Huge Throng Attends Dedication Ceremonies at Unveiling of Grosse Pointe Honor Roll

A CROWD estimated at between two and three thousand people, attended the dedication ceremonies of the Grosse Pointe Honor Roll unveiling Memorial Day on the high school grounds. Seen in the background is the edifice before it was unveiled, covered with multi-colored bunting.

Thousands Hear Ex-Governor Brucker Speak

With an estimated audience of twenty-five hundred witnessing the unveiling of the honor roll, the fact of the great sacrifice which the servicemen and women are giving was brought home to the residents of Grosse Pointe Tuesday morning, Memorial Day, at the ceremonies dedicating the honor roll on the high school grounds.

Flanked on one side by the spacious landscaping and the high school building, and on the other side the white and blue bunting, the speakers of the morning told the interested audience the meaning of the memorial both to those whose names are on the memorial and to the loved ones at home.

William J. Watkins, association president, traced the history of a group of civic leaders who were brought together to make a dream of everyone's mind a reality. The fruit of their efforts was before them: A shrine dedicated to service people. He thanked all those who did their share in this community project.

Wilbur M. Brucker, guest speaker of the morning, was introduced by Dr. Hugh L. Dill, mayor of the City. Mr. Brucker told the audience that this honor roll was a symbol of the faith of the citizenry, for it has been faith for centuries which brought this country where it is today. Democracy is the great unfinished work of this war and representing this unfinished work is the Grosse Pointe memorial.

A roll call of those who gave their lives in World War I was made by Dr. Charles A. Kenyon, president of the Grosse Pointe board of education. A roll call of the absent members of World War I was made by Harry Wells, commander of the Alger Post VFW, Kenneth M. Thomas, commander American Legion Post, No. 303.

The unveiling of the honor roll was performed by Mrs. Alger St. Denis and Miss Florence Severs. Invocation and benediction was read by Rev. Frank Pitt, D.D., and Rev. Father Edward J. Sweet, O.S.A., respectively.

Mingled among the crowd, servicemen from every branch of the service could be seen standing at attention when the flag was raised. During the program, the CAP paid tribute to the ceremonies by having three planes fly low over the grounds.

The music of the occasion was provided by the high school and Park junior high bands, and the drum and bugle corps from Alger Post No. 995 and American Legion Post No. 303.

The sale of Poppies in Grosse Pointe on Thursday, May 27, well exceeded twenty-eight hundred dollars for the local Posts, the VFW and the American Legion, who participated in the drive.

Alger Post, VFW, and its ladies auxiliary, canvassed the Pointe and that section of Detroit up to Conners and Warren. A total of $1,421.35 was collected by approximately seventy workers. Those who led in filling up containers were Lieut. Van Baelaere of the City police, and Lynn Baekman.

The Grosse Pointe Post No. 303, American Legion, workers covered only Grosse Pointe, and at the end of the day, the total amounted to $1,385.75. The 25 volunteers, men and women, collected the highest total yet raised by the post.

The four who turned in filled containers were James Madders, Sgt. Frank Snay, of the Park police; Martin Nielsen and Al Schumaker; Comdr. Kenneth Thomas and Spec. 2-C Tex Hoyt, who obtained permission to come home for the purpose of selling poppies, ran close seconds.

Chairmen of the Poppy Day sale, O. C. Ingalsbe of the VFW, and Martin Nielsen of the Legion, who wish to thank all those who contributed.

W-4 Wasp has been granted a short leave at home, after which they will assume duties at airfields throughout the country.

Charles Harris, age 14, of 817 Barrington road, reported his bicycle stolen last Feb. 5. Failure to remember the serial number, darkened his hopes of recovery.

However, turning detective, young Charles thought that the thief might go fishing some day with his bike and every day since, he has toured the water front hoping this to be true.

His expectations were fulfilled last weekend, when he found his bicycle parked near a youth fishing at Alter road. After calling police, the youth was taken to the station where he admitted the theft, also two more at home, one belonging to a Detroit boy and the other unidentified.

This annual festival, which had to be postponed last year because of the weather, is the final festival of Mr. William J. Watkins, supervisor of music of the Grosse Pointe schools, for Mr. Watkins will soon be leaving this community for the state of Washington in the very near future.

The program begins at 8 p.m.

Wounded Vets Need Your Boat

Because of the great need for recreational activity by the convalescing soldiers of World War II, who have been hospitalized at the Percy Jones general hospital in Battle Creek, pleas are going forth from the fund president, Mrs. Glen Anderson, 329 Merriweather road, for boats, for motors for boats, and for contributions for the purchasing of new boats, for the hospital's summer annex at Gull Lake.

Because active members of the Sunshine Fund have seen the need for water craft for the soldiers, they are urgently asking those who are in a position to do so, to fill these boys' free moments with boats of all sizes and descriptions. Since Gull Lake will house only amputees, it was decided that water craft would serve as the best possible pastime activity the men could have.

At the start there will be 100 men stationed at Gull Lake, but by the end of summer, approximately three hundred men will be there.

To date the following have contributed: Henry K. Linnuon, Rivard boulevard, money for two boats

University of Michigan Club of Grosse Pointe Announces Scholarship Awards

The University of Michigan club of Grosse Pointe township is pleased to announce, through its president, Douglas B. Crane, that the University of Michigan has awarded three alumni undergraduate scholarships and one university list scholarship to students from Grosse Pointe high school.

Alumni undergraduate scholarships were awarded to Marian Ann Hayward, Erneale A. Brutschy, and David A. Fairless. The university list scholarship has been awarded to Margaret Morse.

