Dedicate Honor Roll Tuesday

Final plans were completed this week by officials of the Grosse Pointe Honor Roll Association for the dedication program which will take place next Tuesday morning, Memorial Day, on the Grosse Pointe high school grounds at which time the honor roll will be unveiled.

As guest speaker, the association has secured Wilbur M. Brucker, ex-governor of Michigan, to give the principle address. In addition to Mr. Brucker, various civic leaders of the community will also take part. The music for the ceremonies will be furnished by local bands.

The four village presidents and the mayor of the city have proclaimed May 30 as dedication day in Grosse Pointe, and urge all citizens to attend, when the names of the servicemen and women will be presented to the public on their separate plates attached to the honor roll.

J. Dunton Barlow Elected President of Defer PTA

J. Dunton Barlow was elected president of the Defer PTA at a meeting held Tuesday night, succeeding Robert Butts, who had held the office for the past two years. Others elected at this time are Mrs. Frederick Mohn, first vice-president; Mrs. Charles Wylie, second vice-president; Mrs. James Hoyt, third vice-president; Mrs. Harold Husband, secretary; Raymond Wertz, treasurer; and W. Craig Keith, auditor.

Challenge Police Cut In Park

Although June 1 is fast approaching, bringing about the time when two patrolmen are to be dismissed from the Grosse Pointe Park police department, no final action has been taken by the village commission to dismiss the men, for the matter is in the hands of the police commissioner, Homer Fritsch, who has been out of the village. The Review learned Wednesday.

Inquiring at the village meeting last Monday night as to whether the commission still intends to go through with the proposed cutting of the department, Gerald McAndrew, of 905 Pemberton and John Mitchell, of 915 Pemberton, were told not to believe everything they read in the newspapers, but because McAndrew repeatedly brought up statements which were published in The Review, the commissioners were finally "pinned down" and admitted that the stories of the proposed were true. Asked what the saving to the payers would be per one thousand dollars valuation, if four men were taken off the force, Mr. McAndrew was told that the decrease would be approximately 30 cents. He said if the decrease was to be that he would pay the 30 cents per sand and keep the men on the force. A comparison was made to S. er Heights, Ohio, a suburb of Cleveland, whose number and type of homes is similar to the Park, and was found that the police force operates very efficiently with the number of officers, a number similar to the 1 patrolmen and three officers which the Park is to have. McAndrew was further told that was the quality of the police officers that counted and not quantity — We wonder ? .. ? ?

GARAGE FIRE

Park firemen answering an alarm at the home of Frank J. Berghoff, 956 Barrington road last Monday morning, found the garage on fire.

State Says No Swimming

Grosse Pointers will not do any swimming this summer if the state and local boards of health have anything to do about it. This was the verdict handed down to the villages of Grosse Pointe Park, Farms and Shores and the City this week by Dr. Thomas S. Davies, head of the township board of health.

A resolution passed by the Michigan state stream control commission on May 15, regarding the swimming waters along the shoreline of Lake

Ask City Residents to Call for Park Cards

Thomas V. Trombly, City police chief, requests all residents to call for their park and beach cards next Monday and Thursday nights between seven and nine o'clock, and Sunday morning, June 4 between nine and twelve. At this time, additional personnel will be on hand to take care of City residents.

Cards are issued, however, any time during the day or evening.

St. Clair, has made the decision that the general practice of swimming be prevented in this area.

The same request was made of St. Clair Shores and Detroit.

The reason why Grosse Pointers will not swim, at least until the waters clear up, is due to the closing of the Lakeshore interceptor which was constructed by the federal government to be used by the communities of lower Macomb county. The interceptor was closed after some of the communities refused to pay the sewage disposal rates which were charged for its operation.

Due to negotiations, St. Clair Shores and Roseville unanimously accepted the $5 per year rate for basic water users, and Center Line agreed to accept if Warren township and East Detroit agreed. However, after some meetings, East Detroit and Warren township refrained from any action concerning the acceptance of the rate. Because of this deadlock, sewage has been running (Continued on Page 5.)

Propose Shopping Center for Southern Part of G. P. Woods

A huge shopping center, second to none in Grosse Pointe or Detroit, was proposed at a meeting of the Woods commission Monday night, by the attorney for the Parkwood Land company, who is Edward H. Yost, to be built in the southern part of the village.

The spokesman, appearing before the commission, explained that before the first step towards such a project could be made, the village zoning ordinance would have to be changed.

The proposed center would be on Mack avenue extending from the south boundary line, west of Mack avenue, to the south side of Newcastle road. This includes a wide expanse of acreage which is undeveloped except for a small farm. The center would extend approximately to the edge of the Country Club woods.

The center would consist of, as primary plans were explained, a theatre seating 3,500 people; block of stores which would contain shops for wearing apparel, household furnishings and food. The latest de- (Continued on Page 5.)

Announce 1944-45 Lecture Program

Following a highly successful season, the board of directors of Grosse Pointe Lectures have completed plans for an even more auspicious program for the 1944-45 season, to be held at the John Pierce auditorium, Kercheval near Balfour.

The selection of the attractions for next season was made by the speakers' committee following a poll of this year's audience taken at the final regular number of the current season. With the favorable acceptance of this year's series and a spontaneous interest expressed in all quarters, the committee have arranged for the appearance of an outstanding group of personalities, who will bring to the audience first hand and authentic information from the various world theatres with which they are well versed through being "on the spot when it happened."

An early reservation of seats is urged inasmuch as over 500 reservations have already been made for the coming season by 1943-44 season ticket holders. The price for the entire series of five programs is $3.50 plus 70c federal tax—total $4.50 per ticket. Reservations may be made by calling Forrest Geary, manager of Grosse Pointe Lectures, Inc., at Grosse Pointe board of education, (Continued on Page 6.)

MEMORIAL DAY — 1944

It was one year ago when the citizens of this community made the supreme sacrifice for their country, the war dead of World War II, World War I, and all wars in which the United States has taken part. At the time when this homage was paid, every prayer of all citizens was offered to Divine Providence, asking that when another Memorial Day was celebrated, the dead of this war would be home, however, this was not to be. This Memorial Day the people can pay tribute to those who gave their lives for their country, and to those who gave their lives for America may still be called the "Land of the Free." It is in the way in which we on the home front can show our true appreciation to these brave men and women is by attending the ceremonies on the Grosse Pointe high school grounds next Tuesday morning, when the unveiling of the Roll for men and women of the Pointe who are in service will take place. This memorial will bear witness down through the ages of the men and women who are giving their all that our country will never have to erect another like memorial for a war dead.

DIABETICS CAN LIVE AS LONG AS OTHER PEOPLE

When the disease is discovered early, the diabetic who places himself completely under the guidance of his physician and who follows the details of diet, exercise and insulin stands a good chance of living as long as he could reasonably expect to live if he did not have diabetes. The diabetic can be certain of having his insulin requirements filled here. We carry a fresh stock of insulin in all strengths, and safeguard the potency by keeping the insulin under refrigeration at the proper temperature. We also have available, needles, syringes, and dietetic foods.

