Listen to Rita Powers Monday through Friday at 9:30 a.m.

How'd you like to bring a smile to your overseas serviceman's face? Then send him photographs. Nothing is so welcome as snapshots from home . . . of the family or the girl of his dreams. You needn't necessarily have studio portraits made, either. Ordinary snapshots can let him know what you're doing while waiting for him. Take snapshots while at the beach . . . or at the tennis court . . . picnicking . . . taking care of the victory garden. They'll show the true you . . . with personality. Don't hesitate because you're afraid the snaps won't be flattering. Just be careful not to use strong direct light . . . it makes for deep shadows. Rather use soft diffused light . . . avoid brilliant sunlight . . . take the snaps a little later in the day.

Don't "pose" for the picture with a grin on your face that doesn't feel right . . . take an action picture instead. Do something. It'll look more natural and be easier to take. But most important . . . be perfectly natural.

If you can get the film, don't spare the pictures. You have no idea what you can do.

out of them. You've never heard of them for women especially will be interested because . . . they're just the thing to have around the home.

Back in the days of Queen Elizabeth, pomander balls were used to perfume the closets in her apartments. A pomander is a perfume ball. You can make it yourself . . . it's very simple.

First you need a small orange with a perfect skin. Then take whole cloves with the heads still on . . . and stick them into the orange in an all-over pattern. Pierce the skin first with a darning needle . . . you won't break the cloves in this way. Be sure not to stick the cloves down a straight line . . . but rather in an all-over pattern . . . to avoid splitting the skin.

As the orange dries, it shrinks. When it's completely cured, no part of the skin will show. The orange will keep getting lighter as it cures . . . due to the gradual seeping out of the juice and the drying of the pulp.

The purpose of the cloves is to perfume the ball . . . and also to prevent decay as the drying goes on. Ten days should take care of the curing process. When the pomander is finished, you have something that'll come in mighty handy.

You can use the pomander in your living room when it's hot and damp outdoors and your rugs have a wet wool smell. Put it in your clothes closet . . . or wherever you'd like a spicy, sweet scent.

Scene on the Street—
 Setting: Harper streetcar at 4 p.m. Cast: Hero . . . aged 2 1/2; heroine . . . aged three; also two mothers. In the back seat of the car, the little boy and girl sit next to each other . . . each belongs to a different mother.

The girl is very serious-faced . . . thoughtful . . . but flirtatious. The boy tries to please . . . smiles as he talks . . . "I'm going to show tonight. It's gonna be a real good pitcher."

"Mama," says the girl, "mama, I wanna go to show." (Both mamas laugh.)

"You wanna go with me? Come on . . . let's go," invites our hero.

She nestles her blonde head on his shoulders . . . looks up and smiles at him. (One mama says to the other, "looks like a big date for them.") The romance continues. Our hero smiles as he talks to his lady-love. She frowns a bit . . . considers him seriously.

All of a sudden, the little boy's mama takes his hand and starts with him down the aisle, packed with people. Halt! way through the aisle, his piping voice calls out "G'bye!"

SERVICE PARADE

Lieut. Col. Jack Drew of Lakepointe avenue, Grosse Pointe Park, is enjoying a visit with his family and many friends in the Pointe while on leave from Camp Ord, Calif.

Aboard an Aircraft Carrier in the Pacific. — Leonard L. Leudzion, Jr., aviation machinist's mate, third class, of 1692 Severn road, Grosse Pointe Woods, is back at the business of fighting Japs after a recent three-hour rest period on one of the navy's "recreation islands" in this war zone.

The "recreation islands" have been set up on tiny atolls to give navy men a few hours to relax between battles.

The crewmen of this carrier visited the island in small parties, and had a chance to put their feet on solid ground for a few hours. They were taken on a tour of abandoned, thatched native huts, where a small tribe of islanders made their homes before the war. They also were given an opportunity to hunt along the beach for oddly-shaped coral and sea shells washed up by the tide.

Recreation and refreshments included cans of beer and soft drinks, a ball game, horseshoe pitching, boxing, swimming and sun bathing. The sailors also had a chance to mingle with crewmen of other ships in the area, swapping sea stories and talking about mutual acquaintances and relatives.

Walter Gibbs, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gibbs, of 1203 Yorkshire road, has been qualified for appointment as a cadet midshipman, U. S. Merchant Marine Reserve, USNR, and will report in the fall to the U. S. Merchant Marine Academy, San Mateo, Calif.

He is a graduate of Grosse Pointe high school and attended Admiral Billard academy, University of Chicago and the University of Michigan.

First Base Air Depot, Warrington, England. — One of the first Wacs in the European Theatre of Operations Sergt. Geraldine E. Vernier of 1469 Lakepointe, Grosse Pointe Park, recently observed her first anniversary of overseas duty.

