RECRUITING SCHOOL CHILDREN FOR VICTORY GARDEN WORK

The system under which school children will be recruited to work in the Victory Garden program for Grosse Pointe was outlined this week by Forrest Geary, director of playgrounds and adult education for the Grosse Pointe public schools, at a meeting of the heads of the various divisions of the local garden committee.

This was the organization of a labor battalion of boys and girls to provide the citizen owners of Victory Garden plots with emergency helpers in case of sickness, absence from home or other reasons for which they might require help.

Children between the ages of 13 and 16 will compose the group.

Military Promotions
 Under the plan, application blanks will be sent to each private, parochial and public school in the Grosse Pointe district. Children who wish to work in these gardens from time to time and who believe they will be in the Pointe during the Summer months will fill out the applications, which will then be returned to Mr. Geary.

The children will then attend a series of three lectures by an expert in gardening who will instruct the boys and girls on some of the simple jobs that need to be done.

A regular military system of advancement has been set up whereby the children may advance in rank from private to sergeant.

Attend Preliminary Lectures
 In order to qualify as a private, each child must go through a work experience period in which he will work on a definite job under supervision. Dates for this training period have not yet been announced, but they will come after school hours or on Saturdays, Mr. Geary said. Training will be provided through the auspices of the Associated Garden Clubs of Grosse Pointe.

Upon successfully completing this project, the child will be designated as a private and will receive insignia as such.

After the training period, each boy and girl will be assigned to one of the playgrounds nearest his home. He will report to his playground supervisor each morning that he expects to get work. Calls for workers from employers will be relayed from Mr. Geary's office to the playground supervisors who will have available each morning the list of employers who want workers.

Employer's Recommendation
 Each worker will take with him a card or blank providing for the employer's signature and a recommendation of the kind of work he has done in order to give him classification in regards to rank. Although work with parents will be recognized in part, Mr. Geary said, the object of the work experience training program is to provide young people with experience in working for other employers than their parents.

In order to provide an incentive

the committee has decided that will be awarded two instead of one plot, those desiring additional grounds one plot.

Miss Zimmerman Sets Nuptial Date

Lois Zimmerman has set Saturday, April 4, as the date for her marriage to Albert Cooper, son of the Edgar B. Coopers, of Grayton road, Grosse Pointe Park. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Zimmerman, of Connecticut avenue, Highland Park.

The ceremony will be performed at 7:30 o'clock in the evening at Grace Episcopal church with the Rev. Bertram Pullinger officiating.

For her attendants, Miss Zimmerman has selected Elizabeth Seibert to serve as maid of honor and as her bridesmaids, Virginia Mente and Mrs. Karl Hammerberg, of Marinette, Wis.

Mr. Cooper has chosen Austin Humber to act as best man. Harry Pratt and Leland Symons will seat the guests.

Both the bride- and groom-elect attended the University of Michigan where Miss Zimmerman was affiliated with Zeta Tau Alpha and Mr. Cooper with Phi Sigma Kappa.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents will follow the wedding ceremony after which the newlyweds will leave on a honeymoon trip to Miami. On their return they will make their home in the River Terrace apartments.

Children's Group Makes Final Plans For Art Auction

The auction committee for the Save the Children Federation held their last meeting yesterday morning to make final plans for the auction to be held at the Art Salon Galleries on April 15 and 16, both afternoons and evenings. Gifts will still be accepted this week and will be picked up if the donor will call Mrs. Shepley at Niagara 2788 or Mrs. Ruth Bedford at Niagara 9225.

The more gifts there are to sell, the more children of the metropolitan defense area will be helped, for the money from the auction will definitely be spent in this localized area under the direction of the Office of the Civilian Defense, Mrs. Benjamin O. Shepherd, the auction chairman, has announced.

Yesterday's meeting was, therefore, a fitting close to the committee meetings for Dr. Edna Noble White, president of Merrill Palmer school, spoke on the day nursery plans and the courses for volunteers which would be offered at her school. After her talk, there was a subscription luncheon for the committee and all those interested in the school plans.

