LIGHTEST VOTE IN 15 YEARS RETURNS INCUMBENTS TO OFFICE

Four hundred eleven voters went to the polls Monday to place the lightest vote in 15 years for officials of Grosse Pointe township. Approximately 16,000 registered voters live in the township.

While all candidates were unopposed and the election was felt in some quarters as an unnecessary expenditure of tax money, Carl Schweikart, township clerk, pointed out that the hands of the township officials are tied as far as holding the election goes.

Law requires that an election be held, whether or not the candidates are opposed or whether, even, a sufficient number of candidates has filed to fill the various positions open.

However, the number of election officials was pared to the bone, Schweikart said, with only a chairman, two inspectors and a gatekeeper being employed for each precinct.

Some saving was also effected, the clerk added, by the cancellation of a primary election this year.

That the light vote in Grosse Pointe township was not unique was also pointed out by Norbert Denk, township supervisor. In Romulus township, for example, only 129 voters went to the polls out of a registered electorate of approximately that of Grosse Pointe township. Similar returns came in from township election throughout Wayne county.

Total votes among the local candidates follow: Norbert Denk, incumbent candidate for supervisor, 378 votes; Carl Schweikart, incumbent candidate for clerk, 379; Adolph Damman, incumbent candidate for treasurer, 377; Kenneth M. Thomas, incumbent candidate for justice of the peace, 364; Edward C. Parker, incumbent candidate for the board of review, 362. Successful candidates for constable were: John W. Travis, 340 votes; Everett J. Plumb, 324; William C. Hillmer, 318; and Frank W. Defer, 35. Defer was not listed on the printed ballot. His name was written in.

Two Women, Man Suffer Minor Hurts In Auto Crashes

Two women and a man were treated for injuries resulting from two auto accidents in Grosse Pointe Park last week.

The two women were passengers in automobiles driven by their husbands. The accident occurred last Thursday evening at Charlevoix and Grayton, when William Emory, of 713 Beniteau avenue, driving north failed to stop for Charlevoix and struck the car driven by Clarence Payne, of 522 University.

Payne was driving west on Charlevoix. Both cars were badly damaged, police stated.

The two women were taken to Cottage hospital where Mrs. Emory was held suffering from fractured ribs on the right side. Mrs. Payne was released after treatment for minor leg bruises.

The other accident occurred Friday evening when Donald H. Kelley, of 1161 Wayburn avenue, fell asleep at the wheel and struck a car parked on Balfour. The car is owned by Walter Moesta, 1254 Balfour.

Kelley was treated by a physician for minor cuts and bruises. He was ordered to appear in court April 29.

On the Home Front

"Entertaining Without a Maid" is to be the topic to be discussed by Miss Jessica Meek Wednesday afternoon, April 15, at 2:30 in the high school auditorium.

Because of the war-time emergency Miss Meek has chosen to demonstrate those forms of entertaining which are particularly appropriate at the present time such as various forms of buffet meals, breakfast entertaining, and a simplified form of dinner service.

Miss Meek is head of the home advisory bureau of the J. L. Hudson company.

All women in Grosse Pointe are invited. There is no admission charge.

Tea served following the meeting to give those in attendance an opportunity to meet Miss Meek and to ask questions.

Miss Gertrude Barlow of the Detroit Visiting Nurses, will teach a class in home nursing at Defer school, Kercheval at Nottingham, starting Wednesday, April 15, one to three in the afternoon.

Dr. L. A. Kroha will teach a class in first aid at the Trombly school, 820 Beaconsfield, Wednesday afternoon, April 15, one to three.

A class in nutrition and emergency food selection to be taught by Dr. Ailene Orten, will be started shortly.

Those interested in the above classes should call Niagara 2000, extension 3, and ask for Forrest Geary.

The Victory Garden program is developing fast and help of every kind is being offered to those needing it. The splendid work of the Junior League Garden club and the Grosse Pointe Horticultural council in providing community gardens and teaching new gardeners how to make good use of them is a fine contribution to the program but there are many young people or new home owners who will be able to have a garden at their own home and it is to help these people that the Garden Center of Detroit is giving an informal meeting on Monday, April 13, at 8 p. m., at the Lewis Maize school, 740 Cadieux road.

Mrs. Horace B. Peabody, vice-president, and Mrs. George I. Bouton, director, of the Garden Center will be there to advise and help and William March, an experienced gardener with both flowers and vegetables, will be able to give valuable advice and answer questions. Everyone interested in gardening of any kind is invited to come receive help or to give it.

All meetings of the Garden Center are free and open to the public.

With The Men in Service

GREAT LAKES, ILL. — Grosse Pointe's contribution to our country's war effort was increased again when three more of her sons reported for duty at the U. S. naval training station here.

These men are now in recruit training, learning the fundamentals of naval procedure. They will soon be given aptitude tests for determining whether they will be given further specialized training in one of the navy's many service schools, or will be assigned to active duty with the fleet, or at some other naval station.

The three Grosse Pointe recruits are: Robert Douglas Johnson, 17, son of Mrs. Marva Johnson, 1364 Lakepointe; Robert James Hood, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Hood, 303 Hillcrest; and Robert Gerald Gleason, 34, 710 Notre Dame.

David R. Nagel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Nagel 402 St. Clair, has been promoted from private first class to technician with the medical corps at Camp Robinson, Ark.

Bernard MacNeil, 1882 Country Club drive, Grosse Pointe Woods is now stationed at Fort Grant, Ill. following his induction last Friday, April 3, into the army. MacNeil, who moved to the Pointe about two months ago, was inducted from a Detroit draft board.

PLEDGES SORORITY

Joyce Collins, of Westchester road, has been pledged to Gamma Phi Beta sorority at the University of Michigan where she is a freshman. Miss Collins is a graduate of the Grosse Pointe high school.

