Park Zoning Change Deferred By Commission

POINTE PARAGRAPHS

A woman's touch has been added to the designing and styling of a group of automobiles manufactured by a West Side motor car company.

Betty Jo Faulk, 1946 January graduate of Grosse Pointe high school, was chosen by her classmates to represent the high school at the annual state meeting arranged by the DAR for the best girl citizen and exponent of democracy.

We don't like it when someone speaks of my country—and your country—as This Country . . . as if it were just any country at all, and he was just happening to be in it.

Maybe Tom Marshall, the vice-president from Indiana, started it when he said years ago, "What this country needs is a good five-cent cigar."

A friend of ours who just returned from New York told us that an army of FBI agents has descended upon that shirt-making center to check on deals being made by manufacturers who are limited on dozen prices by present OPA regulations.

They turn the heat on in the hotels there from 6 to 10 a.m. and again at 5 p.m., and accommodations are even harder to get under those conditions.

REMEMBER?

Another step was taken by the City of Grosse Pointe to provide for the future of the municipal employees. The council suggested a study be made in an attempt to discover if a pension system would be practical and possible as a change-over from the security fund then in operation.

Action Delayed Upon Protests of Numerous Citizens

The question of whether Grosse Pointe Park should amend its zoning ordinance to permit a branch office of the Automobile Club of Michigan to be established at Somerset and Jefferson has been tabled for approximately four weeks.

"WE LEAD, OTHERS FOLLOW"

'FARCE' CAN HAPPEN HERE

Only forty-five residents of Gratiot Township School District No. 2, out of approximately twelve hundred voters, took time out to vote in a school election there on Feb. 12, 1946, to decide on enlarging existing facilities of the Beacon school.

"To have to send these election returns to Lansing is the greatest disgrace to any community," said Margaret Medley, secretary of the school district.

A similar lack of expression by the majority may again take place in Grosse Pointe (Rural Agricultural School District No. 1) unless every qualified elector registers and then votes.

You may register at your school during school hours until Friday or at the office of the board of education until noon on Saturday.

Election "farces" are somewhat common in the Grosse Pointe communities. Will this be another?

Announce Speaker for Lecture Series Tuesday, March 12

Dr. Hilton Ira Jones, distinguished chemist, psychologist and author, will be the guest speaker of the Grosse Pointe Lectures, Inc., on Tuesday night, March 12.

Doctor Jones, is internationally known for his specialized chemical research and is the head of his own laboratory in Wilmette, Ill. As a scientist, Doctor Jones is recognized and honored all over the world, and as a speaker he has the rare quality of making scientific discoveries vivid, fascinating and astounding to the average person.

Since science has made such phenomenal progress in the last few years, the public should be kept abreast of the latest developments.

Woods Restaurant Seeks to Expand

The management of the Grosse Pointe Bar-B-Q in Grosse Pointe Woods was told by the village commission last week that before approval could be given for the construction of a small bar in that establishment, a floor plan showing an exact location of it should be presented first.

It is the intentions of this restaurant to expand their facilities into the partly-finished store next door and increase their restaurant space.

The commission was told that the same policy would be in effect in the double six quarters, i.e., the serving of alcoholic beverages would be illegal until the serving of food, as required under village regulations.

The police arrested a stolen car at Kew-Forest and Notre Dame last Saturday afternoon. The car was stolen from the home of Norman T. Tyndall of 4649 Montclair.

Blossom Heath Is Purchased From Negro Group

Contention over the ownership of Blossom Heath, a night club owned by a Negro social group, was brought to a close Monday morning with an announcement by Robert E. Harrison, St. Clair Shores village president, that the village had bought the property.

The land is approximately five hundred feet on the lake with a depth of some twenty-one hundred feet. The purchase price was believed to have been $53,000, this sum representing the former owner's investment.

Economy Group Asks Electors to Vote No at School Election

A number of citizens, self-designated as "The Economy Group of Grosse Pointe public schools," take paid advertising space this week to ask voters to "Vote No" on both ballots in the school election next Monday.

The group objects to the present school taxes and to the 3.5 mill increase for the sinking fund on the grounds that it is a "slush sinking fund to be spent by the school bureaucrats" and suggests that the board of education should be dissolved.

