Speaking of the Township Election: Latest word is that it was a H-O-T election in one section of Grosse Pointe Park. And by hot we mean hot for an overheated stove drove voters and election workers out in the street from Precinct No. 3 booth located at Balfour and Jefferson. Resident's Stolen Property Recovered by Four Children

Four little children found their "treasure" last Saturday afternoon while playing together but their "treasure" turned out to be some of the articles which were stolen from Mrs. Henrietta Anderson's home at 1055 Audubon last January 14.

Little Tommy and his playmates carried the pillowslips to his home where his mother, Mrs. Howard Muller, notified the Park police.

This is part of the loot which thieves attempted to carry away from the Henderson home in January. However, while in the act of robbing the house, they were frightened away and hid the pillowslips. When the police arrived at the house shortly after the robbery, they recovered some things which, in their haste, was left on the walk and lawn of the house by the thieves. Some of the loot is still missing.

Salvage Drives Show Increase Over Previous Totals

The two salvage drives which took place in Grosse Pointe this past week were a success as far as recent records show, but the response still does not come up to the top which should be reached in a community of this size.

The paper drive sponsored by the schools in Grosse Pointe resulted in an increase of 5,000 pounds over the total collected in January. However, this increase was carried by only a couple of schools. The totals are: Mason 1,000 pounds, Kerby 1,900 pounds, Richard 1,100 pounds, Maire 1,000 pounds, Trombly 8,900 pounds, Defer 800 pounds, Vernier 3,300 pounds, St. Paul 5,100 pounds. A total of 23,000 pounds were collected.

The tin can pickup which was scheduled for last Monday morning resulted in a three ton increase; the totals from each of the five Pointe communities amounted to 41 tons. November's tonnage was 38; while the total a year ago was 36 tons.

Increasing Use of Certificate Plan As Coal Pile Shrinks

Increasing use of the certificate of necessity plan developed by the OCD to enable consumers to obtain coal is evidence of the mounting severity of the fuel shortage in the community, according to William G. Stamman, Park village clerk.

Mr. Stamman, as clerk, has been handling the certificates of necessity for the Park, and has issued over one hundred and fifty of them to residents whose coal piles were shrinking to a dangerous level. Since the plan was activated here several weeks ago, the volume has been increasing from week to week. No decrease in the number of applications is foreseen in the immediate future.

The certificate plan was first established by OCD during the coal shortage of a year ago, and its use averted hardship and suffering for thousands of families. The plan provides that a consumer with not more than a five-day supply of coal and unable to obtain more through regular channels may receive a certificate of necessity which entitles him to priority delivery of sufficient fuel to meet his needs.

"The certificate plan has been successful because of the wholehearted co-operation of dealers," Mr. Stamman said. "They also have found that it holds important advantages for them as well as for consumers. The fact that the list of communities using the plan is steadily growing is proof that every consumer must be allowed to conserve fuel.

AGAIN, IT HAS HAPPENED

We're wondering if Grosse Pointe Park residents stopped to realize when they read the story of the capture — at the point of a gun — of the three holdup men who robbed a St. Clair Shores business establishment, that the two Grosse Pointe Park policemen were taking their lives into their own hands as well as the future of their families.

Yes, it could have happened. If those three thugs would have shot the two officers as were their intentions, their families would have been left fatherless as well as pension-less. There are no provisions whatsoever made for the families of Park policemen who are wounded or killed while on duty.

The residents of the Park should stop and think of what they are expecting of their law enforcement officers. Would any Park resident take the chances which the policemen take day in and day out with the idea that if one were injured or killed, nothing would be forthcoming from the village for such efforts? This is not a kindly thought but it is the situation which exists in the Park.

Residents, this would be a good time to begin demanding of your village commission that a pension system be drawn up soon for the policemen of the Park before some family is left without a father or breadwinner because he saw his duty and performed it as "One of the Park's Finest."

I AM A WAC

by SERGT. RUTH C. WOLF

A few weeks ago this column carried a story about Puerto Rican non-noritas joining the Wac. Since that time another island has joined Puerto Rico in sending representatives to the United States for membership in the Women's Army Corps.

Fifty-eight Hawaiian women, possessing special skills, have arrived at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., for basic training. After they have completed the usual six weeks training they will be assigned to army installations in the continental United States.

Increasing interest of Hawaiian women in joining the corps is understandable through the fact that they have little means of aiding the war effort on their home island, and indeed, their enlistment will afford them a trip to the United States, expenses paid. Until last fall Hawaiian women were not encouraged to enlist. Women desiring enlistment would have had to pay their own expenses on the trip to the States since no organization or training facilities were available in the Territory of Hawaii.

