State Health Head Gives Assurance of Swimming

Little Pollution Entering Lake, Dr. Davies Told

Although tests of Lake St. Clair, made earlier this year, gave every indication that swimming would be banned for Grosse Pointers for this summer, a recent communication received by Dr. Thomas S. Davies, health commissioner of Grosse Pointe township from the Michigan Department of Health, gave a great deal of assurance that any polluted condition along the shoreline would be corrected in the very near future.

Because of the pollution which he found in the lake, Dr. Davies informed Dr. William DeKleine of the State Board of this fact.

Dr. DeKleine answered: "Pursuant to your telephone call of May 7, 1945, I have made inquiry and have determined that the Macomb county intercepting sewer has been put in operation and the sewage originating in Macomb county was at the date of our last report, May 5, being discharged into the Wayne county system for treatment at Detroit. Except for excess flows occurring during storms, the sewage has been treated in this manner for several weeks, following a period in February and March when diversion to Lake St. Clair occurred."

Dr. DeKleine also said that the daily bacteriological samples collected at the Grosse Pointe Farms water works intake offered about the best available laboratory check on the quality of the lake water. He said he was confident that although the April report had not yet been received, the lake water would be of satisfactory quality for recreational purposes. He based this assumption on previous records under comparable physical circumstances.

It will be necessary to keep a close watch on the water front, Dr. DeKleine continued.

Children of the intermediate and upper grades of the Grosse Pointe Park Community Day School, Maryland and Goethe, are shown with a part of the several tons of clothing which they collected for the UNRRA clothing drive during the last week in April.

"Mighty Seventh" Gets Off To A Poor Beginning

Deplorably low results in Bond Sales in the Seventh War Loan in Grosse Pointe to date were reported yesterday by Co-Chairman Kenneth L. Moore in expressing concern over the indifference reflected by current buying.

Whether the end of the War in Europe or a general feeling of complacency is responsible for the poor showing to date is not known, but the situation locally appears from optimistic.

With some of the schools getting a start in the drive, totals to date are only approximately $200,000 whereas at the same stage in the Sixth Loan over half a million dollars.

Buying to date has shown a definite trend toward smaller denominations of Bonds despite the fact that the quota for the Seventh War Loan is much higher. AWVS headquarters reported that persons who had purchased $1,000 bonds in previous drives were buying $100 bonds in this drive and those who previously bought $100 bonds were buying $25.

Mr. Moore stated that this regrettable situation must be remedied early in the drive if Grosse Pointe is to meet the challenge of this greatest of all War Loan campaigns. Although the War in Europe is over there is still a big and perhaps bigger battle in the Pacific, which will take tons and tons of equipment to erase the Jap menace forever.

This is definitely not a "wool cry" but a serious reflection on the general patriotism of the public. Spokesmen for the drive state that the public should be glad to buy bonds in thanks for the German victory and to speed the end of the war in the Pacific.

Pearl Harbor, T. H.—Funnelling supplies to the vast Pacific Fleet is the important task of the Naval Supply Depot here.

One of the Navy men engaged in this vital supply program is George N. Letterman, storekeeper first class USNR, of 1034 Kensington, Grosse Pointe.

Letterman, formerly employed by the General Motors Corp., enlisted in the Navy in March, 1942, and was stationed at Memphis, Tennessee, before reporting to Pearl Harbor. He attended the University of Detroit. His wife, Eleanor, and children, Nancy, and George, live at the above address in Grosse Pointe. Letterman is authorized to wear the Good Conduct Medal, the American Defense Ribbon, and the Asiatic Theatre ribbon.

The importance of the Supply Depot's work was emphasized by Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, USN, Commander in the Pacific Ocean areas, when he said that this war is a conflict of "beans, bullets, and oil," all problems of logistics handled by the Naval Supply Depot. The Depot is the most important Pacific link in the chain of supply for the mighty fleet now battering at the doors of Tokyo.

With U. S. Forces in Belgium—Working in two 12-hour shifts seven days a week, officers and enlisted men of the U. S. Engineer Depot E-49 in Channel Base Section have pushed the depot into first place among U. S. depots on the Continent for efficiency in handling urgent supplies.

