Jumping Beans, Novel Dance Routines Make Hostess Party the Gayest of Scenes

After unwinding from the "grapevine twist" and swinging into a gay "Virginia reel" about one hundred servicemen from the downtown USO and member of the Hostess Corps got into the groove for the popular conga led by Eleanor Nevins, senior hostess, which spelled the theme of the Mexican party given for the boys at the Neighborhood club Saturday night.

Mrs. Fred Munro, transportation chairman, arranged for 15 cars to take the fellows to the club where they gasped when they viewed the authentic Mexican atmosphere with colorful serapes, cacti, Indian corn and squash, strings of gourds, and gay baskets. A unique tin mask placed in the center of the stage looked on with envy as the "senors" and "senoritas" were dancing to the six-piece band and enjoying the delicious contents of a fruit punch bowl containing an immeasurable amount of refreshing beverage, home made cookies, ginger ale, potato chips and cigarettes all arranged on attractive tables adorned with an arrangement of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums, orange candles, mysterious jumping beans, and hand made tablecloths cleverly WARTIME HINTS for a lady who wants to SAVE electricity and appliances!

SAVING ELECTRICITY A cardinal rule today is this: "Use as much electricity as you need, but don't waste it." There are many practical ways of saving electricity in your home—in your cooking, lighting, the use of appliances. And not one of them involves any sacrifices in the use of your helpful electrical servants. It simply means knowing the most economical way to use them, with greatest efficiency. A few of these suggestions are listed below.

YOUR HOME LIGHTING Dust steel light—robbing you of as much as one-fourth the light you pay for. This is pure waste. Keep lamps and fixtures clean. Wipe bulbs and reflector bowls frequently. Dust shades inside and out. Use the right-size bulbs in your lamps and fixtures, and select shades with a white lining.

ELECTRIC COOKING Use the thrift cooker of your electric range often. Plan complete meals that can be cooked in the oven at one time. Finish surface cooking on "low" or stored heat whenever possible. Use flat-bottomed utensils just big enough to cover heating unit. Cook with little water, and cover utensils with a tight lid.

SMALL APPLIANCES Don't jerk cord from socket when finished using. Disconnect by grasping plug. Don't clean wires of heating element (toaster, grill, etc.) with fork or sharp tool. Never dip appliances in water. Let appliance cool before storing away. Always clean grids on waffle iron after using. Don't let electric iron overheat.

YOUR REFRIGERATOR Don't overcrowd your refrigerator. Unless the motor is hermetically sealed, have it oiled and inspected regularly. Be sure there is adequate air circulation all around the refrigerator. Defrost regularly. (Never use a knife or sharp tool for defrosting.) Clean inside of refrigerator with lukewarm water and mild soap.

YOUR ELECTRIC WASHER Drain washer and rinse tub thoroughly after each washing. Remove agitator or suction cups and rinse. Wipe dry with a soft cloth. Don't force thick, bulky objects through your wringer—or hard objects like belt buckles, etc. Release pressure on rolls when not in use, and dry wringer thoroughly. Don't overload your washer.

THE DETROIT EDISON COMPANY

AWVS Juniors to Continue Serving as Active Go-Getters

Junior members of the AWVS have been exceedingly active during the past months.

On the first Saturday in October they held a bake sale in the old D. & C. 5 and 10 cent store on Kercheval which was donated by Henri of Henri's Meats. The sale netted them $42, but this only spurred the girls on to try something bigger and as a result a barn dance was given in the same place later in the month. Thus they had $75 in their possession and have since donated the entire sum as their contribution to the War Chest.

Now that they have used this money for a worthy cause, they are already working on their next venture. This is to be a hanger tea to be held at the Neighborhood club, Saturday, Nov. 21. Each member must bring at least one coat hanger as part of her admission fee. They plan to send Christmas baskets to as many soldiers as possible with this money.

The newly elected officers are as follows:

Darline Brink, president; Laura Murphy, vice-president; Sally Hickery, secretary and Lydia Kerr, treasurer.

Warden's Emergency First Aid Course Starts Monday

Air raid wardens who have been unable to complete their training courses are being offered an opportunity to make up some of their classwork within the next few weeks.

A special 10-hour emergency course in first aid will open Monday night in room 215 of the Grosse Pointe high school and will meet each Monday night for four weeks from 8 o'clock until 10:30. This course, which is for wardens only, will be taught by Miss Leona Bundy, who instructs in first aid for the Michigan Bell Telephone company.