Wac members serving with the Air Transport Command in Hawaii set up recruiting facilities last October so that a limited number of women could be enlisted and sent to the continental United States to fill the posts waiting for them.

During October and November these 58 women were enlisted at recruiting stations in Hawaii. They were issued uniforms and given a few days of military training before boarding a ship for the United States. This group constitutes the only women recruited at present in the Islands.

Mobile, Ala. — The USS Roselle, a fleet minesweeper has been put into commission at Chickasaw, Ala., in brief but fitting ceremonies to the backdrop of a bustling busy shipyard.

The Roselle, recently completed at the Gulf Shipbuilding Corporation, was put into commission by Lieut. Cmdr. H. P. Michiel, acting as representative of the commandant of the 8th naval district, who accepted the vessel from Ed Hirs, representing Gulf Shipbuilding Corporation and turned it over to Lieut. Cmdr. Henry T. Loehr Jr., USNR, her first commander.

The first of four sister ships, the Roselle, is listed in the records of the navy department as a fleet minesweeper. Actually she is also equipped with a gun.

of naming most fleet minesweepers after birds, the USS Roselle is the namesake of a parakeet who is an Australian member of the parrot family. The roselle is particularly noted for its brilliant plumage of vivid scarlet, dark green and yellow hues. In her present war dress the American Roselle bears little resemblance to her Australian sister.

The ship's commanding officer, Henry T. Loehr Jr., is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Loehr, 1094 Lanier boulevard, NE, Atlanta, Ga., and his wife, Mrs. H. T. Loehr Jr., lives at Union City.

One of her officers is Ensign Martin A. Van Howe, USNR, son of Mrs. Arthur A. Van Howe of 117 Mapleton road, Grosse Pointe Farms.

Ensign Van Howe is a graduate of the University of Detroit and is proprietor of the Cooley-Van Howe Service company of Detroit.

An Eighth Air Force Fighter Station, England. — Pic. LaVern C. Crandall Jr., 24-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. LaVern Crandall, 724 Neff road, Grosse Pointe, has been awarded the Good Conduct Medal for his efficiency and faithful performance of duty.

ELECTION MARCH 12, 1945

Ex-Village President Endorses Candidate

Karl B. Goddard, ex-village president of Grosse Pointe Park, has endorsed Charles Heise as a candidate for village clerk in the following words:

"I am glad to add my endorsement of the candidacy of Charles D. Heise for the office of village clerk of Grosse Pointe Park at the coming election to be held March 12, 1945. The office of the village in the Municipal Building contains the manager, controller, clerk and treasurer. It is largely here that our citizens come in contact with the executive employees of their government in the transaction of the business of the village, and it is an important element of efficient operation of village business that these key men co-operated with each other and exert their best efforts, individually and collectively, to put into successful operation and to carry out the laws, decisions, and policies adopted by the village commission. Mr. Heise has served the village long and capably as an official and is thoroughly familiar with the work and duties of the village clerk. It is my opinion that the interests of the village would be well served by his election."

Mail Delivery Resumed in Some Foreign Countries

Effectively immediately, limited mail service is being resumed between the United States and Finland, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, parts of Poland, and Bessarabia, part of northern Bukovina, and localities in Moldavia. Frank C. Walker, postmaster general, announced today.

Mail will not be accepted for localities in the Polish provinces of Pomorze and Kotowice, parts of which are still held by the enemy. For Poland, as for Finland, Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania, the service will be limited to letters not exceeding one ounce and non-illustrated post cards. The post office department has been informed that mail for certain areas in Poland may be delayed because of military operations.

The postage rates are five cents for letters and three cents for post cards for these areas. Air mail, registration, special delivery, money order and parcel post services are not now available.

For Bessarabia and part of northern Bukovina and certain places in the district of Dorohei in Moldavia—all of the foregoing areas being subject to the jurisdiction of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics—with which service is resumed today, letters, post cards, printed matter, samples of merchandise and commercial papers may be sent. Mail accepted for these destinations shall be subject to the rates and conditions applicable to the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and should include in the address "Union of Soviet Socialist Republics" as the country of destination.

Cleaners Mark Quarter Century

DALLAS (left), Glenn (center) and Leo Shepler, who recently celebrated their 25th year in business in Detroit, at a banquet they gave for their employees.

Lard Cans Were Original Equipment

Twenty-five years in the cleaning business in Detroit were marked recently at a banquet by the Shepler brothers, owners of Shepler's, Inc., which has its main office and plant at Harper and Grayton.