Sergeant Vernier's Womens Army Corps group serves in virtually every section of this vast air depot where the gigantic task of redeploying thousands of aircraft engines and tons of Air Corps supplies to the Pacific is going on in an accelerated pace as we speed the tempo of our drive toward Tokyo.

She has been a member of the Wac since April, 1943, and came overseas on D-Day. Her relatives in the service include: Brother, Pfc. Paul L. Vernier, in the Army Air Corps, SIC Joseph R. Vernier, AS Robert L. Vernier in the U. S. Navy.

Chapel Hill, N. C. — Naval Aviation Cadet Arthur E. Franzen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tore Franzen of 1333 Nottingham street, Grosse Pointe Park, has successfully completed the course at the U. S. Navy Preflight school here. He has been transferred to the Naval Air Station at Glenview, Ill., for primary flight training.

Cadet Franzen was on the Cloud-buster swimming team while in training here. He acquired his earlier swimming experience at Grosse Pointe high school where he also played on the football team and was class treasurer. Cadet Franzen attended Alma college and the University of Michigan in 1943-44, and was employed by the Chrysler corporation before entering the naval aviation training program.

Other members of the Franzen family in the armed service are Richard A. Franzen, a navy pilot, and Tore N. Franzen, Jr., in the army infantry.

The preflight school at Chapel Hill is one of the four great schools and physical training centers in the world.

national fourth B-17 Flying Fortress, Corporal Harris and his fellow crew members repaired and modified more than 25 different types of aircraft.

Overseas 24 months, Corporal Harris is the son of Mrs. J. R. Harris, of 419 McKinley, Grosse Pointe Farms.

Greensboro, N. C. — Staff Sergeant Russell D. Michael, husband of Mrs. Helen Michael, 18922 Washtenaw, Detroit, Mich., has reported to the Overseas Replacement Depot, Greensboro, N. C., for assignment to an air force installation in the United States. Sergeant Michael recently returned to this country after having completed 35 combat missions as a gunner on a B-17.

At the ORD he is going through a records and classification procedure prior to assignment. The ORD, a station in the Personnel Distribution Command's chain of redistribution stations, also provides entertainment and relaxation for him during his stay.

He wears the European Theater of Operations campaign ribbon with one battle star, and the Air Medal with five Oak Leaf clusters.

Two Grosse Pointe men were among those graduating recently from intensive courses of service schools training here at the U. S. Naval Training Center.

Their training has been designed to fit them for specialized navy jobs in the long Pacific war ahead and also for skilled work in industry when peace comes.

Upon graduation the Bluejackets are sent to sea, to shore stations, or to advanced schools for further study.

The recent graduates and the schools in which they trained are: William R. Maas, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Maas, 870 Washington road, and Stewart W. Stevenson, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart W. Stevenson, 1356 Yorkshire, both in basic engineering.

He comes from the infantry — the dough-foot army — first division of General Hodges' First Army which rendered a crushing blow to the Nazi military machine in Germany, and Staff Sergeant Blay played part in the affair.

Sergeant Blay got his training at the big and spreading Camp Fanning, tucked in amidst the tall pine trees of East Texas near the rose center of the world, Tyler.

However, his training was no bed of roses, because shortly after rigorous preparation, he went overseas on Feb. 1, 1944, and landed in England.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES
 will be the subject of the sermon in all Christian churches throughout the city on Sunday, July 15.

The Golden Text (Psalms 103:19) is: "The Lord hath prepared his throne in the heavens; and his kingdom ruleth over all."
 Among the Bible citations is this passage (Isaiah 1:18): "Come now, and let us reason together, saith the Lord; though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool."
 Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (339): "The destruction of sin is the divine method of pardon. Divine Life destroys death. Truth destroys error, and Love destroys hate."

 Swell on the diamond—dangerous in the street

I have considerable respect for a man who can throw straight. I like him to think straight, too—and that's where street lights come in.

Never risk hitting a street light with a ball or stone. A lamp smashed by day may mean an auto smashed by night—or a pedestrian—someone who will never run for a high one again, or cheer in the stands. Safety and the war effort depend on light.

Gideons Cabinet Convention to Meet in Detroit July 18-22

The 46th annual meeting of the Cabinet of The Gideons International convenes in the Book Cadillac hotel July 18-22, 1945. The convention committee of ODT has limited delegates to a maximum of 50, hence it is expected that each state in the Union will send its best man to participate in the Gideon phase of the biggest business in the world — spreading the say-so of God Almighty and winning men to Him through the spread of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Gideons are commercial men — men engaged in the business of this world, but not engrossed by it. They have found reality in the promises of Jesus Christ, and seek to give Him His rightful place in their lives. During the past four decades they have worked silently and energetically in the placement of copies of The Holy Bible in every room of every worthwhile hotel in the U.S.A. and several other countries. In recent decades Bibles have been placed in hospital rooms for the solace of the physically ill and in penal institutions for the instruction of the wayward.

