"WE LEAD, OTHERS FOLLOW"

PRESENT FOR POSTERITY

Without some sort of record, many of the old facts, traditions and stories concerning early Grosse Pointe may escape future history with the passing of this generation.

Already, certain gaps have appeared in the chronology of this area dating from the time that Indians hunted on the Big Point up to the present. With the passing of each generation, the accuracy of any old story is necessarily dimmed.

It is gratifying, indeed, therefore, that a Grosse Pointe Historical Society has been formed and incorporated to attempt to close these breaches, to sift fact from rumor and create a record of early Grosse Pointe and bring it up to date.

Such an organization cannot further its objectives without cooperation from everyone in the area who may have just one little bit of evidence or history to offer. Some may wish to make financial contributions or gifts of other property to this cause.

From time to time, the Historical Society will release stories on "wanted information." If you can supply any missing links, it is your duty as a citizen of Grosse Pointe in order that we may all learn more about our first citizens, their homes, their culture, etc.

GUEST OF THE WEEK

For the next several weeks, White House Cleaners will pay tribute to Grosse Pointe men and women, now at home after honorable discharge from the armed forces. Incidents from their service record will constitute the articles.

Lieutenant
William L. Newman

With the United States Rangers, Lieut. William L. Newman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Newman, 44 McKinley Place, was taken captive by the Germans while on a dangerous assignment. He ingeniously escaped and was the guest of friendly Italians until liberated when our troops entered Rome. His own thrilling narrative of these experiences has just been published in book form by the University of Michigan Press.

Fine cleaning and blocking of men's hats has been a popular new addition to the fine cleaning service offered at White House.

Calvary Church Sponsors War Relief Drive

Calvary Lutheran church, Grosse Pointe Woods, will participate in a special relief collection for the needy in Europe and Asia. While cooperating with national agencies in a general drive for world relief, members of the church will also follow the plans of the national Lutheran council commissioners for the collection of clothing, canned goods and cash donations. All materials and monies collected in this special campaign will be distributed under the direction and supervision of the Lutheran commissioners now in war-torn territories. To alleviate the immediate suffering in central Europe the Lutheran church of America has already expended $300,000 for blankets, medicines and foodstuffs. This was made possible through special peace thank offerings made at the close of the war. Woods residents will be notified of detailed plans, dates, etc., through Calvary Lutheran church.

VETS PREPARE FOR HIGH SCHOOL DIPLOMAS

THREE VETERANS of World War II who are taking the general educational development tests in preparation for their high school diplomas which they were not able to earn before entering the armed services. Left to right, they are Henry D'Haene, 18, of 1877 Lakepointe, who spent 15 months in the navy; Donald McIntosh, 21, 1310 Bishop road, wearing four overseas stripes; and Paul Lyford, 20, of 68 Mapleton, a veteran of 34 months in the navy. McIntosh and Lyford attended Grosse Pointe high school while D'Haene was a student at St. Paul's. (See story elsewhere in this edition).

High Schools Cooperate With Board of Education in Veterans Tutoring Plan

The Grosse Pointe board of education announces that its tutoring plan for veterans to finish high school is now in operation.

A number of veterans who have recently returned from the armed services are taking advantage of the plan which allows them to study at their own speed on courses required for graduation. Tutors are being furnished as needed in order to assist the veterans to progress as rapidly as possible. There is no charge to the veterans for this service and any veteran who is a resident of Grosse Pointe is eligible.

Another part of the plan for veterans' graduation is the testing program. Veterans are being given the general educational development tests compiled by the United States Armed Forces Institute and approved by the American Council on Education. The tests are being widely used by schools and colleges throughout the country to measure the educational development of veterans attained through study, training, and experience. They have already been given to a number of veterans here with good results. Veterans who pass the tests receive credit to graduate from high school. The results may also enable a veteran to enter many of the liberal arts colleges in the country. Former students of Grosse Pointe high school may use the tests for all requirements while any others wishing to graduate from Grosse Pointe high school must complete at least the equivalent of a year's work under the supervision of the Grosse Pointe board of education. Other schools of the community are cooperating in both parts of the program.

