POINTE PARAGRAPHS

by THE POINTER

The people of Grosse Pointe are to be congratulated! They are to be complimented for the fine and befitting spirit with which they received the news of the victory in Europe.

The feeling was more of a prayerful silence rather than a carnival spirit for many of our Pointe lads are still in the danger zones awaiting because all of our hearts are filled with gladness this week on account of the Western side of the war, please bear with us for any repetitions in this column.

Our congratulations to President Harry S. Truman, who not only delivered the official victory proclamation last Tuesday, but also celebrated his 61st birthday.

Residents out in Grosse Pointe Shores in the vicinity of Lakeshore and Vernier roads were surprised to hear the ringing of an old-fashioned school bell Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Glenn Anderson, well-known Grosse Pointe volunteer, who spends almost all of her time helping the men in service, especially those at Percy Jones hospital, is asking those residents who have extra golf clubs to donate them to the hospital.

Red points went up in smoke last Sunday afternoon at the high school field where Park members were asked to extinguish a fire that was a road burning in the oven.

Chairmen Urge Capacity Buying Starting May 14th

The following is the stirring challenge to the men and women of Grosse Pointe concerning the Seventh War Loan Drive beginning next Monday, May 14:

"The War with Germany is over. Whether your bond purchases in the Seventh War Loan represent a thank offering for that fact, or a frank recognition that a more expensive war has still to be fought and won makes no difference" said Richard L. Maxon, co-chairman of the War Bond Drive in Grosse

Cleanup Days Proclaimed in Two Villages

Spring cleanup days have been proclaimed in two Grosse Pointe villages by their respective councils, Grosse Pointe Farms will conclude their two-week cleanup schedule this week-end, while Grosse Pointe Woods will begin their cleanup program next Monday for two weeks.

Last Saturday Grosse Pointe Farms trucks collected and disposed of 150 yards of refuse of all types from in front of vacant lots throughout the village, an indication that the cleanup program is a very worth while project.

There are hundreds of vacant lots around the village which are used by residents for refuse removed from their own premises, and unless these people, who use the property, move the refuse from the rear of the lots to the space between the sidewalk and curb, they will continue to remain in an unsightly condition.

The police department is being requested to be on the lookout for violators of this ordinance since taxpayers expend quite a sum annually to maintain clean streets. Also such waste, deposited in the public right-of-way, washes into the sewers causing an expensive cleaning job.

President James K. Watkins and members of the village council call attention to the fact that the village cannot legislate against unsightliness. This is a responsibility of the citizens and all residents are urged to participate fully this week in the cleanup work in order to make the village outstanding in cleanliness.

The instructions to the residents are to place debris of all kinds, such as branches, paper, bottles, stones, etc., between the sidewalk and curb. They are asked to keep their branches separate as they are loaded for a shorter haul.

Woods residents are urged by A. A. Giesquiere, village president, to do their utmost in clearing up, not only their own premises, but also the vacant fields and yards where refuse has been deposited.

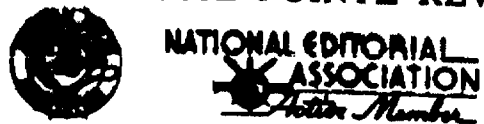

Chief Henry Piel of Grosse Pointe Park also warns the residents that a village ordinance is violated by those who deposit grass cuttings, branches and other refuse in vacant fields. He said that all police officers have been instructed to ticket those who are negligent in this respect.

Kiwians Granted Permission to Stage Annual July 4 Affair

Permission has been granted to the Grosse Pointe Kiwanis club to stage their annual Fourth of July celebration on the grounds of the Mason school.

"Seven billion dollars in bonds must be bought by individuals in this drive, four billions in E bonds alone. It is the biggest national quota yet for individuals, and the unconditional surrender of the Nazis does not subtract one iota from the necessity of raising the money." "The battle of Japan has just begun. It must be backed up, paid for, fought for by a free people, intent on sweeping the Pacific clear of Fascist hate—forever." "With the war in the West our first and major concern, we have not yet been able to go all-out in the East. But neither has the Jap. The war to crush Japan will be bigger, tougher and longer than most Americans expect." "The destruction of Japan's armies has not reached the annual rate of normal replacements—between 2,000 and 240,000 men a year. And the Jap, as our men in the Pacific, fights to the death." "As far as Japan is concerned, the outer Empire—and the men who defend it—are expendable. The Jap will fight the Battle of Japan from inside the inner Empire, of which Iwo Jima and Okinawa were outposts. And Iwo Jima, according to Admiral Nimitz, was a pattern of the resistance our forces may expect to meet in future offensives." "The greatest single obstacle to our crushing of Japan is the lack of ships in the Pacific. We need more round trips taking up to 14 months to make." "To crush Japan will take time, heroic and backbreaking effort, overpowering equipment." "Millions of fighting men—freshly outfitted and equipped—will have to be moved from Europe halfway around the globe; and supplied day-in, day-out by hundreds of new ships now building. More of everything will be needed. More B-29s. More tanks, half-tracks, jeep and trucks. More rockets, mortars, airborne radar." "A whole new air force is in creation—huge new bombers dwarfing the Super-fortress—fast new jet-propelled combat planes, the P-80 or 'Shooting Star' coming off the lines by the thousands." "These are just some of the 101 ways in which your dollars are needed more than ever to bring America's might to its full strength—so that we may crush our foe the faster make an end of killing, and bring our men back home."