Rotary Club Observes Pan-American Day; Dignitaries to Speak

Local OCD Heads Postpone Decision On Air Raid Siren

Believing that the federal government will soon approve some one type of air raid siren as standard throughout the country, the executive board of the Grosse Pointe council of civilian defense at its last meeting tabled for 30 days the proposal to select a certain type of siren for this area.

Should any emergency arise within this time, police and fire sirens will be used to notify the people here of attack, George Elworthy, local OCD director, stated.

In addition to the police and fire sirens, the efficiency of the local air raid warden division should more than meet the needs of any emergency as far as notifying the people is concerned, Elworthy added. Under the system here, each block warden should be able to notify the residents in his block of any emergency in ample time for their protection, he said.

Earnest action is seen all along the home defense front here, Elworthy said, with John Sweeney, chairman of the division planning for the evacuation of hospitals, reporting 100 per cent organization in his unit. Instruction has been in progress for several weeks and a class of ambulance drivers is expected to be graduated in another week, Sweeney said.

Grosse Pointe Rotary club has completed its preparations for its second annual observance of Pan-American Day to be held at their regular meeting at the Whittier hotel on Monday, April 13, at 12 noon.

Gov. Murray D. Van Wagoner will deliver the address of welcome to the consular representatives of seven Pan-American countries. Consuls Adolfo G. Dominguez of Mexico; Cesar Ferrer of Cuba; Louis James Rosenberg of Panama; Jose Guerrero of Nicaragua; Jorge Vargas of Costa Rica; Saul E. Levin of Honduras; and Samuel T. Fitzpatrick of Argentina will be among the honored guests.

Hon. Jorge Vargas, consul for Costa Rica will respond to the address of welcome. Rep. Louis C. Rabaut will speak on Pan-American Solidarity.

During the specially prepared Spanish dinner the assembly will be entertained by a program of Spanish songs and dances.

One of the special features will be vocal selections by Senora Milla Dominguez, wife of the Mexican consul.

FRIENDLY SPIRIT PREVAILS OVER SEND-OFF PARTIES FOR SOLDIERS

Grosse Pointe's program to provide a friendly sendoff for the boys leaving for army service moves ahead rapidly with the executive committee meeting again tomorrow.

While plans still remain tentative, Harry Furton, clerk for Grosse Pointe Farms; William Stammann, clerk for Grosse Pointe Park; Walter Cleminson, high school principal; and William Watkins, director of music in the public schools.

Tentative plans call for co-operation between the executive unit and members of the Breakfast club who formerly feted each group of inductees before their departure for camp. It is anticipated that the Breakfast club will provide coffee and doughnuts for the boys before they leave from the Grosse Pointe Park municipal building. If possible, it is also hoped that the committee may be able to decorate the bus in which the boys leave.

The high school band will be recruited to play and community singing is expected to warm the occasion. A short speech by some community leader has also been considered as part of the program with a police escort leading the bus for a few blocks beyond the Pointe into Detroit.

Members of the group now actively planning the program include Norbert Neff, clerk of the City of Grosse Pointe, chairman; Dr. Paul Essert, superintendent of schools;

Victory Gardeners To Hold Public Rally Next Friday Night

Lowell Thomas, nationally known radio commentator, will tell Grosse Pointers all about the government's program to establish Victory Gardens to forward the defense effort at a public Victory Garden rally Friday evening, April 17, at Grosse Pointe high school, Fisher road at Grosse Pointe boulevard. The program will begin at 8 p. m.

Thomas will serve as commentator for the technicolor film "How Does Your Garden Grow" which will be presented as one feature of the evening's show.

Opening the program, V. R. DePetris will explain the work being done in the Pointe, and will describe and trace the development of the Victory Garden movement here.

Dexter Ferry, of the Ferry-Morse Seed company, is also scheduled to talk on the subject, "Planning and Maintaining the Small Vegetable Garden."

Following the program, applications from those desiring to plant Victory Gardens in the public plots here. It is hoped that applications received that night will complete the lists of available plots, garden officials said.

The program is open not only to those already planning such gardens, the officials emphasized, but it also is open to those interested in the movement but who still desire additional information about the Victory Garden program and its methods of operation.

REMEMBER

15 Years Ago This Week
Confessions of three boy burglars were expected to lead to the solving of numerous robberies of Grosse Pointe village homes, Detroit and Grosse Pointe police announced. The house lootings took place while the owners were south on Winter vacations.

10 Years Ago This Week
The Gen. Russell A. Alger post, VFW, celebrated its first anniversary with the initiation of a group known as the Col. F. M. Alger class. Jack Miner, 67-year-old naturalist and author whose wild game sanctuary at Kingsville, Ont., gave him an international reputation, was to be the guest of Grosse Pointe Park as judge of the entries in the bird house building contest among boys and girls conducted by leading citizens of the Park.

Five Years Ago This Week
Jack Semon, clerk of Grosse Pointe township, died of pneumonia after a valiant three weeks' battle for life aided by an oxygen tent. Strong opposition arose among Grosse Pointe taxpayers to the board of education's proposal to purchase additional land adjoining the high school as a site for a new junior high building. The taxpayers contended that there was plenty of room on the existing school property for the new school and that the purchase of additional land would be not only needless but a waste of taxpayers' money.

One Year Ago This Week
An alert 11-year-old Maize school pupil, "Sandy" Malcolmson, returning home for lunch, prevented a serious fire at his home, 1049 Yorkshire road, Grosse Pointe Park, at noon when he ran nearly a block to ring an alarm box. His mother, Mrs. George W. Malcolmson, and his sister, Jane, 18, were in the house at the time, but apparently were unaware of the blaze until "Sandy" arrived. Howard P. Parshall, of 534 Pemberton road, was appointed to fill the vacancy on the Grosse Pointe Park village commission, replacing Commissioner Thomas T. Petzold who resigned to take a Washington position in the national defense program.