MISSYMM DOLOROSA
WITH DANCES, PROMS, open houses, and teas, last weekend proved to be oodles of fun for the Grosse Pointe crowd.

Jane Van Antwerp started rather early in the week by having a tea for some of the gals. Seen dressed up in their "bestus" last Thursday were Lois Gehrig, Elizabeth Cooke, Mary Fran Peetz, Shirley Hewitt, Corrine Clemens, Pat Flattery, Eileen Hickey, Nancy Joos, Teresa Gorman, Sally Reynolds, Betty Van Antwerp, Pat Kelly, Joan Taylor, Pat Healy, Joanne Maas, Janice Olivier, Joan Roney, Virginia Roney, and Louise Anhut.

THE MAY FANTASY, THE last of Grosse Pointe high school's S.A. dances, marked last Saturday night with much celebration.

The surrealistic theme dreamed up by Marilyn Lamb, head of the decoration committee, was not only unusual but very colorful. Bill Maas and Nancy Moesta, co-chairmen of the dance, saw to it that everyone was happy.

Saw Dave Fairless 'n Bash Sickle; Bill Erne 'n Mary Lou Long; Janie Heron 'n Jim Gullberg; Marge

Gransie 'n Dick Schumann; Pat Jaekel 'n Bob Beyer; Barb Borgman 'n Bill Casteel; and Butch Ireland 'n Shirley Smith.

Over at the pepsi stand during intermission were Bixie Mitchell 'n Bill Baker; Kathy Stewart 'n Johnny Bracken; Barb Ray 'n Bruce Laing; Marilyn Shields 'n Floyd Nixon; Bobbie Hawksworth 'n "Doc" Strawbridge; Bill Maas 'n Marge Wolfe; George Schreck 'n Peggy Erne; Jeanne Simmons 'n Larry Diamond; and Fred Seitzer 'n Marge Botts.

Bob Benya 'n Madelon Ricker; Jack Uhl 'n Cynthia Penoyer; Tom Castner 'n Bonnie Tait; Jack Wilson 'n Phil Monroe; Jim Trousdale 'n Letty Kretschmar; Pinky Pinkston 'n Jim Bailey; Jim Waldron 'n Pat Baumgarten; Louise Whitcomb 'n Johnny Bartemier; Jack Seeber 'n Bette Marchand; Lois Gehrig 'n Drew Smith; and Marilyn Borgman 'n Art Brownell were taking the spotlight with their smooth Grosse Pointe jivin.

Now that all the S.A. dances are over until next semester, all the gang certainly owe the success of the dances to Ralph Steffel, supervisor of the gala affairs.

ON EVERYONE'S SOCIAL calendar next week should be Grosse Pointe high school's senior prom. Next Saturday will be the day. The 12B class are deep in thought, planning the decorations that every prom must have.

Bill Massnick, Pat Slowin, Bette Fricke, Marilyn Johnson, Dorothy Jemal, Suzanne Kuivinen, Jean Felax, Shirley Wills, Pat Poster, Joyce Roland, Marilyn Shields, Nancy Anderson, Peggy Toncray, Shirley Smith, and Floyd Nixon have a very unique idea for decorating the boys' gym but the idea is a deep dark secret as far as the seniors are concerned.

Dorothy Ghesquiere, Dorothy Comerford, and Elmer Bell are in charge of invitations. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Nixon, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Albrecht, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ghesquiere, parents of the class officers, will be invited.

The refreshment problem will be taken care of by Dick Dossin, Walter Albrecht, and Leon Alvarez.

One thing that the committee members have revealed is that the music will be furnished by Bill Coleman and his orchestra. The music was taken care of by Taylor Marion, Cynthia Caruthers, Shorty Taylor, Cow-Cow Cameron and Ronald Raddie.

Chuck McKean; Mary Jo Tait 'n Roger Walder; Betty Eaton 'n Ted Monahan; Marilyn Nash 'n Carrol Chapman; Eileen Denner 'n Johnny Lapp; Pat O'Hair 'n Warren Paschall; Mary Brandon 'n Bob Den Uyl; Alice Crabb 'n Bob Brandon; Mary Bell Wood 'n Jim Fry; Joan Rockwell 'n Don Kuhn; Sally Critton 'n Bill Cole; Ellie Buh 'n Bill Mackey; Ann Baldwin 'n Chuck Cain; Elaine Kramer 'n Harry Downer; Mary Lou McGrane 'n Milt Henkel; Ginny Arnold 'n Tom King; Ruthie Duffield 'n Kenny Gould; Esabel Baxter 'n Jim Duffy; Bev Brown 'n Don McPhail; Barb Gallano 'n John Foley; Loel Amberg 'n Mike Bloy; and Mary Krentler 'n Jim May were only a few others who enjoyed themselves.

After the prom these mighty seniors hiked over to Eastwood where they took in all the rides.

"TROPICANA," THE NAME of the Junior AWVS'ers decided to give to their annual hag dance, will be quite the thing. The south island atmosphere will be the theme of the affair which, by the way, will be held on Grosse Pointe high school's tennis courts on Friday night, June 9 from 9:30 till 1:30.

Because there will be a limit of hags, it will be necessary for the femmes to sign up with either Lois Gehrig or Barb Blair soon.

Barb Blair, chairman of the dance, has appointed her committees and have begun thinking of all the details. The four Barbos, Blair, Klenk, Dill, and Ogden are pooling their ideas for refreshments, and decorations. The music end of the dance will be taken care of by Lesley Yaeger and publicity by Nora Guy.

June 9th isn't very far away, so if you want to let your "fella" know you still care for him just a little, I recommend you start today and ask him.

OVER AT LIGGETT LAST Saturday, all the gals were dressed in their very best for the senior prom held in the girls' gym. In spite of the fact that there is a shortage of really good bands, Shir Kramer shopped around until she came out with John Titus and his music makers, who, by the way, were great. Bobby Mackey, chairman of the prom saw to it that everything ran smoothly and, of course, it did. Elly Roberts thought of the idea of a Hawaiian theme and so it was Hawaii where all the gang spent most of their evening.

Some of the seniors there were Franny Walker 'n Bob Joseph; Shir Kramer 'n naval air cadet, Bill Davis; Bobby Mackey 'n Jack Coulton, USNR; Joanne Lawson 'n Dave Vandercjoot, USNR; Nancy Finn 'n Dick Dunias, USN; Franny Hannan

SERVICE PARADE

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. R. Zenker of 714 Washington road, Grosse Pointe, that their son, Richard L., has been promoted to the rank of first lieutenant in the AAF.

Lieutenant Zenker graduated from Grosse Pointe high school and from the Detroit Institute of Technology as a mechanical engineer. Enlisted in the air force and attended Yale university, New Haven, Conn., where he received his commission as a second lieutenant. At present he is stationed at Elgin Field, Fla.

Hugh Scott Clark, a naval aviation cadet, is now stationed at the naval training center in Corpus Christi, Tex.

