First Monthly Waste Paper Drive Friday

Urge All Children to Co-operate in Waste Campaign

Tomorrow (Friday) marks the first of the monthly drives which the public, private and parochial schools of Grosse Pointe are sponsoring for the salvaging and pickup of waste paper.

The children of the area are urged to carry as many newspapers, magazines and other waste paper to their respective schools as they can carry. Parents are asked to deliver any large loads to the school nearest their home. In this way, it is hoped that every home will be reached in this important drive, a drive in which no one is asked to give anything except what they otherwise would destroy through burning or discard in the rubbish container.

Neil Blondell, chairman of the Grosse Pointe and Gratiot township salvage division said recently, "when our ground forces move forward in Italy or on some Pacific island, the shells they fire arrive at the front lines protected in paper shell cases. Every one of the millions of shells that must be fired has approximately one pound of waste paper protecting it, in the shape of waterproof, moistureproof shell cases. Wouldn't you, as a resident of Grosse Pointe or Gratiot township feel elated if through your efforts the end of the war was one step nearer? You will feel this way if you take your waste paper to your nearest school tomorrow, Friday."

The Gratiot township school which is participating in this drive is Beacon school, together with all the schools in Grosse Pointe.

The following suggestions are given to facilitate the handling of paper saved. Fold newspapers flat and tie in bundles about 12 inches high. Tie magazines in bundles about 18 inches high. Fold brown wrapping paper flat and tie in bundles together with brown bags and other wrappings. Flatten out corrugated and cardboard boxes and cartons and tie in bundles about 12 inches high.

Paper in tremendous quantities is needed to operate a fighting force of nearly 10 million men — paper for bombs and shells and for food, medicines and many other products. That is why waste paper must be saved. Do your share tomorrow!

"Firsts" in 1944

The following "firsts" which took place in various parts of Grosse Pointe, greeted the new year with a few whistles and little celebration.

Celebrating Youths Detained by Police for Ringing Alarm

At 1:42 New Year's morning, the alarm at the Howard department store began ringing. Woods police dispatched to the store began to investigate the reason for the alarm and found several young people in the rear of the store.

After a short chase through the fields, two 17-year-old Detroit lads were apprehended, also their three companions, a Woods youth and two girls, eluded the officers.

After some questioning, one of the youths admitted tearing the awning and breaking the window in the rear of the store. He was drunk and disorderly and was locked up in the Shores police station for malicious destruction of property and disorderly conduct. He was released Saturday afternoon into his father's custody after the latter paid for the damage.

His captured companion was not detained.

ABEND EXPLAINS STRATEGY OF JAPS

To an enthusiastic and appreciative audience, Hallett Abend explained the stake which America has in the Pacific in a lecture at Pierce senior high school Tuesday evening. He was the third speaker in a series by Grosse Pointe Lectures.

Answering innumerable questions following his one hour lecture, Mr. Abend caused a minor explosion when he said in answering one specific question, that if we are going to court martial those commanding officers who were negligent previous to Pearl Harbor, they could court martial everyone including General Douglas MacArthur.

Abend, New York Times chief Far Eastern correspondent since 1926, briefly explained the utter disregard of things Oriental which America had for the Far East. The idea which the people of this country had regarding Japan was at least 50 years out of date for this island nation was thought to be at a standstill dating back to 1895.

The Japanese empire now extends from the north of Manchuria to islands south of the equator.

With her mainland protected from all sides by thousands of miles of islands, water and conquered lands, America cannot find a toe-hold in the Pacific to act as a springboard for the offensive in this war.

With her vast empire, Japan is in need of nothing but some copper in the line of natural resources, and with her ruling, taxing and working 405 million subjects, one-fifth of the world's population, her need of manpower is no greater. Abend said that even though the majority of her

Review's 'First Baby of '44' Arrives Early New Year's Day; Official Next Week

Exactly one hour after the turn of the New Year, a baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Dansbury at Cottage hospital with Dr. C. J. Williams in attendance. All indications point to this young man as the winner with his parents of The Grosse Pointe Review's first baby of 1944 contest.

The indicated winner was a 100 per cent Grosse Pointe affair. The baby was born in Grosse Pointe, to Grosse Pointe parents and a Grosse Pointe physician was in attendance.

In order to make sure that this birth is the first actual 1944 baby born to parents who reside in Grosse Pointe or Gratiot township, official announcement will be withheld until next week's publication, with the deadline for reporting any other births set at noon, Jan. 12, 1944.

Notice of birth, as originally announced, must be furnished to The Review by a letter from the attending physician, stipulating the exact time and place of birth. When the official winner is announced, The Review will certify the winner by a letter to the parents, which will entitle them to 18 valuable gifts for the first baby of 1944 and "his" or "her" parents.