The group is in favor of "a fair and reasonable remuneration, not only for school teachers, but for all personnel employed by the schools."

Milk Users Must Return Empty Bottles to Depots

In answer to many inquiries, Dr. Thomas S. Davies of the Grosse Pointe board of health, reminds residents that during the milk strike, milk users were to take empty bottles with them to the depots.

He said there was not a shortage of milk but rather a shortage of containers and the cooperation of everyone was urged.

It was pointed out by S. Johnson of the Contract Investment company, which owns the Somerset property from Jefferson avenue to St. Paul, that if the auto club is allowed to build, the first home which would be built would be on the opposite side of the street, creating the conclusion of the business district.

Others who objected were Bert Linsay, 921 Balfour; Mrs. George Pillsbury, 1104 Nottingham; Arthur Denne, 940 Westchester; D. L. Smart, 975 Westchester; A. Wisenberger, 1055 Balfour; and Gerald McAndrew, 905 Pemberton.

Harry J. Lippman, 705 Westchester, objected vehemently to the branch, stating that although it would be a beautiful building, it would lead the way for other business establishments farther out E. Jefferson. He said if the ordinance was amended for one, it could be amended for another and it was this precedent which was objectionable.

He said he did not think that the taxes derived from this were so sorely needed by the Park as to warrant a change in the zoning ordinance.

rested. He had grown a mustache and carried forged French passports. Dethlefs was picked up in a nearby cafe, where he posed as a Spaniard and had a Spanish passport.

Beside a blackjack taken from Rudloff, search revealed that both agents carried thin, two-inch bars of gold, quantities of Chinese currency and about $500 in American money each.

Rudloff was born in Wilhelmshaven, Germany, and became a Nazi party member in 1939. Drafted into the German Marine auxiliary in 1941, he was subsequently sent to intelligence school at Bremen and thence to Shanghai by way of Yokohama and Tokyo. Dethlefs is a native of Hamburg and worked in South America before going to Shanghai in 1941.

Neither knew Marine CIC agents had been on their trail for 24 hours and were confident that their guise as French and Spanish nationals had not been questioned.

Peeping Tom' Seen at Park Residence

A resident in the 1100 block on Maryland hurriedly called Park police at 3:20 a.m. last Sunday, reporting that a peeping tom was in the yard.

When police arrived, they saw a man run out of a rear gate and disappear into the darkness. The woman who notified the police said she saw the man looking through her neighbor's bedroom window in the house next door.

The man was described as five feet seven inches tall, and wearing a light blue or green coat.

The tour took 2 1/2 hours and was arranged through the friendship of his mother with a woman on the staff of the palace.

Hume has resumed active management of the Punch and Judy Cocktail Lounge, following his honorable discharge from the army.

Fine cleaning and blocking of men's hats has been a popular new addition to the fine cleaning service offered at White House.

SELF-DIAGNOSIS IS Dangerous!

The real tragedy of many serious illnesses is the fact that they might have been averted if people did not attempt to diagnose the trouble themselves but had consulted a doctor in time. How often do people shrug off a sharp pang in the chest and perhaps a feeling of nausea or faintness. To the average person, these are symptoms of indigestion. But the doctor knows that so-called acute indigestion is in many cases often a symptom of heart disease. That is why getting your physician's opinion on your "indigestion" is a wise precaution.

American Needles, Thread Patch European Clothing

Thousands of needles and miles of thread have been flown to communities in The Netherlands where, it is reported, the entire populace is sharing a single needle.

Sent by American Relief for Holland, which is financed locally thru the Community War Chest, the shipment was made to meet an immediate need for patching and repairing warm clothing. During the occupation of Holland, the Nazis looted that nation of even the smallest and most insignificant articles, including needles and thread.

WHY WE HAVE BEEN ABLE TO REDUCE RATES AND YET IMPROVE OUR SERVICE

You may wonder why we are able to reduce electric rates, as directed by the Michigan Public Service Commission, even while the cost of living is going up. Our answer is simple. It starts with a will to give you the best possible service at rates that are fair and reasonable. It continues with the cooperation of experienced and efficient employees. It includes planning and economizing on the part of management and engineers.

