library featured a true-false contest, published in the school paper, The Tower.

Questions such as "Robinson Crusoe named his man Sunday," "Smoky was a little colored boy," "Lewis Carroll wrote 'Alice in Wonderland,'" or "Little Black Sambo ate 159 pancakes," were typical of the contest.

Catherine Cossey, 12B, was the winner, but there were no perfect papers. Catherine was the first to answer 24 of the 25 questions correctly. Marjorie Bull, 7B, was named runner-up.

For a prize, the school library will present Miss Cossey with any $2 book of her choice.

8A Open House Shows Evolution Of Flag

How our American flag arrived at its present appearance was graphically demonstrated on Tuesday evening, November 19, when the semi-annual 8A Open House program was held at Grosse Pointe High School.

Carrying cloth flags made in history and art classes, 8A pupils individually marched to the stage and briefly told the story of the flag he was carrying. Drew Smith, 8A pupil, spoke briefly on "the meaning of the flag" and the audience joined with the eighth grade chorus in singing "America" under the direction of John Finch, school music instructor.

At the conclusion of this performance, uniformed Boy Scouts carrying the present American flag marched onto the stage, and the brief program was concluded with a salute to the flag and a pledge of allegiance by students and the audience of parents and teachers.

Shirley Smith, an 8A pupil, presided at the auditorium program and introduced Walter R. Cleminson, principal of the high school, and Dr. E. R. Van Kleck, superintendent of schools.

Cleminson described the recent visits made by members of the school staff to the University of Michigan and Michigan State College, to confer with 49 Grosse Pointe High School graduates of last year who are freshmen this year at the two institutions.

While the prospective ninth graders are starting on their studies, elsewhere in Grosse Pointe school buildings more than forty aliens seeking American citizenship were beginning studies to help them to become naturalized. Dr. Van Kleck told the audience. Van Kleck commended the strong patriotic motif that pervaded both the auditorium program and the elaborate exhibit of school work set up by teachers in the girls' gymnasium. He congratulated the students on being enrolled in a school where special facilities were possible to aid their educational advancement.

A large turnout of parents of 8A students visited the exhibit and took part in a homeroom advisory conference which was in general charge of Mrs. Mary Paulson, eighth grade advisory chairman, and Mrs. Helen Spencer, ninth grade advisory chairman. An individual conference period was also held, during which parents talked with the teachers concerning the program of study for each child. Questions concerning courses offered in the school, college requirements and the abilities and interests of individual boys and girls were discussed. The exhibits were of actual class work and were planned to permit parents and students to judge the nature of the work and activities of the different ninth grade courses.

Clothing Class Students Enjoy Unique Contest

No buttonless clothes, no unpressed skirts, no socks with holes are to be found in the wardrobes of the 8B girls in Miss Dorothy Hostetler's clothing class at Grosse Pointe High. These girls recently completed a unit on "The Care of Clothes."

When the unit was started, the class decided to have a contest and give points for each activity. The girls appointed five of their number to allocate the number of points to be given for sewing hooks and eyes and buttons and snaps on garments, and pressing plaited and plain skirts, washing sweaters, shortening and lengthening skirts, mending tears and darning socks.

The girls were permitted to do these things at home and were given credit for caring for the clothes of everyone in the family. Each girl contributed 5 cents, which gave the class $1.55 to be awarded to the girls collecting the highest and second highest number of points at the close of the contest.

At the end of three weeks each girl turned in a written report stating what she had done at home and at school. Pat Grady's score was 1,495 points, the highest in the class, so she was awarded first prize of $1. Peggy Williams collected 1,209 points and was awarded second prize of 55 cents.

Many of the girls did these chores for the first time, and a report from many mothers is that the girls are now doing the family darning.

Letter From German Occupied Holland Tells Conditions

The vague feeling of despair and pity that Americans feel for the under-dog countries in the European struggle is often brought to importance when a letter or message arrives from an acquaintance in one of those countries. Such significance came to Jeanne Held, Grosse Pointe High School student, in a letter she received recently from a boy living in the northern part of Holland.