Richard School N-E-W-S

Throughout the United States the public schools are sponsoring American Education Week from Nov. 9 to 13. During this week the school especially invites the parents of the school children and all other interested patrons to visit the schools. Special endeavor is made at this time to review and attempt to formulate somewhat the aims and objectives of the modern American school.

At Richard school several teachers are planning programs and teas for the children and parents of their groups. A very attractive bulletin board display has been arranged under the supervision of Miss Ernestine Gocha. Here in an interesting fashion are listed some of the aims of American education accompanied by a statement of what is being done in Grosse Pointe to help attain these goals.

On Wednesday, Nov. 18, the 68-A children will present a Book Week program. After the program the children and their teachers, the Misses Ernestine Gocha and Clara Blank, will entertain their mothers at tea. On Friday, Nov. 20, the children of the third and fourth grade groups whose teachers are Mrs. Virginia McKinnon, Miss Rosalie Tomb, and Miss Elsema Nault, will give a program and a tea for their parents.

Form New High School Athletic Club

Attention high school girls! A junior GPAC has been organized and all high school girls interested in taking an active part in athletics are more than welcome.

They held their first meeting last Thursday with approximately 20 girls attending. Their officers were elected, and here they are, perhaps you know some of them: Margaret (ex. VP, treasurer) Merle Diner (12B, secretary), Hilda Mastromanni (9A, vice president) and Lucille Smith (12B, president).

They will meet on Tuesdays from 8 to 9 p.m., and on Thursdays from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Neighborhood club on Kercheval between St. Clair and New. We are just starting basketball and will be glad to see you. Won't you come and meet us?

HEAVY ARTILLERY NOW OBSOLETE, U. OF M. ENGINEER DECLARES

ANN ARBOR—Planes and tanks have made heavy artillery obsolete, according to Col. Henry W. Miller, chairman of the department of mechanism and engineering drawing at the University of Michigan.

Colonel Miller, writing in the technical journal, "Army Ordnance," declares tanks now bring the firepower of light artillery into the midst of the battlefield, while bombers deliver the explosive equivalent of heavy shells at longer ranges than any cannon could possibly be fired.

In addition to performing the function of heavy artillery more effectively, the tanks and planes also hold the advantage of direct fire, since the effect of the shells and bombs can be observed from the tanks and planes, Colonel Miller points out. And by placing a high premium on extreme mobility, the tanks and planes make it virtually impossible to conduct the type of stationary warfare on which the use of heavy artillery depends, he adds.

With the heavy guns rendered useless, Colonel Miller believes the artillery of the immediate future will consist of almost any weapon that will destroy tanks and airplanes since an army must defend itself against these or be destroyed by them. In addition, he asserts use can be found for any heavier form of artillery, up to six inches, that is so highly mobile that its transportation will not interfere with rapid movement of large army units, although he thinks even the six-inch guns will disappear within two years.

Colonel Miller declares "mobility will be the urge to the point of obsession, and rightly so; for he, who can move himself and all his equipment most rapidly, dependably, and for the greatest distances has the best chance of avoiding destruction and of being the victor. It bodes ill for the comfort of men and the problems of supply, but such is certainly the product of the revolution in artillery."

Declaring that some "lucky break" or fortunate change has come to our aid in every war we have fought, Colonel Miller says we should cease placing our faith in blind chance. "Research and development never dare stop," he declares. "A generous allotment should always be made for it. Most of the equipment in our arsenals should be scrapped every 10 years; housing for production must stand perpetually ready; obsolete war equipment should be scrapped and replaced as soon as a better variety appears. Perhaps the engineering divisions of our military departments can profitably be associated with industry in times of peace for design, development and peace-time replacement of war equipment."

If each of the 31 million U. S. families bought one less can of canned goods per week, the steel saved would meet steel requirements of 5,000 medium tanks, there would be tin for 360,000 75 mm. howitzers, rubber for 2,000 jeeps. Traveling 10 miles at 35 miles an hour takes two minutes longer than at 40, but two miles of extra tire life are saved at the slower speed.

Letters to the Editor

Nov. 9, 1942

Editor, Grosse Pointe Review, 15121 Kercheval, Grosse Pointe Park, Mich.

Dear Sir: I would like to take this occasion to express my appreciation for the courtesy accorded me by your newspaper in my campaign as a candidate for Congress in the 14th district in the last election.

The spirit of fair play and the willingness to permit candidates seeking public office to present their case through the medium of the press, is to be highly commended, because in my opinion it helps to mould progressive and constructive sentiment in communities.