In its first weeks on operation the depot receives more than 100,000 tons of engineer equipment, and shipped out tens of thousands of tons in more than 2,500 freight cars. Hundreds of barges from Antwerp were unloaded, and the cargo prepared for shipment to forward supply dumps.

An Eighth Air Force Bomber Station, England—An unusual view of French warships in action was reported to Eighth Air Force intelligence officers by Staff Sergeant Russell D. Michael, 20, Gratiot township, who as tail gunner in a B-17 Flying Fortress took part in the bombing of German last-ditch defenders near Bordeaux, France.

"As we bombed, there were about 14 warships off the coast also firing at the Germans," said Sgt. Michael, a veteran of more than 30 missions against the enemy. "Then we saw a funny thing—we saw the sunlight glittering off the shells fired by the warships as the shells were being lobbed into the strip of land being held by the Jerries."

Sgt. Michael said the French man-o-war were about three miles offshore from the German positions, which commanded the entrance to the harbor of Bordeaux on the French west coast. The Detroit gunner, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Michael, of 18922 Washtenaw avenue, said a new type of fire-bomb used by the Eighth Air Force caused extensive damage to the target area gun positions and pillboxes.

A former student of Edwin Denon by high school, Sgt. Michael flies with the 100th Bombardment Group,

Pfc. Raymond Loeffler, son of Mrs. Margaret Loeffler, of 1300 Maryland, left Grosse Pointe after spending a 30 day furlough following hospitalization for three months in England for injuries received in the European theatre of operations. THE WHOLE JOB'S OVER

THERE'S PLENTY STILL TO DO

Through all time to come V-E DAY, TUESDAY, MAY 8, will be remembered, not only in the annals of our own country, but in those of the whole world . . . a world which is still paying the price of liberty, in blood, sweat and tears, and the flower of its youth. WILLENS joins in the joy with which victory fills our hearts — but reminds you that the issue is still at stake, the battle still to be won. Until that other nation which, in arrogance has challenged and in brutality has imperilled all mankind, is beaten . . . let us rededicate ourselves to final victory. Let us bear aloft the torch that those who died have given into our hands . . . that they may not have died in vain.

LET'S FINISH THE WHOLE JOB!

DeRoy Jewelry Announces Contest To Give Away Fifty Alarm Clocks
Need an alarm clock? Then here's a story that will be of great interest to you.
DeRoy Jewelry Company operating three neighborhood stores in Detroit, West Dearborn and Redford has announced that this organization is going to give away absolutely free 50 Alarm Clocks in a special "Contest" to be held in the next four weeks. Following is a statement from the company:
"We know that there are many war workers and other essential workers who are in need of an alarm clock. We were fortunate in obtaining just 50 for our stores so instead of selling them, we want to give them away to the most deserving people in our neighborhoods.
"Every one is eligible to enter this contest. All you have to do is to write a short letter to any of our three stores telling us why you feel you deserve an alarm clock. And to the 50 people who in the opinion of our judges are the most deserving in their estimation, will receive an alarm clock absolutely free. The winners and all contest entrants will be under no obligation to make any kind of a purchase.
"This is not a literary contest. All we want the contestants to do is to give us the best reasons they know, why they feel they are entitled to an alarm clock. The winners will be announced in this paper on Thursday, June 14th, 1945. The decisions of the judges will be final and all entries will remain the property of DeRoy's."

Alger Post, VFW
One has only to visit Eaton Rapids and the V. F. W. National Home and pause to check over the lists of boys and girls we have seen thru school and out into the world as useful and respected citizens, whose cause was almost lost, and the faltering men we have helped to their feet again. Those Poppies you will buy next Thursday will help, for the men in the hospitals are pined to make them for us. The rest of the funds go to the home. And now that the world is flaming again, that you have dear ones of your own who may have too, and are, sharing in what is and has been, your purchase of poppies takes greater significance. You are helping your own for the Veterans of Foreign Wars are legion too. America's oldest and strongest military organization is pledged to carry on in almost every village and town, to give soldiers and their families whatever aid they can. That poppy you buy makes it possible. So get yours on May 24th. Wear it with the feeling you have also done your part, that you have helped to keep burning the torch, flung to us by those who are dying now.