Curtis Keegin, to correct an error in the last issue of The Review, is now a flight engineer, and is attached to the 14th Air Force now in combat in China.

Somewhere in the South Pacific May 5, 1944

Dear Sir: I thought I'd drop you a few lines to thank you for sending me The Grosse Pointe Review while I was in Texas for my training. I certainly enjoyed reading all of the news from back home each week and always looked forward to Tuesday when my Review would arrive at camp. I am now assigned to the 25th division somewhere in the South Pacific.

My new mailing address is included in this letter; I would appreciate it very much if you could send me the paper now that I am so far from home.

Sincerely yours,
Pvt. Albert J. Svoen

WITH THE AIR CORPS

S-SERGEANT FRANK H. HORN

The drafting department of the department of training has been in operation since Dec. 5, 1941. At the beginning, it had but one member and at one time grew to a strength of seven men. At the present, only five men are in the department.

The work that the department has done has included construct-drawings for school training equipment, sheet metal drafting, topographical maps, instruction charts, commercial illustrations and layouts, finished lettering mechanical drafting, sign lettering, morale posters, patriotic posters, cartoons for student morale and Tyndall target and art work.

In the way of interesting facts and figures, the men of the department said the hardest job they ever did was designing a rate indicator for a turret; the easiest was drawing a simple circle. The longest job took a month, the shortest 20 seconds.

The boys in the department have the courage to say, "We have never said 'No' to any job yet; if one of us can't do it, the other can, or we can do it together."

S-Sergt. Frank H. Horn, one of the first men in the new field, is in his fourth year in the army air corps drafting department. He had been doing this work before he left for the service. His parents live at 951 Roslyn road, Grosse Pointe Woods.

Clinton, N. Y. — Pvt. Louis W. Charvat, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis F. Charvat, 1104 Yorkshire road, Grosse Pointe, graduated this week from a year's academic course conducted by the army air forces training command at Hamilton college here.

Completing specialized training that before the war would have required two years of college study, Private Charvat is now prepared to enter one of several branches of the army, including communications, weather observation, and varied phases of airport and airways operations.

Requirements for the course of study just completed were high. Charvat began his studies in May 1943 as a member of a carefully chosen group who had a year or year and a half of college work, largely in mathematics.

Studying under the teaching staff of Hamilton college, he completed courses in college algebra, differential equations, vector analysis, and mechanics. Also included in the curriculum were physics, geography, including geo-politics, English composition, and public speaking.

Prior to entering the service in February, 1943, Private Charvat was a student at the University of Michigan.

Sergt. Thomas J. Hanley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Hanley of 1253 Lakepointe, arrived home yesterday morning for a 10-day furlough. He has just completed his overseas training in the air corps as a tail gunner at Langley Field, Va.

Theodore M. Templeton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander C. Templeton, 1424 Bishop road, received his wings Tuesday, at Marianna Army Air Field, Marianna, Fla., and will be home this week on a 10-day furlough.

Robert J. Hoyt stationed in New Guinea, has been promoted to S-C third class. Walter R. Hoyt, specialist (S), his father, is stationed in Detroit.

I Am a Wac

by LIEUT. FREDDIE BOYLE

One of the greatest joys of army life is the thrill of a promotion. Private Sue whom we recruited only four months ago now has one stripe. Her letter glows with enthusiasm as follows: "Did you notice the envelope, my friend, or must I come right out and tell you the big news, to-wit: Private Sue is now Private First Class Sue. In other words, I am now making $4.00 more a month, and that's good! Yes, mam, that first stripe is the biggest thrill of all the ratings because the others are only a matter of time, or so it says here."

And so Private Sue is happy; her parents are telling the neighbors and I am almost smug about the thing because I had a hand in recruiting her.

I want to sneak in a couple more paragraphs from her letter because they give a glimpse of the variety of army life. At the air base where she is serving, Wacs who have been there a year were honored.

"The celebration was a huge success," she writes, "and the old service club reeked with fun and laughter. We had a grand band and danced our legs off. Towards the end of the evening you couldn't go two steps with one man before somebody else cut in. As the soldiers often say, darn them, 'even the homely ones are popular.' The Wac commanding officer and the post commandant were there to lead the grand march. The post commandant told us how much we were appreciated here and stuff like that. I don't know why I felt so proud for I wasn't allowed to wear a purple ribbon as the ones that had been here a whole year were. But I did feel proud just to be among them, those who had been members of the Wac and loved the service enough to stick with it, come what may. Yes, they should be proud, and they deserve a wonderful celebration because they answered the call of their country a lot sooner than we rookies did."

And now for a dash of KP humor from Private Sue: "Last Friday, for the first time since I've been here, I pulled the gruesome job of KP and some fun. I walked into the kitchen door at 6:30 a.m. and first job was washing, rinsing, steaming and putting away morning dishes. After that I mopped the floor; and after that I lunched; and after that I scrubbed pots and pans for the afternoon, after that I had to clean the grease trap. I finished at seven, very tired, so I went home and did my ironing. And that's the spirit, Private Sue Joyce; Hermine Roby 'n Lee Ke

Then there will be games and singing in which all can participate. We are expecting to see you at the club Wednesday night, May 31 at 7:30.

Susanne Hays, 1A has entered our school from Pittsburgh, Pa.

The playground has been organized to allow a more flexible and varied program of athletic play and games. Markers for different games such as: Paddle tennis, goal ball, washer pitching, high jump and rope jumping have been set up around the playground. This allows a definite space for each activity for all the grades. The boys of the fifth and sixth grades helped paint the markers, and are responsible for keeping them in place.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, May 28.

The Golden Text (Romans 16:19, 20) is: "I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple concerning evil. And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly."

Among the Bible citations is this passage (Jeremiah 17:14): "Heal me, O Lord, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved; for thou art my praise."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 102): "There is but one real attraction, that of Spirit. The pointing of the needle to the pole symbolizes this all-embracing power, or the attraction of God, divine Mind."

American Legion AUXILIARY

The best news of the week comes from Mary Del Barba, our president, to the effect that her son-in-law, Lieut. William Joy is a prisoner of war in Germany.

The plans are already for Memorial Day and though cards are to be sent to post members, this is to remind you that unit members are expected to attend also. The group will meet at 10:30 at the corner of Fisher road and Maumee for the dedication of the honor roll, our drum and bugle corps will play. After these ceremonies are over the graves in St. Paul's cemetery will be taken care of by post members, after which, all those who care to, are welcome to visit our club room on Mack avenue for a cafeteria style lunch before starting downtown for the parade. The ladies will hold open house all afternoon and evening and serve those who come back again, hungry. A very nominal charge will be made for the meals.

Our meeting on May 15 was well attended (though it really could have been better) and we had a nice tea party afterwards, really keeping scandalous hours, and a lot of plans were made for the coming month and it was voted to send two children to the Grace Bently camp for crippled children this summer, and a girl of our unit to Girls State.

Don't forget, 10:30 Memorial Day at Grosse Pointe high school.