"WE LEAD, OTHERS FOLLOW"

MUSIC HAS MOVED MOUNTAINS

No nation on the face of the earth is more conscious or more alive to the spirit and feeling of music. Hence it is altogether fitting that in America we set aside a week in which to celebrate National Music Week, May 6 to 13.

Life's span, beginning with the crooning of mothers and nurses through to the end when hymns are sung at last rites, finds music entwined in every mood. Lullaby, hymn, opera, anthem, battle song or popular ditty all have a part and place in our very existence.

Above all, music has a great significance in our national life in its cultural contribution to the greatest civilization on earth, fostering unity for the war and helping to cement it for the peace now and to follow.

AWVS Seeking Materials for Clothing Project

Mothers, have you a child three years old, ten years old or just in-between? If you have, we feel sure you will be in sympathy with the appeal of the American Women's Voluntary Services for suitable materials to make clothing for the children of our Servicemen. The finished garments will then be distributed through the American Red Cross Emergency Cupboard.

We realize, of course, that the wonderful public response to the recent Allied Clothing Drive means that most households have ransacked their supplies, but we are hopefully hoping that every one look just a little more to see if something might have been overlooked or laid aside for just such a request as this. Perhaps there is a discarded maid's uniform from the "Good Old Day's" house dress which even today is too helplessly outmoded for the lady of the manor. These things and any others suitable for this use will be gratefully accepted at the AWVS at 16829 Kercheval avenue. If you will be kind enough to bring in the materials, we will guarantee to transform them into wearable clothing. It is also suggested that women who can sew and who prefer to do it in their own homes come in to the Hut and pick up packages of assembled pieces which will be made ready for sewing by the Consumers' Group at the Hut. We feel sure that many women will want to help in this project and it is especially recommended for groups of women who are already meeting regularly to sew. Such a group might make a very pleasant pastime of this splendid contribution to the War effort by meeting out-of-doors in the coming months.

Mrs. William M. DeVoe, 2187 Manistique avenue, was elected president of the Michigan congress of Parents and Teachers at the annual wartime conference held last week at the YWCA. She is the first Detroit woman to head the state congress.

She is an active member of the Jefferson Avenue Methodist church. Her daughter, Ruth, was graduated from Southeastern high and is a senior at Ohio State.

Hostess Corps Plans Hilarious Fun Carnival

Plans for the most ambitious project in the Grosse Pointe Hostess Corps history began last week. Senior hostesses named Saturday, June 9, as the date when all of Grosse Pointe will be invited to attend a "Millionaires' Carnival" at the Neighborhood club to benefit the recreation fund of Percy Jones hospital.

For the admission charge, party attendees will receive a roll of bogus bank notes to use at the various gambling booths and concessions. Numerous prizes will be awarded at the end of the evening to those holding the greatest amounts of money.

In the carnival spirit, there will be wandering minstrels and flower girls, as well as refreshments. Decorations will follow the same theme as the Hostess Corps has used at its "Gold Rush" parties for servicemen, and gambling hall hostesses will make the theme complete.

All members of the corps should attend the important general meeting at the Neighborhood club next Monday night, May 14, at eight o'clock.

Misses Ruth J. White, Jean Trombley, Mildred Welsh, and Carolyn Shuman; the Mesdames Frank Clavenna, R. L. Hesse, C. F. Green, Frank Boyer, J. T. Kersten, Albert Johnston and E. J. Hern.

A guest at the meeting was Lieut. H. M. Draham of the naval ordnance plant at Centerline, who said that the AWVS motor transport service had fulfilled a very definite need most satisfactorily. He went on to say that the maintenance department at naval ordnance had reported that, from their records, during the past year there had been a decided saving in their costs of tires and vehicles, due to the AWVS volunteers' competent driving and care of equipment, to say nothing of the tremendous saving to them in time and convenience.