Committee members are just beginning the last lap of the race as far as work is concerned. Mrs. Alfred H. Rzeppa, just back from Tryon, has her catalog committee working in shifts this week and next to complete the listing of all the gifts, and there are some lovely ones. One of the latest reports includes a complete Victorian bedroom set, a carved walnut chest, a painting by Wagner, some lovely pieces of Sheffield, a decanter set, brass candlesticks, a small Italian chair, some handmade tiles and pottery, a rare Chinese bowl and many more.

Mrs. George Bushnell has been appointed treasurer of the auction, and Mrs. David G. Hooker is making her last minute plans for the program to be given for the donors on April 12, at the Art Salon Galleries.

use your convenient
DETROIT EDISON OFFICE

WHILE you are out shopping or visiting on the way to an afternoon movie, use the most convenient Edison office to transact any Detroit Edison business you may have. It is designed to serve your needs quickly and comfortably — for bill inquiries, appliance purchases, service inquiries, bill payments, turn-on and turn-off orders, lamp renewals, etc.

There's more to it than just convenience. Using your Detroit Edison office when you are in the vicinity is a patriotic help. With tires, cars, etc. being rationed, The Detroit Edison Company is adjusting its work to meet wartime conditions. There will be no hindering of our emergency service; it will be as prompt as ever. Under the tire rationing provision, we will still be able to get tires for our heavy trucks, and in emergencies — storm, wires down, etc. — line trucks will be on the job as always. But the present tire rationing order will not allow us to purchase tires for delivery trucks or the ordinary light cars with which we do most of our business. You can help us by carrying lamp bulbs, small appliances and packages to and from the Detroit Edison office. The Detroit Edison Company.

PIERCE SCHOOL
N-E-W-S

Since national Latin club week will be celebrated April 13 to 17, the Latin club of Pierce decided to invite their parents to visit classes on April 14, 15 and 16. Exhibits of class and club work will be shown in room 114. One part of this exhibit will be a collection of letters from influential citizens regarding the value of Latin study. Letters have been sent to many Grosse Pointe citizens asking for their replies in regard to Latin work. These letters were sent by the consuls of the club, Marjorie Granse and Loyal Jodar. The chairmen of the celebration will be Barbara Dill, Barbara Klenk and Virginia Arnold.

A picture of the Circus Maximus in miniature, which was constructed at Pierce a year ago, was published in the November issue of the University of Michigan Latin booklet. Another picture of a Pierce activity which reached national publication was of a miniature catapult, built under the direction of Mr. Jackson. This picture appeared in the "Classical Outlook" the national club magazine, March issue.

WEEKLY HAPPENINGS IN GRATIOT TOWNSHIP

Editor's Letter Box

To the Editor:

There is an election on Monday, April 6, and as an American, it is your solemn duty to Vote. So be an American and exercise your franchise, by voting. And there is another reason why you should vote. You own your home, and should be interested in your taxes, and also who runs your township affairs. Are you satisfied with your tax situation? I hear a lot who are not. Think it over, and again, go and vote.

Do you know that in our last election 640 people — taxpayers, did not vote. Yes, the weather was very bad, but Monday, weather or not, go to vote. Have a voice in your government.

GENE PIORNACK

Now in the last election Gene Piornack ran for supervisor and lost by about 50 votes. I believe a good majority of these 640 residents will vote on Monday, April 6, and while Gene won't run on a sticker, we, the people, have taken it into our own hands and we find, that to elect Gene all we need to do is just write Gene Piornack under Odilon Houtekier and mark with an X in the square before the space wherein we have written Gene's name.

If you are interested in your future tax situation, go out Monday, April 6, and vote for a man who knows your township and has your interest at heart. Vote for Gene Piornack, by writing his name on the ballot and put an X in front of the name you have written thus, X Gene Piornack.

