

TEACHER CRISIS IMPROVES

"TONY" HAS TO GO!!!!

BUT "GOOD HUMOR" PERMITTED

Ernest "Tony" Koinis, "the Popcorn Man" is a "traffic hazard" according to the eyes of the Park Commission, which recently passed an ordinance styled more or less for his "benefit" (?) The police commissioner has caused a very diligent application of this "benefit" by directing the personal attention of as many as two squad cars to see to its application in the form of several traffic tickets and court appearances.

Tony has obtained a restraining order to prevent the Park from running itinerant vendors off the streets and the village will have to show cause before Judge George B. Murphy tomorrow morning. Good Humor wagons, such as pictured, are given more generous consideration, which is all the more evident that the recent itinerant vendor ordinance was designed and enforced ONLY in the case of "Tis alleged. Many motorists have reported narrow escapes from hitting children as they darted back and forth to patronize the Good Humor Man. It would seem that ordinances should be made for "all the people" and similarly enforced. (There is the case of an apparently illegal fence, covered also by a Park ordinance, which is ignored, too. Many are raising the question as to whether Park authorities are making and enforcing "Class Legislation.")

Vacancies Now Being Filled By Board of Education

The superintendent of schools, Dr. Paul L. Essert, recently reported to the board of education that considerable progress has been made in the employment of teachers for 1946-47 to fill vacancies on the teaching staff. Twenty-seven known vacancies had to be filled in the school system, 13 of which resulted from resignations of the teachers on the present staff and 14 of which were vacancies carried over from the war years, which have been, up to this time, filled by regular substitute teachers. Up to the present time, 13 of these 27 vacancies have been filled for the coming year. "Salary schedule improvements resulting from the March 4 election permitting the board to exceed the 1.5 mill limitation by 1.5 mills for operating expenditures, account in part," said Dr. Essert, "for our ability to meet competition of other school systems for high quality teachers in a period of national shortages."

Kiwanis Sponsor Contest

The Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club is sponsoring an essay contest in Grosse Pointe Woods for boys and girls up to 15 years of age.

The superintendent reported that the number of vacancies to be filled would have been considerably less had the board of education not decided to attempt to fill this year all vacancies now being covered by full-time substitute teachers.

"There are," said Dr. Essert, "two types of substitute teachers in our school system who have done outstanding and yeoman service to help the schools carry through the war situation. One is the day-to-day substitute who goes about from school to school on call. The other is what we call the regular full-time substitute who fills in the vacancy for a semester or possibly a full year, if it is known that the vacancy will exist that long. During the war years while 23 of our teachers were on leave of absence in military service, the regular substitute teacher agreed to carry on until the return of these people on leave or until the vacancy was closed."

Some Garden Plots Remain In Pointe

This is the fifth season for Victory Gardens in Grosse Pointe. Many people thought that with the war over, it would not be necessary for us to consider growing extra food essential to our well-being, but with stories of starvation in Europe and elsewhere we know that if we are to help to feed the world, we must produce an extra supply at home to feed ourselves, so as to leave the produce of professionals to be canned, dried, etc., and to be sent to the hungry people abroad.

"WE LEAD, OTHERS FOLLOW"

CRACK DOWN DANGER

The message, "Take It Easy," is important to the drivers in Grosse Pointe.

Adoption of cautious, hurry-free habits in traffic will mean a reduction in the economic loss and drain on manpower resources resulting from street and highway accidents.

It will mean an enormous saving to life and automobile insurance companies and those who pay the premiums for such insurance.

It will ease the load on already overburdened medical and hospital facilities — and in many other ways taking it easy will bring direct or indirect benefit to society as a whole.

There is a further way, however, in which voluntary cooperation will benefit the man or woman behind the wheel. The current upward trend in accidents together with its resultant hue-and-cry brings the danger of crackdown campaigns by official bodies in a desperate effort to stem the accident tide.

If everyone who walks or drives will take it easy in traffic there will be no excuse for hasty and ill-advised crackdown measures that will rob motoring of much of its freedom and enjoyment.

Patrol Captain to Visit Niagara Falls

Milton Monahan, 12, 928 Nottingham, safety patrol captain at Trombly school, of Grosse Pointe, will be among the 100 outstanding leaders from schools throughout the state who will embark for Niagara Falls tomorrow (May 24) on an all-expense tour sponsored by Automobile Club of Michigan.

This is the third time Trombly school has had this distinction since 1936. It means that the boys on the patrol have been at their posts regularly and have assisted small children in crossing the streets safely and that the captain has kept careful records of the safety program.

Monahan was selected to make the week-end trip by local school authorities after his school was cited by Auto club for its superior safety activities during 1945-46. The school will be presented with the Traveling Safety Cup Award in the fall.

The boys who have helped Monahan to make this excellent record are:

According to Ernest P. Davis, Auto club director of safety and traffic, the winning safety patrol team will be given a physical checkup and instructions on the itinerary and trip rules.

Lieuts. George Bashara and Jerry Davis, Joe Lenz, Harold Dixon, Jim Mason, James Smith, Harold Moore, Michael Roberts, Richard Marsh, and Dan Montgomery.

Bowling Alley Proprietor Seeks to Enlarge Building

A petition to amend the zoning ordinance was presented to the Grosse Pointe Woods commission Tuesday by Rene Degriek.

The petition asked for the change to enable him to enlarge his bowling alley on Mack avenue with six additional alleys.

A public hearing has been scheduled for this on June 18.

for eleven o'clock in the morning, May 30. The program was under the joint auspices of the Grosse Pointe Honor Roll Association, the Alger Post 995 VFW, and the American Legion, Grosse Pointe Post 303.

Henry Horn was elected president of Grosse Pointe Lectures, Inc.; in the annual report of the organization, it was learned that 767 season tickets and 500 single admission tickets were sold in the community.

Again the Grosse Pointe unit of the AAVS took initial steps to perform another service to the residents of the Pointe. The recipients of the newest service were the servicemen and women of the community.

A furlough file was set up in the AAVS hut, Kercheval near Cadieux road for the assistance of all who were "home on furlough" to look up their friends who might have been on leave at the same time.

Grosse Pointe high school set a new record in home front safety when the principal, that the students had exceeded by 50 per cent the quota of E bonds assigned to the school by the state chairman of the Seventh War Loan drive.

Introduction of the added service of money orders and postal notes at the branch post office in Grosse Pointe was received with enthusiastic response by Pointe residents.

Final services, including a Solemn High Mass presided over by Archbishop Edward Mooney, were held for the Rev. Charles W. Heath, senior curate of St. Ambrose Roman Catholic church.