The Sheplers, Glen, Leo and Dallas, first entered the cleaning business with the aid of two lard cans at their home in Greenfield, Ohio, and at one time were temporarily out of operation when they burned the house down.

The Sheplers were the first cleaners in the small Ohio town, the residents of which had previously sent their clothes to firms in Cincinnati and Columbus, which sent out trucks weekly. They dipped the clothes in gasoline and hung them out for a week.

In those days, the well-dressed man smelled of gasoline, Dallas recalled. If your clothes were odorless, they had not been cleaned, he said. Leo augmented his income by sewing for a rival and the boys finally opened up shop, Glenn doing the gold lettering for the sign which adorned their first place of business.

When Glenn went to Ohio State university, he took an iron and ironing board with him and worked his way through school. This same ironing board he brought to Detroit with him and it was the foundation for the Shepler business which Glenn and Leo opened at East Jefferson and Navahoe in 1920.

Leo did all the work the first year while Glenn held an outside job to raise money to put in the business. Then, the plant was moved to Jefferson and Parkview in the Indian Village area. The firm has maintained a place of business in this section ever since, the present one being located at Hibbard and Jefferson and managed by Mrs. Colletta Rush, who has been employed by the Sheplers for 17 years.

The Harper plant was opened in 1931 and another store in the Penobscot building in 1933.

A storage vault is maintained at Hayes and Mayfield.

At the 25th year banquet, held in Mac's Colonial dining room at Harper and Courville, and given by the Sheplers for their employees, watches were presented to Vernon Ross, 23837 Rose, Roseville, employed by the firm for 13 years; Mrs. Helene Gallinet, 2106 Harding, a 10-year employee, and Adrien Dodd, 23129 Chambers, East Detroit, who has worked for the Sheplers for 14 years.

The banquet was attended by 42 persons. The Sheplers now employ 35 persons, the war having cut their personnel down from a peak of 48.

Home Economics Class

Practical experience instead of mere theory will be acquired by the Homemaking IV class this semester to further their training in actual domestic affairs. The girls will do a complete interior decoration job on the men and women teachers' lounge rooms at Grosse Pointe high school.

Armed with pins, needles, scissors, paint brushes and lots of ingenuity, the girls are at work transforming these rooms.

The walls and ceilings were freshly painted last Summer, so that the chief task is the making of new draperies and slip covers. Some new furniture was purchased and some of the old pieces repainted or refinished.

The project is under the supervision of Mrs. Jetta White, homemaking instructor. Some of the girls from Homemaking I class are assisting with the sewing. And the boys in Mr. Watling's shop class are also helping with the painting.

Sometime soon, many a teacher will sink into a newly upholstered chair, look around admiringly at the attractive surroundings and breathe a sigh of content. The faculty will at last have rooms equipped with modern, cheerful accessories.

Steve Cruchon of Grosse Pointe Writes Bowling Article for Esquire Magazine

Steve Cruchon of Grosse Pointe has written an article on the bowling genius of this generation, Joe Norris, entitled "Bowling's Boy Wonder Grows Up," and appearing in the March issue of Esquire. Steve Cruchon has been a Detroit all-star classic bowler for the past five years. He was in the army air corps for almost a year and was honorably discharged last March.

According to Cruchon's article, Joe Norris is the greatest gift of the past 10 years to the world of bowling. Shrewd, loyal and honest, blending diplomacy and tact with innate kegling sense and contagious fighting spirit, Joe is possessed of an uncanny faculty for squeezing a bowler out of good scores. They say along the Detroit rialto that one has only to bowl with Joe Norris to shoot a fat series. Everyone knows that Norris is directly responsible for the success of the Strohs, present match-champs and winners of countless laurels since Joe took the reins 12 years ago.

In 1942 Norris was leading man in Detroit's top-ranking all-star production, The Greater Detroit League, and the famous Times Classic—and working on with averages of 215 and 208, respectively. But an emergency appendicitis brought a bad leg, says Esquire, and his teammates had him all washed up as a bowler. Somehow Norris had a different slant. His reckoning was inspired pin music that doused out the dice and accounted for averages of 205, 212 and 224 for the time being.

When Mr. Esquire published the National Bowler's Journal, and an excited article from his pen, Joe Norris' last April, the magazine had the man on its cover. The American team for 1944 was a long time before the game hit its year in a row that Joe Norris earned that distinction.

Joe was six when the family moved to Detroit's East Side in 1914, and attended Lingemann school. Charlie Roberts ran the Fairview Recreation when he hired the pale, weedy 16-year-old as a pin setter in 1924. It was Joe's introduction to the game and a clear case of love at first sight. From the beginning Joe was a natural. He had a quick, sure stride and a speedy delivery.