The program is under the direction of Charles E. Saltzer, former assistant principal of the Grosse Pointe high school. Mr. Saltzer has recently returned from service in the Pacific where he was carrying on similar educational work for the navy. Veterans are encouraged to contact Mr. Saltzer at the Grosse Pointe board of education, 389 St. Clair, phone NI 2000.

State Health Commissioner Looks for Measles Epidemic

Michigan will have an epidemic of measles in 1946 if the disease follows its usual three-year cycle according to Dr. William DeKleine, state commissioner of health. Already reported cases of the disease are on the increase. Measles is serious, ranking as one of the leading causes of death for children under five years of age. To modify the disease so that it is not dangerous, the Michigan department of health is distributing immune serum globulin to physicians. To be effective as a preventive it should be given before or immediately after exposure, but the immunity lasts only two or three weeks. However, if immune globulin is given in the very early stage of the disease, before the rash appears, it will make the disease milder and give the child permanent immunity.

LITTLE CHUNKS OF CHINA

TSING TAO, CHINA.—Sound Man 2c Bob Simpson, second from right, with three other sailors from the destroyer escort U.S.S. Tomich, pose with their self-appointed attaches at the Chinese port. Son of Mr. and Mrs. John Simpson of Kercheval avenue, Bob made this port from Korea while on convoy and escort duty during January. At Tsing Tao he accidentally ran across his cousin 5/2c Bill Simpson of Detroit. Chinese men and children readily attach themselves to U. S. sailors. They're like flies around you, waiting on you hand and foot, according to Simpson.

crease of the pay of employees during the 1946-47 school year so that their salaries more fairly reflect the decrease in purchasing power of their dollar since 1941.

"In addition to making some more equitable adjustment of salaries of school employees for the 1946-47 school year, I have discussed with some of the employees and with some of the board members the advisability of setting up, immediately following the election, a plan to make a thorough and exhaustive study of how to improve the professional standing of our teachers in Grosse Pointe."

Teaching Profession Has Become a Profession

"For even with its superior advantages over education in the state and nation in general, teaching in Grosse Pointe has not yet matured into a profession. It is still very much of a procession. During the past five years, up to July, 1945, the board of education has had to make 149 replacements in a staff of 200 teachers, combining a nation in which the teacher supply is drying up, while young teachers trained for the profession are refusing to enter it and proven teachers of long standing are leaving it or thinking of leaving. In Grosse Pointe 12 per cent of the 149 replacements have been for teachers who have left public school teaching profession for other occupations; 14 per cent have gone to other teaching positions in other systems. We are, moreover finding it increasingly difficult to attract new teachers to Grosse Pointe with our present salary schedule."

"True, all of the profession of 149
have not left because they were dissatisfied with teaching in Grosse Pointe. But enough have left for this reason to give us cause to make unusual effort to carefully plan to raise the standard of the profession in Grosse Pointe. I believe we should seek to create here," said the superintendent, "at least, an attractive,
highly respected and stable profession to which young people can dedicate themselves as a life work. They should be able to live in adequate, reasonable and modest comfort, rearing families, if they so desire, saving a little from each year's work, having a little time to think and study on the great problems which they must help the community solve.
They should have a little rest now and then from the exacting and ever straining task of understanding the needs and problems of their pupils."

"How to attain this objective should be given careful study by lay-citizens, employees and the board of education. There is little to be gained from making such a study
until it is known whether the community will pay the costs of its application. Such a study would take time to be done effectively. But certainly by March, 1947, recommendations should be made to the board for a completely revised, attractive and professionally made salary schedule, with adequate recognition of the investment teachers have made in training for their profession, recognition of experience and of merit.
The study should also clarify and make more professional our standards of teacher-load, occupational hazards and diseases, class-size, extra curricular work and special teaching, simplification of clerical and routine services of teachers. Finally, as I have pointed out on other occasions to this community there are either too many services which Grosse Pointe demands of its schools or too few people in the schools to do them. The proposed study should, therefore, clarify the responsibilities of teachers in meeting community requests for schools to assume increasing responsibilities once assumed by the home, the church or other social institutions."
"The practicability of either the immediate increase of salaries in order to bring them up more fairly with cost of living rise, or the thorough study for revision of salary schedule and related matters, such as I have just discussed, will depend upon whether this community shall

Park Fire Dept. Given Honorable Mention in Contest

The village of Grosse Pointe Park received honorable mention in the recent Fire Prevention Week Contest sponsored by the National Fire Protection Association and the National Board of Fire Underwriters. The 26-page record consisted of a report of classified causes of fire, alarms, and losses, a fire prevention program, also copies of publicity matter, photographs, newspaper items and other descriptive material.

