"TONY" HAS TO GO . . . BUT OTHER "CURB SERVICE LAW" VIOLATORS . . . GO SCOTT-FREE !!!

Most conclusive proof that the Park village commission has enacted so-called "class legislation" of a highly discriminatory nature is seen in the pictures taken above by The Review.

Last April, the Park commission passed Ordinance No. 82, Section 14 (a), provisions of which state that "no person shall solicit business from or do business with passing traffic," or, "make any sales from a parked or stopped sales vehicle except to occupants of adjacent buildings or maintain a parked or stopped sales vehicle open for business for a period longer than required to fill orders from such occupants" or, "furnish curb service."

All three conditions of the ordinance are in violation in the three center pictures above, showing a Review reporter purchasing milk, lemons and bread on Beaconsfield, Nottingham and Somerset. The reporter in question is not a resident of the Park, does not live in an "adjacent building," had not ordered the merchandise in advance and was furnished curb service. No violation tickets have been known to have been issued for similar "offenses" in extension of a restraining order obtained in circuit court by Tony, which has prevented the Park from enforcing Ordinance No. 83, Section 14 (a), runs out tomorrow and a hearing is scheduled for circuit court. Circuit Judge Sherman D. Callender refused the Park's request to dismiss the case on Friday, May 24, because he wanted to study the case, remarking that it appeared that the Park was picking on Tony, it is reported. The Review is certainly not advocating an epidemic of "popcorn men" for the Park's streets, in championing Tony's cause. Such an eventuality can easily be averted by the simple process of refusing licenses. But The Review distinctly dislikes discrimination against "an institution" in the person of a veteran of World War I, Ernest "Tony" Koinis, the "popcorn man!"

THE RAINS CAME

Grosse Pointe and surrounding areas have suffered from torrential rains for the past several days, and as the present sewer system in this area is inadequate the damage to the homes of the residents has run into thousands of dollars.

This situation, of flooded basements has occurred twice in recent weeks to a serious extent, and it can be repeated. Action must be taken by the proper authorities to correct this matter. If the tax rate is insufficient to provide for the construction of adequate sewerage the residents should be made aware of this and a tax increase be proposed by authorities for residents' approval.

There is a definite need for a study of a possible program and plan for the improvement of the present system. Such a study cannot be ignored at this time. Public resentment is growing and it will not be pacified by mere promises.

We don't blame the authorities for the weather—but the inadequate sewer system is a different thing!

Navy Enlistees Offered Bonus

To insure continuation of monthly family allowance to dependents for period of enlistment men planning to enlist or re-enlist in the navy should do so before July 1, 1946, it was pointed out today by Cmdr. George M. Winne, officer in charge of navy recruiting in lower Michigan.

Former navy men who have been separated from the naval service for more than 90 days may now enlist or re-enlist in certain ratings which have been opened by the navy because of shortages existing in the naval organization.

A re-enlistment bonus of $50 for each year of previous active service and re-enlistment in rating held at time of discharge is offered to men reenlisting within 90 days after discharge. Thirty days leave with pay is granted to men re-enlisting within 30 days after discharge.

Ex-navy men would be wise to enlist or re-enlist for another cruise while the country is undergoing industrial reconversion. After labor disputes have been settled and economic conditions return to normal they can return to civilian pursuits

Boys Aid Farmers in Growing Crops

School boys from all sections of Michigan are being recruited to help farmers this summer to produce the food needed for domestic consumption and the famine areas abroad.

The program is part of a national setup established for greater war food production and has been continued as a means of helping alleviate the present food crisis.

Volunteers chosen on the basis of their willingness to face hard work, their stamina and moral responsibility, are prepared for their summer tasks through after-school courses in general farming techniques and terminology, and through farm field trips and sessions with implement dealers. The preparation is completed with actual operation of farm machinery in the field.

Volunteers must be 14 years or older, and the huskier the better. They are given some choice as to the type and location of the farm on which they would like to work. The placement office avoids sending them to immense "one-crop" farms where the youths would be faced with the monotonous task of doing the same type of work day after day said that many improvements can, will and should be made to correct many of the bottlenecks which are confronted in these last storms. All agree that every possible effort and study should be made to follow every possible avenue of escape from damages of thousands of dollars being repeated, even if it requires the expenditure of considerable sums of money.

cleaned after it had been reported, shortly after the May 31 deluge.

One spokesman for the group stated that he would sue the village and the village manager if the water in his basement damaged a new thousand dollar gas furnace installation. He said that he was told by a village employee that the sewer had not been cleaned for three years.

No Area Escaped—

So terrific were the downpours that no sewers in any part of any community were able to carry the load of water which ranged from cloudburst proportion to steady downpour. Curbsings were overflowed, some sidewalks covered and vast masses of surface water was still standing at a late hour Wednesday.

Very little damage was done here by high winds which attended the tornado in River Rouge and Canada. Victory garden enthusiasts received further dampened spirits as plot after plot was flooded with water which in most cases washed away many plants and still was standing 24 hours after the last deluge.

One enterprising gardener on Kercheval avenue in the Park had a man digging drainage trenches early Tuesday morning which drained his garden by nightfall of surface water.

Crowded Hospitals Remain a Problem

Because adequate room is not easily available in hospitals, the Wayne County Medical Society advised parents to arrange at an early date to have their children's tonsils out, when it is recommended by their family doctors.

The arrangements should be made now to avoid postponements when more bed space may be available, the Society explained.

With the return of fair weather, the most favorable conditions prevail for easing the child's discomfort from infected tonsils, but if doctor's schedules are crowded with appointments, some children will have to wait for several weeks, the Society observed.