In a general tone of sadness, the letter said: "After weeks and weeks, months and months a letter . . . from my American friend. That was a very lucky moment for me. The communications had been interrupted every-where and especially those which came out of America. So your letter has much surprised me.

"I can tell you, my family and I, we are all very well. The cruel war days of Holland are over. They were very thick ones for our country and I shall never forget them. On May 10, 1940, early in the morning, the great battle of Europe had begun. I was awakened by several explosions for the bridges were blown up. We saw the first German soldiers about 12:00. Motor car after motor car passed, filled with soldiers, munitions and guns. We could not see the end of the row. I stayed with a friend at Bergen op Zoom for a week and so I could see that destroyed town of Rotterdam. I cannot give a description because it beggars all descriptions. Many citizens were found, the dead under ruins.

"And now, Jeanne, we are living in an occupied country, without a government (fled to England), and without our Queen Wilhelmina (also fled to England). I do not want to talk much about our government. These gentlemen do not interest me, but what about our Queen? Had she to flee? Had she to leave her country and people? I do not know. We shall hope that—if everything is right again—also this affair will come right.

"Our soldiers fought very brave, but we stood alone against a superior power. Don't forget we stood. We stood quite alone. Life in Holland is most normal again, but if everything will be the same in the future as now, we can endure the distribution measures.

"The German troops are very correct and we Dutchmen lie down to the circumstances. I hope this letter will reach you, and that the next letter that you will receive from me, comes out of a Europe in peace."

Jeanne's friendship with Kirk Van Loon, the young Dutch lad, began two years ago when they began a correspondence through their high school agencies.

'Chrysanthemum Show' By FLORENCE POWELL

My garden flowers brave and lovely blow
All nodding in a frosted white night cap,
Resting drowsy on Mother earth's broad lap.
Chilled in rough November winds white with snow
They rest while all the golden comes aglow
And shield their rosettes with a winter wrap,
Though festive spring should flaunt a colored scrap
Of shattered rainbow mirage run on row.

Now cool winds lure you back to your old place
And sturdy groups in petal clusters curled
Reveal in contest your silent story,
Of the love and care from many a race
Strewn in these paths of beauty 'round the world—
So we contemplate in quiet glory.

Grosse Pointe's Oldest Residence Owned By 4th Generation Of Family

Imagine buying 148 acres of Lake Shore Road frontage in the vicinity of the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club for $610. That's what Jean Baptiste Vernier, paid on July 24, 1819, for the land on which Grosse Pointe Shores Municipal Building and Vernier School now stand. The purchase also included property extending from Vernier Road to just beyond Hawthorne Road and from Mack avenue to Lake St. Clair. This was an addition to Vernier's 220 acres of land on the south side of Vernier Road, also lying between Mack avenue and Lake St. Clair. (In 1819 there was no Vernier Road or Mack avenue.)

On September 11, 1824, the 148-acre tract was decided to Charles Vernier dit Ladoucer, son of Jean Baptiste Vernier dit Ladoucer for the following consideration: (dit Ladoucer's origin is unknown, some say the father of Jean Baptiste Vernier was Vernier Ladoucer, while others say it was Ladoucer Vernier.)

"That Charles Vernier pay to his father and mother during their natural lives an annual rental of $30, and after the decease of either of them, to the survivor of them the sum of $15 annually during the natural life of the survivor."

In 1824, Charles Vernier built a log house on the shores of Lake St. Clair. About 1840 the water washed away the unprotected land and it became necessary to move the house back about 300 feet from the lake. At that time the logs were covered with siding and a lean-to was attached. This same house still stands today at 809 Lake Shore Road, and is pictured in the above photograph.

Charles Vernier was one of a family of six. There were four sons: Jean Baptiste, Leon, Charles and Laurent, and two daughters, Madeline, who married Michael Hale, and Pauline, who married Francis VanAntwerp. Charles Vernier was the father of five children: Four sons, Charles, Daniel, John and Edward, and one daughter, Mary, who married Joseph Bellard.