In addition, the combined savings brought about by a reduction in federal taxes and increased use of electricity contribute to this latest rate reduction.

In short, it is enterprise at work . . . enterprise with know-how and a goal. The goal is the best electric service in the world at rates that are fair and reasonable.

A COUPLE OF WEEKS AGO Ridgmont Riding Stables bustled with the excited voices of some guys 'n gals from Pierce, anxiously awaiting the hay wagon to roll around. The hostesses for the affair were Pat McKinney and Nancy Weatherby who entertained their friends royally with cokes and all the works at Pat's house afterwards.

Jack Fife, Bonnie Reitz, Bert Wicking, Shirley Buette, Larry Frier, Kay Sutton, Courtney Lechlider, Mary Ann Wagon, Carl Sweycart, Sally Steenrod, Dorothy Elliott, Rusty White, Nancy Stever, Jim Martin and Bob Peters were the kids that whipped the hay 'round.

"COME TO CUDLIP'S CABIN" was echoed from the lips of many kids who spent Saturday night sitting 'round the gigantic fireplace, dancing or eating in the spacious log cabin. The date list for the shindig included: their host Bob with Joanie Gabel, Bill Cole and Janis Gehlert, Elaine Kramer and Harry Downer, and many others.

THE BOAT CLUB WAS swarming with excitement at the teen-age stomp last Friday night when many Grosse Pointers showed up with their dates. "Tripping the light fantastic" were Marge Botts and Fred Seltzer, Ray Schuman and Barb Klenk, Loretta Jacobs and Doug Kreiger, Janie Gehlert and Frank Wilton, Judy Gehlert and Howie Clark, Carol MacPherson and Bill Wood, Pat Erskine and Bill Beardsley.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Pointe Scouts Receive Second Reply From European "Treasure Chest" Gifts

For us, February is the month of international friendship, and as a fitting climax on this last day, we'd like to tell you about our second letter from Belgium. Our "Treasure Chest" is actually sending us a second dividend, and we should be very proud, and very grateful, as so far Grosse Pointe is the only district in the Detroit area that has heard from the country to which a chest of books was sent.

This time, the letter was received by Mrs. Wagenbach's troop, and was from Mrs. Jadot, a law student at the University of Brussels. She organizes troops, and trains leaders—of course you know that in Europe Girl Scouts are called Girl Guides. She has her own troop of blind Brownies, and it is the only one of its kind in that country. The scrapbook, made by the girls of Mrs. Wagenbach's troop was the "first tangible piece of American Scout work received in five years." She also wrote, "Our admiration for your brilliant country is immense."

Mady Jadot's Brownie troop was visited by Lady Baden-Powell, and she is justly proud of her correspondence with such a distinguished person. After all, it was Lord Robert Baden-Powell who founded the Scouting movement, and who inspired Juliette Low to dream of a Scouting organization for girls of all nations.

Even though our special international friendship period is officially over today, we shall continue to observe it throughout the year. It's a timely theme, and is especially forceful right now.

With the advent of March, we look forward to our birthday week, and our Juliette Low world friendship fund. Great plans for celebrating are under way, and we expect March 10-16 to be an exciting and stimulating week.

Girls! Tell your mothers and mothers' friends to save all their waste fats for you, to be contributed to the city-wide fat campaign, conducted by the Girl Scouts. If you recollect, the War Chest Fund did not meet its quota this past year. Consequently, the Detroit Girl Scout Council did not receive its total from the Community Fund, and is desperately in need of money for operating expenses. It is hoped that the sale of waste fats will help to make up part of this deficit. So begin now, and line up your neighbors, asking them to please save all their waste fats for you. The date of the collection will be announced later.

You'll be glad to know that our girls' council is being revived—it died for lack of a director—and will hold its first meeting on March 14, at the Neighborhood club. Mrs. James O'Brien has consented to be chairman of this group, and we all join in wishing her the best of luck.

Pointe Teachers Express Anxiety Over Present Facilities in Local Schools

EDITOR'S NOTE — The following is an editorial, printed by request, which appeared in the February issue of TAB, official Grosse Pointe Teachers Association Bulletin:

Accepting the thesis that the youth of America is her most precious resource — then it naturally follows — what are we going to do about it?