Besides, some surgeons anticipate going on their own vacations during the warmer months, and are anxious to avoid postponements until their return, it was pointed out.

Navy Reopens Enlistments

All men with a desire for travel and adventure should avail themselves of the wonderful opportunities offered by the Navy to men between the ages of 17 and 30, according to Cdr. George M. Wlone, officer in charge of Navy recruiting in Lower Michigan. "Foreign cruises by the Navy were infrequent before the war, but now with the task of policing and maintaining bases all over the world Navy men will make many foreign cruises," says Commander Wlone. While experiencing many adventures and traveling they can also learn a trade and gain valuable experience that will be of great benefit when and if they return to civilian life.

Security in the form of monthly retirement checks after 20 or 30 years of naval service is offered to men who make the Navy a career. To men who prefer to return to civilian life is presented the opportunity to advance their education through the G. I. Bill of Rights.

Other attractions of naval service are good pay (with possible increase), rapid promotions for ambitious men, clothing allowances, family allowances continued for duration of enlistment periods contracted before June 30, 1946, comfortable living quarters, and 30-days annual leave with pay.

Enlistment terms for men 18 to 30 are for two, three, four or six years and for 10-year-olds two or three years or until 21st birthday. Applicants over 30 years of age are acceptable for enlistment if total active service deducted from present age places them in the enlistment age group.

Bob Wehmeier On Atom Bomb Test

Robert S. Wehmeier, MM 3/c, 4001 is in the flagship of the task force and will be anchored about eight miles from the blast so that scientists aboard may observe the explosion within the safest possible distance and take the necessary pictures.

The following excerpt from Wehmeier's June 3 letter home to his family describes his first glimpse of the scene that is set at Bikini for the test as seen from a boat entering the test waters.

"We pulled into Bikini on the first. It was really quite a sight to see all those ships, and to think that in about a month they would feel the effects of atomic energy. The battleship Nevada in her coat of orange is quite outstanding. The Jap battleship Nagato looks as though she will sink before the test rolls around. The good ship, the U.S.S. Brute APA 66 is also slated for the test. That's the ship that carried my team, and three others between the states and Pearl Harbor on my first trip out. (Wehmeier had taken part in the Okinawa invasion last year.) After she got me off the ship, she was assigned to the 'Crossroad Project.'

"Want-Ads will sell it in The Review.

On July 1, 1946, also known as the 'Fat Man' test, was conducted to draw worldwide attention, and scientists are hopeful that its outcome will give the world the knowledge it craves and needs concerning the strength of an atom bomb against a navy task force and its effect on climate, animal life and vegetation.

Along with 19 other demolition men Bob was picked to take part in the test and was down from San Francisco to Pearl Harbor, where he received his assignment about the U.S.S. Mt. McKinley as a radio operator. The U.S.S. Mt. McKinley

Vocal Audition Dates Announced

Which of this year's winners in the third annual vocal auditions to discover the best voices in metropolitan Detroit will be the June Gardner of the future?

Reward for the winning tenors, sopranos, contraltos, basses, and others who enter this year's contest will be solo appearances with the Federation hand during the summer.

Three of Detroit's best-known exponents on voice will audition the singers between 16 and 20 years of age who apply. J. Bertram Bell, director of the Detroit Conservatory of Music where the auditions will be held, is the chairman of this committee which includes Harold Tallman, choral director of Wayne university and Thelma von Elmendorf, voice teacher, Detroit Institute of Musical Art. Preliminary auditions will start June 22 and will continue on Thursdays and Saturdays until all applicants have been heard.

Finals will be held before the public at a future date at the Belle Isle Shell. At that time, the judges will hear the 25 or more singers who survived the semi-finals and from that number the ten best will be selected to appear in the finals.

Water Board Building 26, and application blanks will be sent, giving all details.

Authorities Clarify Playground Policies

At the regular meeting of the board of education on June 5, the policies regulating the use of school playgrounds were clarified and formally adopted.

Since many questions have arisen through the press and in communications to the board over the past year or two about the use of these playgrounds outside of school time, it was thought advisable to state in writing policies that have been followed for some time and to improve these policies in the light of modern needs.

In brief the stated policies provide: (1) definite procedure for groups other than the schools to secure permits to use school playgrounds for scheduled games and contests; (2) general rules of decency and order required of all persons using school playgrounds; (3) protection of neighbors bordering school playgrounds; (4) designation for baseball playing at the following playgrounds: Richard, high school, Mason school; (5) prohibiting golf on any playground and hard baseball on any other than mentioned above because the size or location of Deier, Trembley, Pierce, Kirby and Vernier are not adequate for hard baseball; (6) prohibition of any contests or scheduled games, or any public school playgrounds on Sunday mornings.

The policies also state that, because of the primary responsibility of the board for responsibility of its regular budget on keeping playgrounds in shape for regular programs of school children, no expenditure of school funds will be authorized for improvements, supervision or maintenance of these grounds, except where such expenditure contributes to the playground program involved in the regular curriculum of extra-curricular activities approved by the board, or for general maintenance of the property.

A recent example of this type of expenditure was the cooperative expenditure of the village of Grosse Pointe Woods and the board of education in the improvement of the ball field at Mason school. Since this hard ball games of the regular board of education supervised summer playground, it was deemed justifiable to make modest expenditures for village funds in cooperation with the school funds where the field will be used chiefly for ball games by the community which are not a part of the regular school program.

Suggestions Given for Meat-Extender Dishes

If you are one of those fortunate enough to have any meat to extend, these suggestions on meat-extender dishes may aid in making your meals more balanced.

