PUBLIC SHOULD HAVE FACTS

Newspapers in general and The Grosse Pointe Review in particular have always been staunch opponents to the closed meeting or so-called "executive session" when it involves elected public officials.

It is alleged that such a closed meeting was held during the week of Feb. 14 at the residence of one of the Grosse Pointe Park village commissioners.

Following this meeting, "highlights" of this full report were made available to the public through the medium of the press. These so-called "highlights" were not entirely favorable to the pension amendment.

Park Commissioners Have Change of Mind

A little back-pedaling was found at the Park commission meeting last Monday when Commissioners Parshall and Cunningham attempted to reverse their position regarding the branch post office, as related last week in The Review.

"Leap year once every four years is enough" according to the more masculine sex, but to the females around the Pointe it's one of their big chances to try to get their man.

Auctioning off the huge paintings of typical "leap year scenes," you know, girl chasing boy and such, were sold to the highest bidder in war bonds and stamps.

After the dance Jackie Ewing put the old welcome sign on her front door and gave a little going away party for Bill Boydell who left Tuesday for the armed services.

Four Primary Election Leaders Issue Joint Coalition Statement This Week

Announcing themselves as a coalition of long-time Grosse Pointe Park residents who are interested in giving the "people of this community their tax money's worth in service and government as opposed to the 'do-nothing' policies of the current village administration," four men who lead all opposition in the village primary election, issued a joint statement of their views and aims today.

The four, all of whom are seeking offices in the village election to be held March 13, are Louis Ver Wiebe, candidate for village president; and Joseph Baker, Gilbert W. Groehn and Erwin Alfes, who are candidates for village commissioners.

"When the current village of Grosse Pointe Park administration took office four years ago, they made exaggerated charges of the amount of money being wasted by the administration which had preceded them.

"Here are a few general facts which should be of pertinent interest to every taxpayer of the Village of Grosse Pointe Park:

"1. The Grosse Pointe Park police department has been cut from a force of 42 to a force of 26 in the last four years. On several occasions, the entire area of the village has been patrolled by only one man in one scout car.

"2. The Grosse Pointe Park fire department has been cut from a force of 28 to a force of 16 in the last four years.

"3. It is apparent that ever since this administration took office, certain members of the village commission have taken it upon themselves to conduct a 'hate' campaign against the old employees of the fire department, police department and other village departments.

"4. For many years the City of Grosse Pointe has had its own salvage plant where refuse of all types is sorted, baled and sold, all at a profit to the City of Grosse Pointe.

"5. The current administration's idea of effecting economies was to hire a full-time village manager and a village comptroller.

"6. The latest example of the current administration's avid interest in saving the taxpayers of the village 'tremendous sums of money' occurred at a council meeting two weeks ago.

"There, the council with great solemnity refused to vote an appropriation of $31 to carry on its pro rata share of supporting the temporary U. S. postoffice, set up in the City of Grosse Pointe.

"This postoffice has been of the greatest service to residents of all the Grosse Pointes, particularly the housewives, in the mailing of parcels to servicemen. That it should have the support of this village is without question.

"To our knowledge, there had been few, if any, complaints prior to the inauguration of this administration, on the conduct, courtesy, friendliness and efficiency of village employees in their relations with residents of the community.

"What then is the reason for this campaign against loyal and trusted village employees, most of whom have had long tenures of service?

"Can it be a desire on the part of certain selfish interests to see their own, hand picked people replace these capable employees?

"The Village of Grosse Pointe Park has no such salvage plant. Furthermore, village trucks now have to make a 14 mile round trip to the village dump, where all of the material is burned and not salvaged.

"One alert (?) village official recognized this problem recently and suggested that a dumping ground be set up at the foot of Grand Marais road. Wouldn't this dump greatly enhance the value of that beautiful section of this village?

"There is a simple solution to this entire problem. The Village of Grosse Pointe Park should consummate a deal with the City of Grosse Pointe whereby the village sells, or for that matter, gives to the City its salvage materials.

"It is our understanding that the City of Grosse Pointe is willing to talk business on this proposition. Village officials, on the other hand, do not seem able to talk business on this very simple and businesslike proposition.

"The situation in Grosse Pointe Park became so critical several months ago that an increase in fire insurance rates was threatened for residents of the village unless some correction was made of the situation.