Dr. A. J. Newman of Grosse Pointe, was the attending physician at the first birth in Detroit, when a baby girl was born at exactly midnight New Year's to Mr. and Mrs. Evelyn Kuffert, 15822 Faircrest avenue, in the Grosse Pointe hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Carpenter of Lakeland avenue, became grandparents on Jan. 2, at 1:30 a. m. when their daughter, Mrs. Patricia Anne Cushman presented her husband, Yeoman IC John P. Cushman, with a baby girl, Miss Patricia Anne, at St. Joseph Mercy hospital. The Cushman's reside on Alter road.

The grandfather is City councilman.

Toy Chemistry Set, Matches Start Fire in Farms Home

A Christmas gift and matches almost spelled havoc in the home of William Hoye at 234 Merriweather on New Year's Day. While the six-year-old son and a neighbor boy were playing with a toy chemistry set and matches, they caused a small blaze which Mr. Hoye put out with a pail of water before Farms firemen arrived.

His gun, borrowed from a neighbor, was confiscated by police and the youth was warned and released to his parents.

Pointe Flier, 'Missing in Action'; Erroneously Reported Killed

Mr. and Mrs. W. George Jeakle of 238 Fisher road, Grosse Pointe Farms, were notified on Dec. 29 by the secretary of war that their son, Lieut. William G. Jeakle, a fighter pilot, had been missing in action over New Britain since Dec. 18.

Lieutenant Jeakle, known as Glen throughout the Pointe, had been in the southwest Pacific war zone since Dec. 1, 1942, after receiving his commission on Sept. 6, 1942. He was erroneously reported killed in action.

He was cited for meritorious achievements in aerial flights in the south Pacific from March 27 to May 25 by Lieut. Gen. George C. Kenney. For this he was awarded the Air Medal. On Oct. 18, Lieutenant Jeakle shot down his first plane in a battle in which fifth air force fliers bagged 104 enemy craft. Up to Dec. 16, he wrote that he had three more Jap planes to his credit.

A graduate of U. of D. high school, he was attending the University of Detroit when he entered the air corps two days after Pearl Harbor. During his stay overseas, the lieu-

Kerby School Children Purchase Six Army Jeeps

As the result of a School-at-War jeep campaign held during December, the children of Kerby school have purchased two flying, two amphibian and two original jeeps.

The total, $12,953 used to make the purchase, was realized over and above the quota which Kerby school reached in the sale of war bonds and stamps to its children. The sale of the stamps and bonds is held every Tuesday by Mrs. Carl Lienemann who has been in attendance for the past two years.

Two Kerby gallants who have been cited by Frank Isbey, state chairman of the war bonds division, are William Heath and Miriam Baxter for the results which they have obtained in recent bond drives.

The 302 children of Kerby received a Treasury citation Monday from the war finance committee for their jeep purchases.

All municipal employees, the administrative staff of the board of education, representatives from the public, private and parochial schools, E-Bond fathers, gallants and all prospective gallants are invited to attend what promises to be a stimulating and interesting "kickoff" meeting for the retail merchants division of the local Grosse Pointe area Fourth War Loan drive committee.

11 Men to Leave for Armed Forces Today and Tomorrow

Two groups of boys are leaving Grosse Pointe for the armed forces within two days totaling 11 men. They are leaving from the Neighborhood club where the Home Front committee and the women of the Breakfast club will stage the usual sendoff activities, feting both groups this morning.

When Invasion Comes . . .

Fate stalks upon the towering cliffs of Dover, Below, channel waters seeth as breakers roar; Fog mists drift in shadowy billows, mystery veiling, Our troops invasion, sea-borne, to enemies' distant shore. Sentinel-like, fate, a vigil watch is keeping,

Clothed in grim suspense, waiting, listening, silent, stands; Clasp a scroll upon which unknown names are written, A roll call yet unspoken — held tight in icy hands. Below the cliffs, and beyond the turbulent waters, Awaits a reaper grim, whose toil is paced by fate; Impartial, his work ne'er done, grants no backward step For men who enter war's abyss upon a fateful date. The date, the day, the awesome dreaded zero hour, When reveille shall awaken men to arms away;

Across these waters — here many have gone before And fallen, ere taps had marked the close of day. May fate be kind, few be the names upon the scroll, Men and boys whose great adventure yet unfolds; To embark with death, grant their numbers great, untouched, Our invasion force to conquer and their courage holds. Pray the Reaper, in rendezvous, with our brave men, Kindly lay His hand on those whose work is done; Brave America's sons who give their lives, die believing, Their cause is just — death be kind to everyone.