Such dishes are not new, but right now they are very important. The old New England boiled dinner, baked hash, or baked beans with frankfurters have long been standbys. Add the creole dishes of the South such as shrimp creole with tomatoes and rice. Then there is Italian spaghetti with hamburger, chop suey, Shepherd's pie — all are meat-extenders.

Cereals are an important meat-extender. Spaghetti, rice or macaroni may be combined with meat in a casserole or loaf. Oatmeal makes an excellent extender in a meat loaf.

Escalloped potatoes with ham has always been a favorite. With ham all but extinct, sliced frankfurters with escalloped potatoes make a tasty combination.

If you want to hide that spiced luncheon meat, cube it and mix it with canned tomatoes, chopped onion and green peppers. Use this for a filling between two generous layers of cooked spaghetti in a casserole.

Stews, of course, are still among the most popular meat-extender dishes.

Today, interesting and attractive meals provide a challenge to the homemaker. The challenge can be met by combining ingenuity with "know how."

Expansion of production schedules to include six models was revealed Monday by George T. Christopher, Packard president, to company regional and zone managers, meeting for a three-day conference at the Fort Shelby hotel.

School Staff Praises Student Wartime Effort

The following letter to parents of children attending Vernier school is printed as a tribute to these children for their untiring work in the war effort.

Dear Parents:
Throughout World War II and during this postwar year, the children and teachers of Vernier school, with the outstanding cooperation from our parents and friends, contributed generously to the war effort. Now that these activities have been brought to a close, we would like to present the total picture of the school's effort in its determination to do its share to bring victory. Though impressive in itself, this itemized report of tangible contributions is only part of the total picture. For there remain, uncounted, the hours of work in salvage and other collections, in bond sales and Junior Red Cross work. Too, we must think of the children's patriotic practices in saving food, care of shoes and clothing, entertaining at Marine hospital, writing of letters and sending gifts to Mr. Wiedyke and to relatives and friends, and walking to and from school during gasoline rationing and when the busses broke down. And there is more.

And while serving their country, in their own way, the children (and surely all of us) have gained for themselves, educationally, many values that are already showing up in their daily living.

A total of 1458 tray and nut cup favors; 300 decorated napkins; 547 menu covers; 544 holiday cards; 172 story booklets; 50 calendars; 14 games; 36 decks of playing cards; 2413 adults' and children's magazines for hospitals; 14 pounds of candy; 88 tray mats; 28 carnival caps; 173 crossword puzzles; 165 song books; 67 cartoon books; 11 jigsaw puzzles; 501 books; 39 gifts for soldiers; 2500 boat and airplane pictures, requested for Marine base; one rug; one aigan, knitted by the children; 70 wire hangers for hospital; 254 children's toys and books; 681 articles for children's boxes; three yes-painted spoons for toys; two wasters; and 18 pounds of white cloth for can or drive.

The Vernier staff wishes for all of us a most pleasant summer.

Gloria Dei Observes Dedication Anniversary
June 24 is the first anniversary of the dedication of the Gloria Dei Lutheran church building. The only church within a mile of Kelly road and State Fair.
In memory of this day, Sunday and Monday, June 23 and 24, are being set aside as days of special observance. Sunday morning at 10:45 a service of praise will be led by Pastor Anderson. At the close of the service, the new steeple cross will be blessed. A special anthem will be rendered by the choir with Mrs. Virginia Clark at the organ.
Monday night, at a potluck supper open to the public, movies of the congregation and a brief historical sketch will furnish the chief interest. Musical numbers and group singing will complete the evening.
Four hundred dollars is the sum mentioned by the committee by which the building debt is to be reduced through free will offerings in connection with the festival.
From June, 1944 to June 24, 1945, church and Sunday school were held in the little four-room house at 16638 Fairmount drive. Three of the rooms and the basement were used while the pastor and his wife reserved the bedroom for themselves. It took many anxious months before the new building was completed. First, permission had to be obtained from the WPB, then funds to meet the $14,500 building and property cost. The board of American missions of the U.L.G.A., and the Michigan synod helped here. Finally, materials had to be obtained. There was much delay but Coe & Asselin, building contractors, and their workers stuck to the task and completed their work in time for the dedication on June 24, 1945. At that time, average attendance at Sunday school and church combined was 60. Today, it is 160.
The anniversary committee is composed of Albert Hoellmann, chairman; Phillip Schwinkendorf, Gladys McNary, Marvin Roberts and Leatha Reeve have been laying plans for many weeks and everything is now in readiness for the occasion.

Jack Simmons Wins Batting Championship

From an also-ran to team champion—that's the story of Jack Simmons' 1946 baseball career with the University of Detroit. The 237-pound outfielder, who came to U. of D. from St. Ambrose high school, was almost dropped from the squad before the season opened, but he survived long enough to win the team batting championship.

The result: A .325 batting mark, good enough for the team championship, and the top mark in runs batted in—10 in 15 games.

Week Ended by Pittsburgh

Detroit Wolverine soccer team met defeat in Pittsburgh, Sunday, when the Pittsburgh Indians beat them 4 to 0. The Wolverines entered this contest unbeaten, having won two and tied one.

Next home game for the locals will be Sunday afternoon, June 30, at the University of Detroit stadium with the Vikings.

Farms Tax Levy Raised For 1946

On June 11th the village council made up the budget for the Farms. The 1946 appropriations for operating purposes are all higher except in one case where the personnel was reduced. Most of the increases are for the purchase of equipment as there are all former employees called to the armed forces have now returned. The positions of these men were held open and certain of the services rendered by the village were curtailed during the war.

The extraordinary appropriation represents special items which are not a part of the general operating budget. Appropriations or expenditures in this classification are a result of constant planning to keep ahead of the special improvement demands of a growing community.