Defer School N-E-W-S

The 5A's have an aquarium in which they had six garter snakes. The aquarium was empty except for the stones on the bottom and two small jars full of water.

In one of the glass jars there was an Egyptian papyrus plant. It was almost killed because the snakes crowded into the jar to lie in the water. Sometimes three got in at once. Every once in a while a snake would get caught in the coils of the other snakes under the water but it didn't seem to do any harm to them.

The snakes didn't go into the other jar, perhaps because there wasn't any plant. The last weekend in April one of the snakes shed its skin. The next night another shed its skin.

About a week later we decided to release them. We noticed a white film over two of the snakes' eyes. We wondered if that was a new eye coating, if the snakes had gone blind, or if those were two snakes who were getting ready to shed their skins.

The Discussion Group will meet under the leadership of Major MacBride next Sunday night at eight o'clock in the church house.

Trombly School N-E-W-S

The 5B and 5A art classes have made spring hats for a "Hat Bar" in the Trombly school art room. The hat model faces are made from cylinders of cardboard. Some have long eyelashes and curving red lips. Our collection of hats is shown on blondes, brunettes and even read-head's long paper hair. Some of these creations outdo even the ideas of Lilly Dache and John Fredericks. Hat designers, look to your laurels for a new crop is coming up, who may give you some competition!

An original play, "The Burned Treasure" was presented by the 6B group on Friday, May 12. The plot was centered around the discovery of some of Captain Kidd's treasure. Unlike most treasure finders, these boys and girls to the amazement of the audience, decided to give the treasure to friendly organizations such as the Red Cross and others.

The 1A-2B children made shadow pictures for Mother's Day. Each child had an attractive profiled silhouette of himself to take home. A rogue's gallery is also in the room. These silhouettes are made of colored paper and can be readily recognized.

Park Bombardier Awared Air Medal in Italian Theatre

Fifteenth Army Air Force, Italy.
Second Lieut. George T. Hunter, 23, of 1126 Berkshire road, Grosse Pointe Park, who is now a bombardier on a Liberator bomber, has been awarded the Air Medal, it was announced recently.

This honor was bestowed on him for "meritorious achievement in aerial flight while participating in sustained operational activities against the enemy." Lieutenant Hunter is stationed in Italy with an AAF bomber group which have been bombing enemy targets in Austria, Rumania and northern Italy.

Lieutenant Hunter is the son of

LIEUT. GEORGE T. HUNTER

Mrs. G. T. Hunter, 1126 Berkshire road. He graduated from DUS and attended Olivet college and the University of Michigan. While at school he played football, basketball, and baseball. He entered military service in February, 1943, and was commissioned at Big Springs, Tex., in August, 1943. He left for overseas duty in January of this year.

Board of Education Files Suit Against City in Tax Dispute

The City attorney informed the council meeting Monday night that the board of education is filing suit against the City for collection of what is known as the excessive tax roll, which, it was explained, totals approximately nine hundred dollars, collected over a period of several years.

The City's position in the matter, however, is that if the township is allowed to keep its excessive roll, the City should be allowed the same privilege. The excessive roll is made up of the difference of what the schools ask for and what is spread on the tax rolls.

The law governing such action was passed when cities, such as the City of Grosse Pointe, was not in existence, and for this reason, the Board of Education makes demand for the excessive monies.

Wave of Bicycle Thefts Hit Pointe

The Farms and Park police stations were flooded this past week with calls from residents reporting bicycles stolen.

Mrs. D. Steenrod of 976 Nottingham road, told Park police her daughter's bicycle was stolen from their home last Thursday. Barbara Jean Hart of 333 McMillan reported her bike stolen Thursday, however, it was recovered Sunday.

Saturday, Sally Whitehead reported her bicycle had been damaged while it was in the Country Day school yard.

Mrs. Koebel of 203 Cloverly, reported that her daughter's bicycle was stolen from the school yard, however it was returned.

Three other bikes were stolen from their owners, Teddy Johnson, 314 Touraine; F. R. McManus, 811 Beaconsfield; and a daughter of the Vernier family, 158 Moran road.

Park Commission Agrees on Rotation for Justices of Peace

When official action was taken by the Farms board of trustees on May 15, regarding the rotation of the township justices of the peace, and passed a resolution stating that the available justices should divide their work evenly among themselves, copies were sent to the village clerks of the Park, Shores and Woods.

The Park commission acknowledged receipt of the resolution, but deemed it unnecessary to pass a resolution of their own. They were in full agreement with the Farms idea and will co-operate whenever possible.

Restraining Order Issued on Vacation of Goethe Avenue

A restraining order was issued during the past week by Circuit Judge DeWitt H. Merriam, of Wayne county, ordering the village of Grosse Pointe Park not to take any further steps in vacating that part of Goethe avenue lying from Maryland avenue to the alley-way between Charlevoix and Mack avenue, and turning it over to the First Christian Reformed church to use as a playground for the Grosse Pointe Christian Day school children.

The writ was issued at the request of Leonard Richards of 1451 Lakepointe and Sebastian Mocerri of 1449 Lakepointe, who are opposing the closing of Goethe.

Judge Merriam ordered the Park officials to answer fully their reasons for vacating Goethe in his court, tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock.

'What to Do With Bishop Road' Again in Headlines Here

The question, "What to do with that part of Bishop road lying between Jefferson avenue and Lake St. Clair?" was again brought before the Park commission Monday night when a request was made by Lydia M. Buhl, Gari M. Stroh and John W. Stroh to barricade, at their own expense, the dead-end street which lies between the Buhl property and the Stroh estate.

The request was made on the grounds that allowing this street to remain open constitutes a nuisance to the two families. They said that adults and children create a disturbance at all times of the day and night; that they throw stones into the private swimming pools and talk and sing loudly.

Because of the fact that all the property lying south of Bishop is owned by the Buhls and the property lying north belongs to the Strohs, repeated attempts have been made by the two families to have the commission vacate the road.

The question was turned over to Commissioners Sage and Moreland and E. B. Lane for further study.

Bike Riders Crash Into Autos Here

Gerhart Gaenssle of 320 Fisher road, age 13, rode his bicycle into a car driven by L. E. Arnold of 341 McKinley road on May 17.

Mr. Arnold was driving east on Goethe and was about to enter Beaupre road when the boy hit the car. The youth was cut on the elbow and was taken to Cottage hospital for first aid, returning to his home after treatment.

Last Friday, Edward McCauley, of 78 Kenwood road, age 9, rode in front of a car driven by Marion Livingstone, 29 Lakeshore road while she was driving on Grosse Pointe boulevard. The lad was uninjured and Mrs. Livingstone took him home.

Park Sergeant Awarded Oak Leaf in South Pacific

Headquarters U. S. Army Forces in South Pacific. — By the direction of the President, the Oak Leaf Cluster in lieu of an additional Air Medal was awarded by Lieut. Gen. Millard F. Harmon, commanding U. S. army forces in the South Pacific area on May 1 to Staff Sergt. George A. Wagner of 1301 Somerset road, Grosse Pointe Park, as aerial gunner from Feb. 22 to March 7.

