Spending your money for War Bonds is just like eating your cake and having it, too . . . because you get every dollar back again, with interest. War Bonds give you the pleasure of spending your money TWICE-once to help buy Victory, and later to purchase all the things you will enjoy when peace comes again to the world.

Today, your money is urgently needed on the fighting front-to arm our soldiers with the weapons they need, to provide planes and tanks and guns and ships and the thousands of other materials of war. Tomorrow, the dollars you have invested in freedom will come back to you, to be used again for your personal wants and to buy new electrical conveniences and comforts for your home. Out of this war will come a new age of electrical livingand your War Savings Bonds can be used to claim your share of it.

Pierce Junior High N-E-W-S

During the school year 1941-1942 the student government began work on the idea of a handbook for Pierce. A committee was appointed with Jack Williams as chairman. Other members were Betty Baker. Walter Gibbs, Kay Wood, Katy and Marjorie Kalbfleisch, Jim Brown and Evelyn Bell. Material was compiled for the handbook by student eporters who contacted the teachrs and department heads for inforation. This work took up the hool year.

This fall a committee resumed the work on the handbook. Jim Brown and Katy Kalbfleisch are co-chairman with Rill Mackey, Dave Sutter and Bob Cudlip assisting. Bob Cudlip designed the cover and a name contest was held. The name selected was suggested by Mr Jackon. The handbook is to be called The Pierce Primer.

The purpose of the Pierce Primer s to help new students become acquainted with the school and buildng, with the school services and chool activities, with school guidnce and the course of study.

The Pierce Primer will soon be fistributed to all students enrolled at Pierce. It contains many interesting sections and features such as a picture of the huilding and of the band, a floor plan of the school and a map of the Grosse Pointe school district, and a biography of John D.