Highlights of this convention will be:

1. Gospel street meetings on Washington boulevard adjoining headquarters in the Book Cadillac hotel daily.
2. Youth rally and sacred concert in Patterson Collegiate in Windsor,

CAPT. ALVIN O. CARLSON

Canada, Friday, July 20, 7:45 p.m. Detroit's Voice of Christiana Youth and Windsor's Youth for Christ will cooperate in this program. Features will include a talk by Captain Alvin O. Carlson.

3. Banquet in the grand ballroom of the Book Cadillac hotel, Saturday, July 21, 6:30 p.m.

4. City-wide mass meeting in Metropolitan M. E. church, 8000 Woodward avenue, at 3:30 p.m. Sunday, July 22. Special musical numbers and a message from Combat Chaplain Alvin O. Carlson.

Captain Carlson was chaplain with the 35th Division of General Patton's Third Army from D-Day thru the Siegfried Line. He saw many comrades die; and he had the joy of administering living water to many whom he shall meet again. He knows the power of the Gideon Testament in the lives of men in battle.

After a severe injury from a large shell, Chaplain Carlson was hospitalized twice. On his ETO ribbon he wears three major battle stars from St. Lo, Northern France, and the Siegfried Line. He also has been awarded the Purple Heart and Presidential citation with Oak Leaf Cluster.

Captain Carlson is author of a thrilling book soon to come off the press — "Faith or Fear in a Fox-hole."

In civilian life Chaplain Carlson is pastor of a large Presbyterian church in the Northwest. He has been a popular speaker in many conferences throughout the United States and Canada.

The public is urged to attend these open meetings.

Wages Are Increased

The Michigan Bell Telephone company and the Federation of Telephone Employees of Michigan (plant department) have been advised that the director of economic stabilization has approved the wage adjustments, retroactive to May 1, 1944, ordered in the national War Labor Board's directive of May 4, 1945.

Approximately 2,500 non-supervisory plant men, half of them in Detroit, are affected. Total increase approximates $600,000 on an annual basis.

The increases in the company's Detroit division amount to $6 per week per man for telephone crafts and $4 for others. At the following points, $4 was directed for telephone crafts and $3 for others: Lansing, Flint, Pontiac, Mt. Clemens, Birmingham, Oxford, Marine City, Farmington, Northville, Ann Arbor, Wayne, Ypsilanti, Uxiah, Romeo, Plymouth, Eton, Holly, Rochester, Clarkston, Walled Lake, Clio, Elkhart, Lake Orion, Mason, New Baltimore, Algonac. Comparable increases of $3 and $2 were directed for the remaining employees in the company's territory.

Mustang Pilot Receives Air Medal

Seventh Fighter Command Headquarters, Iwo Jima. — Presentation of the Air Medal has been made to Second Lieut. Robert J. Louwers, Grosse Pointe Park, at ceremonies on Iwo Jima. Lieutenant Louwers, a 23-year-old P-51 Mustang pilot of the Seventh Fighter Command, received the air medal from Brig. Gen. Ernest Moore in recognition of his long range missions to the Japanese Empire.

He has flown five such missions, longest overwater flights yet made by single-engine army fighter planes. His wife, Mary, lives at 1388 Beaconsfield, Grosse Pointe Park, and his mother, Mrs. Irma Louwers, lives at the same address. He was graduated from Grosse Pointe high school in 1939; he arrived in the Pacific ocean areas in March, 1945, after entering the army in 1942.

Boy Scouts Use Red Cross Motto for Rescue Work in Swimming Accidents

"What, me a life saver? I don't know the first thing to do; besides, I can't even swim myself." How often have you heard such remarks or comments? Only because the speaker really believed himself to be totally unable to help perform a rescue. So many of us think we must be a Johnny Weissmuller in order to perform a drowning rescue. But that is not the case.

In the first place, even strong swimmers have lost their own lives in trying to perform water rescues. Acting on their first impulses they rushed in, clothes and all, which often wasn't necessary.

It is hard to improve on the American Red Cross teachings of life saving. Their motto is: "Row, Throw, Go, Tow." Their teachings, adopted by Scouting over 35 years ago, have reduced, to a minimum, water accidents at Boy Scout camps. In fact, in a well regulated camp of any kind where everyone on his honor obeys the rules, rarely does an accident occur.

What's good for the water sports of organized camps is also good for the general public. Every man, woman and child should know how to perform a rescue. It is a life saving trip, a day's outing, or an evening swim.