In view of the number of members of the Grosse Pointe Alumni club and its activities, it is eligible for three alumni scholarships. The scholarship committee of the Alumni club, after personal interviews, nominated a group of outstanding students of Grosse Pointe high school to take the competitive examination required by the university in competition with students from all high schools throughout the state. The result of this examination is one of the most important factors considered by the scholarship committee at the university in making its determination of scholarship awards.

It is a signal honor that the entire quota to which the Alumni club is entitled has been awarded by the university. These scholarships afford free tuition for four years if the students so honored continue to receive outstanding grades. This brings to a total of 17 scholarships to the University. ### Thief Ransacks Another Park Home

The home of Albert LeClerc, 688 Balfour was another victim of thieves some time during the long holiday weekend.

Tuesday morning, Alex Podalsky, the gardener, discovered that the house had been ransacked.

The thief, who entered through a second story window, left with only a dollar, neglecting to make off with other valuable items in the house. The family had been absent a few days.

Pickpocket Caught by Two Soldiers

While Mrs. Emma Bender, of 937 Barrington, was walking in front of the Park municipal building last Sunday night, a 16 year old youth, left the water fountain and snatched her pocketbook.

Two soldiers, Privates Philip McCann and James Lowry, who had just got off a bus, gave chase and caught the assailant at Ashland and Jefferson. He was turned over to Park police.

The youth was taken to the detention home by Lieut. A. Louwers, who will sign a complaint against him next week.

Sling Shots, Lead Pellets Bring Scolding to Youth

Workman Finds Floating Body Near Little Club May 31

Robert E. Sterling, 39, of 396 Elmhurst, Highland Park, a workman for a dredging company, discovered the body of a woman floating at the foot of the Little Club early yesterday morning.

When Farms Officers Champine and LaBroski arrived, they found a pocketbook floating near the body. After sending William Coriden, of 950 Rivard, who was waiting nearby in his boat after the purse, the coroner's office was notified.

The woman was wearing a red-flowered dress, white shoes and rayon hose, and in her purse, there was a slip of paper with a telephone number. Identification was made by calling the number, which proved to be that of the dead woman's niece.

The deceased, Mrs. Sophia Grochowski, 50, 1244 E. Grand boulevard, left her home at 4:00 a.m., Wednesday, four hours before she was discovered. During this time her husband was searching for her.

Mrs. Grochowski had been a patient at Ypsilanti hospital for the past nine months and was recently returned home by her husband.

Attention, Voters

Norbert Neff, City clerk, announces that his office will be open on June 7, 14, and 21, until 9:00 p.m., for registration of voters for primary election, July 11.

D-Day, If Before June 12 to Start Fifth War Loan Drive Rolling; Help Needed Now

An SOS for volunteers immediately, was issued by Kenneth Moore and Richard Maxon, co-chairmen, in behalf of the local part in the Fifth War Loan Drive which will be launched nationally June 12, or on the first day of invasion, should the latter take place first.

With the Grosse Pointe school system supplying the key punch in previous loan drives, absence of that organized effort, due to summer vacations, makes it doubly desirable that more volunteer salesmen enter the picture at once. An increase of 15 per cent in the quota to be raised is direct evidence of the need.

Headquarters for the drive, as usual, will be in the AWVS office, 17027 Kercheval avenue. Mrs. Richard Khuen is recruiting chairman for gallants; Mrs. C. R. Brooks is chairman of the war savings division of the AWVS and Mrs. Robert S. Grieves is in charge of the bond office.

Youthful Group, Lost on Lake Shore, Found by Police

Park police received a call Sunday night, stating that the caller and three companions and a girl were in a boat. The girl had suffered a severe gash in her leg. He did not know exactly where they were along the waterfront, because they were calling from a house where there were no occupants.

Three Park scout cars and one from the city were dispatched to take up the search. Sergeant Mead of the Park found the group, at 16782 Jefferson.

LOUISE J. BRAND

four years ago in Detroit; she reported to Avenger Field last November. Her husband, Malcolm D. Brand, is in the U. S. Army. Before joining the Wasps, she was an officer in the Detroit Red Cross Motor Corps.

The new Wasp has just completed seven months of tough "army-way" flying and ground school training, together with her classmates. They are now qualified for ferrying, tow target, slow line, and many other non-combat flying jobs. They have proved equal and sometimes superior to male pilots in performing the routine but necessary tasks which tax the patience and strain the nerves of army wingmen, champing at the bit for more active duty.

W-4 Wasp has been granted a short leave at home, after which they will assume duties at airfields throughout the country.

Park Youth Turns Detective; Recovers Long Lost Bicycle

German Prisoner

LIEUT. WILLIAM C. JOY

Previously reported as "missing in action" over Germany, Lieut. William C. Joy is now a prisoner of war in Germany. The war department notified Mrs. Marion DeBarbaro on May 19.

No details were forthcoming, except that as soon as the lieutenant is assigned to a permanent camp his wife will be notified of his dress so that mail may be sent him.

Since being reported as missing on Sunday, April 22, Mrs. Joy pressed the greatest confidence her husband would fall into hands of the underground or be a prisoner.

TO THOSE WHO HAVE NOT

To those of you who have responded to the pleas of the Sunshine Fund, we beg of you to have patience while reading this, but to those of you who have "put off" doing anything for fund, we beg of you to read further.

The Sunshine fund, which is made up of Michigan women, whom Mrs. Glen Anderson of Merriweather road is president, is asking for funds and donations for those servicemen who are to spend the summer months at the summer annex of Percy Jones hospital, Gull Lake. Only those boys who are appointees will be allowed to remain at the lake, and these will number approximately three hundred.

Wouldn't it seem logical to you that these boys, who must have recreational activities, would get ever so much delight out of sailing a boat on the quiet waters of Gull Lake. This is one activity which they all will be able to participate in and enjoy.