They raised the Flag again on Corregidor...

Let's Raise The Money In The MIGHTY SEVENTH

The Flag flies again at Corregidor and the cost was great in blood and pain—but our men won. And on Iwo Jima four thousand men died to carry the flag deeper into enemy territory. But we're on the way to Tokyo. At home our efforts are measured in dollars—the support we give the war loans. This is really two great loans in one—last year we had two at this time, so let's back the boys on the fighting fronts by making the 7th War Loan twice as great as any before.

Pressure Cookers To Be Inspected By WFA

To aid Detroit women in preparing for the most important canning season in many years, a pressure cooker checking service is being offered by Mrs. Ruth Code, War Food Assistant. It is highly essential that the pressure cooker gauge be accurate, for if it isn't, food may be spoiled. If the pressure is lower than the gauge reading when food is canned, it may spoil; if the pressure is higher than the reading, the food will be overcooked. Pressure cooker gauges can be brought to Room 312, McKerchey building, 2631 Woodward avenue for this service. Call CAadillac 5401 for an appointment.

After Elgin's assigned war tasks are finished, you'll be able to choose from a grand array of New Elgin Watches in this store... Elgins more brilliantly styled than before. Dependably accurate, they'll be timed to the stars.

Schools Reorganize Guidance Program For All Children

According to a recent announcement by Dr. Paul L. Estert, superintendent of schools, the Board of Education has approved plans, resulting from a two-year study, to strengthen the program of physical education, art and music in the elementary grades and to make the education of children in all grades, from kindergarten through grade 12, more personalized by instituting in the teaching staff a group of teachers who will give part of their time to individual counseling of pupils.

The two steps are in the direction of meeting non-academic needs of Grosse Pointe children that are not regularly or thoroughly met in the academic classroom.

"The Grosse Pointe Schools" said the Superintendent, "are well known for the high quality of work done in reading, arithmetic, spelling, history, and in the various specializations of junior and senior high school classrooms. While we are constantly striving to improve our work in these fields, the new program is designed to give recognition to the repeated requests of parents and pupils for preparing pupils to develop abilities and capacities in health, in art and music and to find time and opportunity to discuss and plan to meet many personal problems which are not dealt with in ordinary daily instruction."

Guidance and Counseling Reorganization
After two years of careful planning and studying by all secondary guidance program, has been approved by the Board of Education and the following changes have been made in the staff, depending upon the ability of the Superintendent to secure teacher replacements.

The guidance program for the entire school system will be centered in the Office of the Director of Pupil Personnel, Mr. Lynn M. Bartlett.

Returned Veterans Receive Special Identification Cards

Veterans Identification Cards, which immediately identify the Veteran of World War II as a worker who is not only freed of all manpower regulations, but who is also entitled to preferential treatment in all United States Employment Service Offices, are being passed out to the boys who have returned from the wars.

"The War Manpower Commission feels that every citizen owes an obligation to serve his government during the time of war. We also feel that the returning veteran has discharged that obligation, and discharged it well," Ed. L. Cushman, State Director of the War Manpower Commission said today.

Richard School N-E-W-S

The pupils and teachers of the Richard school are busy in the Seventh War Loan Drive. Olive Stringer, chairman of the drive and teacher of grade 3A in the school, writes as follows:

Let us express our thankfulness for V-E Day by prayer for our boys and give them the most support we can by buying the largest bond we can. Don't you think it would raise the morale of any of our fighting boys to see a jeep coming along with the name Richard School, Grosse Pointe?

Each room at Richard is trying to buy a jeep. Your help is needed. Our bond quota is $70,000 per child. Our school quota is $35,000. We already have sold $5,000 worth of bonds.

Mrs. Ruth Walker comes from A. W. V. S. to sell bonds Tuesday and Thursday afternoons. Why don't you as parents and friends of Richard, come over and make your bond purchase? You will find Mrs. Walker very efficient and prompt with her bond sales.

Now is the time to get rid of those practically filled stamp books that have been lying around dresser drawers. Bring them in with the remainder in cash. We accept them as long as ten cent stamps are in ten cent books, etc. When you send over fifty pennies we do hope you will roll them. We will gladly furnish you with penny rollers.