Mrs. Howard Shaw, captain of Michigan State motor transport, gave a short talk, discussing the motor mechanics course, summer uniforms, etc. Mrs. Alger Shelden, chairman of the Grosse Pointe unit of AWVS, closed the business meeting with a tribute to Mrs. Toles for her tireless and tactful efforts in organizing and leading this branch of the unit's volunteer work.

The tea which followed was served from a most attractively decorated table, centered by a beautiful arrangement of scarlet carnations and white snapdragons, Mesdames Shelden and Shaw pouring. Other members present during the afternoon were Mrs. J. V. Carr, sergeant; the Misses Jean Carr, Corinne Boksa and Katherine Worrell, second lieutenant; the Mesdames M. T. Cummings, Robert Flemming, J. Allan Good, S. L. Klein, and George W. Christiansen.

Although the motor transport is one of the most interesting branches of AWVS and has grown rapidly in the past few months, there is still an urgent need for drivers. Anyone interested is invited to call Mrs. Toles at T.V. 1-1050 or N.L. 2398, and she will be glad to interview applicants or answer any questions concerning the service.

In the four years ending January 1, 1944, the highest increase in farm income occurred in North and South Dakota, Nebraska and Kansas.

FRIENDLY ENEMY!

When a person feels below par, it's natural to want to talk about it to someone in the hope that fear will be allayed by a little "friendly advice." "It's nothing to worry about. My sister Sue had the same thing and she took such-an-such." This friendly advice is really an enemy of your health because it puts off the inevitable visit to the physician and gives the "complaint" a chance to become serious. When you feel below par, don't tell it to a friend—tell it to your doctor. He's the only person qualified to advise you in any and all matters pertaining to health.

Corp. Oliver J. Haffler, who left from Board 57 in December, 1943, has received his corporal rating and also his Good Conduct medal, which is given in recognition of exemplary behavior, efficiency and fidelity in the U. S. army.

Corporal Haffler has been stationed at Fort George G. Meade, ever since his basic training at Camp Croft S. C. He was chosen to take officers training and since has been teaching map making and compass reading. Recently he went to mines and booby trap school and has also been teaching that. He has also received a license to operate a projector and public address system and puts on quite a few shows at Fort Meade.

In a recent letter he said they were using him as a clothes model for all clothing issued soldiers overseas and it was no fun putting on all the clothes and demonstrating how to sleep in a sleeping bag.

He is expected home within a few weeks on a furlough.

With the Fifth Army, Italy—Staff Sgt. Thomas J. Kaufman of Grosse Pointe, is one of a group of squad leaders in the 91st "Powder River" division recently cited for meritorious devotion to duty and respect for their obligation to the service of their country. He is serving on the Fifth Army front in Italy. Kaufman leads a mortar squad.

lake frontage, it recommends that a reduction of ten per cent on the basic foot land value of the properties located in that area be made. Mr. Schweikart was also asked to cut the assessment on all the other "mansion type" homes in the township between ten and fifty percent. The reason for this was given as: "After a careful review and study of all available data pertaining to original and reproduction costs, sale and market prices, economic conditions and other factors pertaining to this type of residence, it appeared to the Commission that a graduated scale of percentage reductions for obsolescence, particularly inherent to this type of dwelling, was warranted to establish present assessable valuations of these properties."

Mr. Schweikart said this week that it was not his intention to follow the recommendations of the state tax commission because such a reduction would entail the loss of several million dollars in assessment valuations to Grosse Pointe Township.

Girl Scout N-E-W-S

As you may recall, Friday, April 27, was a cold, damp day, but 16 girls from Troop 257 refused to be downhearted, as they waited for the Girl Scout bus to whisk them off to Metamora for a week-end of camp life. They all met at the home of their leader, Mrs. Harry Findlay, in Grosse Pointe Woods, loaded down with food, bed rolls, and other necessary equipment, ready for three fun-packed days — an exploration hike about the grounds immediately upon their arrival, an Alpine trek in the moonlight, wiener roasts, camp fire singing, and the ever popular treasure hunt. The girls did all the work themselves, including the cooking; there were no casualties; and according to the four courageous mothers who accompanied them, everyone returned in as good spirits as when they left home — a truly remarkable record.

The weatherman was a little more considerate last Sunday, and gave them a break, as well he should. Early in the morning, husbands of members of the district committee and some of our leaders started out for Metamora, not for a day of relaxation, but for a day of hard work. These generous souls gave up one of their precious Sundays in order to paint and repair the lodge and the docks, putting the camp in readiness for the summer's activities. Once again the men have come to our aid, and don't think we aren't grateful.