It is much easier for a one-armed lad to maneuver a small motor boat than it is to perform some other tasks.

However, seven boats cannot and will not take care of so many boys. This is the number which has been provided by the Sunshine fund.

Perhaps you have a boat which is laid up for the duration of the war; you intend to get a new one after the war; give it to the boys. Perhaps you have a motor hanging in your garage waiting for a boat; why not give it to them? Perhaps you have a motor boat that it is to perform some other tasks.

What finer thing could you do for these lads who have sacrificed some part of themselves while you remain at home?

Glendale, Ariz. — Aviation Cadet Robert K. Fluit, 19, has just completed the army's primary flight training course at Thunderbird Field No. 1, Glendale, Ariz., it was announced this week. He is the son of Albert O. Fluit of 343 Kerby road, Grosse Pointe Farms. Aviation Cadet Fluit attended Grosse Pointe high school and Washington State university in Pull-

AC R. K. FLUIT man, Wash. He is a member of the Elks Club in Laguna Beach, Calif., and was employed by the Chrysler corporation before entering the AAF a year ago. His wife, Mrs. R. K. Fluit, is now living in Phoenix, Ariz. Fluit has four brothers in service: Albert Jr., signals corps; Roland, AAF; Clifford, USNR; and Louis, USMC.

Aviation Cadet Omer R. Baetens, who, for the past several weeks, has been training in Chickasha, Okla., has been transferred to Garden City, Kan., to further his studies.

Theodore M. Templeton this week received a much coveted pair of pilot wings and was commissioned a second lieutenant in the U. S. army. This event marked the completion of one of the most rigorous courses of training prescribed by the AAF training command.

Lieutenant Templeton entered the AAF last year as an aviation cadet and was sent to the classification center at Nashville, Tenn., where he was chosen as potential pilot material. From there he went to an army air forces training command preflight school where he underwent arduous toughening-up exercises and study. He received his primary and basic flying training at various training fields in the Eastern flying training command and was then sent to the army air forces advanced flying school at Marianna, Fla., for two months intensive course in single engine flying tactics and operations.

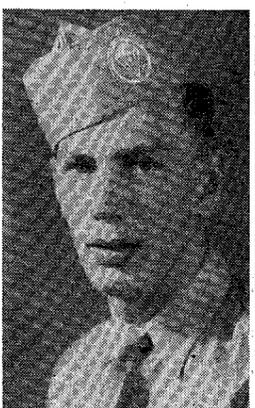

Lieutenant Templeton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Templeton of 1424 Bishop road. He attended Grosse Pointe high school.

Fort Benning, Ga. — Pvt. Robert Dougherty, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Warren, of 714 Notre Dame has won the right to wear wings and boots of the U. S. Army paratroopers. He has completed four weeks of jump training during which he made five jumps from a plane in flight, the last a tactical jump at night involving a combat problem on landing.

Jumping at the parachute school has been steadily developed to a recognized war science. There is less than one per cent chance of injury while jumping at the school.

In addition to producing jumpers, parachute specialist training is given to qualified men in communication, demolition, riggers, and sewing machine maintenance, vital skills for airborne troops.

Dear Sir: Just a note to thank you for your past favors in sending me The Grosse Pointe Review. My address has been changed and would like you to change it on your mailing list. Thanking you again, I remain your truly, T-5 Thomas Dolsen

I Am a Wac

by LIEUT. FREDDIE BOYLE

One of the many misconceptions about the Women's Army Corps seems to be the erroneous impression that Wacs have no time for anything but work. On the contrary, a Wac's day is so well planned that she has plenty of leisure for reading, letter writing, or following a favorite hobby.

Just this morning I heard of a Wac sergeant from New York state who does weaving in her spare time. She is stationed at Selfridge Field, Mich., and works in the finance office. Not long ago the Selfridge Wacs were moved to different quarters where they were permitted to furnish and decorate their rooms according to taste. The sergeant sent home for her Swedish loom on which she is able to produce dress materials, woolen-and-silk mufflers, blankets and Irish table linens. Now she is using her hobby to lend a bit of color and add a homey touch to her quarters.

As far back as the sergeant can trace, the women in her mother's family were weavers, but her mother never learned the art. The sergeant expects to teach weaving commercially after the war.

This is only one example of what a Wac does in her spare time. Many of the women go to evening classes offered on the various army posts and learn French, Spanish, or perhaps even Japanese. A knowledge of these languages would no doubt, come in handy to Wacs sent overseas, depending, of course, upon the theatre to which they are sent. But regardless of whether the languages are used, the study of them keeps the mind active and broadens one's educational background.

I know two Wac officers who have art training. They have been putting this talent to work in their spare time lately, making layouts for Wac display cases, and lettering headlines for attractive posters.

Those Wacs who have adopted photography as their hobby, find ample opportunity for taking interesting pictures of Wacs on the job and in comic poses for amusing memories after the war is over.

Mason School N-E-W-S

At last week's meeting of the boys' safety patrol a plaque for meritorious service from the Automobile Club of Michigan was presented to the patrol by the principal. The award was accepted for the boys by Captain Lalry Marr. In presenting the award, Miss Tucker commended the members on the work of the year. She also asked the boys to praise this year's work. The members are working on this appraisal the hope that ideas for bettering patrol service in the future will be forthcoming. Assignments for last two weeks of school were made. New members will be trained graduating 6A's for duties next semester.

Members of the 6B-6A groups Mason presented a music and rhythm program for the parents at last PTA meeting, Tuesday evening, May 23. Approximately seventy boys and girls took part in the program. Miss Quincannon directed five numbers as follows: "Pioneers," "Isle of My Desire," prayer from "Hansel and Gretel," "Song of the Islands," and "May Day Dance." Following the selections by music department, Mr. Hicks explained the value of rhythmic dances in physical education for upper grades. The importance of this type of work in helping teach to attain the objectives of physical education was also pointed out.