The log house, with about 64 acres of land, became property of Charles, who was the oldest son. Charles married Irene Robertjohn and they had five children: two sons, Edmund C. who was supervisor of Grosse Pointe Township for many years, and William B. Vernier; three daughters: Lucy, who married Joseph Man Assche, Virginia, who married Capt. Louis Allard and Melinda, who married Henry C. West.

With the passing of Charles Vernier, his remaining 25 acres of land was divided equally among his five children. They each received approximately 64 feet of Lake St. Clair frontage extending back from Lake Shore Road about 3,800 feet. The house was sold to the youngest daughter, Melinda West, and moved 13 feet so that it would be on the 64 feet that she inherited. The house is now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts. Mrs. Roberts is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. West and a member of the fourth generation to occupy the old homestead.

To The Taxpayers Of Gratiot Township.

In the November 14th issue of the "Town News," the statement was made that Gratiot Township General Fund was the lowest it had been in years. This is true to only a certain extent, and to clarify this statement let us examine the records. On April 6th, 1939 the balance in the General Fund was $2,875.50. The township assessment in 1939 was $987,000 with a tax rate of $1.50 per thousand which with a 100% collection would give the township $1,486.50 or a total of $4,362.00. During '39 and '40 approximately $150,000 was received in delinquent taxes making a total of $7815.00. Officers salaries in '39 and '40 to date are approximately $3000.00. Garbage collection cost $765.00, the opening of Beaconsfield cost $1700.00. Miscellaneous operating expenses to date during this 2 year period are approximately $2200.00. This leaves an actual balance of only $180,000 in the General Fund. However, the public should not be misled. This is only two or three weeks before tax collections begin and it is natural that the fund should be low. Aren't your personal funds low just before pay day? That is the natural thing for the majority of us.

Increased valuations in the township will make over $350,000 collectable in taxes for the township. This year 100% collection is not expected, but, there is the possibility that the Township General Fund will be as healthy or healthier than it was heretofore.

The building permit fees from the Zoning Ordinance have not helped the General Fund. Whereas several hundred dollars have been collected thru this medium, the publishing of the ordinance, attorney's fees and the proposed printing of the ordinance will nearly liquidate these funds. Incidentally, no member of the present or of the previous planning boards have received any fees or expense money for the time spent in promoting the ordinance for the general welfare of the township. To date, the ordinance has paid its way and in the future will increase the revenue of the Township as well as enhance the value of your property thru regulated improvements.