Irritations are already in the mail for a "cook out," to be given by the Grosse Pointe district committee for the benefit of the Grosse Pointe High School and their assistants. The time is Tuesday, May 15, and the place is Chandler Park. Don't forget to bring along a good appetite as well as the requested equipment.

Christ Church Parish Anniversary Events

The fourth and final centenary event in celebration of the 100th anniversary of the founding of Christ church parish, will be the anniversary service next Sunday morning at eleven o'clock. The Rev. Francis B. Creamer, rector, will deliver the sermon at that time.

This concludes the public events in commemoration of the anniversary. Holy Communion was celebrated this morning. Tonight at eight o'clock a reception and re-opening of Ledyard Memorial Hall will take place.

It was on Ascension Day, May 26, 1845, when 67 persons, chiefly members of St. Paul's church, petitioned the diocese for the founding of Christ church, Detroit. On May 29, in the Sunday school of old St. Paul's, a vestry was elected with Messrs. Charles C. Trowbridge, senior warden; James A. Hicks, junior warden; and A. H. Adams, secretary-treasurer. Shortly after, plans were presented by Mr. Trowbridge for erection of the original church, the cost of church and lot to be $6,000.

On July 16, 1861, the cornerstone of the present church was laid by the Rt. Rev. Samuel Allen McCoskry, first bishop of Michigan. On April 9, 1863, Christ church was consecrated by the bishop of Michigan, assisted by the bishops of western New York, Ohio and the Canadian diocese of Huron. In 1902 the first endowment fund was established in the amount of $50,000, and in 1903 the chancel was enlarged to its present proportions.

The following missions, many of them later to become parishes, were organized and established by Christ church, Detroit: Church of the Messiah, 1874; Epiphany church, 1894; St. Columba church, 1913; Christ church chapel, Grosse Pointe, 1930.

On Jan. 1, 1938, the Diocesan Mission of Trinity, St. Clair Shores, was incorporated into the parish for administration and maintenance.

Today Christ church parish, with its three churches and three congregations, numbers 2,070 communicants. The parish is administered by a staff of four clergy and 10 lay workers. Active organizations include three branches of the woman's auxiliary, a parish auxiliary council, neighborhood house, page house (a hostel for women) and three church schools with a total enrollment of some 850 children. Ledyard Memorial Hall in Detroit, and the Grosse Pointe Memorial Hall in Grosse Pointe Woods, Michigan, are also under the parish's care.

Clergy of Christ church include the Rev. Francis B. Creamer, rector; the Rev. Robert S. Whitehead, vicar; the Rev. David S. Agnew, vicar; the Rev. Edgar H. Yeoman, curate. Frederick C. Kidner is senior warden and Donald Van Zile is junior warden.

Vestment are Albert Abdullah, Wendell W. Anderson, Ward Detwiler, Mervyn Gaskin, Charles H.

Hodges, Jr., Lloyd L. Hughes, Ed. and Edward P. Wright, Auxiliary warden; Olney Jones, Henry Ledyard, chairman of the centenary are Messrs. John G. Mateer, Lynn McNaughton, James S. McPherson and L. Rothel William K. Muir, Ralph W. Simons, Farr.

Pilot Takes Part in Group's 330th German Air Assault

An Eighth Air Force Bomber Station, England. — For "meritorious achievement" while participating in bomber combat operations over Germany and enemy-occupied Europe, Second Lieut. Donald J. Rosselle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph J. Rosselle, 915 Hampton road, Grosse Pointe, has been awarded the Air Medal, it was announced by the commanding general, first air division.

Lieutenant Rosselle, a B-17 Flying Fortress pilot, is a member of the 91st bombardment group, pioneer heavy bomber unit in the European Theatre of Operations. This group commanded by Col. Henry W. Terry, Ossining, N. Y., is the combat home of the famous Fortress "Memphis Belle," and was the first group to complete 100 daylight high altitude bombing missions from this theatre. Lieutenant Rosselle has flown in attacks on German communication lines and troop concentrations in advance of Allied ground forces, and industrial centers and oil refineries deep in the heart of the Reich. He recently took part in the group's 330th aerial assault.

He attended Grosse Pointe high school and Michigan College of Mining and Technology prior to joining the AAF. His wife, Mrs. Betty B. Rosselle, lives at 315 Kinley road.