After crashing into the rear of a garage at 1450 Wayburn and attempting to flee the scene, an 18-year old Detroit boy and his companion were arrested by Park Officers Gus Boone and Alex Verdonek near Vernor Highway and Alter road.

Chief of Police Thomas Trombly and Officers Manning, Meathe and Blinn were ordered to appear in court at the trial of Harold Gustafson, 19-year old Detroit murderer who killed a 29-year old mother with a shotgun in March. Gustafson was arrested by city police at Cottage hospital after he had sped through the Pointe with the dying woman in his car. The deceased resided on Navaho.

Gratiot township's playground at Vernier road and Beaconsfield was dedicated at ceremonies which were topped off with a softball game.

A stolen bicycle, described in The Review, was found and returned to its owner by Farms police. . . . A learning motorist, making a poor right turn into Lakeshore road, crashed into another auto, damaging both cars. . . . The American Legion named May 27 as Poppy Day.

Announcement was made by a Pointe real estate company that the construction of a new theatre was to begin on Jefferson avenue, east of the Grosse Pointe Park municipal building. It was to have been named the Will Rogers Theatre. The site comprised the property on which two homes were located and a vacant lot; it was over 320 feet deep and a natural theatre site.

Commodore Alger Sheldon, acting with Commodore H. S. Walker, heading the Detroit River Yachting Association, prepared a number of permits, asking for the establishment of a Coast Guard station with at least one Coast Guard patrol boat at Lakeshore. The permits were sent to the commander on mere notification and approval by the U. S. Coast Guard.

A letter from the Detroit City Board of Health, dated May 17, commending the new Lewis E. Marek school at 24 Cadieux road.

Among grocery and meat advertisements were found:

Chuck roast, lb. 17c; rib roast, lb. 27c; margarine, 2 lbs. 27c; Lipton's tea, lb. 79c; white wax onions, 3 lbs. 10c; iceberg lettuce, head, 6c; and oranges, doz. 29c.

15 Years Ago

The formal dedication and opening ceremonies of the new pumping station constructed in Grosse Pointe Farms was held. The building was built at an approximate cost of two hundred eighty-seven thousand dollars. Hundreds of residents led by a vanguard of village officials inspected the station that would supply water to the village.

Walter S. Conley, 1046 Kensington, announced his candidacy for trustee on the Grosse Pointe board of education. He was seeking the seat held by Fred Sutter, who also sought re-election.

Edmund C. Vernier, township supervisor, announced that he had authorized a blanket 10 per cent reduction in the assessed valuation of property in the township. His action had been approved by the board of trustees.

The state legislature passed a bill providing for the collection of primary school money from the state for the several hundred school children residing on Wayburn avenue. The effect of this legislation enabled the Grosse Pointe board of education to collect the school money rather than the Detroit board who had been receiving the funds.

Teachers

administrator regularly employed on the school staff.

All of these policies regarding the employment of teachers have made it expedient and advisable for the board of education to seek to rebuild its permanent staff of teachers with regular appointments at the present time, and at the same time to create a reserve of day-to-day substitute teachers. During the war years and during the past school year, day-to-day substitute list has been practically depleted by moving substitutes from the day-to-day list to the regular full-time semester or annual appointments. The resulting depletion of good day-to-day substitute lists has been devastating to the instruction of the children. Day-to-day substitutes were simply not available on many occasions. The board hopes many of the very high quality people who were filling vacancies on a semester or full-year basis will remain available for emergency substitutes in the school system, thereby providing the children of the Grosse Pointe schools with assurance that they will have good teaching at all times.

Dr. Essert anticipated in his report that it possibly would not be possible to fill all of the existing vacancies with regular appointments since there was a national shortage of candidates for certain types of position. Some of the regular substitutes may therefore be asked to continue on a regular substitute basis in case some of the vacancies could not be filled before the end of the summer. Of the 23 people who have been on military leave of absence from the teaching staff, 10 have returned to service already and four others have indicated their intentions of being here for the coming school year.

City Citizens' Park Committee Ideas Tabled for Future

The city council took under advisement a series of recommendations for improvements to the park presented Monday night by a committee of taxpayers, appointed by Mayor Netting at a previous meeting to work with Councilman Chester Carpenter on the project.

Recommended improvements include: More sanitation. Changing location and drainage of latrines.

Opening of pool west wall to permit fresh lake water drainage. Locker facilities.

Rigid supervision by attendants and lifeguards.

Education of back No. 4 and setting of two string boards. Covering all slippery wood with matting. A slide for children.

Picnic tables and benches. Improvements to boat dock facilities.

A five year improvement plan for the park.

Promising candidates are available and being investigated and interviewed for most of the remaining existing vacancies.

Dr. Essert pointed out that it was his hope and that of the board of education that our teaching situation which has been distressingly unstable during the war could be much more stabilized and secure for the benefit of the children for the coming year.

How Is Your Posture?

By Dr. Emmett J. Murphy

Bad posture means that the framework of the body is distorted, and this means that important organs cannot do their normal work. Stumped shoulders, for example, cause a cramping of the organs in the chest—heart, lungs, liver—thereby reducing their vitality and making them more liable to disease. Spinal curvature results in the cramping of important nerves and blood vessels that regulate the activities of vital organs. This means that the nerves and blood supply in those organs is defective and the organs become weak and susceptible to disease.

Good posture, on the other hand, means that the organs have the greatest possible chance to remain in their normal position. And good posture means that nerves and blood vessels are in the best condition to keep the organs strong and healthy.

The idea that good posture contributes to good health is based on the mechanics of the human body and is as sound as any principle that operates anywhere in the field of mechanics. The idea is gaining ground more rapidly now than ever before. And when it finally is accepted for its true worth by the whole populace, there will be a vast improvement in the health and vitality of men, women, and children everywhere.

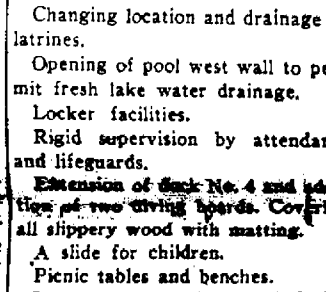

Fig. 1 Normal Posture, Fig. 2 Stumped Posture, Fig. 3 Hollow Back, Fig. 4 Military Posture, Fig. 5 Round Shoulders, Fig. 6 Flat Pelvis

SIDE VIEW POSTURE: Carefully compiled data shows 53 per cent of adult human beings present antero-balance faults of sufficient degree to be plainly observable. That percentage among the adult population of the United States are sufferers from back-aches, neck-aches and leg tire which can be directly traced to improper curving in the spinal column. The spine cannot be an effective weight bearing structure without reasonably normal curves.