Members of Miss Schmidt's class executed marching formations for the audience. They did the grand march, figure eight, marching fours and eights, left and right. This also formed a large "M" for Mason and ended their part of the program by forming a large "V." On sixth grade pupils demonstrated familiar dances of the Virginia

The concluding number of pupil's program consisted of a number of square dances. The following were demonstrated by three sets: "Duck the Oyster," "Duck Clam," "Swing the Man From Kansas," "Around That Couple Take a Little Peek," and "Square Dance Polka."

Advise Planting of Culinary Herbs to Ease Shortage of Spices, Condiments

by TOM PEARSON

In these days of food rationing when various condiments and spices are scarce and some unobtainable, the wise victory gardener would do well to grow a few plants of herbs from which green shoots and seeds can be garnered to add spice and zest and put the finish to many a culinary dish.

Late May when the ground is fully warmed up is the proper time to sow seeds of annual varieties and many perennial kinds; also to set out plants of perennials that are not readily raised from seed.

We have only one outstanding biennial — caraway (carum carui) which can be sown now, producing carrot-like plants which will stand through the winter, continue growing next spring, flowering and then producing its seed crop about July-August, thus finishing its cycle.

For the average victory gardener it will only be necessary to have about three plants of any variety perennial herb and in most cases not more than a dozen of any annual one.

Included in the perennial varieties that can be quickly grown from seed (i.e. to harvest your crop the same year, and to be of daily use throughout the maturing season) are sage, common thyme, parsley, French sorrel, winter savory, lemon balm, hyssop and burnet.

Others that must be obtained as plants which take a much longer season to develop include the tender perennial rosemary and true tarragon (artemisia dracunculoides) not readily raised from seed but by division and root cuttings.

Still others which you should set out in developed plants are chives and the various mints of which we have a great many varieties catering to individual taste; among these, and leading the list—spearmint or roman mint, the true variety for mint sauce. There is also a curly-leaved type (mentha crispum). Peppermint in its gray and green leaved forms; applemint, anise and the gaily variegated pineapple mint, which is a most useful one for cooling drinks and for garishing.

All mints thrive best in a moist, rich loam and partial shade, but will grow well under most conditions.

Leading the list of annuals for common use is dill; then perhaps in importance for seasoning, the tender sweet marjoram, sweet basil, summer savory, both fennel and sweet fennel, borage, anise and coriander.

Regarding general culture, most herbs (with certain exceptions) require a medium light soil and an open, sunny location.

Seed may be sown in prepared beds or in rows, and a good rule for the novice to remember is — to sow the seed to the depth of the seed itself, then cover with finely sifted soil.

This advice is equally true in sowing practically all vegetable varieties.

First Annual Police, Firemen's Ball Is Huge Success

Elmer Labadie, chairman of the first annual police and firemen's ball which was given for the police and firemen's pension fund of Grosse Pointe Farms, announced this week that the affair which was sponsored May 25 at the Mayfair Club, was a huge success. He wishes to thank all those who attended the ball and those who supported it with their contributions.

The winners of the four war bonds which were offered that evening are Betsy Davidson, 121 Meadowlane, $50 bond; Paula Sutton, 175 Merriweather Road, $50 bond; and F. E. Werneke, 206 McKinley and William Mondry of 375 Fisher Road, both $25 bonds.

Sharks are regarded with a superstitious fear by the Japanese.

Waves Celebrate 1st Anniversary at Grosse Ile Base

For one year the Waves have helped "Keep 'Em Flying" at the Grosse Ile, Mich., naval air station and they've done a job which has earned the respect and admiration of all the men at the base.

The first group of nine enlisted Waves was assigned to the base on May 30, 1943. That number has grown to 207. This first anniversary of their assignment to the station finds Waves performing scores of different duties in 25 different departments. They are doing the jobs previously handled by the men they replaced — and doing them extremely well.

In the assembly and repair department, Waves overhaul and tear down plane engines, make regular checks of all aircraft, work on gyro and electrical instruments, clean and check sparkplugs, repair wing and fuselage damage — in fact, perform the many tasks essential to the smooth operation of the planes and safety of the men who fly them.

All parachutes in the station must be inspected every 30 days. This is done by Wave parachute riggers, who also make repairs to the chutes when necessary and help student fliers adjust them for safety and comfort.

In addition to working on planes and related equipment, Waves help teach students flying and gunnery. In the Link trainer department, students "fly" in model cockpits, mounted on platforms a few feet above ground. Waves help them get the feel of the controls and to fly "blind" by instruments. The technique of blasting enemy planes from the sky is taught by Waves with synthetic gunnery devices, patterned after actual navy aerial guns.

Grosse Ile Waves also are assigned to many administrative and staff offices including disbursing, personnel, public works, transportation, flight, records, cadet regiment, aerology, ground school and legal.

Trim, roomy barracks with beautiful-fully-appointed lounges provide living quarters for the Waves. There are adequate facilities and frequent opportunities for the Waves to play basketball, volley ball, badminton, shuffleboard, tennis and to swim and bowl.

Last winter, ice skating was popular at the base and a rink was equipped with floodlights for night skating. Once weekly, music was played over a public address system and a free lunch of hot dogs, coffee and cocoa was served. The Grosse Ile naval air station, bordered by the Detroit river, is 18 miles from Detroit and its natural surroundings resemble grounds of an exclusive country club rather than a military base. There are more Waves at Grosse Ile than any other naval activity in Michigan.

Eggs keep fresh longest if they are not only kept cold but also covered.