Of course, many rescues (or assists) are performed easily for those not too far out. Sometimes it's just a case of a person becoming frightened or panicky, not yet drowned, but in trouble. Often an out-stretched pole or stick, rope, towel, anything which the patient can reach is sufficient. A ring buoy can be thrown considerable distance by those who know how. There is a proper way of having one coiled and ready, so practice whenever you have a chance.

However, for the person away out, a boat is always preferred, so at the first intimation of a person in difficulty, look for one. Usually you can make better time over a long journey and you don't lose time in disrobing. You can render help much easier and you don't endanger your own life. But you did look — there isn't any boat, or pole long enough to reach, and no ring buoy or rope! Knowing you are a good swimmer you decide to risk it. Okay, off come your outer garments. Quick disrobing means a better chance. Every man ment counts, but don't rush in fully clothed. You just can't imagine how shoes, ties, and pants can handicap a fellow — slow him down — tire him out.

If you are on duty as a guard for your friends or a group of campers, it is wise to have a buddy with a 'chain' rope between you. In this case, you rescue the patient and your buddy pulls you both back to safety.

The patient went down, hey? Well, if you know your stuff you go down after him! Ever surface dive? All trained swimmers and life savers do. It's lots of fun and now it's a real necessity if you are going to locate the patient.

From now on we will have to leave you on your own. There is not enough space to tell you about approaches, carries, breaks and holds which a life saver should know if he is to make a rescue safely. Then of course there is a whole lot about artificial resuscitation which every first aider should know. No use bringing the patient to shore if someone doesn't go to work at once. Every second counts.

Now, one last word about boating, canoeing, etc. Don't overload; never change seats after you get out; no 'horse play.' Many a silly stunt has resulted in a tragedy. Remember that most capsize boats or canoes don't sink, so stay with your ship is usually good advice. By not taking chances you'll live to swim for many summers to come!

Flying Major Adds Air Medal to DFC

Okinawa — (Delayed) — Marine Maj. John B. Maas, Jr., 24, of Grosse Pointe, has been awarded the air medal by Maj. Gen. Francis P. Mulcahy, commanding general of the Second Marine Air Wing.

The decoration is in recognition of the veteran Corsair fighter pilot's "meritorious conduct" through this campaign. He has led numerous bombing, rocket and strafing missions against Japanese positions and has shot down one enemy plane while sharing credit for a second.

Flying from Henderson Field, Guadalcanal in 1942-43, Major Maas destroyed four and a half enemy aircraft in combat and earned the DFC for his exploits.

His wife, Mrs. Natalie Maas, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Maas, Sr., live at 870 Washington road, Grosse Pointe.

It is going to take all the munitions we can produce to make Japan surrender.

Calling a Man a Nazi Leads to Battle Royal for Two Men

Late Saturday night, Mrs. R. Thompson, of 971 Nottingham, reported an argument going on at Beaconsfield and Jefferson. Investigation disclosed two men arguing.

According to the men, the resident of Beaconsfield was sitting in a tavern when the resident of Nottingham called him a "Nazi." The former then hit the name caller in the mouth, and attempted to follow him home in an effort to learn his address. The Beaconsfield resident did not press charges.

Neighborhood Club N-E-W-S

The day campers at the Neighborhood club helped to celebrate the Fourth of July by participating in a "America the Beautiful" program on Friday, July 6 from 2 to 3 p.m. Each girl selected a particular state in the Union which she gave a brief report on. Each boy chose a specific President to talk about. The children voted for the girl who gave the best report and she became Miss America. The boy who was voted to have given his talk best became Uncle Sam. The children then sang the national anthem. Uncle Sam, who was Robert Warren and Miss America, who was Millicent Vinitsky, then led the children in a parade around the block.

The Neighborhood day campers will concentrate their attention on animals this week. They will use their hands in clay molding and paper bag puppets. Friday the children will bring their pets which range from worms to rabbits, gold fish to Collie dogs. Each child will be attached to one section of the fence where he will keep his pet. Each child will bring his pet before the judges who will select the best kept, the most unusual, and the most clever. Miniature china animals which the children bring in will be on display.

Pointe Lieutenant Participates in Fortress Rescue

B-29 Base, Tinian. — A Tinian-based B-29 Superfortress flying as a "Dumbo" recently teamed up with a Navy submarine to rescue 10 of 11 crew members of a downed Superfortress several miles off the coast of Kyushu.

The downed aircraft, the "Mary Anna" was commanded by Lieut. Andrew de V. Penn, San Francisco, Calif., who lost his life in the ditching.

While making a bombing run on Oita airfield in northern Kyushu, the "Mary Anna" and other planes of the formation were attacked by 60 Jap fighters. The ensuing battle lasted for 35 minutes until the B-29s were 20 miles off Kyushu on the way back to Tinian.