"Is this the kind of protection you want for you and your families and for the homes which, in most cases, it took years of saving to build?

"There, the council with great solemnity refused to vote an appropriation of $31 to carry on its pro rata share of supporting the temporary U. S. postoffice, set up in the City of Grosse Pointe.

"This postoffice has been of the greatest service to residents of all the Grosse Pointes, particularly the housewives, in the mailing of parcels to servicemen. That it should have the support of this village is without question.

"These are our views on some of the practices and policies of the current administration. We have other criticism which will be chronicled later.

"Now, as to our aims. They are simple and brief. First, we do not promise reductions in taxes to residents of the village. Wherever possible, we shall make every attempt to institute sensible economies.

"Second, we do promise that we shall make every effort to give the people of this village their tax money's worth. We must replenish the ranks of our sadly depleted police and fire departments and we must pay more attention to all of our current public service needs.

question. Yet, this sage group of elder statesmen who are now running the affairs of our village voted down support for this service in a fit of childish temper.

"These are our views on some of the practices and policies of the current administration. We have other criticism which will be chronicled later.

"Now, as to our aims. They are simple and brief. First, we do not promise reductions in taxes to residents of the village. Wherever possible, we shall make every attempt to institute sensible economies.

"Second, we do promise that we shall make every effort to give the people of this village their tax money's worth. We must replenish the ranks of our sadly depleted police and fire departments and we must pay more attention to all of our current public service needs.

"Third, we intend to correct the condition whereby employees of the village have lost interest in their community because the community, as represented by the current administration, has lost interest in them.

"Let's be proud of the people who are working for us in this community and let them be proud that they are working for us. It does not require the relinquishing of the municipal building key to our employees to gain this end. All it requires is a knowledge of human relations and a sense of justice."

Two Endorsed by Woods Civic Associations

George A. Beauchamp and Rex H. Johnston, candidates for the office of village commissioner, have been endorsed by Civic Improvement Association of the village of Grosse Pointe Woods.

Beauchamp, an attorney, served in World War I and is a member of the American Legion. He is 44 years of age, married, the father of three children and lives at 1676 Stanhope road. A graduate of the Detroit College of Law, Mr. Beauchamp has been connected with the Wayne County prosecutor's office since 1941 as assistant prosecutor.

Rex Johnston, a resident of the Woods since 1941, has been active in subdivision improvement activities and in village flood control. A member of the board of directors of the Grosse Woods Association, Johnston, who lives at 2025 Hunt Club Drive, is 33 years of age, married and the father of two children.

Beauchamp and Johnston both possess outstanding qualifications for the office of village commissioner. They promise rigid enforcement of the village zoning ordinances and are desirous of obtaining better school and recreational facilities for the children of Grosse Pointe Woods.

Local Women Help in Wac Recruiting

Mrs. Richard Kuehn, of 1142 Grayton, is chairman of the civilian committee assisting the recruiting officer from the Wac, in the current drive in Grosse Pointe for enlistments. Each Thursday, at 1702 Kercheval, the AWWV office, a recruiting officer will be stationed from one to five o'clock.

Any woman, between 20 and 49, desiring information about the Wac, may inquire at this office. Assisting Mrs. Kuehn in this work are Mrs. Charles Clemmishaw, 1724 Allard road and Mrs. Jane Krause, 121 Merrivewether.

Women in the Wac are performing many essential tasks; 239 jobs are open to women who qualify. So, don't delay — join the Wac, today!

American Legion AUXILIARY

Our unit was represented at the mass graduation, Feb. 23 of the American Red Cross volunteer workers, when Elizabeth Jane Bishop received her diploma as a full fledged canteen corps aide.

Two flags, stags and standards were presented to Girl Scout Troop No. 365 of St. Martin's church on behalf of the unit by Mrs. Hazel Allor, ex-president.

Marie Casey and Lillie Knoff, by their own efforts, raised $50 for cigars for our servicemen overseas — Fine credit for our unit, we are proud of them.

It was a great pleasure to speak to four of our long silent members this last week, Gladys Hannush, Elizabeth Weiler, Charlotte Dobson and Adele Baker. The great help they give us with their fine reports on salvage and Red Cross hours will help us a lot.

Mary DelBarba is planning one of her very special spaghetti suppers some time next month, watch for the announcement of the date.