It was the season of 1933-34 that the Stroh Bohemian Beer people elected to sponsor Norris and his clan. With Strohs' backing, points out Esquire, Norris grew to full stature as a national bowling figure. Came March, 1941, and Detroit felt it just had to bust out and tell Joe what a swell guy and great bowler he was. A grand-scale testimonial dinner was arranged and if all of the town wasn't there it was only because they couldn't elbow in.

There is nothing haphazard about Joe's technique. His natural gifts, sharpened to razor-edge by years of temp warfare, have evolved to where he masters the game's many vicarities, finding an alley without wasting too many balls and remaining deadly accurate even when he has to vary his speed, shift his position, or regulate the break of his hook.

What rare quality sets Norris apart from more than ten million other bowlers? Well, it could be the element that would let him quit when he was all but finished. It could be the force that keeps his leg from burning and ever coming. Whatever it is, Norris' bowler's eye is an amazing thing. He can see a ball's path in the air long before the ball hits the pins. He can see another Joe Norris.

Navy Regulations for 17 Year Old Enlistees

Apparent widespread misunderstanding over regulations governing enlistment of 17-year-olds in the navy prompts a statement of clarification from Lieut.-Comdr. Byron E. Flechtner, officer in charge of lower Michigan navy recruiting.

Following, he said, are some of the rulings governing 17-year-old enlistments most frequently misunderstood:

Youths should make application at a navy recruiting station at least 10 days before their 18th birthday.

At the time of initial application, 17-year-olds must bring their father or legal guardian, to the recruiting station to sign parental consent papers in the presence of a recruiting officer.

Applicants must bring their birth certificate or baptismal record, showing date and place of birth.

Commander Flechtner said despite its fast-growing size, the navy still offers many opportunities for specialty training. Notable among these is the Radar branch for which men qualify by passing the Eddy Test, given in all navy recruiting stations.

Bridal White

Feminine members of the British armed forces can now be dressed in white even though you can't buy a wedding dress in England. This is the result of a lending plan begun by the British War Relief society when several wedding gowns were contributed in a clothing collection drive. Puzzled about what use the gowns might be, this Community War Chest agency decided to lend the gowns to members of the WRENS getting married while in the service.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Christ Jesus" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, March 4.

The Golden Text (Isaiah 11:1) is: "There shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots."

Among the Bible citations in this passage, (John 1:14): "And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (3:2): "Christ is the true idea voicing good, the divine message from God to men speaking to the human consciousness."

ONE CREW DOES WORK OF GROUP

ONE B-24 CREW of the "Fightin' 13th" with a Grosse Pointe on board, celebrated Pearl Harbor Day with a minimum-altitude attack against oil refineries and storage tanks at Lutong, Western Borneo, that was described as a "credible job for an entire group of heavy bombers." The lone crew destroyed the cracking plant of a refinery, strafed a small boat, three airplanes and fired eight huge oil storage tanks. Shown with his crew in front of their flak holes is Staff Sgt. Ralph M. Truetham of 2874 Brys Drive, Grosse Pointe Woods, standing fourth from the left with his hand on the plane, who has been awarded the Purple Heart for wounds received while participating on a Liberator mission over Miri Airfield, Borneo, as an aerial engineer. His wife, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Truetham, lives at the Brys Drive address.

Husband of Local Girl Active in Development of Italian Hospital Base

Peninsular Base Headquarters, Italy. — T-Sergt. Bruce A. Clark, of 191 Ridge road, Grosse Pointe Farms, is a member of the 182nd Station hospital which for 16 months has been a vital part of this base section, the important supply and services organization for the fifth army. The hospital's achievements since Jan. 25, 1943, when it was activated, have been numerous and valuable, warranting special commendation by the commanding general of the Corps Expeditionnaire Francais, which was enthusiastically endorsed by the commanding generals of the fifth army and of this base section at the time.

Overseas service began with the landing at Oran, Algiers, on Sept. 2, 1943. Personnel and equipment were assembled, checked and rechecked in such good time that the unit was able to report itself ready for operation a month in advance of its scheduled date.

The intended location for the 182nd was not known but once equipped and ready, sailing orders again came through. The unit arrived at Naples on Oct. 10, 1943 though landing was delayed until the beaches were cleared of mines.

The site selected was a former fair grounds whose architecture and landscaping are reminiscent of the New York World's Fair, but whose buildings were broken, together with pitted walls, rotten glass and destroyed electricity and water sources.