Last year's extraordinary appropriation of $35,500.10 was used in the following manner:

Sidewalk and curb repair	$ 452.63
Equipment	2,912.01
Sewer Replacement	5,000.00
New Sewers	5,394.00
Contribution to support the Veterans' Affairs Bureau	2,054.50
For survey and purchase of Pier park property	10,629.25
For park improvements	4,758.70

The balance of approximately $24,000.00 was transferred to the public improvement reserve fund, which now totals approximately $74,000.00, being set aside for needed planned improvements or for future postwar planning. The appropriation for 1946 of $37,157.22 is for the following purposes:

Park Improvements	$ 1,750.00
Pier Park Bathing Beach	4,800.00
Contributions towards Veterans Affairs	2,157.22
New Sewers	11,441.22
Future Pier Construction Plans	2,500.00
Contingent	5,000.00

Approximate amount to be transferred to the public improvement reserve fund: 9,500.00

Another major item of planned maintenance is included in the public works budget, that is the annual expenditure for pavement maintenance. In 1944 the village spent $10,000. In 1945 $12,500 and this year it is planned to do an additional 20,000 square yards of this type of work calling for an expenditure of approximately $57,200.

The village has always been very fortunate in obtaining, without charge to the taxpayers in any form whatsoever, civic minded resident taxpayers to discharge expenditures, to impose regulations and to plan for the future. One of the examples of this planning is represented in the present budget for the village for the summer period of the coming year. The new village approved budget, which has been developed into a bid park area and new streets, natural bathing facilities, and a sand beach will be a startling surprise to many of the Farms citizens.

Best Protection Against Smallpox

Detroit children should be vaccinated against smallpox and immunized against typhoid fever and diphtheria before their summer vacations, the Wayne County Medical Society emphasized in a statement Friday.

"Parents who have not already done so should take the essential precaution to safeguard their children's health before they go away to summer camps instead of waiting until they return," the society stated.

"One of the most important factors in reducing such diseases in the city is the availability of medical facilities," said Dr. W. B. Harm, president of the society. "When children go to the country they are subject to more chances of suffering contagious illnesses unless they are protected beforehand."

"Parents should see that their children avoid unpasteurized milk. Children should be taught to avoid drinking water that has not been approved by adults. They also should learn to swim without swallowing water or getting it in their nostrils. Many diseases are water-borne and rural areas do not afford the public protection given by hourly inspections of city drinking water."

Doctor Harm explained that the need for pre-vacation treatment was necessary for several reasons.

"Aside from the obvious protection it gives the children and society generally, the early immunization against communicable and contagious diseases requires injections or inoculations spaced out over a period of at least two weeks," he said.

"Although many doctors have returned from military service there are still not enough doctors to provide their services at the patient's convenience. Doctors want to serve, but a last-minute rush is an inconvenience to everybody."

Marine Aviation Enlistments Open

With the primary mission of assisting the organization, training and maintenance of the Marine reserve aviation squadron based at the Naval Air Station at Grosse Ile, Lieut. Col. Roy L. Kline, USMC, commanding officer of the Marine air detachment at the island base announced recently that the detachment has been authorized by the commandant of the Marine Corps to re-enlist honorably discharged Marine aviation personnel for aviation duty at Grosse Ile.

Marine veterans can enlist for two, three or four-year periods and can normally expect to complete a tour of aviation duty with the Marine air detachment at the naval air station. A normal tour of duty will consist of from 12 to 24 months and an appropriate number of flight orders will be available for personnel whose duties warrant them.

Former Marines who have been discharged for a period of less than 90 days can re-enlist with the same rank they held when discharged. If they have been discharged more than 90 days, however, MT sergeants can re-enlist as staff sergeants, technical and staff sergeants as sergeants, sergeants as corporals, corporals as Pfc's, and Pfc's may re-enlist with that rank regardless of the length of time since discharge.

Further information may be obtained by contacting the commanding officer of the Marine air detachment, Lieut. Col. Kline, USMC, at the Naval Air Station, Grosse Ile, Telephone Trenton 1200, ext. 22.

Training Flights for Senior Scouts

Recognizing the character-building and citizenship-training values in Scouting's senior program, and realizing the immediate and long range values of such a program in developing a widespread interest in and familiarity with aviation's future, the U. S. Army has approved a two-week encampment for Michigan's senior Scouts at Selfridge Field, near Mt. Clemens, during the period June 30 to July 13.

It is a real tribute to the Boy Scouts of America, that our government makes available its modern technical facilities, air force classrooms and instructors, and authorizes at least one training flight, in army aircraft, for every Scout attending and encampment.

The training program, being planned by the commanding officer of Selfridge Field and his technical staff, includes instructions and practice in communications, weather, navigation, emergency equipment, link training, parachute, marksmanship, and drill formations.

Total cost for each senior is only $15 for the full two weeks period. This includes food, housing, social events, athletic program, and recreation. The facilities of Selfridge Field such as the post exchange, post laundry, and post theatre are being made available to the seniors during their two week stay.

Detailed information has already been forwarded to each senior Scout leader in our council. Further inquiries may be directed to the encampment director, Robert C. Reusch, local council office, 51 W. Warren, TE 1-1600.

IT TAKES MONEY TO RUN A CITY..

This is a simple story about Detroit city taxes. It is a part of the story about what happens to the money with which you pay your electric bill. In 1945, in addition to state and federal taxes of even larger amounts, The Detroit Edison Company paid $1,467,857 in taxes to the City of Detroit.

That $1,467,857 was a part of your electric bill that had nothing to do with charges for electric service. It did go a long way toward paying the cost of your city government, and that is the way those costs do get paid under the American form of government.