NOTICE TO AIR WARDENS

All air raid wardens, block warden and alternates must have their photographs and fingerprints for identification cards in their local OCD office no later than April 16, it was announced by George Elworthy, local defense co-ordinator. All identification cards must be picked up at the local police departments on Saturday.

Recover Stolen Car Before Owner Discovers Loss

Patrolmen Hoyer and Dean, of the Grosse Pointe Park police department, turned in a sick performance of police work Monday night when they recovered a stolen car and arrested the youthful occupants before the owner had discovered his loss.

The patrolmen noticed the boys driving in Grosse Pointe Park and stopped to question them. When investigation disclosed that the driver, Gerald Kauffin, 15, had no operator's license and that the boys could not prove ownership of the car, they were taken to the Park police station where the theft was revealed. All four youths are residents of Detroit.

The car, owned by Louis Cerutti, of 12235 E. Canby avenue, Detroit, was parked in a vacant lot at 13108 E. Leland avenue when the boys took it "for a lark."

Kauffin was given a ticket for driving without an operator's license and all boys were turned over to juvenile authorities.

The other boys were Edwin Kates and Gordon Clark, both 15 years old, and Charles Pinner, 13.

Gardening for Defense
The April meeting of the Grosse Pointe branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association will be held at the Country club Monday, April 13, at 2:30 p. m.

Sings Native Songs

SENORA MILLA DOMINGUEZ, wife of the Mexican consul to the United States, will sing several of her native songs as a special feature of the Pan-American Day being sponsored here Monday by the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club. Representatives of various Latin-American countries will attend the luncheon at which Gov. Murray D. Van Wagoner and Rep. Louis C. Rabaut will speak.

WANTED

... respect to the sincerity of the ladies so busy with their duties, we still can't resist a chuckle from the following: George Elworthy, local defense co-ordinator. Headed "Attorney: First Aiders" the item...

... if you see me lying on the ground and (maybe) dying, let my gore run, bright and free, don't attempt to bandage me. While there's life, there's hope, so put...

... Don't apply a tourniquet, Do not give, for my salvation, Artificial respiration. Do not stretch my bones or joints. Do not press my 'pressure points.' If 'queer symptoms' you should see, Don't experiment on me. If I'm suffering from 'shock,' Take a walk around the block. If you must be busy, pray, Help to 'Keep the crowds away,' No whatever my condition, Phone at once for a physician. Let me lie — I'll take a chance, Waiting for the ambulance. From "First Aid" I beg release. Lady, Let Me Die in Peace."

... Still in the spirit of impish fun, we wish to report the signal honor bestowed this week on Norbert Neff, clerk of the City of Grosse Pointe. At the police station Monday afternoon hobbled an earnest defense worker (female). "Where," she queried anxiously, "is Neff Hall?" "Neff Hall?" asked the Sergeant at the desk, somewhat startled. "Yes," she replied, "I received a card telling me to attend a defense meeting at Neff Hall this afternoon." Silently the Sergeant waved her across the street—to the City Hall.

... Chief Air Raid Warden Clarence Blesed has encountered a new head ache. While appreciating the spirit of co-operation and hearty good will accorded his workers, Warden Blesed still wishes that the hospitality given them would run less to the social and more to the business of hand. Rumors had already reached his ears that the wardens were being received over-generously as they made their rounds of interviews during the evenings. In fact, it had been said that about three interviews per evening was the most a healthy warden could make. Things seem to be a little different other evening.

... Blessed woman. Answering Warden Blesed heard a woman's voice skillfully combining hysteria, indignation and fright. "What do you mean sending such characters around here," she demanded. "There's a man staggering all over my front porch who says he's my air raid warden."

... Dangers of subversive activities, remote as they may seem to many, are even more plausible than those of bombs falling on the Pointe, in the opinion of Thomas V. Trombly, chief of police of the City of Grosse Pointe. With this in mind he invited Lieut. Harold Mulbar, deputy chief of detectives of the Michigan state police, to address his class of volunteer policemen this Sunday morning on the subject of "Subversive Activities." Then, realizing the importance of this subject, he invited the volunteer auxiliary policemen from the four Pointe villages to sit in on the session which begins at 9:30 a. m. Sunday on the third floor of the Maize school. The speech is not open to the public, but is for the volunteer police only.

... If ever the phrase "people's choice" were aptly applied it was applied in Grosse Pointe. The case: That of George Elworthy. The date: Dec. 7, 1941. Until that time George Elworthy had been a quiet, unassuming professional worker. For untold years he had been the public face of the Pointe, the man who had been both rushed to Elworthy. What was he going to do for home defense? (And why, said some, hadn't he done it before.) Somewhat befuddled by the unexpected onrush, Elworthy buckled in. And out of his work has emerged one of the most efficient defense organizations to be found in the state. Echoing anti-communism recognition of his over four months' efforts came this week. An article in the Detroit press reported him as the governor's choice for Grosse Pointe's defense chairman.

Orville J. Dwyer, 7848 Linwood avenue, Detroit, was sentenced to 60 days in the Detroit House of Correction by Justice Victor DeBarke in justice court last Thursday. Dwyer was arrested for being drunk and disorderly the day before in Grosse Pointe Park.

Thieves Rob Office Of Esquire Theatre

Thieves broke into and robbed the offices of the Esquire theatre, 15315 East Jefferson avenue, last Wednesday night or early Thursday morning taking away a typewriter, it was reported to Grosse Pointe Park police by Arthur Black, attorney and manager for the Chargot Theaters, Inc. The offices are located on the second floor of the building. Entrance was gained by removing the wooden strip from the door frame and slipping the lock, according to Detective Lowers. The room had been ransacked, he said, but only the typewriter was said to be missing.

Richard Mahon was elected vice-president to succeed Dr. Norman K. Bonney. Dr. R. K. O'Neil and Matthew Houghton were re-elected secretary and treasurer respectively.

Catholic Information

Let's Get Down to Dots on Science Science! Hark to the advertisements! By a "scientific" process one cigarette makes us a perfect 36 and another keeps us fixable. List to the news columns! One scientist states that there is no God, while another writes — as St. Thomas taught — "where Science ends, Faith begins."