He appeared the first day to become a blood donor for the thirteenth time. Preparing Technical Sergeant Treut are Mrs. W. L. Reeder of the San Antonio Red Cross blood center and Mrs. B. A. McGaffigan, volunteer worker. Climaxed by the en masse appearance of the Randolph Field Rambler baseball squad to donate blood for military use, the five-day appearance of a mobile Red Cross blood donor clinic at the famed flying field ended Friday with a record of having exceeded the eleven hundred pint quota by some two hundred pints. Officers, enlisted men, Waves and civilian employees of the field and central flying training command headquarters streamed into the huge hangar housing the mobile unit at a rate exceeding the 11-donors-per-15-minute clip which was originally scheduled.

Bethany to Mark Second Anniversary Sunday, June 4

All preparations have been made for the celebration of the Second Anniversary of Bethany's new church home, corner Outer Drive east of Chatsworth. This year also commemorates the fifty-fifth anniversary of Bethany Lutheran church.

Bethany congregation was organized February 3, 1889, and its first church dedicated on November 10, 1889. The present site of Bethany was purchased in 1925 and ground was broken for the new home on Palm Sunday, April 6, 1941. The completed buildings were dedicated June 7, 1942.

A special festival celebration has been arranged for both morning and afternoon. Here are some of the highlights of next Sunday's celebration.

The Festival Service will begin at 10:30 a.m. Hymns of praise will be sung by the congregation, choirs and children. The Rev. Oswald Riess, pastor of Bethany, will preach a special festival sermon. In this service, Bethany's new vicar, Mr. Kenneth Lindsay, will also participate, and that for the first time.

After the service a dinner will be served by the Bethany Ladies' Aid Society. Following the dinner, the afternoon program provides for a brief informal get-together, during which the members will give their birthday war bonds to the Post War Reserve Fund Committee-men, while making new acquaintances and renewing the old.

At two o'clock the Bethany film will be shown, and at three, the main feature of the afternoon will begin. A sacred song concert will be rendered by the Detroit Lutheran Chorists and Soloists under the direction of Mr. W. G. Nuechterlein. They will sing anthems for the various cycles of the festival church year. The Christmas cycle, the Easter cycle, and the Trinity cycle. Harp and violin duets will close each part of the program. Following the concert, Pastor Riess will deliver an address and close the service with the prayers and benediction. A special offering will be reserved for the benefit of the Detroit Lutheran high school. All Lutheran churches of Detroit have received an invitation to attend this concert. You are always welcome at Bethany.

Firemen Pension committee of Grosse Pointe Farms, wish to thank The Grosse Pointe Review for the splendid co-operation extended to the Police and Fire departments in regards to our first annual ball. Thanking you again for all past courtesies and wishing you the best, I remain
Elmer T. Labadie,
General Chairman.

Rabbits Beware!

A Touraine road victory gardener complained to Farms police that rabbits were destroying her crop. She asked that the officers keep a sharp lookout for the "little villains" and shoot them on sight. They appear every morning between 7 and 7:30 a.m.

Grosse Pointe High School Rowing Crew Enters National Regatta in Philadelphia

The members of the Grosse Pointe high school rowing crew will leave Thursday night for Philadelphia, where they will enter the Schoolboy Rowing Association's national regatta.

The regatta, an annual event is to be held over the mile course on the Schuylkill river Saturday, and high school crews from New York, Delaware, Connecticut, and other states will supply plenty of stiff competition for the Blue Devil oarsmen.

The rowing coach, Judson Ross, who is also coach for the Detroit Boat club crews, has not released all of the names of the entries, but his varsity boat will probably be made up of Bob Benya, Floyd Nixon, Tom Blacklock, Jack MacKenzie, Dan Sullivan, Frank Burn, Bill Chapman, Joles Huebner, and Coxswain Bob Tobin.

The second boat will probably consist of Jerry Hughes, Bill Kerr, Nate Van Osdol, Bill Beever, Dick Ryan, Jeff Wilshire, Dick Knight, Ralph Fluit, and George Hubbard.

A fourth rowed by Frank Blair, Bill Cardinal, Bill Halliday, and Russ Johnson will also be entered.

About twenty-five boys will make the trip.

William Healy, high school athletic director, will accompany the crew as his guest.

The boys will return Sunday. Rowing, as a varsity sport, was first included in the high school curriculum six years ago. Devil crews have won the North American singles and doubles championships; the Royal Canadian Henly in eight-oared and four-oared events; the Down river regattas, and others.

The season starts early in March and lasts till the end of July. About thirty boys are out for the sport this year and Coach Ross has hopes of entering three eights in the Canadian Henly in July.

Place Dog Quarantine in Eighteen Counties

Because of one or more found infected with dog rabies recently, in 18 counties, a quarantine has been placed on these counties by Commissioner of Agriculture, Chas. Figy. All of these counties with diseased dogs are located in southern Michigan, and the counties so quarantined are as follows: Barry, Berrien, Calhoun, Clinton, Eaton, Genesee, Hillsdale, Ingham, Jackson, Kalamazoo, Lenawee, Macomb, Monroe, Oakland, Shiawassee Washtenaw, and Wayne.

Dr. C. H. Clark, State Veterinarian in charge of control work on dog rabies in Michigan, states that this is the season of the year when the disease outbreak spreads more rapidly and it is necessary in order to get complete control, that all dog owners in the infected area keep their dogs tied or definitely kept from running loose. The quarantine covers a ninety day period and started May 23rd.

According to the Department of Health records, the infected animals so far this year exceeds that of last year. To prevent further spread, anyone noting a dog trying to bite, or acting sick in any way, should report to the county sheriff or local health officer.