Looked in on the party in St. Clair Shores Sunday. The occasion was the installation of the officers of the new Legion Post No. 385 and the Grosse Pointe Post and Unit members were present in good numbers having a fine time. We wish the new post and Commander Springer (formerly of No. 303) every success and hope they invite us again when your scribe can make it before the sandwiches are all gone.

More patriotic American women are joining the Waves now than at any time since the service was organized over a year and a half ago.

I Am a Wac

by LIEUT. FREDDIE BOYLE

Perhaps one of the main reasons non-joiners have for not enlisting in the Women's Army Corps is the fear that they won't have jobs after the war. Certain types of women always fear insecurity, and even in war time when the safety of our way of life is threatened they still use personal insecurity as an excuse for not serving in the army.

The attitude women should take on this subject was well expressed the other day when a Wac officer said, "What good would it do me to have a job at all in the post-war world if the United States loses the fight?"

Let's leave that statement alone to stand on its own merit, and attack the argument from another angle. The great opportunities for training in the Wac, in many instances, make it possible for women to make their lives even more secure after the war. A great many Wacs are sent to specialist schools to learn new skills which they might never have had the opportunity to learn had they stayed in civilian life. I know a sergeant who was trained as a medical technician, a private who went to army radio school and was taught how to turn a hobby into a trade.

The current method of preparing Wacs to take over new positions is to train them on the job. For example Wac corporals sit in control with the instructors and learn how to direct incoming and outgoing airplane traffic. When the war is over they should be sufficiently well-versed in air transport code to hold jobs in commercial airport towers.

And thus, by learning new occupations, a woman builds future security for herself in the Women's Army Corps. In many cases, she joins with one trade and prepares to enter post-war America with two skills to offer a prospective employer.

standing educator will discuss the importance of character development and everyone is invited to hear him speak.

Fire Fighters Association Explain Commission Concern Over Issues

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following article was submitted for publication by the Grosse Pointe Fire Fighters Association. It is expressly understood that views therein expressed are those of the Association and do not represent the sentiments of The Grosse Pointe Review, its publisher, or its editor.

In a recent issue of another Grosse Pointe publication, an article appeared which was headed as follows: "Proposed Charter Changes in Park for Employees and Firemen Give Commission Much Concern."

In this article, many misstatements were made and the Grosse Pointe Park Fire Fighters Association wish to take this opportunity to correct in the minds of the public these misrepresentations.

Naturally, the village commission is concerned with any changes taking place in the village charter. This was shown to be very true when President Goddard some few months ago appointed a committee consisting of the following men to study and revise the village charter: Ferris D. Stone was the chairman; Dunton C. Barlow, Justice C. Joseph Belanger, Ernest C. Harris, Taylor Seiber, John P. Verlinden, Victor H. Wehmeier and Adolph VerDonckt. These men spent many hours of their time in drafting recommended changes in the charter, but to no avail it seems. These recommendations were all tabled by the commission after being presented.

If President Goddard was sincere when he said the present charter was outmoded, it seems to this Association that he would have given more attention to some of the recommended changes endorsed by the committee which he appointed. One of the recommended changes was that Chapter No. 15 having to do with the fire department in Grosse Pointe Park be changed and brought up to date in a manner that would deal justly with the public and also the personnel of the fire department in the village as of the present day. When the president and commission ignored the changes in this chapter of the charter, the Grosse Pointe Park Fire Fighters Association took it upon themselves to bring the issue directly to the public. This Association can find no way in which this amendment would infringe upon the rights of home rule in any manner. Being brought directly to the public for a referendum vote, it would seem to contain the highest forms of home rule.

As far as the village charter containing clauses which would hinder the government of the village as outlined in the amendment changes, we can only say that the city of Detroit doesn't seem to think that clauses of this sort act as a hindrance or drawback in their charter. Evidently this village commission would rather see the fire department used as a political football from year to year. In the minds of this Association, any department which can be erased over night is not one to build the highest form of morale in its personnel.

It has also been stated that the village commission gives the firemen every other day off with an extra day off in every 16 days. This statement is absolutely false as the firemen are given this time off thru the laws of the state of Michigan. This law does not only include Grosse Pointe Park, but all paid and part paid fire departments in the state of Michigan. Recently, the village commission took it upon themselves to break this state law and the village had a court suit on their hands, which they lost after appealing to the supreme court.