The "Mary Anna" was forced to drop out of the formation with two engines dead and a third functioning with only a portion of its full power. A check up on personnel revealed that Lieutenant Penn and Master Sergeant Eugene W. Sorenson, La Jara, Colo., had been seriously wounded in the fight.

Lieut. Ralph E. Len, Los Angeles, pilot, took over the controls of the "Mary Anna."

Meanwhile, the crew of Lieut. John H. Bulmer, San Bernardino, Calif., elected to fall out of formation to "buddy" the "Mary Anna" back to Tinian.

However, Lieutenant Len decided to fly to Okinawa, and started down the eastern coast of Kyushu.

Lieut. John A. Corrick, Grosse Pointe, and his crew were flying a "Dumbo" mission that day. Hovering off the coast of Kyushu, Lieutenant Corrick and company had a double purpose in being there. They

New Air Freighter

A "flying boxcar," the newest type of American Airlines Airfreighter, featuring thermostat temperature control for transportation of perishables, has just been placed into service with the flagship fleet, it was announced today by William Littlewood, vice-president of engineering.

Converted from a standard DC-3 transport, the interior of the airplane has been completely redesigned for maximum efficiency in transporting airfreight alone and all windows and other features of the passenger airliner have been removed.

Ten minutes later the "Mary Anna" and Lieutenant Bulmer's B-29 "Bad Medicine," the buddy ship, were sighted off Kyushu.

Both contacted the submarine and instructed it to head for this position and told Len to head for the sub, so eventually the two would meet.

As Lieutenant Len turned toward the sub, Lieutenant Corrick caught up with him and followed the crippled "Mary Anna" down, flying about 100 feet above and 500 feet behind.

Slowly but surely the "Mary Anna" headed for the water, despite Lieutenant Len's efforts to keep it airborne. When there was no further hope, Lieutenant Len eased the ailing sky giant into the choppy Pacific, tail first.

Almost immediately seven men emerged from the crumpled hulk of the plane which disappeared under the waves 15 minutes later. Ten of the 11 members managed to get out on the life raft or safely into the water with Mae Wests. Lieutenant Penn was lost.

Lieutenant Corrick then flew up to the sub, circled it several times and directed it again upon an accurate course to the scene of the disaster.

Your Garden This Week

If tiny holes are appearing in your tomatoes, peppers, eggplant and celery plants chances are the flea beetles are at work. Dust or spray the plants with rotenone at least once a week as long as the attacks continue. A combination of copper and rotenone will check leaf blights and the flea beetles at the same time. A mulch of straw or leaves placed on the soil under the tomato vines will keep the soil cooler and more uniformly moist. Where vines are trailing, it will also help somewhat to reduce blossom end rot and fruit rotting where it rests on the ground.

Potatoes should be sprayed regularly at 10-day intervals. Six to eight applications should be made during the growing season; these should have been started as soon as the plants showed above the ground. Use one of the commercially prepared potato sprays or use a 4-6-50 Bordeaux mixture, or 20-80 copper lime dust. These materials will prevent early and late blights and control leaf worms. Some of the commercially prepared potato sprays contain calcium arsenate to control potato beetles. If the one you use doesn't contain it, or if you use Bordeaux mixture, add one ounce of calcium arsenate to three gallons of water for sprays that are applied when the beetles are troublesome.

The roots of pea vines contain nitrogen. Either leave them to rot in the ground or add them to the compost heap. If you do not pull them, trim off the tops which will make a good mulch for tomato vines. Early peas such as Thomas Laxton and World's Record can be sown about July 10 to 15 for a fall crop. Such a crop is less successful than peas sown in the early spring, but if weather conditions are favorable a fairly good harvest can be expected. Beans planted now, provided the fall weather is right, will produce a good late crop.

Keep the dirt hilled up around corn. Fertilize rhubarb and asparagus at this time to build up the plants for next spring's production. A 4-12-4 fertilizer can be used at the rate of three pounds per 100 square feet. The figures on fertilizer bags, where no other explanation is given, refer to the percentages of nitrogen, phosphorus, and potash contained therein in the order named.

American Legion Auxiliary

Rapid re-enrollment of present members of the American Legion Auxiliary for the new year indicates a keener interest in the work of the organization than ever before, stated Mrs. Gladys Craig, Auxiliary membership chairman, today as the campaign for the coming year moved forward swiftly.

Wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of members of the American Legion and veterans who have died are eligible to auxiliary membership, as well as women who were also enlisted in war service. All such women in Grosse Pointe and Detroit are invited to join the Auxiliary at this time.