I deeply appreciate the splendid vote given me by the citizens of the community in which your paper circulates, and I sincerely thank them for their support.

With kindest personal regards to the readers of your paper, I remain Sincerely Claude G. McDonald

Nov. 9, 1942

Editor, Grosse Pointe Review, 15121 Kercheval Avenue, Grosse Pointe Park, Mich.

Dear Sir: I wish to take this opportunity to thank you for the courtesy accorded me in your paper of presenting my candidacy for state senator in the first district in the recent election.

You are to be commended, in my opinion, for your fine and impartial spirit of fair play in permitting all candidates to present their case before your readers. I believe that the district where your paper circulates are fortunate in having so fair and well edited a paper.

I deeply appreciate the splendid vote given me by the citizens of the community which your paper serves, and wish to thank them for their support.

With kindest regards to the many readers of your paper, and thanking you for your consideration, I am Yours very truly, Richard A. MacRae

WITH THE MEN IN SERVICE

GREAT LAKES, Ill. — Two Grosse Pointe Park, Mich. men, James W. Robinson, Jr., 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson Robinson, 741 Middlesex boulevard, and Kenneth H. Stall, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allan H. Stall, 1125 Lakepointe, reported last week to begin training at the world's largest naval training station here. Their recruit training will consist of instruction in military drill, seamanship, and naval procedure. Soon they will be eligible for a nine-day "boot" leave, at which time they will probably be home.

Pvt. Eugene A. Reyntens of the railway engineers at Camp Claiborne, La., has been promoted to the rank of corporal.

George H. Verbrugge, 423 Lakepointe, who is stationed at the Medical Replacement Training Center at Camp Berkeley, Texas, has been promoted to the rank of corporal.

L. B. Oldham, Publisher, Grosse Pointe Review, Friday, Oct. 30, 1942

Somewhere in Australia. Greetings and Salutations: Corporal Weins sends to The Grosse Pointe Review his sincere thanks for the publishing of the excerpts from his letter written to Dave McCarron in a past issue of above named paper. The boys here read the article and their morale reached a new high. They're hoping your pleas for more letters to us "way down under" is answered in the near future.

Since last writing I have been promoted to a corporal and hope that it is just the start of "stripe throwing" in my direction.

By the time this letter (if it can be called such) reaches you the snow will no doubt be knee deep back there while here we will be resorting to desperate measures in our attempt to combat (besides the Japs) the terrific heat waves floating through the air. As you probably know, the seasons here, as well as just about everything else, are reverse from the States. One thing both places have in common though are the mosquitoes, but I believe the ones here in Australia are bigger and more fierce. Besides that they are particular as hell. Last night a buddy of mine awoke to find an enormous mosquito sitting on his chest. He was reading his "dog tag" to find out his blood type before "bitting" him. How do you like that?

I have since received a copy of your edition containing a picture of Mary Jane Mosen and Al Van Horen sitting down the aisle on their wedding day. As you know, Al is a very close friend of mine and Mary Jane is to be my future sister-in-law (I hope) providing her sister hasn't changed her mind by the time I return so their picture was very much treasured by me seeing I was unable to be present for the gala occasion. Your paper is doing a very fine public service for me in particular so in appreciation, Mr Oldham, I'll see that my bowling team isn't too hard on you in the future when the battle here is won and we resume our battles on the bowling alley. Fair enough? Ha! Ha!

Well, I guess that's about all from here for the present time so until a bit later I'll close. Just in case it's quite a bit later I'll take this time to wish you all A Very Merry Christmas and A Happy New Year. Give my regards to Bob in your next letter out that way.

Until the "Eclipse of the Rising Sun," I won't be seein' ya, "Cpl. Pete"

"Bye, now."

GRACE EVANGELICAL AND REFORMED CHURCH Kercheval at Lakepointe HUBER F. KLEMM, Minister

10 a.m. Morning worship and church school. Sermon theme, "Broken Pledges."

On Wednesday, Nov. 18, Grace church will observe the third of its current series of church family nights. Beginning with a pot luck supper at 6.30, a program of fellowship will be enjoyed. The Rev. Harvey Harsh, newly elected pastor of St. Peter's Evangelical and Reformed church, Gratiot near Eight Mile road, will speak on the subject, "What Sort of Peace Do Christians Want?"

Mason School N-E-W-S

Mason school is continuing its participation in the all-out war effort.

During the past week a study was made in several rooms of the functions of the War Chest and its many services to the United States and Allied nations. The children in many cases assumed the responsibility of earning their money. The children in B. Quincannon's room made candy and sold it. Those in B. Crockatt's room wrote stories and carried out individual projects.