Take the total 1944-45 cost of operating the offices of the Mayor, the Auditor General, the City Clerk, the Controller, the Treasurer and the Corporation Counsel and add to that the total cost of the Common Council, the Election Commission and the Civil Service Commission. The 1945 Detroit Edison tax was enough to cover all of that, with nearly enough left over to pay the $1,097,762 it took to operate the Detroit Recorder's Court.

The city tax paid annually by The Detroit Edison Company would pay the cost of more than 25 general city elections.

Last year the sum was sufficient to pay the total operating and maintenance costs of the Public Lighting Commission, with $214,000 to spare.

The Detroit Edison Company, as a citizen of Detroit, recognizes that necessary public services must be supported.

It must be remembered, however, that the $1,467,857 was on your electric bill but was NOT a charge for electric service. Let's keep the record straight and the facts clear.

Veterans Assured Re-Imbursement On School Expenses

Veterans who entered school at their own expense while they were on terminal leave or while they were hospitalized and awaiting discharge before Dec. 28, 1945 may receive refunds for tuition, books and supplies under a Veterans Administration procedure announced this week.

No provision was made for such cases in the original GI Bill passed in June, 1944. But the amended GI Bill approved Dec. 28, 1945, did cover them.

Under the procedure set up by VA, refunds will be handled through the VA regional office having jurisdiction over the area in which each veteran lives. VA will pay the refunds to the educational institution after it has reimbursed him. The procedure follows:

Necessary Procedure—

1. The veteran must obtain a certified statement from the school he attended, giving the period he was enrolled, the course of studies he pursued, and the money he paid for tuition, books and supplies. The statement must indicate that the institution has reimbursed him for the money he spent.

2. The veteran must submit this certified statement to the VA regional office of his area. If he was on terminal leave at the time, he must include a photostatic copy of the service order placing him on terminal leave. If he was hospitalized, he must include a statement by the proper official of the station, post or hospital in which he was receiving treatment, including information as to the date of his discharge or, if he still is hospitalized, of the probable discharge date. Whether he was on terminal leave or whether he was hospitalized, he must include an official VA application for education or training in event he has not already filled one.

Voucher Required—

3. The institution must submit to the same regional office a public voucher covering the amount refunded to the veteran.

VA explained it can make refunds only if the institution in which the veteran was enrolled had been approved by the appropriate state agency. The money refunded must not exceed the amount which VA would have authorized for education or training under instruction in effect during the period for which the veteran is asking reimbursement.

Since the GI Bill was amended by Public Law 268, a serviceman otherwise eligible for benefits may apply for training and enter a school as he is on terminal leave or while he is hospitalized pending discharge. The school then can bill VA for his expenses along with those of other veteran-students. However, he can not receive subsistence allowances while on terminal leave or hospitalized, VA said.

GRADS ENJOYING "THRILL" DANCE

The snack bar was a popular place, Friday night, when the Brownell and Pierce Junior high school grads attended a dance in their honor at the Neighborhood club.

Junior High Grads Attend Dance

The "Graduation Thrill Dance" sponsored by the graduation classes of Brownell and Pierce Junior high schools at the Neighborhood club last Friday night took top rating in successful dances. Using a state fair as the theme the hall was gaily decorated with colored lights and crepe paper. Drawings of farm animals and traditional fair refreshments, cotton candy, pop and hot dogs lined the walls.

Highlighting the gala evening was a grand march and a lucky number dance. The last couple's number to be called received a prize.

Marie Van Zanen and Dick Fordon were co-chairmen of the affair; and were assisted by the various committees.

Janet Johnston headed the decoration committee with Carol Grylls, Dan Burke, Doris Dising, LeRoy Johnson, and Bill and Phil Pierce lending a helping hand.

Bruce Wolf assisted by Alex Scottford, Pat Hammond, Marcel Fairjeff and Gladys Oftermann planned the refreshments.

Records were kept playing by Bob Bolo and his committee consisting of Bob Stebbins and Jack Fife.

Midnight tolled the ending hour when the 75 couples of 9A and 9B students made their weary way homeward.

U. of M. Takes Over Willow Run Airport

Development of giant Willow Run airport into an extensive aeronautical research center is the objective of the University of Michigan now that the WAA has turned the 1,450 acre field over to the university.

Acquisition of the airport will enable the university to have one of the greatest research centers in the world. Research in all phases of aircraft, aviation, and airport management and operation would be carried on by the university at Willow Run. A supersonic wind tunnel large enough to obtain data on aircraft flying at 3,000 miles an hour or faster is to be part of the new equipment at the airport.

Farms Tax Levy Raised For 1946

On June 11th the village council idea as to the figures which go to make up the budget for the Farms. The 1946 appropriations for operating purposes are all higher except in one case where the personnel was reduced. Most of the increases are slight, but some are not so there are sharp increases in personnel called for that all former employees except the armed forces have now returned. The positions of these men were held open and certain of the services rendered by the village were curtailed during the war.

The extraordinary appropriation represents special items which are not a part of the general operating budget. Appropriations or expenditures in this classification are a result of constant planning to keep ahead of the special improvement demands of a growing community. Last year's extraordinary appropriation of $55,300.10 was used in the following manner:

Sidewalk and curb repair	$ 452.63
Equipment	2912.01
Sewer Replacement	5,000.00
New Sewers	5,394.00
Contribution to support the Veterans' Affairs Bureau	2,054.50
For survey and purchase of Pier park property	10,620.25
For park improvements	4,738.70

The balance of approximately $24,000.00 was transferred to the public improvement reserve fund, which now totals approximately $74,000.00, being set aside for needed planned improvements or for future postwar planning. The appropriation for 1946 of $37,157.22 is for the following purposes:

Park Improvements	$ 1,750.00
Pier Park Bathing Beach	4,800.00
Contributions towards Veterans Affairs	2,157.22
New Sewers	11,441.22
Future Pier Construction Plans	2,800.00
Contingent	5,000.00
Approximate amount to be transferred to the public improvement reserve fund	9,500.00

Another major item of planned maintenance is included in the public works budget, that is the annual expenditure for pavement maintenance. In 1944 the village spent $4,000.00. In 1945 $6,250.00 and this year it is planned to do an additional 10,000 square yards of this type of work calling for an expenditure of approximately $5,750.00.