It has been proven by a recent study made under the auspices of the National Education Association, that the nation which provides the best educational advantages enjoys the highest standards of living and is economically better off.

The reasonable and intelligent approach to the problem of how we shall provide the best educational opportunities in our democracy seems to be one of raising sufficient money through taxation which, properly administered by trusted and respected boards of education employing the highest possible type of administrators and teachers will result in the carrying out of the wishes of the citizens.

However, the citizens of the community must be willing and able to tax themselves and make whatever sacrifices are necessary to gain the end desired. If we are willing to spend billions to wage war and sacrifice hundreds of thousands of lives to maintain the continuance of our democratic way of life — then it seems that we should be willing and eager to spend millions in order to educate our youth so that they too will believe in and not find it necessary to sacrifice their lives to defend this way of life.

The basic responsibilities of the teaching profession to our civilization are indeed the greatest in the history of mankind. It far surpasses the responsibilities of those in many other professions in this respect. It is true that other professions perform a great service to society, but these services in many respects are highly technical and performed by specialists. The teacher of America must have more than a passing knowledge in many fields and employ techniques which will insure growth and development of the child. He must promote a good physical and mental atmosphere for growth in his classroom; develop study skills and abilities; and foster character development moulded in the democratic philosophy of the American way of life.

If the citizens do not accept the challenge now, face the facts and assume the necessary financial responsibilities in connection with providing our youth with the best teachers, they and they alone will be judged guilty—if our youth is permitted to learn through inexperienced and poorly trained, second-rate teachers who will undoubtedly find that the task has been too great.

How can any community afford not to realize that so long as industry can offer more attractive salaries, teachers will be led to accept positions in other fields?

Is it possible that the citizens can be blind to the dissatisfaction and unrest of the teaching profession?

Teachers should be paid more money because of the responsibility they hold and the years of preparation put into the profession.

If there is any hope for the world, it is in the field of public school education. Citizens of Grosse Pointe who recognize the importance of these premises and who feel it their responsibility should meet with their educators, administrators and teachers, and make a thorough-going study of community resources.

(1) The development of our youth resources. In this respect the studies conducted by the board of education and interested parent groups are pointing the way toward the educational values the community expects to achieve.

(2) The financial resources. The same techniques should be employed to ascertain the financial resources of the community (willingness to pay) and the amounts needed to maintain the standards the community is setting up for its school system.

Veteranews from the Office of Veterans' Affairs, Lansing

Job training opportunities in the state of Michigan are needed for training veterans of World War II under the GI Bill of Rights and under Public Law 16. These veterans can use educational benefits earned while in service for on-the-job training. As it is for college students, veterans on-the-job receive subsistence payments monthly of $65 for single persons, $90 to veterans with dependents. As the veteran's ability and wage rate increase to a skilled status, the subsistence payments diminish so that at no time does subsistence plus wage paid the veteran exceed the wage for a journeyman in the case of apprenticeship, or a skilled worker in the case of non-apprenticeship.

To date, Gov. Harry F. Kelly has approved 600 business establishments for veteran job-training. Three hundred of these firms were approved in the past 30 days. Six hundred firms are not enough to provide the training opportunities returning veterans are demanding. Some of the new approvals include firms offering on-the-job training in aircraft mechanics, in business machine repair, in farm equipment manufacture, in funeral direction, in woodworking and cabinet building, experiences in a total of 75 different occupations. Nineteen firms throughout the state have been approved on the new list for tool and die training or apprenticeship.

Any employer desiring approval of a training program plan will write to the Department of Public Instruction, State of Michigan, Lansing, stating that he desires to be approved for veteran on-the-job training, the type of business in which he is engaged and the specific job or jobs in which he proposes to give training.

Disabled veterans receiving a pension may participate in on-the-job training programs under Public Law 16 and receive the same subsistence allowance as veterans under Act 346 and retain their pensions. Should the total of an unmarried veteran's pension plus his subsistence allowance be less than $105, his pension will be automatically increased to meet that figure. Married veterans receive additional subsistence with a minimum of $105. The same amount is available for children.

The Veterans Administration assists the veteran in formulating a program under Act 16 and has the responsibility of approving the plan and the institution giving the training. Applications for on-the-job training for disabled veterans should be made to the Veterans Administration. Employers desiring to train disabled veterans under this plan should also advise the Veterans Administration.