Returned Veterans Receive Special Identification Cards

Veterans Identification Cards, which immediately identify the Veteran of World War II as a worker who is not only freed of all manpower regulations, but who is also entitled to preferential treatment in all United States Employment Service Offices, are being passed out to the boys who have returned from the wars.

"The War Manpower Commission feels that every citizen owes an obligation to serve his government during the time of war. We also feel that the returning veteran has discharged that obligation, and discharged it well," Ed. L. Cushman, State Director of the War Manpower Commission said today.

"With this thought in mind, the War Manpower Commission has lifted all controls over Veterans of World War II, and possession of the USES Veteran's Identification Card not only will entitle him to "preferred" treatment in the USES offices, but will also advise prospective employers that he may be hired without a Statement of Availability, without a referral card, and hired also without regard to the employer's manpower ceiling, Cushman said.

An additional benefit is the protection of the veteran's discharge papers, which he must preserve carefully, as they will be of inestimable value to him all his life, Cushman concluded.

The card itself bears the veteran's name, address, social security number, veteran status verification and other information. Cushman urges each veteran to procure one at the Employment Service Office nearest his home.

WE ARE ALL BLIND!

“Describe it to me,
will you, Mac?”

“Yeah, I hear 'em yelling.

“This is what I used to dream about in the jungle. God, if I could only see for just five seconds.

“That girl there—is she laughing... or crying? I had a girl—once. Sure I wrote her when this happened to me. I told her I was tired of her. What else could I do?

“Listen to that newsboy... ‘GERMANY FIGHTS!’ I’d give anything to see those headlines. What else does it say? Anything about the Pacific? I hope you guys realize there’s still the Pacific.

“Yeah, I was there, all right. If you could have seen what I saw, you wouldn’t need to read any War Bond ads. Kids you grew up with, with their faces smashed to bits. Nothing left of your best friend but his helmet landing in your lap. Made me kind of mad, I guess. They say I was still fighting when I couldn’t see any more.

“Yeah, it’s bad enough. But it makes it worse when you hear someone saying the war’s practically over. Acting as if it’s time to ease up on War Bonds and all. Then you wonder what you did it for. It’s not over yet. Those Japs can do a lot of damage. I ought to know.

“Do me a favor, will you, Mac? Keep on buying War Bonds for my buddies out there. And put a little extra in for my sake, will you?”

TILL IT’S OVER, OVER THERE!

STORY OF PIRATE DEEDS AT SHORES

Paramount's biggest technicolor production, "Frenchman's Creek" will be shown at the Shores theatre next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. It stars Joan Fontaine and Arturo de Cordova.

Filmed at a cost of several millions the picture is from Daphne du Maurier's best-selling novel of the same name. Its story is of pirate and deeds of daring and boldness and has no connection with any present day affairs, combining action aboard a pirate ship with sequences in English ballrooms. Dealing primarily with the romance of de Cordova, the French pirate, and Miss Fontaine as the lovely English aristocrat, it tells of an escapade in which the lady, disguised as a page boy, joins the pirates trespassing on her land. Sword battles, sea duels and colorful adventure follows. Directed by Mitchell Leisen who is said to outdone DeMille Paramount's master of spectacles, the picture is rated the most lavish production ever turned out by Paramount. De Cordova plays the dashing pirate in his most promising screen role since he essayed one of the leading roles in "For Whom the Bell Tolls."

Johnson's Bar Remodeled

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Luzon may well feel proud of the splendid job of remodeling and redecorating they have done in their new bar at 21715 Harper avenue between the eight and Nine Mile roads. The building has been completely done over with a modernistic front and the bright and spacious interior is beautifully decorated in shades of blue. Attractive chair backs, draperies, twinkling mirrors and arch ways reflected in the richness of Neon lighting, give the place an atmosphere of congenial hominess in which to while away an evening. As your hosts, the proprietors bear out their slogan, "Remember Your Welcome" to its fullest degree. You are invited to drop in anytime, especially for those chicken and fish dinners over the week-end.