When this must-be task at last is filled, Its echoing violence in distant lands upon the wave; And war's cruel march has reached the journey's end, May fate forbid our boys have died in vain. They, who gave their all, so mankind might endure, Peace in foreign lands, along the channel's shore; Their names should be enrolled upon the Dover cliffs, A world wide grateful memorial to endure for evermore. —B. J. Cotton

Farm and rural fire losses totaled 200 million dollars in the United States last year, 60 per cent of the nation's total loss. Preventing fires is definitely a part of the wartime battle on the home front.

I Am A Wac

by PFC. GLADYS A GREGORY

It will soon be a year since I left Washington, D. C., on the west-bound train for Fort Des Moines, Iowa, where I had my first experiences as a proud member of the Women's Army Corps. I had hoped so much that the Wac recruiters in Washington would send me to Daytona Beach — even bragged a little to my friends about spending the winter in Florida. But as it turned out, 82 members of our crowd went to Daytona Beach and the other 13 of us were sent to Fort Des Moines.

Our group, very much excited and not a little vague about the future, met at Union station. I cast envious glances at an attractive brunette in fur coat and orchid. Perhaps it wasn't so much the orchid as it was envy of that certain look her mother gave the Wac when they finally said "goodbye" and the proud smile on the father's face who he shook his daughter's hand. My mother and father were 1,300 miles away.

Fifteen minutes before train time, the Wac recruiting officer called out, "Follow me." That was the first order I received, and I thought to myself, "This is it. I am really in the army now." That was the beginning of a year of exciting and interesting experiences . . . a year of new friends . . . new places.

Basic training was not hard. It is true, we drilled and took physical training, got up at six and rushed through classes in military courtesy, organization of the army, etc.; did KP, shined our shoes and swept under our beds. It was a new experience and one I shall long remember. But it was not too hard.

However, my present job is hard. My job of recruiting women for the Wac. Not that I dislike my work . . . as a matter of fact I like it very much. But it has been very difficult to convince enough women that they must join the Wac . . . that they are really needed. We enlist hundreds when the army, the army air forces, alone, could use thousands. Women of Michigan, doing just your bit is not enough . . . do the most that you can . . . Join the Women's Army Corps today.

American Legion AUXILIARY

The busy holiday season is over and now we can all get down to the new year and its many busy days doing all we can towards winning the war, in our small way, and helping on the home front.

Our unit presented 13 cartons of cigarettes to the veterans at Marine hospital, through our president and rehabilitation chairman, Mary Del Barba, who assisted the district chairman with the Christmas planning. Doris Nielsen assisted in the distribution of gifts to the patients.

Our unit Wave, Virginia Vandenberg is home on delayed orders and we hope her stay here is enjoyable and hope that she enjoys her work at her new station.

Mary Del Barba's daughter is back home for the duration, Marion's husband, Lieut. William Joy, having gone overseas — we wish him a safe return.

Our membership quota has been reached and we are one over the goal so get in these new prospects. Always room for more members, as work for them to do.

Your chairman wishes to thank Mary Del Barba for filling in on Christmas Day at the depot canteen and to express appreciation for all the lovely cards and remembrances during the holidays and hopes soon to be back on the job again.

you can dance, you return there frequently. When you find an establishment in which fine food and dancing is featured, you'll say it is really a treasure and this is exactly what Sid's Cafe and Cocktail lounge, located at East Warren and Bounham.

day and Monday evenings, is enjoyed by the old and new patrons of Sid's. The entertainment is top notch, the food is glorious and the dancing

you ask? The next time try Sid's

Humphrey Bogart Stars in Powerful Drama at Shores

The powerful drama and a light comedy combine to make the bill
scheduled for the Shores theatre, Mack avenue at Nine-Mile road, one of the most entertaining for Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, Jan. 7, 8 and 9.

Humphrey Bogart and Raymond Massey co-star in the picture, "Action in the North Atlantic." Raymond Massey as the commander of one of the new Liberty ships, brings his crew through a German submarine attack, leaves the attacked convoy and goes on his own the rest of the way to Russia, their point of landing.

Bogart, as the first mate under Massey, is magnificent in his acting,
and finely portrays a man who can love, who is courageous, and who has a deep understanding of the hearts of his men.

With this picture, Henry Aldrich returns in a picture, "Henry Aldrich Swings It" starring Jimmy Lydon,
the favorite on the screen.

Two-Way Radio Is '43 High Spot for State Police

EAST LANSING, Mich. — Completion and use of the finest police radio communication system in the world was a highlight of 1943 history
for the Michigan State Police.

