IT IS ALL VERY FINE — BUT!

No one who has seen any part or all of Detroit's Golden Automotive Jubilee program can help but say that it is all very wonderful . . . a fitting tribute to a city which has helped to make America great, and to an industry that has played a vital part.

So much space was taken up with pictures and publicity covering the chain of events that an even more important milestone in America's life was all but overlooked . . . Memorial Day. It is an almost fair indictment of the daily press in Detroit that a thorough scanning of its columns failed to produce any evidence or advance notice of the Memorial Day parade . . . our first peacetime Memorial Day in four years.

One can scarcely help but ponder the wisdom of the one hundred thousand dollar appropriation for jubilee expenses, plus the expenditure of untold and uncounted thousands in publicity, advertising and miscellaneous expense that the celebration is costing.

Last Thursday, we paid tribute to our honored dead who served their country well and paid the supreme sacrifice. Thousands of Michigan's sons and daughters, who also served, are today in need of help. Could not some of that vast expenditure have been made in their behalf?

Pointe Park. One and one-half inches of rain fell in less than forty minutes.

Over one hundred calls were received at the Municipal building regarding flooded basements and flooded areas. Calls were received from areas where basement flooding had not been previously reported during heavy rainfall periods.

During the peak of the storm the large storm water relief sewers on Jefferson, Pemberton, Whittier, Ver-nor Highway and Balfour were checked and it was found that the water had attained a height from six to nine feet below the street levels. At many places the large relief sewers were carrying water to a height higher than some of the basement floor levels in some of the homes.

Back pressure from these relief sewers at high water level forced water to spout three feet in the air at several catch basin openings.

The entire storm sewer relief system was not discharging rapidly enough to relieve the smaller street laterals, consequently water was forced into the private house sewers, flooding many basements.

The large pumps in the Grosse Pointe Park Pumping Station functioned properly as the storm water increased in volume, but due to the flooding of Fox Creek (which is used as a storm water outlet by Grosse Pointe Park) the twelve foot discharge conduit leading from the pumping station to Fox Creek was over-taxed and would not permit our pumping station to discharge all the storm water the pumps were receiving from the intake. At a point where the twelve foot conduit empties into Fox Creek the discharge was resisted by a tremendous head pressure by the high water level of the Creek.

The gates and pumps at the Fox Creek Station and Conners Pumping Station (which are operated by the City of Detroit) were reported to be in full operation in an attempt to relieve the head pressure and overflowing of Fox Creek, but all in vain.

During the year 1938, a storm-water relief system, including a pumping station, with large storm relief sewers on Jefferson, Pemberton, Whittier, Ver-nor Highway and Balfour was installed at an expense of $2,722,000. The balance paid by the Federal Government. The system was designed and is adequate to handle all the rain which may be expected to fall in the village, even after all the lots have been improved.

However, this installation did not correct all the sewage problems in some areas where the old street sewers are small with flat grades so that they cannot carry street and roof water to the large relief sewers described above. The inadequacy of these sewers had no direct bearing on the condition or trouble experienced in some effected equally at points where the relief sewers were backed up at an extremely high level.