A bronze Oak Leaf Cluster is awarded for meritorious achievement while participating in sustained combat operational missions of a hazardous nature during which enemy opposition is met, or during which an area is traversed where enemy anti-aircraft fire is effective or where enemy fighter patrols are habitually encountered. The missions for which the award was given were with the 13th AAF.

Park Guest Discovers Fender Skirts Missing

When Fred Kildol, of 1940 Highland avenue, Detroit, left 500 Barrington road last Thursday night, his son discovered that the fender skirts were missing.

A Priority Item

Sanley Enders of the Park police, arrived at the station last Thursday afternoon with a lawnmower which he found on the sidewalk at Kercheval and Wayburn. However, shortly after, the owner, W. N. Fritz, 1068 Wayburn, called and claimed same.

Approves License Transfer

The City council approved the transfer of a state liquor license of Schettler's Drugs from their Jefferson avenue location to 337 Fisher road.

FIRE DEPARTMENTS

will then be sought.

This policy of the City and Park will become an every day routine matter in the pooling of manpower and equipment.

The Farms fire department, under the terms of the contract agrees to respond to extra hazardous fires and for emergencies, and while the City and Park are engaged in a call, the Farms will "standby" if there is a second alarm from the Park or City. The Park and City in turn agree to make any call requested of them to the Farms.

J. M. Leonard, bureau of governmental research, located in the Buhl building, said of this contract: "The general principle of mutual aid is fundamentally sound and will give much better fire protection to the residents involved."

This is no merger of the fire departments and means only that each community will aid the other.

Dr. Davies has been requested by the City to make daily checks of the water and issue bulletins regarding the purity of the water so that at times, swimming may be permissible.

The South Macomb communities now hold the trump card, for until they accept the rate charges, Pointers will miss their daily dip.

Women Wanted for Leisure Time AWVS Sewing

Did you know it is possible to do worthwhile Red Cross emergency cupboard sewing at home? If you haven't the time to spend a day away from home but could do a bit of sewing in your spare moments, stop in at the AWVS workshop, 17027 Kercheval, near Sanders, and take home a package to work on at your leisure.

In some packages are baby receiving blankets made from discarded blankets which need feather-stitching. These are prepared by Mrs. Ben Marsh's committee for the workshop which sews each week. Then there are layettes already cut by Mrs. C. H. Haberkorn's group and done up ready for finishing. The packages of clothes including little skirts, blouses, etc., are from Mrs. Harrington Walker's committee on clothes for the cupboard.

It is not necessary to be a member of AWVS to help with this necessary work. Just stop in and pick up a package or two when you are in the City. Remember the ad-

Philadelphia. — This city has a super market where no ration points are needed. It is the Philadelphia Quartermaster Army Center, which purchases food for Pennsylvania, Delaware and some New Jersey military posts. The center, which has branches in Bridgeton, N. J., and Dover, Del., also ships processed foods overseas.

If you use electric extension cords, check them frequently for frayed places. Never handle a cord with wet hands and handle a wet cord only with a thick pad or dry cloth. When the sweetness of cream is doubtful, stir in a pinch of soda. This will prevent curdling even in hot coffee.

It is a simple matter to spread french dressing uniformly over a salad by using a clothes sprinkler of the cock-necked, bottle-top variety. When finished, the sprinkler can be inserted in a hot-water faucet and quickly cleaned.

To wash cotton blankets, wash one at a time in lukewarm water and enough mild soap to make a two-inch standing suds. Rinse in several lukewarm waters. Dry in the shade. Press binding with a warm iron.

Michigan Plans for Postwar Dairy Markets

The 1,090,000 dairy cows of Michigan not only produce enough milk to take care of the needs of the state but also during certain seasons of the year there is a surplus supply shipped to other states, reports Charles Figy, commissioner of the state department of agriculture.

More extensive arrangements have just been made for inspection of milk and cream supplies to be shipped from Michigan to eastern markets. W. W. White, supervisor, bureau of milk sanitation of the state of Pennsylvania, had been conferring with F. M. Skiver, director of the bureau of dairying of the department of agriculture on plans for inspection of milk to be shipped to Pennsylvania markets. Mr. White stated that some shorts of milk during the past winter and anticipated shortages again. He stated considerable cream is now shipped from Michigan to Pennsylvania and that milk may be shipped for bottling purposes. Commissioner Figy stated that some Michigan plants are now approved for the shipment of sweet cream to eastern markets and that whole milk may be shipped to some of these markets during shortage periods.

Employers Aid Their Employees With Social Security Job

Many workers are unaware of the job their employers do in helping carry out the provisions of the social security act.

The employer not only collects and pays social security contributions but is required to give wage receipts to all persons in his employ; that is, if the work is covered by the provisions of the social security act.

The wage receipts or wage statements must be in writing and must be in a form which the employees can keep. A salary check bearing the required information about an employee's wages is not enough, because the worker has to relinquish the check when he cashes it.

Often, however, the employer gives the worker his check with a detachable stub, with the wage statement on the stub.

The employer, in a wage statement, is required to give his name, the worker's name and social security account number, the amount of wages, the period for which the wages were paid and the amount of the employee's social security contribution.

The statement must cover at least one three-month period (calendar quarter) and not more than one year. It must be furnished to the employee not later than the last day of the second calendar month following the period covered by the statement, except when the employee leaves his job. In that event, the final statement must be provided when the wage payment is made.

For further information get in touch with Francis L. Pendergast, manager of the social security board office at 8037 Harper avenue, at Van Dyke, Plaza 8714.

Of the few residents who attended the meeting, or who have been contacted regarding the project, about half have expressed disapproval, while the remainder have agreed that this is a step in the right direction. Chief objection seemed to be the noise and traffic hazards.

THIS IS DETROIT, THIS IS AMERICA

On last Tuesday, at the request of The Detroit News Station WWJ, Mrs. Myrtle Johnson, an employee of Great Lakes Steel Corp. stepped before a microphone for the first time in her life, to tell Detroit about her job.

Mrs. Johnson is fifty years old. She works seven days a week doing the housework in her home at Wyandotte, Mich. She works seven days a week at the Great Lakes plant in Ecorse, Mich.

She is a woman steelworker.

Besides working, Myrtle Johnson worries about the welfare of her family which—to her—is thinking about her country.

Mrs. Myrtle Johnson, of Wyandotte, tells below what she is doing for her country and her family.

When she speaks—THIS IS DETROIT—THIS IS AMERICA.

Miss Fran Harris (WWJ Interviewer): Stan--Mr. and Mrs. Listener--here's Mrs. Myrtle Johnson--Mrs. Johnson, here's Mr. and Mrs. Listener--

Mrs. Myrtle Johnson: Hello. Mr. and Mrs. Listener--

Announcer: Hello. And getting right down to business --where do you work, Mrs. Johnson?

