Dear Friends:

With the end of European hosilities, we have all expected or hoped for an easing in he regulations and a greater supply of meats, sugar, buter and other rationed items for restaurants and homes.

However, as you undoubtedly have heard, production of meat, sugar, butter, etc., has been further curtailed this year, and we are all still called upon to share what we have with our fighting men and the unfortunate people overseas.

Never before have our menu makers been called upon to use so much ingenuity in constructing menus that are attractive and appetizing. We deeply regret that we are obliged a secretarily those secretarily the assure our friends that when permitted we shall be the first to restore our peace-time ice cream and desserts, steaks, chops and other meats, and all the good dishes for which Al Green's is famous.

School Board |Veterans Seek Seats Again Here

Attention is called this week to he candidacy to succeed themselves as members of the Grosse Pointe board of education of Mrs. Alice Moody Sheaffer and Charles A. Poupard.

Mrs. Sheaffer was elected to the school board three years ago and is completing the first three-year term held by a woman on the board. Always active in parent-teacher and other school affairs, Mrs. Sheaffer is identified with many local civic interests. She is on the board of managers of the local unit of AWVS and is Junior Red Cross coordinator of Grosse Pointe township.

Mr. Poupard is a veteran of 27 years of service on the board of education, during most of which time he has served as treasurer. He is well known throughout the Pointe and has always taken a active interest in all school affairs.

Entertainment Back at Casabella Cafe

With the lifting of the curfew, the Casabella Cafe, 15203 E. Warren at Lakepointe, has resumed its policy of offering its patrons the best in top flight entertainment. The current attraction is Tommy Howe, that poogie woogie artist and stylist who outs a tinkle into the tiredest of oes, combined with songs you remember and love to hear. On the same bill "Old Man Corn His Self," better known to Casabella patrons as Ole Olsen, has been brought back by popular demand with his line of song stories from the keys, the kind you like to sing with your friends, in those more convivial moments. As always the Casabella is serving the finest in beers, wines and liquors. As usual Emeric, the bartender, Jimmy and Little Tony are on hand as your hosts.

BUTGANI

Through six War Loan Drives I've urged and begged you to Buy More Bonds to Back the Boys! The Mighty Seventh found me down (I've been ill — but am better) and I'm Never Out when it comes to Buying Bonds and asking you to Buy Bonds, Too!

Thousands and thousands of our boys can't ask you . . . but won't you, for the sake of the thousands who need you (some of whom soon won't be able to ask you, either) make every little sacrifice that you can to lessen the number of their sacrifices.

THIRTY SECONDS, BETTY GRABLE BOGART, BACALL OVER TOKYO' AT STARS IN MOVIE IN PICTURE AT COLONY FRI., SAT. AT A LOMA SUN. SHORES THEATRE

Spencer Tracy and Van Johnson "Thirty Seconds Over Tokyo" with Robert Walker and Phyllis Thaxter will be shown at the Colony theatre tomorrow and Saturday, cals shown in recent months. It is at the Shores theatre Sunday, Mon-Based on the factual account of the bombing of Tokyo as recorded by Grable and George Montgomery; it Captain Ted Lawson and Robert Considine, "Thirty Seconds Over Monday. Tokyo" is a stirring record of dar ing and accomplishment.

This is the human story of Captain Lawson and his heroic crew right up to that great emotional climax when Lawson ,mangled and crippled after crashing to the surf on the China coast, wondered whether he wouldd ever get back to his girl-wife and their expected baby, In addition, the picture is a true-life story of an actual mission conceived and executed in the finest traditions of the American armed forces, with daring, courage and that's the story.

Betty plays the part of a singer and dancer in one of Coney Island's saloons during the early nineties; working for the Caesar Romero, the proprietor, she sings and dances in rag time. Later, when George Montgomery appears on the scene and begins directing the show at the tavern, he introduces a new style of singing which eventually puts Betty at the top on Broadway. The path to the top was not all roses but Betty finally reaches it after some misunderstanding and troubles-but