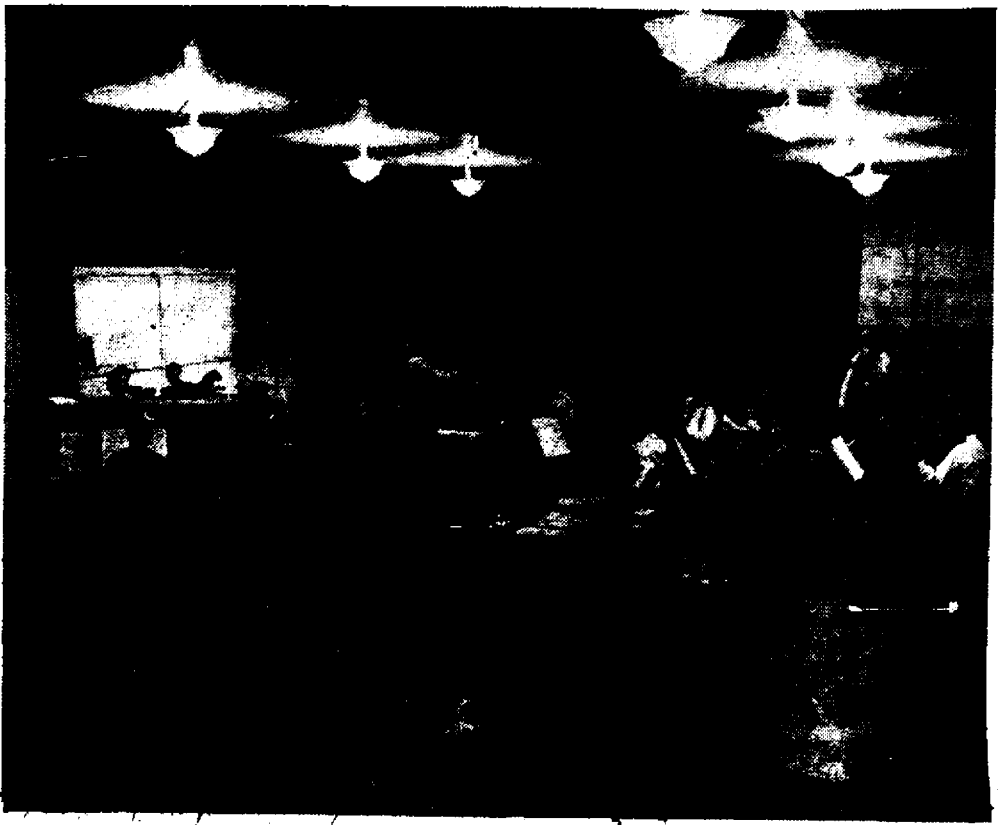

To prevent a re-occurrence of the catastrophe experienced on May 31st a channel or conduit of sufficient size must be constructed and maintained in Fox Creek to permit the Village of Grosse Pointe Park to discharge all storm water through its pumping station at its present maximum pumping capacity. The City of Detroit entered into agreement with the Village of Grosse Pointe Park, agreeing to improve and maintain, without cost to the Village of Grosse Pointe Park, the Fox Creek storm water channel south of Jefferson avenue to the lake so as to provide for a discharge capacity of 2,000 cubic feet per second or more.

This improvement has not been made and should another rainfall occur of great intensity as experienced on May 31st, 1946, we would be faced with the same problem of discharging our storm water in Fox Creek. This matter will be submitted to the Village Commission of Grosse Pointe Park, June 10, 1946, at which time some definite action shall be taken.

Offered Choice of Three Scholarships

Harry D. Garber, 1336 Bishop road, Grosse Pointe Park, son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Garber, may take his choice of three top-ranking colleges in a year when college entrance is presenting a puzzling problem to many young people.

Garber has been awarded scholarships to Harvard college, Yale university, and the University of Michigan. He has accepted the Yale grant and expects to undertake a law course there in the fall.

An outstanding student at Grosse Pointe high school, Garber was active in sports and the various school affairs, ranking in the upper ten of his class of approximately three hundred.

The "total aid" freshman scholarship awarded by Yale university for the two terms of the freshman year, include provisions for tuition, some living expense, and a part-time job. Subsequent renewal of this scholarship is based on several factors, including the maintenance of a high scholastic average.

The freshman scholarship awarded by Harvard college consists of a grant for two terms, good for renewal at the end of these two terms if scholarship is superior. In addition to the scholarship, Garber was offered a term-time position which could be accepted or refused without prejudice to the scholarship award. University of Michigan award consisted of the regular Regents Alumni scholarship to cover tuition for freshmen with opportunity for renewal based on scholastic records.

Rabaut Announces Parcel Post Service to German Zones

Washington, D.C. — Congressman Louis C. Rabaut, Dem., of Mich., has learned from an authoritative source that an official announcement will be made shortly regarding one-way parcel post service from the United States to certain zones in Germany under American military control.

The parcel post packages will be limited to 11 pounds and may include non-perishable foods, medicinal supplies and clothing, Rabaut was informed.

Since the resumption of mail service with Germany, Mr. Rabaut has been in hopes that a parcel post service could also be put into operation. Plans have been under way to include all of Germany in this service, but as no agreement could be reached with the other powers, this service will extend only to the U. S. zone. Representative Rabaut stated that many persons from Detroit have friends and relatives in Germany whom they are anxious to help, and he is pleased to announce that they may soon send the much needed relief.

Barb Storckel, Barb Hasselblad, Barb Rising, Sally Viasci, Pat Gulburg, Vonnie Wegman, Sallie Slocum, Dortha Davis, Dottie Landier, and Gerry Morris were among the picnickers.