TEAM COMEDY AND ROMANCE

Hilarious complications plus romance and comedy in "Bride By Mistake" starring Loraine Day, Alan Marshall and Marsha Hunt will be shown at the Aloma theatre tomorrow and Saturday. Teamed with it is "Frenchman's Creek," co-starring Arturo de Cordova and Joan Fontaine.

To elude fortune hunters and newspaper publicity, Norah Hunter, played by Loraine Day, has her best friend and secretary (Marsha Hunt) impersonate her at all public gatherings, a device which starts the fun rolling in "Bride By Mistake." When Norah falls hard for a returned army flier (Alan Marshall), things become hilariously complex, especially as the flier showers his attentions on the secretary, believing her to be Norah. The fact that the secretary is happily married to Philip (Allyn Joslyn) adds a bit of frenzy to the proceedings.

The four main characters are supported by a large cast which includes Edgar Buchanan and Slim Summerville.

The program will feature several decades of beautiful costumes, as well as many authentic and comical heirlooms. Alois A. Ghesquire will make introductory remarks at the start of the program. Included with the style show will be numbers by Patricia with her violin.

Merchant Marine Gold Star Mothers Honored At Dinner

May 22, 1945 is National Maritime Day. This day is an occasion authorized by the Congress of the United States and proclaimed annually by the President of the United States, to honor and pay tribute to the men of the U. S. Maritime Service and the Merchant Marine.

Detroit will celebrate Maritime Day, the twelfth observance of National Maritime Day nationally, by giving a dinner to honor these mothers (or next of kin) whose sons have been killed in this war, while on active duty with the U. S. Merchant Marine.

The dinner given by the Maritime Service with the co-operation of the Women's Advertising Club in Detroit, of which Miss Eleanor Hosen is president, will be held at the Hotel Stroh, 21715 Harper.

Mr. H. F. Best will act as toastmaster and Lieutenant Commander S. H. McConnell, Chief Public Relations Officer of the Training Organization, War Shipping Administration from Washington, D.C., will be Guest Speaker. Commanding officers representing every branch of the Armed Forces will also be present at the speaker's table.

ABBOTT AND COSTELLO IN COLONY PLAY

Showing next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, the Colony theatre will present Abbott and Costello in "Lost in a Harem" with Marilyn Maxwell, Jon Conte and Jimmy Dorsey and his band. The second feature is "Destiny" with Gloria Jean and Alan Curtis.

"Lost in a Harem" is a furiously funny and swift-paced film with Abbott and Costello as prop men for a small musical show touring the mystic East. They get stranded along with the rest of the company in a bizarre town. As a result of a fight, the boys along with Marilyn get tossed in jail. Hilarity piles on hilarity as they find themselves involved with a desert shiek, who, smitten by Marilyn, offers to free the trio if they will help him regain his throne, which has been usurped by Ramo's evil uncle. Posing as Hollywood talent scouts, Abbott and Costello wind up behind the eight ball and Marilyn winds up in the arms of the desert shiek. Jimmy Dorsey and his band contribute some musical hot licks.

The famous Negro choir, "Wings Over Jordan" has arrived in Naples, Italy, to entertain men of the Fifth army. The choir is on tour for USO camp shows, a community War Chest agency.

Wayne Newspaper Gets Top Honors

The Detroit Collegian, Wayne University student newspaper, has received the coveted "Pacemaker" award from the Associated Collegiate Press, national organization for the evaluation of college newspapers. This is the second time in its 27-year history that the honor has fallen to the Collegian. It was similarly recognized in the fall of semester of 1942.

The award establishes the Collegian as the nation's outstanding publication in its class. Of the 262 college papers evaluated by the judges, only four achieved the "Pacemaker" rank.

Editor of the Wayne publication this year is Sam Petok, 18010 Indiana. He is a senior in the College of Liberal Arts.

Elementary Grades Receive Training In Special Fields

The program of instruction in Grosse Pointe during the past few years has sought to provide a part-time teacher in art, in music and in physical education in each of the elementary schools. Methods of training of colleges and teacher-preparation institutions have not always provided the training necessary for teacher to do the double-assignment of regular classroom work as well as these special fields. War time shortages of well prepared teachers has accentuated this difficulty. The new program as announced by the Superintendent provides a skilled and highly trained specialist in each of these fields to work with teachers in the entire school system.

