Five years ago Anthony Brandel opened his present salon and during that time has gained the confidence of many women in this community because of the perfection of the type of beauty service he offers.

"Our operators must be thorough-ly trained and experienced," Mr. Brandel said, "Not only that, we have never missed an opportunity to take advantage of technical advances in the field of beauty culture." Throughout November Brandel's will give a token gift of a handy,

The atmosphere of Brandel's is pleasantly artistic. Recently the salon was redecorated in harmonizing shades of blue and flourescent lighting was installed.

Alert to new trends in hairstyling. Mr. Brandel recently attended the New York Hairdressers' show. Coiffures are as changeable as clothes. It has always been a rule at Brandel's that hairstyling must be freshly modern as well as adaptable to the individual. Appointments can be made at Brandel's by calling TUxe-

"WE LEAD, OTHERS FOLLOW"

Celebrating Armistice Day

The feeling expressed by some people that we should not celebrate Armistice day this year because we stand on the brink of another war, seems to indicate a lack of understanding about what Armistice day stands for. Actually, we should give more attention to Armistice day this year than we have in any year since the World war ended.

To many people in America, Armistice day meant the celebration of the fact that we were at peace - that war had ended. But if peace was all we were celebrating, it could have been celebrated whether we won or lost. What we really were celebrating was the victory which ended the threat to our Democracy and our freedom.

After that victory, probably more should have been done to guarantee the preservation of peace. The German nation shouldn't have been allowed to build the murder machine which has been running wild over Europe and is now threatening America again. It never should have been allowed to happen - but it has happened and no matter how wrong it is, we have to look it in the face as a fact.

We want neutrality, but we may not be able to have it. The trouble with our neutrality law was that it only worked one way. It made us neutral but it didn't make the other fellow neutral. You can pass laws to limit what your own people can do, but you cannot pass a law which any other nation is obli-

In celebrating Armistice day this year we are celebrating the fact that the American flag and all it stands for still flies over our nation - and with the threat of new attacks upon it we should also use Armistice day as an opportunity to pledge Will Sell Uniforms ourselves to see to it that our flag and our way of living is guarded against all present threats.

The American Legion, which gave us the victory and fense has announced that the unipeace which we have celebrated on Armistice day for 20 years, spoke for a large part of our nation when it said, in a resolution passed at its last convention:

"We want America strong enough to meet any possible the garments to retailers who guarattack before it arrives and to turn the enemy back so that our lantee to resell them at a price set by homes remain intact and our families secure. If there are retired nurses in this town, or women who buttons, looks as little as possible have had some nurse's training, who could arrange to become like a uniform. active in that profession, they could help in solving one of the critical problems facing our country today.

The big demand for nurses in connection with our armed | This time necessity appears to forces and great industrial plants has caused a serious short- have been the mother of an amusing age in hospitals and homes where nurses are needed.

It is estimated by Miss Mary Beard, chairman of the pied France for the women of Paris subcommittee on nursing of the health and welfare division of the government, that more than 31,000 additional nurses are extreme slimness of the Parision needed this year by the army, navy, government agencies and women. Tiny waists receive particucivilian institutions.

To meet these requirements, it will be necessary for Niagara Falls many retired nurses to return to active duty. In addition, 50,000 girls must be enrolled in schools of nursing and hundreds of thousands of women must be trained to be volunteer nurses.

But I imagine most women, who forgive her her extravagance. They York was found to be the favorite like to read about the duchess' ermine and mink coats, her $500,000 diamond earrings, and all that goes with them. It makes good material about a dress before buying it, only for dreams

Dresses - $20

At the time that the newspapers and magazines were full of stories about the duchess' clothes. I received a report on a national survey of the dress-buying habits of American women. That brought me down to earth again. For I found that the average American woman buys only three dresses a year and gets all three of them for a total expenditure of less than $20.

Of the women questioned, in all parts of this country, it was found that 16 per cent haven't bought a new dress for a year, 13 per cent have bought one dress, 18 per cent have bought two, 16 per cent bought three, 13 per cent bought four and 24 per cent bought five or more.

The most surprising finding, however, was that the majority of the women questioned consider their wardrobe adequate, although a good number of younger women were not so satisfied with their wardrobes as were the older women. But there was very little of that "I haven't a thing to wear" attitude which has reputedly driven so many husbands into fits of temporary insanity.

How much do your neighbors pay for their dresses?

That, of course, depends largely on the income class of your neighborhood, but based on averages for women of all classes the survey shows:

Half of U. S. women pay $2 or less for a house dress; one-fifth of half year plate, and makes the plate them $2 to $3; and about one-tenth, a full year permit. Thus the car as a faker in a seven-column story $3 to $4. The average amount paid owner will have the same tag all for house dresses is $2.