Mrs. Johnson: Great Lakes Steel--

Announcer: Great Lakes Steel Corporation--in the office, of course--

Mrs. Johnson: No--in the mill--

Announcer: In the mill-- What? A lady steel worker? Can't be.

Miss Fran Harris: She is, though; she's proof positive that women can work in steel mills and like it. As a matter of fact, there's a goodbig percentage of women working down at Great Lakes Steel--

Announcer: I'll be darned. What do you do, Mrs. Johnson?

Mrs. Johnson: I'm a bander--

Announcer: What was that?

Mrs. Johnson: I'm a bander--I put bands around piles of steel strips--get them ready for shipping--

Miss Harris: Stan looks about worn out by now--it's just too much for him. You see, the legend has grown up about the steel industry that it's strictly a man's business--not an ordinary man's business, either--it's a job for a big, strong, powerful man--

Mrs. Johnson: And it's upset everything to have women walk into steel mills and go to work. Of course, we should say they don't do the heavy jobs--they don't work with the furnaces--

Announcer: If I can recover enough, I'll ask it--what do women do in the steel mills--besides banding, and I don't know what that is either--

Mrs. Johnson: Some of the girls operate cranes--

Announcer: Ohmygosh; you mean, they operate overhead cranes that pick up loads of steel?

Miss Harris: You should see them, Stan. They run the crane down to a load of redhot steel strips--they manipulate the levers to pick up the steel and carry it over to a clean place where it can cool.

Announcer: Women drivers on overhead cranes. Think what would happen if some of that redhot steel hit anybody.

Mrs. Johnson: The steel industry wouldn't have women on the job if the boss didn't think they'd do well--women crane operators are just as careful as men--

Announcer: What else do women do at a steel mill?

Mrs. Johnson: Some of them are electricians--

Announcer: Think of it?

Mrs. Johnson: Some of them are machinists--some of them are inspectors--there are table operators--

Announcer: What's that?

Mrs. Johnson: They have to do with the operation of running sheets of steel out onto what they call "tables" to be cut--

Miss Harris: Back to your particular job, though, Mrs. Johnson--exactly what is banding?

Mrs. Johnson: Wrapping bands of flexible steel around great piles of steel strips--getting them ready for shipping--

Miss Harris: I know--but you don't pick up a bundle of steel strips and tie them together--how do you do it?

Mrs. Johnson: Oh--I see what you mean. We have four steel bands which go around a pile of steel strips--the pile is governed by the order which has to be filled, of course--we lay the bands out on wooden blocks on the floor--two lengthwise, two crosswise--

Announcer: Just like wrapping parcel post--

Mrs. Johnson: Yes, then the crane brings the strips and puts them down on the bands--we simply bring the bands up around the bundle of steel, jack them up tight, and crush the ends together. The crane carries the package to the freight car--of course, sometimes we do put special wrapping paper around the steel--that's when it's of higher grade--

Announcer: The way you tell about the crane doing all the heavy work, it doesn't sound so bad--

Miss Harris: Two women work together--that makes it easier. It's still making steel men gasp to go through the mills and see women on the job.

Announcer: How'd you happen to get interested in working at Great Lakes Steel, Mrs. Johnson?

Mrs. Johnson: Most natural thing in the world--my husband and two sons work there--

Miss Harris: You'll be interested in Mrs. Johnson's family--she has another son who's going to graduate from Wyandotte High School this June--he's only sixteen, too--

Announcer: He's smart.

Mrs. Johnson: He is, He works hard, too, now he's working with a window cleaning company after school--my daughter works in the Ecorse Bank--and I have another daughter who's married and lives in Grosse Pointe--

Miss Harris: What does the family think of your working?

Mrs. Johnson: They like it--we're interested in winning the war--soon.

Miss Harris: The whole family is--the Johnsons have quite a lot of land down in Ecorse, and they have a super deluxe victory garden--how many ears of corn did you sell last year?

Mrs. Johnson: We averaged 50 dozen a day during the season--then I put up a lot of vegetables, too--600 quarts.

Announcer: Were you working for Great Lakes Steel then?

Mrs. Johnson: Certainly. Now this year we're getting the garden ready again--my husband has a tractor--it's one of those that hangs together by willpower but he's already plowed up 18 lots for our neighbors--and he's just beginning on ours.

Miss Harris: The four of you who work in the mill must be on the same shift, then--

Mrs. Johnson: No, we all work different turns--

Announcer: Do you say turns instead of shifts?

Mrs. Johnson: You do in the steel business--just as you say mill instead of plant. We take turns each week--one week we'll be on in the daytime, another week will be from 4:00 to 12:00--another will be at midnight till morning.

Miss Harris: But if everybody's on different turns, how do you ever see each other?

Mrs. Johnson: We always have one big meal a day. We simply schedule it out. My married son is on the same turn with me--the other son and my husband are on the turn just after mine, so we manage.

Miss Harris: How do you handle housework and such?

Mrs. Johnson: On schedule--for instance, Monday is always washday--maybe I do the washing in the morning and work in the afternoon. If my daughter is on days--I do the washing at night. Tuesday, my daughter does the ironing and I clean the house. Wednesday I try to bake up a lot of things for the week ahead. It's just a question of planning.

Announcer: And in between times, the Johnsons work in the Victory garden. What a family.

Miss Harris: You like your job, though, don't you, Mrs. Johnson?

Mrs. Johnson: Yes I do. Once you work with steel it gets you; anything else seems insignificant--there's great power in steel--there's beauty--steel is the beginning of all kinds of industry--it's the fundamental material that's needed for a machine age--

Miss Harris: There's a great magnificence about a steel mill, too--huge equipment--great weights are handled--there's great heat in melting steel--it's a sight you never forget to see them pour the molten metal into moulds.

Mrs. Johnson: A steel mill is one place where you know you're working to win the war--working just as directly as though you were handling a gun--because without that steel, there'd be no gun.

Announcer: What kind of steel do they make down there at Great Lakes, Mrs. Johnson? Is it fine steel for precision tools? or what?

Mrs. Johnson: It's heavier steel--some of it goes into landing mats for airplanes--some of it goes to make the caterpillar treads on tanks and half tracks--some of it goes to make the Navy Quonset huts--metal houses, you know--

Miss Harris: You must get a deep sense of satisfaction out of working with such vital material, Mrs. Johnson?

Mrs. Johnson: I do. I feel a part of things--I wouldn't trade jobs with anybody in the world.

Miss Harris: You're a lucky person to have a job you like so well--thanks a lot for coming down to tell about it. I wouldn't be surprised if a lot of women look into the possibilities of working at Great Lakes Steel.

Mrs. Johnson: It's a very gratifying experience.