Today's conditions have brought the value of the Auxiliary's work into sharp focus, explained Mrs. Craig. "Our efforts for the disabled veterans of World Wars I and II, for their families and the families of the dead are more clearly seen as true patriotic endeavors, which strengthen the morale of the nation. America must remember and care for its disabled defenders if their spirit is to be kept alive for the country's defense."

We feel that no patriotic woman who is eligible to the Auxiliary can fail to give it her active support this year and join with us in the work we are doing for the security of our country. Join Grosse Pointe Auxiliary No. 303. For information call Lenox 357. Old members, will you help us by mailing your check to Mrs. Gladys Craig, 3057 Lakeview. We are sorry that the gas situation makes it impossible to personally call on you.

The card party held at the Legion club on Saturday night under the chairmanship of Kay Van Den Heuvel and her committee, was a financial success and that winds up our social activities until October.

Road Program Starts

Charles M. Ziegler, state highway commissioner, announces a number of state trunkline improvements under the state highway department's $10,000,000 maintenance program outlined for this year, have been started. The program this year includes hundreds of patches on pavements, asphalt resurfacing of pavements, bituminous surface treatment of all types of roads and gravel resurfacing on unpaved roads.

WHEN you consider the vastness of the Pacific, and realize how far our armed forces are extending their lines of communication, you begin to understand why victory in Europe hasn't relieved the telephone shortage here at home.

It's still taking just about everything the telephone factories can make to supply our fighting men—and that probably will be the case until the "rising sun" sinks in the west.

Even if we had the telephone instruments we need, we couldn't fill half the 115,000 orders on our growing "waiting list." There is a critical shortage of wire, cable and central office equipment, too.

So, first we must wait until materials, manpower and manufacturing facilities are released from war work. Then, after we get new instruments and equipment, we must go through the long, painstaking job of connecting them into the present system.

We plan a $120,000,000 expansion and improvement program in the first 5 years after war permits us to start the job. But even working at top speed, it may take two years before telephones can be installed generally without delay.

If you are among those waiting for a telephone, we appreciate your patience and understanding. We'll serve you just as soon as we possibly can.

Boy Scout Troop 19 Makes Debut

Grosse Pointe's newest Boy Scout unit, Troop 19, sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Unitarian church, made its debut when its first patrol, Cactus, took top honors in the district Boy Scout camporee held Saturday and Sunday, June 23 and 24, with a perfect score over some 110 patrols. The three Tenderfoot members of the patrol, Dick Guenther of 1096 Whittier, Tom Lamb of 1137 Audubon, and Noel Melville of 911 Edgemont, having joined the Scouts less than two weeks before, found it hard to realize when the announcement was made by district officials. Contests in the camporee centered around basic Scout skills, including first aid, distance judging, tin can craft, knot tying and pioneering. Those patrols receiving a score of 75 per cent in each of different groupings, qualified for the standard award. Others were labelled "participating."

Formed this month, Troop 19 will continue to function throughout the summer under the leadership of James E. Flannigan, Scoutmaster, who expects to institute an especially active program consisting of hikes, swimming and sailing trips, and various excursions.

First Steps Taken in Park's Pension Plan for Employees

Plans are proceeding for the village of Grosse Pointe Park to establish a pension under the Municipal Employees Pension Plan, passed by the state legislature in March.

Tuesday afternoon, the approval of all village departments was received by E. B. Lane, village manager, who was given the go-ahead sign for the setting up of the plan. The state actuarial expert, A. G. Gabriel will begin formulating the statistical data necessary for the system.

A requirement set up by the state is the participation of 10 neighboring communities who employ not more than 25 people. The plan is universally adopted with minor adjustments made according to the demands of the individual municipality.

Preliminary study finds that an employee will give five per cent of his wages and the village will give an equal amount or more. The system will go into effect 90 days after its adoption by the village.

Members of the pension study committee appointed by the commission president are James McMillan, chairman; assisted by Commissioner Elmer Ulrich and E. B. Lane, village manager.

Further details of the plan will be found in future issues of The Review.

Gratiot Township Boy Scouts Receive Additional Funds

Boy Scouts of Troop 273, in Gratiot township, collected over five tons of waste paper Sunday, July 1. These boys are to be commended for the splendid work they have done and are doing to help end bottling.

The money derived from this paper drive is part of the fund which is being raised to purchase a troop truck. As an incentive to the boys and the committee, a picture of the truck is displayed in Beacon school. It is covered with squares of paper, each representing $50. As each $50 is raised a square is removed so that when the total amount has been raised, the whole truck will be displayed.