Betty Hay Obtains High Rating at Marygrove

GROSSE POINTE PUBLIC SCHOOLS TO BE HELD ON

TO THE QUALIFIED ELECTORS OF RURAL AGRICULTURAL SCHOOL DISTRICT No. 1
We believe that a small group of school bureaucrats are attempting to put the ball and chain on the taxpayers of the school district, who are already overburdened with one of the highest school tax rates in the country today, which is caused by supporting a school system which includes that Palace of the Maharajahs—The Grosse Pointe High School Estate.
We quote from a bulletin describing a variety of courses offered adults and sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Board of Education (and paid for by the taxpayers) "Advanced bridge, to those with a knowledge of bridge, desiring to improve their play." First classes begin next week. Possibly if more stress was put on the fundamental basic problem of teaching the three "R's," reading, writing and arithmetic, the school tax would be reduced instead of increased, and the quality of learning dispensed by the local schools in the district would be increased.
We are in favor of a fair and reasonable remuneration, not only for school teachers, but for all personnel employed by the schools.
We also believe in adequate school housing to meet the needs of increased school enrollment. However, by voting "Yes" and creating a "slush sinking fund" to be spent by the school bureaucrats in building additional Palaces of the Maharajahs, at the expense of the taxpayers is another matter.
Possibly an investigation should be made as to how the present existing high tax rate money, now being paid by the taxpayers, is being spent. The sale of old Trombly School property in the Park and the Cadioux School property that now houses the Board's offices would result in a considerable sum of money towards construction of the two proposed new schools that are requested. Plans for one of the two new proposed schools could include adequate space to house the business offices of the Board of Education.

Woods Civic League Endorses Candidates

The Grosse Pointe Woods Civic League has voted unanimously to endorse the candidacy of Albert Beever and George W. Gardner, for commissioners of Grosse Pointe Woods, in the coming village election, to be held Monday, March 11, 1946.

This action was taken after a careful study of the various candidates who have filed petitions for the three commissionerships that are to be voted on at this time.

Albert, living at 2017 Hunt Club Drive, has been a resident of the Woods for six years, and a former resident of Grosse Pointe Park for 15 years. He has been active for sometime in civic and community affairs, and has a sound knowledge of the village problems. In the construction business for the past 30 years, as a contractor, his business experience and civic leadership should well qualify him for a place on the village commission.

George W. Gardner residing at 1394 Roslyn road, has lived in the Woods for six years. He is traffic manager of the Federal Mogul corporation, where he has been employed for the past 18 years. A family man, active in community matters, with many years of business experience behind him, his presence on the commission would be a valuable asset to the village.

Both candidates have pledged themselves to work faithfully, if elected, for the general good of the entire village.

In endorsing Albert Beever and George W. Gardner, the League feels that it is performing a necessary and important public duty, and urges the voters of Grosse Pointe Woods to support and elect these two candidates to the commission, on March 11.

Three-Car Crash Takes Place on Westchester

Although no one was hurt, three cars were damaged last Sunday night in an accident on Westchester.

A car driven by John J. Jennings, of 2906 E. Jefferson, Detroit, hit a parked car, owned by Andrew Miller, 2900 Manistique, which in turn hit a second parked car owned by George Young of 1338 Somerset.

SHORES BILLS FRANZ WERFEL'S POPULAR NOVEL

Bringing to the screen one of the finest stories ever told will be that billed for the Shores theatre for next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. It is "The Song of Bernadette."

Franz Werfel did a stupendous job when he decided to write the story of young Bernadette and the miracles which were performed at the site which is now the "Shrine of the Lourdes" in France. In the picture, Jennifer Jones is cast as the little French girl who overcomes some of the highest obstacles when she tries to inform relatives and church dignitaries of the incidents which finally led up to her canonization as a saint in the Roman Catholic church.

Hollywood has done its utmost to make this picture as authentic as possible and the scenes depicted as those occurring in France and in the life of Bernadette are very true to life.