Completion of the improved radio communication system was possible because it linked closely with the war effort as a communication channel in civilian defense preparedness and because of its potential usefulness as a wing of the military in event of adverse war developments.

The system, known as the two-
way communication system, links posts, defense plants and the mobile units of the patrol and blockade system with the two-way communication. In reality it provides four way communication: From car to car,
from station to car, from car to station and from station to station.

The installation made possible a 30 per cent increase in service without increase in personnel. The estimate was based on the time normally lost in the past in finding telephone numbers and establishing connections with stations by officers having only one-way connection.

HOPE AND LAMOUR AT ESQUIRE

BOB HOPE and DOROTHY LAMOUR in "They Got Me Covered"

Story of English Navy Comes to Colony Screen

The immortal Noel Coward has done it again with a story which comes to the screen of the Colony theatre, 15635 Mack avenue for two days, Friday and Saturday, Jan. 7 and 8.

Coward's story, "In Which We Serve" is the story of the brave activities of the English navy. The true portrayal of the life which these boys lead is filmed to great detail with the result that this picture has been proclaimed one of the best films to be released in 1943. With this,
"Song of Texas" in which Roy Rogers sings his way into the hearts of the audience is also shown.

Bob Hope and Dorothy Lamour
star in "They've Got Me Covered" which will be shown Sunday and Monday together with "Hoosier Holiday." Hope and Lamour with their usual antics provide the laughs which set the audience rolling in the aisles and continue to be as popular on the screen as on the radio.

New Headliners Featured Currently at Club Stevadora

riety and fun.

The feats of strength of pocket-sized Little Sampson will amaze you.
He tears telephone books into quarters and at one point allows four men to stand full weight on his body! Rounding out this show is lovely little Mary Ann James who swings and sings the classics right into your appreciation.

This fun packed bill is emceed by Harry Whitney who contributes some of the side-splitting songs you've heard in a long time. The Stevadorables are on hand with catchy dance routines and the musical background for the show and dancing is in the capable hands of Maestro Hank Finney and his orchestra.

Wayne University Plans School of Agriculture

Returning war veterans and city
boys who have a desire to "go back to the farm" will be given the opportunity to study practical vocational agriculture as the result of a grant of $10,000 accepted last week
by the board of education.

The fund is the gift of Albert H.
Schmidt, Detroit business man, who has indicated that it is his intention ultimately to leave substantially his entire estate to further the project.

The new agricultural school, to be known as the Albert H. Schmidt Foundation, will be located at the farm now owned by the board of education near Novi, Mich. The project is to be developed and conducted by Wayne university.

In addition to providing educational opportunities to returning veterans and boys from 14-18 years of age, the farm school will provide a research center in the natural and physical sciences related to the development of agriculture.

Children's Group of Catholic Theatre Schedules Plays

The children's stage of the Catholic theatre is doing double duty with two shows in production. They will do repeat performances of "Peck's Bad Boy" this Sunday, Jan. 9 at the new CYO community center, Mack and Maxwell, at 2:30 and 8:30 p.m.
This presentation is to give all Detroit youngsters and adults a last chance to see this old favorite.

On Saturday, Jan. 15 and 22 the children's stage will present "Seven Little Rebels" at the Players theatre, 3321 East Jefferson avenue.
There will be two performances on each of these days — a morning performance at 10:30 and one in the afternoon at 2:30. This play is a delightfully modern comedy concerning the antics of seven children in a settlement house when a young social worker puts into practice her "modern" methods of handling children by letting them do as they please in the absence of the regular head of the settlement. At the correct psychological moment — when the house is in complete disorder —
"Miss Proudfoot, the villainess," steps in to close the house, that she may use it as an art colony. The children, however, upset her appetite by finally winning the first prize for the best settlement house
in the city.

Aloma Schedules Fine Double Bill for Friday, Saturday

The management of the Aloma
theatre, Charlevoix at Wayburn, has scheduled a fine double bill of entertainment for its patrons for Friday and Saturday, Jan. 7 and 8.

Humphrey Bogart and Raymond
Massey are co-starred in the powerful story, "Action in the North Atlantic." Here the truly great acting abilities of these two men are brought to the front through their portrayed of the men steering their Liberty ship through mine and sub-infested waters in the Atlantic ocean.
The vivid action which takes place
is a suitable background for the activity of these two.

A comedy centering on the borrowing and stealing of a good cook is the second picture on the bill. In "My Kingdom for a Cook," Charles Coburn and Marguerite Chapman
are co-starred and with the English antics of the former coupled with the American indignation of the latter, the comical story runs along at a fast and furious pace.