JUNIOR NIGHT AT THE DETROIT Yacht club was a popular place last Friday night where Gery Rounds and Sue Cruinshank gave a semi-formal spring party. The marriage will be solemnized at Christ church, Grosse Pointe Farms, at four o'clock Sunday afternoon, June 23, and followed by a honeymoon cruise through the Great Lakes, the St. Lawrence and Saguenay rivers. Daughter Played While Father Sang at Memorial Services

Joan M. Rabaut, daughter of Rep. and Mrs. Louis C. Rabaut, Grosse Pointe Park, accompanied her father at the piano as he sang Tuesday, May 28, at the memorial exercises in the House of Representatives in Washington, D. C.

Representative Rabaut, well-known as a singer in Detroit for more than a quarter of a century, was chosen to be the soloist at the services which are held annually in memory of the members of congress who have died during the preceding year. The U. S. Army band orchestra played sacred selections as a prelude and the invocation and benediction were given by the chaplain. There was a roll of deceased members and addresses by two other representatives.

Miss Rabaut began her musical studies under the Dominican Sisters at St. Clare school. She continued with a course in syncope with Jack Allan, and studied harmony under Bonleiton Netzorg at Marygrove college. Her father, known as "the singing congressman" was a soloist in the Jesuit church for many years.

Enthusiasm Grows For League's Fair

Reports from the various Junior League Committees working valiantly on preparations for their big Country Fair continue to wax more and more enthusiastic as the great day—June 13, approaches.

One of the more startling announcements of the week was the proud one made by Mrs. Donald W. Wilson, chairman of the all-important auction booth, when she stated that among the objects for sale would be a full-grown, much-pedigreed bull! Mrs. Wilson will also have under the hammer some baby pigs, a mahogany corner cupboard, an antique spinning wheel, a solid mahogany sideboard, 2 genuine Persian rugs, 2 silver candlesticks, some rare porcelains and china, a pair of silver-base hurricane lamps hung with prisms. Helping with the auction barking at various stages of the day and evening will be such notables as Ralph Binge and Joe Gentile.

Included in the free entertainment on the grounds, will be a bona-fide clown, a monkey and organ-grinder, the Ford Piper band complete with Mrs. A. comedy band, artists, tintype photographers and a telescope to look at the moon.

In the sports booth, under the able direction of Mrs. William L. McGivern, there will be autographed golf and base-balls and golf dresses. A cocker spaniel pedigreed pup will be waiting for an owner, and a pair of priceless binoculars will be among the things for sale.

In the Pot O' Gold you'll find—all housewives take note!—a barrel of soap chips! And electric irons, heating pads, 2 vacuum cleaners, 2 roundrip P. C. A. tickets to Sault Ste. Marie, a $50.00 ladies' handbag, 3 orders at a photographer's, several permanents, several orders for dinners at Detroit night clubs, and an automatic hot water heater!

There will be an outdoor hamburger grill operated by men who have kindly volunteered to demonstrate their cooking ability all decked out in white chef's caps. There will be a greased pole for the reckless, and pink sugar candy on sticks and a big country kitchen where you can buy ready-cooked ham, chickens and turkeys, to take home so that you won't have to worry about dinner while you're at the Fair.

Golden Jubilee

The tea and fashion show, scheduled for 3:30 in the sunken gardens will be replete with the newest designer merchandise from Detroit's leading specialty shops and with the loveliest heirloom gowns contributed by Detroit's oldest families. Tickets are now on sale.

The buffet supper will be served in the sunken gardens from 7 to 8:30 p.m. The buffet tables, beautifully decorated, will be set up in the back, under the pavilion. The dance floor will be laid in the center, and circling it will be a host of tables dressed in bright colored cloths. The tent housing Jack Postvear's orchestra will also be done in varied colors, and the whole lovely setting, with its garden background, will be illuminated by colored lights and a revolving spot light. Dancing will begin as soon as supper service is through, and continue through the evening. Tickets for the buffet and dance, or just for the dancing, are on sale now at the Junior League Shop, 4000 Grosse Pointe.

Culehan Promises Business Barriers, Taxes Adjusted

Miles Culehan, Republican candidate for 14th District Congressman, claims that bureaucratic regulations must be removed from businessmen or they can't continue to operate.

