Grosse Pointe Park police thought they had a real case of sabotage on their hands for a while this week when they discovered what was at first thought to be a lengthy cable embedded in the sands at the swimming beach. Of course the purpose of the possible saboteurs was somewhat obscure, but, "theirs not to reason why," they busily set about tracing it down. Some rather muddy digging disclosed that it was not a cable but a long iron rod used for reinforcing concrete. The bar was so deeply embedded in the sand that it could not all be recovered. The men dug down about two feet, cut off the pipe and covered over the end with sand.

Not even the war salvage effort is sacred to the greedy promoter. One of the latest stunts was sold to us the other night by a Grosse Pointe councilman. The incident he described happened in Inlay City at the intersection of M-53 and 21, where a gas station owner had stacked up in front of his station several tons of salvage rubber. One day recently this station owner was approached by a man who offered to buy the old bathing caps, hot water bottles, rubber boots and other items of the greatest elasticity. He offered the owner three cents a pound pointing out that the government would pay only one cent per pound. Being a patriotic American, the station owner ordered the profiteer from his premises, with a few well chosen American colloquialisms. His only regret was that he was unable to learn the license number of the man's car, which he had parked behind a bend in the road.

Grosse Pointers are taking a serious attitude toward the nation's Share-a-Ride program. This week one Grosse Pointe matron came to the offices of the clerk of the City of Grosse Pointe and registered all three of the family cars as available for ride-seekers. One member of the family committee from Ann Arbor, she said, and will be quite willing to carry passengers with him on the trip. Other Pointers are organizing Share-a-Ride clubs among the residents of their own neighborhoods or streets.

One of Grosse Pointe Farms drivers is a man of real distinction. Since he went on strike two weeks ago, he has secured another and better paying position. He writes the village committee: "I require a probationary period before the hiring is finally in effect; and he is worried after he learns more about it. Accordingly, he asked for a 90-day leave of absence while he probes more deeply into the aspects of the new job. The leave was granted."

Mindful that the two weeks which the men have brought final hardship to some of the strikers, the Farms council voted Monday night to supply advances on future pay to any employer who are in need. The strikers returned to work Tuesday morning pending the settlement of their differences with the village by a special arbitration board.

Grosse Pointe's Victory Gardens will soon be on display throughout the country. Some weeks ago the National Office of Civilian Defense decided to make a short film of the Victory Garden program which could be shown before groups all over the United States. The idea was to show all kinds of gardens, from the most modest to those of the grandest scale. So taken were the CDD officials by the work of the Victory Gardeners here that local gardens were used as the subjects for most of the film. The Garden Club of Michigan coordinated in filming the gardens, with particular assistance being given by Mesdames Roy Chapin, George Cook, Phelps Newberry, Dexter M. Ferry, Francis Crowe, and Stuart Hudson, to name a few.

Victor Teatert came all the way from Edinborough, Tex., last Saturday to see his son Andy perform in the benefit ballgame staged by the combined police and fire departments of the Farms and the City.

If anyone had any doubt that summer has officially arrived, we have absolute proof. Two groups of teen age boys were chased from the water at the Dodge estate this week.

THOMAS McNAMARAS AT HOME AFTER HONEYMOON TRIP EAST

White gladiolas, larkspur and palms decorated the altar of St. Catherine's chapel for the marriage Saturday, July 11, of Sherland Chapman Ridley, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edward Ridley, of Balfour avenue, and Thomas G. McNamara, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tyler McNamara, of Beaconsfield.

The Reverend Father Van Antwerp, pastor of St. Ambrose church, officiated at the nuptial service which was performed at high noon. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of blush satin with a princess collar of Ventian lace, which also edged the bridal train. Her veil, of bridal illusion and ostrich feathers, was the same shade as the gown. She carried a mixed bouquet of gardenias, larkspur, gladiolas and baby's breath.

For her attendants the bride chose Ruth Ison and Marie Cleary as bridesmaids and Margaret Krausman as maid of honor. They wore gowns of blue and rose silk jersey made with sweetheart neckline, full skirts and a pleated waistline. They wore tiny hats to match the gowns.

John LeBlonde served as best man, with Arthur Gagnon and Jack Bateman seating the guests.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Ridley chose a gown of aqua silk crepe and a blond satin sailor hat with gloves to match. She wore a corsage of purple orchids.

The groom's mother wore navy blue chiffon and a blue and white hat. Her corsage was fashioned of pink camellias.