Don't forget to vote! For a man who will keep your taxes down — Gene Piornack. ERIC E. NEWMAN

PAPER DRIVE

Save your paper a little longer folks! The St. Jude ushers will make their Spring drive in a few weeks after Easter. Watch for the coming date and give the boys a call.

'Fighting the Fire Bomb' To Be Given Public Showing Here

In order that everyone interested may see "Fighting the Fire Bomb" the dramatic educational movie produced by the Office of Civilian Defense, the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company, cooperating with Detroit officials of OCD, has arranged to show the film at the gas company's Gratiot office, 13517 Gratiot avenue, Tuesday evening, April 7, from 7:30 to 9 p.m., and at the East Jefferson office, 13101 East Jefferson, Friday evening, April 10, from 7:30 to 9 p.m.

"Fighting the Fire Bomb" shows actual incendiaries at their destructive work, and demonstrates how to control and extinguish them in your home should the need arise. The OCD urges all men and women to see this movie, which takes the mystery out of the dreaded fire bomb by showing you how to fight it with safety and success.

The gas company invites everyone interested to see this thrilling and instructive movie. The office at 13517 Gratiot avenue will be open from 7:30 to 9 p. m. Tuesday, April 7, and the office at 13101 East Jefferson will be open from 7:30 to 9 p. m. Friday, April 10, and "Fighting the Fire Bomb," which takes just 15 minutes to run, will be shown every half hour.

Poet's Corner

A kid I knew some years ago Not very big—quite pale, He'd never strike you as a guy Who could carry the mail. But when our country went to war Surprised was I to see This puny kid that I once knew In Uncle Sam's army. No fuss was ever made by him Just went about his work And no task they ever gave him Did this lad ever shirk. No stripes nor medals did he wear Most unassuming guy. His whole life to most folks was A great big question, "Why?" He went down to the Philippines With MacArthur's gallant band Our history books will tell the tale Across our lovely and. The battle smoke had cleared away And there upon the ground Stripped to his waist—hand on gun This hero kid was found. As they retired a little bit He gripped his gun more firm The last they heard him say was He'd make those devils squirm. And so another page is filled Of another hero's stand. That is the reason we are free In this democratic land. Don't just read this and lay it down There's something we can do To keep those brave men over there Is a job for you — and you. Remember this brave soldier's stand His life he gave that we May live in our America Fair land of liberty. —ERIC E. NEWMAN

St. Jude parish is sponsoring a victory card party, to be held at the American Legion hall, 21411 Gratiot Wednesday, April 8, at 8 p.m.

Prizes include: Table lamp; permanent wave; three-piece hand crocheted lounge set; case of beer; Pyrex plate and chrome holder; manicure set; leather photograph album; genuine Beawood cigarette holder; 24 piece glass set; luncheon cloth and four napkins; Bigelow throw rug; 10-piece cigarette set; silver cake server; pillow cases; seven-piece water set; silver cake fork; dresser scarf; shampoo and wave; four Fleming passes; man's tie; tablecloth; stationery; cast iron cake mold; two hand made guest towels; two phonograph records; and five pounds of sugar.

FINGERPRINTS FOR OCD

In compliance with regulations of the Office of Civilian Defense, Gratiot townships air raid wardens and auxiliary volunteer firemen were fingerprinted and photographed at the township hall last Thursday and Friday. Purpose of this was to supply the defense volunteers with identification cards in order to prove their authority to local citizens while carrying on their official duties. Openings are still to be filled in the ranks of the air raid wardens, and volunteer auxiliary police and firemen. Classes for the firemen began last Friday evening at the Grosse Pointe high school.

Candidate for Township Treasurer

Mr. Roek is given an excellent chance in his race against the incumbent for the office of Gratiot township treasurer. His candidacy is unique inasmuch as he is the only candidate to file on the Republican ticket. For many years no one has filed for office in the township except on the Democratic ballot. When questioned on this Mr. Roek stated, "Partisanship does not have a place in our modern setup. I am convinced that the people will vote for the best man and not for a ticket."