A total of 1,605 reports were submitted from towns and cities in the United States, Canada, and Alaska. Chief Edward L. Rector and the Grosse Pointe Park fire department should be congratulated on this achievement as it is the first time that the fire department participated in this national contest.

The report was prepared and presented by the fire commissioner, Elmer F. Ulrich.

The report states that the fire department responded to 248 alarms and 32 false alarms. The recorded fire loss for the 1945 calendar year is $9,275.00 or a decrease of $5,881.00 under 1944.

Rotarian Addresses Club on Subject of "Taxes"

Jack McKee spoke to fellow members of the Grosse Pointe Rotary club Monday at the Whittier on the subject of taxes.

McKee stated that a spokesman for the federal government said that only five men in the country understand our tax system, but the spokesman didn't know who they were. Our first tax was tariff, but when that failed to produce enough revenue our internal revenue act of 1913 (the 16th amendment to the constitution) was adopted. U. S. tariff produces only one-tenth of our total revenue. Massachusetts had an income tax as early as 1646, according to McKee.

Retiring Official Makes Suggestion

A suggestion to place the police and fire departments of Grosse Pointe Farms and the City of Grosse Pointe under mutual heads was made Monday night at the Farms village meeting.

The proposals were contained in a letter read by Councilman William F. Connolly, Jr., and written by Councilman J. R. Sutton, Jr., who announced recently that he will not seek re-election this year.

The letter, reprinted in full below, was referred to the police and fire committee, made up of Richard Maxon, Mr. Connolly and the retiring Mr. Sutton.

The letter follows:
Mr. William F. Connolly, Jr., Police and Fire Committee
90 Kerby Road
Grosse Pointe Farms 30, Michigan
Dear Bill:

By reason of my retirement from village office and as police commissioner, I have the following suggestions to submit to the village council through you as the senior member of the committee. These thoughts are strictly my own and not the result of any committee meeting.

As you know, Chief Joseph Trombley is retiring on March 1, 1946 in accordance with the police and firemen's pension act and Lieutenant Bolo would normally be first in line for the chief's position. However, it is my understanding that Lieutenant Bolo will not accept the position as head of the department due to the fact that he is up for retirement very shortly, is bothered with arthritis and lives too far away from the village to be of much use in an emergency. I understand that two of the senior sergeants expect to retire in the very near future, which

There isn't always room for one more

PADAUNG SAL has reached the height of her social career—if those neck rings mean anything. And likewise, a good many of today's homes have reached the height of their electrical careers if there isn't room for one more electrical appliance without overloading the circuits and blowing fuses. If your home is just getting by with makeshift devices, such as extension cords or octopus plugs, it will be still worse tomorrow when that new electric dishwasher, frozen-food unit, automatic laundry or television set is added to an already-overworked electrical system. To help you enjoy tomorrow's electrical living, have your home checked for adequate wiring. Your home may be an old one, but it can hold all the electrical conveniences of a new one—with adequate wiring. And if you are planning on building or buying a new home, it's doubly important to see to it that your home is adequately wired for all the good things electricity can give you.

This is one of a series of advertisements prepared in cooperation with the Electrical Association of Detroit in the interest of insuring adequate wiring for every home in this area. Be sure your home is properly wired. When you are planning a new home, for wiring recommendations, call:

The proposed amendment is on file in the Clerk's Office for examination by any persons interested.

Scores Scouting Problem in Grosse Pointe Woods

To the Editor
Grosse Pointe Review

In behalf of all the girls in Grosse Pointe, between the ages of seven to 18, may I take this opportunity to acquaint their parents, as well as all other adult members of our community, of the recreational, educational, and social possibilities of a well planned and executed Girl Scout program here in our Grosse Pointe communities?

