Grosse Pointers who enjoy singing the familiar Christmas carols are invited to come to the Grosse Pointe Memorial church the evening of Monday, Dec. 22, for a community Christmas carol sing. An hour of singing will begin at 7:30 p.m., under the direction of Charles Frederic Morse, organist and choirmaster at the church. Malcolm M. Johns, assistant organist, will accompany the singers. No regular program has been scheduled. The affair is designed solely as an informal get-ANALYSMAN ANALYSMAN TO together to sing the season's carols.

CHRISTMAS in "the good old days'' knew no bounds of joyousness. It is particularly gratifying to us that we number among our steady customers many who have been loyal since "the good old days."

To all of these, to all who have made our friendship since, and to all who read this message, we wish that good old-fashioned kind of Christmas which comes to mind when we think of "the good old days."

List Suggests Gift Variety For Christmas

Christmas-giving becomes more fun and less of a chore each new Yuletide season. Time was when 'what to give a woman'' came under what man termed "a nervewracking" problem! That's all changed now. To prove it, here's a list of Christmas gift suggestions for the fairer sex, compiled especially for husbands, brothers, fathers, sons,

If the lady-to-be-gifted is socially minded, she undoubtedly will appreciate a gift that will enhance her party clothes-an evening bag perhaps . . . a sparkling piece of costume jewelry . . . a pair of gloves . . sheer hose, or perfume.

But perhaps she is a homemaker, busy from morn til night with the problems of a house and family. A stunning quilted robe for her few hours of relaxation . . . a pair of house slippers that are casual and colorful . . . a crystal salad set for uncheon entertaining . . . all these will be appreciated!

For the high school or college miss . . . a sweater in one of the new youthful pastel colors . . . a pair of mittens . . . a peasant kerchief to wear for sport or dress .

a tiny compact for important dates . . or one of the latest indoor games to bring her friends around. For the invalid whose daily life is centered about her bed . . . a gay bed jacket . . . or a new china breakfast set with a tray, which, after meals, can serve as a comfortable prop for books and writing

For the career lady in your family, you might buy hose that can't run . . . pigskin gloves for sports . . . a rhinestone star to wear in her hair . . . a manicure kit . . . or a pair of frilly slippers.

For the gray-haired lady in your house, a smart envelope handbag would "hit the spot."

Yule Dinner Merits Novel Table Setting Christmas dinner, of course, is a very special one. To add to the merriment for both homefolks and guests, here are ideas for the table Make place cards of big red apples, the name written on with icing from a tiny pastry tube.

For tree motifs for table or wall decoration, use cellophane straws, paper doilies, pipe-cleaners, screen wire, old boxes and plywood . most amazing array of trees will result. Keep them simple and surprising. Try graduated funnels stacked up, with a star-shaped cookie cut-

For the table centerpiece, have an acrobatic act of gingerbread men or cookie clowns balanced at precarious angles, held together with cake icing. Or for more seriousness, the whole manger scene may be made from cookie figures.

Another centerpiece can be formed by using a tall candle or wooden standard and placing pine cones around it.

Candles in a log holder are very effective. Drill holes in a small curved pine log, then place the candles in these. Seal the ends with paraffin to prevent the pitch from dripping. Arrange sprigs of pine, hemlock, holly or cones around the candle holder.

Christmas Carols

Each holiday season the familiar words of the tuneful Christmas Carol ring out all over the country. The origin of these songs is both interesting and colorful. While some of them were composed here in America, others were written and set to music in other parts of the world. Below, with illustrations, and a brief history of origin are presented some of the better known of these songs.

O little town of Bethlehem, How still we see thee lie; Above thy deep and dreamless sleep The silent stars go by . . .

These words were written in 1868 by Phillips Brooks, young rector of Philadelphia, after a visit to Palestine. His church organist. Lewis Redner, wrote the melody. It came to him "in a dream" on Christmas

I HEARD THE BELLS-

I heard the bells on Christmas Day Their old familiar carols play, And wild and sweet the words repeat Of peace on earth, good will to men

• When Henry Wadsworth Longfellow wrote the words to this song, the United States was experiencing its second year of the Civil war. The words, "peace on earth," gave expression to the hope of millions.

IT CAME UPON THE MIDNIGHT-

It came upon the midnight clear. That glorious song of old — From Angels bending near the earth, To touch their harps of gold.

Here is another beloved carol which was composed in America The words were written in December, 1849, by Rev. Edmund Sears. It was sung to an old hymn-tune until its present melody was composed by Richard Willis in 1851.

O COME, ALL YE FAITHFUL -

O come ye to Bethlehem.

· Origin of this hymn is controversial. When introduced in England about 1800 it was known as the "Portuguese Mymn." Its lines do not rhyme because they were translated from the Latin.

THE FIRST NOEL-

The first Noel the angels did say Was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay, In fields where they lay keeping their sheep On a cold winter's night that was so

This is a true folk-song, claimed by both France and England. According to tradition, the verses are sung by the shepherds and the refrain by the angels.

Santa's Costume Here is an inexpensive way to make Santa's costume. Make the knee-length coat of an old night shirt cut down and dyed red, but if this is too much work, use a red mackinaw. Border it with priceless ermine consisting of white cotton flannel splotched at the proper intervals with ink or black shoe polish. Santa should wear red golf stock ings and heavy boots, plus a stocking cap and bright mittens. Put a scarf about his neck. When he is done there is no need of a mask; his own mother would not know him under those bectling eyebrows.