Following the marriage ceremony a reception for 150 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents, after which the newlyweds left for a motor trip east.

Out-of-town guests included Miss June McNamara, of New London, Conn., aunt of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Weaver, of Los Angeles, Calif.

Mr. McNamara is a graduate of Michigan State Normal college, and the bride attended Sacred Heart convent.

Save Your TIRES For Victory

Follow These Rules of Tire Conservation — Recommended by the War Production Board:

1. Don't Speed!—Your tires will last twice as long at 40 miles an hour as at 60. Slow driving means safe driving, too.
2. Don't Jam on Your Brakes!—And don't make fast starts! Both of these scuffs off rubber and leave part of your tires on the road. That shortens your tires' wear.
3. Take Curves Slowly!—Fast turns burn rubber from tires. You and your tires will live longer if you remember to slow down on curves.
4. Look Out for Bumps!—Stones, rough roads, and ruts are tough on tires. Scuffing against the curb is just as bad. Carelessness means broken casings and blowouts. TAKE CARE!
5. Keep Tires Properly Inflated!—Check tires once a week. Old air-pressure gauges may register too high—so add 2 to 5 pounds of air above the recommended pressure.
6. Keep Brakes Equalized!—Have your brakes and brake drums checked regularly. Tires last longer if brakes are balanced and operated properly at all times.
7. Keep Wheels in Alignment!—Check your wheel alignment every six months. Misalignment causes scuffing and uneven wear.
8. Change Wheel Positions Every 5,000 Miles!—Wheel-to-wheel changes make tires wear longer. Rotate tires to equalize wear on all four wheels. Rotate spare also.
9. Repair Promptly!—Cuts, leaks, breaks, and bruises need quick first aid to prevent permanent damage. Breakage and cuts should be vulcanized if possible.
10. Check the Valves to Prevent Air Leakage!—Be sure the valve caps are always replaced. An ill-fitting or worn cap may result in serious tire and tube damage.

Lower Tax Rate Promised for Wayne County Taxpayers

Wayne county's 1942-1943 tax rate will be lower than the 1941-1942 levy of $6.55 per $1,000 of valuation. It was definitely indicated following the completion of preliminary budget hearings before the new board of county auditors. These hearings were the first ever conducted by a board in advance of budget consideration.

The fact developed when James H. Friel, secretary of the board, forwarded the report of his colleagues, County Auditors Ray Hafeli and John C. Cowan and himself as members, to the county tax allocation board.

Budget Reduced

County department head was instructed as to the absolute minimum requirements for next year's operations with adequate public services. Despite increased activities due to war preparation and requirements for increased cost of commodities, supplies and personal services, the new budget for county alone will be $315,000 less than in the present budget.

The Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority Law having been upheld by the state supreme court, Wayne county must levy one-eighth mill for share, Hafeli pointed out. Even this addition will not bring the 1942-43 rate above the present, as a preliminary rate of $5.425 per $1,000 was requested for general county purposes alone, he said.

Increase in Assessed Valuation

In his report Friel said: "In spite of the smaller estimated appreciation requirements for the 1942-43 fiscal year, it is at present indicated that the tax levy for general county purposes other than the thority will exceed that of the current fiscal year by approximately $700,000 as the result of sharply declining revenues from the collection of delinquent taxes. It is expected that this additional tax requirement will be provided at the lower rate by an approximate $200,000,000 increase in the assessed valuation of the county." This increase, Hafeli explained, is chiefly in war and ordinance plant construction.

The present budget is $23,788,000. The proposed budget is $23,584,000. Board of Review to Meet

The board will begin the annual review of estimates in August and submit these to the board of supervisors in October. The fiscal year begins Dec. 1, 1942.

"Considering the fact that local tax levies, particularly in Detroit, have been greatly increased by rising expenses, Mr. Hafeli and myself take pardonable pride in being able at this time to make the recommendation of an actual lower tax rate for next year," Friel said. "This was possible through co-operation of department heads, who pared their estimated expenses everywhere possible, at our request. And we expect to make further economies in the formal consideration of the budget."

Catholic Information I Have a Graven Image Hanging On My Wall

A plain wooden cross, a carved ivory figure, three little iron nails — on my wall, near the bed, by the window.

In the morning my opening eyes fix first on the representation of the greatest act of love that the world will ever know. At night my weary brain is last impressed by a reminder of the Redemption of mankind.

I cannot look at my crucifix without thinking, without recollecting, without realizing, I cannot help but see it several times a day.

