Lecturer Lauds Two Recent Broadway Theatrical Revivals

With the exception of two fast-moving musical comedies, two happily successful revivals carry off the honors on Broadway in the field of comedy this season, Olive Deane Hornel said Monday evening at the John Pierce High School when she spoke on "Highlights of the Early Theatrical Season."

Of the two revivals, "Charley's Aunt" was described as riotous fun, with Jose Ferrer, who made an exceedingly masculine "aunt," and the entire cast playing with gay abandon and delightful clowning.

"Twelfth Night," the other revival, staged for the Theatre Guild by Margaret Webster the superlative designed and directed by Shakespearean productions today, is a beautiful presentation, the lecturer said Helen Hayes is a delightfully tender and captivating Viola.

Two comedies have also been carried over from last year - "Life With Father," which is still playing to standing room, and "The Man Who Came to Dinner."

Legion Post Conducts Book Drive For Selfridge Field

Major Burns Henry, American Legion Post 303, is now conducting a Grosse Pointe book drive in response to an appeal from Selfridge Field officials for sufficient reading matter to accommodate the large number of new men and their families now stationed there.

Walter Hoyt, Post Commander, stated yesterday that results of the drive's first week "have been fair," but could be greatly improved. Hoyt said that full-length novels, both for adults and children, are sorely needed. For further information, call TU. 2-1813 or address a card or letter to Commander Hoyt, 190 Oak Street, Grosse Pointe Farms. Magazine and periodicals are not needed at this time.

Motorists Warned Of Many Winter Driving Hazards

Packed snow and ice resulting from recent storms plus thawing snow turning to ice with suddenly dropping temperatures, has made driving hazardous in some sections of the city, authorities warned early this week. Grosse Pointe Park Police Chief Piel has urged motorists to take practical precautions against the major hazards of winter driving.

Chief Piel said "Under such conditions positive stop-and-go traction provided by tire chains is frequently vital to safety. Chains are also essential in getting through deep snow or over glare ice safely. Windshield wipers, defrosters and good lights help maintain adequate vision, but if the storm is bad and you can't see clearly, stop until you can." Other safety rules for winter driving, based on National Safety Council research, include:

1. Test brakes for simultaneous gripping. Unequalized brakes start skids. Check conditions of lights, windshield wiper, defroster and tire chains.
2. Watch out for children on sleds.
3. Travel at less than moderate speeds on snow or ice covered highways and city streets.
4. The common practice of lowering tire pressure is a fallacy. The resulting increase in traction is slight and this is more than offset by increased tendency to skid on curves. It also damages tires. Non-skid treads on tires are definitely helpful on dry and wet pavement, but on ice or packed snow they give no more anti-skid protection than smooth tires.
5. Leave plenty of room between you and the car ahead. Necessity for sudden stops and turns should be avoided. Take curves slowly, even with chains, and don't try to pass cars ahead of you on hills and curves.
6. When packed snow or ice prevail, put on tire chains and drive as carefully as if you didn't have them. Don't overtake and pass other vehicles without the protection of sand or chains. Chains on rear wheels alone reduce stopping distances 40 per cent, and on four wheels considerably more. Keep car in gear and apply brakes before you would in dry weather. "Pump" brakes to keep wheels from locking completely, even with chains.
7. Exercise greater caution generally and open cowl ventilator slightly to force out possible carbon monoxide gas, particularly in older cars. Winter driving can be safe with proper precautions, but if not prepared it is wiser to leave cars home until weather conditions improve.

COMMUNITY FUND

Contributors to the Detroit Community Fund's 1940 campaign paid 97.3 per cent of their pledges up to Dec. 31, 1940. It was reported yesterday by Howard A. Coffin, fund president. This is a 23-year record for the fund. Coffin declared.

Miss Nippen, 19-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Nippen, of 2292 W. Grand Blvd., formerly swam for the Detroit Athletic Club and the Detroit Yacht Club and has previously held five state titles: the mile, the 500-yard free style, the 150-yard individual medley, the 100-yard backstroke (indoor and outdoor), and the 100-yard free style (indoor and outdoor).

BUILDING PERMITS

Sixteen Grosse Pointe Park building permits, with a value of $186,535.00, were issued during the month of December, bringing the total value for the year to $1,530,317.00.