The village has always been very fortunate in obtaining without charge to the taxpayers in any form whatsoever, the needed resident taxpayers to direct expenditures, to impose regulations and to plan for the future. One of the examples of this planning is represented in the original facilities provided for the summer period at the beach. This was a grand success which has been duplicated at the lake park, and now the village has had bathing facilities and a sand beach well well starting supplied to many of the Farms citizens.

Whether he was on terminal leave or whether he was hospitalized, he must include an official VA application for education or training in event he has not already filled one.

Voucher Required—
3. The institution must submit to the same regional office a public voucher covering the amount refunded to the veteran.

VA explained it can make refunds only if the institution in which the veteran was enrolled had been approved by the appropriate state agency. The money refunded must not exceed the amount which VA would have authorized for education or training under instruction in effect during the period for which the veteran is asking reimbursement.

Since the GI Bill was amended by Public Law 268, a serviceman otherwise eligible for benefits may apply for training and enter a school as he is on terminal leave or while he is hospitalized pending discharge. The school then can bill VA for his expenses along with those of other veteran-students. However, he can not receive subsistence allowances while on terminal leave or hospitalized, VA said.

GRADS ENJOYING "THRILL" DANCE

The snack bar was a popular place, Friday night, when the Brownell and Pierce Junior high school grads attended a dance in their honor at the Neighborhood club.

Junior High Grads Attend Dance

The "Graduation Thrill Dance" sponsored by the graduation classes of Brownell and Pierce Junior high schools at the Neighborhood club last Friday night took top rating in successful dances. Using a state fair as the theme the hall was gaily decorated with colored lights and crepe paper. Drawings of farm animals and traditional fair refreshments, cotton candy, pop and hot dogs lined the walls.

Highlighting the gala evening was a grand march and a lucky number dance. The last couple's number to be called received a prize.

Marie Van Zanen and Dick Ford were co-chairmen of the affair; and were assisted by the various committees.

Janet Johnston headed the decoration committee with Carol Grylls, Dan Burke, Doris Dising, LeRoy Johnson, and Bill and Phil Pierce lending a helping hand.

Bruce Wolf assisted by Alex Scottford, Pat Hammond, Marcel Fairleff and Gladys Oftermann planned the refreshments.

Records were kept playing by Bob Bolo and his committee consisting of Bob Stebbins and Jack Fife.

Midnight tolled the ending hour when the 75 couples of 9A and 9B students made their weary way homeward.

U. of M. Takes Over Willow Run Airport

Development of giant Willow Run airport into an extensive aeronautical research center is the objective of the University of Michigan now that the WAA has turned the 1,450 acre field over to the university.

Acquisition of the airport will enable the university to have one of the greatest research centers in the world. Research in all phases of aircraft, aviation, and airport management and operation would be carried on by the university at Willow Run. A supersonic wind tunnel large enough to obtain data on aircraft flying at 3,000 miles an hour or faster is to be part of the new equipment at the airport.

COMO'S DEBUT PICTURE AT NEW SHORES JUNE 21-22

"Doll Face" the musical extravaganza of the year introducing Perry Como, the singer sensation to moviegoers will be shown Friday and Saturday at the Shores Theatre, and as refreshing as the songs she sings, Vivian Blaine plays Como's leading lady, Dennis O'Keefe the nonchalant man-about town adds humor to the colorful romance. Como is at his best singing hit songs of today and yesterday.

On the same billing Eddie Dean and John Barton star in "Romance of the West." The picture is fast moving, packed with hard-riding and fast-shooting cowboys determined to keep the West law abiding. A cartoon will also be shown.

Program to Feature Campfire Girls

Fran Harris "Red Feather Revue," heard regularly over WWJ, Wednesdays at 5:15 p.m., will feature the Campfire Girls in its third broadcast this Wednesday, the 26th. It is the plan of the "Red Feather Revue," a year-round program, to give listeners an on-the-spot broadcast from all Red Feather agencies in this new, year-round program.

Previous programs included attending a picnic with orphans from the Guardian Angel home, and accompanying a visiting nurse as she taught a new mother how to give the baby his bath. Programs planned for the immediate future include a visit to the home of a young widow with a member of the Visiting Housekeeper Association, and a microphone tour of the Jewish Community center. Other Red Feather agencies will be included until, after a period of about two years, the 125 Red Feather participants will all receive radio visits and the listening public will have a real opportunity to see the faces of these Community Chest donors.

The "Red Feather Revue" is a public service feature of station WWJ.

Community Chest Sponsors Program

The first radio program in a year-round series entitled "The Red Feather Revue" was presented by station WWJ Wednesday, June 12, at 5:15 p.m., featuring the activities of the 125 Red Feather services supported by the Community Chest of metropolitan Detroit. The program is being put on by Fran Harris in cooperation with WWJ and the Community Chest.

The "Red Feather Revue" is a minute program and is being divided into three parts — an on-the-job interview at a Community Chest agency, a Red Feather award to the outstanding volunteer of the week and the answering of questions regarding where to obtain help on personal problems.