Some there are who say I make unto myself a "graven thing" and thus commit a sin against the First Commandment; but with this I cannot agree, for the self-same text goes on to say "— nor the likeness of anything that is in Heaven above, or in the earth beneath, nor of those things that are in the waters under the earth. Thou shalt not adore them or serve them."

So if the right use of "a graven thing or a likeness of anything" is damning, then my critic's bronze Mercury, his marble Washington, his silver-framed family group, will send him to hell along with me.

"Thou shalt not adore them or serve them." Surely, these are the words that give completeness and true meaning to God's law. So says my comm. sense. So says the Catholic church. And because I do not adore or serve my crucifix, I shall with free conscience keep it hanging there on the wall.

I am grateful to my church for its wise, reasonable and infallible interpretations of God's truths. I thank it for the external helps to meditation, devotion, adoration which it offers me in so great profusion.

Would that every man had a crucifix on his wall, near the bed, by the window; for then the lover of evil could not help but love evil less, and the lover of God could not help but love God more.

There's a sound reason for everything Catholic. May we give you the reasons for other Catholic beliefs and practices? Address:

Course in Debating To Be Offered at High School in the Fall

Among the more uncommon classes included in the curriculum at Grosse Pointe high school next semester, will be a course in debating. Meeting five days a week it will give no credit. The course will be under the direction of H. Leroy Selmeier, the high school debating coach.

Besides receiving instruction in the fundamentals of various types of debating, the students will have an opportunity to participate in regular debates held between the Border Cities League schools.

All debating will be on the question of world peace after the war. This choice was based on the preferences of last year's debaters.

The opening weeks of the class will be spent in gathering information on the subject and filing the information in card boxes. When the students have collected several dozen cards, they are better equipped to speak and argue on the subject. Information is obtained from current magazines and books.

Mr. Selmeier has had a great deal of experience in debating, having coached Grosse Pointe high school teams for years.

During the year, there will be a half dozen debates before high school audiences, besides many practice debates and several tournaments. The Border Cities League debates are of the co-operative type, a representative from the school being on each side. Three schools participate in each debate so that there is a student from each of the three schools on each side. The result is that each school is both a winner and a loser. This system, comparatively new, eliminates the heart-breaks of cut-throat competition. It also presents an opportunity for the students to learn to co-operate with the debaters of the other schools since the sides meet but one hour before the debate. In this hour they must decide upon their case, the order of the speakers, and how they will attack the enemy's plan.

ST. JAMES LUTHERAN CHURCH

St. James Lutheran church of Grosse Pointe worships every Sunday in the Pumph and Lady theatre. During the Summer months there will be no change in the time of worship. The morning service will be held at the regular hour, 11 a.m. The Sunday school will continue to meet throughout the entire Summer, likewise beginning at the regular time, 9:45 a.m. Holy communion will be celebrated next Sunday. Visitors are always welcome at St. James church.

The Home Front in Michigan

There are bombs in your barn! There are guns in your garret!

That old flatiron will make two steel helmets to protect the lives of two American soldiers — your boy and your neighbor's; or it will make 30 hand grenades to halt the goose-stepping horde which would trample freedom beneath its heels.

Of course, you can't beat a flatiron into helmets but it takes scrap to make steel. If we are to keep our steel mills going full blast this Winter, we must increase the flow of scrap iron and steel by at least 6,000,000 tons.

Many counties and towns already have had special scrap collections but there still are untold tons of scrap in rural areas. One state with a strong drive collected 44,000 tons of scrap metal. A month later, the campaign was repeated — and got 40,000 tons more.

That old plow will produce 100 armor-piercing 75-mm projectiles; or a set of golf clubs will make a machine gun.

Get in the Scrap

Every home should produce 100 pounds of scrap metal. A farm should produce 500 pounds.

Thus, a community of 200 farms and 300 additional homes should provide 65 tons — and send three tanks to the fighting front.

Put Your Name on a Tank

An old auto, with an equivalent amount of pig iron, will make 16 17-mm guns, or 27 20-mm aircraft guns, or 30 50-caliber machine guns or 1 1/2 16-inch navy shells, or 3 2,000 aerial bombs.

Why doesn't the government clean out the auto graveyards, asks Tom the Doubter.