Navy Captains Make Plans to Activate Naval Air Reserve

Twenty-two be-ribboned navy captains, commanding officers of Naval Air Reserve stations throughout the United States, arrived in Glenview, Ill., to begin a three-day conference with Rear Adm. Edward C. Ewen, chief of Naval Air Reserve training.

During the three days final plans will be made for activating the Naval Air Reserve program on July 1. The program, the navy's answer to postwar air security, is set up to keep in part time training several thousand of the navy's top combat pilots, plus the necessary enlisted personnel to provide the nation with a "second team" of reserves to be kept in readiness should another national emergency arise. The 22 stations where this program will be conducted are located in all parts of the United States, being situated near large centers of population to minimize travel problems to pilots and enlisted men taking part.

Alumni Scholarship Fund Established to Honor Late Major Max Weil of Wayne

It wasn't so long ago that Detroiters were linking the name of Major Max Weil with those of the "one man army of Bataan." Capt. Arthur W. Wermuth, and Lieut. Gen. "Jimmie" Doolittle, Weil's wife, Mrs. Doolittle and Mrs. Wermuth were guests of honor of the city in a ceremony in front of the city hall. In 1942, three tanks, donated by citizens in a "Buy a Tank" drive, were named after the heroes.

But Weil's friends among former students of Wayne University were determined that his name would not be forgotten, come the end of the war. To this end they began a drive to raise money for a memorial that would carry the hero's name. Now, Weil's record in action and his acts of bravery will live through the Max Weil Memorial Scholarship Fund which will be used to aid deserving high school students continue in higher education at Wayne University. The $1,000 that were collected have been turned over to the Wayne University Foundation which will be custodian of the Fund. Weil was captured in the Bataan-Corregidor retreat. He died a prisoner of the Japanese, along with over a thousand other American captives, on a ship transferring the prisoners from the Philippines to the Asiatic mainland. Of the 1,750 captives only nine are known to have survived. The ship was torpedoed by an American submarine. The submarine's commander had no way of knowing Americans were aboard the Japanese ship.

Weil graduated from Wayne University in 1937. He was known as a hard-working student who took a full academic program at the University and worked full time at the post office. He was 36 years old when he died.

A reserve officer, he entered active service at Fort Custer in the early part of 1941.

Rotarians Visit Connors Edison

Members of the Grosse Pointe Rotary club were noon luncheon guests Monday of a fellow member, William B. Hurley and the Detroit Edison company at the Connors Creek power plant.

Preceding a tour of inspection, the plant engineer gave a short talk concerning the plant and the other operations of the company.

The Connors creek plant consumed seven hundred thousand tons of coal last year and combined with four other plants, serving an area of eight thousand square miles, consumed 2 1/2 million tons of coal during 1945. The local plant pumps four hundred million gallons of water a day, which is used to generate steam to drive the turbines, which have a total horsepower of 400,000. More water is pumped at Connors Creek station in one day than is consumed by the entire city of Detroit in two or three days.

Junior League Gives Country Fair June 17

To raise funds for the first-year support of their Group Therapy Project, the Junior League of Detroit has plans under way for a complete, unabridged old-fashioned Country Fair with ultra new-fashioned prizes and entertainment.

On Thursday, June 13, at the late Emory Ford estate, 485 Lakeshore Drive, the public is invited to enjoy a fashion show, games of chance, dancing, dinner, and the opportunity of winning a 1946 Ford station wagon, a Bendix washing machine and countless other valuable prizes.

Admission is free to all comers, young and old. Merry-go-rounds, a grab bag, pony rides, jeep rides, tent show, penny pitch, baseball throw, weight-guessing, strength testing—all make up part of the dazzling midway.

Chairman of the Country Fair Committee is Mrs. Thomas F. Padock. Serving with her here are Mrs. Arthur Buhl, Jr., and Mrs. Charles Symington as vice-chairmen; Mrs. Andrew Barr as treasurer; Mrs. John Siallerossi as secretary; Mrs. William K. Muir in charge of patroness invitations; Mrs. Daniel H. Buell, II, in charge of programs; Mrs. H. Hunter Williams, in charge of publicity; Mrs. Chisholm MacDonald, chairman of the afternoon tea and fashion show; Mrs. James J. Phelan, Jr., chairman of dancing under the stars; Mr. and Mrs. W. LeMay Mitchell, Jr., chairmen of games of chance; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Robinson, chairmen of entertainment on the grounds. Others on the various committees are Mrs. Edward S. Evans, Jr., Mrs. Theodore R. Buttrick, Jr., Mrs. Edward S. Wunsch, Mrs. William L. McGiverin, Mrs. Andrew P. Happer, Mrs. Geo. E. Schenck, Mrs. Donald W. Wilson, Mrs. Edward Doyle, Mrs. George E. Lackey, Mrs. James B. Webber, Jr., Mrs. Theodore D. Buhl, Mrs. Tant Glancy, Mrs. Edgar L. Fink, Mrs. W. D. Robinson, Mrs. Harry Mack, Nancy Bigelow and Christine Calkins.

An afternoon tea and fashion show in the sunken gardens is one of the major attractions at the Country Fair. Fashions from 1900 through the modern day will be presented. Dinner and dancing under the stars will make up another entertainment feature, with dinner served from 7 to 8:30 and dancing from 7 until closing. Games of chance will include horse races, chuck-a-luck, raffle-dazzle and many more. Every possible complement of the original country fair will be included for the full and enjoyment of everyone who wants to come. Bands, clowns, fortune tellers, tin-types, food, hot-dogs, hamburgers, pop, etc., will be on the grounds throughout the Fair.

The traditional booths will be on hand in force: garden booths, a white elephant booth, a book booth, an auction booth, sports booth, baked goods and pantry shelf, Little Shop and League for the handicapped booth.

In addition to the usual washing machine, many more prizes will be drawn for on the evening of the Fair, including an Arctic Trunk Home Freezer, a Majestic Combination Floor Model Radio and P honograph and many more rare and unobtainable items to be announced later.

The Pot O' Gold show, run by Mrs. W. D. Robinson and Mrs. Harry Mack, will also offer unusual prizes to the lucky winners.

The Junior League of Detroit wants to emphasize the fact that the Country Fair is open to the public, and admission is free. Hurry! Hurry! Come one, come all, to the Country Fair for the biggest little show in America.

NOT TO BE OUTDONE WERE the kids from Pierce who had a gay time 1 hour, at Gail Wright's house last Saturday night. Van Osdel, Jr., Joan Cronin, Macky Macpherson, Andy Klingstedt, Joan Wertz, Marilyn Lamb, Mary Lou Long, Mary Jane Schaeffer and Joan Reinstein.