Being a resident here, I am well aware of the very limited facilities available, where our young people may go to have fun, under wholesome, sympathetically directed conditions. Due to these limitations we have not been able to provide Scouting for all the girls who have requested it, and we can not expand our program to make Scout membership available for all girls here, until the community (and by this I mean all parents and interested citizens), express the desire for it and a sincere willingness to make it possible—

1. By volunteering to serve as leaders;
 2. Troop committees;
 3. Consultants in special skills;
 4. Camping program leaders and committees;
 5. Financial advisers;
 6. Leadership trainers, etc.
- Leaders, campers, and leader trainers, are required to take a 16 to 20 hour course before being accepted as qualified leaders, and leader instructors. Previous experience in Scouting is not a requisite. We accept for training any woman (sometimes men also are interested) over 18, provided she has:
1. At least a high school education;
 2. Good health;
 3. Free time;
 4. A genuine liking for young people;
 5. A sense of humor and fun;

6. Enthusiasm.

At the present time there are 31 active Girl Scout troops in Grosse Pointe district, representing approximately six hundred twenty girls and about one hundred fifty-five adults. This does not include members of the Grosse Pointe district committee, of which Mrs. Howard W. Parfitt, is chairman, and the Woods division committee of which the writer is chairman.

Through the generosity of Kiwanis, Rotary, school P-TA's, and several interested individuals, we have received some financial help which has been of inestimable help in encouraging us to plan a more extensive outdoor program for 1946 than we had in 1945. We feel the greatest emphasis should be put on our outdoor program because it is what attracts girls to Scouting, and since our community is so limited for well-equipped indoor meeting places a good outdoor activities program is particularly desirable.

It is with good reason that so many of our younger teen agers complain, "there's no place to go," and "nothing to do." Of course ours is not the only community where this condition exists. But the members of every community can do much to keep its young people within its boundaries, if they will.

Do you want our girls and boys to be prepared to take their place as active, participating, responsible citizens, in a real democracy, or are we going to sit back in "the easy chair" and "wait to see what happens next?"

Over 95 per cent of all Scouting is done by the volunteer adult worker, so you can see what a wonderful opportunity we have in our several Grosse Pointe communities, to demonstrate what can be accomplished by planning and working together.

Let's do something about it!
Mrs. Richard M. Sowden,
Grosse Pointe Woods Division
chairman, Detroit Girl Scouts

Michael, 245 Hillcrest, another guest, was in the kitchen, speaking to the Negress housekeeper, Mrs. Redman. Not realizing what was going on in the front part of the house, he came upon the two groups, and asked one of the masked men, "Who are you?" After resisting the action taken by one when the gun was placed at his stomach, he was hit on the temple and knocked to the floor.

Others who were placed on the stand were Sgt. E. Trombly who explained how he found one wallet on a lawn near Roosevelt and Charlevoix, and after questioning Conway in Hayes' home, found a 20 gauge shotgun shell in his pocket. He also recovered the shotgun which Conway hid against a tree "down the street" on Roosevelt Place.

Chief Thomas Trombly told the court of his finding an antique jewelry box on the Boyer estate on Jefferson avenue where Willey admitted he left it.

At this point, Mr. Mowatt recommended that the three be bound over to circuit court for trial.

Although efforts were made by attorneys to drop the charges against their respective defendants, Justice Young announced that sufficient evidence had been introduced to bind them over for trial. It was at this time that he said the bonds would remain the same as set the previous week at the arraignment, $10,000 and two sureties for each.

ington, their first "job" in Grosse Pointe on Oct. 20. They took a locked file found in the house to 1721 Atkinson (Lark's mother's home), broke it open and found approximately one thousand dollars in cash, as well as valuable papers.

They divided the money, burned the papers and dumped the cabinet in West Detroit.

MARVIN LARKS

It was after they had attempted to purchase merchandise from the J. L. Hudson company store in Detroit with a stolen charge account coin owned by E. C. Smith of 420 Washington, that they were apprehended by police.

In addition to the Pointe robberies, the two men confessed to several Detroit burglaries.

Madison, Wis. — Weeds cost Wisconsin farmers approximately $18,000,000 a year, according to George Briggs, of the University of Wisconsin agricultural extension department.

Extensive Damage
Extensive damage was done to the home at 1255-57 Wayburn last Monday when the roof was destroyed by fire.