It was also stated that the firemen work 159 days and have 206 days off each year, and if a 10-day vacation was granted, the firemen would only work 149 days per year. Insofar as figures concerning days are being used in this statement, let's look at the matter in its true sense.

To start with, a fireman puts in 73 1/2 hours each week. We will grant that these hours are not all spent fighting fires or in any other physical labor. But, let us ask a question—is there any person who, after putting in an eight hour day in an office would look forward with relish to remaining the other 16 hours in the same office building? Or is there any other village employee who puts in 73 1/2 hours per week at his job? The average fireman puts these hours in on his job with no ill feeling, but doesn't feel as if the subject should be misrepresented. Recently, the village commission advertised for firemen. Working conditions in the Grosse Pointe Park fire department cannot be of the best when only three applications out of a village this size in population were received. Some of the conditions which hindered applicants were: An hourly wage of approximately seventy-three cents per hour, no vacation, no surety that the position would last any length of time, no stable laws governing sick leave, no pension or social security, and last but not least, no suitable law governing the fire department in the village charter.

Insofar as the fire department being contacted in regards to giving up their Kelly Days in lieu of a vacation. This statement is absolutely false—the members of the department after enjoying a summer vacation for 13 consecutive years were deprived of this benefit with no warning whatsoever. Is it any wonder that the Fire Fighters Association would recommend a change in the village charter?

The heading under which the article appeared in the other Grosse Pointe publication ("Proposed Charter Changes in Park for Employees and Firemen Give Commission Much Concern"), really shows the esteem in which the present commission of the village holds the Park fire department. Evidently, the commission does not even see fit to regard the firemen as employees of this village.

Insofar as the charter amendment for a pension for village employees is concerned, this Association wishes to go on record as being heartily in favor of a pension for all village employees. As the matter stands, the proposition was put on the ballot by other village employees who were good hearted enough to include firemen and policemen in their endeavors. If the public sees fit they will grant this pension to all employees.

This Association does not wish to create a feeling of enmity between the fire department and the present administration, but neither does it wish to have false statements used to hinder what would make for a better department as far as efficiency and morale are concerned. Hoping that the public will view this article in an understanding manner, we rest the case.

Grosse Pointe Park Fire Fighters Association.

Open Forum to Present Views of Woods Candidates

The residents of Grosse Pointe Woods are invited to attend a public forum Wednesday evening, March 8, at 9:30, to hear Alois A. Ghesquiere and Arnold L. Diesing present their platforms. The two men are candidates for Woods village president.

This affair, sponsored by the Grosse Woods Improvement Association, Inc., will be held at the Club Mayfair, Mack Avenue at Seven-Mile Road.

Previous to the open forum, the annual election of directors of the Improvement Association will be held.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Man" will be the subject of the lesson - sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, March 5. The Golden Text (Genesis 1:27) is: "God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them."

Among the Bible citations is this passage (Psalm 100:3): "Know ye that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 332): "Father-Mother is the name for Deity, which indicates His tender relationship to His spiritual creation. As the apostle expressed it in words which he quoted with approbation from a classic poet: "For we are also His offspring."

For smooth, non-ripple edges, iron round or oval place mats and doilies from the center out with the length-wise threads. Press embroidered pieces face down on a bath towel.

The Way Back is Tough!

The soldier in the picture above had two battles to win—one against the enemy—the other to fit himself for usefulness in the postwar world. All the skill that army medical authorities can muster is employed to restore the maimed and crippled to useful, normal lives—but all the science in Christendom can't make over a human mind and soul with artificial legs and arms alone. That's where your Red Cross was asked to help, and the Red Cross now supervises a vast program of arts and skills in which the hospitalized are taught to do things. This is just one of the many vital services performed by the Red Cross—and a mighty reason why we all should give generously in this campaign.

Joe Blow Comedy Hit of Club Stevadora Show This Week

It's the second week for the wacky comedian Joe Blow at Eddy Shepherd's Club Stevadora. He presents some new material that is equally as spontaneous and convulsive as last week.

There is a new girl singer, Marsha Hastings who reminds somewhat of Judy Garland in her style of singing and delivery. Don Miguel is a new comedy balancing act and Dick Cole the new baritone singer is doing much better this week and seems to be able to feel the audience much better.