Because every day old cars are being sold to graveyards for junking. It is a continuing business and it is desirable to keep the establishments going as producers of scrap. The aim of the WPB is to keep this process moving but to speed it up so that every graveyard will scrap each

Farewell To Curb Stone Pumps

Michigan will lose its last curb stone pumps with the closing by Arthur "Bollie" Barrett of his service station at 15385 East Jefferson. "Bollie" is the oldest gas dealer in this area and has been at the same location on Jefferson for the last 15 years. He is closing his station to take a place in defense industry and to help further the country's war effort.

car it buys within 60 days.

New Bullets From Old Metal

The national salvage program was launched by the WPB on July 13. More than 12,000 state and local salvage committees, already in existence, have thrown their unified efforts into the program. The iron and steel industry contributed $1,500,000 for a national advertising campaign. Glycerine producers and associated industries are spending another $500,000 to advertise waste fats salvage. The farm implement industry will sponsor "National Scrap Harvest" for collection of scrap from the farms. Army, navy and existing government agencies will redouble their salvage efforts. WPA has organized to help with collection and transportation of scrap. State, county and city trucks will help. Members of 4-H clubs, Future Farmers, and Boy Scouts have enlisted.

College and high school students who are employed in commerce or industry during the vacation season are subject to old-age and survivors insurance under the social security act. Taxes must be paid on such employes regardless of whether they work part time or full time and regardless of their age.

Everyone is getting in the scrap. You can't afford to stay on the sidelines.

Keep 'Em Firing

5 EASY WAYS TO SAVE Electricity

when you cook on your ELECTRIC RANGE

In these days when "waste nothing" is a household rule, you can save time, effort and electricity by using your range efficiently. The 5 suggestions listed below are not new. Perhaps you already follow them. If not, they will prove worthwhile.

- (1) Use LOW heat whenever possible. You can keep your cooking cost down by finishing most of your surface cooking on low heat after foods have reached the steaming point. Once the steaming point is reached, you cannot speed up the cooking operation one bit by continued use of high heat. Reducing the heat will reduce your cooking costs, as well as conserving vitamins and minerals.
- (2) Plan more even meals. Preparing a complete meal in the oven at one time is economical. The same amount of electricity can cook meat, potatoes, vegetables and a pudding in one operation. And by using your clock control, you can forget the dinner until it is ready to serve, and devote your time to other things.
- (3) Use little water in cooking. Vegetables are far more delicious and healthful when "steam-cooked" in only half-a-cup of water. This conserves precious minerals and food values — and you don't waste electricity heating up a large quantity of water which is poured down the sink after the cooking is finished.
- (4) Make use of "stored" heat. When the cooking operation is almost finished, the heat may be turned completely OFF. The heat that remains in the unit can be used to complete the cooking operation. Take advantage of this method and the extra saving in the use of electricity.
- (5) Use the thrift cooker often. If your range has one, the thrift cooker is ideal for soups, stews, and for less tender cuts of meat. Its long, slow cooking gives excellent results, and its "deep well" construction and heavy insulation achieve economy of operation.

He was alone against nine Jap bombers

Alone and unaided, Lt. Comdr. Edward H. O'Hare saved his aircraft carrier from serious damage by shooting down five Japanese bombers and severely damaging a sixth in a single action far out over the Pacific.

Lt. Comdr. Edward H. O'Hare, who received the Congressional Medal of Honor as a result of his gallant action.

How O'Hare shot down five Jap planes in four minutes

As Told by Himself

The young naval air ace who, in his single-seater fighter plane far out over the Pacific, saved his aircraft carrier from serious damage, told this story of his exploit:

"I was alone against nine Jap bombers. They were flying fast and straight for the carrier which they had apparently been ordered to get at all costs. I got above them and prepared for the first group to pass. Quickly I dropped, pressed the trigger and I saw two of them get hit and drop out. They burst into flames and fell.

"These bombers were coming in formations of three. On the first pass I hit planes on the right after end. Then I went over the left side and started up the line. In this way I shot down five and damaged one or two of the nine bombers. My whole action took only three or four minutes. They tell me there were sometimes three falling planes in the air at once. By nighttime we had shot down 18 of 20 Jap planes seen that day.

"From what I have seen of the Japanese, I'd say that if we can meet them on anything like even terms, we can beat them.

Just give us enough trained men, enough ships and planes to approach even terms, and we'll come out on top."

Make no mistake: WINNING THIS WAR DEPENDS UPON YOU, AS WELL AS OUR FIGHTING MEN—and on the guns, tanks, planes and ships you give those privileged to do the actual fighting.