Ohio Woman Drowns In Lake St. Clair

The body of Jeannette Congdon, 30, a resident of Rocky River, Ohio, was recovered from Lake St. Clair last Thursday morning by Grosse Pointe Shores police, fifteen hours after the woman had broken through the ice and drowned a short distance from the dock of the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club at Eight Mile and Lake Shore roads.

The body was recovered from the frozen surface of the lake and called a warning to her just as the ice gave way. Shores police dragged the 12-foot waters with grappling hooks early Wednesday evening, but darkness and shifting ice formed a halt to the operations. In daylight the following morning, the body was easily located.

As yet, Shores police have not been able to discover how the woman reached Grosse Pointe. A sister and brother of the deceased woman, identified the body at the Wayne County morgue on Friday.

Jeannette Congdon was a well-known social club for tall Detroit and Grosse Pointe residents will meet at the Western Branch of the Y. M. C. A., 1601 Clark, on Saturday, January 18, at 7:30 p. m.

After a short business meeting, there will be a program of entertainment. Refreshments will be served, and dancing will complete the evening's festivities.

One of the events scheduled by the social committee for the club members is an ice-skating party at Rouge Park on Sunday, February 2.

Pauline Jenks, of 1074 Lakepointe Grosse Pointe Park, has been named historian and publicity chairman of the club.

Village Commission Hears Report of Detroit Doctor On Physical Shape of Men

After hearing the report of a City of Detroit physician which pronounced five firemen "physically unfit," Grosse Pointe Park's Village Commission passed a motion last Monday evening giving the five un-named men "sixty days, up until March 15," in which to get back into good physical condition.

Thomas T. Petzold, commissioner in charge of fire and police department affairs, remarked, "Because of certain complaints by taxpayers and citizens since I have been in office concerning the fire department, I ordered a complete physical examination of the entire personnel on Dec. 10 and Dec. 11."

Reluctant to divulge the names of the five men directly involved, Petzold continued, stating that the examination had also uncovered minor physical defects in several other firemen. These defects, the commission added, should also be taken care of in the prescribed sixty-day period.

Addressing a hushed group of interested spectators gathered in the Park Municipal Building's smoke-filled court-room, President Karl B. Goddard justified the Commission's action stating, "We owe an obligation not only to our employees but to residents of this village. A man with a dangerously high blood pressure who is called upon for strenuous duty at a fire, may easily be stricken with heart failure."

C. A. Pfeffer, rotund commissioner who authored the 60-day motion, explained, "We must approach this matter from a humane viewpoint, since here in Grosse Pointe Park we have no pension system." With the exception of Commissioner Archie Damman who refused to cast a vote, the motion was unanimously passed. Commissioner

Board of Education Opens School Plants For Local Meetings

Indicative of the rapid progress being made in the Grosse Pointe Board of Education's program to open school plants at the service of the people of the community, where it can be done without burden to the taxpayers, was the situation at the John D. Pierce High School last Monday night.

In the auditorium, the Detroit Garden Center presented Mrs. Benjamin Warren, of Grosse Pointe Shores, in her noted lecture on Mt. Vernon. Elsewhere in the building, the Grosse Pointe Park Citizens Association, under the presidency of Paul I. Moreland, conducted a meeting and the Book and Drama group of the University of Michigan Grosse Pointe Club in cooperation with the University's extension service presented Mrs. Olive Deane Hornel in her monthly lecture.

In another wing of the building, the public library was open as it is six nights every week.

"CINDER TRAIL"

BUSINESS VS. PLEASURE

'Puzzle That Pays' Enters Fourth Week

"The Puzzle That Pays" contest which started in a recent issue of The Grosse Pointe Review has produced hundreds of letters from Review readers, and judges are finding it difficult to determine the winners of last week's contest.

Last week's results—First prize, a $100 merchandise order on Mack Avenue Greenhouses, 1751 Mack Avenue at Rivard, has been awarded to Mary Louise Perrone, of 1210 Yorkshire road, Grosse Pointe Park. Second prize, a $200 merchandise order on C. F. Kossin's Service, 17465 Mack, corner Neff, has been won by Margie Liedeck, of 805 Notre Dame, City of Grosse Pointe. Third prize, a $150 merchandise order on Beaupre Hardware, 366 Kercheval, will go to Katherine Fish, of 904 Pemberton, Grosse Pointe Park. Fourth prize, a $100 merchandise order on Verdonck's Bakery, 15046 Mack, has been awarded to Mrs. Fred Brys, 1755 Brys drive, Grosse Pointe Woods. Winners will receive their merchandise orders through the mail.