One of the first city-wide projects to familiarize the public with the Red Feather, which has been adopted as the symbol of services of Community Chest supported agencies, the "Red Feather Revue" this week was broadcast from Belle Isle where children from Guardian Angel Home held their annual picnic.

Mrs. Francis H. Bourke was named the volunteer of the week for the outstanding service to community agencies she has given for more than forty hours a week as a volunteer clerical assistant in various Red Feather agencies. She is continuing the nurses aide service at Receiving hospital as she has done throughout the war.

As chairman of the central volunteer bureau, she can say that she has engaged in every type of activity that volunteers are doing through this Red Cross Feather service. She

DRAMA, COMEDY AT COLONY SUNDAY, MONDAY

Barbara Stanwyck and George Brent for years favorites of movie fans everywhere co-star in "My Reputation" appearing at the Colony this Sunday and Monday, and as usual turn out an outstanding performance. Barbara's charm and Brent's casual debonair manner go well together. The picture is a romantic drama with plenty of depth and meaning.

In a far lighter vein Pat O'Brien, one of Hollywood's favorite actors and Irishmen and the ever hearty warming Adolph Menjou do a fine job of acting in "Man Alive." The double billing offers a well balanced evening of entertainment. A color cartoon is also on the bill.

Scouts Plan Outing at Selfridge Field

Approximately eight hundred Boy Scouts from the East Side of Detroit and Grosse Pointe, identified as District 3 of the Boy Scouts Detroit Area council, will participate in their sixth annual camping out trip June 2-23 at Selfridge Field near Mount Clemens.

This annual event is known as the camporee and is directed by troop leaders and patrol leaders with the help of adult Scout executives. Purpose is to train the boys in all phases of outdoor camping, such as setting up tents and sleeping accommodations, building fires, preparing meals, and other activities of outdoor living. Each patrol that meets the requirements will be given an award for efficiency.

On Saturday, June 22, parents will visit the boys on the camp site from 7 to 10 p.m. On Sunday, June 23, the visiting time will be from 2 to 5 p.m.

Arranged through the cooperation of the U. S. Army, the camp site at Selfridge Field will occupy one square mile. The army will furnish drinking water, and milk will be available. Each Scout patrol will bring its own food and camping equipment, and will arrange its own transportation to the camp entrance on Hall road (highway M-59). From this point the boys will walk in and set up their own camps.

A feature of this year's camporee will be an army display of rescue equipment including boats, emergency radio communication, and food packs. Approximately four hundred tents will occupy the area during the two days.

At the campfire program, Saturday, 8:30 to 10 p.m., Scouts with talent will present various entertainment skits, and in addition the boys will be entertained by a noted professional performer. The District 3 event is under supervision of adult leaders James Christanson, 294 Eastlawn; Tom Mann, 54 Meadow Lane; and Clarence Floer, 282 Fisher road. Boy Scouts of the Protestant faith will hold their own church services. Scouts of the Catholic faith will attend field Mass.

During the two days, the boys will be prepared in the following skills: Second class first aid and the use of the neckerchief in first aid. Signaling (semaphore or Morse). Fire by friction (bow and spindle). Pioneering (making camp gadgets). Tia can craft.

Average income of the American family is $2,700—$800 more than in 1941.

VETERANS NEWS
OFFICE OF VETERANS' AFFAIRS
LANSING

Amendment of the surplus property act provides for setting aside for sale to veterans of World War II, exclusively, either for personal or business use, selected items in heaviest demand and in short supply. It also advances to a general priority second only to that of federal agencies veterans' former purchases in the purchase of any goods for use in establishing their own small enterprises.

Existing procedures generally will continue to government certification. Applicants must furnish proof of honorable release from service and a description of the property sought.

Veterans holding appropriate certificates may purchase items on the set-aside list for their own personal use as well as for use in a small business or agricultural or professional enterprise. Certificates already on file which include items placed on the set-aside list will be honored whenever such items are available. However, since all items on the set-aside list are in critically short supply, applicants will generally be limited to a single item.

Certification for personal use will be limited to items on the set-aside list. Such certification will not be made for items previously certified for use in a small business, professional or agricultural enterprise. However, the restriction against more than one certification may be modified to permit additional certification for items not previously requested which are on the set-aside list. For example, a veteran already certified for a tractor, finds a typewriter in the set-aside list, and wants to buy one. He may be certified additionally for a typewriter.

Applications for any item on the set-aside list will be accepted, even though the applications already on hand exceed many times the available supply. Certification offices have been instructed to inform applicants fully regarding the ratio between the approximate number of applicants and remaining stocks of the item requested.

Whenever any item on the set-aside becomes available, offerings will be made to the holders of personal use certificates in the same proportion as their total number bears to the total number of certificates on file for small business or agricultural or professional enterprise.

For example: There are 30 trucks available. The registered holders of 100 certificates and 10 personal use certificates on file, or a proportion of one to 10. Notification will be sent to the three applicants for personal use whose certificates bear the oldest dates, and the 27 applicants for non personal use whose certificates bear the oldest dates.

If a veteran holding a personal use certificate has no reserve but positive upon notification that the property requested is available, he does not have his place in the chronological line, but will be moved a second and third time, after which his certificate will be placed in an inactive file.

Veterans will be notified by mail or by local public notice where and when they can buy items for which they have been certified. Notice will concern availability of the item requested, location, opportunity for inspection, prices, lot sizes, etc. There will be no need for veterans to call in person to check the progress of their applications.

Certification on a new form must be obtained for purchases for personal use. They and all other certifications should be applied for at the nearest War Assets Administration office. In Michigan they are 424 Boulevard building, Detroit 2; 310 Kester building, Grand Rapids 2; 321 Peoples Building & Loan building, Saginaw.