Decked in their best finery were Sally Curran 'n Bud Baldwin, Jerry Gant 'n Shirley Allen, Joan Anderson 'n Ray Hartman, Joan Weidman 'n George Saad, Jane O'Connor 'n Roland Gray, Howe Meathie 'n Carolyn Trapp, Bob McBride 'n Joan Kocuminski, Mary Ann Bakeman 'n Fred Haley, Rev. Hold Auction for Famine Relief

The students of the ninth grade civics classes of the Detroit University school are planning to hold an auction and raffle for the benefit of famine relief. All proceeds will be donated to UNRRA. Tony Weitzel, radio and news columnist of The Detroit News, has volunteered his services as auctioneer, and he will be aided by Stephen Stockpole and Simon Den Uyl, mem-

Students who are planning and arranging for this project are: Dan Chesnut, Bill Hamilton, Phil Droll, Hal Smith, Warren Babcock, and Dick Kuhn. They are assisted by other members of the class. Mrs. Charles Cheenut and Mrs. Ralph Fordon are aiding in making contacts with parents.

Ask Improvements for Mason School Baseball Diamond

Arnold L. Dising, acting in the interest of the baseball players of Grosse Pointe Woods, appealed to the village commission Tuesday to help maintain the ball diamond on the Mason school grounds.

He said that the board of education is powerless to act in this respect and urged that the village do what it can to smooth the playing field.

As part of its recreation program, the highway superintendent was instructed to look over the field together with the commission members of the recreation committee, and report back the cost necessary to make the improvements on the grounds.

In the meantime, board of education officials will be contacted for any further cooperation.

Detroit Race Track Opens Season Next Saturday at 2:15 p.m.

The familiar cry, "They're Off" will be heard again by followers of the thoroughbred sport when the Detroit Racing Association opens its gates on Saturday, May 25, at the state fairgrounds.

Post time daily except Saturdays and holidays will be 4:30 p.m. throughout the spring and summer meeting of 49 days. On Saturdays and holidays the post time for the first event is 2:15 p.m. Everything is in readiness for the opening and with 900 horses stabled on the grounds a stellar brand of racing is in store for the fans of Detroit and its environs. Many new stables will compete for the $1,500 to $10,000 purses to be distributed during the meeting.

Charles F. Henry, racing secretary, has arranged a brilliant opening day program and the May 25th eight race card features the $10,000 Boots and Saddle Handicap and the $5,000 Man O'War Handicap. The Boots and Saddle is a six furlong sprint race and Dixiana's Amber Light, winner of the same event last year, heads a list of 24 nominations. Distance stars will match their speed and stamina in the Man O'War handicap at a mile and a sixteenth.

George Lewis, general manager, announced yesterday that the greatest array of riding talent ever to compete for honors at the Motor City course will be on hand for the opening and some of the more popular saddle stars to don silks will be Young, Willie, Babcock, Bobby Watson, Don Adams, Dave West, Terry Sullivan, Don Sourlock, Robert Hartwick, Frank Wirth and Harry Wallace.

Washington, D.C. — The millions of homeless and orphaned children thronging throughout Europe and China add up to the world's number one human problem. UNRRA is helping the government of liberated countries provide food, clothing and shelter for them.

Poland and Yugoslavia each have more than a half million orphans or half-orphaned, their governments estimate. Greece has between 5,000 and 60,000; Albania, 4,000; and Czechoslovakia more than 50,000 in the ravaged "Back-Belt" of Eastern Slovakia alone.

Studying old-car possibilities for Detroit's Golden Jubilee, committee members have been heard to say "there ought to be a lot of old Model T's around." There should be, and there are. Many of them still in operation. The first model T was introduced by the Ford Motor company Oct. 1, 1908. From then until the Model A was introduced in December, 1927, more than 15 million of them were built, with an all-time production record of 10,000 for a single day on Oct. 31, 1925.

The location is adjacent to the Post home, 2094 E. Michigan avenue, two miles east of Ypsilanti, on US-112.

The bomber is to be dedicated to the workers of the former Willow Run Bomber plant, the Ford Motor company, the community of Ypsilanti, and the glorious and victorious United States Army Air Force, including the heroes that flew them and made the supreme sacrifice.

Mass Production of $2,500 Homes

An Ohio manufacturer has offered to produce 48,900 mass-assembled, two-bedroom homes annually, to sell at an estimated F.O.B. price of $2,500. If the government will grant material priorities and make idle war plants available.

The homes will be delivered with complete bathroom and kitchen fixtures, built-in beds, bureaus, mirrors and closets, ready for occupancy. The manufacturer hopes to turn out 157 a day.

Present financing plan calls for one-third down and 60 equal monthly payments through banks. Future financing for GIs is based on a 10-year plan, with monthly payments of $25 to $35 to include principle, interest and transportation charges.

COLONY TO GIVE KIDDIES AWARD ON SATURDAYS

The management of the Colony theatre is prepared to give away free a Hollywood Irish Mail at every Saturday matinee beginning next Saturday and continuing through July 13. The beautiful award is on display in the lobby.

The double feature for tomorrow and Saturday at the Colony is "The Dolly Sisters" and "Under Western Skies" starring Martha O'Driscoll and Noah Beery, Jr.

Filed in spectacular technicolor, the "Dolly Sisters" stars Betty Grable with June Haver and John Payne in his first picture since his honorable discharge from service.

In addition to Payne's first picture since his return, the film marks another first: George Jessel's initial effort as a producer.

In the gay story of the fabulous sisters who set a world aflame with their songs and dances, Betty Grable plays the role of Jenny, June Haver plays that of Rosie, Dolly, Payne is seen as Harry Fox, song and dance man whose romance with Jenny constantly threatens to break up the sister team.

The picture deals with the adventures of the Dolly Sisters, a romantic pair in a romantic area, as they swept their way from New York to Nice, from Manhattan's lower East Side to the ballrooms of the crowned heads of Europe.

JOAN LESLIE AND ROBERT HUTTON IN 'SHORES' FILM

With Joan Leslie and Robert Hutton starring in "Too Young to Know," and Robert Walker and Keenan Wynn in "What Next, Corporal Hargrove?" the Shores theatre is presenting an excellent double bill for Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

"Too Young to Know" has been adapted for screen use from the successful Saturday Evening Post serial by Harlan Ware. It presents Joan Leslie as a young girl who falls over heels in love with Robert Hutton. Though the youngsters actually are too young to marry, they are too much in love to care. The film recounts their laughter and tears as they struggle to make their marriage a lasting one.

Also featured in the film are Dolores Moran, Rosemary deCamp, Harry Davenport, Arthur Shields and Barbara Brown.

"What Next, Corporal Hargrove?" is a sequel to "See Here, Private Hargrove," in which Robert Walker brought to life the character created in the numerous situations found in a book on army life.