One of Hollywood's favorite and best of actresses comes to the screen of the Aloma theatre, Charlevoix at Wayburn, for Sunday and Monday, March 5 and 6.

Bette Davis heads the list of the stars who appear in 'Now Voyager.' With the support of Claude Rains and Paul Heinreid, Bette portrays a young girl who has always been pushed into the background and who has finally resolved to do something about it.

With this, Roy Rodgers, that popular man from the West, is starred in the latest of his western pictures, 'Man From Music Mountain.'

Colony Theatre Presents Popular Bill for Weekend

The management of the Colony theatre, located on Mack avenue, has scheduled two very fine pictures for showing Sunday and Monday, March 5 and 6.

The first picture stars that famous 'fiction' doctor, a favorite with everyone, Lionel Barrymore, in 'Dr. Gillespie's Criminal Case.' With the aid of Van Johnson, a newcomer in Hollywood, Doctor Gillespie steps out of his ordinary role and tangles with the law and those law-breakers.

In addition to this, Donald Wood and Elyse Knox appear in a film titled 'Hi Ya Sailor.' A Superman short completes the bill.

Lucille Ball, Red Skelton Scheduled for Shores Theatre

A top-notch feature will be shown at the Shores theatre, Mack avenue at Nine Mile road beginning Sunday and lasting thru Tuesday.

Red Skelton and Lucille Ball are co-started in that well-known play, brought to the screen as a successful stage production, 'DuBarry Was A Lady.' Skelton is an ace comedian in his own right, just as Lucille is a comedienne in her own right, but as a team, they are a riot.

The second picture on the bill stars Brian Donlevy and Anna Lee in 'Hangmen Also Die.' A Disney cartoon completes the bill.

'Leave of Absence' Question Settled by Farms Trustees

The trustees of Grosse Pointe Farms settled once and for all, the important question of leave of absences for the police and firemen who leave for the armed forces.

It was agreed that, under certain conditions, those men who leave the two departments for service, will be granted leaves of absence without pay and that their jobs will be reserved for them.

The certain conditions, however, are — if no more than four policemen or three firemen leave their respective departments. Chief Joseph Trombley of the police department said that minor details will be curtailed but that the highest rate of efficiency will continue, if four men leave. Chief George Dansbury of the fire department said that his men will manage with a handicap of three men gone from the force. In both cases, however, it was agreed that if more than the prescribed number leave the forces, additional men will have to be hired.

Citizens Association Expresses Views on Charter Amendments on Park Ballot

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following article was submitted for publication by the officers and directors of the Citizens Association. It is expressly understood that views and computations therein expressed are those of the Citizens Association and do not represent the sentiments or figures of The Grosse Pointe Review, its publisher, or its editor.

After a careful study of these two charter amendments which are to be passed on by the voters at the election March 13, we cannot hope but feel that both of them are against the best interests of the village as a whole. We urge that you read both amendments carefully so you will know what you are voting for.

Briefly, here are the main reasons why we feel that thoughtful citizens and taxpayers will decide to vote "NO" on both amendments.

Pension-Retirement Plan—
First of all, the Citizens Association, through its board of directors, wishes to formally go on record as favoring a sound pension-retirement plan for all village employees.

This is by no means a new idea. You may recall that in 1938 the matter was studied by the commission, and an expert was retained to work out a suitable plan. The plan was dropped at that time because it was regarded as imposing too great a burden on the taxpayers.

The following year, 1939, a somewhat similar plan was submitted to the voters who rejected it by a better than 2 to 1 vote. In 1940, three different plans were prepared, each paying benefits in proportion to the cost, but none of these plans met with the acceptance of the employees and all three were discarded.

The Citizens Association hopes that after the present proposal is defeated on March 13, the village commission will take appropriate action to obtain the services of the proper experts and draw up a sound workable plan that the "Park" can afford, and submit it to the voters at the next village election one year hence.

But first the proposal that is now on the ballot must be dealt with. In our opinion, here are the principal objections to the plan:

1. According to experts in this field, whose opinions were asked, the proposed plan would cost the village over $56,000 per year. This cost does not include the employees' contribution of 5% of their annual salaries. (Sponsors of this proposed amendment have frankly admitted that they were not able to compute the amount that the village would have to pay each year to maintain the plan.)