A bulletin board planned by the 3B's of M. Marker's room contained a large illustration of the War Chest and figures of dolls dressed in native costumes and uniforms representing the people served.

The scrap collection brought in by the girls and boys yielded three tons.

Blueprint Reading, Shop Mechanics Offered at Mason School for Adults

A course in blueprint reading is offered by the adult education program at the Mason school every Thursday evening at 7:30 in room 200. The fee is $8.00 for 20 weeks.

Forrest Geary, director of adult education, announced that there was a possibility of a class in shop mechanics on Tuesday evenings being organized very shortly. Anyone interested in either course is advised to call Mr. Geary at Niagara 2000.

Hearings of Two Alleged Reckless Drivers Today

While attempting to turn left off McMillan into Williams on Nov. 9, a car operated by Helen Chadwick, 41, of 912 Lincoln road. City of Grosse Pointe, was struck on the left side by a car driven by Thomas Prince, 18, of 1691 Newcastle, Grosse Pointe Woods.

Both drivers were ticketed for reckless driving by Farms police and are to appear in court today.

Outboard Motor, Buffing Machine Stolen from Home

Oliver Nugent, of 852 Beaconsfield, reported that thieves broke into his home on Nov. 6.

Upon investigation an outboard motor and an electric buffing machine were missing from the basement. As yet no trace of the stolen articles has been found.

Seek Trainees for Air Course at U. of M.

ANN ARBOR—Applications for civil service appointments to receive training at the University of Michigan as aircraft inspectors for the Army Air Forces are now being received by Capt. T. B. Hunt, Central Air Corps Procurement District, 8505 West Warren avenue, Detroit.

Men or women selected for employment by the Army Air Forces will be appointed junior procurement inspector trainees at $1,440 per year while learning. Traveling expenses to and from Ann Arbor will be paid. In addition, subsistence pay of $2.50 per day during the entire period of instruction will be provided except for residents of Ann Arbor.

Failure to Stop at Intersection Causes Crash at Vernor

Failure to stop for an intersection was the cause of the collision of Gerald Mark, of 1327 Ward avenue, and John Moulton, Jr., of 369 McKinley road, Grosse Pointe Farms, on Friday, Nov. 6.

Mark was driving south on Wayburn and when he neglected to stop for Vernor highway, his car struck the vehicle operated by Moulton, who was driving west on Vernor.

Mark suffered a cut over the right eye which required two stitches, a cut on his head and a bruised right leg. He was taken to a physician for treatment.

Due to Moulton's leaving for the U. S. Marine Corps Saturday morning, Sergeant Snay of the Park police, called Justice DeBaecke, and court was held at 9 p.m., Friday. Mark plead guilty to the charge of failing to stop for a stop street and causing an accident, and was fined $50 or 10 days in the Detroit house of correction. He was put on 60 days probation to make restitution for Moulton's car and also property damage of Mr. Miller, of 1305 Wayburn. He paid the fine.

Gratiot Township Subject to Lawsuit Says Michigan Department of Health

Several weeks ago this column stated that Supervisor Odilon Houtekier received a letter from the Michigan state department of health advising the danger of having a public garbage dump improperly operated. This letter Supervisor Houtekier has kept from the people and it now becomes the duty of the Gratiot Township Taxpayers' association to publish this letter. It tends further to prove that Supervisor Houtekier with his dictatorial methods, wishes to operate the township like he would his private domain, whether it is beneficial to the citizens or not. The letter is as follows: Mr. Odilon Houtekier 20704 Kenosha Avenue Detroit, Michigan. Dear Mr. Houtekier:

"This department is in receipt of complaints relative to a dump which has been established on the north side of Vernier road, between Harper and Kelly roads in Gratiot township, and which we understand is being used as the township dump. Such dumps, unless properly controlled, invariably prove to be public as well as private nuisances, and as such, those owning and operating them are liable for damages to neighboring property in case any property owner cares to take legal action to collect for the same.

"Naturally, there must be a place at which rubbish and discarded material of all kinds can be disposed of, and provisions usually have to be made for such a service. Such a disposal place, however, should be managed by having a man in attendance at all times the dump is open so that proper control measures can be provided. Putrescible material should be separated from the unputrescible material and each should be handled in an appropriate manner. The putrescible material, such as garbage, decayed fruit, and anything which is liable to decay, should be promptly buried and not allowed to be exposed to the air for more than a few hours. The rubbish dump should be kept in a neat condition and as much of the combustible rubbish as convenient should be burned. This can be done without offense to the neighbors if the putrescible material is kept out of the fire. It should also be the practice to have an earth covering of at least six inches placed over all material dumped during the day before the men leave in the evening. Only in this way can rats and breeding of flies, vermin, and insects be prevented.