Another "Puzzle That Pays" will be found in this issue. In jumbled form, the puzzle contains the name of one advertiser found below the layout, the address of another, and the telephone number of a third advertiser. No numeral or letter may be used twice in the finding of the correct solution. Untangle the puzzle and win a prize.

Merchandise prizes will be awarded for a period of 16 weeks to the first three contestants who submit the correct, nearest, and most original solution to the puzzle. However, no matter how neat, prompt, or original your solution may be, it will not have a chance to win unless it is correct. Address all answers to "The Puzzle That Pays Editor," The Grosse Pointe Review, 15121 Kercheval, Grosse Pointe Park, Mich. This week, four prizes instead of three will be awarded to winners—a $100; a $200; a $150, and a $100 merchandise order.

A highway man from way back, Governor Van Waggoner's "pipeline to God" is described as an eight-lane super-express job with a 20-foot center parkway!

Too Good to Pass Up—This bit of subtle humor was penned by a well-read columnist last week. "The past year saw many sad occurrences in the hunting country, and sadder perhaps, was the case of Italy not knowing Greece was loaded." Who'll offer a motion picture depicting it illegal to shoot Fascists out of season?

Marty Barry, former Detroit Red Wing scoring back and present coach of the Minneapolis Millers, suffered a fractured left wrist in a collision during a recent game with Omaha and may be forced to permanently retire from active play.

Motion Picture Folds—Seeking to determine the "ten best movies of 1940," polls have been taken by four separate well-known groups with a heated two-way tie developing from the results. The National Board of Review of Motion Pictures and New York newspaper critics have picked John Steinbeck's classic, "The Grapes of Wrath," while Hollywood stars and readers of The Detroit Free Press have nominated "Rebecca." "News Digest" is inclined to suggest its "two cent's worth" on the Board of Review's choice!

That the ASCAP-radio station quarrel has taken a heavy toll on listening enjoyment is common agreement, but little known is the fact that many hit-or-miss unflattering and unorganized song writers and arrangers have now been given "the chance of a lifetime" opportunity to display their questionable talent. Hardest hit by the boycott have been the "all request" record programs, whose files of eligible numbers have been whittled down to a mere handful of worn out ballads and swing versions of dusty, ancient tunes.

Rushing the Season—Starting their "spring home cleaning" early, the New York veterans have included three writing veterans to make room for several highly heralded rookies advancing from minor league farms.

Into Water—A 60-year-old invalid, having a chronic ailment, passed peacefully away at his home in the White Sulphur Springs, 14744 E. Jefferson Avenue, near the Grosse Pointe Park village limits, on the morning of Jan. 15.

Senior Prom Features Unique Decorations

By MARCIA NETTING

Blinking pasteboard heads of devils and a royal blue curtain on which were hung a glittering model of the high school tower and the words "Classes of 1941" supplied the festive atmosphere at Grosse Pointe High's senior prom last Saturday night.

Couples swaying to the music of Frank Link and his popular orchestra included Roger MacNaughton, president of the senior class, who led the grand march late in the evening with his date, Joan Mason. Following close behind were the other senior officers, Dorothy Castricum and Fay Jacobson.

Seen gathered around the refreshment stand tossing their nickels to the waitress in return for cokes were Connie Arnold and Tom Candler, Bill Kaib and Kay Sherman, Dave Teague and Kathie Roseborough, Jim Beyster and Harriet Boyer, and Julie McNair and Johanne Parks.

The strains of "Huckleberry Duck" sent such couples as Fay Barrett and Bill Boyd, Bill Moesta and Nancy Hewitt, Sonia White and Bob Megargle, Polly Lockwood and Jacques Rousseau, Dan Johnson and Jane Malcolmson, and Gloria Lightfoot and Art Danacker, swirling across the floor.

Among those who hated to see midnight roll around were Bob Scott and Jeanne Cowan, Ginny Tyson and Gordon Tanner, John Kitchen and Kay Swenson, Betty Lou Albyn and Jim Cox, Sally Sherman and Bud Nichol, Sally Weckler and Bob Rousseau, Margaret Morgan and Dick Loz, and Gayle Heron and Wally Auch.