2. It is estimated that the next "Park" budget will have to be increased about ten per cent, due to increased costs of material and labor, and due to increased amounts required for the village sinking funds. If this proposed amendment is approved by the voters it will require another increase of approximately ten per cent, or a total increase in the village tax bills of about twenty per cent.

3. The proposed plan would cost the "Park" about 22.5 per cent of its present annual payroll. This would be approximately four and a half times as much as is paid by other communities of our size which have in effect plans embracing all village employees. (The average contribution on the part of the community runs from five to six per cent of the annual payroll.)

4. The proposed plan would place full control of the pension-retirement system in the hands of nine trustees: The village president, two village commissioners, the village treasurer, one fireman, one policeman, two other municipal employees and one citizen (not a beneficiary of the plan) to be elected by the preceding eight.

The treasurer, fireman, policeman, and other employees would all be beneficiaries under this plan. Since five trustees constitute a voting majority, it is reasonable to assume that the ninth trustee elected by the employee majority of five, would at least be sympathetic to the interests of the employees, giving them a majority of six out of nine trustees. Since the plan provides that the trustees shall control all funds of the retirement system, shall make all investments of the funds, shall decide what rate of interest is to be paid on the employees' contributions, and shall tell the village what portion of the funds it shall supply, it is obvious that the employees would run the plan for their own benefit and the commission and taxpayers would not have one word to say about it.

5. Attorneys have expressed the opinion that the wording of the plan is not clear, and it would probably be necessary to have the courts clarify some of its provisions before the plan could be put into operation.

It is to be regretted that the employees did not adopt different tactics in trying to put a plan into effect. It is usually best, in matters of this sort, for the employees' representatives to confer with the village authorities and arrange a plan that is mutually satisfactory.

However, in spite of the request of Village Manager Lane that the employees bring in their plan for discussion, they chose to circulate petitions and put it on the ballot without ever showing it to Mr. Lane or the commission.

We repeat that we think the employees should have a pension retirement plan, but it must be a good sound plan that will not have to be revised in two or three years.

Fire Department Amendment—
We believe this proposal unwise for the following reasons:

1. Section 1 of the amendment seeks to tie the village down to a permanent policy of maintaining a fire department of its own, our present charter makes this optional. It provides for adequate and satisfactory fire protection to fit our special needs, taking into consideration the size and character of our community, its proximity to Detroit and the other villages, etc. At the same time it leaves us the opportunity to adopt a better plan any time such an arrangement can be worked out.

The wisdom of having our fire department optional rather than mandatory is borne out at a time like this. During this emergency, it may well become impossible to obtain sufficient men to operate the fire equipment as has been done in the past. It may become advisable for the village to arrange to get adequate and proper fire protection from some adjacent community such as Detroit. There has also been some consideration given to a Wayne county fire department, and we might want to take advantage of county fire department protection should such a department be established.

2. The proposed amendment stipulates that the commission shall employ the necessary firemen and other employees "to comply with the requirements of the fire underwriters of the state of Michigan," who these "fire underwriters" may be, we don't know. No such organization is listed in the phone book or city directory. Possibly the sponsors of the amendment meant the Michigan Inspection Bureau, an organization which rates municipalities according to the fire protection each provides but doesn't undertake to tell any community what it should do.

Incidentally, this Michigan Inspection Bureau gives the Park a good rating in comparison with other municipalities our size. (A rating of one is perfect, and no municipality has been given that rating as far as we know. Detroit has a rating of 2; Highland Park 3; we enjoy a rating of 4 along with Bay City and Port Huron; Grosse Pointe Farms and the City each have a rating of 5, with Traverse City, Ferndale, Lincoln Park, and Ypsilanti being given a rating of 6).

3. Section 2 of the proposal is devoted largely to leaves of absence, furloughs, sick-leaves, etc.

We fail to see why these considerations belong in the village charter any more than would the vacations of other village employees, such as stenographers, policemen, or truck drivers.

It must be remembered that a fireman works a 24-hour day — one day on and the next day off. In addition to his alternate days off duty he is given what is known as one "Kelly Day" off in each 16-day period. The question of whether or not the firemen are legally entitled to an annual vacation in addition to their alternate days off and "Kelly Days" is now up before the state supreme court, and it would seem proper to await this supreme court decision before attempting to pass on this question.