Lester Vellie to Be Speaker at Detroit Town Hall Jan. 14

Detroit Town Hall, at the Cass theatre, presents Lester Vellie, business editor and authority on war
economics, on Friday morning, Jan.
14 at eleven o'clock.

Mr. Vellie's listening post as the business editor of The Journal of Commerce keeps him abreast of the latest developments in government controls, in rationing, manpower and prices. Reared in the American middle west, educated at the University of Wisconsin and at N. Y. U., he has a national viewpoint on business and the impact of the war on the lives of people in all the walks of life all over America. Mr. Vellie is consulting editor of Newsweek and economic analyst for several radio companies.

Mr. Vellie's lecture "What Next in Rationing, War Controls, Taxes?" is vivid, realistic and eminently practical and permits the listener to look ahead from his expert point of view, giving valuable insight into the days ahead.

U. of M. Trains Youths Before Entering Army

Reversing the trend in most high schools, the University of Michigan has tried narrowing the field of study
for a selected group with good results.

The experiment came as a result of the war. There was a need for intensive training to prepare youths soon to be inducted for specialized work. To meet this need the basic curriculum program for 17-year-olds was set up.

In planning the program, the university and the armed forces agreed on what was needed — a sound and thorough preparation in physics, mathematics, American history, and English. The results obtained from concentrating on those subjects have been amazing. One young man before taking the course was 23rd in a West Point exam; after taking it, he was third. University officials say the course carries a pointed lesson for peace-time education and that greater concentration on fundamentals will make for better prepared citizens.

Gracie Allen's Home Alman (i)-ac

For my little chat this week, I couldn't decide whether to talk about my year proposals or home canning. Personally I am a veteran leap year proposer myself. I proposed to my husband (George 22 times one season — and trapped him only when his silk fascinators caught in a revolving door one night in Wilkes-Barre.

Now, to business. When first proposing to a prospect, I would recommend a slight opiate — such as a New England boiled dinner or a couple of plates of pig's knuckles. This induces a torpor, or state of semi-consciousness in which a man is liable to say "yes" to anything.

Don't overdo the food, however, as the familiar "Pig's Knuckle Coma," famous for its destructive effect on romance, may set in immediately after.

Every proposal made to a man should be staged with a strong sense of comedy, to give him the feeling that everything is in fun. Get him to listen to Bob Hope or Charlie McCarthy or even that cute Burns and Allen couple on the air to give him a sense of compatibility with ridiculousness.

Let him find out about the hidden witnesses and the dictograph later.

Above all, be sure and get the rest of the family out of the house before you do anything. Some of the best leap year proposals I know were scuttled because of an anxious mother breathing heavily behind the drapes or a fond father drooling on the prospect's hat.

Question:

What is wrong in this EMPTY ROOM?

Answer: The light has been left burning though the room is unoccupied. And while that isn't serious in normal times, today such thoughtlessness means a waste of coal, transportation, manpower and other critical resources. All of these things are necessary to manufacture electricity, and the Government has asked for voluntary conservation in your use of electric power.

Every time you snap an electric switch, you have an opportunity to SAVE—in your home, store or office. Electricity is not rationed and there is no shortage in this area. But conserving fuel and critical resources is vitally important today. Conserve wherever you can, as much as you can. The Detroit Edison Company.

Biography to Be Next Catholic Theatre Production

The Catholic theatre of Detroit will produce Felix Doherty's "Song Out of Sorrow" for the second play of its 1943-44 season at the Players theatre, 3321 East Jefferson near Elmwood.

Beginning Jan. 16 through Jan. 23 "Song Out of Sorrow" will play for one week with matinees on Sundays.

First produced by the Boston Blackfriars Guild and later in New York City by the same organization, "Song Out of Sorrow" won excellent critical comment and was required to extend its run several times. It is a biographical drama of the famous English poet, Francis Thompson. Deeply moving, yet lightened with human comedy, the playwright has written a thoroughly delightful play. This is the first opportunity that Detroit audiences have had to see this outstanding play as this is the first performance of "Song Out of Sorrow" west of New York City.

Visual Method to Be Used in New Adult Spanish Class

An advanced conversational Spanish class will start at Grosse Pointe high school on Tuesday evening, Jan. 11, at 7:30.

G. A. Galvan, graduate of Saint Dominic's college, Dominican Republic, will be the instructor. Mr. Galvan was a teacher of Latin American history in the Garcia commercial high school and in the Duploye Institute of Santo Domingo. He is also official secretary for the Pan-American Journalistic Congress.