Theories and facts are not the same. Let's remember that. Scientists are mere men — some honest, who seek only the truth — others biased, who regard not the truth if it interferes with their purposes.

The true scientist advances scientific facts only when such can be proved. The pseudo-scientist, under the prestige of a university degree changes by a wave of his hand, mere theories and guesses into "Scientific Facts," teaches them to his students and if sensational enough finds a ready market for such in certain magazines which deal in sensation, right or wrong.

Let us laugh at the "scientific" advertisements; but let us deplore and denounce the pseudo-scientist, who would cast God Almighty from the heavens without the slightest semblance of knowledge, cause or proof, and substitute for His worship a cult of self-creation, self-adoration, immorality and destruction.

The Catholic church and its relation with science is widely misunderstood, probably because it refuses to recognize theories as facts; perhaps too because it forbids its children to teach mere hypotheses as facts, until such can be proved. In truth the Catholic church is the greatest advocate and sponsor of scientific research that the world has ever known. It seeks the truth unafraid because it is well aware that both the natural and supernatural laws are God made and therefore cannot possibly disprove one another.

VICTORY GARDENS Michigan Council of Defense

By GEORGE TOMLINSON, Director, Michigan Victory Garden Program

INDOOR PLANTING

If you wish to get a jump on the weather and have vegetables two or three weeks ahead of your neighbors, now is the time for advance indoor planting of tomatoes, cabbages, cauliflower, peppers and eggplant, for later transplanting outdoors.

Any wooden box which is shallow and wide can be used as a flat bed to start seeds. Put an inch of gravel or cinders in the bottom for drainage and fill to the top with good soil. Plant seeds eight to 10 to an inch and in rows two inches apart. Set the box where the light will hit it and keep the soil damp. Inside a few days your plants will be well sprouted.

When the plants are an inch high, thin out by transplanting them to other seed boxes, spacing the plants two inches apart, to insure having good, strong roots.

Before the final transplanting to the garden outdoors, set the box itself outdoors in mild weather so that the plants can be toughened up. Each plant should then be watered, and transplanted with a ball of dirt sticking to the roots. Don't shake the dirt away from the roots. Make a hole larger than is needed to hold the roots and a little deeper than the roots grow. Then pack the soil firmly around the plant.

You'll find transplanted plants cannot stand strong sun at first, and so it's a far best to do your transplanting on cloudy days or late in the afternoon.

Where To Plant

Don't plow up your lawn for a Victory Garden if a fertile plot is not available adjacent to your home. There is an abundance of fertile soil in favorable locations in practically every community which can be used for community gardens. If you do not have any garden space on your own property, why not use the community facilities and not try to use sandy plots, or the front lawns.

Many folks try to grow gardens in a spot where grass never would grow. A vacant spot on the lawn is a grand place for a Victory Garden. But they're going to be mighty surprised when they find no turnip seeds, or radishes or whatever they

Alger Post, VFW N-E-W-S

By NORVIN WYATT
 Thank you, John S. Knight, for that page from the Editor's Note Book, your letter to Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, in last Sunday's issue of the Detroit Free Press. No more sincerely truthful statement, by a more unbiased and thoroughly informed authority, has ever been written of the organized veterans of the last World War. We of Alger Post, salute you. How could we forsake this country of ours? How could a moth forget the flame that has singed its wings? Have we forgotten to carry on with our thinking, or is it there are those who fear those thoughts. Those who are afraid to have us put them into words and deeds. We wonder — as we sit back waiting for our assignments to civilian defense — while our sons are taking a hell of a trouncing — while bureaucrats and politicians haggle among themselves instead of coming all out against our common foe. How could there be anybody foolish enough to think that we, the men who know war, would put a flag in the hand of an innocent kid — tell him to wave it and march on — that it's a picnic they're holding — down under. We believe in our country and also its government, Mr. Knight. As you state, no one else has shown a greater interest in it from 1917 until the present day. Yet, we are not so much concerned with the conservation of clipped off finger nails, burned matches and cigarette stubs as we are in how soon our soldiers are going to get what they need — how soon they will be able to return, in full measure, what they are receiving now. And you are right about those Commies, the enemy aliens, saboteurs and parlor pinks. We know they have been coddled when we want no part of them and never did. We have strived to serve the best interest of every community where we have a post. It goes out all the way, through channels, to a national headquarters and the White House steps — the VFW, the American Legion and the Disabled American Veterans. We are similar to three types of roses whose branches have entwined with each other and with different colored blossoms appearing on each one. As you say — we have made mistakes. We are not roses. But, in the final analysis, we are one united group in the picture — ever ready and willing to take up and defend the nation's cause. No. They can't blame us for what has and is occurring. We, of all others, must have the right to stand up and shout, "we told you so." We did — 20 years ago. But, somehow, Mr. Knight, we don't want to shout and you know it. All we want to do is win — to kick in with what we have to help. And, if that letter of yours could find its way into every American home, it would help. It would certainly vindicate us. It would prove the organized veterans of the last war have never stopped thinking, never let down for an hour. We are still doing our darndest to do our bit.

Pointe Students Invited to Display In National Art Show
 Grosse Pointe high school's art department has been invited to contribute to an exhibit of school art to be held in Kansas City, Mo., early in April. Several metropolitan high schools and Cranbrook have also been asked to represent this area. The exhibit is being arranged in conjunction with the meeting of the Western Art Association in that city. The association is made up of professional artists and art teachers, of the middle west. Their convention includes four days of meetings and programs featuring speakers of importance in different art fields. The exhibit will be held in Convention Hall, Kansas City. In charge is Miss Ada Bel Beckwith, director of art, at Lakewood, O., high school under Paul Rehms, former Grosse Pointe high principal. The work of more than a dozen Grosse Pointe students will be sent to this showing. A collection of the work done by Audrey Williams, 10B, since she was five years old will be among the material sent. Included will be the mural panels she made for the Pierce junior high school library last year. Also in the exhibit will be sketches by Nancy Stocking, '42, and Bob Steiger, 12A, of the workmen working on the new industrial arts building. Costume designing will be represented by some ink line drawings of original, modern costumes by Doris Roberts, '42. Costume details in wash drawings by Marilyn Smith, 11A, Barbara Hallis, 12A, and Mary Ann Willison, '42, are to be contributed.