STRIKES and SPARES

With this seemingly endless succession of brown-outs, strike-outs and free-outs, getting news for this cold is about as easy as finding a parking place in the city.

... It's getting so bad that if they do let you in they warn you to keep mum . . . in place of the usual custom of asking for publicity. Even our old Hudson is starting to complain "What—Another back door? Don't you realize my shoes are thin . . . and there's nails in them already."

Anyhow, East Warren Recreation manages to go along as usual. With the city tournaments over they have alleys open now for open bowling at almost any hour. They are sponsoring a 360 mixed doubles with a 60 per cent handicap every Saturday night from now on at 9 p.m. And Saturday night there is an occasion worth attending.

Red Calloway and his Trio, along with Eddy Dudley, are still entertaining capacity crowds at Vogue Recreation . . . and the Melody Trio is the current attraction at Park-side. Tony D'Annunzio and his accordion are old favorites with a lot of folks on Detroit's East Side.

We have often wondered why bowling has become such a popular pastime . . . something about its start and rise to fame. Well, there is a very interesting and well executed panorama of its history at the foot of the Park-side alleys. It dates back to the time when cavemen bounced rocks off the lovely domes of their lady fans . . . medieval times when they played duck on the rock . . . the duck being castles on a mountain top and cannons threw the balls. Even our Puritan fathers seemed to have their version of the game, locking those high-natted boys in stocks and belting their head to pieces with Indian squash. Only in the 18th century did they bring out any semblance of the present game with balls and pins . . . you know what it is today. Could it be, though, that some of those high stones out of Paradise were made with a string?

LES PAYNE

Les Payne, for several months featured piano, solovox, vibraharp and accordion artist with Al Cox and his Loddonnaires, is making a big hit with his own orchestra currently at the Hotel Savarine's popular Fiesta room.

Two-Deck Trailer— and Five Roomer

Although shortage of materials is holding up the large production of trailers which their manufacturers have planned to ease the housing crisis, thousands of "homes on wheels" will be doing their part this summer.

One revolutionary model has two decks — the top with three bedrooms. On the road you telescope the top down to 10 feet from 15, by using a simple jack.

Then there's a 35-footer, divided into living room, dinette, kitchen, bedroom and bath — at $20,000. Others costing as little as $1,135 offer kitchens complete with storage space, ovens, refrigerators, fluorescent lights, bedrooms — and even telephones.

For instance, if you had a tiff with the girl friend and a little imagination to see her in place of the pins, you could give vent to your feelings with a bowling ball . . . there's a picture over the alley to show you how it is done . . . and that's a suggestion you can follow throughout the place. Look it over sometime.

CANCER

MORE than twice as many Americans were killed at home by cancer, from Pearl Harbor to V-J Day, as were killed in all our military operations.

Cancer will kill 17,000,000 more Americans now living, unless we do something about it.

Cancer respects neither age nor sex. This year alone more than 175,000 American men, women and children will die of cancer. That is at the rate of 478 of us every day in the year, 20 every hour, one every three minutes.

Your own chance of becoming a victim is one in eight. No one is safe from cancer.

But There Is Also Vital Hope!

From 30 to 50% of those who now die of cancer die needlessly. Had they known the early "danger signals" of cancer and obtained proper treatment in time, the chances are they could have been saved.

There is every reason to believe that a comprehensive research program as thorough as that which gave us the atomic bomb, may bring comparable results in science's quest for the cause and cure of cancer.

Your gift will be used to fight cancer these three ways:

1. To spread the knowledge that cancer may be curable when diagnosed early,
2. To help provide more and better facilities for the treatment of cancer patients, 3. To make possible the first really comprehensive scientific research program to conquer cancer.

VETERAN NEWS

From the OFFICE OF VETERANS' AFFAIRS
LANSING

Just one year ago this week the first World War II veteran was hospitalized by the Office of Veterans' Affairs under its emergency hospitalization plan which operates in connection with local veteran counseling centers.

Since that time 1,008 veterans have received this service. Those veterans were not eligible for federal hospitalization, or such an entitlement had not been established, or the Veterans Administration Facility had no beds for them. This represents a total cost of $77,702.84 actually paid or in the process of being paid.

Sixty-seven Wayne county veterans received this state assistance through the OVA, which office was created by the legislature. One of the responsibilities of the OVA under the act is to "provide such services to veterans as not otherwise offered by federal agencies."

The cost for hospitalization, prosthetic devices, blood plasma, medical expense, nurses, ambulance service and X-rays for these veterans from Wayne county already paid is $5,980.88 and the estimated cost of cases in process is $3,375.00 more. These amounts represent a considerable tax saving to the county as well as an earned and much needed service to the veterans.

Four hundred fifty-two additional hospital cases are being processed involving an estimated sixty-seven thousand eight hundred dollars. In addition to hospital admissions as shown above 141 cases were processed and channeled to other local, state and federal agencies for assistance, or were rejected by the OVA as not being eligible for emergency care under its program.

Golden Jubilee Queen and Princesses to Reign Over Detroit During Jubilee

MARY SIMESCU
Interest in the forthcoming automotive golden jubilee celebration reached new heights last week in Detroit and across the nation as announcement was made that the golden jubilee queen and her six princesses had at last been selected. Her majesty and their royal highnesses will hold sway over motordom during the two-week program of festivities which will see Detroit turned into the world's radio and entertainment center.

Chosen from among 15,000 entrants to be queen of the golden jubilee was pretty Miss Mary Simescu, 22, a secretary at the Nash-Kelvinator corporation.

Her princesses are Miss Pat Barlow, 79 East Philadelphia, representing the community at large; Miss Kay Fushman, 1352 Bedford, a student at St. Mary's college, representing the schools and colleges; Miss Pat Maddin, 7550 Morrow Circle, Dearborn, representing young women in the governmental and professional group; Miss Lois Kay Litter, 256 Withington, Ferndale, of the non-automotive industries group; Miss Sherry Rowe, 920 Mariborough, representing young women in the services and trades classification; and Miss Shirley Kruspe, 691 Merrick avenue, chosen from entrants of the retail store group.

Miss Simescu, who was unaware that her photograph had been submitted by two co-workers in the search for the golden jubilee queen, resides at 15341 Freeland avenue with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin M. Simescu, and sister, Helen. Two brothers are in uniform; Eugene is a second lieutenant in the AAF, and Raymond is an army corporal.

The automotive golden jubilee's sweeping program of events will be headed by stars. "Motor City Cavalcade" — the parade to be held Saturday, June 1, starting at 2:30 — will have Ed Wynn, radioland's "fire chief," chasing a fire engine down the street, while the Quiz Kids, whose radio show of questions and answers reaches millions, will prance about a little red schoolhouse atop a beautiful float.