"Destruction" squads moved thru the buildings, cleaning out until only bare walls remained. Nurses followed in work clothes with brooms, buckets, and even wheelbarrows to take over the hospitals, and check on the progress of the enlisted ranks. Tools and machines were found in disrepair but soon readied and operating. All lumber from crates was put to use. By Oct. 17, the hospital's 500 beds were prepared to receive the first combat patients.

Initiation into combat operations came in the very first week, from an unexpected direction. Enemy planes made their first of many night raids in and around Naples, and though the 182nd Station hospital received no direct hits, two soldiers and one officer suffered injuries entitling them to the Purple Heart while one of the nurses was officially cited for her meritorious behavior in staying with her patients who were too seriously injured to be evacuated.

From that time forward, the hospital has been a life-saving adjunct of all activities on the Italian peninsula, consistently exerting itself in the service of Allied operations. At one time the patient capacity was expanded to a total of 2,300 men, the largest census of any hospital in the Mediterranean Theater of Operations.

The unit may be called now a truly United Nations hospital. At one interval it had 1,000 beds used by French, Goumiers, Senegalese and Arabs of the Corps Expeditionnaire Francais. It has provided medical care for British troops and for Italian or German prisoners. Right now considerable numbers of Brazilians are receiving attention from the hospital.

The hospitalization program is now equalized between internal medical types of cases and surgical cases. In addition, the base section allergy center for treating hay fever and other allergic diseases is part of the hospital. It has performed research into sandfly fever and infectious hepatitis, both of which have seriously impaired the health of troops in Italy. The hospital buildings and grounds are agreeably attractive to the patient as well as wholly sanitary. The wards gleam with new coats of paint; an Olympic-size swimming pool was available through the swimming season to patients and staff; officers, nurses and men of the staff are now billeted in well-winterized tents while all patients are housed in sanitary buildings. The record, of which each member of the staff is proud, speaks for itself.

Technical Sergeant Clark is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Clark of 3750 Lakeshore Drive, Chicago, and is married to Mrs. Dorothy Clark who lives at 191 Ridge road, Grosse Pointe Farms. Prior to entering the military service, he was a wholesale salesman with the Holokrome Sere Corp., of 228 West Congress, Detroit. He is a graduate of the University of Colorado, at Boulder Dam, in the class of 1938.

Overseas in August, 1943, Sergeant Clark served in North Africa and in Italy, so wears the European-African-Middle Eastern campaign ribbon with one Bronze Star for participation in the Italian campaign. In addition, Sergeant Clark was awarded the Good Conduct Medal.

Pointe Officer Praises Navy's 'Braille Compass'

Philadelphia, Pa. — The invention of a "braille compass," offering a true sense of direction for the first time to blind, has been announced at the Philadelphia naval hospital, national center of naval blind rehabilitation.

Naval medical officers are enthusiastic in praise of the compass. Lieut. Cmdr. A. Duane Beam, 406 Lincoln road, Grosse Pointe, ophthalmologist in charge of blind rehabilitation at the Philadelphia naval hospital, says the compass will give blind a new sense of independence, enabling them to be as sure of their bearings as a modern ship at sea.

The compass will soon be available to all blind, but "servicemen come first," according to its inventor, Reginald E. Beauchamp, who, by profession, is a freelance display artist in Philadelphia.

In appearance, the compass is an unassuming object. Tiny balanced twin magnets, separated by a disc of aluminum, make up the mechanics of the compass. They are encased in a sphere of plastic one inch in diameter. This sphere is attached to a head by a crocheted nylon string. The point which always points to north is marked with a snap from a woman's dress.

When in use, the head is held by the blind between his index and middle fingers, and the compass is allowed to hang on the nylon string. After 30 seconds — time allowed to let the compass get steady and point north — the user steps the compass in the palm of his hand. He feels the snap on the string. He knows the compass marks north. Other directions, being relative to north, are instantly known.

Although the braille compass was invented by Mr. Beauchamp recent-

INCOME TAX SERVICE

This March you must choose one of three methods in computing your income tax, and the method chosen is of tremendous importance to you.

The simplified system for individual taxes may be advantageous to some people, but for the majority of taxpayers, all with different incomes and deductions, it may well be the most costly way. The following example demonstrates the computation of a tax three ways on the same income resulting in three answers:

Mr. Wilson, a single man, travels for a wholesale concern. His earnings were $4995.00. His traveling expenses were $900.00 for which he was not reimbursed. His home, which he owns and occupies, was damaged by fire, and he suffered a loss of $650.00 over and above the insurance.

Mr. Wilson's Tax is:

If computed by the Collector	If Form 1040 is filed, using the tax table	If Form 1040 is filed, actually computing the tax
$954.00	$752.00	$696.25

If you have a tax problem, you are cordially invited to make use of the free consultation service offered by our organization. You will receive accurate and reliable information. Our personnel has the knowledge, experience and facilities which come from years of tax work.