Londonaires Open at Savarine Fiesta Bar

The Savarine Fiesta Bar will open with Al Cox and His Londonaires Feb. 5 with promise of containing the best in entertaining and dance music. The Londonaires feature the versatile Les Payne at both piano, accordion and vibraharp, in a never ending string of original, pleasing arrangements.

Al Cox and His Londonaires have played many successful engagements in various private clubs and parties and are well known in Michigan circles for their superb presentation of their music for these affairs.

The Londonaires played the last five seasons aboard the S.S. North American (the Chicago to Buffalo cruise ship). Three engagements of the Londonaires at the Whittier Gold Cup room constitute a total of 107 weeks in this celebrated room. This is a band that you will want to hear again and again.

TASK OF ARMY OF OCCUPATION IS FEATURE HERE

John Hodiak, Gene Tierney and William Bendix are co-starred in the motion picture scheduled for the Shores theatre next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. The picture, "A Bell for Adano" is centered in Italy with the American occupation forces. Hodiak, playing the part of an American army officer in charge of a certain locality, is intrigued by the blonde beauty of Gene Tierney (she changes her locks for this picture). How he overcomes obstacles in governing the people in the south of Europe is well-told. William Bendix is excellent in his supporting role.

"Guest Wife," the second feature on this double bill, is a comedy starring Don Ameche, Claudette Colbert and Dick Foran. The mixup in the lives of these three characters produces laughs all the way through the film — Don in his role of returned war correspondent, Claudette as the wife of Dick Foran, and the make-believe "wife" of the happy-go-lucky Don.

Swank Night Club Towers in the Sky

Detroit's skyscraping Penobscot club, in the towering Penobscot building, stars balladeer Evelyn Waters, novelty vocalist Gerri Melvin and Bob Ruth's very danceable tunes in a continuous entertainment presentation nightly from 7:30. Aside from the very swank decorations of the club, its distinction as a superb dining room is enhanced by excellent service of finest food and liquor.

In London a woman sued for divorce because she had six children.

Esquire Theatre Begins New Policy of Single Features

The Esquire theatre's new policy of a single feature and many excellent short subjects is due to the many requests received by the management.

This arrangement permits a better selection of the outstanding hits, enabling the patron to enjoy a complete program without sitting through a second feature.

This policy of a single picture is effective for two changes of program a week: On Sunday and Monday; and Tuesday Wednesday and Thursday. The usual double feature program will be continued on Friday and Saturday.

STORY OF WAR'S SCARS TOLD ON COLONY SCREEN

A beautiful love story told with the simplicity of the boy-meet-girl theme will be featured at the Colony theatre tomorrow and Saturday. It is "Enchanted Cottage"; the second feature will be "Out of This World."

Robert Young, Dorothy McGuire, and Herbert Marshall are the principle characters in "The Enchanted Cottage." Young comes back from the war, with ugly scars on his face; afraid to face anyone, he hides away in a country cottage run by an old woman who has as her maid, a young girl. The latter, played by Dorothy McGuire, has been known as the "ugly duckling" and to escape this, takes up her duties at the cottage. How the friendship of these two develops into a love which is blind to the looks of each other, is beautifully told in this story. Herbert Marshall gives excellent support as a blind pianist.

"Out of This World" stars Eddie Bracken and Veronica Lake in a movie which features Eddie as the favorite singer of all the boys' soxers. His voice with the "sax" belongs to Bing Crosby, but the fun he encounters will hold your interest throughout the entire show.

One Pin Stops Perfect Score

It's just a 10-pin on the bookcase as far as visitors to the Steve Sedik home at 11811 Kennebec are concerned. But to Steve it is a grim reminder of one of those things that keep a man's dream from coming true. In this case a bowler's dream—a perfect score.

It all happened at East Warren Recreation last Thursday night. Bowling for the Mumford Shade Shop of the Gratiot Township League, Steve had knocked that same pin skyways and crooked for 11 straight strikes. There was one more ball to go. By this time his friends from Gratiot township were huddled around him in breathless silence. They were waiting for a pin to drop and you could have heard it with ease. The tension was terrific as Steve picked up his ball. He moved up to the line and let go. Then—the unexpected.