Civic Light Opera Offers Cole Porter's "Jubilee"

Cole Porter's highly tuneful farce, "Jubilee," with the book by Moss Hart, will be the fifth all-star attraction of the Civic Light Opera season in Masonic auditorium. "Jubilee" will open Tuesday night, March 5, and continue nightly through Monday, March 11, with the exception of Thursday. There will be the regular Sunday matinee March 10.

The all-star cast will include such favorites as Helen Raymond, William Lynn, Lois Bolton, Gloria Hamilton, Pitman Corey, Marjorie Belle, Eric Brotherson, George Church, Joseph Macauley, Artells Dickson and others. Two talented Detroit lads, brothers, Patrick Harrington, 14, and Ronald 10, will play Prince Peter and Prince Rudolph, respectively.

STRIKES

and SPARES

The Smokey Stovers from the East Side fire halls just about evened things up with the police of Connors station at East Warren Recreation. In their first match in January the police spotted the firemen 232 pins and won by five. Last Wednesday the firemen spotted the police 149 pins and won by 38.

Come May and Lieutenant Drake's crew from Connors will be out for blood. And don't be surprised if the firemen show up wearing helmets and with their axes swinging.

Steve Sedik, the boy who missed a perfect game by a single pin, is sporting a new ball now. It was a gift from his sponsor, Mumford's Floor Coverings on Harper. . . . and thinking of Steve reminds us there are more enthusiastic bowlers to the block in Gratiot township than any small community we know of. . . . 10 men's teams and 10 women's teams in the Gratiot League to say nothing of those who bowl under the banner of the Democratic Club.

East Warren is sponsoring a women's overaverage tournament, three games across six alleys to start March 9. It will run on Saturday and Sunday for three weeks. Prizes are $200 for first and $100 and a medal for second. Entries close March 6. See Red Kelly or call DR 8549.

Incidentally these same nights are a good time to see Jack Thayer emcee over the mike. . . . if you haven't you're missing something.

In closing. . . . The Review would like to make a special feature of this column and bowling secretaries are invited to send in the highlights of games and bowlers. . . . not later than Saturday night of each week.

Club Engages Cle Clark for Next Meeting Tuesday

Cle Clark, nationally known commercial and illustrative photographer, will lecture at the Grosse Pointe Camera club on Tuesday night on the subject of good pictures and how to take them.

Stanley Kama, club president, thru the efforts of Cle Clark, stated in addressing his audiences will make the meeting one of the year's outstanding.

In addition to the lecture the members will submit their various prints of the models, which were taken at the last club meeting. President Kenn has issued an invitation to any of the public interested in photography, to attend the meeting which will be held at the Neighborhood club.

FRANK SINATRA CO-STAR WITH DANCING KELLY

"Anchors Aweigh" will be billed with "A Medal for Benny" for the patrons of the Colony theatre tomorrow and Saturday. In "A Medal for Benny" Dorothy Lamour and Arturo de Cordova share the starring honors.

"Anchors Aweigh" starring Frank Sinatra, Gene Kelly and Kathryn Grayson appear in the technicolor extravaganza. Frank and Gene are sailors in Uncle Sam's navy and while on shore leave, begin their "howling" together. Frank manages to follow Gene in everything he does to overcome his bashfulness. The scenes to follow are some of the best ever shown: Gene's and Frank's dancing—their singing—their wailing—their graciousness towards an eight year old sailor. Gene is outstanding in his dance with a little exican girl and with animal characters; Frank is outstanding in his renditions—of current songs while Miss Grayson does honor as their leading lady and singer.

Before the war, collective bargaining agreements covered one-quarter of United States wage and salary workers.

Students Observe Bees' Activity at Richard School

Late last fall a colony of bees and their hive were made a part of the regular school life of the 2B class at Richard school, under the guidance of Anita Howarth.

During the first weeks the bees were busy moving the honey from the upper super to the lower frame. As the weather got cold, there was little activity in the hive. The bees clustered together and the heat from their bodies warmed the glass.

In December the bees were given Sugar and sugar solutions but the bees refused it. Talking to Mr. Stock, it was learned that the bees had sufficient stores of food until February or March, when they would need more food.

During the warm days the workers are seen carrying out the dead drones. We have watched the bees ventilating the case by fanning their wings for long periods of time. We have seen bees doing their strange "jigs" and stamping about the edges of a honey cell. We have watched the queen and noticed how protected she is by a group of worker bees.