"We strongly recommend that very definite public notice be given as to the requirements for the maintenance of the dump and that someone in authority be stationed at the dump, not only to apprehend violators of any regulations which may be issued, but also to be able to cause arrest. When dumps are maintained in accordance with the above suggestions, there is not apt to be any nuisance complaints and the expense of maintaining it is not great. "As supervisor of Gratiot township, we look to you to not only look after the inhabitants' interest in the way of providing a place for their rubbish, but also in seeing that it is maintained in such condition that it is neither a nuisance or a health menace. We will appreciate hearing from you as to what steps have been taken to control this dump."

Very truly yours, Michigan Department of Health, John M. Hepler, Director, JMH:es Bureau of Engineering. East Park residents take notice: Plans are being formulated at the present time to increase the meter service charge in East Park Manor to 75c per month. The Gratiot Township Taxpayers' association suggests that the township board reduce the meter service charge in the balance of the township from $1 per month to 50 cents per month. The water department receives plenty of revenue and if the reckless squandering of money is brought to a halt it will be unnecessary to increase service charges in any part of the township. Legislators of Two Continents Meet

Hon. Louis C. Rabaut of Michigan, shown addressing the chamber of deputies of the republic of Mexico during his visit there last year.

Official relations between nations are carried out through diplomatic channels. But often important steps toward closer international relations can be achieved through the direct contact of other important public or private representatives of the countries involved. Such was the case when a delegation of United States congressmen, headed by the Hon. Louis C. Rabaut of Michigan traveled 25 thousand miles to visit 17 good neighbor republics of Latin America last year. Meeting directly with high officials, legislators and private citizens of the friendly republics, Congressman Rabaut and his fellow-congressmen were able to exchange views on important topics of hemisphere policy directly with their colleagues representing the other American republics.

In seven of the countries visited, Congressman Rabaut, as head of the United States delegation, addressed the legislative bodies by special invitation. Those countries were Argentina, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Ecuador, Mexico and Peru. Admiration for American political institutions is evidenced in the fact that most of the other American republics have modeled their constitutions along the lines of ours. Their representative bodies, usually called congresses, consist usually of a senate and a chamber of deputies, the latter corresponding to our house of representatives.

As in the United States, the congresses of our good neighbor republics have been the strongholds of democratic beliefs. Mr. Rabaut stressed this note when, in addressing the chamber of deputies in Chile, he said: "This chamber, distinguished as a forum of free speech has heard through the years the ringing voices of the champions of democracy. But it remains for the decision of this day and hour for the representatives of the congress of the United States to join with the "Letters to Lucerne" will be presented Wednesday, Friday and Saturday evenings by the Pointe Players, dramatics club of Grosse Pointe high school, Nov. 18, 20 and 21, in the high school auditorium. The play was chosen one of the ten best plays of 1942 by Burns Mantle and it is classified as a comedy-drama. The scene of the play is an American girls' school in Lucerne, Switzerland, where the students are of varied nationalities. The time is the late summer of 1939 just before the outbreak of the war. The play shows the impact of war on these girls. The cast includes nine girls and five boys and only four parts have been double cast. Selections were made by D. H. Horton and Miss Elizabeth Hill, club sponsors. Parts have been assigned to Roxanne Kupp, Carmen Johnston, Barbara Nixon, Martha McCray, Margaret Downing, Mollie Lester, Bonnie Essert, Pat Tobin, Mary Caroline Wade and Sue Essert. The male parts will be taken by Dick Collins, Jim Hamilton, Bob Hauke, Roger Shepard, John Waugaman and Mort Chambers. The Wednesday evening production will be sponsored by the Grosse Pointe high school Mothers' club.

Dominican High Students Attend Anniversary Ball

Beneath inspiring patriotic decorations and the beloved "V," Dominican high school students and their guests danced among palms to the melodies of Ray Gorrell's orchestra at the third anniversary formal ball held in the school gymnasium on Tuesday evening, Nov. 10 from 9:30 until 1:00.

Many a gasp was heard as the chaperones welcomed each couple upon arrival for the girls in their long, flowing gowns and the boys in their tuxedos made a pleasing sight indeed. Soldiers, Sailors, Marines, Canadian fliers, and members of the Navy Air Corps were present in the uniforms of their countries.