Thomas H. Adams, of the Wayne university law school faculty, has been named chairman of the state bar committee on legal education and admission to the bar, according to Henry L. Woolfenden, Jr., executive secretary of the state bar of Michigan, Arthur Neef, dean of the law school, also has been named to the committee.

Enliven Appearance Of Christmas Tree

Before pulling out the old box of ornaments used for trimming the Christmas tree for the past severa years, it is a good idea to plan some other decoration which will make the tree different than it ever was before. An occasional change from the old familiar design will do much to brighten up the room.

One novel arrangement is to imi tate the snow-draped trees of the forest as closely as possible. Trin the tree all in white with popcori necklaces, tissue paper snow balls white glass ornaments and froster white lights. The effectiveness of this color will be increased if green wreaths with red berries are used about the room.

A graceful pine tree trimmed lavishly all in gold ornaments has a fine formal grandeur about it and is particularly distinguished in certain rooms. In contrast to this a trea trimmed entirely with red and white lights and red and white striped candy canes is very young and informal in heart.

Little pleated paper fans made of Christmas, wrapping paper help to "fill" a big tree inexpensively in glass balls and other ornaments are lacking. It is also interesting to add local interest by hanging articles found in the vicinity, such as unusual sea shells, or huge pine cones. or curious burrs and pods which are gilded to improve their appear-tree this December, study the following ideas and decide which yours will be. The six Christmas trees described below, are trimmed in amazingly new and different ways. The "Coronado" is typically southwestern. A tree trimmed in cowboys and cactus . . . Indian relics and dazzling yellow lights.

Miniature trees are attractive, oo, especially when they're spangled with beads and shiny jewelry from the five and ten.

"Colonial" is early American in every detail, trimmed with miniature wooden churns, log cabins, candle sticks, Indians, turkeys and colonial dolls. Green colored lights and silver tinsel complete the color interest.

The "Student" does everything but say "Rah, rah." Various colored lights shine on gaudy trimmings and erasures, crayons, pencils and slates for classroom touch. The "Maritime" is nautically trimmed with clipperships, anchors, through clouds of angel hair. "Victorian" is brilliant with white lights and tinseled branches and is decorated all over with unique ornaments of every shape, size and sloops and buoys. Blue lights gleam

The "Canine" is an amusing idea to please the canine member of the family. Decorated with bones, dog toys, fire plugs, dog biscuits, and vari-colored lights . . . a real "fun"

Scouts Take Part In First Aid Meets

Always considered as part of scouting's regular program, and now definitely acknowledged as valuable emergency, a series of sectional first aid contests is being sponsored by the Detroit area council, Boy Scouts of America during this month.

Contests are scheduled for Wednesday, Dec. 17 at Hackett Field school in Plymouth; and Friday, Dec. 19 at Cooley high school. All contests are scheduled to commence

Teams in these sectional meets are made up of Scouts who have already participated in contests sponsored within their own troops. Those teams which maintain certain standards in the sectional meets are eligible to compete in the council-wide First Aid-O-Ree to be conducted early next year, the winners of which will be eligible to attend regional-sponsored contests in Chicago. The problems assigned to the sectional meet teams are based on scouting's secon dand first class first aid requirements. One of the problems will be done in absolute darkness to represent a typical black-out

Township Warns Against Allowing Dogs to Run Loose

A warning to owners of dogs in Gratiot township to keep the animals off the streets was issued this week by township officials. Complaints that dogs are being allowed to run loose and that they are molesting children and adults on the streets have been coming in with ncreasing frequency, Justice Harry Garman said.

While the township does not at present enforce an ordinance to license and control dogs here, a measure is now pending before the state legislature whereby township governments will be permitted to enforce dog ordinances and keep the entire license fees, Justice Garman added, so that by Spring it is expected that a dog ordinance will be in effect in the township.

At the present time, since there is no such ordinance, the township can rely only on the co-operation of its residents to control the problem of dogs running loose on the streets.

Why do Catholics Pray to Mary?

Catholic devotion to the mother of God has been the custom in the church from the earliest days of Christianity. This is proved by the writings of the early fathers and by the still extant relics in the cata-

But, remember, all our prayers to he Blessed Virgin Mary have just two purposes. First, pleasing Almighty God, by honoring, revering and praising His mother, upon whom He conferred the highest of nonors. Second, to plead for her intercession before the throne of God for our worthy needs.

This is typified by ur great and most frequently used prayer to Mary - the Ave Maria:

Hail, Mary, full of grace. The Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women and belssed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. (Words of honor, praise and exaltation, spoken by the Angel Gabriel and St. Elizabeth, as shown in your own Bible, Luke 1:28-42).

Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. (No worship, just a Meet Sunday, Dec. 21 plea for our blessed mother's prayers now and just before we are to meet our God.)

> The Catholic devotion to the blessed virgin is so beautiful, so inspiring, so well authenticated, that we cannot understand why the religious revolutionists of the 16th century could, with any sincerity, throw out the queen of heaven from their churches, allowing the Catholic church alone to fulfill Mary's own prophecy: "From henceforth all generations shall call me blessed."--Luke 1:48.

That Grosse Pointers have a keen interest in the fine arts is strongly reflected at the Grosse Pointe public library where the collection of recordings moves speedily and constantly.

The collection was begun just Dr. Stover's Golden Oil about one year ago when the library secured an album of 50 recordings. In the short space of this year the collection has increased to over 600 records and during the year over 4.000 records have circulated, according to Miss Florence Severs, head librarian.

To the collection have been added records of chamber music, some of the early historical music and lighter modern airs played by some of the finest musical talent of Europe and America.