Our office is open daily from 9:00 A. M. to 9:00 P. M. the year 'round and our business is TAXES.

 Mid-week service, 8:00 p.m.
 Mt. Olive Lutheran church earnestly invites you to attend its mid-week Lenten services, held every Wednesday night throughout Lent at eight o'clock. We ask you to interrupt the routine of your temporal interests and distractions to join us in the consideration of the sufferings and death of Him who came to establish our salvation. You cannot afford to pass Him by. Your eternal destiny is involved in His Passion. Your attitude towards Him determines your eternal fate. He constitutes the one great issue of your life.

We ask you to arouse yourself out of your preoccupation with the trivialities of life and pay heed to the essential values of eternal verities. "What is a man profited if he gain the whole world and yet lose his own soul?" Your life is rapidly running its course. You do not know the hour of its termination. If you reach the end of the road without the companionship of Christ, you will end a miserable life as a spiritual bankrupt.

Girl Scout N-E-W-S

Our Brownie troops in Grosse Pointe Woods are busy as bees these days, working hard at various projects, and taking time out occasionally for a little fun.

During the past month, troop 301, an especially active group, made valentines and scrap books for the patients at Children's hospital, and are now starting to fold bandages for the hospital. Last week, they had a skating party, which was followed by a picnic supper in Colleen Leonard's recreation room. Needless to say, they all had a swell time. Mrs. Roy Lang is the leader of this group, and her assistant is Mrs. David Roller.

It won't be long before the girls of troop 424 will be known as Grosse Pointe Woods' model Brownies, for these ambitious lassies are concentrating on their own personal development, adding a new project each week.

If you haven't selected your book for the Treasure Chest do so as soon as possible, as we expect to fill it on March 17.

Ginger Rogers Stars in 'Tender Comrade' at Shores Theatre

The management of the Shores theatre, Mack avenue at Nine Mile road, has planned a double bill for Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, which includes two top notch features with top-notch stars.

The first picture on the bill is "Tender Comrade" starring Ginger Rogers with Robert Ryan. Ginger returns to the screen after a lengthy absence to star in a drama which demands only the best acting; this she accomplishes very well for the former dancing star has left her tap shoes in the closet and performs a job which equals that of any actress in Hollywood. Her co-star, Robert Ryan, is also excellent in the part opposite Miss Rogers.

The accompanying feature is "Thoroughbreds" in which Tom Neal and Adele Mara play the starring roles.

Two great pictures are scheduled for next Wednesday and Thursday: Donald O'Connor and Jack Oakie in "The Merry Monahans" with a second feature, "Secrets of Scotland Yard" featuring Edgar Barrier in this crime thriller.

Woods Resident Stresses Postwar Plans in Campaign

Voters of Grosse Pointe Woods are anticipating a lively and vigorous campaign for the office of village president in the coming election on March 12, 1945.

At the insistence of friends and neighbors, Albert Beever of Hunt Club Drive filed to run for this office against the present incumbent, Beever, a resident of the Woods for the past 4 1/2 years, and in Grosse Pointe Park for 15 years prior thereto, is well acquainted with problems confronting the village. The candidate is 51 years old, and has a wide business experience, having owned and operated his own contracting business for 30 years. He is a past president of the Builders and Traders Exchange of Detroit, and has for many years been secretary-treasurer and arbitration board chairman of the Contracting Plasterers association of Detroit.

A family man, with six children, two of whom are in the armed services, Candidate Beever feels well equipped to handle matters affecting the householder and taxpayer.

He further feels that his business experience should be of invaluable help in planning postwar activities of the village. Active in village affairs, he is at present president of the Grosse Woods association, a local community improvement group, and a member of the village special

Chas. Heise Issues Statement for Village Clerk Candidacy

The following statements were made by Charles Heise, who is a candidate for the office of village clerk in Grosse Pointe Park:

"In offering myself as a candidate for the office of village clerk of Grosse Pointe Park I believe it desirable that I tell my fellow citizens why I am a candidate and what I propose to do if elected.

"My opponent has stated publicly that I was forced to run for office by the village commission. THAT IS NOT TRUE. I am a candidate of my own free will and not by compulsion.

"I am a candidate for the village clerkship because I want the office and because I believe I will, if elected, perform the duties of the office better than they have been performed by my opponent.

"As to my qualifications — I have been village treasurer for the past 20 years. During most of that time the office has been an appointive one, and had I not performed my duties properly I would have been removed from office. During that time I have worked closely with all other municipal employees and I have gained an intimate knowledge of the duties of the village clerk. I know I can perform those duties efficiently.