ATSC Engineers Study Situation for AAF Pilots

Wright Field, O. — Easy chair comfort for pilots of the future is the objective of a group of engineers working to perfect a universal aircraft seat here at the Air Technical Service Command's Aero-medical laboratory. To determine the type of seat which would provide maximum comfort and contribute to a pilot's efficiency, the engineers are experimenting with a universal test seat, one of two such pieces of equipment in existence. Intricate in appearance, the experimental apparatus consists, in addition to the test seat, of a visual trainer to create the illusion of actual flight, and a standard aircraft seat. During a test the subject sits first on the standard seat, which has been the target of complaint by many pilots. Records are kept of body sore spots and tired areas in relation to the time which it takes for the subject to develop them. Next the "pilot" sits on the experimental seat, which can be adjusted by means of levers to alter the angle of the seat-back or the amount of support given at any point. Records again are taken by ATSC technicians to determine whether or not the second seat, as adjusted to the pilot's wishes, was more satisfactory than the first. Supporting pressure applied on the springs and back of the seat during a test is automatically recorded in graph form. Cameras soon to be installed also will make photographic records of the tests.

Half the Goal Fat salvage collection goal for 1945 is less than half that potential — just 230 million pounds, which we must have if military, civilian and lend-lease needs are to be met.

Steel Gas Coupons The manager of a service station in the City of Grosse Pointe reported to the police that coupons totaling over two thousand gallons of gasoline were stolen from the office at 17830 Kercheval avenue, sometime May 2.

Equal Harvest If all Connecticut were planted with soybeans, it even farm in Nevada or Vermont were planted with nothing but soybeans, the oil harvest would not be about equal to the 500 million pounds salvageable in American soybeans.

A small leak will sink a great ship," said Poor Richard.

Service Parade

With the 5th Armored Division on the Western Front. — When the 5th Armored Division burst through the Siegfried Line, the tankers and infantrymen driving their wedge thru Hitler's western defenses had an exact picture of the terrain over which they were fighting. On their maps were charted each pillbox and trench, and each tank route through the difficult hilly area. The troops moved methodically forward, wiping out position after position. Reconnaissance patrols had been in the area on the days preceding the attack, testing the strength of the defenses but the huge job of reconnoitering the entire depth of the Siegfried Line was done by men who did not set foot near a pillbox. Behind the front lines, working in a blackout tent, were two officers and four enlisted men, members of the photo interpretation team attached to the division. It was these men, poring over aerial photographs of the Siegfried Line who patiently uncovered the secrets of the German defensive system. Members of this team are First Lieut. Lawrence G. Belluscio of Elizabeth, N. J., in command of the unit; First Lieut. Frank F. DeMaria of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Master Sergt. William F. Northwood of Grosse Pointe, Mich.; Staff Sergt. Samuel C. Farmer of Muskegon, Mich.; Sergt. William T. Lane

Committee Plans Better Friendly Relations

To aid in maintaining friendly relations between China and America now and after the war, United China Relief, a Community War Chest agency, is establishing a Committee on American Activities. The committee plans to promote throughout the United States a better understanding of the Chinese, their purposes, activities and needs. Through the program, the ability of the Chinese to continue and increase their share in the allied war effort will be extended. After the war the understanding brought about between the two people will assist in improving commercial and trade relations. Heading the national committee is Donald M. Brodie, treasurer of the China Institute in America, trustee of the China Foundation and at one time secretary to Ambassador Chas. R. Crane in China.

TELL OF ENGAGEMENT

 Mr. and Mrs. A. Cadieux of Moran road announced the engagement of their daughter Patricia Jean to Y3c Charles Frederick Jean, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jean of Kensington road, at a dinner party in the Hawthorne House this past week. The table was centered with two white ships filled with red and white carnations and the sails bore the names of the engaged couple. Y3c, who was home on leave from sea duty, has returned to his new station at Great Lakes, Ill. The wedding date will be announced later.