School Songs Written For Pierce Jr. High

At a recent assembly of the Pierce Junior High School student body, two new school songs were introduced. The first, entitled the "Pierce Pep Song," was composed by Marjery Botts, a 7A student. Marjery also has written words for her song. The second song, "Pierce Cheers," was composed by Miss Gwen Brockmiller, vocal music instructor at Pierce. The words were written by members of Miss Brockmiller's school chorus. Both numbers were sung in unison by the students after the songs were introduced by the members of a selected chorus.

Public Letter B-O-X

Editor, The Grosse Pointe Review Grosse Pointe Park, Mich. Dear Sir:

Regarding the night bus service on the Charlevoix and Chalfonte line: 1. We, the residents of Grosse Pointe Farms, do not have any service from downtown after 6:30 p.m. to the end of the line, and no night service on this line at all. Furthermore, if we lose this last bus we must either walk from Mack Avenue, the D.S.R. line, or from Kercheval Avenue. I wish some of the public officials had to walk some winter night, or take a taxicab from Alter Road.

2. It is very hard to get help or servants to work in this district. We, the owners or residents, have to take or meet our help at the bus or some place to take them to and from. If the day help stay after 7:30 p.m. we must take them to a bus or street car.

3. Grosse Pointe Farms and the City of Grosse Pointe are growing very fast and have increased in population one-third or one-half in the last three years. If the voters or property owners of these two centers are interested in getting a night bus service on the Charlevoix line, please write the Common Council of Grosse Pointe Farms saying you want night service on this line and let them determine when it will start and finish. I would say at the present, if they gave half hour service from Alter Road to Seven Mile Road from 7:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m., one bus could handle and cover the route.

All these people and patrons of the bus line who are interested in this, please write the Public Letter Box of the Grosse Pointe Review or the Grosse Pointe Farms Council and let's get some action at the first council meeting in February.

Very truly yours, A FARMS RESIDENT. P.S. — Just last evening a colored girl was standing on the corner of Moran Road and Charlevoix about 10:40 p.m., waiting for a bus. She said she had been standing for a half hour in the snow and cold. A bus did stop, told her no service, she would have to walk two blocks south to Kercheval for "the green bus." This girl won't want to work in the Farms too long.

MESSIAH LUTHERAN

Southeast corner of Kercheval and Lakewood avenues. A. H. A. Loeber, pastor, 1434 Lakewood avenue. Telephone LEnox 2121.

Continuing the sermons on "Biblical Firsts" next Sunday, January 19, the pastor will preach on "Christ's First Miracle." The service will begin at 11:15 a.m.

The session of the Sunday school will be held from ten to eleven o'clock.

JEFFERSON AVENUE

Sunday, January 19, 10 a.m., worship service with sermon, followed by classes for intermediate, seniors and adults. The younger folks are in their own departments for the whole session.

A well-equipped nursery under competent leadership is open from 10 to 12 a.m., for the benefit of parents who wish to attend all or a part of this combined service.

EASTMINSTER PRESBYTERIAN

Sunday, January 19, 9:45 a.m., Sunday school. 11:00 a.m., Morning Church services. 6:15 p.m., Christian Endeavor Groups.

7:30 p.m.—Missionary Night, Rev. J. Vogel, missionary from Kentucky, will speak on the theme, "The Gospel in the Southwestern Part of the United States."

Public Library Starts Circulating Phonograph Record Collection

The Grosse Pointe Board of Education has announced that the Public Library has started a collection of phonograph records for circulation to patrons of the library.

This collection, which will be on a rental basis, will be self-supporting. Few libraries having such a collection, report that it is one of the most appreciated and popular services which they give.

This collection will give the people of Grosse Pointe an opportunity to enjoy the great music of the world and it is hoped that it will be useful for groups and individuals wishing to develop an appreciation of music.

More records are on order and Miss Florence Severs, head librarian, will welcome suggestions of worth-while selections for purchase. The collection will be kept at the main library, 15430 Kercheval avenue, in the Pierce Jr. High School building.

OFFICIAL VISITS DETROIT

On January 15, William C. Root, Supreme Regent of the Royal Arcanum, will pay Detroit his first official visit since being elected to that high office, according to word just received by Vic Sylvestre, Past Grand Regent of Michigan. Root will be met at the Michigan Central Depot by a delegation of State Royal Arcanum officers.