"During the past few years there has been a lack of co-operation between some of the departments in the municipal offices that should not exist. I believe that I can operate the village clerk's office in harmony with the other departments and eliminate that friction.

"If I am elected village clerk I will fulfill the duties of the office as required by the village charter; I will co-operate with the village manager and village commission; and I will otherwise serve the residents of the village to the best of my ability."

'Bathing Beauty' Is Feature at Colony Theatre

Red Skelton is starred with Esther Williams in "Bathing Beauty" the feature billed with "Secret Command" with Pat O'Brien and Carole Landis, to be shown at the Colony theatre tomorrow and Saturday.

"Bathing Beauty" is a technicolor extravaganza which is tops in entertainment. The situations in which Red finds himself are a typical course of events for this crazy red head, with some of the most comical scenes finding Red in a girls' ballet class, dressed in a beautiful pink ballet gown. Esther Williams is the beautiful young swimming star who defies the notion that all famous athletes must be big and ugly.

These two top stars are ably supported by Harry James with his trumpet and his band. In addition to the James crowd, variety is added to the picture for Xavier Cugat and his musical men are also featured in some of the musical numbers. To top it all off, Ethel Smith, the well known "Hit Parade" music stylist of the novachord, is also in the cast.

Cafe Casa Bella Unique in Neighborhood Bars

Because of the nature of the meeting and its interest, Mr. Stellwagen has issued an invitation to the public to attend.

It seems that, since the first opening of the Cafe Casa Bella some time ago, the proprietor Chas. Quatrini and his two sons have leaned over backward to make it one of the most enjoyable night spots on Detroit's east side. That they have succeeded is evident in the type and numbers of patrons who continually stop in two or three nights a week—people who seem to get a thrill out of that "little cafe around the corner" atmosphere that is always prevalent.

It gives one the impression of being just that. First it was Claude Lane the neighborhood bartender, the singing waitresses, a type of clowning with a homey way of dispelling the blues—a happy guy feel he belonged—knew everybody and let down his hair. Then came Ole Olson and several others to keep the illusion going. Patrons come to know "Little Tony," Jimmy, Emeric and the boss himself—know them and like them — know the Casa Bella as something far more than just another bar along the street.

Now you are lucky to get a seat on week end nights, especially with the current attraction in Evelyn Kaye and Alice Raye. Miss Kaye is a brunette songstress who will remember long after you have heard her sing—a deep, full voice delivering the chic in modern music combined with old tunes which keep patrons singing with her. Miss Raye is truly a queen of the keyboard and as entertaining with almost anything

Entertaining Bill to Be Shown at Aloma Theatre

"Carolina Blues" and "Henry Aldrich's Little Secret" will be the entertaining double feature program to be shown at the Aloma theatre, Charlevoix and Wayburn, Sunday and Monday.

Kay Kyser and his band, plus Georgia Carroll, Ann Miller and Victor Moore star in "Carolina Blues" a refreshing musical that not only contains good music but a good plot, good acting and excellent comedy. The story centers around Kay Kyser and his band's bond selling efforts to enable Kay to purchase a battle cruiser named after his home town, Rocky Point, N. C. Before this task is accomplished, numerous drawbacks pop up that allow room for the "Ol' Professor's" spontaneous humor and music, for gorgeous Georgia Carroll's vocalizing, and for Ann Miller to tap her way effectively through difficult dance routines.

Jimmy Lydon and Charlie Smith are up to their usual bag of tricks in "Henry Aldrich's Little Secret."

Thrift Shop Sales to Be Given to American Red Cross

The proceeds from the sale of all donations coming into the Neighborhood Thrift Shop between March 1 and 15 will be given to the American Red Cross drive instead of to the Neighborhood club, as usual.

All household articles, clothing, etc., will be accepted at the shop.

Pierce Plans Open House at PTA Meeting Friday

Spring 7B open house at Pierce Junior high school will be combined with the PTA meeting tomorrow night, March 2.

The program will begin at eight o'clock, and will feature songs by the 7B chorus, assisted by Miss Gwen Brockmiller. The chairman of the open house is Fred Slocum, whose alternate is Milton Gates.

Also on the program will be included a demonstration of the use of the 16 millimeter projector and a demonstration of the work done with the recording machine and Delinroscope.

After the program and business meeting the pupils and their parents will be served refreshments, also allowing time for parents to meet teachers.

Discontinued patterns or cuttings of linoleum make economical as well as practical shelf and drawer linings.