HERMAN ROEK

He has been a local resident for five years. He has been employed as dispatcher and advertising man by one concern for the past 16 years. Four years ago he was one of the originators of the township zoning ordinance. He has been the only member who has served on the planning board since the ordinance was enacted. Today, thanks to his perseverance, the ordinance is one of the most profitable sources of income to the township as well as being of incalculable value in enhancing local property values. His interest in local township affairs and administration as well as practical experience give him excellent qualifications for the office of treasurer.

CIVIC LEAGUE ENDORSES ROEK FOR TREASURER

The East Park Manor Civic league endorses Herman Roek candidate for the office of Gratiot township treasurer. Investigation by the Civic League board on his activity in the township and qualifications have found him to be the most capable for the office of treasurer.

SPELLING CHAMP

Betty Carr, fifth grade student at the Kenosha school, is the winner of the Gratiot township spelling bee, entitling her to continue in the national race. Betty won on the word "carpenter." Runner-up in the match was Barbara Hizenbotham.

Bradley Band to Play For Easter Dance Friday, April 10th

Will Bradley's popular, young band will appear under the sponsorship of the Municipal Employees association at the fairgrounds on Friday night, April 10. Bradley's band has made one of the fastest rises in dance band history and has been selected by critics throughout the country as one of America's great dance bands.

Led by the talented trombone-playing of his youthful leader, Will Bradley's band is a favorite among collectors of phonograph records.

The Bradley band records for Columbia Records and has waxed a long succession of hot tunes. Formed a little over two years ago, Will's band has already acquired a distinctive style that has placed this group in great demand for college dances, theatres and hotels from coast to coast.

The Detroit Municipal Employees association is sponsoring this Easter dance to raise funds for families of men in the armed forces of our country. Several added features in the way of entertainment will be presented on this gala occasion.

ROAD COMMISSION FAVORS NEW PILOT TRAINING SITE

Acquisition of a new location for another airport to serve three flying schools engaged in the civilian pilot training program was recommended Tuesday, March 17, by the Wayne county road commission in a letter to the ways and means committee of the board of Wayne county supervisors. The Wayne county airport is to be used exclusively by the United States army air corps bomber ferrying command, under the terms of a pending lease, which will force the flying schools to vacate their present quarters at the Wayne county airport, Middle Belt and Goddard roads.

The new location, nine miles north of the Wayne county airport, consists of 200 acres and includes the field and facilities of the national air services airport at Middle Belt and Plymouth roads. This property and a building suitable for offices and one smaller hangar can be leased for a total monthly rental of $250. Little drainage and leveling work would be needed to put the proposed airport in a condition to meet federal regulations, the letter stated. However, about $29,000 would be required for grading, runway surfacing and sewer pipe. Construction of a hangar to house flying school planes would require an additional $30,000.

Records show that only seven per cent of the recruits in the army air corps who have CPTP training fail to pass final army tests, compared with applicants without this training who have 40 per cent of their number fail. Federal officials have announced that the civilian pilot training program will be doubled or possibly tripled in the near future, and unless facilities are provided for these flying schools, the CPTP in Wayne county will be seriously handicapped.

Civilian activities are to be cancelled entirely at the Wayne county airport under the new lease and there is no other existing location where the schools could move. Consequently, unless some provisions are made to accommodate these schools through some airport expansion or new development, they will be without facilities to conduct their operations. More than 200 pilots have already graduated from Wayne county airport schools, and some 65 students are now taking flying instructions in the three schools.

So far in 1942 there has been expended $42,000 in operating the Wayne county airport of which has been recovered in cash $21,500, and there has accrued in rentals from the federal government $28,000 which is not payable until July 1, the letter set forth. There is now a balance of $132,000 in the airport fund, the road commissioners said.

"With curtailment of civilian activities at the Wayne county airport by reason of the new lease, estimated expenditures will be reduced to a sizeable balance which could be utilized in the construction and maintenance of the proposed small airfield," the letter continued. "Operations and maintenance personnel would be transferred from the Wayne county airport.