School Mascots

This is the story of two kittens—a coal-black one and a snow-white one, who live at Mason school.

One windy morning in March Mitzi, a lovely gray cat, came to school. The children promptly adopted her and Mr. LeDuke, head custodian, arranged a corner in the basement for her home. Mitzi must have decided that Mason was the proper environment in which to rear a family for soon we heard the meowings of four tiny balls of fluff. Before long the sleepy mites had developed into frisky, playful kittens and everyone watched with pride as they grew.

Mitzi's family was drifting apart (as families sometimes do) so we decided to enroll two of the little fellows for permanent membership in the school. Of course, all kittens must have names and many were submitted, but all the children agreed that "Salt" and "Pepper" couldn't be excelled. So those are the names we hope to call our Mason school mascots for a long, long time.

AN ANSWER TO OUR OPEN LETTER

Thanks for your "Open Letter" in The Review of last week — you surely have a lot of people in the Park saying a lot of nice things about your stand. Let me start off and tell you that the entire situation in the Park is as given. If not, why is the Pierce High School field closed? If not, where can the Park ball team of which I am co-manager practice and play hard ball in the Park—we have been told No Place. I agree to the ruling at Defer. That fine playground has had fine supervision and it would not be well to mix hard ball and softball on that field. I cannot agree to the ruling for No Play at Pierce. I also cannot agree to the Park not being able to provide a hard ball playing field when all of the others including the Woods are behind the program 100 per cent.

Now just one word about the Woods—the scheduled game last Wednesday was moved to another diamond and the reason advanced was as given in the "Open Letter" last week. But that is not the case... the Woods' does allow hard ball... the Woods' even put up $250 (I am advised) to put the hard ball diamond in shape... the Woods' officials are interested in hard ball and intend to keep the Woods' team in the Metropolitan League with a home diamond. The game was moved to another field because the Woods' manager failed to file for a permit to play... an earlier permit we are old was given to a men's team and they have Wednesday nights. The Woods' team can and do play any other night on the Mason school field. The entire situation as outlined in The Review last week in the "Open Letter" is now leveled at the Park... every other Grosse Pointe community have supplied their Metropolitan League teams with a diamond to practice and play hard ball.

Let's get the boys off the streets — let's find a field for the Park team — let's find out a few things about the closing of the Pierce field — this thing gets better as it goes along. Who can keep such a fine recreation field as the Pierce field closed week in and week out — let's not wait, some child can be hurt and then watch the scramble. This is America and the national game is hard ball We, who have managed the ball teams for these fine Park lads know that they are entitled to a place to play. Isn't there a field down by the lake that we got through a deal on those lots near Pierce? Can that field be used for hard ball? Remember, we only ask what every other Pointe community is doing for their boys... and aren't the boys in the Park entitled to the same playing privileges?

Surely some of those dads who read The Review article and talked some about action can come forward Now... for your help thanks... and let me add one thought, as a veteran of World War I, I would suggest that a little of our city fathers' time be given over to the boys and less time trying to get "Tony" and his popcorn wagon off the streets. What about the "Good Humor" wagon that was pushed off Balfour because he caused papers and sticks to get on a few lawns south of Kercheval? (He moved to Nottingham and Kercheval and messed up those lawns) — did we yell? NO... this is a free country and the streets of Grosse Pointe are for travel and business... the milk man, the bread man... yes and for "TONY" and the "GOOD HUMOR MAN." The streets of Grosse Pointe are NOT for the boys to play hard ball on and that's what started all this.

Sincerely,
(Signed) HIL F. BEST

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor
Grosse Pointe Review
15121 Kercheval
Grosse Pointe Park 30,
Michigan

Dear Sir:

I believe that your paper could do Grosse Pointe residents a great favor if you would start a concentrated campaign for larger storm sewers. It seems that every time that we have a bit more than a normal amount of rain, many residents suffer with flooded basements. Certainly there can be no question that the majority of the residents would be willing to pay slightly higher taxes if it would mean that additional storm sewers would be built.

Your paper could probably sound out the various officials as to their plans for storm sewers that are in blue print stage, or at least pending, so that the residents would have some assurance that corrective steps are being considered.

The power of the Press is great—please use it.

Very truly yours,
Don W. Miller,
Grosse Pointe Farms.

India Famine Relief Program Planned

The international center of the University of Michigan in cooperation with the Detroit committee for India Famine Relief will present a dramatic and colorful Hindi program at the Rackham Educational Memorial Auditorium, 100 Farnsworth avenue, Monday, June 24, at 8 p.m.

The program will include several dance and vocal selections, and two short dramatic sketches depicting a typical family worship scene in a Hindu home, and the other a humorous one act play written by Rabin-dranath Tagore. Members of the production are Hindu students attending the University of Michigan.

This educational program will serve the two-fold purpose of presenting a picture of Indian life and culture and of bringing to the attention of the American public the concern of the American Friends Service committee for famine relief in India.

The American Friends Service committee has a need for $80,000 for administration of their work in the India famine area. People in India are dying of starvation. India contributes generously to UNRRA, but is not a beneficiary, receives no assistance from this organization because India's famine is not a consequence of active warfare: India's famine conditions are due to failure of rains at a time when her granaries are completely empty. India has not yet recovered from the famine which in 1943 took the lives of three million people. Conservative and reliable government estimates say that from five to 12 million people will die of starvation in the next six months in India unless help is obtained immediately.

Tickets may be obtained at Grinnell Bros. and at the headquarters of any of the organizations listed above. Dr. Nur Malik is the chairman of the local Detroit committee for India Famine Relief.