Mickey Rooney, Judy Garland Co-Star in Aloma Picture

A comedy filled with laughs and a drama filled with tears are teamed at the Aloma theatre Friday and Saturday. Mickey Rooney and Judy Garland are starred together again to make their latest picture a riot with laughs and peculiar situations. The picture, "Girl Crazy" finds Mickey being sent to a western school for boys by his New York father to get Mickey away from the girls. While there he discovers Judy, the only girl around, delivers the mail to the school, and how they make out after this meeting is the story.

"None Shall Escape" a story which pretends to take place after the war, finds the Nazi "higherups" on trial for the murders which they directed during their reign. In it, Alexander Knox and Marsha Hunt, tell the story of the happenings of a small village during such a reign.

'In Old Chicago' Returns to Screen

A fine picture filmed a few years ago, returns for an engagement at the request of its patrons at the Colony theatre, Sunday and Monday. "In Old Chicago" is the story of the great Chicago fire started by Mrs. O'Leary's cow kicking over a lantern, starting a conflagration which finally burned itself out at the river. Starring in the picture are Don Ameche, Tyrone Power, Alice Faye and many others. This is truly a fine attraction—Don't miss it! Completing this double bill is "Banjo on My Knee" in which Barbara Stanwyck and Joel McCrea are co-starred.

Neighborhood Club N-E-W-S

Bud Hudson was declared champion pool player at the Neighborhood club after the recent pool tournament. He won the coveted trophy from the runner-up, Jim MacDonald.

During the final three-game playoff, each boy won a game and then Hudson broke the tie by defeating MacDonald. Early in the fall the newly organized pool club plans to have a series of matches and another tournament.

Tomorrow night, June 2, the Pointers club is sponsoring a dance, the June Jive; with Johnnie Titus' orchestra and some smooth decorations. The arrangements will be similar to those enjoyed on May 19.

Seeds Need Extra Help When Sown in Summer

Soak Soil in the Drill, and After Sowing Shade the Row With Board Until the Seeds Germinate.

Special precautions are needed to insure the germination of vegetable seed sown in hot, dry weather. Some gardeners find it advisable to start lettuce, endive and other vegetables which are easily transplanted in outdoor flats, moving the plants to the garden when they have reached a fair size. This cannot be done with beets, carrots, turnips, and beans, however; and here the hard problem is keeping the ground loose above the seed, so that the sun does not bake it into a hard crust which may prevent tiny seedlings from emerging. Drills should be made deeper than in the spring, and the soil thoroughly soaked along them. Then sow the seed and do not cover them, but leaving a slight depression which will catch any moisture that may fall in dews or light rains. If, in addition, the row can be covered with narrow boards, to shade the soil from the sun and check evaporation, germination will usually result in normal time.

Lacking such boards, the row may be covered with paper, or burlap. The board is preferable, and it can be lifted an inch or so above the ground, on cross pieces of wood, so that air circulates freely beneath it, if desired, to check any danger of damping off. It is important to prevent the formation of a soil crust over seeds before they have germinated. This may result from a heavy rain, followed by baking in the hot sun. In clay soil it may prevent the seeds from emerging. Shading avoids this danger. Whatever shading material is used, as soon as the seeds appear above the surface it must be lifted to allow full sunlight to the young plants. Until these have become well established, daily sprinkling with a hose will prove beneficial. Except for such a specific purpose, however, the Victory garden should never be sprinkled. Dust should be encouraged to form over the soil; it will enable air to penetrate and rains to soak in.

Gardens Need Food and Water in Hot Weather

Hot weather tests the Victory gardener's skill. So long as rains are plentiful, nights cool but not too cool, and the days pleasant, crops will grow with very little attention, except for cultivation. But in hot weather troubles multiply. Growth slows up and insect attacks grow worse. Even if rains continue hot weather is always dry, because the heat evaporates an enormous amount of water. Cultivation becomes vital, not only to cut down the weeds which are competing with the crops for subterranean water and food, but to create a dust mulch, which will check evaporation from the surface of the soil and conserve it for the plants. It is now that the application of extra plant food becomes important for stimulating the growth of plants which otherwise would be inclined to sulk. Insect attacks should be dealt with upon their first appearance, since the warm weather not only increases the number of the insects but diminishes the resistance of the plants. Where a garden can be irrigated the complaint is often heard that water does not seem to do much good, and the reason usually given is that the water is cold. But if the water is applied in a spray which is broken up into fine particles it is warmed by the air sufficiently to overcome the objection. It is probable that the reason for disappointment in irrigation, as a rule, is not cold water but insufficient water. The extent of evaporation during hot weather calls for an extraordinary amount of water to balance the supply available for the plants. The amount possible to apply by the ordinary garden hose is insufficient and is made less effective when sprayed through the air. It is advisable, then, that even with cold water, if the amount that can be used is limited, it be allowed to run in shallow trenches or applied directly to the soil rather than sprayed. Instead of trying to water the entire garden on the same day, or evening, concentrate on one portion, and give it a thorough soaking, at least a foot down. Next day, try another part. Such soaking should last a week, and the water will not be cold very long.

College Students From Grosse Pointe High School Attain Record Scholastic Averages

A scholastic average of B minus, the highest college scholastic average on record, has been achieved by 97 graduates of Grosse Pointe high school who entered 31 eastern, mid-western, and southern colleges in 1943 with the recommendation of their high school.

The honor point average of the first semester marks of these 97 alumni is 1.543.

The colleges' report on first semester grades attained by these students show that 16.3 per cent of their marks were A's. This is the highest percentage of A's ever received.

The distribution of marks report also shows that 31.4 per cent of the marks were B's and 44 per cent were C's.

The lowest number of unsatisfactory marks (D's and E's) were received—8.2 per cent. Less than 1.4 per cent of the marks received were E's, the lowest percentage of failures on record.