The University of Detroit's Women's League will hold their first social function of the year, the January Joy-Hop, on Friday evening, Jan. 17, in the Florence Ryan Auditorium. Proceeds of the affair, which is informal, will be used to re-decorate the alumnae lounge.

Prominent Golfer Dies During Bowling Game

Shirley C. (Sox) Snow, 62-year-old Lochmoor Country Club golfer, of 676 University place, City of Grosse Pointe, died suddenly of a heart attack in Allegan, Mich., last Friday night while bowling with his son, Shirley C. Snow Jr.

Snow, Lochmoor club champion for many years, was buried on Monday in Oak Park, Ill., his birthplace. He is survived by his wife, Roxie, a daughter, Mrs. Frank Butts, of Charleston, W. Va., and his son, who resides in Allegan.

In addition to golf, Snow played second base on three University of Michigan baseball teams and was long one of the Detroit Athletic Club's finest bowlers.

Neighborhood Club Basketball League

The Comets, former St. Ambrose High cagers, moved into a tie with the Police and Firemen quietest for top honors in the Neighborhood Club Class A basketball league early this week, when they trounced an inexperienced Trojan squad 42-14.

Leading by only six points at half-time, the Comets put on a 30-point scoring spree and turned the contest into a rout. Jim Kennedy led the Comets with 13 points, five field goals and three free throws. Zeke DeGand paced the Trojans with three baskets and a foul shot.

In the season's most thrilling game thus far, the Arrows grabbed a slim 33-32 overtime victory from a highly-regarded Verheyden squad. Trailing by ten big points, the Arrows whipped thru four quick field goals and two free throws to knot the count at 31-31 with seconds remaining to play.

In the overtime, Ray Van Wassenhove put Verheyden ahead on a foul shot, but little Forbes Dever, Arrow guard, cinched the game a short time later by sinking two free throws. Herb Nordquist, former Cass Tech star and sandlot baseball hero, headed the Arrow scoring with 12 points, while Paul DeGriek topped Verheyden point-makers with five field goals for 10 points.

Under the direction of Eddie Lauer, former U. of D. stand-out, the Indians defeated Essex A. C. 31-19 in the season's roughest game. Officials called over thirty personal fouls, while the players tore up and down the court in true "race horse" fashion. Forrest Piche led the ex-St. Paul High cagers with 9 points.

Five days after their defeat at the hands of the Indians, Essex rebounded back to the 500 percentage average, when they outlasted Club 15 in an interesting 26-17 game. Jimmy Rybicki led the winners with 10 points, while Harvey "Zok" Hunyady rang up three baskets and two foul shots for Club 15.

Points and Pointers

Ginge, beautician, formerly with Oneer Warren Beauty Salon, will soon open a beautifully appointed beauty studio at 16721 Mack, corner of Yorkshire.

The decorative scheme will be carried out in coral and ivory. Ginge will be pleased to see all her old friends and customers, and will announce the exact date of the new studio opening sometime in the near future.

The opening of a new Badminton Club located in the beautiful Monticello Ballroom, East Jefferson at Chalmers, has recently been announced. This club which will be known as the Monticello

Badminton and Health Club, will run on a closed membership basis of two hundred members. Here at last is a club where a boy and girl friend, or a man and wife, who are interested in keeping young and healthy can go at any time and play and enjoy privacy of their own club.

Some of the features of the club will include, 8 double badminton courts, ping pong tables, stationary bicycles, exercise tables, card tables, and showers for men and women.

The club will be open from 12 noon till 12 p.m. every day except Saturday nights. An ideal time for wives to learn to play the fascinating game of Badminton would be in the afternoons, when a lady attendant will be on duty.

The Auction Sale of fine Oriental rugs and linens, now going on at Harb's, 17047 Kercheval at St. Clair, is attracting the patronage of connoisseurs.

This is not to be wondered at, considering the attractive prices and incomparable beauty of the merchandise offered.

The auction, under the expert supervision of the well-known auctioneer, E. F. Dietrich, presents an unique opportunity for many to supply useful household needs. Auction hours are 2 and 8 p.m. daily, until stock is sold.

Alger Cleaners, 16222 Kercheval, City of Grosse Pointe, will announce further expansion in about 30 days. Owner Ralph will either build a larger plant in the fast-growing Kathy-Hayes section or make a deal to take over one already operating. The present Alger plant on Warren, having been enlarged once, is once more proving to be too small.