"It is suggested that the lease for the small airfield be for the duration of the war, plus six months, similar to the stipulation contained in the new lease for the Wayne county airport.

"The question resolves itself into one of using profits derived from the federal government for the maintenance and operation of the new airfield that would be of vital assistance in our country's military effort."

Therefore, the road commissioners recommended that the county of Wayne lease, for the purpose of providing civilian pilot training program facilities, the 200 acre parcel of land at Middle Belt and Plymouth roads, and that they be authorized to spend monies available from the present budget for conditioning and operating the new airfield and for maintaining and operating the Wayne county airport up to and not exceeding the present appropriation, the letter concluded. The letter was signed by Michael J. O'Brien, vice chairman, and John F. Briening, commissioner of the Wayne county road commission.

New Library Book Interprets History Of Baha'i Faith

The Baha'i group of Grosse Pointe Farms have just presented a copy of "Baha'ullah and the New Era" to the Grosse Pointe Woods library. "Baha'ullah and the New Era," by Dr. J. E. Esselmont, is a thorough exposition of the Baha'i Faith, commended to students of contemporary religion. Doctor Esselmont's condensed biography of each of the three early leaders of the Faith, is followed by his elucidation of the Baha'i teachings relating to prayer, true civilization, religious unity, the way to peace and kindred subjects.

Already in its sixth edition, and translated into more than 30 languages, in 1937 this book was revised by the national assembly of the Baha'is of the United States and Canada with a view to including the later literature of the Faith as selected from the treatises of Shoghi Effendi, its present authorized interpreter and guardian. In its present amplified version the book is approved and recommended exposition of the Baha'i Faith.

"Baha'ullah and the New Era" is also available at the Pierce public library.

Music Appreciation Lecture Course

Lectures on the history and appreciation of modern music, given under the auspices of the adult education division of the Grosse Pointe public schools, will begin on Tuesday, March 31, at 8 p.m.

Arthur Gnaul, who will give the lectures, announces that they will deal with Russian music from Glinka to the present day; and with west European and American music from Debussy on. The course offers an opportunity for anyone to clarify his ideas about the many interesting trends in modern music. The series consists of 12 lectures of two hours each. The fee for the term is $3.00. The classes will be held in the music room of the Pierce junior high school, Kercheval at Nottingham.

A number of the staff members of the school are taking course work and carrying on profitable activities besides their school work. Ruth Kempes is taking a course in the history of the English language. Blanche Clark is studying economics and the war. Anita Howarth and Olive Selke are both studying recreational leadership at Wayne. Virginia McKinnon and Marion Norris are taking University of Michigan Extension classes, the first of a series of lessons in book reviews and the latter work in French. Albert A. Cerre, Pioneer Printer Passed Away Friday

Albert A. Cerre, vice-president of Cerre, Inc., and one of the pioneers of the rotogravure printing industry, died Friday in St. Mary's hospital after a month's illness.

He was 52 years old and lived at 291 Moran, Grosse Pointe Farms.

One of the outstanding figures in the printing industry, Mr. Cerre gained his first experience as a photo engraver in Toronto, his birthplace. Later he worked for the New York Times when the paper was experimenting in the rotogravure field.

When he came to Detroit he worked for the old Curtis Co. before entering partnership with E. D. Stair, former publisher of the Detroit Free Press, in the operation of the Free Press Photogravure Co. in 1922. In May, 1938, the name of the company was changed to Cerre, Inc.

Besides printing the rotogravure supplements of the Free Press and News, the company, under Mr. Cerre's direction has been responsible for the printing of Parade, the national picture weekly, which appears in the Sunday edition of the Free Press.

Four years ago he suffered a stroke of apoplexy from which he never fully recovered. At the time of his death he was on leave of absence from the company.

Surviving are his wife, Amy; daughter, Mrs. Charles E. Hubbard; and son, Albert A. Cerre, Jr.