About one-fourth pay $2 or less the front as special correspondent for a marketing dress; about onefor the British and American press, fifth, $2 to $3; 15 per cent, $3 to $4 writing with a prophetic force which and 12 per cent $4 to $5. The aver-

The duchess of Windsor didn't do For an informal evening dress, the much shopping when she was in largest group of women - 19 per New York. But she did find time to cent - pay $9 to $11; 17 per cent buy a few little dress models at will pay $13 to $15; and nine per cent are willing to pay from $20 to

In the formal evening dress class, shopping she did would be for the the average is $19 to $20. Nineteen poor children of Nassau. But the per cent will pay up to $25; 13 per following day, when models with cent won't pay over $15 and 14 per dozens of dresses from New York's | cent think $19 to $20 is about right.

Two out of three of the woman interviewed generally wear the same that she was going to pick up a few dress from lunch time on through the rest of the day and evening.

All of these figures were gathered together by the New York Dress institute, which hopes to make New just as lavish ways of spending York the fashion center of the world and which hopes to make women show preference for dresses dressed woman in the world - it which are labeled as having been

But that looks like quite a job, for I do think she should be careful four out of five of the women quesmay be harder to induce a poor New York, Hollywood, Paris, Chicago or St. Louis. What they are a dollar to the British War Relief interested in is how it fits, how it looks and how much it costs.

However, of the women who did have a preference for dresses from pay, from $1.49 to $8.98 for a dress, one style center over another, New by a vote of 15 to 1. Hollywood was second, but not a close second.

Asked what they want to know five per cent cared about where it was designed, but 17 per cent, mostly of city women, wanted to know whether it was union made. Only 21 per cent cared about a brand name. The big interests of four-fifths of th women was the quality of material, the fastness of dyes and the ease of cleaning and washing. Probably the duchess of Windsor takes the $5 for a new dress.

This reduction in size and the fact that approximately 750,000 last half 1943 full size plates will be eliminated, will conserve more than 1,-000,000 pounds of steel for national defense, according to Harry F. Kelly, secretary of state.

This Week In Washington

Practically all economic experts who hav testified before the house banking and currency committee have stressed the need for drastic price ceilings and probably wage control if we hope to avoid skyrocketing of prices. But despite this testimony, there are few here who think the committee or congress will do anything much about it.

It is the consensus of opinion in congressional circles that a price ceiling bill will be passed - but that it wil merely be a "face-saving" measure lacking the drastic provisions necessary to do an adequate job. The only other alternative seems to be the possibility of giving the President complete control over prices and perhaps over wages thus passing the buck to the presi-

Congressmen are plainly worried about all proposals for price or wage control. Those from the farm areas have orders from back home to prevent any ceilings on farm prices. Those from industrial districts have been told in no uncertain terms that organized labor won't tolerate curbs on wages. Together, the representatives of these two groups have enough strength to control the passage or defeat of any proposed meas-

The only way that a measure with teeth in it can be forced through congress is if the President himself demands passage of sound legisla

Already he has made it plain that price control is needed immediately - but it is probable that he will have to put a lot of pressure behind this request in order to get legislation which he considers ade

Although the President has opposed wage control, public demand for more curbs on union activities and for "no-strike" legislation may stimulate action to control wages. The public has made it plain that it wants labor activities controlled - the whole nation having been frightened over John L. Lewis' willinguess to consider the closed shop and union demands more important than continuation of defense production.

If the threat of marked inflation is as close as present price rises and expert opinion indicates the delay on price legislation, and the possible ignoring of wage control, will probably cost the public billions of dollars in increased cost of living.

Meanwhile, plans for spending many more billions than were originally planned for our defense pronot to appear too extravagant when tioned said that they don't care gram are being completed. Studies in the United States, however, for it where a dress is made — whether in made of the war in Russia seem to that the war must be won with tanks and a comprehensive plan has been worked out to double or triple the rat of production of tanks.

Figures on costs are bandied about to such an extent that they are becoming almost meaningless, but it has been said by some officials that, over a period of three to five years. plans now in the making may snd our defense bill as high as $240,000,-000,000. In less astronomical terms, that means the government would eventually have to collect an average of about $2,000 from every man, woman and child in America.

In addition to tanks, the new plans will call for a great increase in plane production and in the size of our air force. The army already has announced plans for expanding its quality for granted — but not the air force so that it will include 400,-American housewife. That's the ad- 000 pilots and technicians by June vantage of spending $500 instead of 30 and eventually will reach 500,000

Congress seems to be in a mood to pass any appropriation bill which is presented with the "defense" label on it, so proposals by the President for expenditure of additional billions will undoubtedly be approved with little opposition.