Winter has finally arrived and with it has come a marvelous chance to obtain that long-dreamed-of pair of ice skates at close-out prices, with reductions as low as 40 per cent.

The American Sport Shop, 14332 Kercheval, near Chalmers, is now offering a large, complete selection of men and boys' tubulars, racers, and hockey skates. Also, ladies' chrome tubulars and figure skates, all at spectacular bargain values.

"IN THIS CORNER"

By SEYMOUR KAPETANSKY
Here are a few notes on films you'll be thinking of seeing:

Go West
By all means, the best Marx Brothers film since A NIGHT AT THE OPERA. Having seen every Marx Brothers picture since then, and having studied the methods and concepts of these eminent satirists, we feel pretty safe in recommending their latest effort.

Dealing with a lease for land sought by a railroad in the 1870's, the plot involves the depositing of this lease with Harpo and Chico; the swindling of said lease from them by Groucho; and the subsequent swindling of the lease from Groucho by a bunch of Wild West crooks.

Walter Woolf King plays a villain and William Powell's wife Diana Lewis (a cute trick) is the daughter of the oil prospector who entrusts Harpo and Chico with the lease. The latter brothers play harp and piano, respectively, in their own interesting ways, and among other involvements are a thrilling railroad trip to New York, a night spent with the Indians, a gun duel between Harpo and a sharpshooting crook, and gags galore from the great Groucho.

GO WEST turns a bright light on the remarkable burlesque and satire of the Marxes, whose humor is as universal and timeless as Chaplin's.

Comrade X
COMRADE X, co-authored by one of the greatest of American writers, Ben Hecht, is broad slapstick that kicks the slats out of the Soviet Utopia. Clark Gable is an American reporter who smuggles information out of Russia and Hedy Lamarr is a Moscow motorman. Hedy's father, Felix Brassart, gets the goods on Comrade X Gable and threatens to expose him to the Russian police unless Gable gets Hedy out of the country. It seems that Hedy is liable to be killed any moment because she is a Communist. So Gable marries Hedy, steals a Russian Army tank and finally escapes into Rumania.

The kidding is pretty raw at times, almost meaningless in its silliness. And fans of Hedy will be very disappointed in the fact that most of the time she wears a motorman's costume. But the film is amusing enough, the dialogue is crisp in spots, and the Lamarr-Gable combo is no formula for box-office poison.

Long Voyage Home

They gathered a bunch of Eugene O'Neill's short one-act plays about men of the sea, pushed the time up a quarter of a century (from World War I to II), and had John Ford direct the whole. It's turned out to be a wonderfully-photographed epic with incisive acting by Thomas Mitchell and John Qualen, and somewhat-indiscreet emoting by Ian Hunter, who is miscast more as he was in DULCY. Richard Hagemann is given credit for the music, most of which is an elaborate arrangement

Prep Cage Squad Trims Mt. Clemens, Ferndale In Two Tight Contests

By DICK BODYCOMBE

Wheeling away on a pair of brilliant fourth quarter scoring rushes, Grosse Pointe High's slow-starting basketball squad made it "a double killing" last week-end, when they defeated Mount Clemens High 32-22 and Ferndale High 30-22.

Engaging Mt. Clemens' struggling "Bathers" on the home court Friday night, the Pointers jumped off to a big lead early in the second quarter, only to lapse into a short coma and lose all but two points of their helpful head-start. "Making their play" in the third quarter, the "Bathers" hunched one point closer to the hesitant Pointers (20-19) but no nearer! Re-entering the contest with three personal fouls checked after his name, flashy but unpredictable Gordon Tanner quickly organized an 11-point "Blue Devil" rally that boosted Grosse Pointe rosters "over the hump" and into the valley of victory.

Tanner and Adolph "Ham Hands" Neeme led the Grosse Pointe offensive, scoring one-half the 32 points between them. Kenny Strassburg and giant (6 ft. 10 in.) Ralph Siewert paced the losers with eight and five points respectively. Entering the game through a barrage of "oh's" and "ah's," Siewert was given a rousing hand by Grosse Pointe High Principal W. R. Clemenson, who, being well over 6 ft. 3 in. himself, has a special spot in his heart for exceedingly tall men. Most improved player of the evening was blond Charles Lee, speedy Pointe guard, who has apparently lost his previous nervousness. Dunking two one-hand push shots, Lee held the "Blue Devils" offensive together in the second quarter.