Campaigning under the slogan, "Put the Shirts and the Meat back in the white market," Culehan is carrying his message to east side citizens. He said:

"The OPA regulations, such as rent control, were basically good during the war but now there are too many restrictions which hinder all business from returning to a peacetime economy. I am not for removing all price control suddenly or entirely, but these rules must be elastic enough to take care of the majority and prevent people from violating the law by dealing in black markets."

He cited the restrictions on building as one factor contributing greatly to the housing shortage, and stated that only 1/2 of 1 percent of returning veterans have been able to get home loans. Culehan said that if the rules were right, there would be at least 1,000,000 veterans with approved applications for home building.

Culehan is firmly against socialized medicine. He said:

"I saw registered doctors during my service in the army and they did a good job. But in civilian life this system would kill the doctors' initiative and do away with the personal attention that most people want."

Culehan said that taxation on production should be reduced to permit the expansion of business, which would create more supply and more jobs. This would automatically eliminate the black markets, he said.

Culehan is 48 years old, a successful practicing attorney for 23 years, was Assistant Prosecuting Attorney from 1930 to 1935 and Assistant Attorney General of Michigan in 1935.

He was a flier in the first World War and saw active service in the 7th Corps, U. S. First Army during World War II. He participated in the liberation of France and Belgium.

LEARN TO DIAL BY EAR

1. Pick up the receiver and listen before starting to dial.
2. If the dial tone is delayed, wait until you hear that steady hum-m-m.
3. When you hear the dial tone, dial the number carefully.

THAT dial tone is mighty important. It means that the switching equipment in the central office is ready to handle your call. If you dial before you hear it, you'll get a wrong number or no number at all.

Right now there are times when the dial tone is delayed. That's because, in a continuing effort to give some kind of service to as many waiting applicants as possible, we are loading our central office equipment far beyond its normal capacity—even at the risk of lowering the quality of service.

This situation is only temporary. We will restore service to normal as quickly as enough dial equipment can be provided.

Meantime, please remember to listen for the dial tone before you dial.

WHAT ARE YOUR CHANCES OF AN ACCIDENT THIS YEAR?

950,000 people were killed or injured in auto accidents last year! And the menace is growing! In the first 4 months after gas rationing ended, auto deaths jumped 36%! Remember, accidents come from carelessness . . . from the "little" chances we all take, unthinkingly, every day—the little repairs we neglect to make! Yes, it's up to you! You can cut down America's accident rate simply by not letting an accident happen to you!

Check on Yourself! HOW MANY CHANCES DO YOU TAKE EVERY DAY?

I cross when the signal is flashing.
 I never take a chance with a train.

Do you ignore signals if the train seems far away? Do you cross without clear vision both ways? Right now . . . make it your rule never to disregard a signal! And you'll never meet the sudden terror that killed or injured 16 persons each day last year!

I exceeded the speed limit today.
 I never go over the speed limit.

Do you try to make up time by speeding? Do you take curves too fast . . . or to get how quickly you lose control on wet pavement? Last year 1 out of 3 auto deaths involved driving at unsafe speeds. Is it worth your life to save a minute?

I only slow down at stop signs.
 I stop completely at every stop sign.

Do you chisel on stop signs . . . often sneaking through instead of coming to a full stop? Do you try to beat the light when it's turning red? Half of last year's auto deaths involved driving at unsafe speeds. Is it worth your life to save a minute?

I put off making repairs on my car.
 I keep my car in top condition.

Do you neglect having brakes adjusted? Do you drive as fast as usual though tires are worn? With so many old cars on the road, accidents involving mechanical defects have more than doubled today!

DON'T TAKE A CHANCE!

Sigler Calls for Popular Vote on Soldiers' Bonus
"Because the first war did not compare in seriousness, scope, or extent of sacrifice with World War II," Kim Sigler, Republican candidate for governor, told radio audiences Saturday that the people should be given the right to determine how much the veterans should be compensated for their services to their country.

Pointing out that after the first war the people themselves voted for the adoption of a constitutional amendment authorizing the payment of "the sum of $15 per month for each month, or major portion thereof, of service, — and up to approximately eight months after the signing of the armistice," Sigler said that he "cannot understand why anyone would consider paying the veterans of World War II less than the veterans of the first World War were paid" and that "we certainly should not do any less now than was done then."

Pointe Net Squad Takes Crown in State Tennis Meet
Grosse Pointe high school annexed another state Class A tennis title at Ann Arbor last Friday and another honor was brought to Grosse Pointe as Detroit University School took the championship in Class D.