Fred Waring and his world-famed 70-voice choral group will be featured on a specially-written one hour radio network broadcast during the golden jubilee revue, Saturday night, June 1, at the Olympia. Art Linkletter, whose airways antics on the "People Are Funny" broadcast, have gained nationwide attention, will be master of ceremonies during a portion of the three-hour revue. Film stars are also expected to participate in this gala show.

To Feature Artists—
Lauritz Melchior, star of the Metropolitan Opera, and Dorothy Maynor, eminent American soprano, will be featured artists at the Golden Jubilee Community Rally, Sunday, June 9, at Briggs Stadium. The largest choral group in Michigan's history — 3,000 blended voices from the choir of Detroit church, industry, fraternal, military and school organizations — will augment the singing by the two stars in an inspiring program.

James Melton, opera and radio star, and Carlotta Franzel, who starred in "Carmen Jones," will be featured at the automotive industry's tribute to its pioneers on the evening of May 31 at Masonic Temple. The tribute in which they will participate will dramatize the beginning of the automotive era and tell the story, in a two-hour stage production to which the public is invited, of the changes wrought by automotive transportation during the past half-century.

Set Dates for 1946 Kiwanis Convention

Kiwanis International today announced plans for its 1946 Victory convention, June 9 to 13, at Atlantic City, which is expected to attract some 10,000 men and women from all sections of the United States and Canada.

With Hamilton Holt, Macon, Ga., prominent southern industrialist and president of Kiwanis International, presiding, the five-day meeting will feature as speakers many outstanding leaders in business, industry, agriculture and government.

They include Dr. Ralph W. Sockman, pastor of Christ church, New York; Harold E. Stassen, former governor of Minnesota and delegate to the San Francisco conference; Gen. Omar N. Bradley, administrator of Veterans' Affairs; Rep. Clare Boothe Luce of Connecticut, recently voted one of America's outstanding women; Clinton P. Anderson, secretary of agriculture; William K. Jackson, Boston, president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States; Lionel Chevrier, Ottawa, minister of transport, Dominion of Canada; and Drew Pearson, nationally known newspaper columnist and radio commentator.

The convention will stress Kiwanis International's 1946 administrative theme, "Build for Peace — Unity — Opportunity." Holt declared, "Major convention speeches will be based on the organization's nine objectives for this year."

Because Kiwanis International cancelled its annual convention during the war, next month's meeting will be the first since the world war years ago. Holt said that delegate attendance would reach a new all-time high because of advance registration last year. The level of participation is expected to be high.

The convention will open Sunday, June 9, and continue through Wednesday, June 13. The annual program will be broadcast by Wednesday morning, June 12.

CANCER may strike here next

CANCER strikes all ages. It takes fathers... and with them the family's means of livelihood. It takes mothers... just when they are needed to care for a family of little ones. Even little children are often its victims.

Unless we do something about it, 17,000,000 Americans now living will die of cancer.

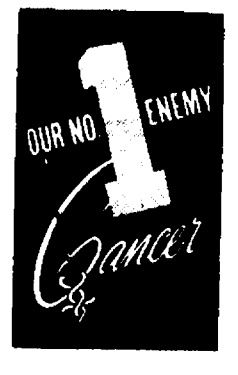

Cancer is not always incurable. Thirty to 50% of those who now die of cancer could be saved if they had recognized the "danger signals" of cancer and obtained proper treatment in time.

By a gift to the American Cancer Society, you can help save thousands of people who will otherwise die needlessly of cancer. And you can help medical science in its comprehensive attack on the cause of cancer.

Your gift to fight cancer will be used in these three ways:

1. To spread the knowledge that cancer is frequently curable if discovered early.
2. To help provide the most modern facilities everywhere for the care and treatment of cancer patients.
3. To make possible a comprehensive research program to determine the cause, prevention and cure of cancer.

Eugene Bolo Retires From Farms Police

The resignation and application for retirement of Eugene Bolo, lieutenant of the police force, was accepted by the council of Grosse Pointe Farms Monday night.

In considering promotions within the police department since the retirement of Joseph Trombley as chief in March, the police and fire committee brought in several recommendations to be acted upon by the council.

These recommendations are as follows:

RECOMMENDATIONS
1. We recommend that the Senior Sergeant, William Rice, be asked to serve temporarily as Acting Chief until a permanent Chief can be selected through a suitable examination.

2. We further recommend that the Michigan Municipal League be asked to conduct an examination to assist in the selection of a Chief of Police as soon as convenient.

3. We also recommend that the Acting Police Chief, as well as the succeeding permanent Chief, be instructed to avail themselves as soon as possible of the services of a competent police instructor and, with such an instructor, arrange for a refresher course in police work for all members of the Department.

4. We further recommend that all Patrolmen past the probationary period take an examination to be given by the Michigan Municipal League to assist in future promotions from the ranks, if the need should arise.

5. Should the selection of a Chief from within the Department prove unsuccessful either as the result of the examination, or after a reasonable trial period, the Committee would then further recommend:

Outside Chief
5. That a retired police officer from some other community, such as Detroit, for example, be employed as temporary Police Chief for a definitely limited number of years. In addition to his regular duties the Committee would assign to such a man the completion of a refresher course in police work for all members of the Department (as recommended under No. 3 above) and would further assign to him the duty of grooming candidates for a future Police Chief from among the men in the Department, this future Police Chief to be appointed by the Village Council upon the termination of the temporary Police Chief's employment.

Respectfully submitted,
The Police and Fire Department Committee,
George L. Schlaepfer, Chairman,
William F. Connolly, Jr.
Richard Maxon.

After these were read, Councilman Gerveys Grylls objected to allowing patrolmen to take the examination for police chief and asked that he be given more time to study this situation.

Since Sections 3, 4 and 5 hinged on Section 2, it was decided that recommendation No. 1 be adopted and that the remainder of the notice be tabled for further study.

By this action, William Rice will assume the duties of acting chief, the same capacity in which Mr. Bolo has been acting for the past three months.

At the same time, it was announced that Jack Paisley had resigned his duties with the police force following his discharge from service.

Scholarship Winners Announced

JEAN WILCOX

Margery Irene Botts, 271 McMillan, Harry D. Garber, 1336 Bishop and Jean Wilcox, 280 Kerby, are the winners of scholarships to the University of Michigan next year.

These students competed with pupils all over the state for 100 scholarships and for one scholarship offered to each school on the university's accredited list.

The scholarships consist of a year's tuition to the University of Michigan with the opportunity of a similar scholarship for the remainder of their college career if a sufficiently high scholastic average is maintained. The scholarship is based on leadership, integrity, ability to carry responsibility, grades and financial need.