A poster urging people to knit also done by Mary Ann Willison will be included. In it rows of little marching men simulate knitting. A chalk drawing by Bill Boydell, 11B; two charcoal heads by Ada Reed, '42; student portraits by Doris Roberts, '42; and a chalk life drawing by Mary Thompson, '42, will be part of the exhibit. The Winter '41 cover of Proem, the original scratch-board drawings of illustrations for Proem as well as the reproductions, and stenciled Christmas cards will complete the 10 large mounted boards of material from Grosse Pointe. This work will be on view for Grosse Pointers in the Alger House some time in May as part of the school art exhibit. Every Defense Bond Sale is an Axis Coffin Nail! Enough copper for 3,816 BOMBERS

The Detroit Edison Company last year

SALVAGE of critical materials—doubly important in wartime—has made possible worthwhile economies in our business for the last twenty years. In striving to furnish the best possible service at the lowest cost, we have constantly sought new methods of achieving more efficient operation. The economies we have made—through salvage and in other ways—have been passed on to our customers in the form of lower electric rates.

Aluminum is not the only metal needed in the construction of fighting planes. One type of bomber requires more than two miles of copper wire to "keep it flying." Another needs 500 pounds of copper per plane... a quarter of a ton of the metal. Last year The Detroit Edison Company's Salvage Division reclaimed 1,908,395 pounds of copper—enough for 3,816 bombers. The Company also salvaged 1,358,193 pounds of lead... and various other metals such as scrap iron, aluminum, brass, zinc, etc.

During the coming months, Detroit Edison service will undoubtedly be restricted in several ways, because so much of it will be needed by the government for the war effort. With rubber tires, cars, etc. being rationed, we are adjusting our work to meet wartime conditions. Because we have no priority rating on tires for delivery trucks or the ordinary light cars with which we do most of our business, you may be inconvenienced to a certain extent. But emergency service—storm, wires down, etc.—will be handled as promptly as ever. On other types of service where you may have to wait a little longer—we ask your patience.

WEEKLY HAPPENINGS IN GRATIOT TOWNSHIP

VOTERS GIVE SHOWDOWN BATTLE TO HOUTEKIER'S CANDIDACY

Opposition to Odilon Houtekier, incumbent candidate for the office of township supervisor persisted to the bitter end in this year's elections when 117 voters Monday wrote in the name of Eugene Piornack, defeated in the primary, in a final effort to relieve the township from the hands of its dictator chief.

Despite their efforts, however, the township is faced with the prospect of another year of the Houtekier reign, as the final returns brought the news of a total vote of 327 for Houtekier and 117 for Piornack.

Opposition was also brought to bear against Houtekier's running mate, Lloyd Lyle on the ballot for township clerk. This opposition was slight, however, when only 31 voters chose to write in the name of Alfred Claire while 328 cast their votes for Lyle.

Closest balloting was seen in the race between Herman Roek, Republican, and Frank Jones, Democrat, for the office of township treasurer, the sole office to find party opposition. Incumbent Jones was returned to the job with a vote of 261 to Roek's 201.

Ray Johnson, unopposed candidate for justice of the peace, received 351 votes, and Kenneth Woodworth, unopposed for the board of review, garnered 359.

All four candidates for constable were put in office, Russell Campbell receiving 331 votes; Howard Stone, 306; Louis Champagne, 304; and James Keeney, 278.

Less than one-third of the township's 1,365 registered voters went to the polls for the election Monday. Following are the results by precinct:

Poet's Corner

Just today I heard a story,
From a rumor it had started,
But the consequence was drastic.
Over it two lives were parted.
Someone told this little story,
Someone else just added to it.
It spread just like a forest fire
Before one hardly knew it.
Just one word became a monster,
Did they know what they were doing?
Had they thought for just one moment
Lives they were about to ruin
They would chain that idle gossip
Spike that wagging tongue down tight.
This whole world is in an uproar
'Cause somebody wasn't right.
So don't start that idle rumor
And don't spread it when you hear it.
The same thing may happen to you.
Then perhaps you couldn't bear it.
So just let this be your motto
Don't start tales that are destructive
Let the stories you are telling
To the whole world be constructive.
— ERIC E. NEWMAN

DOGS, DOGS, DOGS

Gratiot Township, the paradise for dogs and pigeons. What's to be done? The township officers have been informed, time and time again with no results. The township ordinance says "no hunting" in the township, so that's out. The next question—A dog ordinance.
Maybe the Township Board does not know that they can put a dog ordinance into effect on stray dogs and those not properly licensed or leashed. Let's get together folks and write the township board on the dog and pigeon question.

LEARN THE FACTS
All Gratiot township taxpayers who are interested in learning why Al Jones and Ed Kraft voted to give the $25 a week salary to Odilon Houtekier for his work on the water board are asked to come to the next regular meeting of the township board, Monday, April 13, at 8 p.m., at the Township Hall, Harper and Manchester. A group of aroused taxpayers are prepared to bring the whole affair out into the open.