Additional contributions this week amounted to $49. Those contributing are:

- Roy Hampton (County Line garage) $10.00
- Mr. Schmier 5.00
- Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Thomas 5.00
- Harper Vange Sales & Service 3.68
- Chatham Village Cleaners 5.00
- Otto Much Jewelry 5.00
- Joe's Market 5.00
- Quality Feed Store 5.00
- Tommy's Market 2.00
- Coquette Millinery 1.00

This brings the total amount collected to date to $294.00.

Repair Work on Park Streets to Begin This Month

A contract was awarded Cook Contracting company Monday night by the Grosse Pointe Park village commission to perform repair work on the Park streets.

The company's bid, lowest of three, estimated the work at $30,472. Work will begin the latter part of this month.

The streets to be repaired are Maryland between Mack and Vernor highway; Three-Mile Drive from Mack to St. Paul and Westchester from Jefferson to Windmill Pointe Drive. The streets will be resurfaced.

Four streets will receive a single coating job: Buckingham from Kercheval to Jefferson; Devonshire between St. Paul and Jefferson; Nottingham from Vernor Highway to St. Paul and Harvard from Maumee to Jefferson.

Youth Placed on Probation for Theft

A 17 year old Detroit youth was placed on six months probation by Justice Victor H. DeBaeke Monday night following his conviction on a charge of larceny of auto accessories.

The boy with three other Detroit youths, ranging in age from 17 to 23, were arrested by Patrolman Donald Dean at 4:15 a.m. last Saturday on investigation for stripping automobiles. It was found that the youth was responsible for the theft of two hub caps from a car owned by Moses Joseph of 4145 Lakeview and parked at 15200 Kercheval.

To Residents of Grosse Pointe Woods

The Village Commission of Grosse Pointe Woods announces with regret it is no longer able to arrange for swimming privileges for the Woods residents.

Due to the report of Doctor Davies, (printed below) there will be no beach cards issued from the Grosse Pointe Woods offices this year.

In answer to many requests, bathing privileges for one day per week at Grosse Pointe Shores were discontinued at the close of the 1943 season. This was by action of the Grosse Pointe Shores Village Council.

Mr. Philip Allard, Clerk
20775 Mack Avenue
Grosse Pointe Woods 30,

Dear Sir:

The proximity of the Nine Mile Drain to Murray and Olsen Beaches should, in my opinion, eliminate these beaches from consideration for swimming purposes.

Tests of the water on June 26th indicated pollution.

Yours truly,

THOMAS S. DAVIES, M.D.
Health Commissioner,
Grosse Pointe Township.

STORY OF WACS COMES TO LIFE AT THE SHORES

The life of a Wac has been told over and over again in stories, on radio and in newsreels, but the life of several Wacs in officers' candidate school is told in the movie to come to the Shores theatre next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. Starring Lana Turner and Laraine Day, in "Keep Your Powder Dry," they are two Wacs who overcome obstacles in their basic training in Iowa and in officers' training later on. Lana is a wealthy girl who enters the Wac to inherit over a half a million dollars; she keeps this a secret but it is later found out by Laraine who, as a daughter of an army officer, tries to do her best to force Lana out of the corps and into disgrace. She says that it is for the corps' own good — but in the end Lana turns out to be conscientious in her duties to her country, and refuses to leave the corps. She graduates as a second lieutenant and happily leaves for an overseas assignment with Laraine at her side — her true friend won over because of her loyalty and good-soldier qualities.

DILLINGER FILM SCHEDULED FOR ALOMA THEATRE

Featured at the Aloma, Friday and Saturday is "Dillinger" starring Edmund Lowe, with Lawrence Tierney handling the title role. The latter, a comparative newcomer in the star-billing field, turns in a superb performance as the ruthless killer that terrorized the midwest during the 30's. A complete coverage is given from the moment Dillinger's clever mind turns to ways of making robbery pay, until his inevitable death in an alley at the hands of the FBI and the police. The first "gang job" seems fantastic, but as the horrible career of Public Enemy No. 1 unfolds each robbery seems more and more impossible, and yet the Dillinger gang succeeds. The whole nation is living in fear of this handful of men. No bank, or train in the west is safe from their guns. Then the FBI begins to close its trap, slowly, but relentlessly around these killers. The final reels are packed with suspense, and thrilling incidents as the "G" men hunt their prey across the country. The picture has an ironical ending that will surprise everyone.

Also billed with the gangster picture is "Keep Your Powder Dry" a spirited comedy of the Wacs with Lana Turner, Susan Peters and Laraine Day in the starring roles.

Call to Farms Police Reveals Death Took Over

Farms police were called Sunday afternoon by Mrs. R. Labadie, of 125 Oak street. She said that there seemed something amiss at 127 Oak street.

Investigating officers found the body of Mrs. Frank Flood who had been dead for some time. Her husband who drives for a Farms family, had accompanied his employees to Metamora. He was sent for at once.