As a result of his travels and many teaching experiences both in this country and Latin America, Mr. Galvan believes that the easiest way to teach a foreign language is to use many visual aids. Before you learn the theoretical meaning of a noun you are actually made to see the material object corresponding with it. In this way all component parts of grammar are smoothed in gradually until conversation is made possible by a visual as well as mental understanding of the parts of speech involved.

Reservations for this class may be made by calling the Grosse Pointe board of education, Niagara 2000, extension 25.

Workers Must Protect Rights Under Social Security Law

Every worker who earns wages in employment covered by the old-age and survivors insurance provisions of the social security act needs to protect his rights.

The social security board has found that some workers are lax in protecting their rights and need a few reminders occasionally.

In the first place, before he can go to work in covered employment, he must have a social security card. Sometimes when a worker fails to get a card, another prospective employee, with a card, steps in ahead and gets a job.

It is easy to get a card, by applying at the nearest field office or itinerant field office of the social security board.

Then when a card has been obtained, it is important to hold onto it. But if a worker loses it, a duplicate can be obtained, but this takes time and costs the government money. The board suggests that the worker keep the social security card stub in a safe place. In the event he loses his card, it will be much easier for him to obtain a duplicate if he has the stub.

The worker also has a right to check up on the wage credits in his social security account. He has a right to know if his wages are credited to him properly. He can make the checkup through the use of a form, which he can obtain at the nearest social security office or post office. He then may fill out the form and mail it back. In a few days the board will send him a statement of the wages credited to him in its records in Baltimore.

For further help, the worker may call at the Harper avenue field office of the social security board, 8037 Harper, at Van Dyke.

Almost six million gallons of gasoline and 11,500 prewar tires were saved in three months by a reduction in automobile travel by the personnel of 38 state governments in the District of Columbia, the OPA has announced. This great saving was made through the co-operation of state mileage administrators appointed to carry out the gas and tire conservation program. The reduction averaged nearly 40 per cent, IPA reported.

Nylon rope has elasticity. That is why it is used to tow gliders. The built-in shock absorbing quality also led to its adoption by mountain troops for climbing.

Brilliant Career of Local Banker Ended by Death

Funeral services were held at two o'clock Monday afternoon from the late residence, 16900 East Jefferson avenue, for Frank W. Hubbard, dean of Detroit banking circles, who passed away at the age of 80 years at his home last Thursday.

At the time of his death, Mr. Hubbard was a director of the Detroit Bank and chairman of the board of the Hubbard State bank at Bad Axe, which he founded 60 years ago. He was also board chairman of the Elkton and Kinde State banks. Starting out as a "country banker" Mr. Hubbard reached the top ranks of Detroit's financial institutions.

Before coming to Detroit 35 years ago, Mr. Hubbard organized and headed a number of other banks in the Thumb district, including banks at Sandusky, Sebawaing, Caseville and Pigeon, Mich.

He founded and was president and managing director of the Michigan Pressed Steel company here for more than 30 years. He organized the Grosse Pointe Savings bank in 1916 and was its president for 20 years.

He also was formerly a vice president and director of the Industrial Morris Plan (now Industrial National) bank, director of the Detroit Bankers' company, vice president and director of the Bankers' Trust company, vice president and director of the old Peninsular State bank, director of the Second National bank, Sandusky, Ohio, and director and manager of a lumber company at Asheville, N. C.

Democratic Delegate

He was prominent in the Democratic party in Michigan and served as a delegate to the party's national convention in St. Louis in 1888. He also was an elector for Grover Cleveland.

Mr. Hubbard and his sister, Mrs. William Lyon Phelps, who died four years ago, founded the Hubbard Memorial hospital at Bad Axe in memory of their father, Langdon Hubbard, pioneer Thumb lumberman.

Surviving are the widow, Elizabeth L.; two daughters, Mrs. Charles A. Parcels, of Grosse Pointe and Mrs. Bartow L. Heminway, of Watertown, Conn.; son, Capt. F. Langdon Hubbard, of the AAC, who is now stationed in Eire; nine grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Woods Officer Turns Tears Into Smiles for Two Small Lads

Tears were turned into smiles in a Grosse Pointe Woods home on Dec. 20 for two little boys, Jimmy and Tommy Mason, eight and four years old, sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mason, of 1354 Hawthorne road.

The reason for their tears was the fact that their pet, a doggie by the name of Skeeter, was killed by a car on Hollywood.

The two boys were playing when Skeeter scooted across the street. Jimmy, wanting to get him off the street, called him back and when the dog started to run towards the boys, it was struck by a cruising Woods scout car.

An hour later, Leroy Tobian, the officer driving the car, walked into the Mason home carrying a five weeks old toy terrier. When the boys saw this, slow smiles began to take the place of the tears. They believe that their new pet, "Butch" is taking the place of "Skipper," and by the smiles which the officer is receiving, he is beginning to believe it himself.