Membership of Old-Timers Club Soars Since 1937
 A unique organization exists in Detroit and includes membership from Grosse Pointe and surrounding communities. It is the "Three Score and Ten Michiganders," and a brief history of the organization follows:
 In 1937 in Detroit, the late John A. Williams, a kindly and sympathetic man, attended a funeral of an old friend; however, no other mourners were present. This preyed on his mind and after conversations with many of his old friends, it was decided to form a social club to be represented when old members departed from this world.
 On Aug. 3, 1937, the Hotel Normandie Charles W. Noyes, proprietor, was made headquarters of the organization.
 Discouragement to form such a group was met on all sides, for the organizers were told that not 25 men in Detroit or Michigan would respond. However, the small group persisted in their idea and sent out invitations to their friends and the general public.
 The invitation read: "To all men in the State of Michigan who are over 70 years of age, who were born in Michigan, reside in Michigan... you are cordially invited to attend a meeting... for the purpose of perfecting what will be known as the 'Three Score and Ten Michiganders.'"
 The purposes of the club were sociability, reminiscence and recreation. Twenty-six pioneers responded and the 70 Club was organized. The establishment of the club was a success and it commenced to grow and grow.
 U. S. Grant Butz of Ferndale, Mich., was elected president and a new epoch was started. A program was issued and a full staff of officers were elected. Because of the assistance of the wife of the president, the meetings proved interesting, entertaining and beneficial.
 Since that day in August in 1937, the membership of the club has grown to 274, and are as follows: live members 91 to 97 years; 100 members 81-84; 32 members 85-90; and 94 between 75 and 80; there are members in 20 towns outside of Detroit.

School Children Start Bond Drive With Initial Bang
 "The 7th War Loan Drive may not make its official start until May 14th," said Mrs. G. A. DuRocher, in charge of Bond sales for the A.W.V.S., "but the school children of Grosse Pointe have been hard at work since the first of the month and have as always, been doing an exceedingly fine job of selling."
 If they have not reached you, do not think for a minute that you cannot pay bonds with the utmost convenience. Any Grosse Pointe store will be glad to sell them to you. Our own headquarters, the Hut, 16829 Kercheval avenue, is convenient to most shoppers, and our two hundred agents are earnestly looking for you. They are especially interested who do not have complete supplies and information is urged to get in touch with Mrs. William Cudlip at the A.W.V.S. 'Hut', TU. 1-1050.
 "If you are buying a bond for someone in our armed services, do not forget that we have an attractive V-Mail Certificate with which you can let him know.
 If your purchase is for one of the children, by all means get with it one of our highly decorative certificates done by Walt Disney. They are making a great hit with youthful bond owners.
 "Something new that we find has a great appeal for buyers of all ages is the 7 x 7, which means the 7th War Loan plan for providing the cost of seven days hospitalization for a wounded G. I. by the purchase of a fifty dollar bond.
 "The elementary schools of Grosse Pointe are assisted for the sale of bonds and stamps throughout the year by the A.W.V.S. volunteers under the direction of Mrs. Carl Liemann. The children are sponsoring the purchase of war material ranging from jeeps to torpedo bombers, and their part in the 7th War Loan Drive is already reaching a successful conclusion."

Metropolitan Club News
 Gene Boylan, athletic director of the club, announces that all boys of Grosse Pointe who have not reached their 15th birthday are eligible for the Metropolitan Junior soft ball league, with games to be played throughout the Grosse Pointe area; there are no height limits.
 Boys are to report at their respective fields: those living in Grosse Pointe Woods—Mason school; Vernier Field and Kerby field; Park—Defer school; City—Neighborhood Club. All are to report Wednesday, May 16 at 6 p.m. Bring your birth certificates; all boys living east of Martyr road, report to Vernier Field at Vernier and Lakeshore.
 The police and fire officers who will handle these teams are: Woods, Russ Gregg; Shores, Bill Ruff; Farms, William Malson and Harold Campbell; City, James Flannigan and John Onstvedler; Park, Donald Dean and Jack Haas.
 Uniforms will be prepared by the Metropolitan club. They hope of creating a fully contested soft ball league for the boys who are eligible. The all-star girls for games between the various villages are also being prepared. All those who will be awarded the winners at the end of the season.

Mason School N-E-W-S

Mason school with its enrollment of eight hundred children observed V-E day with appropriate programs in the various groups.

The Kindergarten pupils collected in one room and marched to the music of their rhythm band carrying small flags, gave the pledge, and sang patriotic songs.

All first and second grades gathered with their teachers and the principal on the lawn in front of the school where they pledged allegiance to the flag of the United States. They sang "America" and "America, the Beautiful," and proclaimed,

"This is V-E Day." The third and fourth grades met in the auditorium each group bearing their room flag as they marched in. Three Brownies and three Cubs, who bore the flags, marched to the stage and formed a background for the speaker who read an appropriate editorial from one of our daily papers, after the pledge to the flag was given and a "Prayer for Peace" was sung. The singing of "America" concluded the program.

The program of the fifth and sixth grades was opened by the principal who spoke of the significance of V-E Day. This was followed by the flag salute and the pledge of allegiance which was led by four fifth graders, and the singing of "America." With the American flag waving in the spotlight, Mr. Hicks, one of the teachers, read a story entitled "A Father Visits His Son," while an organ interlude of "O God, Our Help in Ages Past" was played, the 6Bs formed a semi-circle around the flag and read a choral poem entitled "The American Flag." The program closed with "The Star Spangled Banner."