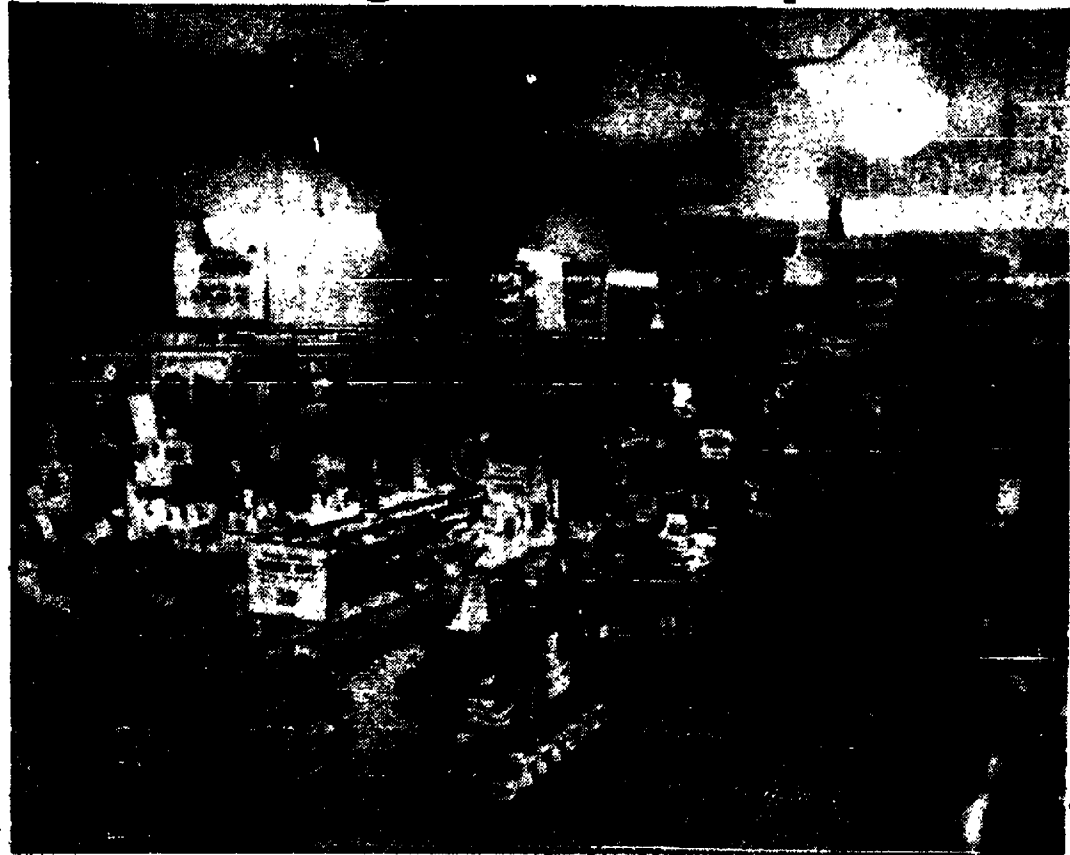

The water board is a decided improvement in the township. The present director, Mr. Piornack, has increased the township profit $5.40 per tap through efficient purchasing of materials. This record is commendable. Not only have the present directors of the water system made it a paying proposition but have on hand a balance of over $200,000.

The Township records will bear me out on the above statements and I invite the public to examine them at the Township office between the hours of 9:00 a. m. and 5:00 p. m.

At different times personalities have been indulged in by various township officials and individuals. Jealous views and opinions have prompted unwise accusations which should not be permitted in the directing of the welfare of the community.

Sincerely,
HERMAN ROEK,
Chairman of Planning Board,
Gratiot Township.

The surgical dressing division, under direction of Mrs. W. Dean Robinson, has completed training volunteer surgical dressing instructors and has started on the quota of 500,000 surgical dressings for the United States Army which the War Department has requested.

Use Of Vacant Lots For Xmas Tree Sales Regulated By City

In an ordinance adopted at a meeting of the council of the City of Grosse Pointe last Monday evening, the use of vacant lots for business purposes, including temporary occupancy for the sale of Christmas trees, will be licensed and regulated. No vacant property, unless within an established business or commercial zone or district, will be permitted to be used for any kind of business purposes.

The ordinance provides for a graduated schedule of fees to be paid for the licensing of such property, based upon the square feet or area of property used. The minimum fee to be paid in any event for any use however limited is $5.

No permit will be issued for the use of any vacant property unless proper written application for the license has been made and approved by the council. This will eliminate the confused situations which have occurred in the past. Unlawful, unauthorized verbal "permission" has been said to have been secured for the use of property outside of established business sections after the building commissioner, chief of police and city clerk had disallowed the permit because of the fact that its issuance was entirely contrary to law.

Charter Amendment Discussed In City

An amendment to the city charter of the City of Grosse Pointe, under which the section relating to elections (Section 11) would be changed so as to establish an alternated or staggered term and date of election for members of the council, was considered and authorized by the city council at a meeting held last Monday evening.

The proposed amendment provides, among other things, that the six councilmen shall be elected for terms of four years. Provided, however, that at the first election to be held after the amendment has been submitted to a vote, six councilmen shall be elected and of that number the three receiving the highest number of votes shall serve for four years and the remaining three councilmen for two years.

Therefore, three councilmen shall be elected every two years for four-year terms of office. The presently proposed amendment contemplates no change in the terms or manner of electing other officials.

Restore Village
Restoration of Port Royal's troop village, constructed by Champlain in 1605, is near completion. Engineers of the federal mines department even fastened the timbers of the buildings together with wooden pins.