Services were held at 9:30 a.m. Monday in St. Paul's Catholic church on Lakeshore.

Birthday Party Twenty classmates of Betty Jo Faulk were entertained at a luncheon at the Hawthorne House Saturday in honor of her 14th birthday. Surrealism Forms Motif for Party

Its annual dinner de tete was held by the French club of Grosse Pointe high school last Thursday at the home of Joyce Schumann, 11A.

All the guests were requested to create their own headdresses and wear them to the dinner. A prize was awarded to Edith Walthier, 11A, the inventor of the wierdest, most artistic creation. Edith wore an Indian headdress adorned with horns, bones and a dead horned toad.

The dinner was a potluck affair and the center of the table was graced with raw vegetables. Decorations consisted mainly of surrealist paintings and ornaments.

Mrs. Robert Carson Martin, of Lincoln road, who has been visiting relatives in Erie, Pa., is returning home after a short visit in Sea Island, Ga.

Technique of Small Cameras Feature Talk

Frank Minninger will address the Grosse Pointe Camera club at its monthly meeting Tuesday evening, April 7. His subject will be "Problems and Technique of Small Cameras."

Minninger has been very successful in his miniature work and is well known for the various salon hangings of his work some of which he will use to illustrate his lecture. Interest in the work of the Camera club has rapidly been increasing and because of its educational features, has had a very responsive reception from its members.

The vacancies created in the membership by the demands of the war on some of the members are gradually being filled. Doctor Marinus, president of the club, announces that those who are interested in applying for one of the memberships should do so at once in order to be sure that the vacancies have not all been taken.

"Look at That Waitress Crossing Herself!"

"Some lightning!" remarked Jim from across the table in the golf club grill. "And look, will you, at that waitress crossing herself. I suppose that weird sign will keep her from being struck - poor superstitious creature."

"That weird sign," I answered, "has a history. Let's forget the waitress for a moment and go back 1900 years to a sunny day in Rome. Look carefully at that old Jew standing by the side of the Appian Way. Isn't he too making that same weird sign? Yes, but a bit more secretive - just on his forehead or breast. Romans, Romans passing by - some spitting at the 'old Jew, others jeering at his superstitious sign. But here! - one Roman has stopped. He is stepping toward the Jew. Ha! - he too is making the weird sign - the Sign of the Cross, by which one Christian knew another and so could, with less danger, communicate about Masses, or other important events."

"When Rome became Christian, no longer was there need of secrecy; but always there has been, and always there will be, need of faith in the Cross of Calvary on which the God-man died for you and for me. And so the Sign of the Cross has lived down through the ages - the same sign except that it is now made conspicuously with the fingers of the right hand which outline the cross from the forehead to the chest and from the left shoulder to the right. As this sign of Faith is made, the following words are spoken: 'In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost,' an act of Faith also in the great mystery of the Blessed Trinity.

"All over the world Catholics begin and end their prayers with the Sign of the Cross, which we call 'blessing ourselves,' because so beautiful an act of faith brings down Heaven's Blessings upon us. In the Mass, in the administering of the Sacraments and in most all prayers and ceremonies, the Sign of the Cross is made many times. And we Catholics, are proud of it because it is like many of our time-hallowed customs, symbols and ceremonies, pregnant with meaning, devotion and humble faith.

"So let the little waitress bless herself whenever the lightning flashes; for remember that an all-hearing God must hear her plea and that all-powerful God can stop a storm today on a golf course just as readily as He stopped a storm another day on the sea of Galilee."

Please feel free to write us for anything else you'd like to know about Catholic beliefs and practice. Address: Catholic Information Society of St. Paul's Church, Mary Leasure, 328 Rivard, Grosse Pointe, Mich.

Pointe Library Granted $470.00 In State Aid

The Grosse Pointe public library received a check for $468.90 this week from the state board for libraries, according to Miss Florence H. Severs, librarian. This is a partial payment on the general library grant for which this library has qualified according to the requirements set up in the state aid to public libraries law.