A coroner said death was due to a heart attack. The remains were identified by Harry Michaels, of 118 1/2 Maple Street, Harvey Heights, 707.

Bicycle Stolen

A bicycle belonging to Angus Kirchner, of 901 Washington road, was taken from the high school grounds July 5.

Muir Snow, of 460 Rivard, reported his bicycle stolen from the rear of 264 Lakeland last Thursday.

Cub Scouts Plan Annual Cuberec at Chandler Park

The Cub Scouts of districts 2 and 3, Detroit area council, Boy Scouts of America, will have a large cuberec in Chandler Park, Sunday, July 15.

Tony Weitzel will be the guest speaker on this occasion.

Families with their boys will bring picnic lunches and there will be inter-pack programs and a Cub fire program, and many different skits and novelty acts presented by the Cubs.

Last year over one thousand attended this Cuberec and approximately fifteen hundred are expected this year. The Pack programs are climaxed at the Cuberec each year.

COLONY SCREEN TO FEATURE FINE DOUBLE FEATURE

A musical comedy which has captured the hearts of the American movie fans will be shown at the Colony theatre tomorrow and Saturday. It is "Meet Me in St. Louis." The picture stars Judy Garland and little Margaret O'Brien and a cast of capable supporting players; newcomer Tom Drake is also featured in this film as the heart interest opposite Judy Garland.

Filmed in technicolor, it is the story of a large family who lived in St. Louis at the time of the World's Fair in 1903. Miss Garland gets a good chance to do a lot of singing including the hit tunes, "The Trolley Song," and "Meet Me in St. Louis," the title song. Some of the costumes worn by the characters are so magnificent that not much attention is centered on the plot of the story. This is excellent entertainment for war weary nerves.

The second picture on the bill is "The Suspect" which stars Ella Raines and Charles Laughton.

USO Shows Continue in East, Occupied Nations

"The show must go on" and, despite victory in Europe, USO-camp shows will continue; its units will be larger and more numerous. It will, in addition, send over professionals to organize theatricals among talented members of the occupation forces.

Through its program in the conquered European theatre, the USO will seek to afford an outlet for otherwise dormant talent and to fill idle hours which will become extremely irksome if some interesting and desirable activities are not provided.

USO-camp shows program for the other side of the world calls for the attention of the armed forces so that it can help relieve the tension of battle strain. The necessity for expanding its number of units will be in proportion to the rate of progress achieved by the armed forces on the road to Tokyo.

West coast engineers estimate that it costs approximately $4,316,000 to develop the prototype airplane of a super-bomber; $5,300,000 for a twin-engine light bomber, and, $2,925,000 for a heavy long-range transport.

Washington Will Be Scene of Reunion for Old Friends

Rep. Louis C. Rabaut, Democrat, of the 14th district of Michigan, who recently, at the invitation of Edward R. Stettinius, Jr., attended the United Nations conference on International Organization at San Francisco, is a stranger to Mr. Stettinius' successor, James F. Byrnes of South Carolina, new secretary of state.

As long ago as 1936 Secretary of State Byrnes and Mrs. Byrnes were co-travelers with Congressman and Mrs. Rabaut and a group from the senate and the house to China, Japan, and the Philippines. There they journeyed to witness the inaugural of the Commonwealth of the Philippines as guests of that government.

The late President Manuel L. Quezon was the first president of the Islands known as the "Gem of the Orient."

On the return voyage just before the boat docked at Seattle, Wash., the congressional group aboard ship, in excess of a hundred, gathered in the dining room. Congressman Rabaut tells with pride that it was at the request of Secretary James F. Byrnes that he sang the final song, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

So when appropriations are requested by the state department for the next fiscal year, Secretary James F. Byrnes will take the seat formerly occupied by Cordell Hull across the aisle from the speaker of the house, Congressman Louis C. Rabaut, to justify the amounts requested and approved by the budget for the proper functioning of the department of state.

Announce Changes for Small Boat Owners

Owners of numbered motorboats in the Cleveland ninth naval district, which includes Detroit, may now replace their oversize numbers with smaller ones if they so desire, Capt. Earl B. Hull, U. S. Coast Guard at the district office in Cleveland, announced today.

The new ruling, lifting a three-year-old wartime regulation, applies to all motorboats operating in the Great Lakes, the Mississippi river and its tributaries, bays, and sounds.

Captain Hull said boat numbers with figures not less than three inches in height are now permissible.

Also, undocumented craft operating in ninth naval district waters are no longer required to have numbers displayed on their top sides for aerial identification.

Vessels operating along the Pacific coast are not affected by the new regulation easing restrictions here.

One tablespoonful of used fat will make vaccine for 73 men.

Nitroglycerine tablets are used as a heart stimulant.