Vic Braden, of Monroe, captured his second straight Michigan Class A high school tennis championship by downing Robert King, of Grosse Pointe, 6-4, 4-6, 6-3.

Grosse Pointe took the doubles and thereby annexed the team championship with 12½ points to Monroe's 9.

Butch Skau and Al Tenel, of Grosse Pointe, whipped Teammates Tom Wilson and Paul Grubbs, 6-3, 10-8, in the Class A doubles finals to retain the title they won a year ago.

Detroit University School took the championship in Class C-D with Bob Robb and Don Uyl beating Feltz and Shelton, of Gladwin, 6-1, 9-7 for the doubles crown.

Braden, the Class A singles title, reached the finals by whipping Jim Kennedy, of Grosse Pointe, 3-6, 6-4, 6-1, while Runner-Up Bob King topped Dick Learman, of Bay City, 6-4, 5-7, 6-1, to reach the finals.

"PROPOSITION TO BORROW THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND ($300,000.00) DOLLARS FOR THE RECONSTRUCTION AND IMPROVEMENT OF CERTAIN STREETS IN THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE AND TO ISSUE BONDS THEREFOR IN THAT AMOUNT."

Yes
 No

THE CITY CLERK, will be at his office in the Municipal Building at 17150 Maumee Avenue, during his regular office hours from 8:30 A.M. to 4:30 P.M. (Saturdays closed at noon) for the registration of qualified electors, up to and including the 8th day of June, 1946.

Norbert P. Neff,
City Clerk,
17150 Maumee Avenue.

Proposes Bond Issue—
He asserted that the whole matter should be kept away from political controversy, and that there was no reason why it could not be settled in 1946, at the general election in November. His own idea was that the people authorize a bond issue of three hundred million dollars, and that its proper distribution be provided through legislative enactment.

"The carrying charges on the bonds issued to finance these obligations will be small," Sigler said, "because the income from them is exempt from federal taxation. They will have a ready market and will undoubtedly be over subscribed before the ink on them is dry."

Let Public Decide—
Sigler stressed his belief in the use of a referendum wherever important public policies are involved. He cited the state civil service issue. He charged that the legislature was "playing ball" with the subject until the people finally voted in favor of an amendment requiring that all state employees be under civil service. "Those working for the state now," he observed, "are not only treated differently, but they are better paid and have a feeling of independence which did not previously prevail."

Important Issues to Voters—
Noting that "where the people themselves have had an opportunity to vote on important matters, they have invariably done the right thing," he called for extended use of the franchise to meet the post-war "challenge to our capacity for self-government."

"To meet the shortages in funds for maintaining proper school administration throughout the state," Sigler declared himself in favor of submitting a constitutional amendment requiring a return of a sufficient amount of the sales tax to the school districts to meet the emergency.

Fairgrounds for Public—
Sigler placed particular emphasis on the fact that public property should be used for public and not private purposes. He was referring specifically to the fairgrounds in Detroit. He revealed that the state, particularly in the metropolitan district with an exhibition and playground center for public use, but that the property has remained closed to the public.

Reviewing the publicized criticism of the state for failure to provide sufficient recreational facilities for the metropolitan district, Sigler observed that the common council of Detroit had "requested that these fairgrounds be opened to the public, and that such requests have been turned down by a small coterie of men whom the people did not elect, and who do not represent any true public interest."

Sigler asserted that as governor of the state, he could have the grounds "opened to the public and properly protected not a minute later than the 31st day of January, 1947."

Press Review
Detroit (Associated Press)—The Detroit News and the Detroit Free Press carried the following news items on the primary election, June 18:

MICHIGAN AND THE OLD NORTHWEST

In 1702 the priests at St. Joseph mission reported Miami-English trade.

Refusing to come to Detroit, the Miami moved to Indiana (H. Wayne area?)

From 1690 to 1708 Fr. Claude Avenue ministered to Miami at St. Joseph.

Fr. Chardon labored there among Potawatomi, 1705-12, until the Fox war.

JUBILEE GRANDSTAND VICTIM

THE REVIEW'S photographer was on hand to get this exclusive picture of Barney Broda, 5729 Kulick, Detroit, who suffered head injuries when a grandstand collapsed during the opening of Detroit's Golden Anniversary Jubilee. The victim was rushed to Receiving hospital.