An appropriation of $250,000 for 1941-1942 has been set apart by the legislature to add to the public library service given by local communities. The largest division of the fund is for public libraries which meet certain conditions, the most important of which is that the local governmental unit must have appropriated during its last fiscal year preceding July 1, 1941, an amount equal to or more than the average of the last three fiscal years.

The state aid law allows the grants to be used for salaries, books, longer hours of service and for equipment or supplies. In the terms of the law, "Any and all benefits provided under the provisions of this act and paid to any public library, may be used for any expenditure, except the purchase of sites or buildings, the erection of buildings or additions to buildings, the remodeling of buildings and the payment of principal or interest charges on any indebtedness."

FAILS TO STOP FOR INTERSECTION

The driver of the coupe was taken to Grosse Pointe hospital into the side of his car. The accident occurred Friday afternoon at Maryland and St. Paul avenues. William Webb, 1965 Lakemont, told W. Delaney, 1962 Coplin, failed to stop for the intersection and ran into the side of the car. At the hospital Webb was treated for shock, laceration of the forehead and an abrasion on his left leg. Delaney was given a ticket for "failure to stop for a stop street" and ordered to appear in court April 8. The automobile is owned by Mrs. Joseph Beer, 945 Beaconsfield.

in Red Cross uniform, who helps you fill out a form with your name and address and a few routine questions.
"Then you go on to a nurse who takes your medical history, takes your blood pressure, pulse and temperature, for further assurance that you can give a pint of blood without any ill effect. Now the nurse gives you a glass of orange juice and then leads you over to a cot and rolls up your sleeve."
"Meanwhile the nurse has rubbed off with alcohol, a spot near your elbow and here comes the doctor. His reassuring smile puts you at ease and you feel a pinprick when he injects a little novocaine. As a matter of fact, that little pinprick is all that you will feel during the whole procedure. So while you are lying there for a few minutes perhaps you would be interested to know that within 12 hours, the donation of blood that you and these other people are making now, will be in a laboratory where a marvelous process carefully controlled at every point by skilled technicians, transforms your blood into a dry yellowish powder, sealed in a flask. That is dried plasma.
"With each unit is packed another sealed flask containing distilled water. In the process the blood corpuscles have been removed so there is no need to match the plasma to the blood type of the victim. No matter where the need, this life-saving product is ready for immediate use even in the confusion of battle. Perhaps it is in the sick bay of one of the navy's "battle wagons," or in an army field hospital close behind some battle line. All the doctor does is dissolve the plasma in the distilled water packed with it and goes right ahead with the transfusion. Your gift of your own blood has saved a life when the margin was a matter of minutes.
"Now it is time for you to get up and have some coffee and refreshments, which the Red Cross ladies are ready to serve.
"Here you are, ready to go on about your business and it was only about 45 minutes ago that you came in. You have made your own personal contribution to liberty's life stream. Proud to be a donor? You bet you are. So too will be your wife or husband, or any of your friends between 21 and 60, who come down here after you tell them how easy it really is.
"You had better tip them off to avoid any undue delay in the reception room by telephoning the donor center ahead for an appointment. There are hundreds of people in Grosse Pointe who want to do what you have just done so it is a good idea to call the American Red Cross at 337 Fisher road and be sure you're on the donor's schedule when the Red Cross mobile unit arrives in Grosse Pointe on April 21. Call TU. 2-7980 now for your appointment.

Mrs. Helen Williams Speaker at Richard School PTA Meeting
The PTA of Richard school held a very successful meeting on Tuesday of last week. People numbering 275 heard an interesting discussion conducted by Mrs. Helen Williams, psychologist from Rochester. She first spoke on various phases of child psychology and the parents' part in successfully helping their children through the present day crisis.
A motion picture on "How to Handle Incendiary Bombs" was shown at that start of the evening.
The group was served coffee, cakes and cookies from a most attractive table in the playground. The mothers on the committee responsible for the informal luncheon were: Mesdames Robert Patterson, Kent Zimmerman, B. G. Rich, Frederick Dickley and William Brown, chairman.