The first Signal Pigeon Company was activated in June, 1941, and the second company in June, 1942. Thousands of birds were donated by civilian fanciers during 1941-2-3, the older birds being used for breeding purposes and the younger ones for tactical units. One day's gifts from civilian exceeded 5,000 birds. There are now numerous pigeon companies, platoons and detachments.

One pigeon company delivered 6,000 messages during a single month. A combat pigeon platoon was landed in French Morocco, November 8, 1942, shortly after the landing there of Allied forces. Young bird replacements have been flown by plane more than 1,000 miles to the front.

During the last year, pigeons delivered 96 percent of all messages affixed to them. To date, pigeons have delivered 100 per cent of all messages. This does not mean that there have been no pigeon fatalities. Each message is sent in duplicate and at least one has always got through.

The army has three types of structures for housing pigeons: mobile combat loft, portable combat loft; permanent or stationary loft. The army now uses dogs and pigeons as a team—the dog carrying a container for one pigeon on each shoulder.

University Head Urges More Adult Education

Adult education should continue to receive state support, President A. G. Ruthven of the University of Michigan declares in his annual report which has just been published by the University.

Pointing out that the United States has almost no program for keeping its adult citizens informed and alive to present day national and international problems, Dr. Ruthven says that continuing education is a pressing need.

For Michigan to meet this, he urges that the state continue its support of the adult education work started last year experimentally, that the Department of Public Instruction direct this, and that the actual instruction be handled thru the public schools and public supported colleges and University.

At least a fourth of the total cost, Dr. Ruthven says, should be borne by the students, the state paying the balance.

Trained Pigeons Play Important War Roles

Editor's Note—The following is the final in a series showing the valuable roles in which homing pigeons participate in this war.

Since Pearl Harbor, the Navy has bred and trained approximately 1,000 homing pigeons at Lakehurst, nearly 500 others have been trained at other lighter than air stations. They were intended for use during periods of radio silence. Some of the birds have made from 60 to 80 flights covering distances of 50 to 200 miles at sea. A few birds have carried messages as far as 300 miles.

The Coast Guard's only pigeon loft in the United States is at Salem, Mass.

Pigeon experts have always been in agreement on two matters concerning the birds: 1. They don't like to fly at night; 2. they are one-way birds—meaning that they deliver messages to their home lofts.

The Proudest Name in Ringcraft

To some people the name Genuine Orange Blossom stands only for a certain design of wedding ring... To thousands more it means smart styling, exquisite beauty in wedding and engagement rings—a purchase which must depend almost entirely upon the integrity of the manufacturer and the sound advice of your jeweler.

Ask to see GENUINE Orange Blossom rings—they differ from other so-called "blossom designs" as day differs from night. That is why we recommend them to you.

BERLIN IS ONLY A WHISTLE STOP

Yeah, that was Berlin we just passed.

Seemed like we'd never get there, didn't it? And now that we made it, anybody feel like a stopover? Little celebration or something like that?

Forget it, friend. This is a through train we're on. And before we get to where we're going, Berlin will seem like a whistle stop. A dot on the map, once removed.

Tokyo's our destination. Half a world and billions of bucks away and one thing is sure! If you're going our way, you pay your own freight.

That means you keep on buying more and more bonds until you've bought every bond you can dig up the dough for. And then you buy another one!

Remember, you might be making this trip the hard way. From island to island. Through the jungle. In a B-29. In a submarine.

So don't feel too sorry for yourself. Get that first extra bond today... right now... this minute!

GARY COOPER GOES ROMANTIC AT SHORES

A gay comedy in which one of Hollywood's most bashful actors goes romantic will be shown at the Shores theatre, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. The bill scheduled is "Casanova Brown" starring Gary Cooper with Teresa Wright; the second feature is a documentary film entitled "The Fighting Lady."

In "Casanova Brown" Gary Cooper is the love-struck young man who finds himself in some of the most peculiar situations. In addition to always getting involved in a position which requires finesse as well as understanding, he is also caught in a web of circumstances where at one time he is wheeled into the delivery room in a hospital. Teresa Wright assists him in his difficulties and also makes a fine romantic team-mate with Gary.

as, of all things, the mayor of a small Vermont town. Her courage shattered by a beautifully preposterous hat, she goes to New York to contract for a statue of her dead husband and contacts Charles Boyer, a handsome sculptor. And then things really start humming.