Trick Photography to Be Subject for Camera Club Fans

Robert Stellwagen, president of the Grosse Pointe Camera club, has just announced that the new programs of the club have been meeting with great success. Because of the interest of the members in the meetings, Mr. Stellwagen has made another special program for the meeting to be held on Tuesday night, March 6, at the club rooms in the Neighborhood club.

The subject at hand will be that of trick photography and the methods of obtaining the results. Two well known national exhibitors, Don Thomas and Leo Jefferys, will give the lecture and demonstrations. They are both well-known for their work and have been receiving much publicity in several of the national photographic magazines.

(b) RIGHTS OF COMMISSION TO DECIDE MEMBERSHIP. In all cases of doubt, the Commission shall decide who is a member within the meaning of the provisions of this Retirement System.

Section 10. TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP. Except as provided for in section 17 should any person (1) be absent from service for more than twelve consecutive months except by reason of injury or illness, or (2) become a beneficiary or die, he shall thereupon cease to be a member.

Section 11. SERVICE CREDITABLE. The Commission shall fix and determine by appropriate rules and regulations how much service in any year is equivalent to a year of service, but in no case shall less than ten days' service in a calendar month constitute a month of service; nor shall less than ten months' service in a calendar year constitute a year of service; nor shall more than one year of service be creditable for all service rendered in one calendar year.

Section 12. WAR SERVICE CREDIT. An employee who during his employment was called to or who enlisted in any armed service of the United States or a member who shall be called to or who shall enlist in any armed service of the United States and who has been or who shall be on active duty during time of war or other national emergency recognized by the Commission and who shall have been reemployed by the Village within the time provided by any law of the United States of America, securing the rights of reemployment and benefits, after separation from such service or after release from hospitalization shall be credited with the time of such war service as membership service, provided that in any case of doubt as to the period so to be credited the Commission shall have final power to determine such period. During the period of such service rendered by a member to the Federal Government, his contributions to the Annuity Savings Fund shall be suspended and his balance in the Annuity Savings Fund at the last payroll date preceding his leave of absence from Village service shall be accumulated at regular interest.

Section 13. MEMBERS' SERVICE ACCOUNTS. The Commission shall credit each member's service account with the number of years and months of prior service and membership to which he may be entitled.

Section 14. OPTIONAL RETIREMENT FROM SERVICE. On or after July 1, 1945, any member who shall have attained his eligible retirement age, as defined in Section 2 (v) may retire from Village service upon his written application to the Commission setting forth at what time, not less than thirty days nor more than ninety days subsequent thereto, he desires to be retired.

Aircraft Parts 'Canned' by AAF

Wright Field, O. — GI's in the Pacific area may have to find bigger and better can openers in the near future. They may even need one large enough to open a "canned" aircraft engine, according to Maj. D. L. Batten, packaging co-ordinator at air technical service command here. The AAF has found a tremendous advantage in the use of cans, hermetically sealed, to guard against deterioration from the hot and humid Pacific climates, Major Batten reports. Under a new process developed here, the steel cans in which hundreds of AAF items are now being packed serve a three-fold purpose — unit container, shipping container and generally superior protection. Under the previous use of pliofilm and other materials designed as moisture barriers, the shipment had to be cartoned and crated after the application of the moisture repellent. Under the "canning" method, there is a frequent saving of weight — all important in air freight shipment — and generally superior protection. Major Batten also cited the greater economy of the new method. For example, minimum cost of moisture-proof wrapping and wooden crating for an engine cylinder is $4, while "canning" of the same item totals about $2.50.

An Eighth Air Force Bomber Station, England. — For "meritorious achievement" while participating in bomber combat operations over Germany and enemy occupied Europe, Sgt. Hillard J. Green Jr., son of Hillard J. Green, 370 McKinley, Grosse Pointe, has been awarded the Air Medal, it was announced by the commanding general, First Air Division.

Sergeant Green, radio operator and gunner on a B-17 Flying Fortress, is a member of the 91st Bombardment Group, veteran heavy bomber unit of more than two years service in the European Theatre of Operations. This group, commanded by Col. Henry W. Terry, Ossining, N.Y., is the combat home of such famous aces as the "Memphis Belle" and "General Ike" and was the first group to complete 100 daylight high altitude bombing missions from this theatre. Sergeant Green has participated in assaults upon the continent ranging from attacks against enemy transport centers in support of allied ground operations to the bombing of synthetic oil refineries and ball-bearing plants deep in the German Reich. He recently took part in the group's 28th aerial assault.

Sergeant Green graduated in 1943 from Grosse Pointe high school and joined the air forces in July. He was awarded his gunners wings in July, 1944, and November, 1944, was assigned to overseas duty with the Eighth Air Force.