The 400 couples in attendance were presented with gold-bound ball books and were served refreshments. Jane Mellett was the general chairman and Helen Charbonneau was the co-chairman of the dance.

Chaperones for the evening were the J. E. Boyles, the L. H. Charbonneau, the A. H. Einheusers, the W. F. Meiselbachs, the W. C. Moestas, the J. Mutschalls, the H. P. Mungers, the A. M. Pardsels, the S. S. Reefs, the S. J. Walkers, and Mesdames D. Mellett and J. A. Pollachs.

pigeons to the Pigeon Service of the Signal Corps. Through these voluntary donations, an adequate number of pigeons has been made available to meet the military requirements of the present war.

It is appreciated that your commendable and patriotic gesture is motivated by an inherent and sincere desire to be of service to your country in time of need. Your donation of four racing homing pigeons to the Signal Corps is a fine exemplification of true Americanism.

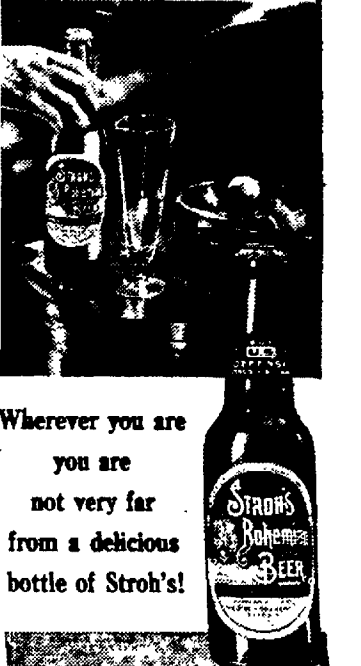

Very truly yours,
James S. Willis,
Colonel, Signal Corps.

COMMISSION

ment is asked to take brooms with them for the purpose of sweeping up any stray fragments.

The village attorney made a report on the communication received from Joseph P. Sumeracki in regard to passing a resolution on the distribution of proceeds from the State Land Sale.

It was suggested that the village work on a percentage basis, 66 2/3 of money received. The attorney said this would be a simple and entirely fair way of computing the share. He added that this would possibly give a 3% increase on the average in collections on the village back taxes.

Upon the recommendation of President Goddard, the report was adopted by the commission.

Among other matters was the referring of the further increase on the principal amount for the war damage insurance to Commissioners Johnson and Cunningham for study, and they were given the power to act.

Upon the request of village employees for pay raises, the question along with some recommendation on the wage stabilization law was passed to Commissioners Cunningham and Damman for investigation and comment.

Commissioner Van Deusen read the report of the auction sale of bicycle parts written by Chief Piel which listed the proceeds as $176.60. He suggested that the net amount be donated to the Police Benefit fund and this was supported by Commissioner Cunningham and approved.

Salvage Drive

From Nov. 19 through 25 the pupils of Pierce will concentrate their efforts toward collecting salvage. This is not to be thought of as a "drive" but rather as the opening phase of a planned effort to constantly do all that can be done to get all available salvage material to the mills where it will do the most good.

War Chest Drive

With the close of the War Chest drive on Nov. 6, Pierce could say proudly that Pierce students had gone over the top in making their contributions. Total contributions amounted to $220.32 which is an average of 26.3 cents per pupil. This is over five times as high as the per pupil average last year.

Library Club Tea

During Book Week, Nov. 15 to 18, the Library club will hold its annual tea, Wednesday, Nov. 18, at four o'clock in the library. At that time, Library club members will give talks to the guests on books. The guests will be teachers at Pierce and the mothers of Library club members. Tea and refreshments will be served. The refreshments will be made by Mrs. Anderson's and Miss Greenhoe's home economics classes.

Pierce Dramatic Evening

Pierce will hold its annual dramatic evening on Nov. 20. The play will begin at 8:15.

The 8A-9B-9A dramatics class will present "Of All Things" written by Blacksmiths. Members of the cast are Dick Phillips, Bob Halbrook, Barbara Golla, Clark Stevenson, Betty Jo Faulk, Bill Mackey and Joan Crowley.

The 8B play is "Elmer and the Lovebug." The cast consists of Doris Buser and Diane Faulk, Sandy Malcolmson, Bud Wolfe, Earl Brah, Joan Russel, Shirley Jerome and Virginia Blake.

The seventh grade play is titled "The Third Act." The principal characters are Frank Wilton and Peyton Weary.