Some congressmen, however, are grumbling over the use which is be-1, 1943, has white letters on a dark ing made of our vast defense and smaller than the 1941 series. # Social Security Card Necessary to Work

If you are looking for temporary work during the holiday season, get a social security account number before you set out to find a job. This is the advice given by E. E. Pollock. manager of the East Side Field of-fice of the social security board, lo-cated at 8037 Harper at Van Dyke. Explaining why this action should be taken, Mr. Pollock said today: "Employers have learned that it saves time and trouble for all con-saves time and trouble for all concerned if account numbers are issued before or at the time a new worker takes a job. Then the employer can see the card, copy the name and number exactly as they appear on it, and be sure his records are complete before his tax return for the final quarter of this year is filed in January, 1942.

"Many employers have learned that it is a difficult matter to get account numbers after holiday workers have left their service, and hence are asking for social security cards when new workers are hired. Any one who has lost his original card should get a duplicate, not a new number," Mr. Pollock added.

For the convenience of those seeking holiday employment and planning to get social security cards the East Side field office is open daily from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. and on Saturday from 8:30 until 1

PIERCE SCHOOL NOTES

Students from the Pierce dramatic groups directed by Mrs. Heideman, will provide the program at the Pierce PTA meeting Monday evening, Nov. 10 at 8:15. The seventh grade group will give a skit from their play "Danger at the Michigan district of the the Door"; the eighth grade skit is from "Willies' Lie Detector"; and the ninth grade will present a part from the "Taming of Sue." This should prove to be a very interesting program, presenting an unusually large number of stars. Mrs. D. Machun is arranging for social hour following the dramatic program. The home rooms will be open for visitation at 7:30 p.m.

Maire PTA Notes

The next meeting for the Maire PTA will be Tuesday evening, Nov. rolls at the Palace on Wednesday. 11. M. A. Clark of the U. S. Rubber company will speak on "Your Job and Mine." Music for the meeting will be furnished by the members of the sixth grade class, under the direction of Miss Chesarek, Refreshments are being furnished by the mothers of the 5A, 6B and 6A groups. There will be open house from 7:30 to 8:00 o'clock to afford parents an opportunity to meet their children's teachers. The program will start at 8 o'clock.

> The 6A class gave a musical program over the broadcasting system on Hallowe'en. They sang songs they have been learning during the present school year. Robert Neff played an accordian solo; Jack Wilson and Florence Erringer played a piano duet and Jack Wilson and Betty Kriewald sang a duet. May 900 Coplin Gieche was the announcer. Following the broadcast, the children formed a line of march and paraded about the building in their Hallowe' en costumes, after which they returned to their home rooms for their various class parties.

Suffering a crushing defeat at the hands of Fordson high school

last Saturday, Grosse Pointe high school's Blue Devils wear a per-plexed look in this action shot of a Fordson touchdown. Still in Losing Ways | Reserves Win First Walloped Again Last | Game of Campaign Saturday 31-0 Score

One good Fordson team would have been enough, but three were

A flood of Tractor reserves in the fourth quarter turned what had been a hard battle for three quarters into a touchdown parade. Fordson scored 19 points in the final stanza to give the Grosse Pointers another defeat,

For three periods the Blue Devils battled the Tractors, considered one of the state's best teams, on fairly even terms except for the two touchdowns scored earlier in the game. The Devils lacked offensive punch but displayed a good defense to halt Fordson on occasion.

Fordson's first score was set up by a 25-yard punt return by Mike Farnyk, Fordson star quarterback. Mike took the kick on the Grosse Pointe 40 yard stripe and tightroped down the eastern sidelines to the 15. Six plays later Slipperly Mike ripped off tackle from the three for the game's first touchdown. Two more Tractor threats in the first half were staved off by a stalwart Devil defense. Wiacek's fumble was recovered by an alert Blue Devil on the Pointers' nine and Fordson was held for downs on the other occasion. On the last down they pulled some trickery and lined up with 11 men on the line of scrimmage, Before the ball was snapped the backfield pulled out and a end run resulted which gained a yard.

The second Fordson score came early in the third quarter. The Tractors marched 52 yards with Milly going over from the three to score. The rest of the third period was nip and tuck but Fordson's reserve strength began to tell in the final period as Coach Banach of Grosse Pointe began to send in his reserves for experience.

good as they say he is.

The Grosse Pointe reserve squad gained their first victory of the year last Thursday when they defeated Royal Oak 7 to 6. The game was played on the local field.

It was the Acorn's who drew first blood, scoring on a pass interception. After the Devils had worked their way down to the Acorn's three yard line and seemed to be on the touchdown trail, one of their passes was intercepted by an alert Royal Oak boy who ran 97 yards for the marker. The attempted extra point by place kick was blocked and the score read 6-0.

It wasn't until the third quarter that the Devils were able to do anything about grabbing the lead from the Acorns, and they accomplished this by virtue of the pass combination of Capt. Bill Mesmer and End Howard Savory, who scored on a 25-yard pass. The all important extra point was made by this same pass combination. The locals were able to protect this narrow 7-6 advantage for the rest of the game to gain a well deserved win for themselves and Coach Charles Pet-