Alled and abetted by irascible but lovable Charles Coburn, Boyer pursues Miss Dunne through the merriest love mixup ever sergeed. Little Miss Freeman, who makes her debut as Miss Dunne's skittish step-daughter, complicates matters by her indignation for the romantic sculptor, but all turns out well as a good comedy should for the two lovers are finally "Together Again."

The companion feature will be "Night Club Girl" with Vivian Austin and Edward Norris.

CONTRASTING DOUBLE BILL AT ALOMA THEATRE

A program which includes a fine historical movie with a happy-go-lucky accompanying feature will be shown at the Aloma theatre next Sunday and Monday, May 13 and 14. The pictures are "The Great Moment" co-starring Joel McCrea and Betty Field, with "Nothing But Trouble" with Laurel and Hardy.

In Preston Sturges' "The Great Moment" Joel McCrea impersonates one of America's great unheralded heroes, Dr. William Morton, the Boston dentist, who in 1846, discovered the use of sulphuric ether as an anesthetic and gave his discovery to the medical profession.

Dr. Morton, during his years of research, was ridiculed and laughed at numerous times, but because of his perseverance, he finally won out with his amazing discovery. In addition to Betty Field, who plays McCrea's wife, the cast features Harry Cary, William Demarest, Franklin Pangborn and Porter Hall.

All old friends of Laurel and Hardy will welcome this chance to see their favorites again in one of the typical comedies "Nothing But Trouble."

Catholic Theatre Gives Last Play of Season

"Career Angel" is the final Catholic Theatre of Detroit production of the 1944-45 season and will be presented at The Players theatre, East Jefferson near Elmwood, for one week beginning next Sunday, May 13. "Career Angel" was first produced at Cathedral College in Brooklyn. It was then taken to New York by the Blackfriars Guild, who produced it in their theatre, after which it was produced by the professional theatre on Broadway. It is a happy comedy-fantasy surrounding a nearly defunct Southern Orphanage for girls. The complications begin when the Guardian Angel of Sister Seraphim, ex-actress and founder of the Home, appears. You can well imagine the situations which evolve when the invisible Angel, bent on having a career, makes his presence known in various ways to the little group of sedate Sisters and the effervescent youngsters in their charge.

Trombly PTA to Meet Next Tuesday

Parents and friends should note the date for the last Trombly PTA meeting of the 1944-45 school year. This meeting will be the culmination of a series of talks on current home and school interests which have been the topics used at prior meetings this year. "Priorities in Postwar Education" is the topic and will give an over all view of what to expect in educational trends in the postwar era. This talk will be of interest to every parent. Save the date, Tuesday night, May 15, for visiting your school and attending the PTA.

Dr. William Clark Trow, University of Michigan, is the speaker. Dr. Trow's early experience as an army psychologist during World War I, and later as professor of educational psychology in several universities provides an excellent background for perspective and vision on the postwar educational scene. Don't miss this meeting.

The annual election of officers will be held at a short business meeting. The social committee headed by Mrs. Melville Collinson is preparing food and fun.

Daughters of Isabella Receive New Members

A regular business meeting of the Daughters of Isabella, Ama Deus Circle, followed by a social hour will be held in the Gabriel Richard club rooms, 9375 Amity avenue, Monday, May 14 at 8 p.m. Applications for new members should be turned in at this meeting if possible.

The chairladies for this month are Mesdames E. Stanley, R. Jordan and T. Meir.

Officers and choral club will officiate at initiation ceremonies for the Mt. Clemens group on May 16. The D. of I. Kitchen Band, directed by Mrs. Fred DeLodder is sponsoring a games party at the Women's Guild in the Metropolitan building on May 17 at 1 p.m.

YOUR GARDEN THIS WEEK

Cut and treat early seed potatoes. Seed potatoes should be cut into block pieces about the size of a small egg rather than wedge shaped pieces. Each block should contain several eyes. After cutting, let them stand for a period of 10 days to two weeks so that the raw edges will seal over. Treat them after drying with Senesal-Bel or a similar fungicide. (The Michigan OGD also recommends corrosive sublimate for this purpose. This is a mercury compound and is deadly poisonous. If you use it follow the directions given with it exactly and wash hands, tools and containers carefully afterwards. The usual mixture of corrosive sublimate is at the ratio of one ounce to 7 1/2 gallons of water.) It is not absolutely necessary to treat seed potatoes, but the yield should be improved by doing so. Watermelon, muskmelon, cucumber and summer squash seeds can be sown in strawberry boxes or plant bands in the hot bed or in the house this week. These plants don't transplant readily out of flats, but if they are grown in boxes and then set out without disturbing the roots they will mature a couple of weeks earlier.