GOOD GOVERNMENT

The annual meeting of the Gratiot township board was held last Monday night at the Kenosha School annex; but only 57 residents out of a population of 3,200 were there to set the wages of incoming officers.
Why there were not more than that is easy to see. We dare say 95 per cent of the residents didn't even hear about the annual meeting, didn't know that the people could be present to set these wages.
Well, the wages were raised, and, as it was, the vote was 30 for the raise and 27 against the raise.
Just stop to realize. Mr. and Mrs. Voter, just what this means to you.
At a recent date, Supervisor Houtekier stated that there was $5,000 in the treasury. Let's look at the balance sheet.
With this raise, voted Monday night, the township is paying $1,200 per year to the supervisor, $750 to the clerk, $750 to the treasurer, $300 to the health officer, $288 for two township elections, $10 a meeting for the justices of the peace—for a grand total of $3,308. This leaves a balance of $1,692 with which to do business.

Now, in their pre-election promises, these same officers told the voters that they were seeking office only so that they could represent the people. But who are the people? It seems to us that it was to themselves they were making promises, promises to the tune of $3,308.
But that's not all. Our same supervisor, Odilon Houtekier, was granted $1,300 a year as water manager at a recent session of that board, $1,300 a year to add to the $1,200 a year he will get as supervisor, for a very grand total of $2,500 per year. Moreover, Mr. and Mrs. Taxpayer, this is being paid for part-time work.

How many of you, Mr. and Mrs. Taxpayer, make $2,500 a year when you work full time, every day, all year long?
When Supervisor Houtekier first took office, he was willing to sit on the water board for five dollars a meeting. Later he asked for $20 a month. No it is $1,200 a year.
What work does he do to earn this salary? Visit the township hall some day. Look at the minutes of the water board meeting. See for yourselves if you think Supervisor Houtekier earns $1,200 a year for his work on the water board. You look. See if you can justify it. We can't.

Some time ago the East Park Manor Civic League wrote a letter to the water board recommending that two of the township officials now seated on the board be "removed" and two citizen water users be named to replace them. The water board, and its chairman, distained to answer this letter, a letter which came from an organization chartered by the State of Michigan and dedicated to the promotion of good government within Gratiot township.

It's time the citizens of Gratiot township realized what is going on, that they learn in time to call a halt to this system of bleeding the treasury and the inevitable raise in taxes.
Think of the constructive work which could be done to improve the township's facilities with the money which is now going into the pockets of these politicians.
Take just one example. In the East Park Manor subdivision, there are over 1,000 homes. The only fire protection is that offered by the firemen of Grosse Pointe Woods. Should a fire occur in the Woods at the same time as one broke out in this subdivision, the Woods firemen would not and could not answer the call here.

Stop to think what Mr. Houtekier's $1,300 a year as water board chairman, plus the $450 added to his

Reckless Driver To Appear April 15

The old slogan "don't drink and drive" was cited by Grosse Pointe Farms police Friday for the arrest of Rudolph R. Podulka, 3628 West Hancock avenue, Detroit. Podulka, a driver for the Checker Cab company, was arrested after he had struck a rock in front of St. Paul's church on Lakeshore road and badly damaged the front of the cab. Police, who said that apparently he had been drinking heavily, held Podulka at the station where he was later released in the custody of officials of the cab company. He was ordered to appear in court April 15 on a reckless driving charge.

vocal coach who had helped such stars as Dinah Shore, Bea Wain, Barry Wood and Nan Wynn, she got her first job with a local orchestra in a New Jersey night club and was "spotted" by Will Bradley.
Bradley went to hear her sing and offered her a contract on the spot. Although Lynn Gardner has only been with the Bradley band a few short months, her vocal style and personality is already winning praise. When she sings Cole Porter's new hit "Fresh As a Daisy," she always received enthusiastic applause. Maestro Bradley predicts a bright future for his hand-picked vocal star.

Neff to Issue Coast Guard Cards To Boat Owners

Federal regulations in effect along the waterways of the Great Lakes require possession of an identification card to be issued to the bearer after he has submitted and had approved satisfactory evidence of citizenship. These cards are issued by the United States coast guard at 3760 Jefferson avenue near Mt. Elliott. Small boat owners and operators including persons fishing from boats are required to have such cards on their person.

However, due to the need for such cards by crew members in Great Lakes vessels in shipping, the coast guard, in recent notices, stated that until further notice cards will not be issued to small craft owners; fishermen and operators of local pleasure craft. The entire attention of the staff being concentrated upon providing the proper identification cards to those requiring them in large commercial vessels.

Norbert P. Neff, city clerk, has been able, through the courtesy and co-operation of the coast guard authorities under the direction of Lieut. H. A. Meyer, captain of the port of Detroit, to arrange to have such cards issued to residents of the City of Grosse Pointe, properly qualified to possess them, at the office of the city clerk on an evening. The necessary application blanks for such cards will be issued by the city clerk or Chief Thomas Trombly upon presentation of satisfactory evidence of citizenship and other necessary qualifications such as certificate of birth, etc. No cards or the application therefor, will be issued without at least such minimum requirements having been first submitted and approved, together with two photographs of the applicant, the size of which should be 1 1/2 inches square. The applicant shall, upon submission of his application with required data and photographs, be fingerprinted by a staff member of the coast guard.

The clerk's office at 17150 Mauter avenue, will probably be open on the evening to be designated between the hours of 7:30 and 10 p.m.

ST. JAMES LUTHERAN CHURCH
St. James Lutheran church of Grosse Pointe worships every Sunday in the Pumph and Judy theatre. The morning worship is at 11 a.m. Sunday school is at 9:45 a.m. The Rev. George E. Kurz, pastor of the congregation, will conduct the service and preach the sermon. The St. James choir, under the direction of William F. Fenske, will sing Easter music. Pastor Kurz announces that at the voters' meeting next Monday, April 13, the congregation will vote into communicant membership 28 persons, raising the number of communicant members to well over 100. The total attendance at the festive services (Palm Sunday, Good Friday, and Easter) was 721, with over 200 present at each service. This splendid progress makes the future for the growing Lutheran congregation look very, very promising. Visitors are always welcome at St. James church.

