by THE POINTER

The warm weather brought the first and second grades of Mason school out of the building last week to participate in a clean-up campaign. The kiddies could be seen scampering over the entire school lot after stray bits of paper.

That certainly is an easy way to get a clean yard, and it probably pleases the boys and girls to get out of an hour's work in school. We know, because we can still rememher our school days and spring fever.

Petitions are now being circulated by friends of Henry W. Piel, former Grosse Pointe Park police chief, who has become candidate for Wayne county sheriff on the Republican ticket.

We're told that the Easter season wouldn't be complete without a trip to the Belle Isle Conservatory to admire the breath-taking array of Easter lilies surrounded by tulips, hyacinths, narcissus, cineraria, azaleas and other spring flowers.

The show will open Saturday and every day afterwards at 9 a.m. until dark, After dark, visitors may go into the aquarium until 9 p.m., and look down upon the exhibit from the balcony over-looking the show-

The per capita fire loss in Grosse Pointe Park was reported to be 61 cents for the past fiscal year, according to Elmer Ulrich, fire commissioner. He said this was due to the splendid cooperation of the residents and the work of the village fire department.

WANTED-A GUIDING HAND

Perhaps some people are right, after all.

How many times have you had to detend the actions of the boys and girls of Grosse Pointe after they came to the attention of the public?

It looks as though the people of Grosse Pointe are going nearly a block to pull an alarm box. to have "to go to bat" for the wouths of the community again. Is it fair for the police departments to turn into disciplinary officers who try to keep such activities in check?

A remedy of this situation lies within the scope of the parents of the teen agers who are carrying on in such a manner. It is up to you to find out what your son, and your daughter, too, is doing on Friday nights — who his companions are Pointe was called by officials to in- The council re-affirmed its former - and what his activities include.

We find very little quarrel with the young people of Grosse Pointe as a whole, but once in awhile when their young natures want to assert themselves, they need guidance - away from this destruction - to the finer things more in keeping with their youthful ambition.

It is up to the parents to extend the guiding hand and eliminate these disgraceful activities.

The Alger House photographic competition sponsored by the Detroit Institute of Arts has been extended until Oct. 12, Clyde H. Burroughs, announced today.

He said the jury took this action because of the small number of endeadline of March 16. Burroughs stated that the limited number of entries was due to the shortage of photographic materials and to unfavorable weather for photographs of exterior views.

Camera tans may now take pictures all spring and summer when Alger House and its grounds are pest suited for the purpose, Burroughs added.

The jury is comprised of Charles B. Phelps, Jr., of Detroit, who is president of the National Association of Photographers: William M. past president of the Detroit Camera need only to file a "form 388" apclub; and Mr. Burroughs.

DOCTOR OF MEDICINE $500.00 Per Month Guaranteed

A splendid opportunity awaits a doctor, either sex, to pioneer in a proven system of treating the dread arthritis, sinusitis and kindred ailments of the respiratory tract. The man or woman we want to talk to should be a person who is in position to serve, at least, one year as assistant to the Chief of Staff. This position will require change of residence if applicant now resides in the Middle West. The person chosen will eventually inherit all practise other than system for the treatment of respiratory ailments.

And Hospital Manager to Expand Growing Hospital

Sensational cures of arthritis, sinusitis, asthma and bronchial disorders have resulted in a domand that existing 26-bed hospital be expanded by at least 100 beds. Long waiting lists of applicants and hundreds of additional applications expected as the result of spontaneous, unpaid nation-wide publicity makes this offer singularly attractive to the investor who is leaking for a sound, continuing stable

We prefer doctor, investor and business manager who may themselves be afflicted in order that proof positive may be adduced as to claimed efficacy of the treatments. We'know but, we also want our associates to prove to themselves what the new method does for the most stubborn cases, particularly arthritis.

We also welcome inquiries from individual sufferers of arthritis sinusitis and kindred ills who may have abandoned hope for relief as we are planning an "Excursion for Health Train" to our medical center clinic in Tombstone, Arizona. This will be an all-expense trip arranged for in advance

USES to Assist Veterans in "On the Job Training"

The United States Employmen Service is cooperating with the State Department of Public Instruction, Public School Vocational Coordinators, The Office of Veterans tries received before the original Affairs, and the Veterans Administration, in setting up "on the job" training for veterans, Mr. Evans, manager of U.S.E.S. at 14421 E. Jefferson said today.

> the agencies listed above is this week deeply engaged in a state-wide of $65 to $90 per month supplement-

The prizes have been donated by of Public Instruction. This form is Edgar B. Whitcomb, president of procurable from the office of the the arts commission of Detroit. They U.S.E.S., the O.V.A. or the School Coordinator, Mr. Evans said.

The Department of Public Instruction will examine the application to or interior view of Alger House; and check the statements, determine whether suitable personnel are available for effective training, and to assist the employer in setting up a suitable program. Programs must meet certain tests of effectiveness such as, detail of training, proper training personnel, wages and increases and availability of classroom study which should be 162 hours a year.

Any veteran who is interested in "on the job" training should file a "form 950" with the Veterans Administration, to establish his eligibility for training, and for receiving the subsistance allowance.

Under any circumstances, the reteran should apply to the U.S.E.S. for job counseling, and information regarding his aptitudes and capacities, for knowledge of what opportunties exist, and for referral to training opportunities. Mr. Evans pointed out, "Like referrals to jobs. referrals to these training opportunities are not binding upon either veteran or employer."