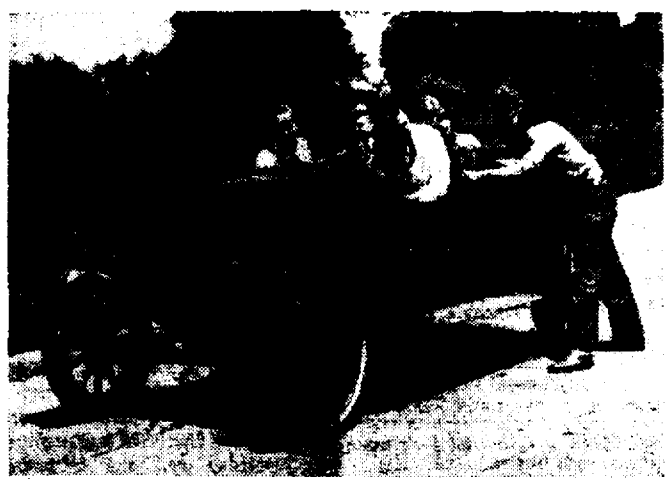

Kirby Qualified for State Senate Post

"I am a candidate for the Republican nomination for state senator in this district, because I believe that my practical experience in administrative and legislative affairs qualifies me to represent the people of this district intelligently in Lansing" is a message to the voters of this district from William G. Kirby, Detroit businessman, Grosse Pointe Farms councilman, and a candidate for state senator at the primary election, June 18.
Married and the father of two children, Kirby's keen sense of civic responsibility is evidenced by his service, without compensation, as a member of the Farms trustees, where his progressiveness and capabilities to meet any situation have become an outstanding example for others to follow.

These 5 Men May Save the World

This group of 5 distinguished Americans was elected together by Uncle Sam for 8 long weeks. They had a supply of midnight oil to burn. And the toughest problem of the century to lick. The problem: To draw up a plan by which mankind can conquer, not be conquered by, Atomic Energy. Now that their plan has been drawn up, it's being hailed both here and abroad. But it still lacks a most important element.
In the words of one of the group, TVA's David E. Lilienthal: ". . . our plan must be understood and wanted by you and all the people of the world. We have the frame of a plan, but it's your living room talk, your arguments around the table, in your clubs and union headquarters, which will put life in it."
That's the job "This Week" Magazine has set for itself. We've invited Mr. Lilienthal to give you the plan in our pages, just as he might describe it to his next-door neighbor.
Here's an article that affects the lives of every man and woman in the land. Written in your language . . . so that you'll read it Sunday in "This Week" Magazine . . . and help America do something about it . . . before it's too late.

A new idea in mulching, tested by the Ohio State University, is grass, grown between the rows of garden crops, to keep the soil loose and granular, and insure proper aeration.

Mulches as a substitute for cultivation are growing in favor. They have been shown by scientific test to be superior to as well as easier than, cultivation as a means of keeping the soil moist, preventing the formation of a crust and insuring aeration—the constant renewal of air in the soil, which is necessary to vigorous growth.

Mulches of fresh organic material, such as manure, straw, alfalfa, peat moss, lawn clippings and others, stabilize the granular structure of soils and prevent surface compaction, says the Ohio report.

In testing various mulching materials, it was found that when seeds of Cheeping's fescue grass were sown between plant rows, it produced the same effect as a good manure mulch, at considerably less expense.

Sown at the rate of 3 pounds to 100 square feet, this grass makes a thick growth, the report says. Cheeping's fescue is used because it withstands shade cast by the plants. Toward fall the grass dies out. Crop production is said to be as good as when any other mulching material is used, and the cost less.

This report suggests that hereafter home gardeners can sow grass seed between rows of flowers and vegetables and instead of cultivating, use a lawnmower. Eye grass is suggested for garden use rather than a fescue. Many other materials have been used successfully to mulch gar-

Paper Laid Between Garden Rows and Held Down by Wire Staples, Keeps Down Weeds, and Keeps in Water.

Waste lumber is used by some gardeners, to shade the ground between rows. By laying down boards when planting the garden, and walking on them rather than the soil, the ground is kept loose, and by shifting the boards between rows, weeds can be killed without hoeing.

Excellent results can be obtained from a heavy mulch of lawn clippings, applied a little at a time. The first application should be well mixed with the top soil, and then it may be built up to several inches in thickness, so that weeds are kept down and evaporation checked, but at the same time rains are allowed to penetrate the soil. Tomatoes especially like a mulch of this kind.