AUCTION HOPES TO YIELD DAY NURSERIES NEAR DETROIT

At a final meeting of the executive committee of the "Save the Children Federation" auction committee, it was announced by the treasurer, Mrs. George Bushnell, that all bills could be paid by friends who had donated checks to underwrite the expenses and also the advertising in the catalog.

That means that all the money which is derived from the sale of the articles at the auction on April 15 and 16 at the Art Salon Galleries will go to a fund to establish day nurseries in and near Detroit. These, of course, will be under the approval of the OCD and Dr. Edna White of the Merrill Palmer school. There is even a rumor of a mobile nursery, such as those used in Great Britain in time of disaster.

This meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Benjamin O. Shepherd, the auction chairman, on Ridge road on Wednesday morning. At this time, Mrs. Hooker gave all her plans for the preview tea on Sunday, April 12, at the Art Salon galleries from 4 'til 7. This is a tea for all donors, and members of the patroness list of the SCP Detroit committee will act as official hostesses and preside at the tea table.

Among those will be Mrs. John B. Ford, Mrs. James O. Murfin, Mrs. Charles B. VanDusen, Mrs. Angus McLay, Mrs. Francis Creamer, Mrs. Charles Dean, Mrs. Philip K. Watson, and Mrs. Fred T. Murphy.

Tea Snacks on Sale
Although the actual sale hours on Wednesday and Thursday are 2 to 5:30 in the afternoon and 8 to 10:30 in the evening, the rooms will be open from noon on and Mrs. Mirt Briggs has promised an endless supply of ice cream, milk, cakes, miniature box lunches and tea snacks on sale. Mrs. Harold Beattie is in charge of the sales girls and she has planned to have them work in shifts so that there will always be service.

Those who will assist Mrs. Beattie are the Misses Nancy Bigelow, Martha Fink, Mary Decker, Geraldine Higbie and Mesdames Charles DuCharme II, Gaylord Gillis, Jr., George Monro III, Alexander Girard, Roy D. Chapin, Jr., William Laurie, Daniel Goodenough, Edgar Fink and Benson Ford.

Last Minute Committee
Mrs. Frank Coolidge will have charge of the sale of catalogs during the five days of preview and sale, and Mrs. Reepsa has thought up a wonderful last minute committee which has been working fast.

AWVS Branch Now In Grosse Pointe
Another branch of the American Women's Volunteer Services has been organized—this time in Grosse Pointe and by Mrs. Frederick S. Ford who is also assistant chairman of the Detroit unit. Mrs. Sidney Small is chairman of the Grosse Pointe branch with Mrs. Alger Sheldon and Mrs. Buel Quirk as vice-chairmen, Miss Betty Small, secretary, Mrs. VerLinden Rohde, treasurer, Mrs. Foreman Johnston, Mrs. Lawrence Peet, Miss Sara Hendrie, and Mrs. Alvan Macaulay, Jr., comprise the rest of the board.

The organization, like all other units of the AWVS throughout the country is devoting its time to enrolling and training the women of its community to fill the needs of the moment and of the future. The Grosse Pointe unit, organized less than a month ago, has already given eight 12-hour courses in civilian defense. This is a course very like the one given by the OCD to air raid wardens. At the request of the Grosse Pointe OCD the AWVS of Grosse Pointe is giving a series of lectures to the women of Grosse Pointe on home protection. This teaches the methods of extinguishing fires and the handling of gases and incendiary bombs. It is a condensed course given to acquaint the housewife with the problems that may confront her in her home. The course is strongly recommended to every woman who has the responsibilities of a home and children.

The AWVS is glad to arrange courses for special groups providing they number 30 or more. To arrange for these lectures call either the Detroit or the Grosse Pointe offices depending on where you live.

Detroit office, 409 Kales Bldg., CA. 9505. Grosse Pointe office, 15324 East Jefferson, Lenox 7133.

Further lectures and courses will be available shortly in occupational therapy, nursery school training, and communications. Enroll with the AWVS and sign up for the kind of voluntary service you are best fitted to give. There is no enrollment fee and the organization is open to any American woman, regardless of age, color, race or creed.

High School Aviation Club Is Producing Scaled Airplanes

The hardest working club in Grosse Pointe high school today is the newly organized Aviation club.

Last week the members bared the extraordinary news that they would build 60 planes for the government . . . models, of course. Now that they've already started this task, in fact, some of the members had started building Messersmitt 109's before the order from Uncle Sam came through, but to their chagrin, they discovered that specifications say models can't be built out of balsa wood. The boys have started again, however, in wood not on the priorities list.

Leon Engelhart, club sponsor, issued a call of students experienced in model plane building, in Tuesday's "Tower," and expects to augment his present assembly line with more "production experts." N. Ray Waring and Charles Peterson, shop instructors, are co-operating with their assistance.

The club has plans for about 50 different types of planes, Allied and Axis, and expects to turn out its first batch for aircraft spotters, of the civilian and armed forces within a short time.

Mr. Engelhart warned that not every one of the planes will be accepted. "The inspection is very rigid," he stated. Made of a sturdy material, the models undoubtedly will prove to be a definite and substantial help to the nation's defense training.

One of the most important topics will be the threatened shortage of dentists in civilian practice due to a constant demand for their services on the part of the Armed Forces. Gerald D. Timmons, of Chicago, Executive Secretary of the American Dental Association, will discuss the enrollment of dentists for military duty through the Procurement and Assignment Service for physicians, dentists, and veterinarians, which was recently authorized by President Roosevelt, and to which Dr. Timmons has been appointed Dentist Consultant.

Extension Series Lecture Monday Evening, April 13
Because of the recent shift in centers of economic interest from the Far East to South America, "Understanding Our Good Neighbors," the lecture to be given by Olive Deane Hornel as seventh in the U. of M. extension series on "The New Books and Plays," is of more than usual interest. Through Miss Hornel will mention books dealing with our "good neighbors" in other parts of the world, she will of course stress the new material on the nations in this hemisphere. The lecture will be given at eight o'clock, Monday evening, April 13, in the auditorium of the John G. Pierce Junior high school. The series is sponsored here by the U. of M. Alumni Club of Grosse Pointe Township.