Mr. Glenn Woods, Supervisor of Music, will give special attention to the music teaching in the elementary schools, working with teachers who indicate a need for his services.

Mr. William Hicks, who has for several years done a distinguished job in elementary physical education in the Mason school, will be released to assist teachers of health education in their desire to improve their work.

A similar arrangement will be made in the field of elementary art.

These changes in the instructional program are under the central direction of the Assistant Superintendent of Schools in charge of instruction, Mr. John R. Barnes.

Motion Picture Council Holds Final Meeting

The Grosse Pointe Motion Picture Council will hold its final meeting of the school year in the Pierce library May 21st.

Although there will be no meetings during the summer vacation, listings of recommended movies will appear monthly in this paper. You may also obtain copies of this list at the main library and its two branches.

Pointe Girls Participate In Swimming Pageant

East Lansing, Mich.—Two Grosse Pointe co-eds at Michigan State college will take part in the annual water pageant "Alice in Wonderland" to be presented Friday and Saturday May 11 and 12 by Green Splash, women's honorary swimming society.

Virginia Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Collins, 757 1/2 W. Chester, and Barbara Shipton, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Harold Shipton, 327 McMillan, will be two Grosse Pointe students in the program.

Miss Collins, who is enrolled in the school of Home economics, will be one of the exhibition divers in the pageant. Miss Shipton, a freshman in the Basic college program, will be cast as one of the "queens guards."

The pageant has been presented at the college for 27 years, with the exception of last year when the Army Air Force units on the campus necessitated closing the pools to civilian use.

American's Aid Dutch Through Relief Society

To more closely identify the Queen Wilhelmina Fund as an effort of Americans to aid the people of Holland, this Community War Chest agency has adopted a new name, American Relief for Holland, Inc.

In announcing this change Mrs. Jean de Kuyper, chairman of the Detroit chapter, said the agency's activities would continue as before. These activities include sewing, mending and the collection of clothing and other necessities by the local chapter and the purchase of large quantities of relief goods for the needy of that country by the chapter's national headquarters. The Community War Chest contributes to the financing of this program.

Repatriated Priest Relates Experiences

Rev. Fr. Joseph L. Beal, Regional Supervisor of the Society of Foreign Missions in the Far East, and a native of Detroit, will address the members of Gabriel Richard Council and their guests in the Councils Club Building, 9375 Amity avenue, at Kercheval and Parkway, on Monday evening, May 21, states Grand Knight John F. Gingerella.

Fr. Beal arrived in Peking, China, on a visit to a fellow priest of the foreign language school in the "Forbidden City" on the evening of December 6, 1941, the day which was to us the 7th, and to go down in history as Pearl Harbor Day.

Faith Church Reopens Red Cross Unit

Due to conditions beyond its control, The American Red Cross was compelled to close all surgical dressing units during March and April.

Unit 29, which meets at Faith Lutheran Church has reopened with a large emergency quota to complete. Mrs. Margaret Hudson, chairman of this unit, requests all women in this community who have had training in this work to make special effort to attend every Tuesday.

In the past four years 594 women have been trained in this unit under the instruction of Mrs. Blanche Shover of 640 Newport avenue, and the work of this unit which amounts to 2,435,490 dressings has been packed by Mrs. Florence Moore, 10851.

BY THIS time last year Victory Volunteers in this community had made the rounds twice to get out fighting dollars for War Bonds. So if you've wondered why no one has called on you yet in 1945, here's the reason . . . The Mighty 7th War Loan (starting May 14) will be TWO GREAT DRIVES COMBINED IN ONE!

And think what that means. All the old rules of buying you set for yourself in the past are out. America's growing battle might is costing more dollars every hour. Only by your purchase of MORE BONDS AND BIGGER ONES in this double drive will you be doing right by the men who fight.

Remember that your community has a quota it will be proud to make. It's made up of all the personal quotas of you . . . your neighbor next door . . . the people up and down your street . . . EVERYBODY in this vicinity. So it's EVERYBODY ALL OUT . . . buy bigger bonds and more of them when the Victory Volunteer calls. Our fighting men are watching what you do!