For all of us, the time has come to take the offensive—to attack. Make this your personal "Declaration of War" against the enemies who would destroy your home, your freedom:

"As we here at home contemplate our own duties, our own responsibilities, let us think and think hard of the example which is being set for us by our fighting men."

President Roosevelt, in his fireside chat April 28, 1942.

Put at least 10% of your earnings into War Bonds every pay day—starting now! War Bonds not only offer the one sure way to help equip our fighting men and guarantee America's continued freedom, but provide the safest way on earth of guaranteeing your family's financial future too.

No matter what sacrifice it may entail—be sure you make your War Bond "quota" every pay day.

Remember, that any sacrifices we make must be puny, indeed, compared to those being made by our boys on the fighting fronts.

Remember, too, that the Japs and the Nazis will not wait while you "put off" buying Bonds until your NEXT pay day. No! It's 10% invested in War Bonds now, with $4 back for every $3 when Bonds are held to maturity—or its 100% LATER—taken, not borrowed, by your Jap and Nazi masters!

Save—or slave? Bonds—or Bondage? IT ALL DEPENDS ON YOU!

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Truth" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, July 26.

The golden text (Hebrews 4:12) is: "The word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discernor of the thoughts and intents of the heart."

Among the Bible citations is this passage (Psalm 108:3, 4): "I will praise thee, O Lord, among the people: and I will sing praises unto thee among the nations. For thy mercy is great above the heavens: and thy truth reacheth unto the clouds." Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 275): "Spirit, Life, Truth, Love, combine as one. — and are the Scriptural names for God. . . No wisdom is wise but His wisdom; no truth is true, no love is lovely, no life is life but the divine; no good is, but the good God bestows."

Kelly Unopposed For Republican Nomination

Unopposed for the Republican nomination for governor of Michigan, Harry F. Kelly, secretary of state, officially entered the race when his petitions were filed on Monday, July 21. "Kelly is in an enviable position for he did not seek the nomination," said John R. Dethmers of Holland, chairman of the Republican state central committee, in commenting on the filing. "Popular choice, demanding the selection of Kelly as the Republican standard bearer, was reflected by the unprecedented action of the Republican legislative group, which tendered Kelly a sheaf of letters requesting his consent to lead the party," Dethmers continued. "His acceptance of the nomination was enthusiastically received by the county chairman over the state, and the general approval of the Republican party was further shown by the lack of opposition in the primary election, Kelly being given a clear track for the governorship."

Smith Calls Parley To Plan Campaign For U. S. Senate

Calling of a convention of about 1,000 campaign advisers was announced for the near future by Gerald L. K. Smith, candidate for the Republican nomination for the United States senate.

Smith is basing his candidacy upon a program of 14 points, covering America's war attitude and the preservation of America's individuality in the post-war world. In his campaign, Smith reiterates his compliance to the principles of his Committee of One Million, his belief in the Townsend plan and his friendship for Fr. Charles E. Coughlin. He charges that the war effort is being hampered by the greed of big business.

"JAP BOX" IDEA SPREADS
Clinton county's salvage committee, Dr. B. L. Bates, of Ovid, chairman, has hit upon an idea which promises to spread. The people of Ovid have a "Jap Box," in which folks deposit salvage material needed by the government for war production. Thus far the Ovid Community Association has a fund of $25 on hand from the sale of the scrap, which will be contributed to deicide purposes. Two "Rap-the-Jap" boxes have been installed at St. Johns. Other counties have become interested in the plan and "Jap Boxes" are being considered in many communities.

Worker Retains Same Social Security Number for Life

The same social security account number should be used by a worker on every job he holds throughout his lifetime. This statement was made today by Francis L. Pendergast, manager of the east side field office of the social security board, in cautioning migrant workers against having more than one account number. "Some workers have the mistaken impression that they need a new social security card if they move from one state to another, or if they take a new position. That is not true. The same social security card should be used for all jobs and should be shown to the employer at the time the worker is hired. The employer should copy the name and number exactly as they appear on the card, so that he may report this information when paying the old-age and survivors insurance tax."

"Workers who use more than one social security card may find their benefits deferred or even reduced when they file claims under old-age and survivors insurance. Workers who have obtained multiple account numbers should make known this fact to our field office so that all numbers except one may be cancelled. Every person applying for an account number should indicate he wants a duplicate card, if he has ever had one, and should never attempt to obtain a second account number."
The east side office of the social security board is located at 8037 Harper avenue at Van Dyke.