The following evening, the local lads traveled to Ferndale where much the same type of game unfolded. Unable to pull more than three points ahead at any one time, Grosse Pointe suddenly found the score deadlocked at 17-17 midway in the third quarter. Swiftly reviving, the Pointers rolled up thirteen snappy points while holding the tiring Ferndale quintet to a single field goal and three free throws. Ferndale's center and captain, lean Willy Payne, "retired" from play in the fourth quarter via the four-foul route, but returned later in street clothes and provided a little post-game fist excitement.

Following in their "big brothers" footsteps, Grosse Pointe's large reserve team also marked up a double victory, beating Mt. Clemens 30-12 and Ferndale 24-20. Doug Graham, husky center and follow-up man, rang up 5 points against the "Bathers" and 14 points the following night to lead the reserve scorers.

Even though his squad has lost only one encounter thus far, Varsity Coach Forrest Geary is "still not satisfied" with the play of several of his veterans and prophesies that "some changes will be made in the very near future." Tomorrow evening will find the "Blue Devils" in Monroe, facing a twice-defeated squad of "green" youngsters who have anything but love for Grosse Pointe athletic teams, which have in the past run rough-shod over almost all proud "Trojan" entries.

THRIFT A Vital Part in Defense

Each year since the organization of the National Bank of Detroit in 1933, Walter S. McLucas, chairman of the board of directors, has talked informally and intimately with all the bank's employees at the annual Christmas Party. The following extracts are from Mr. McLucas' 1940 talk.

"We, of the executive branch of the bank, have our work clear cut. In every way possible, we will cooperate with those firms engaged on National Defense work and, at the same time, we will use our influence, our contacts, and our positions to urge and facilitate the setting up of reserves by business, by industry, and by individuals for the future. You, also, have a vitally important part to play—not only in the sane management of your personal affairs, but through the vast influence you, as a group, have on the thoughts of other people.

ridiculous to bring it up. Yet, there are many, many persons to whom the lessons of the past become dim with time and who forget that it is a financial reserve which carries one through emergencies and lets him take full advantage of new opportunities. Hoarding, of course, has played havoc with our economy many times in the past. It is generated by fear and, in turn, generates fear. It must not happen this time. This is our second brake against over-expansion.

"It is axiomatic that during periods of great, necessary, governmental expenditures, the individual must exercise great restraint—he must practice real thrift, else the economy of the whole nation become overtaxed, with disastrous results to all. Let me tell you what I mean by thrift. I think I can cover it by mentioning three of its major elements:

"3. Let us not get into debt beyond our ability to pay. To get into debt is a step one should consider seriously in ordinary times. There are conditions which justify it and often make it advisable—within reason. But, to get into debt during a so-called "silk-shirt" period may bring tragedy and disaster. This is our third brake against over-expansion, and its resultant evils, depression or inflation.

"1. Let us spend—but not waste. Obviously, we must not go on a buyer's strike. But, remember the waste and extravagance of previous business upturns. If we guard against waste of money, material, time, and energy, we will provide one brake against over-expansion during this time.

"I ask you to carry this message in your daily contacts; to emphasize these three principles wherever you go. They are positive—not negative. They are constructive—not destructive. If enough persons believe in them and practice them, then a thing which heretofore has inevitably followed a business boom—Depression—or even worse, its counterpart—Inflation—may be alleviated and perhaps actually prevented. As I see it, that is the real spirit of thrift."

"2. Let us save—but not hoard. This matter of saving is so basic, it almost seems

Detroit Educators Ask for Pierce High Orchestra or Band

The Detroit Board of Education has recently asked Grosse Pointe school officials to have one of the Pierce Jr. High musical groups, band or orchestra, play at a meeting on the morning of Thursday, March 13, when some 300 principals and supervisors from their public schools will visit Pierce.

The principal speaker will be Professor George D. Strayer of Teachers College, Columbia University, one of the two authors of one of the various site surveys made for the local Board of Education about eleven years ago.

Szell and Horowitz Will Appear As Guest Artists With Symphony

Georg Szell, Czechoslovakia's foremost orchestra conductor, and Vladimir Horowitz, Russian pianist who generally is ranked with Rachmaninoff and Hofmann, will be presented as guest artists with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra at the concert of Thursday night, Jan. 23, and Friday afternoon, Jan. 24, in the Masonic Temple.