The ball skimmed down the alley to a chorus of oh's and ah's. It looped into the 1-3 pocket and after the crash the 10-pin stood like something nailed to the floor. One pin short of a perfect game. Anyway Steve, whose average is 175, had rolled a 299. His count was 612 for the series and East Warren presented him with the unpredictable pin. And likely as not it will topple off the bookcase and land on his shins some night—some time when he is reared back in that easy chair and thinking of how close he came to the bowler's hall of fame.

American Legion 303 Auxiliary

The American Legion post and auxiliary will sponsor a dance on Saturday night, Feb. 2. Old time and modern dances will be featured and all friends and members are urged to attend and fill the clubrooms.

A card party is scheduled for Saturday, Feb. 16. Congratulations are extended by all members of the unit to Margaret Reno, a member, who became the bride of Willard Huary on Jan. 26 at St. Paul's church.

Trombly School N-E-W-S

Two 6A groups will graduate from Trombly school and enter Pierce in February. Miss Wallace's class of 18 and Miss Harger's class of 23.

Several interesting events took place during graduation week. Marcia Bleck and Dick Eckel went to Pierce junior high school one day to visit as guests. On their return they discussed impressions of the new school with their classmates. Saturday, Feb. 2, the entire graduating group will make an orientation visit to Pierce.

Both Trombly graduating groups planned special farewell programs. Last Tuesday, Miss Harger's group gave two performances of their own adaptation of William Shakespeare's "The Tempest"; one for the students and one for their parents.

Yesterday, the 6A-OB classes presented an adaptation of "The Ballad for Americans" as a choral reading and a timely musical selection, "The House I Live In."

At the conclusion of this program, promotion certificates were presented to all graduates by Mrs. E. Cow, principal. Honor awards were also given to boys and girls of the patrol and service squads.

Civic Light Opera Begins Season Tuesday Evening

Franc Lehar's internationally famed operetta "The Merry Widow" will be the inaugural presentation of the 1946 Civic Light Opera season, opening on Tuesday night, Feb. 5, at the Masonic Temple auditorium. The 1946 season will continue for ten weeks, during which 10 light operas will be offered. These include, in addition to "The Merry Widow," such well known musical works as "Anything Goes," "The Great Waltz," "Sweethearts," "Jubilee," "Naughty Marietta," "Rosalie," "The Bat" (Die Fledermaus), "Babes in Toyland" and "Roberta."

"The Merry Widow" is the most successful of all the Lehar compositions. The operetta was first produced in Vienna in 1905 and soon became the rage of the European continent. It ran for more than five hundred performances in both London and Copenhagen and in 1907 it was first presented in America at the New Amsterdam theatre, New York, where it also continued for 500 presentations.

The score of the operetta contains such musical gems as the famed "Merry Widow Waltz," "Vilja," "A Dutiful Wife," "Love in My Heart," which is an increase of 74 over 1944 and 26 over 1943. The births were 295 males and 286 females; including four sets of twins and two sets of triplets. It is interesting to note that both sets of triplets are healthy and strong today.

Accident cases cared for in the operating room totaled 383, an increase of 78 over 1944 and 33 over 1943.

The laboratory reports 6,593 examinations, or 755 over 1944 and 905 over 1943. Electrocardiograph examinations, 239; 63 over 1944 and 136 over 1943.

On Dec. 16, Dr. F. C. Jewell succeeded Dr. E. R. Witwer as radiologist in the X-ray department.

The institutional mortality rate of .009 per cent continues to be low.

Miss Wicks expressed the appreciation of the entire board when she pointed out that much credit is due the supervisory staff, heads of departments, and the faithful regular employees on whom falls a heavier than normal load during the exigencies of wartime. During the periods of acute nursing shortage, relief nurses also have served willingly, she said, and much credit is due them for their splendid service.

In closing, Miss Wicks said, "Although I speak from a personal experience of only one month in charge of Cottage hospital, I cannot speak too highly of the fine spirit of cooperation which has been shown to me by every individual in every department of the hospital. To all of these, to the board of trustees and to the medical staff, I wish to express my appreciation, and to bespeak a continuation and growth of these pleasant relationships as we work together."