The second highest college honor point average was recorded in 1935 and 1937 when the honor point average was 1.47 per cent or equivalent to a high C plus.

The following students are placed on Grosse Pointe high school's honor list because of the excellence of their first semester college grades: Clyde Adams, Stuart Baits, Shirley Brattin, Virginia Collins, Ruth Essert, James Ghesquiere, William Griffith, William Healy, Jacqueline Hirt, Robert Kirby, Gene Lamont, Mollie Lester, Frank Munger, Barbara Nixon, George Nebel, Allen Parducci, Elaine Rais, Richard Reid, Rozanne Rupp, Richard Saxton, Joyce Schumann, Betty Vanderzee, Mary Ann Willison, and Dwight Wilson.

"This study of grades made by our graduates at college indicates that to this point, at least, the war seems not to have interfered with attendance of students at college since there have never been more of our graduates enter college than indicated in the report for this year. Further, the excellence of their work indicates that they have been well prepared and have maintained a very good mental attitude," said W. R. Cleminson, principal.

Flower Seed Grows Fast

Some New Marigolds Have Flowers Like a Chrysanthemum.

If June has come with no flower seeds sown, there is still time to have flowers in your Victory garden. Suppose you demanded a combination of flowers which would germinate in five days (in warm weather) and flower in 30 to 40. Here are some you might get:

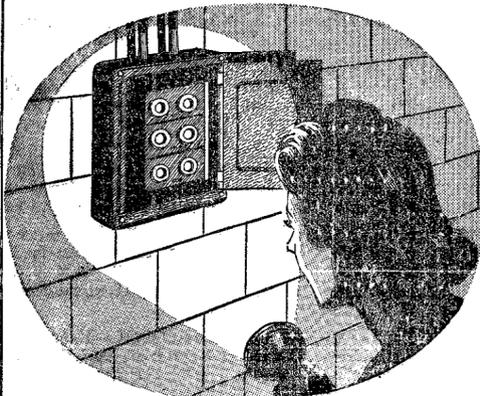

Zinnias, ageratum, alyssum, candytuft, centaurea, clarkia, cynoglossum, annual sunflowers, morning glories, annual pinks, leptosyne, linaria, marigolds, poppies.

Such a list might be very much enlarged by including varieties which will germinate in a week or ten days. But it would be interesting to see what sort of garden could be made of just a few flower families, seeking interest by using different colors and types.

Take zinnias for example—they could hardly be omitted from a garden of annuals. There are the small-flowered singles, the small lilliput doubles, the intermediate or "pumila" type and the giant floriferous varieties. They give an abundance of pink, red, orange, and yellow varieties with a few lavender. A whole border might be planted mostly to zinnias, provided one used enough ageratum, cineraria and cynoglossum to introduce the needed blue tones.

Then there are the nasturtiums. They should never be sown until the weather is hot. The new double fragrant types come into flower quickly and continue until frost destroys them. They need something blue and cool to set off their bright reds, oranges, pinks and yellows, but when this foil is provided they give a striking effect in parkway plantings, beds or borders.

How to STOP FUSE TROUBLE

before it happens!

It's no fun sitting in the dark simply because a blown fuse has plunged your house into a blackout. Most fuse trouble can be stopped before it happens by observing a few simple precautions.

- (1) Frayed lamp cords and extension cords are often responsible for short circuits. Such frayed cords are dangerous. Have them repaired BEFORE they cause trouble. (Don't loop cords over a nail. Don't kink cords or tie them in knots. Don't run cord through a door jamb or under rugs.)
- (2) Never put an electric appliance in water. Never poke at the element of your electric toaster (or any other appliance) with a fork or sharp tool, whether turned on or off.
- (3) Don't connect too many appliances and extra lamps on one circuit.
- (4) Be careful not to overload your washer, or feed too many pieces of clothing through the wringer at one time. The same is true of your ironer.
- (5) Disconnect appliances by pulling on the plug—never jerk out the cord. Do not let cords come in contact with water, grease or acids.
- (6) If a faulty lamp or appliance burns out a fuse, disconnect it at once—and don't use again until it has been repaired.

Electricity is not rationed. But its production requires coal and railroad transportation. Don't waste it!

Clover Seed Lack Perils Meat Yield

Alfalfa Also Short, So Feed Crops Are Cut Down in Allied Countries.

The most serious scarcity in the history of American agriculture has developed in the case of red clover, alfalfa and alsike clover seeds, and it threatens the dairy and meat production program with disaster.

These seeds are normally harvested by farmers, to whom the seed crop is not of great importance but sufficiently profitable to justify the extra work. With war booming the demand and prices of other crops, production of these seeds declined by one-fifth in 1943, while the demand for them has skyrocketed.

The protein food which they produce is vitally needed in dairies and feeding lots, if milk and meat are to be available for the civilians and armed forces of the Allied nations.

Solution of the problem is in the hands of the farmers, who have clover and alfalfa fields. It is necessary that these be allowed to mature seed this summer, and that the seed be harvested. This will deprive the farmer of second cuttings of clover or alfalfa hay, which must be left for seed; and to replace this it may be necessary to make fodder plantings of sudan grass, or sorghums this spring. Two acres of these fodders will usually replace the second clover or alfalfa cutting from twenty acres, but this procedure calls for planning now and early planting or replacement crops.

Scarcity of seeds will place an extra burden on the Allied shipping, because it will prevent feed crops from being produced in Russia and England, where the farmers must depend upon America for seed. Without these crops produced abroad, and the cattle which they might feed, more meat will have to be shipped from this country, for food lease and the armed forces, and this in turn will reduce the supply of meat for American civilians.