Good and Goody Now Playing at East Side Club

Hold on to your sides folks, Good and Goody, the craziest fellows in town have been let loose at the Club. They throw all dignity to the winds when they go into their serious comedy antics, such as the "dance contest," "acrobats" and "juggling of spoons along with their musical chatter. If the talk lags, Good always recovers a laugh in some darn cute mugging. Sharp plaudits with them is a cute little Maria Friejo, who does an amazing performance of swallowing "poison" size swords ending up with illuminated neon tube that can be seen through her body as she swallows it. Gerry Statler after a long absence as a specialty dancer offers a strut routine in abbreviated costume that is generally show stopping. Harry Whitney shares the high honors of the show and becomes a more solid favorite as he sings along. Ethel Shepherd is still going 'em and swinging 'em. Customers comments are that she is better than ever. The Pearl Magley favorites have some new routines well costumed and performed.

'Guadalcanal Diary' Scheduled for Colony Sunday and Monday

"Guadalcanal Diary" one of the most stirring stories to come to the American audience from the mud-covered terrain in the Southwest Pacific, will be shown to the patrons of the Colony theatre, 15635 Mack avenue next Sunday and Monday. This is the story of the battle which the U. S. Marines put up against the Nipponese on the sun-baked, blood-soaked territory which will go down in history as a famous battle of the present war.

With this, Jimmy Lyndon, that popular lad who gets into all the trouble he can find, stars in another of a series, "Henry Aldrich Boy Scout."

Park Firemen to Receive Twenty-Day Vacation

Victory Gardeners Busily at Work in Pointe; Council Reports Few Plots Left

With all of the community Victory garden plots except Kerby ready for cultivation, Grosse Pointers can look forward to the most promising growing season in their three years of crop production. The Kerby plot is under constant inspection, so that as soon as the discer can operate there, applicants will be notified. Even if it had been possible to disc Kerby, it is still too wet to work. The richness of the soil there should compensate for the delay in planting.
The Park representatives reported, at the Garden council meeting on May 19, that all of the gardens are reserved on both the Harcourt and Cadieux plots and planting has started. It will be possible to obtain some additional land in the vicinity of both plots for late comers whose applications are received promptly.
In the City of Grosse Pointe two additional locations on Lakeland, south of Kercheval, have been prepared to take care of the overflow from the original Lakeland plot. There are a few gardens still available on one of these, one garden only on Cadieux-Kercheval Place, and reservations have been received so fast for those remaining on Bon Secour that whether any are left is doubtful. The house moving, which was delaying planting on the lower Bon Secour section, got under way Monday before an audience of the entire Cadieux terrace.
The Farms gardens have started the season in gala fashion with flags and the championship pennant flying. Due to some changes there are still a few vacancies on the Radnor, Lothrop, and Kerby plots for those applying promptly. All gardens on Oak street are taken.
Due to transportation difficulties, and the demands on the time of volunteer judges, it was decided to judge the 11 community plots and the 499 individual gardens in the Park, City, and Farms only once this summer. The plots will compete for the championship pennant (won in 1943 by Radnor Park) and the three best gardens on each plot will receive awards of merit. The date and list of judges will be announced later.
Plans were discussed for holding the Victory Garden Harvest show at the Neighborhood club again in conjunction with the Grosse Pointe and Eastern Michigan Horticultural Society, on Sept. 9 and 10. Mrs. Lynn McNaughton, who has directed the show so successfully for the past two years, has been named temporary chairman to organize the committee for 1944.

Pointe Girl Scouts Hold Swimming Meet

The Grosse Pointe Girl Scouts have had weekly swimming meets this past winter. Tuesday night, May 16, the final meet of the season was held at Grosse Pointe high school. Parents and friends were invited to attend which resulted in nine of the 35 registrants winning swimming badges. They are Joan Cane, Margaret Ann Dalzell, Nancy Doherty, Julie Ford, Nancy Gotschall, Joan Houghton, Janet Johnstone, Barbara Oho and Carolyn Robinson.
In addition to the meet, there was a style show, which included Betty Gray as 1870; Jean Parfitt, 1880; Sally Neff, 1890; Lois Holtz, 1900; Beverly Martain, 1905; and Marilee O'Brien, 1944. An exhibition by the Grosse Pointe high school water ball was also presented.
These classes were under the direction of Mrs. Clarence Pinkston, former Olympic champion and chairman of the A. A. U.

Establish Methodist Church in Woods-Gratiot Township

Through the efforts of Dr. Halmhuber, the executive secretary of the Methodist Union of Greater Detroit, the board of missions has selected Gratiot township and Grosse Pointe Woods as the field for a new missionary project.
The first services were held on Easter Sunday with Sunday school at 9:45 a.m., and preaching at 11:00 a.m. The Rev. Ben Hollis has been appointed pastor in charge.
The services have been well attended and interest is steadily increasing. We are now in need of teachers and workers.
Through the courtesy of the Gratiot Township club, we have been meeting in their clubhouse, Roslyn at Base Line road. In the very near future we hope to be in our permanent quarters to be located on Harper avenue.
The name selected for the new church is the Redeemer Methodist church. Members of the church board say, "come and worship with us next Sunday morning and lend a hand with this worthwhile project."

Outlook for State Fairs Brighter Now

The outlook for township, county and district fairs throughout the state of Michigan, and a successful continuation of the showing of the Michigan State Fair livestock list at county fairs, is brighter than it has been at any time since the starting of the war, says Charles Figy, commissioner of agriculture.
Over fifty of the leading fairs have already indicated their intention to hold a fair during the 1944 fair season, and in all probability others will come later. This number does not include some thirty specials such as potato shows, breeder shows, etc.
A. C. Carton, supervisor of Michigan fairs, states that the state's contribution in the payment of one-half the premiums awarded on agricultural and industrial exhibits at township, county and district fairs will be in the neighborhood of one hundred thousand dollars and the payment of the total premiums awarded on state fair exhibits will be twenty-five thousand dollars.

Wayne County Roads Maintenance Higher

Lansing.—The state highway department will spend $405,932.00 during the present fiscal year ending June 30, 1944, on maintenance of state trunkline highways in Wayne county, an increase of $92,567.00 over the $314,465.00 spent for the same purpose during the 1942-43 fiscal year, Charles M. Ziegler, state highway commissioner, reports.

Waves Wear Smart Uniforms Designed for Style, Work

Designed to flatter all women who wear it, the navy blue Wave uniform is "tops" in smartness, from the soft, rolled-brim hat down to the trim black oxfords.
Women who join the Waves say good bye to clothing worries for as soon as they arrive at Hunter College, N. Y., for indoctrination training, they are given a $200 allowance for uniforms and other apparel. The official uniform costs about $180 and the balance may be used for underclothing and incidentals.
After one year's service, they receive generous cash uniform allotments each year for replacements. The navy blue wool suit has a jacket with slightly built-up shoulders, rounded collar and pointed lapels.
EDITOR'S NOTE: The following is one of a series of stories about life at the Waves training school, Hunter college, N. Y. It was prepared by young women at this school where all Waves, including those from Michigan, get their initial six weeks' indoctrination.