The Grosse Pointe Communities consider themselves very fortunate in having three students from this area selected. There were 17 students from the Grosse Pointe High School who applied for scholarships this year. This is a larger number than had applied in prior years.

Special credit goes to The University of Michigan Club of Grosse

MARGERY IRENE BOTTS

Pointe Township for the part that it has taken in the scholarship program. The applicants were interviewed personally by the scholarship committee of the U. of M. Club of Grosse Pointe. The committee made its appraisal of each of the applicants and forwarded its recommendations and appraisal to the committee appointed by the University to pass on all applicants.

The Scholarship Committee of the University of Michigan Club of Grosse Pointe Township consisted of Paul Fransech, chairman; Mrs. Arthur Fleming, Mr. Leslie Young and Mr. Gilbert Douglas.

Dr. E. R. Stoiker has been president of the U. of M. Club of Grosse Pointe Township the past year.

Herman Merte of 19789 Huntington, was awarded a similar scholarship as a student of Southeastern high school, Detroit.

James R. Kennedy, Jr., of 400 Lincoln street, Grosse Pointe, son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Kennedy, Sr., is among the first 18 recipients of Cornell National Scholarships to Cornell university, and he expects to enroll at the university in the fall.

Established in December, 1945, the Cornell National Scholarships are being awarded this year for the first time. In addition to free tuition, the scholarships carry an annual stipend of $600, and may be held for the number of years normally required to receive a bachelor's degree in the division of the university which the winner selects.

An outstanding student at Grosse Pointe high school, Kennedy has been active in sports, especially tennis, and has held many student offices. He plans to enter the college of arts and sciences at Cornell and later to take up some phase of business administration.

Donald A. Shoub, 1309 Nottingham, a senior in Grosse Pointe high school, who competed in the scholarship tests at Heidelberg college, Tiffin, O., D. recently, has been awarded an alumni scholarship amounting to one-half tuition for the coming year.

These scholarships, awarded annually to outstanding high school students, are made possible by the gifts of the alumni of the college through its Living Endowment Fund.

Pointe High School Seeks Former Students

As a part of a continual curriculum study the Grosse Pointe high school from time to time has made it a practice to contact former students to find out what influence their high school training had had on them.

During the past two months the field counselor's office at the Grosse Pointe high school has been busily engaged in the follow-ups of some of its former students. So far the classes of January and June of 1941, 1943 and 1945 have been contacted for information about what they are getting along. Many interesting responses to the questionnaires have been received as well as much guidance data.

The summary on the classes of 1945 has been completed showing that 143 graduates are continuing to study at 50 different institutions. There are 67 working at 49 different places. Of the 318 graduates there have been 76 in the armed forces, the navy having the largest number: 32. There have been 16 at home while 15 did not reply since they had moved away.

The following statistics give the distribution of the graduates at a quick glance:

Continuing to study _____ 45%
Armed Forces _____ 15%
Working _____ 25%
At home _____ 5%
Others _____ 10%

The completion of the work on the classes of 1941 and 1943 has been held up somewhat because of the difficulty of finding some of the former students. The field counselor has asked the Review to assist in locating the following:

Margaret Anderson, Beverly Bassett, Fred Beltz, Arthur Bezotte, Kenneth Blakebrough, David Burnell, Peter Chapman, Robert Christian, Mary Clark, Catherine Clifford, Jack Comstock, Douglas Cooper, Jack Doerr, Alice Eberlein, Jeanne Foley, Patricia Graham, Myrtle Grossberk, Frederick Hansen, Barbara Hereks, Eleanor Hofman, Genevieve Hollis,

Anyone who knows of the present address of any of the above named people could help by passing on the information to the field counselor, Charles Seltzer, in care of the board of education, telephone NI 2000.

BEFORE YOU DIAL LISTEN FOR THE DIAL TONE

THE familiar hum of the dial tone, in effect, says "Number Please?" It's the signal that the dial switchboard is ready to put your call through. If you dial before hearing the hum, you'll get a wrong number or no number at all. These days, there may be times when the dial tone is delayed a few seconds because all the switching equipment is in use. In order to connect telephones for as many waiting applicants as possible, we are temporarily loading our present dial equipment far beyond its normal capacity. Meanwhile, until more dial equipment can be installed, you'll get better service if you'll remember to keep the receiver to your ear and wait for the dial tone before you dial.

Raymond Kelly's Record Outstanding

Raymond J. Kelly, Republican gubernatorial candidate, has compiled an outstanding record as a lawyer, as a faithful public servant, an overseas World War veteran and a champion of servicemen's rights. A Notre Dame and University of Detroit law school graduate, he has maintained private legal practice in Detroit since 1915, with time out for two wars. He also served as general counsel for the DSR from November, 1930 to May, 1933, and as corporation counsel for the city of Detroit from May, 1933, to October, 1939. His war record is a shining example of real patriotism. He was the first man from Detroit to enter officer training school at Fort Sheridan, Ill., in World War I. He was injured in training and given a medical discharge, but he wasn't satisfied. He wanted to get into the scrap, so he underwent hospitalization at his own expense and enlisted as a private in December, 1917.

Tomatoes Called Most Important of Garden Crops

Tomatoes are the most important crop in the home garden. Whether the garden is on a city lot or on the farm, no vegetable exceeds the tomato in its contribution to the family diet. Tomatoes are easy to grow if a few rules are followed. Jack Rose, Michigan State college home garden specialist, lists four steps which lead to a good tomato crop. 1. Buy or raise good plants of recommended variety. Early Chatham or Victor varieties are recommended for early fruit. Plant a few early plants. The rest of the planting should consist of later, more productive varieties, such as Stokesdale, John Baer or Bonny Best. Plants 6 to 8 inches high with stems as thick as a lead pencil are ideal. 2. Set plants carefully. Make the hole sufficiently large to allow all soil possible to remain on the roots. Set plants somewhat deeper than they have been growing. Firm dirt thoroughly around plant roots. Use one cup of starter solution for each plant as it is set. Starter solution can be made by thoroughly mixing one cup of 4-12-4 fertilizer in one bucket of water. Space plants 2 1/2 to 3 feet if they are to be staked, 4 x 5 feet if unstaked. 3. Feed and water plants. If water supply is available, soak the soil once a week during dry periods to increase the crop. Before plants are set, add 3 pounds of complete fertilizer to each 100 square feet of garden area and work well into the soil. After fruit has begun to set, two tablespoons of nitrogen fertilizer applied in a 12-inch circle around the plant will boost fruit size. 4. Control insects and diseases. Tomato worms are best controlled by picking them off by hand, or knocking the moff into a can of kerosene. Cutworms will injure many plants. Protect newly set plants with a cardboard collar, or spread poison bait an evening or two before setting plants. Tomato diseases are best controlled by spraying or dusting every 10 days with any one of several basic copper compounds which are available to control plant diseases. Four million dollars spent in research, plant, etc., by a rubber manufacturer makes each worker's job represent a $6,000 investment.