Old-Time Franksters Return to the Pointe

An irate Farms resident telephoned police last Thursday evening to say that his front gate had again been removed.

The complainant, residing on Fisher road, has a picket fence and gate and every few days a group of boys returning home play the old time trick of removing the gate.

When Farms police arrived, the boys had vanished but the gate was found hanging on a street sign at Ridge and Fisher roads.

Police promised more vigilance in the neighborhood in the future.

Woods Youth Unhurt After Riding Into Path of Automobile

Charles Boulte, 11 years old of 2041 Hawthorne, Grosse Pointe Woods, was uninjured after he rode his bicycle from behind a bus into the path of an oncoming car on Mack avenue last Thursday night.

The car, driven by Kenneth I. Knudson of 4707 Berkshire road, Detroit, slid to a stop and only struck the front wheel of the bicycle. After an examination revealed the boy without a mark, the driver was released.

If you store sheets and pillow cases for an indefinite period of time, put them away freshly washed, thoroughly dry, unironed and neatly folded. Wrap or fold them in a heavy dark cloth to prevent yellowing.

Third in a Series of Robberies in Park Took Place Dec. 30

The third of similar ransacked Park homes occurred again last Thursday night, when upon their return home, Mr. and Mrs. G. McAndrew, 905 Pemberton road, discovered that thieves had visited the house and carried off numerous articles.

The break-in took place between 7:30 and 10:45 p.m., and in the meantime the house got a thorough "going over."

After a checkup, approximately $450 in cash and four pieces of jewelry were taken. Entrance was gained by breaking a glass in the door.

Detective Sergt. Arthur Louwers of the Park police said that the robbery was apparently the work of the same gang who ransacked two Kensington road homes earlier in December. The break-ins appearing the same in all three.

Local Sailor Meets Soldier Pal in Far Off Casablanca

When Henry E. Lutz, MM2C, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lutz of 923 Rivard boulevard, walked off his ship at Casablanca, he practically walked into the arms of a sergeant he knew from home. The sergeant, Robert L. Wells, was more than a friend, he is engaged to Lutz's sister, Gertrude.

The story goes that after the preliminary "Hey, Bob," the pair greeted each other as affectionately as any movie hero and heroine.

After the initial introductions were made with every man in Wells' outfit shaking hands with Lutz, notes were exchanged over a bottle of wine which the former had saved for Christmas. He explained, "Hank's getting here after seeing plenty of action en route was my Christmas, and we celebrated."

Lutz has been in the navy for a year and has visited Bermuda, Ireland and the Azores. Wells has been attached to a station hospital for the two years he has been in uniform. The pair had not seen each other for over a year.

Wells is the son of Lawrence Wells of Pennsylvania avenue, Detroit.

Pointers' Club to Solicit for New Members at All Grosse Pointe Schools Jan. 10 to 14

by DOLORES MASSEY

Teen-agers who want to attend Pointers' club activities must own a membership card which costs $1 a year. The membership card will allow a person into all Pointers' club activities. The individual will automatically become a member of the Neighborhood club for one year. Some activities such as dances will have a small additional charge.

St. Ambrose, Country Day, DUS, Grosse Pointe high, St. Paul, Pierce junior high and Sacred Heart convent will sell membership cards in their schools beginning Monday, Jan. 10 and continue through Jan. 14.

Sponsoring membership cards will be sold to adults of the community, one to a family, for at least $2 a card. The money obtained from sponsoring members will help finance activities given by the Pointers' club.

The Pointers' club, an organization set up to promote community activities for Grosse Pointe teen-agers, has been sponsoring community dances every Friday evening since Nov. 26 at the Neighborhood club.

The club's administrative board, which supervises all parties sponsored by the Pointers' club, consists of two student representatives elected by Grosse Pointe secondary parochial, private and public schools. Jim May from DUS, is president; Dolores Massey, GPHS, vice president; Bill Modrack GPHS, treasurer; and Peckie MacMahon, GPCD, secretary.

Bowling leagues, basketball tournaments and skating parties are only a few activities the Pointers' club is planning.

Authority on Middle East to Speak at Fisher Town Hall

William McGaffin, chief of the Associated Press bureau in the Middle East, will be the Detroit Town Hall speaker at the Fisher theatre Wednesday, Jan. 12 at 11 a.m.

He comes direct from Cairo where he reported the historic conference between Roosevelt, Churchill and Chiang Kai-Shek. After a 14,000 mile airplane ride, McGaffin arrived in the United States for his first furlough in three years.