At present our firemen are allowed a sick-leave based on their rate of pay, which works out to approximately 12 working days per year. It must be remembered that 12 working days off amount to about 26 or 28 calendar days off, depending on whether one or two "Kelly Days" are included.

A checkup of the actual number of days taken off for sick leave by our firemen during 1943 makes it quite evident that the sick-leave provisions now in force are adequate and satisfactory. In addition, the commission is empowered to and does make special arrangements to allow more than usual sick-leave in exceptional cases where this may be necessary.

The matters referred to in the proposed amendment are all purely administrative, and should be handled by the commission as at present. In our opinion there is no place for this sort of thing in the village charter.

Respectfully submitted,
Officers and Directors of the Citizens Association.

Woods Group Backs Reelection of Alois A. Ghesquiere

Early this week a movement developed in Grosse Pointe Woods to sponsor the reelection of Pres. A. A. Ghesquiere for the coming year. A meeting was held Tuesday evening and after some discussion the general opinion appeared to be that Ghesquiere was doing a good job in that office and should be retained.

The group then determined to do what they could to urge the citizens to get out and vote on election day, Monday, March 13. They also decided to check as to which of their neighbors are not registered and to induce them to register.

During the meeting it was pointed out that Ghesquiere's record of accomplishments in behalf of the village were all of the best. His genial ability to obtain co-operation in the commission were stressed, which has made it possible for that body to work for and obtain a clean, efficient government, a reestablishment of village credit and a sound financial status. His sponsorship of the enactment of a zoning ordinance were mentioned. His efforts and negotiations on behalf of the construction of the sanitary sewage system at a very nominal cost to the village were also mentioned. His energetic fight to obtain priorities to build the needed water mains were remembered, and the feeling was that the struggle for additional storm water facilities was under his able leadership should remain there until the project was complete.

While not actually a function of the village, it was remembered how Mr. Ghesquiere led the fight to obtain a suitable addition to the Mason school. Some of his older friends also remembered that in his 19 years of residence in the community that he has always been active in all civic and educational matters that tend to improve the living conditions in the village.

The group felt that if these facts were presented by them to the citizens of the village that there would be little doubt as to the outcome of the election, especially if a majority of the people will get out and vote.

Dr. H. S. Coffin to Preach Here Sunday

Dr. Henry Sloane Coffin, moderator of the Presbyterian church, U.S.A., and president of the Union Theological Seminary, New York City, will preach at the Grosse Pointe Memorial church next Sunday morning, March 11.

Dr. Coffin is a distinguished member of the class of 1897 at Yale university and for many years has been a member of the Yale Corporation. Last fall he spent a month in Scotland and England conferring with Christian leaders there. His visit to Grosse Pointe comes at the end of a national tour which has taken him to the Pacific coast.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Somethin' special catch your eye in the paper, Judge?"
"Sure did, Chet... an article here telling about prohibition in India being written off by the Madras government as a dismal failure after a three-year trial. They found out that enforcement was ineffective and that there was a steady increase in bootlegging and other violations of the law which increased penalties failed to check."
"It all goes to prove what I've said time and time again, Chet... prohibition does not prohibit. It's been tried in this country 47 times in the last 33 years and discarded everywhere except in three states. Was found to be a failure and abandoned in Canada, Norway, Sweden, Finland and Russia, too."
"Same thing happens every time... as soon as legal liquor is voted out, bootleg liquor with its crime and corruption moves right in."

Take Heart Little Lady

NO MATTER WHERE HE IS THE RED CROSS IS WITH HIM

ITS LONG ARM OF MERCY EMBRACES THE WORLD

He won't be forgotten—even though it is his misfortune to be a prisoner of war. For the Red Cross will do everything in its power to get your letters in to him and pass his letters out to you. And every week he will get, if humanly possible, a nourishing Red Cross food carton—eleven pounds of the kind of food you'd give him if you had him safe at home—meat, cheese, sugar, prunes, chocolate bars. If he is sick or wounded he will get a special Red Cross invalid package to help bring him back to health. No, he won't be forgotten—not while Americans continue to support the Red Cross.

Red Cross services embrace 28 different fields of humanitarian work—all the way from training nurses aides on the home front to rendering hospital services at the battlefield. Its needs are greater than ever before and Americans must give more than ever before. Dig deep and take heart—for wherever your loved one may be, the Red Cross is there with him.