Receiving Special Graduate Training

Charles Henry Fletcher, Jr., of Grosse Pointe, has joined the Westinghouse Electric Corporation as a member of the company's graduate student course. One of many young men selected from colleges and universities throughout the country Mr. Fletcher is receiving engineering and manufacturing and classroom instruction designed to fit him for active participation in the company's postwar production program and for future leadership in the electrical industry. The course was originated by Westinghouse over 50 years ago to help college graduates bridge the gap between academic preparation and actual production work. Born in Detroit, Mich., Mr. Fletcher was graduated from Cornell university with a bachelor of science degree in administrative engineering. While in college he received the McMullan Scholarship and became a member of the Kappa Alpha, Pi Beta Phi and Beta Upsilon, social fraternities. He was also circulation manager of the school publication the "Widow" and on the reorganization committee of the intercollegiate council. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Fletcher, Grosse Pointe. Senator Grassroot

Daphne has me down to her brother's farm and I'm watching him sweep out the wheat bins. I like the musty smell as I peer in at him.

"Cy, must be nice to know your wheat is feeding starving Europeans," I say.

"Yeah, that part's ok, but the raw deal the government gave me sure doesn't make me too happy."

"How come?"

Cy shifts his dead corn cob to the other side of his mouth, leans on his broom and says:

"I sold my stuff last fall for $1.52 a bushel. The government said I might as well, 'cause that was the fixed ceiling price and it wouldn't be boosted. Besides that, I had to sell to meet that note at the bank."

"So?" I ask, brushing wheat dust off my coat.

"So early this year the government raises the price to $1.55—and I see I've lost three cents a bushel."

Cy sweeps the wheat into a pile, then says: "But what gets me happened a few weeks ago. The government comes along and offers a 30-cent bonus to sell. That's 33 cents a bushel I've lost!"

Cy gets a scoop shovel, sweeps the wheat into it and then carefully dumps it into an old sack.

"What in tarnation is that for?" I ask.

"Just another resu wosievitil?"

"Just another result of swivel-chair farming," Cy says. "I'm saving every grain — and so is every other farmer with a head of livestock or a squawking chicken. You can't buy feed now."

"Looks like you're holding the sack, Cy," I say.

"In more than one way, senator," Cy says slowly. "The government is paying $1.85 now — but isn't permitting anybody else to pay more than $1.55. That means no feed."

"And if that ain't a government-operated black market, I never saw one."

Didn't See Other Car Ticketed for RECKLESS DRIVING

Leonard Walsh, 43 of 841 Chalmers, while driving on Jefferson last Saturday night was hit by a car driven by Kirk Walsh, 16, of 263 Roosevelt.

Walsh told city police that while making a left turn into Jefferson avenue from Roosevelt Place, he stopped for Jefferson, but failed to see Walsh's auto. The cars crashed in the middle of the intersection.

Both drivers received reckless driving tickets to appear in city justice court.

Half of UNRRA Cotton Destined for China

Washington, D.C. — China will receive about half of all the raw cotton and cotton textiles distributed by UNRRA. If aims are fulfilled, cotton shipments to all countries will total 115,000,000 yards of finished textiles and 1,068,000 bales of raw cotton. Of this, 73,000,000 yards and 510,000 bales will go to China.

Wherever feasible, UNRRA's policy is to ship raw cotton rather than finished textiles. The purpose is to put the mills of devastated countries back again into operation in as short a time as possible.

How to Get Rich on $1,685 a Year

A 56-year-old employee of a Chicago firm whose earnings averaged $1,685 a year recently retired after 30 years with over $77,259 in his pocket!

By putting aside five per cent of his earnings he accumulated $2,258 in the company's fund. The fund used the sum to buy company stock in the employee's name. Today the stock he holds is worth about $72,393. This, added to the $3,866 representing company contributions and dividend accumulations, brings total to $77,259.

Tracked by two "mother" planes, a pilotless Navy Helicat (Grumman PGF) soars over the San Diego area in a dress rehearsal for similar air data operations planned as part of the atomic bomb tests at Bikini Island this summer. The drone (foreground) is controlled by the "mother" Helicat immediately in the rear within a moment plane-over as standby should the first one fall. During the tests (one Helicat, one with one control plane), will be launched from the USS Helicat and will be controlled from the carrier's deck, then from a mother plane in the air and finally from the ground control operation on Helicat where they will land. All Cucumbers Air-Minded, Save Space by Climbing

Select the cucumber that fits your purpose, give it support, and it will gladly climb.

Of the vine crops—cucumbers, melons, squash and pumpkins—cucumbers are the most efficient for most gardeners. They give most for the space they occupy when grown as climbers.

All cucumbers will climb, and like it; so don't feel it necessary to grow varieties especially listed in catalogues as climbers, if you want to grow them on a trellis or fence. Pick out the best varieties for your purpose—salad or pickles—sow them close to the support they are to climb, and see that they are headed in the right direction. They climb so fast, clinging by their own tentacles, you'll compare them to Jack's bean stalk.

Difficultly in growing cucumbers springs mostly from insect enemies, of which the worst is the striped cucumber beetle. This handsome pest nests in the "blossom end" of the vine, and its offspring eat the leaves; and also carry a disease which may cause the vine to wilt and die before it bears. But D.D.T. food quickly. To prevent formation of crooked fruit in the late summer, an additional application of plant food should be made as soon as the plants begin to bear, using at least one pint to fifty feet of row.

be new growth, dusting must be continued until the vines are several feet long, and safe from the beetle.

All the vine crops, cucumbers included, are extremely tender being killed by frost and refusing to germinate in cold soil. Sow them after the ground is warm. If they are spread on the ground, most gardeners sow them in hills, growing three plants to a hill; but they may also be spaced a foot apart in a row, provided at least three to four feet separates the rows. The vines can be kept in bounds by pinching off their growing ends, when they become too long.

In planting cucumbers to climb, sow seeds three to six inches apart close to the structure upon which they are to climb. Plant food is applied in a shallow trench two or three inches away from the seed, using one pint to 25 feet of row. The plants should be thinned out to stand a foot apart. Cucumbers need lots of water and use up plant food quickly. To prevent formation of crooked fruit in the late summer, an additional application of plant food should be made as soon as the plants begin to bear, using at least one pint to fifty feet of row.