Among the books which Miss Hornel will take up are "Broad and Alien Is the World" by Carlo Allegria, prize winning novel of a recent Latin America contest; "Lands of New World Neighbors" by Hans Christian Adamson; "The Unknown Country" by Bruce Hutchison, an excellent new book on Canada; and "Good Neighbors" by Hubert Herling.

Mrs. Barbara Wick Henry is chairman of the Woman's committee for United China Relief whose drive will be conducted from April 13 to 25. Members of her committee include Mrs. Fred T. Murphy, Mrs. Jerome Remick, Mrs. Wendell Anderson, Mrs. James Angell, Mrs. Foreman Johnston, Mrs. Charles A. Dean, Mrs. Harry Mack, Mrs. Charles Fisher, Jr., and Mrs. Andrew Hotchkiss.

Navy Provides Specialist Training For Young Men

The United States navy's goal of a ship a day means unlimited opportunities for men who enlist now...

More than 50 trades and 100 specialties, including all phases of radio and aviation, are open to men from 17 to 50, says Lieutenant Commander Miller.

Men who already have training in any specific field may obtain petty officer ratings immediately upon enlistment...

The navy recruiting station for this district is located in the Federal building in Detroit.

Auto Body Plant Makes Bomb Parts

EACH ONE of these little metal knobs above represents one incendiary bomb destined for Axis territory. These parts are incendiary bomb cases which Fisher Body is machining by the thousands.

Doing an armament job, incidentally, is nothing new for the woman at the right, Miss Bobby Coyle. In the last war she worked in the pattern department of a plant which produced Army trucks.

"Just John Doe" Isn't Enough Says Kercheval Supt. of Mails

An urgent appeal was made this week by A. J. Patrick, Superintendent of mails at the Kercheval Post Office, that Grosse Pointe residents immediately advise correspondents of their correct street and number to facilitate mail deliveries.

At the present time, an average of from fifty to one-hundred pieces of mail daily are being returned to the sender, marked "undeliverable, insufficient address."

Considerable delay in the mail service it was stated is caused by failure of correspondents to accurately place the number along with the street in addressing Grosse Pointers.

As was explained by Mr. Patrick, sorting and distribution of the mail is made at the Roosevelt Park Annex by corps of men trained only in routing the mails according to street and number—not by name.

The Kercheval Station has some eighty carrier routes, twenty-five of which serve the 25,000 odd residents of Grosse Pointe, with some 8,000 delivery stops.

Clean Health Bill Among Students at Richard School

Both the school and the home play an important part in checking these common diseases.

List of Garden Books At Public Library

This Spring will find many new gardeners who will need help. The department of agriculture has asked us to garden wisely, to avoid waste of seed and fertilizers.

Many new up-to-date garden books to help with your problems are available at the Grosse Pointe public library.

Small Space, Great Care Best for Victory Garden

A Small Garden is Never a Burden.

The secret of high yield in small gardens lies in immaculate cultivation, good feeding and constant care. Yet all this takes less work where no space is wasted, than poor care in a garden which is too large.

There is a psychological effect involved. The small garden does not make one tired to look at it when hot summer days arrive.

In this space all the fresh vegetables used by a family of five during the harvest season of four months were grown; and the labor of caring for them was not really labor; it was recreation.

The variety of food placed on the table has much to do with the quantity which the family eats. Enough different things should be grown so the menu never grows monotonous.

To Hold War Service Rally Next Sunday

Fred M. Zeder, president of the local Scout council, has announced a War Service rally for all Scout leaders of the Detroit metropolitan area at Central high school, Tuxedo and Linwood avenues, Sunday, April 12 at 3:00 p.m.

The program, held under the auspices of the Scout council's war service committee of which Carl W. Brakeman and Louis B. Hyde are chairman and co-chairman respectively, includes much information which will help Scout leaders include war service training activities in their weekly troop meetings.

Amos R. Shields, Scout executive, will present "Scouting's Part in the War Service Program of our Nation." John B. Pope, member of the council war service committee, will speak on "Using the Patrol System in This War Service Emergency."

Films to be shown include "Fighting the Fire Bomb." Demonstrations showing many war service preparedness training games and relays and the equipment needed will be shown in the gym.

In Mr. Shields' presentation he will cover information regarding some of the training courses now being planned to enable men and boys to prepare themselves for certification in the OCD Messenger Service corporation.

A Douglas Jamieson, council commissioner, will preside at the Sunday afternoon rally and visiting troops, besides putting on various demonstrations, will be responsible for the opening and closing ceremonies.

The official request for Scouting to take over the organization and training of a messenger service for the OCD came in a letter to Scout Executive Shields from Glenn C. Richards, director of civilian defense in Detroit. In his letter, Mr. Richards wrote "I wish to state that I will be very pleased to have the Boy Scouts of Metropolitan Detroit act on these assignments and at this time plans for participation as messengers should be started at once."

Hope Given Cancer Patients Who Seek Early Medical Advice

There is much hope for the cancer patient today who visits his doctor as soon as he detects a symptom of the disease, according to the Michigan department of health.

"Over 6,000 men and women die of cancer in Michigan each year, but if all the known scientific facts about cancer were put into use, from two to three thousand of these people could be saved," said Dr. H. Allen Moyer, state health commissioner.

"We know that cancer can be cured, but physicians must find it in its early stages to treat it successfully."

Fear of cancer and the belief that it is incurable keeps many away from their doctors until it is too late, Doctor Moyer stated.

Contrary to some common opinions, he said, cancer is not catching, it is not hereditary, treatment does not spread it to other parts of the body and there is no social disgrace attached to cancer.

New Yorkers panic white shells eggs but Bostonians bid first to brown ones. Actually the color of the egg has nothing to do with the age, conditions or flavor of the egg, but whites often cost more.
