PIN-UP GIRL FOR 1944

MAJOR JOHN R. WHITLOCK, of the United States army, is shown presenting Miss Shirley Sanford with a certificate, drawn up by Continental Motors, proclaiming her as the pin-up girl of the Grosse Pointe Army Ordnance school last Friday afternoon. Shown here are the two other entries from Earl Carroll's Vanities, Blonde Betty Jeanne Telfer, Brunette Duvene Riopelle, with redhead Miss Sanford. The latter was hostess to the entire ordnance school last Monday evening at the Wilson Theatre when she presented the school with an autographed photograph which will remain in the school lobby until 1945.

'Fortunes' Promised for Lucky Folks at Millionaires' Party

Folks in the neighborhood who like to take a whirl with lady luck will come into their own tonight, Thursday, when the East Warren Businessmen's Association stages its "Millionaires' Party" at Roose-Vanker hall, 9189 Cadieux.

member of the association will gladly give you a "$1,000 check" for $1 in cash and your "check" will take you past the doorman and into a realm of high-powered money-making activity.

"For one night you'll feel like a governmental bigwig with lots of money to spend," predicted Joseph. Van Deweghe, chairman of the event. Although the money at the party will be fake there'll be nothing phoney about the prizes to be offered by the businessmen.

At a recent meeting held by the Eastern Detroit Realty Association, the members were addressed by Lieut. Donald T. McCrae, of the U. S. army engineer corps, it was announced today by Dave Franklin, committee chairman. Lieutenant Mc-Crae is the son of A. D. McCrae and a nephew of former Sen. Richard McCrae. Lieutenant McCrae was here on furlough and is stationed in the Panama Canal zone. He addressed the group on the conditions in the area of operations.

The almost boneless paichee fish of Brazil contributes more than its "meat." The "toothed" tongue is dried and serves as a substitute for steel files, and it is also used as a grater in preparing farna from the cassava root.