Job Selection and Graduation for the Waves

The opportunity to express your personality, talents, intelligence, experience, and desires comes in selection tests, given to discover hidden qualifications you didn't know you had and bring out those you're sure you do have.
You are interviewed by experts in personnel classification whose attentive ears listen as you discuss the job you would like to follow in the navy.
There's scarcely any sort of work a Wave cannot be trained for. A few of their jobs are: Accountants, aviation machinists, bakers, business machine operators, chaplain's assistants, chauffeurs, cooks, dental technicians, draftsmen, electricians, file clerks, financial assistants, hospital technicians, librarians, mail clerks, metal workers, meteorologists, parachute workers, pharmacists' mates, photographers, radio technicians, receptionists, stenographers, tallors, telephone operators, teletype operators, therapy technicians, welders, woodcraft workers and X-ray technicians.
Selection officers give careful consideration to every reason for your choice and your mind and energies are directed to the important job you can do as a Wave.

The marriage of Margaret Fresard and Nicholas Shock took place on Saturday, May 6, at St. Clare of Montefalco church with the Rev. Edward Sweeney officiating. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Joseph Couchez.
A wedding breakfast was given at the Whittier hotel for 100 relatives and immediate friends. A reception was held in the afternoon at the home of the bride's mother for 250 guests.
Since their return from their wedding trip in the East, Mr. and Mrs. Shock are making their home on Three-Mile Drive.

Your Next Detroit Edison Bill
-will look like this-
YOUR Edison bill will soon begin to come to you in post card form.
SIMPLE, CONVENIENT, PRACTICAL
It will be simpler—easier to read—a convenient size—and more practical in several ways. It will be small enough to slip into your pocket. With all its advantages, it will also help the war effort.
SAVES PAPER, MANPOWER, TRANSPORTATION
For one thing, the new bill will save paper. Envelopes are eliminated, and this saves 25,544 pounds of paper a year. In addition, the new post card bill will save manpower and transportation.
This is a wartime emergency measure. But we are sure you will like the new bill for its own good features—even without the paper and manpower saving it makes possible. It is a good method that has been tested and proved. People like it.
We believe you will, too.

Committee to Study Waterfront Park Policies

Ward S. Van Deusen, Park village president, appointed Howard Parrish, Joel Sage and E. B. Lane, village manager, to study future policies regarding the waterfront park. This action was taken after a request was received from Mrs. Lee Hunter, 1023 Lakepointe to allow a group of children from Faith Lutheran church to hold a picnic in the park. The request stated that some of the children lived in the Park.

In order to forestall an avalanche of similar requests, a report will be made by the committee to the commission.

First Lake Ride to Take Place Next Tuesday
 The first of the popular D&C lake rides of the summer season is scheduled for Memorial Day, May 30, according to officials of the Detroit and Cleveland Navigation company. This first lake ride will be followed by another on Sunday, June 4, and thereafter each Sunday during June, July and August, ending with a final trip on Labor Day, it is said. "These Sunday lake rides have become an unusually popular feature of D&C service during the past few years," James McMillan, general manager of the D&C lines says, "and Island, one of the highlights of the trip," he explained. This year, the weekend cruises will leave on Friday evenings instead of Saturday afternoons as previously, it was explained. This longer schedule will permit a full day's cruise through Georgian Bay before the steamer docks at Mackinac Island on Sunday morning. The weekend cruise returns to Detroit on Monday morning at seven o'clock.

Walter H. Remter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Remter, of 725 Washington road, and Jean Esther Toncray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Millard H. Toncray of 1222 Buckingham, received their bachelor of arts degrees from Albion college at commencement ceremonies May 22 when Gov. Harry F. Kelly delivered the address to the graduates. Eighty other candidates received the bachelor's degree at this time, two the master's degree and four, honorary degrees. Remter completed the requirements for the bachelor's degree in January. While at Albion he was a member of the Forum club, the Navy club, the Pre-Law club, the Interfraternity Council, and vice-president of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity. Miss Toncray was a member of the Alpha Chi Omega national sorority and the Biology club. She was cited for distinction in honors courses in biology at the time of graduation. The rate of total income for all persons in the United States increased on an annual basis more than 60 per cent between April, 1941, and April, 1943.

Learn About Your Social Security Benefits Says Head

Do you know how benefits are figured? You are aware of the fact that benefits are based on your calendar quarters must you have worked, and how much must you have earned in these quarters in order to qualify as an insured worker? What would you receive if you retired today? If you retired in 10 years? What amount would be coming in monthly payments to those who depend upon you for support if erage monthly earnings. How many you should die? What of a man who was over 60 when he married a widow with young children; can these children receive monthly insurance benefits when he retires? You and the other working members of your family will have questions like these to ask if, as you should, you will give thought to learning about your rights, your benefits, and your responsibilities under the Social Security act. Well, why not ask the questions? You can have the answers easily enough. And not any guess work, either. You can be fully and accurately informed about the social security act by inviting Francis L. Pendergast, manager of the Harper avenue field office of the social security board, to come to a meeting of your club or lodge to explain the act. It is not necessary that the gathering be a large one. He will be glad to accept your invitation, and, if you ask him, he will bring along plainly worded explanatory bulletins for distribution to your members, and posters for your office or meeting hall. Mr. Pendergast can be reached by phoning Plaza 8714 or writing to the Social Security Board, 8037 Harper avenue, Detroit 13, Mich.

Start Condemnation for Medical Center

A recommendation that the corporation counsel be authorized to proceed with condemnation of a site for the first unit of the Wayne university medical science center was approved by the board of education at its last regular meeting. The area includes the two blocks lying between Farnsworth and Theodore and running from Beaubien to Hastings as well as a third block bounded by Frederick, St. Antoine, Farnsworth, and Beaubien. The three blocks are to be used as a site for the Wayne university-county hospital. The board action was taken upon the recommendation of a committee including representatives of the Detroit city plan commission, the Detroit housing commission, the board of trustees of the Wayne university-county hospital, the board of directors of the Wayne university medical science center, and the Wayne university foundation. It was agreed that the action "be based on the understanding that none of the buildings in the condemned area will be demolished or tenants moved from them until the war is ended or until such earlier time as the housing situation is relieved." The entire district bounded by Warren, Brush, Hastings, and Ferry, with a gross area of 53 acres, was previously earmarked for the development of the center.

D&C Cruise Season Scheduled Opening Set for June 19

Opening of the 1944 D&C cruise season is scheduled for Monday, June 19, when the steamer Western States sails for Mackinac Island, Harbor Springs, Midland, Ontario and the Georgian Bay area, according to James McMillan, general manager of the Detroit and Cleveland Navigation company. This mid-week cruise which leaves Detroit on Monday and returns Friday will be followed by similar mid-week cruises each week throughout the season, according to the schedule just released. Weekend cruises leaving Detroit on Friday and returning Monday morning will start June 30. "A longer schedule for both the mid-week and weekend cruises is expected to add considerable interest to this year's cruises," McMillan explained. "Previously the mid-week cruise left Detroit on Monday evenings. This year it will leave Monday afternoons at 2:30 thus permitting an interesting trip through Lake St. Clair, the St. Clair river and on into Lake Huron before dark. This advanced schedule also will permit a longer stop at Mackinac