He was under fire in France, went through the London blitz and the Dunkirk disaster. He covered the big news in North Africa, the Middle East, the Mediterranean, India, Russia and Egypt. He was the first newspaper man to cover Stilwell's salty comment on the adventure in Burma and was on hand in India when the first American doughboys arrived.

From there he flew to Russia in May, 1943, and was present at what he called "the real turning point of the war" when the Red army stopped the German offensive in July.

In August he flew to Cairo where he was made AP chief of the crucial Middle East situation. He covered the Lebanese troubles and then returned to Cairo for the historic Allied conference.

The engagement of Mme. Wellington Koo, previously announced for this date has been postponed due to diplomatic difficulties in London.

Death in the Pacific

A Marine killed in the battle for Tarawa is carried from the field by four buddies using an improvised stretcher of a piece of tin roofing and bamboo logs. In the background is a Jap pill-box. The battle of Tarawa was the bloodiest in the long history of the Marine Corps. Back these Marines up by buying extra War Bonds.

In the Wake of the Tarawa Battle

Four Marines carry a wounded buddy along the sandy beach to a waiting landing craft which will transfer him to a ship for removal to a base hospital. This is one of the grim realities in such battles as that of Tarawa Island. Back these boys up by buying more War Bonds.

The flag-draped body of a Marine killed at Tarawa is consigned to the sea from a transport standing off the island, while his buddies, still in their jungle uniforms, reverently bare their heads as the Chaplain intones his prayers. Many of the Marines killed in the vicious battle for Tarawa were buried at sea. How many War Bonds have you bought to back up these boys?

Gratiot Township Observer Explains Local Improvements

What appears to be an over-sized bird house, atop that 60 foot pole at Harper and Washtenaw, really is the housing protecting the new sirens recently obtained and installed by members of the fire department. It is hoped they will provide a clearer fire warning to both residents and firemen. A flasher light, to work in connection with the sirens, will be added to the same setup later.

The resignation of Ray L. Johnson, justice of the peace and member of the township board, was accepted by the board at their meeting Jan. 3. Mr. Johnson withdrew from service to the community due to ill health.

After approximately three years of negotiations with the federal government, the township board seems to have adopted the policy of put up or else. The burning controversy, a matter of how much of East Park Manor would burn if a fire started aided by a high wind, is the lack of mains and hydrants in this section for fire protection. Partial financing of this project was promised by the federal agencies long ago. Your township board has done everything within its power to hurry the project through. Now, after having it tossed about like a football, the board is considering some action along other lines. However it is still hoped this protection will be forthcoming and the board's original intention of saving the taxpayers as much as possible will work out.

You may expect some important and progressive changes in the township ordinances regarding building construction and repairs. There will be a progressive change in an already efficient police department along about Jan. 15. At that time the department will receive a new patrol car. Just what these changes will be and how the new car will operate will be explained later on.

Life insurance companies have issued more than 115,000,000 life insurance policies in the United States, representing a liability of approximately $100,000,000,000.

To lengthen the life of your feather pillows, put them in a current of cool dry air frequently to keep them dry, fresh and sweet.

YOUR INCOME TAX PROBLEM IN MARCH 1944
This coming March the problem of preparing an accurate income tax return is complicated by the necessity for considering the years 1942, 1943 and 1944.

The Wage Earner's tax problem has not been solved by Pay-As-You-Go; even though his employer is now withholding his tax, he must file a return for 1943 and in addition file an estimate of his 1944 income, calculate his 1944 tax and pay 25 per cent of same, all on or before March 15, 1944.

Business and Professional Men are confronted with a dual tax and accounting problem. Taxpaying is now a serious and perplexing year round proposition. Estimating business profits, commissions and net returns from income producing property a year in advance, then translating these into terms of tax liability and payments, calls for a combination of sound accounting practice and competent professional tax experience. The day of the curbstone "expert" has passed.

So too, good tax work today cannot be done on a production basis. Each individual still has his own particular tax problems, and his accounting must be tailored to fit his circumstances.

To this task our organization brings the "Know How" acquired from more than 23 years tax and accounting experience. We conduct a tax, accounting and report service for 12 months of the year; our office and facilities, including free consultation service, are available all year round, and thousands of taxpayers have availed themselves of it.

We will be glad to discuss your tax problems with you. No obligation.

 Dear Mr. Blackburn:
 We want to express our sincere gratitude for the assistance your paper has given War recruiting during the past year.
 We know how scarce newspaper space has been and that makes it even more evident that you have given priority to War needs. During the whole of 1943 we have tried to recruit thousands of desperately needed Wacs for army jobs. Your co-operation has been a great help all along.
 May we take this opportunity to wish you a successful 1944.