With warm days ahead, we are looking forward to the busy life of collecting pollen, making honey, watching the new bees hatch, and the birth of a new queen.

This study has made us realize how interesting and intelligent honey bees really are. We have seen them at work, storing food and maintaining nature's process.

If it were not for the honey bees, we should have to go without many fruits and vegetables, as the bees carry the pollen from one flower to another.

The truck is available for inspection at the Municipal Garage at the rear of the Municipal Building, 15115 East Jefferson Avenue. All bids must be for a cash sale and deposited with the Village Treasurer at the above address. The successful bidder must complete purchase not later than March 18th, 1946.

Remember?

son after the latter had slugged and robbed a St. Clair Stores herb dealer. The men, all Detroiters, were found to be armed with a knife and guns.

Gasoline coupons worth 2,355 gallons of gas were believed to have been the incentive of the robbery in which thieves carried off the safe of the Grosse Pointe Farms service garage on Kercheval. After smashing the safe open, they emptied it of money and tools as well as the coupons. Approximately two hundred dollars worth of men's and women's clothing was taken from an adjoining dry cleaner's substation. Salvage drives showed an increase over previous totals. More persons were using the coupons to obtain much-needed coal.

Five Years Ago A battle was being waged between the Grosse Pointe Park Citizens Association and the Grosse Pointe Park Minute Men who were the two main groups approving and opposing the proposed change of the Park into a city form of government. Victor H. Wehmeier, secretary of the citizens' association, was advocating the city plan, while statements of J. Dunton Barlow, chairman of the Minute Men, were published disapproving the plan.

The traditional Grosse Pointe "Sendoff" ceremonies were given its beginning when the Neighborhood club prepared a program for all local draftees and invited them to the party which featured army movies and a talk by Capt. Richard L. Gillespie. Residents in the vicinity of Harvard and Mack avenue protested the early morning noise which was coming from a Park restaurant at that corner. "No Parking" ordinance became effective on the City side of Fisher. Frederick C. Sutter, 70-year-old former president of the board of education, died in Cottage hospital.

Wildred Bonno, 23, a one-arm WPA worker, who shot and killed a taxicab driver in the Woods, was sentenced to serve from 20 to 60 years in prison.

10 Years Ago The annual Grosse Pointe township primary election was scheduled with no opposition except for the post of treasurer, when Adolph L. Damman, Harvey Hoffeldt, John E. Allard and Michael C. Beaupre filed for this office.

In his "News Digest" column, John Smith said that air mail via rocket is one of the modern wonders of the year 1936. Uncle Sam experimented with a rocket glider and the results were quite favorable.

15 Years Ago A swimming team from Grosse Pointe high school was to compete in the annual meet of the Southern League in the high school's tank. The league trophy and medals were to be presented to the winning team and members.

School Election

Buildings Slated for Woods and Farms— Warren Wessel, president of the Mason P-TA urged voters at a meeting held at Mason school to "remember that because of lack of space Mason school was, right now, only adequate to take care of four grades and the kindergarten. Next year it promises to be even worse unless we can get started on our buildings. The ballot for the sinking fund specifies that the buildings proposed will be definitely located on Vernier and Mack in Grosse Pointe Woods and on Kerby and Beaupre in Grosse Pointe Farms. Moreover, the board of education has, in a resolution of February 6, defined its program to start the first wing of the Vernier Mack school in the summer of 1946 if money and materials are available. We should give it our wholehearted support."

Cites Values of Schools to All Residents—

Speaking at Grosse Pointe high school on Feb. 21, Paul Moreland, president of the Maire school P-TA and also president of the Grosse Pointe P-TA council praised the quality of schools available to Grosse Pointe residents and said that he felt confident that all residents, whether they had children in schools or not, profited by good schools. "It is well known," said Mr. Moreland, "that one of the best talking points for the sale of good homes in Grosse Pointe is the well known high quality of schools. As a former head of a Citizens Association, I had occasion to make a detailed study of the buildings, program and financial management of our schools, several years ago. Our organization not only found our schools to be top-rated among schools of the nation, but an actual drawing card for investment in property in this community. Looking at this present tax increase from a purely personal standpoint, I cannot see how any wise property owner could fail to vote for it. It would cost most of us the equivalent of possibly a package of cigarettes a day, not more than $2.54 per month. That is a small investment if you stop to think of the fact that, without the quality of schools we have, your property values would decrease many times that amount. But more than that, we are all deeply concerned with the quality of intelligence and character of boys and girls that grow up in Grosse Pointe. They need good teachers, the best we can employ and they need good buildings and equipment to work in. This in brief is all that the board of education is asking us to decide and I believe the people who are proud to live in Grosse Pointe will vote in favor of these two proposals on Monday, March 4."