Alger Post, VFW N-E-W-S
By NORVIN WYATT
It is time alone that moves along slowly, unerringly on its march toward a distant and definite end. Meanwhile this old world, and we who grace it with our presence, continue to travel at a crazy pace around in a circle that never ends—but certainly keeps us dizzy. One generation comes, lingers for a while and passes on. But, before that passing, it looks back to see its successor already entering into the same old groove. Only the names are changed.
Take these victory gardens, for instance, that are taking form in the Grosse Pointe area, the children who are filling their defense stamp booklets and looking forward to buying bonds in World War two. It is but a return to a certain point in the enduring circle and no one seems to know for what or why or whom. Faith just guides us on. At least that is the way it seems to John Follin of 35 Beverly road, Grosse Pointe Farms.
Mr. Follin was a boy of nine in the fourth grade of the old Kirby school during World War one. Like the rest of the kids in his room, he entered into the spirit of planting a thrift garden, as they called them then. And he is justified in the pride with which he treasures the crumpled certificate. It was a reward to him for having the best vegetable garden in the children's group — first prize for a job well done. His garden was located near the site of the old Neighborhood club on Oak street, where the Cottage hospital now stands. The two thrift stamps may have been included as an incentive to go on and obtain a war savings certificate, a reminder that children then should pass over their needed pennies even as children now are filling identical, although slightly altered booklets, for the same eventual cause.
But, nevertheless, the booklet was given as a reward to a boy who had given his mite to a nation at war. It is interesting in the comparison of the slogans it contains, the way things were done then and as they are doing them now. Certainly it was a gift that is fraught with memories at present as Mr. Follin, who has spent his 29 years in Grosse Pointe, sees new plots being cleared and seeds being planted again — almost on the same ground he worked, for the same reason, 25 years ago. It recalls his childhood in the Kirby school, his teacher, Miss McDevet, and the Mr. Campbell who had charge of the gardens and gave him the prize. It reminds Mr. Follin of other things.
"I think it would be a good thing," he says, "if children now would take up the working of these new victory gardens. It would give them something to do other than their chasing around. It might bring them a basic realization of what life and the world is actually like. People don't live off of a grocer's shelves. All of the best things come from the soil."
Mr. Follin should know. He has been a gardener for the years following his early start. He is the son of Charles Follin, who has won his own acclaim for his work in the district. John is married and has a daughter, Joan, who is in the sixth grade of Gabriel Richard. He is also registered and in class three of the present draft. And, outside of his gardening efforts, John's most pleasant memory of the first World War was an event that occurred on Armistice day. He and his school chums rushed over to the Kirby school bent on adding their share to the din. However they met with disappointment. The fervor with which they combined their efforts and reached up to bring forth the first clanging peal — yanked the rope off of the bell.

Heart Throbbing Melodrama Next On Turner Stage
If you like good old-fashioned drama, strictly on the mellow side, you won't want to miss the next presentation of the Turner Players scheduled for Saturday and Sunday April 11 and 12.
"Orphan Nell" will be offered up for public approval or if you like longer titles you can have "The Tale of the Moth and the Flame."
Moth's tale or Nell, the orphan frail—it's bound to be a rip-snorting production and you'll be expected to cheer Nell on to a happy ending and hiss the villain to his just deserts.
Jean Thompson takes the ingenue lead in this heart throbbing melodrama, with Billy Armstrong taking the male lead.
Taking other roles in this chiller-thriller are Florence Reid, Virginia Wagner, Hazel Martin, Al Zinner, Ed Mueller, Garnet Smith, Ralph Ewing and Loren Wagner.
Tickets are obtainable at Reid's Beauty Salon, 14113 Mack avenue, near Bedford.

Perplexed drivers are reminded that Lido Beach is located on East Jefferson just north of Nine Mile road on the Lake St. Clair side.