The programs will be the first of the season devoted exclusively to the writings of Tchaikovsky. Following is the order in which that master's works will be played: Overture-Fantasia, "Romeo and Juliet"; First Concerto, in B-flat Minor, for Piano and Orchestra, Op. 23; Sixth Symphony, in B-Minor (Pathétique) Op. 74.

Famous Psychologist Visits Town Hall

"Adventures in Self-Discovery" will be the subject of Dr. David Seabury, famous psychologist, when he speaks before the Detroit Town Hall in the Fisher Theatre on Wednesday, Jan. 22, at 11 a.m.

Following his lecture, Dr. Seabury will give a series of group tests in place of the usual question period. These tests are self-evaluating so that no one but the person concerned will know what the tests reveal.

FOUNDER OF ST. CLARE PARISH DEAD

Many Grosse Pointers will be saddened to learn of the death of the Very Rev. Father James A. McDonald, O.S.A., in Lawrence, Mass., last Monday, after a brief illness.

Father McDonald was the founder and first pastor of the Parish of St. Clare of Montefalco, Audubon and Charlevoix Avenues, Grosse Pointe Park. He organized the parish fifteen years ago. For some time church services were held in the Colony Theatre and in 1926 the present school and chapel were built. Father McDonald remained at St. Clare Parish for about four years, when he left to take charge of St. Mary's Church in Lawrence, Mass. In 1935, he assumed charge of St. Lawrence Parish in that city and was pastor there up to the time of his death.

He was born in Andover, Mass., Feb. 8, 1877 and was ordained a priest Sept. 29, 1901. His early years in the priesthood were spent in missionary work. During the first World War he served as chaplain in the United States Army.

In addition to St. Clare Parish, he founded and built up the Parish of St. Augustine, Justice and Davison Aves., Detroit.

Father McDonald made a host of friends while located in Grosse Pointe and his passing will be a distinct loss to many here. He visited Grosse Pointe last October. The Very Rev. Father Philip L. Colgan, O.S.A., present pastor of St. Clare Parish, left for Lawrence, Mass., to attend the funeral which will be held today.

Famous Collection Of Antiques To Be Sold At Auction Here

Many Grosse Pointe residents are among those throughout the whole Detroit area who are agog over one of the largest collections of antiques ever seen in this region.

The collection has been open for preview at 1745 East Grand Boulevard, since January 15, and will be auctioned off starting January 21. The sale is expected to take four days.

Among the vast number of articles to be sold are furniture, china, paintings, historical documents and objects of art.

The collection dates back to the 17th century, when the Reed family, whose property it has been all these years, settled in Maryland. From this family sprang two signers of the Declaration of Independence, a United States District Attorney, various ambassadors to foreign countries, the first admiral of the United States Navy and many other illustrious figures.

The last heir of this great family is now dead, and the collection which has taken centuries to accumulate, will be scattered at public auction.

Just to list a few of the hundreds of items noted, there are— an original Duncan Phyfe globe stand, a pair of rosewood, rose-carved armchairs by Gaius, 1830, of Troy, N. Y.; a Sheraton dressing table, a Sheraton corner stand, a pair of original girandoles with flying eagles, a 15x26 Aubusson rug, an 18th century Chippendale chest-on-chest, an original Hepplewhite mahogany secretary, dozens of lovely old chairs in sets, sofas, loveseats, tables and chests.

The largest collection of Lowestoft china ever offered, more than 250 pieces, will be on sale during the auction. In addition there are many pieces of Wedgwood, Limoges, old Chinese, pierced Minton, Meissen, old English and Staffordshire, and the glass collection includes Sandwich, Waterford, Old Bristol, Bohemian and Venetian.

Among the paintings are two portraits of signers of the Declaration of Independence, and Dutch, French and English art of the 16th, 17th and 18th centuries.

There are many interesting personal pieces, such as an aquatint bought by Benjamin Franklin in Paris in 1775, a famed broadside, "The Address of Liberty," formerly the property of Benjamin Franklin and given by him to John Meredith Reed in 1775.

FELLOWSHIP NIGHT

The Jefferson Avenue Baptist Men's Class, 13337 E. Jefferson avenue, will hold their fellowship night on Friday evening, Jan. 17, at 8 p.m. Entertainment will include boxing matches by the Boy's Club of America, and a talk by Ted Pavelac, University of Detroit football tackle who has been drafted by Detroit's professional "Lions".