John S. Foley, president of the Kerby P-TA, said, in a bulletin addressed to parents of Kerby school children, "As parents of a Kerby child, you have a particular interest and duty in this election. Kerby school is one of two overcrowded districts to be benefited by the erection of new buildings. Over three hundred children are now housed in the present Kerby building, which was designed for a maximum of 200. This, as we all know, means larger classes with resultant confusion and lack of attention to the individual child. Next term this situation will be even worse, and the only way I know that it could be corrected is for you to vote YES on both of these proposals."

Mrs. Leon Jacobi, president of the Mothers' club of Grosse Pointe high school, said at the high school meeting on Feb. 21, "I don't see how Grosse Pointe can be satisfied with comparing its salary schedules for teachers with small and far less wealthy school systems. We should have the best for our children and should vote for this proposal to improve salary schedules and buildings."

Cites Inequities and Future Building Boom—

James Lafer, president of the Vernier P-TA, in a bulletin to Vernier parents, said: "Can you afford to run the risk of having your property value drop because of inadequate schools in Grosse Pointe Shores, Woods and Farms. Right now fifth and sixth graders from Mason and sixth grade students from Vernier are being taken by bus to schools in other villages. You must realize, too, that thousands of lots have been taken on the market in our school district since V.J. Day—that hundreds of new homes are scheduled for completion by fall. The postwar plans of the Grosse Pointe board of education have provided for the increase in enrollment for your support in the Special School Election on March 4th."

Sixty Couples Attend Rotarians' Dinner Dance at Whittier Hotel Tuesday Night

Members of the Grosse Pointe Rotary club staged a spring dinner dance in the Pompeian room at the Whittier hotel Tuesday night which was enthusiastically attended by more than sixty couples, comprised of Rotarians, their wives, families and guests.

An informal cocktail hour at 6:30 preceded the dinner at 7:30. During the cocktail hour, guests were entertained by a trio of strolling minstrels.

Dancing was enjoyed during the balance of the evening with the exception of a highlight in the form of a delightful floor show staged by dancers from the Elaine Arndt School of the Dance.

Favors for the ladies were secretaires, leather telephone indexes.

"An Ordinance to Amend Ordinance No. 34 of the Village of Grosse Pointe Woods, Michigan, Adopted June 18, 1940, Entitled:

"AN ORDINANCE to regulate and restrict the location of trades and industries and the location of buildings designed for specified uses, to regulate and limit the height and bulk of buildings hereafter erected, to regulate and determine the area of yards, courts and other open spaces, to limit and restrict the maximum number of families which may be housed in dwellings hereafter erected or altered, and for said purposes, divide the Village into districts, to provide a method of administration, and to prescribe the penalties for the violation of its provisions."

The Village of Grosse Pointe Woods Ordains:

SECTION 1. That Sections 6 and 13 of Ordinance No. 34 of the Village of Grosse Pointe Woods, adopted on June 18, 1940, entitled: "AN ORDINANCE to regulate and restrict the location of trades and industries and the location of buildings designed for specified uses, to regulate and limit the height and bulk of buildings hereafter erected, to regulate and determine the area of yards, courts, and other open spaces, to limit and restrict the maximum number of families which may be housed in dwellings hereafter erected or altered, and for said purposes divide the Village into districts, to provide a method of administration, and to prescribe the penalties for the violation of its provisions", to be amended, so as to read as follows:

SECTION 6. OTHER BUILDINGS AND USES—District "A." In District A, no land, except as otherwise provided in this Ordinance, shall be erected upon or used for any purpose, except for one or more of the following specified purposes: Public museum, parish home, public