Fruit Pickers Still Needed to Harvest Cherry Crop in State

The U. S. employment service reported today that an adequate labor supply was secured to pick Michigan's sweet cherry crop, but that several thousand additional pickers will be needed to harvest sour cherries.

According to George W. Cross, director for Michigan, the demand for pickers will be particularly heavy this week and next. "There will be plenty of work throughout the remainder of the season for anyone who wishes to assist with the cherry harvest," Cross said. "Many of the pickers now in the orchards are local residents who are absent from their customary employment in order that the cherry crop may be saved."

Cross urged that all men, women and work-age children who are available plan to spend as much time as possible in the cherry orchards prior to Aug. 10 when the season closes. Applications may be made at any of Michigan's 52 local employment service offices. The state director cautioned prospective pickers to take along their own bedding and cooking utensils, and a tent or a trailer if possible, because of the shortage of housing facilities in the fruit belt.

Growers are paying 30 cents a 25-pound lug for picking.
The department of agriculture predicts the 1942 crop will total over 100 million pounds, of which the armed forces have contracted for more than fifty per cent. Major producing areas are: Traverse City, 35 million pounds; Benton Harbor, 21 million; Muskegon, 16 million; Manistee, four million; Holland, three million; Petoskey, one and a half million; and Port Huron, 845,000 pounds.

The demand for additional pickers is acute in the vicinity of Benton Harbor, Traverse City and Manistee.

War Information Service Offered

Ann Arbor - Pamphlets dealing with a wide variety of wartime activities on the home front are available to persons in the state of Michigan through the library extension service of the University of Michigan.
The material, which may be borrowed for periods up to four weeks, covers all aspects of civilian defense, including protection against air raids and gas, evacuation of children and first aid. In addition, information can be provided on such topics as children in wartime, consumer problems, family security, household management, civilian morale, nutrition, rationing and price control, recreation in wartime and the U. S. army.

Persons desiring to borrow material on any of these topics should make the request to the library extension service, University general library, Ann Arbor, Mich. Packages of the pamphlets will be made up to fit the individual request. Payment of the return transportation costs will be the only expense incurred by the borrower.

Providing war information is in line with the policy of the library extension service in collecting and placing at the disposal of Michigan citizens authentic and up-to-date material on practically every subject of public interest.

Auto Owners Warned Of Deadline for Tags

Car owners who are operating with first half year auto license plates, and there are 624,000 in Michigan, 178,000 in Wayne county, must renew their licenses before Aug. 31.

Harry F. Kelly, secretary of state, announces that all his offices are now issuing last half year permits, which this year as a steel conservation measure, are in form of a 10-inch metal strip, one and a half inches wide, which clamps on the bottom of the first half year plate and converts it into a full year tab. By substituting this strip for the usual full sized plate the state department has accomplished substantial savings in steel and in manufacturing costs.

This plan also eliminates the necessity of re-registering cars now bearing half year plates. In past years owners were given full sized plates and a new number. Under the new system the owner has the same tag and license number throughout the year. The 1942 plates were built to last through the war and if necessary can be converted into 1943 or 1944 plates by use of steel strips. The same half year fee as in former years is charged. Those who now do not have any plates but who wish to put their cars into commission may buy full year plates at half price and these will be good until March 1 next year.

Technical Books To Be Added to Grosse Pointe High Library

"Books about the practical arts, defense work, and social studies are being purchased this year for the Grosse Pointe high school library rather than books stressing the cultural and literary subjects," Mrs. Bernice Stoltenberg, librarian explained recently. The total number of volumes in the library is more than 8,000 this year. In addition, 52 magazines and three daily papers plus two weekly Grosse Pointe papers, are subscribed to.

Almost two hundred bound volumes of magazines can be used for reference work, together with literally thousands of pamphlets on all current subjects offering different material not found in books. Teachers utilize the 3,000 papers for bulletin board displays, particularly in history, English, language, and art classes.

Approximately 300 college catalogues of representative schools are on file for students' information. Students and citizens contribute each year to the collection of books at the library. This year 100 volumes of reference type material was donated and many issues of "Fortune" magazine, as well as a five-year file of "Life" magazine. Three hours credit is given to the 20 students who are on the library staff to help shelve, check out, and charge books.

About 200 records are on file for use in classrooms. The Orsen Wells' recordings of Shakespearean plays and poetry records that are read by the poets themselves are among the outstanding of the collection. With the funds collected from overdue books, which amounted to $200 last year, additional books and necessary materials are purchased.