To arouse farmers to the importance of clover and alfalfa seed crops, a task force committee has been appointed by the war food administration, headed by John Nicholson of Shenandoah, Iowa, to conduct an educational campaign.

"Farmers, let's make this covenant this spring," said Mr. Nicholson in an appeal: "Resolve to use seed sparingly, to sell any that we do not use, and to plant a little extra acreage which we can harvest for seed this summer. Let's save seed for Victory."

Michael J. O'Brien Re-appointed as a Wayne County Road Commissioner

A few weeks ago, the board of supervisors of Wayne county met in regular session and re-appointed Michael J. O'Brien county road commissioner for a term of six years, by a unanimous vote of that honorable body.

Mr. O'Brien at the present time is chairman of the board of county road commissioners, and has been serving as a member of that board since 1932. He is a resident of the village of Grosse Pointe Farms.

At the time he first took office, the county road system consisted of a network of approximately 700 miles of highways; 52 grade separations at highway and railroad intersections; and 83 bridges. Today, the county road system comprises 2,252 miles of highways; 84 grade separations; 176 bridges; and four highway underpasses.

An outstanding design of expressway was recently constructed by the road commission through the city of Highland Park — the Davison limited highway, which is a mile and a half in length. This improvement has saved the motorists from 15 to 20 minutes running time, and the wear and tear on the vehicles, which formerly were compelled to stop and start with traffic lights at numerous intersections of important cross streets in this short distance, now completely eliminated — a saving of vital importance during this war time period. It is an excellent example of modern through highway construction, which the citizens of this metropolitan community may look forward to in post war highway development, such as is now being planned by the road commissioners for the John C. Lodge expressway improvement, and for other congested areas in need of traffic relief.

Since Mr. O'Brien first took office in 1932, the road commissioners have been delegated as the county agency to carry out functions other than strictly road building. The construction of a sewer and water system for the county was started several years ago by the road commission, who designed and built eight sewage treatment plants; the main plant being located at Wyandotte, with other smaller plants distributed throughout the county, together with the installation of 46 miles of trunk line sewers.

The water system, also constructed within the last few years, consists of 400,000 feet (80 miles) of water mains. Both the water and sewer were federal aid projects.

All of these improvements for the benefit of the citizens of Wayne county, have been made notwithstanding the difficulties the road commissioners encountered due to war restrictions.

The county parks and parkways together with their facilities have been considerably enlarged upon since Mr. O'Brien has been serving as county road commissioner. There are now 13 developed parks and eight miles of parkways, all of which comprise a total of 2400 acres, and the road commissioners are continually acquiring more land each year for park purposes.

The board of road commissioners also designed, constructed, and maintain the Wayne county airport, which is now leased to the United States army air corps for the duration. Although this excellent nationally known airport adequately served its purpose during prewar time, Mr. O'Brien is of the opinion that aircraft and airline transportation developments will progress so rapidly following the end of hostilities, that an additional super-airport in Wayne county will be needed and should be constructed in the hope of establishing this area as a great aviation center, as well as an automobile center. With this in mind, Mr. O'Brien, an active member of the airport negotiating committee of the board of supervisors, is working with this committee on its studies and research, and carrying on negotiations with federal, state, and city agencies to secure for Wayne county all the advantages postwar aviation will afford those communities that have the foresight to recognize its possibilities as an industrial asset to the people of the community.

The unanimous re-appointment of Mr. O'Brien by the board of supervisors of Wayne county without doubt, was in recognition of his sincere endeavor as county road commissioner to give Wayne county an honest, efficient, intelligent and businesslike administration of all the various functions of this office relating to highways, airports, parks, and the county water and sewer systems.

Funeral Services for Defer School Teacher Held Last Saturday

Miss Katherine Richards of Houghton, Mich., who had been a teacher in the Grosse Pointe public school since February, 1927, died in Henry Ford hospital on May 18.

The passing of Miss Richards was a great shock to her many friends and co-workers and a great loss to the teaching profession.

Her charming personality and kindly ways "surpassed by few people in this world," will be greatly missed in this community and by her many friends.

Miss Richards gave "her all" to her profession. No greater tribute could possibly be paid to any teacher than was voiced by a former pupil who said, "there never was a teacher who had a more kindly and human manner toward children."

At the request of the children of Defer school, a memorial fund has been established to purchase a picture for the school library to be known as the "Katherine Richards memorial."

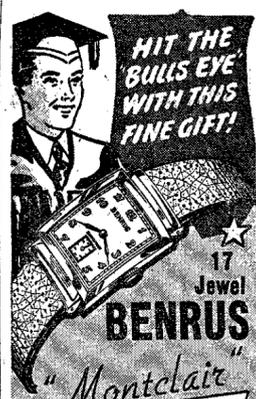

Services were held at the Harper & Mulligan funeral parlors, Saturday night, May 20, and the remains were shipped to Houghton, Mich., her birthplace, for burial.

WHY telephones are hard to get

For a long time, almost all new telephone apparatus that could be made had to go to the Armed Services... Factory space and manpower cannot be diverted to make equipment for civilians.

Despite all that, since National Defense got under way in 1940, Michigan Bell has added close to a quarter of a million telephones. That was made possible only by using up all our reserve equipment and by stretching to the limit the facilities we had.

We've crowded our switchboards and cables beyond their normal capacity. Where any residential service could be supplied, we've usually put in party lines instead of individual lines. And we've repaired and returned to service all usable old apparatus.

Orders for telephones essential to the war are filled promptly. Other requests for new service are handled under a definite procedure, as present users give up service. But there is a long and growing waiting list.

We believe you would want us to meet war service needs ahead of comfort and convenience for civilians. And we appreciate your understanding and co-operation.
